"We went around the edge of it Tuesday trying to check it with water carried from the river," Mr. Hannon said. "It seemed then to be pretty well under control and I didn't go back there today. If it got out of hand and across the river it would get into the forest."

The fire was burning in an easterly direction Tuesday.

Mr. Hannon said there was no road into that part of Dummer. The nearest was the ninth line.

From Norwood it was learned that Arthur Jones and a party of six men motored up to the fire Monday, but there was no fire fighting equipment from any source sent into the area. Mr. Hannon said it appeared doubtful whether any fire trucks could get into the place. His home is four miles south of the Davy lots.

John McColl reported in Norwood Tuesday that the fire then was worse than he had expected from the news that came to him. While he was there he had seen flames enveloping spruce trees about 40 feet in height.

Not Their Responsibility

There was one report in Norwood that the Hydro crew decided the fire was not their responsibility, and after helping a while they took off.

Alfred Wheatley, district forester, Lindsay, said he had been notified of the fire Tuesday, but was not asked for help.

"That district is outside the forest fire prevention act," he said. "We had a call from the Hydro, and they sent out some men, but the responsibility rests with the Peterborough county council, and I understand they have men on the ground."

It was reported that the Hydro crew foreman raised the question of who was going to pay them for the time spent in checking the fire.

Reds Striking At Foochow

SHANGHAI, May 18 (AP) — The Communists drove a spearhead through Shanghai's "back door" almost to the Whangpoo river today. In South China the Reds lunged to within 31 miles of the port of Foochow.

Reds encircling Shanghai from the southwest drove to Chwansha, 12 miles east of the city, then struck back westward against Pootung. This guerilla-infested dock and warehouse area is just across the river from Shanghai's famed bund.

Central News said that Nationalist reinforcements were rushed to the China sea coast east of Shanghai, and these troops were trying to hit the attacking Reds from the rear.

Another Red force, the communique said, was moving toward Sanlintang, about five miles from the big Lunghwa international airport, but also across the Whangpoo.

Get Run For Money

It is not easy to assay accurately the situation around Shanghai but no longer is there any question that the Reds are getting a run for their money here.

(A Hong Kong dispatch to the Christian Science Monitor said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is secretly in Shanghai, apparently commanding the Nationalist armies. It said Gen. Chou Chi-jui and Adm. Kwei Yung-chin, commanders-in-chief of the air force and navy, are with Chiang.)

None of the dogged Nationalist resistance being shown around Shanghai was in evidence in South China.

Reserve Decision In Hastings Case

COBOURG, May 18—(ENS)—Preliminary trial of John A. Sullivan, Hastings garageman, on a charge of wilfully damaging a car owned by A. F. Sparks of the same village on December 4 of last year, concluded Tuesday afternoon. Adjournment had been made from Monday in order to hear argument on the admissability of a statement.

Magistrate R. B. Baxter allowed the statement, but reserved his decision until May 31 on a committal. Defence counsel J. C. M. German pointed out that the only corroboratory evidence of the Crown was that of Joseph Hynes who had testified that Sullivan paid him five dollars to set fire to Sparks' car and destroy it, and that Hynes had served a jail term for arson in connection with the same matter.

"It is a fact that the only corroboratory evidence is that of a convicted accomplice" admitted Crown Attorney Harry Deyman.

"Having tried Hynes perhaps I should not have heard this case against Sullivan," observed the magistrate. Mr. Deyman replied that the same evidence would have been presented.

"Yes, except that another magistrate might have taken a different attitude towards Hynes," replied Magistrate Baxter, reserving his decision.

Police Cruisers, Half Fire Dept. Roar Up After 2 Hours Finds Drowning Lad In Crowd

PAWTUCKET, R.I., May 18—When six-year-old Howard Heeks borrowed a neighbor's tricycle Tuesday night he never guessed all this would happen:

Howard sped off down Carnation Street's big hill.

At the bottom, close to the bank of a swift-moving river, he lost control and tumbled off.

Seven-year-old Ronald Rodrigues, watching Howard's wild ride from 100 yards away, couldn't see all the details but he was sure Howard had rolled over the bank into the water.

He ran up to see. Other people saw him running and ran up themselves. Somebody called a cop. Somebody called the fire department. Three police cruisers screamed up, neck-and-neck with a couple of fire trucks. Police headquarters sent a detail of men to take charge. An ambulance rolled in.

Firemen began dragging the river. For two hours they searched with no success.

It was at that point somebody spotted young Howard peeking out from the crowd. He wasn't even wet.

PC Summer School

BELLEVILLE, May 18.—It was announced Tuesday by Gerald B. Hyde, vice-president of the Young Progressive Conservative Association of Ontario, that the association's annual summer school will be held this year from July 17-24 inclusive at Deco Lodge, Gravenhurst, where it has been held previously.

Applications are being received at Ontario headquarters and the young people are being promised a full program, including debates, mock parliaments and lectures.

Keene Church Plans Services

The one hundred and sixteenth anniversary of Keene United Church will be held on June 5th when the guest minister will be the Rev. J. V. McNeely, of Oshawa, a former minister and president of Bay of Quinte Conference. Special music is being arranged for this occasion.

The Tillicum Class held the regular meeting in the Sunday School recently with the president, Mrs. Percy Wilson, in charge. Mrs. G. Murray gave an address on "The Eternal Springtime." The main speaker was Miss Myrtle Sargent of Peterborough who gave her travelogue entitled "A peep at the British Isles." The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Roy Tuthill. The travelogue was full of interest and mixed with humour. It gave us an insight into the British people and nation. Miss Bryce sang songs suitable to the occasion. Refreshments were served which added to the enjoyable evening.

The Sunday School and congregation picnic of the church will be held on July 1st at Keene Community Park when games, races and entertainment will take place.

Marmora Irishman, Near 89, Born and Lived Life There

MARMORA, May 18.—(ENS).—The honor of being the oldest male resident of Marmora village of Irish descent is held by Geroge Logan. George, who was given no additional Christian name and submits that one is enough, is now in his 89th year. He was born in Asphodel township on June 15th, 1860.

About forty years of his life were spent in Shanick, in the north section of Marmora township, from whence he returned to the village a few years ago. His father, James Logan, was a native of Otonabee township, and his mother, Mary Ann Carey, with her two brothers, came to Otonabee township from their native Ireland.

Irish Pioneers

One does not converse for long with George for long before detecting his Irish accent. Most of his stories of old residents of the village centre around members of Irish families such as the late Captain John O'Neill and others who were interesting folk of four decades ago.

George attended the North school in Asphodel township which entails a walk of two and a half miles from his home. His first teacher was a Miss Udy. He recalls that the scholars became so unruly under her that a big man from Hastings, whose name he has forgotten, took over her duties and maintained discipline.

Breaking in Oxen

George was quite young when he left school to help his father on the farm. His father, who used oxen, could not plough alone. Also the son broke in oxen for the plough when they were two years old. "I remember my first day's work away from home," he said. "I picked hops for Mrs. Thomas Parker of Norwood. The pay for 50 cents for filling a box about 3 feet square. Not only did I get my 50 cents, but she also gave me a little pig, which I thought was very good of her."

In later years, George worked in the lumber camps of the Rathbun and Gilmour Companies, and also received employment with jobbers. He has also done some gold mining in his time. He worked at the Borth Gold Mine at Ardoch, Ontario, for about three years. This mine, operated by an American company, closed up and all buildings were demolished when the vein ran out. George has the impression that other gold awaits discovery thereabouts yet.

He was also employed at the Cordova Gold Mines for two years and at Deloro for one year. He worked on the erection of the Sacred Heart Church and the parish priest's residence and earned for himself the title of "the strong man."

Never Hunted or Fished

He says that he never hunted or fished, as he never could find any time for either sport. He did have time for dances and indulged in a little step dancing in his earlier years besides trying his [illegible] inherited his taste for music.

Mr. Logan feels that people, including himself, were happier and more contented with their lot in those bygone days than now. Mrs. Logan, to whom he was married about 60 years ago has also lived an industrious life. Before marriage she was Josephine Burns, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Burns of Marmora. They have had 10 children nine of whom are living. George speaking of himself at his advanced age, remarked that the only thing which bothered him was to shave. His final observation related to the present season. "This is a wonderful spring and in all my years I do not remember a better one."

Obituary

MRS. C. HUYCKE

HASTINGS, May 18.—(ENS).—After celebrating her 68th wedding anniversary in February, Mrs. Charles Huycke of Hastings died recently at the age of 93.

Mrs. Huycke, who was Jane Elizabeth, was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs Luke Berry of Oak Hills. She was born at Millbrook in 1856 and later moved to Oak Hills, where she married Charles Huycke, fifth son of A. C. Huycke of Percy township, in 1881.

She leaves her husband, three daughters, Mae, living at home; Mrs. P. C. Watt (Violet) of Winnipeg, and Mr. L. A. Gould (Lois) of Stayner. She also leaves a son, Cecil, farming near Whitby. A second son, Ray, died 20 years ago.

The funeral service, which was attended by many relatives and friends, was conducted by the Rev. N. Cole of Hastings. Pallbearers were Robert Bibby, Malcolm Baker, Arthur Waters, Robert Collins, Fred Foster and Learl Humphries. There were many floral tributes.

Black Bear?

COBOURG, May 18—(ENS)—Perhaps there are no bears out Rice Lake way, but for a few scary moments one night this week, Curry Rails of Cobourg was positive that he saw one. Curry was crouched on the dock about to bend over to examine his hook when he saw a black muzzle nose around his knee right by his hook. Reports have it that Curry shouted "black bear" and almost took a nose dive into the water and then he got a good look at the "bear." It was none other than "Bogie", the Labrador retriever belonging to John Ewart of Cobourg. John [illegible] the lake and Bogie recognized an old friend when he spotted Curry.

A Practicable System Of Control

The people of Manitoulin Island have voted decisively for the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act and for the sale of liquor on the Island under the Liquor Control Act. We should have been surprised if they had done otherwise. The Island has had thirty-five years experience of the Canada Temperance Act and knows that it is unworkable; like all restrictive legislation which has not the approval of the majority it breeds hyprocrisy and contempt for the law. It appears that even the legal and police authorities on the Island made no secret of their dissatisfaction with it. Police who have to try to enforce one unworkable law know that contempt for the law and for themselves quickly spreads. Some of the clergy on the Island, too, were strong supporters of the repeal of the C.T.A.; they saw that it poisoned the moral atmosphere of the community by making law ridiculous and temperance a joke. The press of the Island, also, campaigned vigorously against the Act, and the publishers of the Manitoulin Expositor, in particular, deserve credit for their frank setting forth of what the Act had meant to the islanders.

• • •

The liquor issue will now be clear in Manitoulin, as in the rest of Ontario. The sale of liquor will be controlled, and bootlegging and profiteering can be punished. The police, the courts and the people will know where they stand. Thirty-five years of hypocrisy and underhand dealing will not be wiped out in a short time, but some improvements will quickly be seen; the paradox of a "dry" patch in a large "wet" area will be removed, and with it an inviting field for petty racketeers and scoundrels.

• • •

The Ontario system of liquor control is not perfect; there is no system which will always prevent foolish people from behaving foolishly, or ill-fated people from meeting with misfortune. But the present system gives liberty to those who know how to use it, and provides means for checking those who lack that knowledge. Manitoulin's decision will give its people a chance to show that they can behave themselves quite as well as the rest of the people in Ontario.

British Trade And Elections

We have discussed Anglo-Canadian trade at length in several recent editorial articles. It is of very great importance, and owing to the dollar shortage in both Canada and Britain, there are great difficulties. We have voiced our suspicion that Britain is restricting its Canadian buying more than perhaps was necessary. Confirmation of this view was the recent success Mr. Howe had in trade conversations in London, from which he was able to return with new orders for Canadian salmon, flour and lumber. We have also emphasized (in an article last Wednesday under the heading "Canada's Trade With Britain") the urgent necessity of Britain's increasing her exports to Canada so that from their sale she will have the dollars to buy our goods. Britain cannot buy what she needs from us unless we buy from her.

It is not [illegible] important matter as Anglo-Canadian trade should become an electioneering topic, particularly since the recent slump seems to have provided Government critics with ammunition. However, the trade difficulties cannot be resolved in a day or a month, and for Mr. Drew, "speaking in a rather slap-dash fashion" as the Montreal Star notes editorially, to promise last week in Newfoundland that if his party were put in power he would negotiate to make the pound and dollar freely convertible as quickly as possible, is nonsensical. It cannot be done quickly; it cannot be done by one person or one government. There is no quick cure for trade and financial problems.

Long range planning, which is the course being followed in both Britain and Canada, is required. Mr. Howe's recent negotiation in Britain concerned such plans. For the Conservatives in Canada to claim that Mr. Howe has persuaded the British Government to hand out trade boons to the Liberals for electioneering purposes is twaddle. So is the Conservative (Mr. Rowe's) insinuation that the present Canadian tour of Mr. Harold Wilson, President of the British Board of Trade is a Liberal Party election dodge—to dodge criticism about the slump in our exports to Britain. Mr. Wilson's tour was arranged long before an election was called. And the condition of Anglo-British trade makes his trade mission here at this time very necessary. It is unfortunate for Mr. Wilson that our elections coincide with his visit. He will have to walk warily and nimbly lest he offend the susceptibilities of short-sighted politicians.

New Peterborough Park?

The proposal to acquire for a park the land west of Clonsilla Avenue (the extension of Charlotte street) from the turn in the road to Sherbrooke Street and back to the hospital property should meet with general civic favour. The land is not yet built over; to acquire it later when houses and shops were located on it would be prohibitively costly. Looking at the city now some people may think that a park is not needed in that district. It is at the edge of the city, near the country where citizens can walk at will. Can they? They may walk on roads, but what country property is open to them freely? It is all privately owned, even Green Hill. The pleasant wood below Green Hill, with its creek, its cedars and beeches used to be an easily accessible spot for children and adults alike. But this Langford property was sold long ago; the next owner sold the trees for wood. Houses are now being built there.

As several councillors remarked Monday night, the time to acquire park land in that area is now. There are difficulties. One may be the cost. Another is that a drainage system would have to be installed. These difficulties are not insurmountable. If the land is acquired, trees planted, and a real but not necessarily formal park developed, Peterborough will have for ever a pleasant spot at its western gate to charm the eye of visitors entering it and to give adults and children over a wide city area a place for relaxation and rambling.

No Politics Without Humbug

Wild words are an invariable accompaniment of political campaigns, and politicians rarely fail to swell themselves to heroic proportions, while diminishing their opponents to the stature of depraved pygmies. This newspaper, for one, does not regret these facts, or wish for a campaign in which moderation and literal truth are strictly honoured. Moderation and literal truth are noble things, but they are remarkably ineffective when a man is trying to catch the attention of several millions of his fellow-countrymen.

George Elliot is not a popular novelist today but she wrote one novel which every man and woman who is interested in politics should read; it is Daniel Deronda. In that book the hero expresses his distaste for the shams of politics, and Sir Hugo Mallinger says to him: "A man who sets his face against every sort of humbug is simply a three-cornered, impracticable fellow; there's a bad style of humbug, but there is also a good style, one that oils the wheels and makes progress possible; there is no action without a little acting".

That is true. And in Mr. St. Laurent's beatific assumption that his is the only party which can possible govern Canada, in Mr. Drew's pretence that he is a clean-cut St. George doing battle against any number of scaly and morally detestable dragons, and in Mr. Coldwell's scornful assertion that all decency and honesty reside in his followers, we are able to observe a style of humbug which is by no means bad, and which keeps politics in this country from falling into dullness, and thence into the hands of bureaucratic drudges.

NOTE AND COMMENT

"Bulging pockets are taboo in the natty summer suit of '49" says a fashion note. Don't worry. After you've paid for the natty summer suit your pockets won't bulge.

A report from London says that British dentists are squirming because the Ministry of Health wants to cut their fees. Those who have squirmed in the dentist's chair will receive this news philosophically.

The Soviet now claims to be making champagne in the unusually short time of 45 days. The stuff is probably something they whipped up incidentally while trying recipes for the atom bomb

Our London Letter

From
CONRAD FROST

IT needs a long memory to recall a time when this was, traditionally, the "Merry month of May." The Ministry of Food have chosen to make it the Meals-Without-Meat Month. In Food Facts No. 464, the two column official advertisement currently appearing in every British newspaper they label it in this way, explaining meekly: "We are all faced with a food problem because Argentina has not sent as much meat as was promised." And they recommend as substitutes for a roast of beef; lentils, beans and split peas. Maybe, next December the Ministry will be given the job of explaining to adolescents that there isn't really any Santa Claus!

MEANWHILE, the President of the National Farmers' Union, Sir James Turner chose this significant moment to claim that the meat ration could go up twenty-five per cent. within a year. Twenty-five per cent.; that's three ounces each a week, and the extra mouthful would be pork. Two and a quarter million tons of feeding stuffs would be needed. Whilst Sir James gets one set of headlines, the National Federation of Meat Traders' Associations—but we just say "the butchers"—have got another by writing to Mr. Attlee asking him to meet a deputation to discuss ways of increasing supplies. Well, the suffragettes started it in the days when May was a merry month, the Communists copied them last week-end, and we may yet see a protesting group of lean looking butchers chaining themselves to the railings outside No. 10 Downing Street!

✧ ✧ ✧

FINDING rotten eggs to throw at the "bad eggs" of the community, the Communists, has become quite a game. Ordinary citizens, who do not normally indulge in the aggressive pursuit of Mr. Pollit, the Communist leader here, are wondering where the eggs are coming from. Far from there being surplus off-ration eggs as the Ministry of Food promised—their "Meals Without Meat" recommends "Add egg to other dishes for extra nourishment"—some shops cannot even honour the ordinary ration. A grocer who has had two extra eggs for each customer this year describes himself as lucky.

BUT there are more ways of cooking a Communist's goose than cockshying an egg at him. The John Lewis Partnership, an association of employees of the big London store, propose to make employees sign a political declaration on pain of dismissal if they refuse. A member of parliament has demanded to know "what are the security problems involved in the sale of ladies' underwear." And the worried radio script writers are now trying to make acceptable family jokes out of a riotously funny situation.

EVERYBODY is worried stiff about television, even the B.B.C. whose engaging Frankenstein it is. This week the first two-station sets left a London factory for the midlands. This week alone every important national newspaper has published at least one leading feature article on the subject. They say the cinema cannot survive, yet today the fifth major cinema company has applied for its own transmitting station licence. They say sound radio cannot exist much longer.

People are reading fewer books, The public houses are missing their evening regulars. Furniture is being redesigned. Every time a major sporting event like last week's football Cup Final is televised, television sales go up by many thousands.

Even those few thousand of us who had television before the war and saw dimly the shape of things to come, are staggered by the sudden momentum in television's popularity during the past two months. No social revolution in British history has so swiftly changed the way of living as television is changing life here today.

THE other thing that has staggered the planners, has been the sweet rush. The queues are over because the shops are empty. Today I went into two large sweet shops in the Holborn area, in neither of which was there as much as a solitary chocolate for sale. One shop with a daily take of £15 during rationing, sold at the rate of £115 a day until stocks were exhausted. £95 out of every £100 spent was on chocolates.

SHORT, too, are tortoises. Everlasting Boon

Canada's atomic energy expert reveals that one pound of nuclear fuel holds the energy of 1,000,000 tons of coal. Now if the experts can only figure out some way in which the nuclear stuff can be spooned into the home furnace, the man of the house will be forever grateful.—Fort William Times-Journal.

FUTURE GHOST TOWN?

Airlifted Coal

(E. J. KAHN, JR. IN THE NEW YORKER)

ONLY thirty per cent. of the tonnage ferried to Berlin has been edible; such is the complexity of modern urban civilization that in Berlin coal, not bread, has proved to be the staff of municipal life. It has taken only fifteen hundred tons of foodstuffs a day, or a little more than a pound per person, to provide West Berliners with an adequately nourishing, if not notably fancy, diet. But it has taken two pounds of coal per person per day to provide even the subnormal quantities of heat, electric power, gas, and other utility services they have been getting since they began living in a blockaded community.

Three out of every five tons of cargo carried on the airlift have consisted of coal. Quite a bit of this has been for Berlin's manufacturing industries, which have also been receiving a small but steady flow of raw materials, for without industrial activity there would have been even more unemployment in the Western sectors than there is now, and unemployed residents of those sectors have trouble, naturally, buying their daily allotment of food. (The Americans and British haven't been giving the food away; they have just fetched it in.)

Some of the industrial plants that have received airlift coal are below the flight paths that all airlift planes have had to follow, and now and then the smoke from the flown-in coal, as it billowed from the factories' stacks, has obscured the vision of the airlift pilots. Among the products manufactured by the West sectors' still-struggling factories are small locomotives, which have been exported, in airlift planes, to the coal mines of the Ruhr, where they have expedited the production of coal to be airlifted to the plants in Berlin that have created the smoke that has annoyed the pilots who have flown in the coal. The Berlin airlift has been a complicated business.

Letters To The Editor

SCOLDING AND IRRITABLE MOTHERS

Sir: In a recent issue of our Halifax Mail Star, I read an item from your paper entitled "Scolding Mothers", in which there was much room for thought.

Although my status as a single person may not qualify me entering into a discussion of this kind, nevertheless, in the march of humanity on busy streets, buses, trains, we have an opportunity to study human nature, so the thought occurred, that I might pass on a bright side to the picture through my own observation.

Not long ago while on my way down town, coming towards me was a mother and child, I should say about four years old. The mother was carrying two shopping bags, the child was crying, evidently wanting to carry one of them. Just as I passed, the mother not saying a word, set the bag down on sidewalk, and two little hands grasped the handle, not being able to lift it, she looked up with a little smile, as much as to say, "I guess you knew Mummy it was too heavy!" I thought how different the scene, had the mother just kept saying to the child, keep quiet I told you, you couldn't carry it.

An incident the other day, was rather amusing, while in a store a mother passed her little girl a good sized cellophane bag of candy, with the remark, "Now, don't eat it all at once".

And the mother whom I passed on the street, just at the moment when she was saying to a small child, "For heaven's sake don't walk under that ladder. Haven't we bad enough luck as it is." Instead of a happy little girl, she was being scolded for something [illegible] enough for superstitions when she knew what it was all about.

I remember, too, at Christmas time last year, a child was crying in a store, passing the mother in the aisle, a stranger to me, she said "She wants everything she sees, the latest is a purse". I looked down and saw the big tears, and said to her, "Maybe Santa Claus wants to bring you a purse, you wait, and see". She wiped her eyes with an expression, 'I never thought of that'. Somehow or other I hoped the child wouldn't be disappointed on Christmas morning.

Fathers, too, take their children for a drive and out for a walk, and I had occasion to see this side of the picture, only yesterday.

A little girl carrying a parcel, let it drop to the sidewalk, the string had become undone. Her daddy was ahead opening the car door, when he looked back, and said: Well, well, it's not your fault is it? How different if those words had been "Couldn't you be more careful, see what you have done".

Now, Mr. Editor, I feel sure you may think I haven't much authority to speak on this subject of irritable mothers, maybe overtired as your writer has stated. But I thought these illustrations would not be amiss.

Very truly yours,
MAY L. ROBINSON.

A BACHELOR'S PROTEST

Sir: In a recent editorial in the Examiner, a letter was quoted in which women were advised, now that summer is coming, not to rush into shorts, slacks, two-piece bathing costumes and similar garments revealing the true state of the female form. May I enquire, Sir, on whose side do you stand, that you should presume to assist women to trap happy, carefree bachelors and change them into typical dishwashing, diaper-changing, dollar-pinching married men?

Modern women, fortunately, have not a quarter of the allure that women had in grandpa's day, when a woman had only to reveal an ankle to start the wolf-whistle chorus. Nowadays, many a poor fish who rises to the alluring bait presented at winter parties and dances, swims away free and unhooked if he defers biting until summer, when the blotchy skin unconcealed by make-up, the flabby figure, hairy legs and corny feet of the bait stand revealed in a scanty two-piece swim suit. There is, however, a regretable tendency to return to more concealing, deceptive, feminine fashions, which should be resisted by all wise men. A female posterior, when sheathed in a long tight skirt and animated by high heels on nylon covered legs, has been many a man's undoing. But this same form when garbed in sandals and slacks... ! Shall I compare thee to an elephant's behind?

[illegible] fellowmen, inform your readers that your editorial policy is: Off with that tantalising invention of the devil, the skirt, and on with the slacks. Yours etc.,

BACHELOR.

Thriftiest of the Thrifty

According to the records of the Scottish Savings Committee, Forfar and Fraserburgh are the most thrifty burghs in Scotland.

For the second year in succession, Forfar has taken first place for savings among burghs with a population of more than 5,000 and Fraserburgh has gained second place, also for the second year.

Forfar headed the Scottish burghs with a total of £502,843, more than £50 per head of the population. Fraserburgh came second with £536,961, or over £49 per head. St. Andrews, Elgin, Crieff, and Largs came next in that order.

The result for the cities showed Aberdeen at the head of the list with £39 per head, compared with £37 per head in Dundee, £31 in Edinburgh, and £21 in Glasgow.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker? Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly: how much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth? (Job 4: 17-19.)

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven: if so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

Now he that hath wrought us for the self-same thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the spirit. Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord....

We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. (II Cor. 5: 1-6, 8.)

158 Per Cent. On Cigarets

Smokers of "ready-made" cigarets pay 35 cents for a packet of 20. Of that sum, the government takes 21½ cents, and the producer gets 13½ cents. The tax is therefore 158 per cent. In any man's language that is an exorbitant tax.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

College For Social Research

The foundation stone was recently laid at Oxford University, of a new college which will be devoted to bridging the gap between academic pursuits and practical affairs by specializing in social research. It has been endowed by Lord Nuffield and will bear his name. The Chancellor of Oxford University, Lord Halifax, performed the ceremony. It marked the beginning of a scheme which was first envisaged in 1937 but its initiation was deferred by the outbreak of war. Lord Nuffield then offered the site to the University for a new college together with $3,600,000 for its construction and endowment.

Women's Rights Discussed At Conference

By ALAN HARVEY

LONDON, May 18 — (CP)— Whether the women of post-war Britain are victimized just because they are women will be the subject for discussion when 3,000 delegates meet here tomorrow.

The occasion is the 22nd annual Conservative women's conference.

Under discussion will be a report by a Conservative committee on women's questions. If the conference adopts the report, it will form one of the planks of which the Conservative party will fight the next general election.

Broadly, the report expresses the view that present laws lag behind the modern conception of marriage as a partnership.

Some feminist organizations have recommended that a wife should be legally entitled to one-half of the partnership's income and one-half of the household goods.

The committee proposed that women should be allowed to sit in the House of Lords and said the suggestion had been warmly welcomed throughout the country.

Other recommendations include:

1. Equal training for women in industry.

2. Transfer at the court's discretion, of statutory tenancies from husband to wife in a separation case. As things now stand, a woman obtaining a separation order must leave her husband's home within three months.

3. Research to ease household drudgery.

Influential in drawing up the report was Lady Davidson, mother of four children and member of parliament for Hemel Hempstead, Hertford, since 1937. During the war she was the only woman member of the select committee on national expenditure, which had to decide how much should be spent on tanks, guns and planes.

Occasionally, she says, she fuond it difficult to separate her duties as housewife and parliamentarian.

WAR ORPHANS—With big tags on their clothes showing their destinations, 31 European war orphans arrived in Quebec City this week bound for homes in Toronto and Hamilton, Ont., districts. Edmund Coleman Buried

Rev. W. Gilling conducted the funeral service of the late Edmund Coleman on Tuesday, from St. Luke's Anglican church.

Mr. Coleman passed away in Lindsay, following a lengthy illness. He was widely known throughout the community by his active association with the church and having been in business in this city for many years.

Pallbearers were Victor Coleman, George Coleman, Jr., Raye Menzies, Richard Forde, Robert Gamble, and William Jeffries.

Surviving are two sisters, Mrs. J. Dodds of Suffolk, England, and Annie Coleman, of Peterborough, and three brothers, Charles Ernest of Peterborough, George R., of Peterborough, and Jesse Coleman of Melksham, England.

Interment was in Little Lake cemetery

Pirates Get Marv Rackley From Dodgers

PITTSBURGH, May 18 (AP)—It will be like old home week for Marv Rackley, 27-year-old outfielder, when he arrives today to begin his duties with Pittsburgh Pirates.

He'll find seven other former Brooklyn Dodgers here. They are what remain of 11 acquired in trades from the bums by the Pirates since 1947.

Still wearing Bucco uniforms are these former Flatbush representatives:

Pitchers Kirby Higbe, Hugh Casey, Vic Lombardi and Hal Greg; infielders Stan Rojek, and Ed Stevens and outfielder Dixie Walker.

The Pirates got Rackley Tuesday from the Dodgers for outfielder-first baseman Johnny Hopp and cash estimated at $25,000.

Dodger officials said they were acquiring Hopp primarily for first base insurance. Pirate officials did not hide the fact that they consider Rackley with a batting mark of .327 in 88 games with the Dodgers last year, will be a definite addition to a somewhat weak outer-garden.

P of W Boys Win

The juniors of Crawford's Grove School lost to Prince of Wales yesterday on the latter's grounds in a School Softball League fixture, final count being 20-5. It was a keen contest till well out when the victors hammered out a sizeable margin. Both teams showed improvement over earlier in the season. The teams:

Grove: Brown, Hamilton, Lindsay, Dreury, Simons, Little, Rowe, Hotston, Heard, Chesney, Wood, Bailey.

Prince of Wales: Barrie, Krogh, Northrop, Colt, Hancock, Carveth, Pullyblank, Clarke, Heron, Sparrow.

Umpire: J. Burns.

Yesterday's Stars

By The Associated Press.

Batting—Vern Stephens, Red Sox, socked his ninth homer of the season with a man on base in the eighth inning to enable Boston Red Sox to edge Chicago White Sox, 4-3.

Pitching—Bob Chesnes, Pirates, held the hard-hitting New York Giants to six hits and tripled and scored the winning run in the ninth inning in Pittsburgh's 3-2 triumph.

Cosmos Trim K of C In Neat Game

Cosmopolitans clouted out a 13-6 triumph over K of C in a lively City Softball League game at the Bowl last night. It was an interesting duel till the late stages when Cosmos took a commanding lead. Howie Dalton threw good ball most of the way for the winners, while Lucas was rather wild in several heats. Both sides booted the ball, but it was close till the eighth chukker. Dalton led his side at bat with four in six, as Carpenter got two for three. Thompson led the losers with two in four tries. Each team reeled off a snappy double play, and the fairly hefty gallery stayed to the finish.

Church Softball

George St. teams suffered three reverses yesterday in the Church Softball League. St. George's won 8-2 over the junior George St. squad, St. James carried home a 24-8 triumph over George St. bantams, and St. James seniors won 15-2 from their George St. opponents. The losers in each case were playing as visitors on the other teams' home grounds.

Two church contests are listed for tonight: Murray St. vs. All Saints bantams at Central, and St. James Seniors vs. Salvation Army at the Oval. On Thursday, Keene peewees are slated for two, against All Saints and St. Andrew's, while Keene juniors tackle All Saints, Murray St. seniors play Knox on Friday.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Workers were busy yesterday grading the ground at Miller Bowl as preparations proceed apace for the opening of the OLA senior "A" season here. With only a few days to go, the lacrosse box has been fixed up considerably, wire screening repaired, new doors installed, two wired-in players' boxes set halfway down and on the west side of the playing field, with the box for timers, press and penalties opposite on the east side. Somewhat different than last year but according to OLA regulations for the senior "A" grouping. Weston opens here and the schedule is expected any day. Something on the starting squad for the Petes probably after the Wednesday workout.

While the golfing spotlight swings to the Kawartha Club this Saturday, where the official opening is being held, ball sweeps will be staged this week-end and next at the Peterborough Club. These clubs meet June 18 for the Glover-Dobbin Trophy. George Carver tells a humorous golf tale of a competitor who polished off a flask the first 17 holes of a big match. On the 18th green everything depended on a long putt by him. As he got set, a dog trotted out and stood in line of his putt. The stiff putted right between the dog's legs into the cup. "A great putt," shouted his partner, "and with that dog in the way!" The other blinked and said: "For the luvva Pete, was that a real dog?" Good golfers, of course, don't get that way.

Two Roads Lead There

At the recent COBL executive meeting here, 'twas decided that the top three teams of the four-club setup would go into loop playoffs, winner then advancing into OBA senior "A" playdowns and the runner-up hitting along the "B" playdown path. Batawa Shoemen are slated to open proceedings here Saturday aft in renovated Riverside Park. Petes will likely go on Tuesday, the holiday, also, but whether at home or away we don't know at the moment. Maybe word will come on the schedule ere column's end. And we ought to get a tentative starting lineup before the lid is pried off. With the digging of the Lions' swimming pool near the park, one roadway down to Riverside is closed up temporarily, but there are two others open—one alongside the bridge and the other via Engleburn Avenue.

Three entries from out of town so far in the Jaycees' softball tourney for May 24, Toronto Dentonia seniors, Toronto Blamons—of intermediate "A" calibre—and the all-star Belleville Nationals. A couple of prospects from Oshawa and several local teams expected. They should notify R. McDonald (phone 2-0063) this week. City teams play for the annual Junior Chamber of Commerce Trophy, as well as for a crack at first prize of $200 and runner-up prize of $100. Entry fee is a double sawbuck. Last year, Johnny Russelle's B-A bunch won this tournament against some stiff opposition, local and out of town. Besides softball, there'll be harness horse races as another sports' attraction on the holiday in Morrow Park.

Much More Like It

Men's softball circuit dished up two neat duels last e'en for a fairly hefty gallery. Games were more like they should be in this loop, speedy and pretty close. Outlaws edged Uniteds 5-3 in a dandy scrap behind Gordon's steady flinging as Foster and McCarthy wielded potent wagon tongues at the plate. His support was better than that afforded Reid. Cosmos took the Knights 13-6 but it was anyone's game till the last two heats, when Cosmos pulled well in front. Dalton threw neat ball and led his side at bat, Thompson topping the losers. Games at the Bowl on the morrow: Cosmos vs. Jewellers, and Outlaws vs. Knights.

Odd angles make baseball a dramatic game. Jack Billingsley told us the other day that a batter and runner could both be out on the same play when the runner was hit by a batted ball. We couldn't see it, but it is possible—if highly improbable. On an infield fly the batter is out and, if the fly should hit a runner off his base, he'd be out, too. We should have known that, as a year ago we wrote of a possible triple play with no fielder touching the ball. Two aboard, none out and the batter pops up. He is out on an infield fly. Runner on first is excited and runs past the guy just off second, so he's out, too. Ball comes down and hits the guy near second, so there's the third out. Screwy, what? But that's one of the hundreds of oddities in baseball.

Outlaws Take Close Win Over Uniteds

Outlaws edged out a 5-3 win over Uniteds at the Bowl last night in the best City Softball League game seen yet this season. A good-sized crowd viewed the snappy, close contest, with Outlaws having a little margin on hitting and fielding to gain the duke. Red Gordon twirled steady ball for them and had fine backing, as Lefty Reid also threw a fair game for Uniteds. Foster led the victors at bat with three for four, and McCarthy banged out a triple and double in four. Douglas conked out at triple and two singles in four to top Uniteds. A double play by the losers and a pickup by Douglas were defensive standouts.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Man O' War, rated by many experts as the best racehorse ever foaled in the United States won the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico 29 years ago today. In that year the three-year-old created five records. His marks for the mile and three-eights and mile and five-eights still stand.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

The official opening of the Peterborough Lawn Bowling Club for the 1949 season is set for Tuesday, May 24, at 1:30 o'clock. It will be in the form of a mixed rink tournament and the draw will be made from the board promptly at the stated hour.

As this is the day the bowlers have been looking forward to and anxiously waiting for, it is expected that a large crowd will be on hand. Place your name early. This opening tournament will be as in former years "On the house."

On Wednesday, May 25 and Thursday, May 26, we will play the usual President - Vice-President competition. And on Monday, May 30, we begin bowling in earnest with the men's schedule.

Of course, all the arrangements depend on the weather and the condition of the greens.

We understand that the schedule books will be ready for distribution this weekend.

The first open tournament is scheduled for June 8, the Stratton Trophy for men's rinks; more details later.

Yankees Drop Indians 4-3 Tigers Trounce Nats 4-2

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Lou Boudreau is a worried man to-day.

The peerless playing pilot of the world-champion Cleveland Indians is burdened by a problem emanating from a most unexpected source—the Tribe's vaunted pitching staff.

"I know we are not hitting a lick" Boudreau said before Tuesday night's 4-3 loss to the new York Yankees. "But that does not worry me half as much as my pitching.

"Every one of my big four—Bob Feller, Bob Lemon, Gene Bearden, and Steve Gromek — has been laid up by injuries. I haven't gotten a complete game from any of them for nearly two weeks."

Feller has been bothered all season by a sore shoulder, and Lemon tore a rib cartilege while pitching against the Yankees in Cleveland last week. Bearden still has not fully recovered from a pulled leg muscle, and Gromek has a charley horse.

Bearden and Lemon won 20 games each last year, Feller won 19, and Gromek nine. So far the four have won seven and lost seven.

Down Indians

Bearden showed Tuesday night that he was not yet himself. Plainly favoring his injured leg, the tall lefthander lasted seven innings and was clipped for 16 hits as the Yankees defeated the Indians 4-3.

A season record crowd of 73,150 saw southpaw Ed Lopat hold the Tribe to seven hits for his fourth victory of the season. He has still to taste defeat.

Detroit's runner-up Tigers remained two games behind the league-leading Yankees by coming from behind to defeat Washington Senators 4-2 in a night game in Washington. Held to five hits, the Tigers capitalized on the wildness of Walter Masterson and Forrest Thompson to score four runs in the last two innings to overcome a 2-0 deficit. Johnny Lipon's single with the bases loaded in the ninth drove in the winning runs.

Philadelphia's Athletics moved into third place by defeating St. Louis Browns 9-2 in a night affair in Philadelphia. Alex Kellner won his third relief victory in his last three appearances, holding the Browns to two hits and no runs in 5 2-3 innings after relieving starter Lou Brissie.

Nose Out Chicago

Vern Stephens' ninth home run, an eighth-inning blast with a mate aboard, enabled Boston Red Sox to nose out the Chicago White Sox 4-3 and gave southpaw Mel Parnell his fifth victory against one defeat.

The surprising Cincinnati Reds moved to within two games of the National League leaders, defeating Warren Spahn and the Boston Braves 5-4 in a night game. Ted Kluszewski, sophomore first baseman, drove in the tying and winning runs for the Reds.

Bob Chesnes pitched and batted Pittsburg Pirates to a 3-2 victory over New York Giants. The defeat left the Giants still tied for the lead with the Braves. Chesnes limited Giant sluggers to six hits and started the winning rally with a ninth inning three-bagger.

Singles by Eddie Waitkus, Del Ennis and Andy Seminick gave Philadelphia Phillies a run in the 12th inning and enabled them to defeat the St. Louis Cardinals 5-4.

Ralph Branca became the first major league pitcher to win six games when he received credit for Brooklyn's 8-5 11-inning triumph over the Cubs in Chicago.

Say DiMaggio Soon To Put On His Uniform

NEW YORK, May 18, (AP) — Joe DiMaggio, New York Yankee's $90,000 bench-warmer, will don a uniform for the first time this season "some time next week," the club announced Tuesday.

Travelling secretary Arthur (Red) Patterson said that X-rays of DiMaggio's tender right heel taken earlier in the day were encouraging.

"Joe DiMaggio's right heel has been X-rayed by our physicians and showed enough improvement for DiMaggio to give it a try next week," Patterson said. "Joe will get in uniform some time next week and practise with the rest of the team."

DiMaggio has been out of uniform since April 12, before the season opened, when new pains in his heel, from which a bone spur was removed last November caused him to be sidelined.

Yankee authorities were unwilling to guess when he would be available for duty. However, one official said that recent talk that Joe might be placed on the disabled list for 60 days "was absurd."

SWEDISH TEAM DEFEATED

At Stockholm, the combined Gothenburg soccer team, which will leave shortly for a tour of North America, bowed 4-2 to Portsmouth in a game Tuesday before a crowd of 22,000. The Swedish squad will play one game in Toronto during the forthcoming tour.

Giants Shade Toronto In 3-2 Triumph

By The Associated Press.

A couple of "rookies" up from Sioux City of the Western League, Manager Joe Becker and pitcher Roger Bowman, are one of the prime reasons Jersey City Giants lead the International League today.

Becker, piloting in triple A company for the first time, has bossed the Giants to 15 victories in 24 decisions and Bowman has contributed five of the triumphs.

The 22-year-old lefthander, who won 11 and dropped eight for Becker at Sioux City last year, turned in his fifth victory as against one defeat Tuesday night as he pitched the Giants to a 3-2 triumph over Toronto Maple Leafs.

Bowman held the Leafs to four hits, walked only two and fanned six in besting Bubber Church. Trailing 2-1, going into the seventh inning, the Giants scored twice to win.

Montreal Royals took over second place from Rochester Red Wings 1½ games behind the Giants by beating Syracuse Chiefs 8-7. The Wings dropped a 5-2 decision to Newark Bears.

Montreal enjoyed a 7-4 advantage going into the final frame but the Chiefs tied the count on Carden Gillenwater's bases-loaded double and Sam Meeks' bases-jammed fly.

George Schmees tripled to open the home ninth. Rookie Art Hartley intentionally walked the next two batters but Toby Atwell followed with a run-producing fly to break it up.

Rookie first baseman Fenton Mole poled his third homer of the season in the eighth inning to break a 2-2 tie and Newark Bears added two more runs in the ninth to beat Rochester Red Wings 5-2.

Buffalo Bisons hammered Johnny Maldovan and Lacy James for 10 hits in defeating Baltimore Orioles 7-4. Two of the blows were homers by Coaker Triplett and Gene Markland. Al Cihoski and Glen McQuillen homered for the Orioles.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Montreal Royals, all wearing Balmoral bonnets, left Winnipeg Tuesday night for home with the Memorial Cup, emblematic of junior hockey supremacy. The bonnets, official insignia of Winnipeg's 75th birthday celebrations next month, were donated by a large department store.

The happy Montrealers, who vanquished Brandon Wheat Kings in an eight-game series, added to the festive departure scene by harmonizing with an assortment of musical instruments they brought on their western trip.

Britain and Czechoslovakia split the last two singles of their Davis Cup series at London Tuesday. Czechoslovakia with its 4-1 win, qualified to meet France in the quarter-finals of the European zone eliminations.

Tuesday Jaroslav Drobny of Czechoslovakia, defeated Geoff Paish 6-3, 6-0, 6-3, and Britain's No. 1, Tony Mottram, defeated Vladimir Cernik, 6-2, 6-4, 64.

The first national five-pin bowling tournament for blind bowlers is being held this week, the Canadian National Institute for the Blind said Tuesday at Toronto.

Scores will be telegraphed to the Institute's headquarters in Toronto, which will announce the winning team May 23. One team from each league or group of blind five-pin bowlers in Canada has been invited to compete. Normal rules will be followed, but the competitors will use a guide rail to line up their shots.

At Owen Sound, Brampton Excelsiors notched three goals in less than a minute in the final quarter Tuesday night for an 18-16 victory over Owen Sound Crescents in their Ontario Lacrosse Association senior A opener. Crescents lost their goaltender, Lloyd Wooton, midway through the last session when he was struck on the throat with a hard shot. Taken to hospital for observation, his condition was not believed serious.

Bulgarians In Line

SOFIA, Bulgaria, May 18 (AP)—Candidates of the Communist-dominated Fatherland Front received 92.01 per cent of the vote in Sunday's country-wide local elections, an official announcement said Tuesday night. Final returns showed 4,626,367 or 96.74 per cent of the registered electorate of 4,784,861 balloted. Total vote for the Fatherland Front candidates was 4,258,362.

DRIVER INJURED

Joe Bibeau, a harness driver from Harrington, Del., was injured Tuesday night at the start of the featured Arkansas race at Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, N. Y. Bibeau was thrown against the rail and he somersaulted completely over the horse he was driving—the pacer Oxheart. Queen Chief, driven by Johnny Simpson, won the $2,000 race, going the mile in 2:07 2-5, Pandora Hanover was a length behind, followed by Sultan Hanover. The winner paid $33.30.

WAGNER TO LEAFS

Catcher Hal Wagner will join Toronto Maple Leafs of the International Baseball League from Philadelphia Phillies of the National League, it was announced at Toronto Tuesday night. The 33-year-old catcher is a veteran of 11 years in the majors.

SURVEY MADE OF MOTORISTS WHO BOUGHT B.F. GOODRICH TIRES IN THE PAST YEAR

FREEDOM FROM PUNCTURES — "I drove 37 miles with Seal-o-matic tube exposed to the road and it did not puncture. I'm certainly glad I switched to B.F. Goodrich." — R. W. Vaut, Ottawa, Ont.

EXTRA BLOWOUT PROTECTION — "A 35% stronger tire body plus more and tougher cords spells real blowout protection for me. That's why I switched to B.F. Goodrich." — L. W. Armstrong, Lachute, Que.

LONGER MILEAGE — "After nine months driving on B.F.G.'s without signs of wear I am confident I'll get longer mileage than I've ever had from any tires." — A. S. Parfitt, St. John, N.B.

SMOOTHER RIDING — "My car rides smoother on B.F. Goodrich tires. They absorb more road shock, maintain correct air pressure and need little attention." — R. Knox Ferguson, London, Ont.

DEPENDABLE PERFORMANCE — "I have driven on B.F. Goodrich tires since 1936 and have always enjoyed long wear and trouble-free performance." — Peter W. Waslik, Winnipeg, Man.

Story of Rita and Ali Khan Right Out of Arabian Nights

By RICHARD KLEINER,
NEA Staff Correspondent.

This story could come out of Bulfinch's Mythology or the Arabian Nights. Among the characters are a man who frightened a nation with a few words, a girl who fell in love with a man because he sawed her in half, and a fabulously rich prince whose father is literally worth his weight in diamonds.

Yes, it's the story of Rita Hayworth, the "Love Goddess," and the Ali Khan.

"LOVE GODDESS" Rita posed often in bathing suits, but somebody said she'd even have sex appeal in a racoon coat.

Rita Hayworth is the creation of Hollywood. From an exotic, but slightly chubby, Spanish dancer, the movie world fashioned a modern "Love Goddess," as she was dubbed. They changed her figure, her hair, her eyebrows, her personality.

They turned her into the personification of sex appeal. She posed in a black, filmy nightgown and the picture was pasted on the first atomic bomb dropped on Bikini. She posed in bathing suits, strapless evening gowns and other sinister devices that entrap men, but it wasn't necessary; someone once said Rita Hayworth could look sexy in a raccoon coat.

As the "Love Goddess" it was only natural that her private life would be something apart from the normal run of things. One early marriage and divorce was more or less run-of-the-mill, but things began to veer toward the unusual with her second marriage.

There was a man called Orson Welles. He had been a Boy Genius, done some amazing things on the Broadway stage, turned to radio and scared the pants off the listeners with his "Run-for-the-hills, the Martians are coming" broadcast. He had gone to Hollywood and made some first-rate films.

Always on the look-out for something different, he decided to stage a tent show. Amateur-magician Welles planned to saw a woman in half. He arranged for Rita Heyworth to complete the illusion.

Fell In Love

Beneath the whirring blade, the "Love Goddess" fell in love with the "Boy Genius." It might be called love at first bite.

They were married in 1943, and set records for the number of times they separated and were reconciled. During each separation, Rita's name was linked with another handsome leading man. After one reconciliation, Orson committed an unpardonable crime against the world.

He had Rita cut off her long, red hair, and dye it blonde. Of course, her hair had once been brunette, but that's beside the point. Her red hair had been her trademark, a technicolor fillip that served as the Love Goddess' crown.

The picture, with Rita as a shorn blond, was a flop. So was the reconciliation. In March, 1947, Rita said the marriage was definitely "discontinued." She went to Europe, got her name linked with some eligible European bachelors, then came back and filed suit to divorce Welles.

There were rumors of another reconciliation with Welles in April of 1948. But she went to Europe again. Proving that a Love Goddess is really human, she became ill in Paris in June and went to the Riviera to recuperate. She saw Welles again, but her secretary coined a phrase and said they were "just good friends."

On the Riviera she met the Ali Khan, son of the fabulous Aga Khan. The Aga, who traces his ancestry back to the prophet Mohammed, is reputed to be worth his weight in diamonds. To make the gag worth the while, the Aga weighs in the neighborhood of 250.

From August on, the breath-taking romance of Rita and Ali kept the world gaping. They were together in Madrid and Lisbon and Biarritz. Then they flew to Hollywood together. Next they popped up in Mexico and Cuba and New Orleans.

Time out in December, while Rita got her final papers, shucking Welles. But the merry-go-round started spinning again, in earnest.

Women Incensed

They sailed for England, taking Rita's daughter Rebecca, the child of Welles. France and Switzerland and then the Riviera again. Women's groups, incensed at the conduct of the Love Goddess travelling with a married man, tried to boycott her pictures—box office receipts boomed.

They skied together, swam together, night-clubbed together, picnicked together—and together they faced the aging Aga in his Riviera palace. The Love Goddess' subjects waited for the verdict. Would he permit his son to divorce his wife and marry Rita?

Yes, he would. The subjects cheered. The Love Goddess rides rampant over mortal royalty. She reigns supreme.

In January of this year came the announcement that they would wed. In April, Ali got his divorce. In early May, Paris designer Jacques Fath and his crew whipped up 10 wedding gowns, from which Rita will pick the one best.

And, in Hollywood, the movie studios frantically worked over ambitious young things who aspired to the role of Love Goddess. Just in case Rita retires, they want to be ready. Love Goddesses don't grow on trees.

Cadets To Visit Banff

OTTAWA, May 18 (CP)—One hundred and fifty Royal Canadian Army Cadets will attend a three-week cadet camp at Banff National Park this summer as a reward for proficient performance in their corps, Army headquarters said Tuesday the 150 boys chosen from the 50,000 army cadets in Canada will spend two weeks in the main camp near Cascade Mountain. They'll spend a final week higher up on the mountain—preparing their own shelters and meals.

FIRE DESTROYS CHURCH — Fire which broke out as parishioners were leaving Sunday morning mass destroyed the 53-year-old Church of St. Vincent de Paul in Quebec City. No one was injured in the blaze which was battled for hours by all available firemen in the city. The church steeple collapsed a moment after this photo was taken.

Harry E. L. Jackson Buried In Emily

Funeral service for the late Everett Lorne Jackson of 622 George St., was held on Monday under the auspices of the Masonic Order. The Ven. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson of St. John's Anglican Church, assisted by Archdeacon C. W. Balfour, officiated. Pall-bearers were Charles Nevins, William Grigg, Herbert Lowes, Garnet Shields, George Hooten, and Robert McAdams. Burial was in Emily Cemetery.

Among the many friends and relatives who attended were Charles Nevins and Kenneth Armstrong, both of Brantford. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Medland Donald Darby all of Lindsay Clark Powers of Kitchener, Mr and Mrs. Keith Bradley of Pontypool and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Woolridge of Little Britain.

Mr. Jackson died on Friday at his residence following an illness of several months. He was born in Cavan township, son of the late William Jackson and Priscilla Dunlop, and came to the city about 20 years ago. Besides sisters and brothers mentioned previously in the obituary notice are one niece, Miss Erma Jackson of Peterborough and four nephews Ira Branch, Toronto, Herman Branch, Woodstock, and Clayton and Karl Branch of Smith township.

Fourth Child Dies

LOS ANGELES, May 18 (AP) —Georgette Bruck's fourth child died Monday. Georgette is the 21-year-old mother who earlier this year escaped prison by agreeing to sterilization. She had pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the fatal beating of her seven-month-old son, Howard, last October. A judge accepted the sterilization proposal. It took place at the birth of the fourth child in March.

$20,000 Fire At Wasaga

WASAGA BEACH, May 18 (CP) —A $20,000 fire which destroyed the Eberhardt Boat Livery and an upstairs apartment here Tuesday was caused by the explosion of a can of varnish placed on a stove to warm, police were told. Kenneth Eberhardt, operator of the livery, said the blast occurred while he was varnishing boats. Twelve boats were destroyed and about 50 saved.

A Pleasant Way To Do Your Duty--

We don't think there's a more pleasant way to do your duty to your Country than to receive, in return, not only money for doing so, but comradeship, recreation, a week at Summer Camp and the thrill of working with the big equipments that helped to decide the Battle of Britain and the conquest of the Nazis.

It's pleasant, too, because by doing your share of citizenship by joining your Reserve Force Units now, you will help to change any invader's mind about trying to impress his way of life on us.

It's pleasant, too, because you do get paid for your service, the same pay rate as your brothers in the Active Force (full-time) . . . and your total pay for just training two evenings a week will run into an amount that will amaze you when you step before the Paymaster for your pay reckoning.

And Summer Camp (this year from June 26 to July 3) is one of the nicest ways to spend a week off from work, especially when your company may be one of those who have promised to co-operate with us by giving you an extra week off with your pay made up!

Mother Sparrow Dies In Entrance To Nest Father Attempts To Remove Dead Mate

Mother Nature has her children build their homes in the most peculiar places. For the past 13 years, English sparrows have been nesting in the brace of a light-post on George St, just below King St. on the east side. The only entrance to their abode is a small hole in the north side of the metal brace.

Each year about this time the employees of J. J. Reid Photo Engraving Company hear the chirps of baby birds. Saturday morning Tom Turpin, one of the employees heard fluttering and chirping from the nest. He saw the mother bird stuck in the entrance to the nest. The male bird was pecking, pulling and pushing the mother. All this was to no avail. The baby birds were chirping their desire for food.

Papa sparrow flew for food. Returning he tried to push the food through the iron roof of their home. Mother sparrow was still. For 15 minutes the male bird tried to get his dead mate out of the hole. He jumped on his mate, trying to claw her out. Only feathers came loose.

Meanwhile Reg Reid and Karl Fowler, other employees, urged on by Mr. Turpin made a long stick with a bag on the end. Stretching it across from the window they poked the bird out of the hole into the bag.

Father bird, when he saw the opening clear, dashed about getting food for his children.

512 Candidates Named To Date

By The Canadian Press

A total of 512 candidates has been nominated to date across Canada for the Federal General Election Monday, June 27, it was shown today in an unofficial compilation by The Canadian Press.

It is expected that possibly as many as 1,000 candidates will be in the field when official nominations close Monday, June 13—3½ weeks from now—in the country's 260 constituencies.

Two of these constituencies—Halifax and Queens, in Prince Edward Island—return two members each, bringing to 2[illegible] number of members of parliament to be elected.

The 1945 general election returned 245 members. The total has been increased by 17—to 262 through the addition of seven members for the new province of Newfoundland and 10 to represent new ridings created in a redistribution of Commons seats enacted in 1947.

The Liberals lead the nominating race, with 174 candidates named so far. There are 148 Progressive Conservative standard-bearers, 127 CCF, 38 Social Credit, 17 Labor-Progressive, six Independents, one Independent Social Credit and one Labor.

HAVE YOU $10 in U.S. FUNDS?

If you have more than $10 in U.S. cash you should turn it in to your bank, in exchange for Canadian dollars, without delay. Existing regulations make it illegal for any Canadian resident to retain in his possession more than $10 in United States cash.

HERE'S THE REASON

Canada must have the U.S. dollars spent here by tourists in order to make them available for the payment of imported goods and services needed to keep production and employment at a high level.

Lakefield Council Refuses To Grant Additional Leases

LAKEFIELD, May 18.—(ENS).—The village council, after a heated discussion at the Monday evening session, refused to lease any more land to Mr. Erskine Douglas, in the park.

At a previous meeting when this was refused, Mr. Douglas asked if he might build cabins on land he now leased, and was asked to bring written statements from his neighbors that they were not opposed to this.

Mr. Douglas stated he had not been able to contact all his neighbors, and all he had seen were in favor of his building cabins, although not all of them had signed the statement.

Councillor Albert Buchanan said some of the neighbors were definitely opposed to the idea and had stated they would dispose of their property and move if such cabins were built.

Councillor Roy Brown had interviewed five men on the street ratepayers. Two of thme were of the opinion the council should do nothng about the park until it was planned.

Revenue For Village

Another expressed the opinion it should be a revenue for the village, not a private individual. The fourth stated tourist accommodation in the village was defintely an urgent need, but the ratepayers voted for a park commission, so nothing should be done until such a time as a park commission was appointed. The last was opposed to doing anything with the park.

Councillor Brown said the council only has control of the park until it is handed over to the commission.

Mr. Douglas presented a petition which was signed by the business men, which stated they were in favor of leasing additional lots to Mr. Douglas.

Reeve W. C. Grant said in addition to the petition the people had only last year voted against doing anything about the park.

Councillor Ken Morris and William Whetung made a motion that the motion refusing Mr. Douglas' application for additional land be rescinded. But the motion was defeated.

A license to operate the dance pavilion was granted to W. A. Killoran. A new bylaw licensing dance halls was also passed. This forbids midnight frolics and makes it necessary that a suitable policeman be provided to supervise the dances, under the jurisdiction of Chief Garnet Samis.

After much discussion over the amount of money spent by the Roads committee, the accounts were passed and the meeting adjourned.

Lift Restrictions

OTTAWA, May 18 — (CP) — The Revenue Department announced Tuesday night the lifting of restrictions on the import of carrots with tops into Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia Quebec and Ontario effective May 23. The imports were banned under emergency import regulations while the carrots were in good supply.

WHISTLE your way through the housework tomorrow . . . with a spring in your step, a brighter twinkle in your eye. First thing in the morning take a sparkling, bubbling glass of ANDREWS LIVER SALT for "inner cleanliness". Here's how ANDREWS does its healthful work:

FIRST . . . ANDREWS cleans and refreshes the mouth and tongue.

NEXT . . . ANDREWS sweetens sour stomach and corrects excess acidity.

THEN . . . ANDREWS works on the liver to check biliousness.

FINALLY . . . To complete your Inner Cleanliness, ANDREWS gently cleans the bowels. It sweeps away trouble-making poisons, corrects temporary constipation.

VISITS OTTAWA — Harold Wilson, centre, president of the Board of Trade in the British Cabinet, stopped off in Ottawa for discussions with the Canadian Government as part of his tour of the Dominion to increase British trade. During the visit he conferred with officials in the High Commissioner's office, R. K. Jopson, left, economic advisor, and G. E. B. Shannon, Deputy High Commissioner to Canada.

Dying Columnist Tries To Ease Cancer Fears

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 18—(AP)—"I have cancer and I am going to die of it—"

The newspaper man Tuesday started his daily column with those words.

"But I am not afraid," he added.

Forrest Warren, 71, whose career started at the age of 10 as a printer's devil in his native Vermillion, Kas., went on to report:

"I am glad he (the doctor) told me. I think that all cancer sufferers should be told. It is not pleasant news—no one wants to go—but it does give you a chance to get your house in order. And that is important.

"I have called in all of my family and we have had a long talk. And I've pretty well worked out the funeral arrangements. I've called the men I want for pallbearers and they've accepted. And I've had a chat with my preacher, and asked him to keep his remarks brief."

The San Diego Daily Journal said Warren's column would continue as long as he is able to dictate it to his wife. That won't be long, it was admitted.

Warren himself wrote: "The time is not set for my departure. Only God knows when it will be. I face the future with faith and, in my heart, love for all."

He said he was announcing his impending death in his column for two reasons—to "bring a measure of comfort to others who are hopelessly ill and face to face with their Maker, just as I am"; and to appeal for contributions to the Cancer Research Fund.

Warren, a product of Kansas' "golden era" of newspaper history, was a contemporary of the late William Allen White and Ed Howe.

Helps Plane Pilot

WESTON, Mass. May 18—(AP)—Patrolman Frank Stewart turned air traffic officer yesterday when he saw a plane in trouble over this community. He headed for a golf course, cleared it of club swingers, and signalled the pilot of the troubled craft to come in. Pilot Robert Broadley, 30, of Natick, made a perfect landing on the 18th fairway with his motor skipping.

Farmers Get Early Seeding Start Hoping Rain To Bring Bumper Crop

By The Canadian Press

Canadian farmers, off to about a two-week early start in seeding this year, are hoping for a bumper crop.

Light winter snowfall and an early spring might blight chances for a big crop but a long dry spell which threatened to have a serious effect on Saskatchewan and Alberta crops ended Monday night and Tuesday.

"Million dollar" rains fell on Saskatchewan in the wake of Monday night's most widespread downpour of the year. In some sections where seeding was suspended by the drought, farmers were able to get on with the job. Some farmers looked to the rain to slow the advance of grasshoppers.

Light rain and sleet showered Central and Southern Alberta, bringing moderate relief to the dry crops.

A Canadian Press survey of seeding progress shows fairly satisfactory conditions in all other provinces.

Throughout the west a sharp rise in wheat acreage and decline in the acreage of other principal grain crops is reported. Canadian farmers will seed about 26,965,200 acres to wheat this year, nearly 3,000,000 acres more than were seeded last year.

Delayed Operations

In Southern Manitoba heavy winter snowfall delayed Spring operations about a week. However, in other sections of the province seeding began soon after mid-April. Wheat seeding now is almost completed and a good start has been made with oats and barley. An increase in acreage of the latter crop is predicted.

The Manitoba Department of Agriculture reports about 50,000 acres of sunflowers will be planted this year—a marked increase over the 1948 figure. On the other hand, flax acreage will be reduced.

In British Columbia, where winter damage was slight, figures show a five per cent boost in wheat acreage from last year's 116,000 acre yield.

Excellent growing weather has speeded seeding in Ontario and in many parts of the province fields of spring grain are already green.

Preliminary estimates of oats and barley acreage indicate slight increases over last year's crops when 1,835,000 acres of oats and 226,000 acres of barley were grown. A fall in production of spring wheat, fall wheat and rye is predicted. More sugar beets will be grown.

Recent cool weather and heavier-than-usual rainfall have slowed up seeding in Quebec province. Sowing has just got under way in the Montreal region and in other sections of Quebec. Total farm acreage there will be about the same as last year—6,000,000 acres, two-thirds of which will be devoted to hay and clover.

Sugar beet acreage will be upped from 200,000 to about 600,000 acres and, if weather is favorable, barley and mixed grains will be grown in greater quantities.

Wheat 24,000 (21,000); oats 1,380,000 (1,478,000); rye 14,000 (8,400); potatoes 160,000 (153,000); hay and clover, 4,000,000 (4,000,000); rye 14,000 (13,200); peas 16,000 (16,200) beans 12,500 (10,500); buckwheat 75,000 (75,000); turnips, 22,000 (22,400); alfalfa, 85,000 (86,300); fodder corn, 105,000 (106,600).

WMS Clothing Boxes To Be Sent To Toronto

DARTFORD, May 18—(ENS)—The May meeting of the WMS was held in the United Church recently. Two large boxes of clothing were packed to be sent to Toronto.

The president, Mrs. Archie McCracken, was in the chair. Mrs. Arthur Ward read the scripture. Mrs. Wilfred Sykes read the minutes of the last meeting and Mrs. Percy Honey invited the women to her home for the June meeting.

An invitation from the Fenella WMS to meet with them on June 16 was read and accepted. The corresponding secretary was instructed to reply. Mrs. McCracken offered prayer and Mrs. Hayden Atkinson had charge of the study book.

Mrs. Alec Lockhart took charge of the following program: Reading by Mrs. John Coggins; duet, "Mother I Am Thinking Of You" by Mrs. Charles Honey and Mrs. Arthur Ward; reading, "The American Mother" by Mrs. Percy Honey. Lunch was served.

Seeks Closer Mingling

EDMONTON, May 18 (CP) — Senator W. A. Buchanan Tuesday called for a closer mingling of French and English-speaking Canadians as a step toward national unity. Senator Buchanan, publisher of the Lethbridge Herald, spoke at convocation exercises at the University of Alberta where honorary degrees were conferred on him and Msgr. Ferdinand Vandry, rector of Laval University, Quebec.

HONORED FOR WORK—Lt.-Col. John Bayne Maclean, 87, founder of one of the greatest publishing houses in Canada, Maclean - Hunter Publishing Company Ltd., and prominent Red Cross workers, was given an honorary counsellorship in the Red Cross for his efforts on behalf of that organization. Hodgson Nominated For Victoria

LINDSAY, May 18.—The Progressive Conservatives have seldom had such a good basis as at the present time for the belief they will form the next government, said Gordon Graydon Tuesday, addressing a packed house at the Academy.

Mr. Graydon was speaking at the nomination meeting of Clayton W. Hodgson as PC candidate for Victoria and Haliburton riding.

"It is high time we in Canada had a change of government," Mr. Graydon said. "Apart from any other consideration, the present government has been in power for 14 years and is suffering from weakness and political exhaustion. It is not even a true Liberal Government and is fast losing the support of Liberals everywhere."

High taxation alone had spelled the death warrant for the present government. It had consistently taken five dollars out of the people's pockets where only four were required and had become richer while the people grew steadily poorer.

Quoting the numbers of taxes applied to various commodities, Mr. Graydon said while it was true they represented small amounts, they contributed in a major way to the high cost of living.

"There are 52 taxes on every loaf of bread, 105 on a suit of clothes, 154 on a tablet of soap, 148 on a suit of overalls, and on a gallon of gas, from the time it is taken from the ground to when it is burnt in your car, no less than 205 separate taxes."

Attacking legislation methods of the present government, Mr. Graydon revealed that since the end of the Second World War, 19,098 orders-in-council had been tabled behind closed doors by a small group of 19 cabinet ministers.

"This is the iron curtain kind of legislation we do not want in Canada, and when George Drew recently referred to restoring parliamentary government to the people, this is what he meant," Mr. Graydon said. "This government has steadily been flying into the arms of the CCF party, and it has now come to the point where we must choose either a free Canada, under the leadership of George Drew, or socialism as practiced in Russia, socialism as advocated by the CCF, or socialism as represented from time to time by the present government."

Nearly 90 per cent of the world's deals in diamonds now are made in London.

Ask Release Of Slav Ex-Aide

OTTAWA, May 18 (CP)—A former counsellor of the Yugoslav Legation in Ottawa is being held in solitary confinement in Yugoslavia, according to members of a delegation of Yugoslav-Canadians arriving here Tuesday.

The delegation came here to appeal, through the Yugoslav minister, for immediate release of Branko Vukelic, who, its members said, is being held without trial because he disagrees with the policies of Tito's Government.

Vukelic was arrested in Yugoslavia last September, according to a memorandum to be presented by the delegation to Mato Yaksic, Yugoslav minister here.

A statement issued on behalf of the delegation said it represents several Yugoslav communities in Ontario. It was read by Milos Grubich, supreme president of the Council of Canadian South Slavs.

The memorandum declares Yugoslav-Canadians are "greatly shocked" at Vukelic's arrest, because they know him as a patriot with a "distinguished record in the struggle for the liberation of Yugoslavia."

The delegation's press statement said it condemned "such political persecutions as unjustified and undemocratic and demanded that Vukelic be released immediately."

Textile Union Aids Members Secure Glasses

Eye examinations and glasses, both at a reduced fee, are to be available to workers within the jurisdiction of the Trent Valley Area Textile Joint Board, Textile Workers of America (CIO-CCL), A. E. Johnston, staff representative said today.

The reduction will be as much as 40 per cent, he said, and the service is being provided as part of a comprehensive plan to ease the eye strain of textile workers. Marvin A. Langer, Toronto optician is undertaking the work. It is understood that the per capita cost for eyesight examinations and for the provision and fitting of spectacles will be slashed even further as more workers subscribe to the service.

In Peterborough about 250 workers will be affected. They are members of Local 822 TWUA (Brinton-Peterborough Carpet).

It will be necessary for members to present their union membership card before they can obtain these services. Clerical and supervisory staff within the bargaining unit may also obtain these benefits by arrangement with the union, Mr. Johnston said.

Arrangements will be made with the company for time off so workers can attend the temporary eye clinic.

Other factories in the Trent Valley Area coming within the jurisdiction of the Textile Joint Board, TWUA are Lindsay, Local 837, a composite local of Horne Bros. Woollen Mills and Knitters Ltd., 180 members; Cobourg, Local 718, Consolidated Piece Dyers, 75 members; Trenton, Local 974, Trent Cotton Co., 250 members; Campbellford, Local 743, Campbellford Cloth Co., 240 members.

Adopt Censure Vote

WASHINGTON, May 18—(AP)—The CIO executive board Tuesday adopted a vote of censure against the left-wing Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers Union for "disregarding its duties" as a CIO affiliate. In a showdown battle between the right-and left-wing CIO elements the board adopted its censure by a vote of 38 to 11. The action resulted from an organizing battle at the Bessemer, Ala., iron mines of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railroad Company, a subsidiary of United States Steel Corporation.

House Passes Ireland Bill, Have No Clashes

LONDON, May 18 (CP)—The House of Commons Tuesday night gave final approval to the controversial Ireland bill which would keep Northern Ireland in the United Kingdom.

The bill passed third and final reading without a division. It now goes to the House of Lords where government leaders hope it will be dealt with by the end of the first week in June.

The measure, known as the Republic of Ireland Bill, was bitterly criticized by leaders of the new Southern Republic. It stipulates there will be no change in the constitution of Northern Ireland without consent of the Belfast Parliament.

Under the bill, citizens of the new Irish Republic who live in the United Kingdom will have all the privileges and most of the duties of British subjects. Whether the duties will include military service in the British forces is not known.

Everything Quiet

The bill, which stirred up heated and bitter debate in the Commons, passed committee stage early Tuesday. Police in plain clothes were on guard in the public galleries in case demonstrations broke out among Republican sympathizers.

During debate in committee, 63 Labor members voted against the government measure. Herbert Morrison, Government leader in the Commons, is understood to have approved a rebuke to those who broke away from the three-line whip issued by Labor leaders.

Most of the rebels voted for an amendment which would have changed the bill to say that any change in Ulster's status should be decided by the "people" instead of by Parliament.

Others voted to delete a reference to Northern Ireland's status.

Children's Aid Work Discussed At Millbrook

MILLBROOK, May 18—(ENS)—The Millbrook Ladies' Lion Club met last night at the home of Mrs. T. Campbell on King St. There were 24 members present. After the business, the members were addressed by the guest speaker, Mrs. Raby, field secretary of the Port Hope branch of the Children's Aid Society.

She spoke of their work in Durham and Northumberland and of the chief aims of the society, which are to improve home conditions, to keep the home together if possible, to investigate the abuse of family alowance cheques, and to supervise adoptions.

Business Ways Not Understood Sales-Ad Told

Sound public relations in the Canadian business world are more than ever needed, Charles S. Watson, vice-president in charge of public relations for Canadian Breweries, Ltd., Toronto, told members of the Peterborough Sales and Advertising Club at their closing banquet of the season last night in Gil-Mor Lodge. Mr. Watson declared that good public relations should bring about greater Canadian unity and improved employer-employee relations.

Mr. Watson was introduced by George VanKoughnett and thanked by Richard Ward, retired manager of the local branch of the Canadian Bank of Commerce. The meeting, attended by well over 200, was the last to be presided over by Paige Rowell, president for the past year. Mr. Rowell introduced the new president, Percy Dallin, and the new vice-president, Don Loucks, who were recently elected by the new executive named at the April meeting. They take office on June 1.

Mr. Watson defined public relations as "a program of action intended to win confidence in and goodwill for" the cause of its sponsors. He said that it was a fallacy to regard public relations as the private possession of large corporations; it is just as important with the small business man. While the latter could not, by the nature of his business, afford to hire someone to do this job for him, he could nevertheless accomplish the same end by good treatment of his employees and a friendly approach to the general public. "It is simply a matter of getting along with people," he said. "By means of public relations programs we can become better businessmen and better citizens of a bigger and greater nation."

Mr. Watson said that the general public is "colossally ignorant of the way business is run," which is directly traceable to the "poor job we are doing in the field of public relations."

Other entertainment included the showing of the films, "Expedition Moose," produced by the Carling Conservation Club of Waterloo, and "Golf on the Gold Trail."

The following new members were introduced by retiring president Rowell: Robert Arnold, William Dane, Eddie O'Brien, J. D. Keene, James Turnbull, Earl O'Toole and Ken Young.

To Extend Work Of Keeping Families United

Peterborough Children's Aid Society, the city and county will benefit financially by more than $6,000 from a recent amendment to the Children's Protection Act, Miss Rachael Young, superintendent, told the Society's Board in the council building Tuesday.

When the amendment becomes operative 25 per cent of all grants from the city and county for Children's Aid work will be paid by the province. Last year the two councils spent $18,329.22.

In addition, the province will make a grant of 25 cents for every dollar raised by the society from campaigns organized either entirely by the society or jointly with other organizations. Last year funds raised in this way amounted to $8,029.38, of which $7,500 was contributed from the Community Chest and $529 by other donations.

Miss Young told the Examiner that she is hoping the additional grant will enable the society to extend its work of helping to keep families united.

Aid 399 Families

The number of families which the Peterborough society has helped reached a peak figure in April of 399, Miss Young reported.

Twenty-five cases of family situations involving physical neglect of children, emotional disturbances, delinquency, non-support, desertion and requests from out of town agencies came to the attention of the society during the month. Eight children were admitted to the society's care. Four under 10 years of age had been found left at home without supervision.

One child was placed for adoption, adoption was requested for a child in a relative's home and one child required temporary care during an emergency in the family.

The four children found alone were later returned to their parents, against whom a charge had been laid under the Children's Protection Act, which resulted in their being placed on suspended sentence for a year.

Accepted Practice

Miss Young remarked that the practice of leaving children at home unattended was becoming accepted more by society today than in the past. The particular instance encountered with the four children, however, was more serious than the normal practice of leaving children for a short time.

Three wards were discharged from the care of the society, one returning to his home, one was married and the other reached majority.

The society was consulted by five unmarried parents. Three made their own plans and two asked for assistance in planning for their babies.

There wer 40 hearings in Family Court, Miss Young reported. Of these 10 were cases of assault, 12 non-support, seven in regard to wardship, one was a charge against parents under the Children's Protection Act and 10 were hearings in the juvenile section of the court. In two cases of assault jail sentences were imposed.

There were eight children in the Shelter on May 1. One of the boys won a prize for a bird house entered in the recent contest and he also received first prize for a hooked mat which he entered in the Boy Scout and Girl Guide hobby show.

N. Hamley Heads Business Men

Norman H. Hamley, manager of Trebilcock Brothers' book store, was elected president of the Peterborough Businessmen's Association for the coming year at the first meeting of the recently-elected directors of the association held Tuesday morning in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce. He succeeds Ernest C. Braund, grocer, president for the past year. The new vice-president will be James Clark. J. J. Doris continues as secretary-treasurer.

The directors received a request from the local committee in charge of arrangements for the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry Highlanders' re-union to be held here June 11 and 12 that they ask the merchants to put welcoming signs in their windows or use other means of calling attention to the event. It was agreed to accede to the request. The re-union is expected to be attended by over 400.

The meeting also indulged in considerable discussion over the question of whether or not the stores should remain open on Wednesday afternoon during weeks in which a public holiday occurs. Much divergence of opinion developed on the matter and it was finally decided that the secretary should poll the some 20 or so classifications in the membership in an endeavor to ascertain the majority opinion on the subject. Some of the directors indicated there was considerable opposition among store clerks to the idea, the latter claiming that in effect adoption of the proposal would mean they would get only an extra half-holiday, instead of a whole extra holiday

Two Cars Damaged In Street Collisions

The left front part of a car which Max Hayman, Toronto, had parked outside 68 Lansdowne St. was completely smashed at 2 a.m. today when it was struck by a car driven by Richard Bradley, 556 Wolfe St. Both doors on one side of the taxi were also badly damaged.

Hayman told Constable Gordon Trennum that he had just parked his car and was walking across the sidewalk when the car proceeding east on Lansdowne St. struck his car.

The grill, radiator and a front fender of a car driven by A. Clark, 191 Aberdeen Ave., was smashed Tuesday on George St. as it stopped behind a car driven by George Qweedy, McClennan Ave. The front car escaped with only a scratched rear fender. Constable D. J. Farthing investigated the incident.

POLL TAX QUERY

City council is enquiring from other cities in the province about their practice in the levying and collecting of poll tax.

Delay In Issuing Debentures May Cause Work Stoppage

Permission for the Utilities Commission to issue $200,000 debentures to pay for capital works laid down for this season has been held up by the Ontario Municipal Board for "further information", Howard Clegg, accountant, informed the Commission at its meeting Tuesday.

The further information includes the number of lots and houses to be served by new water mains, estimated income and other details of the extensions and improvements in the Commission's program that is already in progress. A major work is the continuation of the 24-inch force main that is being laid to the pumping station.

Mr. Clegg said he had learned from City Treasurer Couper that the council had given third reading Monday to the Civic Hospital issue of $1,500,000 which had received the approval of the Municipal Board.

Nothing was said at the meeting of the council about the $200,000 debenture issue for the Utilities Commission.

"I understand that the next meeting of the council is not until June 6," Mr. Clegg said, "and also that if our $200,000 does not go through with the city's $1,500,000 for the hospital, we could not have our debentures go through for a period of 90 days after the city's issue. That would hold us up until October."

Provided Information

Ross L. Dobbin, Utilities Manager, said: "City Solicitor Huycke asked me some time ago for certain information about our work that was to go forward to the Municipal Board. I gave him all he asked for. If I had known they wanted some other information I could have got it ready over the week end. I could have made a desperate attempt to give them all they asked for, but I didn't know about this until this morning."

"If we can't sell the debentures in the time we had planned, we'll just have to stop everything, and that includes every water main we are laying," said the chairman, Gordon S. Matthews. "The delay in being able to borrow the money is not the fault of this Commission. We have done everything that was asked of us."

It was said that the Municipal Board was probably tightening up on municipal over-spending, as in the Lindsay instance, and they desired to make certain that expenditure was covered by estimated revenue.

Issuing of debentures for the Commission is a responsibility of the council, and there was some question as to whether the Commission had received in this matter the fullest co-operation from the council, in view of the importance and the pressing need of the projection of the waterwork program.

"I haven't any doubt but that we will need the money before October," Mr. Matthews remarked. "When the time comes and we haven't got it, then all work stops."

The Commission felt that the reported cause of delay in giving the third reading to the $200,000 bylaw was only a technicality that should not be permitted to hamstring the Commission's work program.

Jackson Urges Mobilization Union For Action

Members of the UE-CIO on Tuesday night heard the report of their Negotiating Committee on present negotiations with CGE for a new contract. In a resolution they protested "lack of any evidence of genuine bargaining on the part of GE management."

Addressing the membership meeting in Brock St. Summer Gardens were Jack Morton, president of Local 524, Cyril O'Donnell, Joseph Murphy, George O'Brien and Keith Chiles.

District President C. S. Jackson told the workers to mobilize for action, describing this move as "the only language the company apparently understands."

Included in the resolution, copies to be sent to H. M. Turner, president of CGE, and Ian McRae, works manager, was the following:

"We are impatient of the annual delaying tactics of the company which consume weeks of aimless talks without any concrete offers from the company. We do not feel inclined to tolerate a repetition in 1949."

"We are convinced that the company's profit position and business prospects for 1949 both can and must include reduced working hours and increases in take-home pay and other benefits which our productivity has earned us and which we have asked."

"We protest against the increasing speed up, against the limitations on the rights of the workers and their elected representatives. We demand that the company honor its signed words and abide by arbitration decisions."

"We demand recognition of our service with the company in the form of adequate seniority protection."

"We reject the false idea that cost reductions must come from wages and working conditions."

"We instruct our negotiators to vigorously present these views to the company with a view to a speedy and satisfactory settlement."

"We stand shoulder to shoulder with the other GE workers through our union the UE for the strength and protection of the GE workers."

Negotiations with the company began on May 11.

Parking Meters Yielded $51,574

Peterborough's parking meters had collected $51,574.57 in their tolling operations from May 12, 1947, to the recent end of April, City Clerk Outram reported to the council Monday.

"The company who made them and set them up have received 75% of the amount collected, and the city got 25%," Mr. Outram told the Examiner. "Toward the end of August they will be paid in full, and the total collection will go into the city treasury."

Mr. Outram will report on the two years' operations in his review of May affairs in his department. Total April receipts in his office were $5,358.10.

They were: licenses $389.29; police court $1,629.77; miscellaneous $1,023.00; parking meters $2,316.04. Parking stickers issued amounted to $61, and one dollar parking tickets were issued to 192 car owners. Of $2,065.75 in police court fines, the city got $881.40, provincial treasurer $587.60 and justice of peace $184.

Like To See Larger Unit Brig. Walsh's Comment

Brigadier Geoffrey Walsh, C.B.E., D.S.O., Commander of the Eastern Ontario Area, paid an unofficial visit to the armouries Tuesday night as part of Army Week activities.

The demonstration put on by Peterborough's two reserve units, the 50th Heavy AA Regiment, RCA and the 37th Heavy AA Workshop, RCEME, impressed Brigadier Walsh. He said the only thing lacking was the number of men in the regiment and added he would like to see it larger.

With more success than Monday night the radar, predictor, and gun crews ran through several firing runs on the Harvard aircraft from Trenton. The plane was within range of the equipment and several times buzzed over the field.

Many citizens took advantage of seeing the equipment in operation. The technical stores were open to public inspection and the workshop was placed outside the armouries.

Protest CGE Action In Montreal Plant

A telegram of protest against the CGE's alleged action of fostering a company union at the Montreal works is to be dispatched to H. M. Turner, president of CGE. A resolution of condemnation was drawn up on Tuesday night at a UE membership meeting.

The UE claims it has "a substantial majority" of the employees in the Montreal works. This is described "as deliberate interference and active support against a bona fide union."

"We call upon you to publicly disassociate your company from this company union and to advise the workers in your Montreal plant that your company will recognize a local of the UE-CIO to represent them in joint negotiations upon their choice," the telegram states.

TO BUILD FOUR HOUSES

City council has authorized the sale of six lots on Herman Ave., near Wilson Ave., to W. H. Field for $1,800. He intends to build four houses on the property.

SHOW MOVIE

Hockey Cavalcade, a film on the Hockey Hall of Fame at Kingston will be shown in the movie room at the YMCA at 7 o'clock tonight. In the movie are shots of big league hockey players in action.

CONSCIENCE MONEY

The confidence of Ernest Benson, 657 Aylmer St. in the honesty of people was refreshed by a letter he received this week, enclosing $10. It was from a former customer of his grocery store on George St., half way between Perry and Rink streets, from which he retired some time ago. The writer said he owed the money on "an old account that should have been paid 20 years ago." He felt that he still owed the money, and wished to wipe out the obligation, and sent along the ten dollars with an expression "best of luck".

St. James' Brotherhood Conducts Havelock Services

HAVELOCK, May 18 (ENS)—Members of the Men's Brotherhood of St. James' United Church, Peterborough, led a service of worship in Havelock United Church Sunday evening which was conducted by the president, Horace Naish. Their choir under the leadership of organist Ashton Fife sang two anthems and a male quartette comprising Mr. Fife, Henry Turner, Joseph Worrell and Joseph Murphy rendered two selections unaccompanied. The responsive reading was led by Clarence Porter and the scripture lesson was also read by Mr. Porter.

Gives Address

William Davidson of Peterborough was the speaker, taking as his subject "The Abundant Goodness of God."

Following the service the visitors and members of the congregation gathered in the Sunday School room when the quartette rendered another selection. The basso also rendered a solo by request. Piano selections were played by Mr. Fife and Miss Yuta Pikelis. Two vocal solos were given by Mrs. Pikelis, one being "Ave Maria" sung in Latvian, her native language.

Student Welcomed

Ralph Watson, a student from Montreal, who will serve the Lake area of the Havelock-Trent River charge for the summer months, was welcomed. Mr. Watson commenced his duties on Sunday with services in Rush Point and Victoria churches.

Died Accidentally

LAS VEGAS, Nev., May 18 — (AP)—A coroner's jury decided Monday Baby Carolyn Dolores Allen died accidentally "the result of a bullet fired from a pistol in the hands of her father." Cpl. Charlie Dean Allen, 23-year-old military policeman at the Las Vegas air force base, shot his 10-months old daughter through the head last Saturday as she lay in her mother's arms. He said he was sitting on the bed loading his .45 calibre automatic when it went off.

The Most Beautiful Thing on Wheels

PONTIAC INVITES YOU TO COMPARE PRICES

When you've seen the attractive lines of Pontiac for '49, you only know half the story. When you glance at the prices, you'll know the climax — that Pontiac, the most beautiful thing on wheels, can be bought for much less than you expected.

All the integrity, all the fine features you deserve . . . like thrift and power, dependability and comfort, safety and ease-of-driving . . . they're all built into Pontiac.

And yet — the price is so close — so very close — to the lowest that it's being applauded all over the country!

Because Pontiac offers such truly remarkable value, more and more people, everywhere, are insisting that only Pontiac is acceptable. Such popularity means, of course, that your Pontiac dealer may not be able to make delivery without some delay. But production lines are rolling as fast as Pontiac's high standard of quality will permit . . . so keep in touch with your dealer, who is anxious to add your name to the ever-growing list of proud, enthusiastic Pontiac owners.

Plan Exchange of Air Cadets Between Canada and States

The Air Cadet League of Canada is attracting attention in the United States where the Civilian Air Patrol, an auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, has created a branch to be known as the Air Cadet Branch of the Civilian Air Patrol. Top ranking C.A.P. officers together with their counterpart from the U. S. Air Force, visited with the Air Cadet League officers at their annual meeting the last two years. As a result, last week the executive of the Air Cadet League of Canada attended their three-day session in Washington.

The Canadians were told that their Air Cadet League officials had been of inestimable value in inspiring and assisting to organise a similar group in the United States.

Exchange Arrangements

One of the main objects of the visit to Washington was to complete arrangements for the exchange of Air Cadets between the different countries this summer. Twenty-six Canadian Air Cadets will be taken aboard a U. S. Air Force plane to Detroit, Springfield, Ohio, then down to Texas across to Arizona and Hollywood and back to Calgary.

At the same time the R.C.A.F. will be entertaining 26 American Air Cadets on a trip across Canada. While these two exchanges are taking place 24 Canadian Air Cadets will be flown to England, the planes taking them over, will bring back 24 British Air Cadets for a tour of Canada.

Twenty-four American Air Cadets will be flown to England and the same number of Cadets from England will be taken for a tour of the States.

In addition to this extensive scheme five Air Cadets from France, five from Germany and five from Switzerland will be flown to the States and five U.S. Cadets will be sent to each of these countries.

Canadian officials sat with United States Wing Commanders and top ranking officers of the Civilian Air Patrol under the chairmanship of General Carl (Tooey) Spaatz, the general of the U.S. Air Force who did so much in organizing and carrying out the bombing of Germany in the last war from his headquarters in England.

Presidential Dinner

An all-day session on Wednesday was followed by a Presidential dinner at which President Harry Truman was guest of honor and one of the speakers. Other speakers were General Hoyt S. Vanderberg, Major General Lucas V. Beau, J. Percy Priest and the chairman of the National Executivetive Board, General Carl A. Spaatz.

Commanders of the Civilian Air Patrol from every State of the Union, Alaska and Hawaii were present with senators and congressmen from their representatives states. Each Canadian was assigned to one of the state group tables at the banquet. "It was my pleasure to be assigned to the table set aside for the State of Missouri which is President Truman's State." H. L. Garner of Peterborough and chairman of the executive committee of the Air Cadet League of Canada said.

The large card marking our table was autographed by all those present and presented to me. On this card are such well known names as Forrest C. Donnell; James P. Kem, United States Senator from Missouri; Ray W. Karst, Congressman from the 12th District Missouri; Leonard Irving, Congressman from the 4th District Missouri; A. S. Carnahan, Congressman from the 8th District Missouri.

In addition to these Governofficials other dinner guests were William M. Morgan, Brigadier General, USAF; the Colonel, Civilian Air Patrol; Frank F Tracy, Wing Commander, In charge of the state of Missouri CAP; H. C. Oltman, Lt. Col., one of the top ranking officials in the CAP from the State of Missouri

"After the Presidential dinner I was one of four Canadian to be invited to General Spaatz' suite. It was during this time that I found it easy to understand why this man is such a success. He is human, understanding, has a delightful sense of humour and has the faculty of inspiring people rather than driving them to do the very things he wants."

Canadia Delegates

The Canadian delegation to the meetings included Air Marshal R Leckie, CB, DSO, DSC, DFC, Air Vice Marshall C. R. Slemon, CB, CBE, Air Vice Marshal E. E. Middleton, CBE, Air Vice Marshal K. M. Guthrie, CB CBE, Air Commodore R. C. Gordon, CBE, Group Captain L. J. Birchall, OBE, DFC, Wing Commander W. F. M. Newson, DSO, DFC, Wing Commander R. M. Cox, DFC, AFC, Squadron Leader A G. Dagg, Squadron Leader W. M. Stephen, DSO, Douglas Taylor, Montreal; Alex Ross, Vancouver; George Ross, Ottawa; Banker Bates, Hamilton; H. E. Drope, Regina; H. L. Garner, Peterborough; H. W. Aslin, Halifax; C K. Beveridge, St. John; W. W. McBain, Port Colborne; Arthur McDonald, Ottawa; Capt. R. S. Misener, Port Colborne.

The party from Canada was flown to Washington in the Governor General's plane. a beautiful DC 3, with the finest of accommodation even including an electric galley in which a meal was cooked and served of which any good hotel might well be proud. Arriving over Washington at 8,000 feet we were "stacked" there for forty-five minutes in the dense fog which had blown in from the Atlantic, but finally were landed under a thousand feet ceiling with no inconvenience.

Prairies Get Rain

REGINA, May 18 (CP) — The spectre of drought eased Tuesday night for the prairie farmer. Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Alberta lapped up much-needed rain in the last 24 hours. The precipitation wasn't as great as farmers would have liked in some areas, but it helped to lessen the peril to crops.

Kidnap Cook From BC Ship

VICTORIA, B.C., May 18—(CP)—A cook aboard the strike-bound S.S. Riverside Tuesday told police he had been seized, held prisoner in a car and beaten by five unidentified assailants Monday.

E. Teichman, member of the Seafarers' International Union (AFL), said he was seized in daylight on a busy downtown street.

"I hollered and kicked. But passersby thought it was a joke or something. My captors pushed me into a car and drove me around town and then out of the city. They asked why I had left the Canadian Seamens' Union. I replied that I had been intimidated into joining the union . . . they called me a liar and belted me. The man beside the driver had a piece of pipe 14 or 16 inches long."

Teichman in a sworn statement said the men pushed him out of the car with a warning that he was not to inform police. "They also told me to leave the Riverside."

Gift Not Illegal

QUEBEC, May 18 (CP) — A Provincial Government official Tuesday night said there was nothing illegal in a recent gift of 1,000 pounds of margarine to Asbestos strikers. The government official said manufacture and sale of margarine were banned by order-in-council March 19 but possession was not illegal. Neither was transportation of margarine unless it was to make a sale.

Can's Accept Challenge

AMHERST, N. S., May 18 (CP) —George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, said Tuesday night that his heavy federal election campaign schedule will not permit him to accept the challenge of Justice Minister Garson for a debate on Dominion-Provincial relations. "It is not possible for me to change my plans in order to conduct debates with every member of the government," he said in an interview.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Are Today's Career Girls Spinsters By Choice?

DEAR MISS DIX—Why are so many women who are good-looking, intelligent, pleasant to get along with and attractive in every way, old maids? Why does the peccentage of spinsters increase every year? Have girls become allergic to marriage, or are men less willing to swap their freedom for wives?

I am an old maid and I don't know exactly why. In my youth I was distinctly eligible and I always intended to marry, but somehow I never got around to doing it. What do you think was the reason?

OLD MAID.

ANSWER—The reason there are more old maids now than there used to be is because in the last 25 years the whole matrimonial situation has changed. In the past a girl had to marry because a husband was a necessity. He was her meal ticket and her card of admission into society. Obviously every girl would marry if she possibly could, hence for one to be an old maid was proof that she was unwanted goods.

But nowadays, when practically every girl can make her own living, she has her choice between a husband or a job, and she doesn't want to marry unless Mr. Right comes along. Many of our most talented women do not marry because they prefer a career to a husband. If you will notice, you will perceive that it is the bobby-soxers and not the mature women who swell the matrimonial statistics.

Some Too Shy

Besides the women who prefer celibacy to matrimony, there are many girls who drift into old maidenhood through the force of circumstances. They are shy and never learn how to handle men. They are always too eager or too indifferent. They never learn what sort of bait to use and so they never make a catch.

Then there are the mothers who are first aid to their daughters' missing the altar. Mother chaperones her daughter so closely that she drives every young man away. Mother never lets daughter go anywhere with a boy unless the family goes along to protect her. Mother sits within earshot every time daughter has a date. With the result that daughter sits at home and sucks her thumb, instead of stepping out with the other youngsters.

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a boy of 16 in love with a 14-year-old girl. We have been thinking about eloping, but by so doing we would lose the love and respect of our parents who would never approve of such a marriage, because they consider us still at the adolescent age. Should we forget about the whole thing, or do as we please?

G. H.

ANSWER—My earnest advice to you is to forget the whole thing, for that is the only possible way in which you can save yourself from wrecking the happiness not only of yourself but of the little girl-child. You are both so young and immature and know so little of marriage and its responsibilities that there isn't the faintest possibility of your making a happy and successful marriage.

Put your romantic childish dream in cold storage for at least five years and face the present. Ask yourself how a 16-year-old schoolboy is going to support a family before he has ever acquired any way of making money? Even brides have to be fed, you know, and have clothes and some place to live. Can you give your sweetheart those things, which are necessities?

And think what sort of wife a 14-year-old girl will make. She is still playing with her dolls. Will she know how to take care of a baby? Will she know how to cook; how to handle money? Will she be satisfied to sit at home when all the girls of her age are dancing around and having good times? Can't you see that no child-marriage can be successful, because it is against Nature?

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am a sophomore in college, engaged to a poor boy who suggests that out of my allowance, which my parents send me every month, I take out $5 or $10 and open up a bank account in his name and mine, and that he will keep the bank book. Many times I have run short of money before the end of the month and have had to write home for more money, so I am wondering if this is the right thing to do. I suggested that I open up the bank account in my name, but he does not agree to this.

What do you think I should do?

HELEN.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER—I would say hold on to your money with both hands. Nothing makes a man treat a woman so politely as for her to be financially independent of him.

"Honestly, I didn't make Bonnie Prince Charlie!"

Social Situations

SITUATION: You have been invited for a three-day visit in the home of friends.

WRONG WAY: If, when the three days are up, your hostess asks you to stay longer, feel free to do so.

RIGHT WAY: Go when the three days are up. It is seldom wise to overstay an invitation as it was first given.

PARIS DESIGNER Pierre Balmain claims the fashion scoop of the summer season—a bathing suit that converts to an evening gown. Here's a close-up of his two-piece creation of two-way stretch elastic fabric, studded with black beads. A floor-length organdy stole and a transparent evening skirt complete the outfit. When wearer feels the urge for a dip, she just discards the accessories and heads for the water.

Business Women Donate $15 For Camp Fees

Lilacs and spring flowers decorated the dinner tables for the Business and Professional Women's Club meeting Monday evening in the YWCA. Executive members were in charge of arrangements, Miss Helen Moore was pianist as members sang Club songs.

Miss Sarah Eastwood conducted the business session following and in absence of Miss Esther Thornton, secretary, read a resume of the year's activities. A report of the overseas box committee was given by Miss Helen Lytle. Miss Elsie Bennett reported on membership, and Miss Ella Distin gave the archivist's report. Others reporting were secretary, Miss Florence Hutchinson, treasurer. Miss Jane Saunders, Local Council of Women, Mrs. M. Dunford.

It was decided to given $15 to the Children's Aid Society to provide recreation at the YWCA summer camp. The matter of a fall tea and sale of cooking was discussed and the date set for October 26. The annual picnic was planned for June 20 to be held at South Beach.

The following conveners were appointed for the coming year: overseas boxes, Miss Helen Lytle; representative to Local Council, Mrs. M. Dunford; telephone, Miss Helen Moore; membership, Miss Elsie Bennett; Federation representative, Miss Gene Clark; press, Miss Helen Lytle.

Result of draws made to appoint groups in charge of entertainment for the coming year is: east group, October and May; west group, September and February; south group, June and January; centre, December and March; executive, November and April.

Skit Illustrates Difficulties

Mrs. W. H. Frise presided for the regular meeting of George St. Evening Auxiliary held Monday evening in the church parlors. An invitation extended by Mrs. Charlton McBride to hold the June meeting in the form of a picnic at her summer home on Chemong Lake was accepted. Miss Shirley Pritchard favored with two piano solos. Miss L. Knapp had charge of the worship period and was assisted by Mrs. E. Hales. Miss S. Bennett gave a short outline of work done among newcomers to the city. Margaret and David Munro sang "God Guard Thee Newfoundland," accompanied by Mrs. C. D. Munro. A three-act playlet "Newcomers to Canada" was presented by Miss Knapp's group. Those taking part were Mrs. A. Tuck, Mrs. D. Gillespie, Mrs. D. Munro, Mrs. E. Hales, Miss Knapp, Miss G. Creba and Miss S. Bennett. This skit was designed to bring to attention some of the difficulties DP's encounter in making a new life in Canada. Lunch was served by the group in charge.

Plan Picnic Meeting June 14

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Trinity Women's Missionary Society met Tuesday afternoon in the ladies' parlors with Mrs. A. Legon presiding and Mrs. N. Moncrief as pianist. Mrs. G. Hill read a poem on temperance. Mrs. W. T. Edmondson, community friendship secretary, reported 42 house calls and five hospital calls made during the month. An invitation was extended to members to attend the anniversary meeting of Trinity WMS at Hastings on June 9. A picnic will be held at Mrs. H. Martin's cottage at Chemong on Tuesday, June 14. The executive is planning a fall tea. Mrs. J. W. Pierce's group was in charge of the worship service. Mrs. H. Kearns and Mrs. R. Philp read the lesson and Mrs. H. T. Crosbie led in prayer. Mrs. N. D. Seaton, Mrs. A. Noftall, Mrs. J. Marrs and Mrs J. Wolstenholme assisted in the missionary program on the final chapter of the study book, "The Christian Church in China". A social half-hour was enjoyed at the close.

Ruth Mortlock Heads County Women Teachers

The annual banquet of the Women Teachers' Association of Peterborough County was held at the Empress Hotel on Saturday. The president Miss Marguerite Lamey, presided. Greetings were brought by Mr. K. O. Birkin and Mr. E. C. Anderson, Public School Inspectors of Peterborough County; Esther Deyell, a representative of the City Teachers' Asociation; Helen Weddel of the Womens' Federation of the Normal School; and Mr. Leonard McNeil of the Peterborough Men Teacher's Association.

The guest speaker was Miss Jean Richardson, the executive secretary of the federation. Miss Richardson said, "The power of the Federation depends on the power of the members". She was very pleased with the contact made with the Normal School in familiarizing the students with the work of the Federation. To the Normal students, Miss Richardson advised them to be especially cautious when applying for a school, to make sure that the present teacher in the school intends to vacate her position.

Mr. Donald Landry, with accompanist, Walter Morrow, sang two beautiful solos, "Without a Song" and "On the Road to Mandalay." A vote of thanks was offered to Mr. Landry and Miss Richardson by Mrs. Laura Irwin. During the year delegates were sent to three regional assemblies including Toronto and Peterborough. Reports of these meetings were given by Ruth Mortlock, Anne Walsh and Marguerite Lamey.

While the nominating committee was appointing officers for the coming year, Miss Lamey entertained by reading a poem. The report of the nominating committee was as follows:

President, Ruth Mortlock; vice-president, Miss E. Kidd; secretary-treasurer, Mayme Cathcart; conveners: Superannuation, Miss Gladys Hunter; finance, Verna Maracle; legislation, Mrs. MacMillan; policy, Mrs. Hudson; sick benefit, Ruth Murphy; status, Phyllis Davidson; research, Eva Dafoe.

Springtime Theme Of Circle Meeting

Miss Jean Hammond led the in spirational worship service on th theme "Springtime" at Jean W gar Mission Circle meeting Mo day night. The hostess, Mrs. M Hunter welcomed the circle gi and their guests. Miss Glad Langton presided. Miss Mat Dulmage read selected portions scripture and poems on sprin time were contributed by me bers. All joined in singing "the Garden." Miss Connie Wag offered prayer. Miss Gladys Lan ton contributed the solo "God U derstands," with guitar accor paniment by Miss Grace Sam son.

Christian Stewardship was pr sented by Miss Dulmage in a nov dramatization entitled "The Mi sionary Dollar." Each dime in thi dollar told of its share in missionary work. One of the guests, Mrs. Lillian Aikenhead, delighted with a group of readings.

After reception of the offering the hymn "I Would Be True," was sung in dedication.

In her talk, Constance Wagar chose for her topic, "Mothers and Missions." Paying a tribute to mothers, Miss Wagar pointed out that by dropping the initial letter, the word "Others" was left, which is a keynote for service. She made a special plea for candidates for missionary work, both at home and overseas and outlined the needs in both fields.

In the brief business session plans were made for June meeting when the guest speaker will be Mrs. H. T. Rehill.

It was also decided to invite Millbrook Circle to present their play "Straight Furrows" sometime this fall.

This Mission Circle has been asked to prepare the worship service for the coming Mother and Daughter Banquet. Miss Dulmage will be the leader.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and assistants, Gladys Langdon and Grace Sampson.

English Designer Considers Paris Still Fashion Centre

By MARIENNE IZSAK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK—(CP)—It's a big jump from the harsh world of a parachutist to the soft, perfumed salons of a fashionable London couturier. That is the story of Hardy Amies, one of London's youngest and most promising designers.

Amies joined the army as a private in October, 1939. When his knowledge of French and German was discovered, he was commissioned in the intelligence corps and assigned to the staff of Gen A. G. L. McNaughton, the Canadian commander.

Then he was moved to the War Office, to work with the Belgian resistance movement. . . "And that's where I spent the rest of the war—sitting on. . .well, just sitting," he says with the fleeting smile of a reticent Englishman.

The parachute training? He wrangled the army course but didn't get a chance to use the training because the war ended. As soon as he was demobilized, Amies hurried back to his designing. Now his shop in Savile Row is recognized as being in a class with Dior, Fath, Molyneux and others.

Amies thinks Paris is still "definitely the centre of the creative fashion world."

"Paris has done a magnificent job of re-establishing herself since the war," he said in an interview. "She is proving that she has a thorough and professional organization for the production of new clothes."

Paris The Ultimate

The United States? "I am full of admiration for the work of American designers. They show great taste, ingenuity and zest but they cannot defy the authority of Paris."

London, he says, holds, and has always held, the lead in design and manufacture of suits and top coats.

"It's due partly to our wonderful woollens and partly to the fine tradition of tailoring which has gone on in England for hundreds of years."

"It's important and stimulating to keep in touch with what's going on over here," he says. Another reason for his visit is to observe how his clothes look when mass-produced.

"Nowhere else can you find such efficient methods of mass-production as in New York. But sometimes a designer shudders when he sees the result of his hours of loving labor at the end of the assembly-line!"

Amies, a bachelor, lives in a small apartment in London. Each week-end he is off to the country where he plays tennis, does some gardening and walks.

"I also do a bit of designing," he laughs, "since I don't find enough time for it in London."

"I know the way back, there's no need for you to blaze a trail!"

Miss M. Whalon Heads Senior Sorority

New officers of Xi Iota, Exemplar Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, were installed at the final meeting of this season Monday evening. Mrs. M. Caccavella, retiring president, conducted the installation of: president, Miss Moira Whalon; vice-president, Mrs. A. R. Garrett; Secretary, Miss Norma Shaughnessy; treasurer, Miss Joan Rahmel.

The program concluded a series on Russia. Mrs. R. Kearns talked on the schools and education in Russia, pointing out that under the present regime former illiteracy of Russian's has vanished and a high percentage of the population can now read and write. Miss Maralin Munro, speaking on the "Russian Dream", told of Lenin's plan and it's fulfilment in the Soviet, touching on form of government, industries, religion, education, etc.

Miss Shirley Pringle, bride-elect of this week, was given the traditional Sorority gift, a monogrammed crystal plate, from the Chapter, and a surprise shower of gifts from members. Similar plates were also presented to Mrs M. Caccavella and Mrs. R. White, recent brides.

For the social period following, members joined Alpha Theta Chapter, and refreshments were served by the two social committees.

Dionne Quints 15 Years Old Enjoy School

By KAY REX.

CALLANDER, Ont., May 18 — (CP). — From the highway, the buff-colored brick mansion stood out sedately against a background of rough countryside studded with birch and spruce trees.

But once the broad red front door was reached, the shrill laughter of children could be heard from within. Someone was playing a French folk-song on a piano. All this belied the pompous appearance of the large building.

"Yes, Annette is playing," said small, dapper Oliva Dionne as he led the way into his panelled study.

It could have been Yvonne, Emilie, Cecile or Marie. These Dionne quintuplets who will celebrate their 15th birthday on May 28, all are musical. And all play the piano.

"They are good housekeepers, too," said Mr. Dionne, lighting a cigarette and settling back in his chair. Behind him hung a photograph of the family.

Mr. Dionne spoke again. "Why, when their mother was in Ottawa a week ago they did most of the housekeeping," he said.

Proud of Children

Just like most fathers, this twinkling-eyed head of one of the best known families in the world, is proud of all his children.

"They all like to bake—and especially to make cakes," he added, replying to a question. But when pressed as to which quint is the best baker, he merely grinned and indicated he does not play favorites.

Between helping their mother and keeping up with their school work, the quints are leading a busy life these days.

Most 'teen-agers would balk at the prospect of getting up at 6.30 o'clock each morning to attend mass at seven and be in school by 8.30. But this is daily routine for the five girls.

As far as birthday celebrations are concerned, they have not even thought about any. They are too busy completing their first year of High School.

Once school is out, however, "about the middle of June," he will take them for a holiday "to a lake." The girls like swimming and also do a little fishing, although "they are not so fussy about putting worms on the hook."

6—In Memoriams

GUNN—In loving memory of my dear Father who passed away 3 years ago to-day.
We have only a memory dear father
To remember our whole life through
But the sweetness will linger forever
As we treasure the image of you.
—Ever remembered by daughter Edith, son-in-law John and grandchildren.

GUNN—In loving memory of my dear husband, Daniel Gunn, who passed away 3 years ago to-day.
I often sit and think of him when
I am all alone.
For memory is the only thing that grief can call its own
Like ivy on withered oak;
When all other things decay,
My love for him will still keep
Green and never fade away.
—Ever remembered by wife Rose.

Council Permits Popcorn Man Curbside Trade

The popcorn man was given a new lease of his curbside business by the council Monday night. Attention was turned onto him as a prospective new licensee, permitted to sell peanuts and popcorn around town, by transfer from the previous holder.

When this deal was briefly discussed in committee there was some lifting of eyebrows as to whether the rolling layout was as sanitary as it ought to be, and whether it came in for routine inspection. Chief John Thompson was asked for a report, particularly as to traffic effect of the pushcart. His reply was to the effect that he had no objection to P. Dascalakis getting a license with the exception that possibly his wagon sometimes took up parking space.

The committee proposed on first consideration to withhold the license and banish the dealer, but that clause in the finance committee report was struck out in council.

Ald. Grant Miller commented that the council was not being consistent. In committee it was said there might be some question of regular sanitary inspection of the cart, and also that it was in competition with some established merchants.

"I don't know of any fault to find with the man," said Ald. Hugh Waddell. "And all Chief Thompson said was that the cart might get in the way. Permission would be granted under a bylaw. There are some peddlers operating on that authority, and you can't very well single out one man, if there is no cause against him."

Ald. Grant Miller: "I don't want to see any discrimination against anybody. But, it looks to me that we are in reverse gear on what was done the other night. At that time we should have thought of those things."

Mr. Dacalakis gets his license, and Ald. Anglesey who was almost in tears in committee as he conjured small boys deprived of the pleasure of buying popcorn here and there about town, should be recovering from the wrench of his sympathies.

$5,000 Program Of Summer Play Commission Plan

Three specialists will be employed by the Recreation Commission this year for their summer program. The Boys' and Girls' committee recommended to the Commission Tuesday night that specialists in art, track and field sports, and tennis be employed. The specialists will work a five-day week, eight-hour day, teaching the boys and girls. The pay will be $125 a month for the two months of the summer program.

Jack Dane, Recreational Director, explained that apart from the specialists he planned to have three supervisors at Riverside, two at Inverlea Park, two at King Edward Park, two at Turner Park, one at Hamilton Park, one at McKellar, one at Confederation and one at McKellar. The supervisors will be paid $20 for beginners, $25 for experienced, and $30 for principle supervisors.

In the Recreation Commission's budget $5,000 was set aside for the summer program. With the 13 supervisors, five lifeguards and three specialists the total pay for the summer would be $5,580. Life guards will be two at Inverlea Park, two at Riverside and one spare man to relieve on the other's day off.

$5,000 Program

As an alternative plan Mr. Dane suggested that three assistant supervisors be employed. This would mean that at Riverside there would be two all-time supervisors and one assistant. At King Edward Park and Turner Park there would be one all-time and one assistant for each park. The assistants will be paid $10 a week. This plan would bring the total wages to $5,130. This plan was accepted.

Hurrell Dodds said the Lions Club will put the booms in the river for the wading pool this summer, but were not interested in the H-wharf. The swimming pool, he believed, would not be completed until August 1. The H-wharf, he added, is to be used by the Lions Club.

Mr. Dane said the city were obliged to have a deep water swimming place for Riverside. A motion was passed asking the Parks' Committee of the City Council to approach the Lions Club about buying the wharf.

In discussing the parks to be supervised this summer the Commission found a playground to be lacking in the west central part of the city. Armar Butcher explained that a site was bought for a playground in that area, but was found to be unsuitable due to the highway. A motion was passed that the City Council be informed of the lack of playground space in that area and to consider providing the space.

$300 From Lifesavers

A request for a grant of $350 for minor lacrosse in the city was received. Clare Collins reported that they had first asked for $500. After returns were made from the sale of lifesavers Saturday from which $300 was derived, they dropped to $350. Last year they received $250 from the Commission and $475 from the Lions Club which they are not getting this year. The money would go toward Jack Foote's salary for the summer and other facilities for the extra field. Last year the minor lacrosse had 18 teams under the direction of Mr. Foote. This year they will operate 19 teams. With a request of $500 from the City Baseball League the lacrosse request will be left until the June meeting.

Other business attended to: welcoming to new member, Wilfred Langan; payment of rest of grant to minor hockey league; telephone extension in office and additional space; accounts for the month. Correspondence received; Board of Education, re shack at Confederation School; Mrs. K. E. Kilkington, re McKellar tot-lot; E. A. Outram, re Ashburnham Hall for boving.

Other reports were given by A. E. Borland, Adult Education; Finance, R. E. MacDonald, and Annual Report, Quirt McKinney.

Members present were R. J. Bolton, A. E. Borland, William Bennett, Clare Collins, J. Dane, Wilfred Langan, Dr. Herbert Young, Armar Butcher, Alderman Dodds, Mr. MacDonald, Quirt McKinney.

Mrs. C. English, convener of the nominating committee, read the slate of officers prepared and on acceptance by members, conducted their installation. They are: president, Mrs. B. Bell; vice-presidents, Mrs. E. Ingall and Mrs. C. Ferguson; secretary, Mrs. D. Walker; treasurer, Mrs. H. Morrison; executive, Mrs. F. Darwin, Mrs. E. Macdonald, Mrs. F. Ford, Mrs. A. Ebbs, Mrs. A. Townsend.

Reports on the recent Federation Convention at Toronto were given by Mrs. C. Ferguson and Mrs. H. Morrison. Attendance award was won by Mr. Munro's room.

Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Britain Beckons Peterburians In Special Week

By proclamation of Mayor Max Swanston, May 30 to June 4 will be "Come To Britain Week" in Peterborough. During that six-day period a large-scale campaign will be launched to convince local residents of the advisability of spending their vacations in Great Britain.

To focus the attention of the general public on this project local merchants will be asked to co-operate by featuring British goods in their shops. A window-dressing contest will be sponsored, with three cash prizes to serve as an added spur to the merchant.

This is part of an extensive campaign started by the British Travel Association to induce Canadians to spend their vacations in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland rather than California, Florida or smiilar southern resorts.

G. W. Hague, travel representative, points out that apart from the pleasures of vacationing in Great Britain it is to the indirect benefit of Canadians to do so.

Dollar Benefit

Great Britain is Canada's best customer, he says, and would like to buy even more Canadian goods but cannot do so because she must first obtain scarce Canadian or United States dollars. If residents of the Dominion would go to Great Britain and spend their tourist money there it would ease the financial situation.

"Britain uses the dollars to buy much-needed Canadian products," he says, "and therefore you get them back; if you spend them elsewhere you'll never see them again."

But there is more to the idea of taking a trip to the Old Country than just easing the dollar shortage, and Mr. Hague is quick to point that out.

For people of Anglo-Saxon stock it is the birthplace of their race and contains countless historic sites that the average Canadian reads of as a child in school but never sees. Now is an opportunity to have the pleasures of sight-seeing and at the same time make a contribution to the economies of both countries.

Posters Available

Colorful and beautifully finished posters that reproduce some of the most famous buildings and scenes in Great Britain will be available to local shops during "Come To Britain Week."

This will be the second such week that the British Travel Association has sponsored. The first began in Lindsay on Monday. Similar campaigns are planned for communities across Canada.

Additional details on the window dressing contest and other matter pertaining to a successful "Come to Britain Week" will be available later

1,345 Carp Taken From Sturgeon Lake

LINDSAY, May 18 (CP)—Operation carp is in full swing at Sturgeon Lake in the Kawartha Lakes district. District Forester A. B. Wheatley announces that 1,345 carp weighing five and a half tons have been removed from the lake at the mouth of Emily Creek.

Mr. Wheatley pointed out that Carp is blamed for destruction of the natural habitant of muskrats, ducks and game fish.

Small Band of Settlers On Way To Coppell Homes

MONTREAL, May 18 —(CP)— Led by 45-year-old Antoine Turbides, a group of six French Canadian families arrived here Tuesday night en route to new homes in the small lumber town of Coppell, Ont., where they have been promised "land of their own" by the Ontario Government.

The small band of settlers, comprising 57 adults and children, left homesteads at Lac-Au-Saumon, 51 miles north of Mont Joli in Matapedia county, seeking higher wages and furnished homes promised to them by the Ontario Government.

The move to the little lumber centre near Sault Ste. Marie, started after Rev. Milet, parish priest at Coppell, urged the families to make the transfer.

Turbides, leader of the band, said in an interview here that chief advantages of the Ontario settlement were lower taxation, being able to own their own land and higher wages.

Turbides, who has lived at Lac-Au-Saumon for 18 years, claims that the Ontario Government has offered each family a lot of 75 acres at $38 or $39 per lot.

Settlers Uncertain

But some of the settlers were uncertain whether they would stay at Coppell permanently expressing a desire "to see for ourselves if things are better there."

Many of the men will return to work at the five lumber companies in the vicinity. Turbides said he will do farm work until winter lumber operations resume at the upper Canada lumber company where he worked last year.

The band appeared tired and anxious to arrive at their new homes. Children ranging from three-months-old babies to youths of 14, accompanied the party. Their belongings were stacked into every available nook and cranny in two railroad cars.

They expect to arrive at their destination late tonight.

Central Graduating Class Entertain Mothers for Tea

Pupils in the graduating class at Central Public School invited on Tuesday their mothers to be their guests for afternoon tea. The delightful idea originated with Miss Marilyn Wigg and she received splendid co-operation from both boys and girls. The guests enjoyed the opportunity for sociability and particularly their chats with the students.

Talented member of the class, Miss Joyce Lefave, was the feature on their entertainment program, doing tap dancing and routines. Her first was to the popular music of "Cruising Down the River" and her second number an intricate waltz clog. The young lady wore a ballet costume she had designed and made herself. The bodice of white satin was trimmed with gold braid design and the flared skirt of sheer nylon had a border of gold sequins. Long full sleeves were also of the sheer material and she wore a matching cap with the gold trim.

Donald Ross played a piano selection. A chorus of "Santa Lucia" was sung by Jackaline Gardner, Marilyn Wigg, Doris Sanders, Joyce Lefave, Betty McFarlane and Joan Davidson. Between numbers there was a pleasant background of recorded music.

Pretty bouquets of tulips, lilacs and spring blossoms were on the tea table and placed about the class room. Displays of the pupils' art work on the walls were interesting.

Marilyn Wigg and Wayne Lush greeted guests at the door and Bob Kelly inscribed their names on the black board. Gerald Black and Roger Forbes were at the school entrance to give directions to the tea room.

Some of the delicious refreshments served were baked by girls in the class, and they all assisted in making tea and preparing sandwiches. Assisting to serve were: Margaret Anderson, Rose Marie Barker, Mary Elizabeth Hunter, Betty Langstaff, George Fleck, Sandra Davidson, Margaret Noble, Elaine Osborne, Shirley Turner, Bob Blackshaw, Marlene Ellis and Peter Newman.

Camp Offer Declined

An opportunity for the youngsters at the Children's Shelter to have a summer holiday at a cottage on Gull Lake has had to be refused by the Children's Aid Society.

Miss Laura Davidson offered the use of her cottage on Gull Lake to the Society but owing to the difficulty of obtaining a sufficiently large and responsible staff and the great degree of supervision which would be required to look after children on a lake, Miss Davidson has been informed that the Society is unable to take advantage of her offer.

T. T. Rodger, Chairman, expressed the appreciation of the Board of the Society when the matter was discussed at the Society's monthly meeting Tuesday.

LILAC TIME

Lilac trees are in bloom filling the air with their fragrance. The sweetly potent perfume of lilies of the valley is another gift of May. Trilliums are beginning to fade with the tulips now passing the peak of their beauty. Farmers say the countryside is magnificently green.

CIRCUS HERE

The Army's Travelling Circus will be in Peterborough for tonight's Army Week entertainment. The circus will have cable layers, post hole diggers, cooking demonstration and driver testing units. The cable layer digs, lays cable and fills ditch as it moves along. All equipment will be in action.

Wonderful Times
AT THE KAWARTHA LAKES
There's variety in this chain of lakes reached along No. 7 highway. The pine-studded, rocky islands of Stoney, the sandy beaches on Pigeon, the smiling countryside 'round Chemong—all have their addicts. If you want your own cottage on an island or by the shore, the Kawartha Lakes Tourist Association, Peterboro, Ont., will be glad to help you. There are moderately priced summer hotels, too, on most of the lakes. Good catches of bass and muskies reported most years. Pickerel and lake trout too. Sailing fans and canoeists will find their wants catered to. Plan a Kawartha holiday.

"VEL MAKES SPRING HOUSECLEANING EASIER"
Says Mrs. A. Fleming, Victoria, British Columbia

"I have just finished my housecleaning and I'm really thrilled about the way VEL helped me wash windows, woodwork, venetian blinds—even upholstery. For years I have been trying everything for washing my venetian blinds, without much success. Then this year I tried VEL. What a surprise...the grease and dirt seemed to fall off ... and VEL is so easy to use . . . I just wash with a cloth dampened in a VEL solution then wipe dry and the job is done, without rinsing and without leaving a mess all over the sill."

Hungary Reports Bishops Voted

BUDAPEST, May 18 —(AP)—Hungary's Communist-led government reported Tuesday five of the country's 11 Roman Catholic bishops took part in parliamentary elections Sunday.

The Communist party claimed a "sweeping" mandate of 95.6 per cent for its policies in the elections, first since 1947.

The government took pains at the same time to give the widest possible publicity to pictures purporting to show bishops, priests and nuns voting for the government and to official forecasts of a "reconciliation" with the church.

Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, primate of Hungary, was jailed for life last February in a treason trial that was bitterly condemned by the Vatican.

The Communist party newspaper, Szabad Nep, echoing a similar official statement last night, said merely that "now comes the possibility of a solution of the Roman Catholic question."

Still Investigating

OTTAWA, May 18.—(CP). — Immigration authorities said Tuesday the case of 36-year-old Dimitry Leschenko, alleged Moscow spy, is still under investigation. There was no indications when the investigation might end. The inuiry was ordered following the apprehension of the former Red army officer by the R. C.M.P. and army intelligence last April.

THE WORLD'S LARGEST private housing development—5,000 homes—is rapidly nearing completion at Puerto Nuevo, on the outskirts of San Juan, Puerto Rico. Started little more than a year ago, 3,500 dwellings have already been completed by L. D. Long, Charleston, SC, builder. Each concrete house has five rooms and bath and sells, on the average, at $4,000. This is the first of several low-cost projects designed to relieve the housing shortage in overcrowded Puerto Rico.

104-Year-Old Veteran Of U.S. Civil War Dies

Wants Canada Accept Sterling

LONDON, May 18 (Reuters)—Labor member Richard stokes Tuesday urged government to make representations to Canada to accept sterling in payment for food exports to Britain.

Douglas Jay, economic secretary to the treasury, replied that as Canada was a dollar country and as Britain purchases from Canada exceeded Canadian purchases from Britain, the excess inevitably had to be paid for in dollars.

Stokes told the House of Commons it was an extraordinary state of affairs that Canada was the only part of the Commonwealth which refused to accept Sterling.

CSU Members Picket Freighter With SIU

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 18—(CP).—Members of the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) Tuesday began picketing the freighter Canadian Victor which arrived here Sunday with a rival Seafarers' International Union (AFL) crew.

President Leo Earle of the St. John's Longshoremen's Association said yesterday he refused a request by the CSU for aid in the deep-sea shipping strike, called March 31. The CSU had asked that longshoremen here not handle cargo of the Canadian Victor.

The 7,000-ton freighter, owned by Canadian National Steamships, is the first vessel picketed in this province since the CSU walkout began.

Say Russians Impose NewBlockade

Soviet Officials Make Compromise Offer, Ease Truck Traffic

BERLIN, May 19 ((AP)—Maj.-Gen. George P. Hays, Deputy United States Military Governor, announced today the Russians are modifying their new restrictions on truck traffic from west Germany to Berlin.

He said the Soviet military administration informed him freight-laden trucks from west Germany now halted by the Russians at Helmstedt on the interzonal frontier will be allowed to proceed to Berlin without written permits from the Soviet zone economic commission.

But, he added, the Russians will demand that any other trucks crossing the frontier bear such permits.

Gen. Hays said the western allies would try to get the Russians to drop that demand in further negotiations. He called it "a new restriction and therefore a violation of the four-power agreement in New York for lifting all blockades."

"If we can't settle this difference, then I will send a protest to the Russian military governor, Gen. Vassily Chuikov," he said.

"But I don't take a pessimistic view. I think the Russians issued the restriction to improve their

Fire Blank As Manager Rushes Them

Staff Locked In Vault As Bandits Leisurely Pocket Loot

VARDENNES, Que., May 19 — Two bandits escaped with $13,000 in bonds and $8,000 in cash today after a tussle with the manager of the Provincial Bank of Canada branch in this southshore St. Lawrence village, 35 miles from Montreal.

The armed pair entered the bank about 9:30 a.m. and demanded the contents of the vault. Emile Tousignant, the manager, struggled with them until one of the bandits, standing two or three feet away, fired a blank cartridge in Tousignant's face, dazing him momentarily.

They emptied the vault and forced Tousignant and two bank employees, Fernand Brodeur and Miss Jacqueline Durocher, into the vault before driving away in a maroon-colored sedan.

Set Up Road Blocks

Shortly afterwards provincial police set up road blocks on highways leading out of the village but the bandits had a head start because of the time it took the 50-year-old bank manager and his employees to escape from the vault.

Tousignant, still shaking from his experience, told of the holdup.

"Two masked men with revolvers drawn entered the bank about 9:30 this morning," he said. "They ordered me and the two bank employees, Mr. Brodeur and Miss Duroches, to open the vault.

"I don't know what came over me but I rushed them. One of them fired at me and it blinded me for two or three minutes. Apparently they forced one of the employees to open the vault.

"When I came to we were all forced into the vault at gunpoint. I still was half conscious at the time.

"We succeeded in getting out of the vault a little later when I manipulated the safety device in the door."

Police said passersby had seen a maroon-colored car outside the bank about the time of the holdup.

$6,000,000 Damage

DALLAS, May 19—(AP)—Flood waters receded at Fort Worth and Dallas today but Texans still could not breath that well-known sigh of relief. Tornadoes that have been breaking out like small pox were a constant threat. Fort Worth citizens were moving back into their water ravaged homes and officials evaluated the damage caused by a flash flood that held the city in a paralyzing grip for 24 hours at $6,000,000.

Justice Raps Police Methods; Inquiry Ordered

TORONTO, May 19 (CP) — Mayor Hiram McCallum may order an investigation of Toronto police methods in making arrests, following reports of police "manhandling" Douglas Tolmie, 32, of Toronto, when he was arrested Feb. 14.

"I want a report from the Police Chief on the Tolmie case," the Mayor said today. "Depending on this report an investigation of police tactics may be ordered."

"If charges of brutality by some officers are justified, these officers will be fired," said Mayor McCallum.

In the Ontario Court of Appeal Wednesday Tolmie's appeal was upheld and the conviction quashed. Chief Justice R. S. Robertson said the Toronto police were a "menace" and were "rough and objectionable."

His remarks came during hearing of an appeal by Douglas Tolmie of Toronto against a conviction of assaulting a Toronto policeman last February. The appeal was upheld and the conviction quashed.

Chief Justice Robertson pointed out that Tolmie was ill and in a nervous condition when police "attacked him."

"One of the police got him to the wagon and sat on him, an utter disregard of the law," the Chief Justice added. "It's perfectly ridiculous for police officers to treat a man so brutally."

Evidence was that Tolmie had been talking to a small boy when Police Constable O'Rourke started questioning him. Tolmie resisted the questioning and was booked on an assault charge.

Mayor Hiram McCallum said Wednesday night the board of police commissioners would investigate circumstances of the arrest of Tolmie.

"If any policeman is doing wrong in his dealings with the people, he will be dealt with and disciplined," said the mayor.

The 32-year-old Tolmie was arrested on Feb. 14 and in his court appearance claimed he was arrested without a charge or a warrant, and was beaten by police officers in a cruiser and in the police station. He appeared in court with a bandage on his left ear, cuts on the head and wrist, and several body bruises.

Constable Joseph O'Rourke and Patrol Sgt. William Kelsey said that Tolmie had "put up a terrific battle" when he was questioned in Earlscourt Park, and that Tolmie had been injured when he rammed his head against a cell door at the police station.

Labor Party Black Lists 14 Red Organizations, Warn Members Keep Away

Bar Political Promises Which Stray From Party Platform; As Attlee Whips Laborites Into Line

LONDON, May 19—(CP)—The Labor party today banned all fellow-travelling with Communists. The rule applies to more than 5,000,000 party members as well as party oficials and members of parliament. It was published today in the executive committee's annual report, issued immediately after Wednesday's action in expelling two members of parliament from the party for their sympathy with the Communists on foreign policy.

The committee, which includes Prime Minister Attlee and the Deputy Prime Minister, Herbert Morrison, blacklisted 14 organizations and said:

"Members of the party and affiliated organizations are expected not to co-operate with proscribed organizations or to be associated with Communist inspired movements or conferences."

The list included the British Soviet Society, British Communist party, World Federation of Democratic Youth, and Women's International Democratic Federation.

Membership Ban

Members of the organizations are banned from Labor Party membership. The committee said many of the 14 are or have been "subsidiaries of the Communist party."

The Communist Daily Worker attacked the black list and the ban as a "witch hunt".

In another move to tighten party discipline ahead of next year's general election, the executive committee disclosed it has barred political promises that stray from government policy or the party's election platform.

A letter sent to all Labor M.P.'s and prospective nominees last October specifically told them not to promise tax cuts, bigger payments out of treasury funds, or to end the division of Ireland.

Mother, Baby Turned Away By Hospital

LINDSAY, May 19 (CP) — Charges that a mother and her newborn baby were refused admittance to the Red Cross outpost hospital at Wilberforce, 55 miles north of here, were aired Wednesday at a meeting of the Wilberforce branch of the Canadian Red Cross.

The young mother gave birth to the child on the way to Wilberforce. The father continued on to the hospital and located the nurse there. She took the baby, but returned with it shortly and told the couple to drive to Bancroft, 25 miles away.

In the meeting, called following the incident, Mrs. M. Singer, Red Cross nurse from Toronto, said that at the time of the couple's arrival all the hospital beds were taken up by staff members. She added that she had confidence in the nurse at Wilberforce, and would see that the hospital was removed if it was not wanted.

The matter has been referred to the Red Cross outpost committee in Toronto.

Reject Inquiry At Hospital, Woman Resigns

WINDSOR, May 19—(CP) — Mrs. C. S. Sanborn, a former member of the Metropolitan General Hospital Board of Governors, said today she resigned from the board after it turned down her proposal to investigate the sudden resignation of Mildred Maybee as superintendent of nurses at the hospital.

Testifying before a Royal Commission investigating affairs of the city-supervised hospital, Mrs. Sanborn said she was the only person at a meeting of five members of the house committee which favored an inquiry.

It was Miss Maybee's resignation and subsequent rumors of lack of discipline at the hospital which touched off the inquiry now being conducted before Judge Eric Gross of Woodstock, one-man Ontario Royal Commission.

Mrs. Sanborn, a qualified doctor, said Horace Atkin, business administrator at the hospital, read Miss Maybee's resignation and volunteered the information that the woman was not well during the winter and in the "last month has been in a nervous state." This was the reason he gave for her action, Mrs. Sanborn said.

The former Board member said Miss Maybee's resignation was immediately accepted by the House Committee.

Commission Counsel George L. Mitchell interrupted Mrs. Sanborn's testimony at this point and presented copies of the report of the Board meeting at which Miss Maybee first offered her resignation.

At this meeting the reason for Miss Maybee's action was questioned and no mention of illness was made in her letter.

Dr. Murray S. Douglas \ d asked Mr. Atkin to tell the truth as 'he knew the resignation was because of a party'.

Mr. Mitchell said Mr. Atkin admitted there was a party and that it was attended by nurses . . . "but I hope you do not think I with a wife and child, would want them for myself."

Believe Shanghai Troops Have Slowed Down Reds

SHANGHAI, May 19—(AP)—Shanghai's Whangpoo River corridor to the sea still remained open today but some points appeared within range of Communist small arms fire. The Reds were pressing their attack on the waterway through Poontung, the city's "back door". But both the Shanghai garrison command and marine sources said this afternoon the river still was in Nationalist hands. Several small ocean going ships went downstream about noon.

The garrison communique said the Nationalists attacked bridges over small creeks in the Poontung area not far from the Standard Oil docks about six miles from downtown Shanghai.

Once Wednesday night 700 Reds reached Tungkow almost on the east bank of the Whangpoo in the same area but "were wiped out," the communique said.

Battle Still On

It also said more than 10,000 Reds around the townlet of Liuchiahang attacked early this morning and fighting there still was in progress at mid-day. The communique was vague on the whereabouts of this action and maps do not show Lieuchiahang. It is believed to be somewhat north of Tungkow.

Communist pressure on the Pootung industrial and dock area across from Shanghai's bund had not lessened. Nationalist planes kept up a steady bombardment of Red pockets in the marshy area. Gunboats added their fire to that of shore guns.

Kiangwan air base, reported previously as badly damaged, was being used for hundreds of government sorties, the garrison said.

Not Going So Well

Some observers see the Communist attack from the Pootung side of the river as an indication the campaign here is not going so well for the Communists. The Reds there have an awkward supply problem. The Whangpoo is between the attackers and their objective.

To the west, north and south, where the first Red attacks started, there are many easier avenues to Shanghai.

These same sources feel the Communists do not have unlimited forces to hurl at Shanghai. It may be, these sources said, their big campaign in the south (last reported threatening Foochow on the coast about midway to Canton) has drawn more of their troops than they anticipated.

Dean Appointed At Osgoode Hall

TORONTO, May 19 (CP) — Appointment of Professor C. E. Smalley-Baker Dean of Osgoode Hall, Ontario's Law School, was announced today by the benchers of the Law Society of Upper Canada.

Prof. Smalley-Baker is at present Dean of the Law School of the University of Birmingham, England.

Prof. Smalley-Baker succeeds Dean Cecil A. Wright, who resigned last January following a dispute with the law society over teaching methods. The society had approved a legal education program calling for more practical training in law offices for Osgoode Hall students.

In protest against this policy, Dean Wright and three lecturers resigned. At a subsequent meeting of the Law Society a compromise was reached between academic and practical training and the course was lengthened from three to four years. The new Dean who assumes office in the fall will inaugurate this revised system.

Russ Pilot Crashes Fleeing To Sweden

STOCKHOLM, May 19 (AP)—Stockholm newspapers said today a Russian army pilot crash-landed his fighter plane on Swedish soil last night, and said that he had fled his country because he was "tired of the Soviet Union."

The newspaper Stockholms-Tidningen quoted the pilot as saying his wife already had been sent to Siberia by the Soviet regime, and he had no children upon whom reprisal might be taken.

He planned his escape carefully and took off from a Baltic air base near Riga, the papers said.

His aircraft, carrying three loaded machine guns, hit a mountain on the edge of the Sodertoern military airport outside Stockholm, and tumbled end-over-end, but the pilot suffered only minor injuries.

Bus Hits Two Cars

TORONTO, May 19 (CP)—A Gray Coach Lines Oshawa-Toronto bus today smashed into two automobiles, one a police cruiser, and held up traffic on busy Bloor street for 20 minutes. Two persons were reported slightly injured when the heavy bus, carrying 35 persons, struck the rear of the automobiles.

Chief Justice Dies In Nfld.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 19 — (CP). — Sir Edward Emerson, Chief Justice of Newfoundland, died in the hospital here today. He was 59. Sir Edward, a native of St. John's, was Administrator of Newfoundland after Governor Sir George Macdonald left for England two weeks before Confederation March 31. He served in that capacity until Sir Albert J. Walsh was sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor.

A former cabinet minister in Newfoundland governments, he attended the Imperial Economic Conference as Newfoundland delegate in 1932 and the World Economic Conference the next year.

He retired from office and public life upon formation of the seven-man commission government in 1934 but three years later he was back to become commissioner for justice and attorney-general.

Goodfellow To Visit Hospital At Whitby

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP).— William Goodfellow, Ontario Welfare Minister and Acting Minister of Health, said Wednesday he would visit Whitby Mental Hospital Friday to investigate charges of unsanitary and inhuman conditions there.

Mr. Goodfellow said he knew from his own knowledge and from his own knowledge andpS from a conversaion he had Wednesday with hospital superintendent Dr. D. S. Fletcher that the charges are "grossly exaggerated." He will visit the hospital, however, with Deputy Health Minister Dr. J. T. Phair to assure the public that the charges are unfounded.

Atom Scholarship Given Communist

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)— The Atomic Energy Commission under Congressional fire for awarding a Communist a $1,000 fellowship comes before a Senate group today to seek $1,090,000,000 for its work for the fiscal year.

The Commission's loss of a small amount of uranium also figured in the situation.

Chairman Brian McMahon (Dem.-Conn.) announced that one-seventh of an ounce of enriched uranium containing U-235 still missing from the Argonne National Laboratory, Chicago, "is of no value for use in an atomic weapon."

McMahon released a second statement observing that "effective ways and means must be devised" to prevent any repetition of an AEC fellowship award to Hans Freistadt, an admitted Communist at the University of North Carolina.

Buyers Seeking CanadianCheese

CARLYLE, Sask., May 19 (CP) —Several requests from countries other than Britain for Canadian cheddar cheese have been received in Ottawa within the past few days, Agriculture Minister Gardiner told a Liberal nominating convention here Wednesday night.

Mr. Gardiner said he had been in touch with his department after learning J. H. Duplan, president of the National Dairy Council, issued a statement saying surpluses of cheese and other dairy products were piling up at "an alarming rate."

Even though cheese production had increased 40 per cent in recent weeks, the department was not yet able to buy sufficient to meet the British contract for 50,000,000 pounds during the current year, the Minister said.

Britain will get first chance to buy cheese over and above her contract if supplies are available, Mr. Gardiner continued. Then "we will sell to countries which want our cheese."

"This Mr. Duplan is the same gentleman who convinced certain people in Ottawa last fall that unless butter was imported and some oleomargarine was made, we would have a shortage of butter in the spring," Mr. Gardiner said. "Long before spring it was found Mr. Duplan had been wrong. He is just as wrong now when he says surpluses are piling up for which we cannot find markets."

Stop Stolen Car In 90 MPH Chase

LONDON, May 19—(CP)—A break-neck automobile chase for more than 100 miles during which an alleged car thief drove a London man's car at speeds up to 90 miles an hour ended at 2.20 a.m. today when a cordon of district police halted the car north of London.

Arrested were Max Behrens 18 and Austin Alfred Jones, 21, both of London, and a 15-year-old boy.

They will appear in court today when charges of car theft may be laid.

The car, stolen in London Wednesday night was traced to the Clinton district by Provincial Police, who pursued it 40 miles and then lost track of it at Clinton.

It is owned by Matthew J. Liddy, London.

Picking up the trail south of Clinton, Provincial Police despatchers notified all district cars and trailed it to Elginfield. Within a matter of minutes it was reported roaring through Arva, with three Provincial cars behind it going 90 miles-an-hour.

A roadblock was set up at Calamity Corners on the Sixth Concession and city police rushed to reinforce the barricade.

The thief swung east on the 6th Concession and was traced across Adelaide Street towards Highbury. He was caught near the Clarke sideroad where the passenger jumped out and ran across the fields.

Give Rescue Crews $200-$1,500 Apiece

SAN MARINO, Calif., May 19 —(AP). — The 111 heroes who struggled to rescue little Kathy Fiscus from an abandoned well will receive from $200 to $1,500 apiece from the $43,700 rescue fund.

This was disclosed Wednesday night by Robert S. McKibbin, Commander of the Los Angeles County Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars and member of the Kathy Fiscus Rescue Fund Committee.

McKibbin told some 40 of the rescuers at the East Pasadena American Legion Hall the $1,500 will be paid to such men as H. L. (Whitey) Blickensderfer and A. O. Kelly, who spent the most time underground.

The rescue efforts of three-year-old Kathy touched the nation's heart. She fell 100 feet into a 14-inch well casing and her body was brought to the surface 52 hours later.

Famous Brigade of Guards Given Back Glamor Clothes

LONDON, May 19 — (CP) — From June 1 the Famous Brigade of Guards, comprising the Grenadiers, the Coldstreams, the Scots, Irish and Welsh Guards, will wear fulldress on all public duties in London.

The new order, made in response to public clamor and considerable press propaganda, will restore color and dignity to such popular landmarks as Buckingham Palace, St. James's Palace, Marlborough House, home of Queen Mary—and the historic Tower of London.

Now with the long-awaited return to fulldress for the Brigade of Guards, staff officers have a knotty problem to solve.

For at least a decade ceremonial dress has not been manufactured and not all the old stock survived the war. There is, however, sufficient for the trooping of the colors, June 9, the brigade's celebration of the official birthday anniversary of the King, who is Colonel-in-Chief of the five Regiments of Foot Guards.

Regimental tailors have spent months outfitting guardsmen for this occasion. Many of the younger men have never worn the bearskin headgear or the tightly-fitting scarlet tunic.

There was not time to fit out the Irish Guards, recently returned from Tripoli. They would have had to parade in battledress, which did not appeal to the tradition-conscious Brigade of Guards. So the parade now is being performed by a mixed company of Grenadiers, 3rd Coldstream Guards and the Scots, Irish and Welsh Gaurds.

There will be rehearsals of the trooping of the color June 1 and 2. The King will inspect the troops and take the salute at the ceremony.

Quit World Trade Union In 5 Months, CIO Orders

WASHINGTON May 19.—(AP).—Congress of Industrial Organizations left-wingers have been given five months to break all ties with the Russian-dominated World Federation of Trade Unions and quit defying the C.I.O. leadership.

With that ultimatum the 52-man executive board of the C.I.O. prepared today to end a fiery, three-day meeting.

If the left-wing unions don't leave the W.F.T.U., they may be kicked out of the C.I.O.

President Philip Murray said that the Board "more than likely" would adopt a blanket resolution concerning the rebellious C.I.O. minority that has been attacking the national organization.

This resolution was expected to clear the path for decisive action at the next convention starting Oct. 31 at Cleveland—action, that is, against Communist-line leaders who continue to act contrary to C.I.O. policies.

But even without such a resolution, the Board and Murray already have made it plain that Cleveland convention will be a hot one.

Murray, announced Wednesday night that:

1. He had denounced Harry Bridges, left-wing president of the C.I.O. Longshoremen, for "misrepresentation" and other offences, and had told him his conduct would be brought to the attention of the Cleveland convention.

2. The Board by a 38-9 vote formally withdrew the C.I.O. from the World Federation of Trade Unions. This action, fully expected, but still significant, was considered a blow to the C.I.O. left wing and to Communists the world over. The C.I.O. and the American Federation of Labor have agreed to take part in building a new international union union movement.

Ban Lettuce Imports In Ontario, Quebec

OTTAWA, May 19 — (CP).— Effective to day, lettuce may not be imported under open general permit into Ontario or Quebec, it was announced Wednesday by the Finance Department's Emergency Import Control Division.

Recent imports of lettuce have been unusually heavy, the Department said, and the domestic crop is above average. Lettuce imports remain under open general permit throughout the rest of Canada

Will Nationalize Coal Mines, CPR Coldwell Pledge

By The Canadian Press

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, made it clear Wednesday night that a C.C.F. government elected to power in Canada's June 27 general election would be ready to put both the country's coal mines and the Canadian Pacific Railway under public ownership.

He made those proposals in the Nova Scotia coal-mining town of Springhill, while Prime Minister St. Laurent and George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, kept their Maritime campaign speeches rolling on the issue of governmental policies.

The three national party leaders are nearing the end of their campaign runs along the eastern seaboard.

Mr. Coldwell put his party's nationalization policy on railways and coal mines in these terms:

Railways—"The C.C.F. proposes that the C.P.R. should be brought under national ownership, as is the C.N.R. We do not believe, however, that the systems should be amalgamated, for we feel that they could best serve the people of Canada as two operating units competing on equal terms."

Coal Mines—A C.C.F. government would be prepared to provide money to help any provincial government which wanted to take over operation of natural resources such as coal. Because natural resources come under provincial jurisdiction, it would be necessary to have in power a provincial government which favored public ownership of the mines.

Strike Out Boldly

Mr. St. Laurent, speaking at Amherst, N.S., said that once the Atlantic Security Pact guarantees peace "we are going to have to strike out boldly in many directions to develop our resources and increase the means for providing a steadily-improving standard of life for all the people."

Restoration of British and European markets would continue to be a problem for several years, but the future of Canadian exporters was safer in experienced Liberal hands than in those of a party "with a pretty sorry past record in the promotion of trade."

Mr. St. Laurent referred to public works projects and said "the time is coming when some labor and some materials will be available for great undertakings of national usefulness." This area has long advocated construction of a canal across the isthmus of Chignecto which joins New Brunswick and Nova Scotia.

"People are not going to be satisfied with excuses for permitting men or women or industrial capacity to remain idle in peacetime instead of being employed to satisfy human needs and to improve the standard of life."

In his speech here, the Prime Minister made these points:

1. George Drew, although Progressive Conservative leader, "never mentions Conservative leaders, achievements or principles but is forever talking about Liberalism and forever quoting Liberal principles in support of his own position."

2. There is "an immense amount of work to be done in the modernization of our railways and the improvement of other transportation facilities to bring all parts of Canada more closely together and to link us more closely to our natural export markets."

Mr. Drew, at Fredericton, posed the question of "whether Canada can be governed by one government or whether we are to have government close to the people" as one of the election issues.

Strong Government

The Progressive Conservative party believed in a strong central government to deal with national and international affairs. It believed that the provinces and the municipalities should be given powers and funds to carry out their responsibilities.

Mr. Drew denied that he had at any time made a statement against family allowances but had objected to the Federal Government pretending that it was discussing things with the provinces, then proceeding to deal with social security measures.

He swung to Maritime transportation problems. He had noted an Ottawa report that a contract had been let for test borings in Canso Strait where erection of a bridge was promised.

"This whole talk about a bridge across the Canso Strait was pre-election window dressing that is not going to fool anybody," he said. The government had said the bridge would be built but now was getting around to finding out whether the project was possible.

Mr. Drew charged that the principles of freedom are being violated today in Canada. Therefore one of the most important issues of the election was the kind of administration Canada would have.

He said the existing government was centralizing power in Ottawa. It was placing "in the hands of long-haired boys in ivory towers powers that neither the Government nor Parliament has given them."

The Weather

Peterborough Temperatures:

Today:
Night low .63 Noon ...71
Yesterday:
Highest ...81 Lowest .51
One Year Ago:
.26 rain.

Today Northern Ontario is shivering with temperatures in the 30s and Southern Ontario sweltering with temperatures rising to the high 70s and low 80s and wishing for cooler, drier air. The cooler air is on its way and will cover the province by midnight with temperatures dropping sharply as it arrives. Showers were quite general over the province Wednesday night but the amounts of precipitation were insufficient in all but a few regions.

Forecasts:

Northern Lake Huron, Haliburton, Eastern Lake Ontario and Georgian Bay regions: Overcast. Scattered showers or thundershowers this afternoon and early evening. Friday clear. Very warm and humid becoming much cooler this evening and Friday. Winds southwest 20 becoming north 15 this evening and light easterly Friday. Low tonight and high Friday at Wingham 37, 55. Muskoka 35, 51; Killaloe 33, 54; Trenton 38, 57.

Summary for Friday: Clear and much cooler.

Millbrook Man Fined

John Nelson, Millbrook, pleaded guilty today at city police court to careless driving on Charlotte St. Wednesday. After overtaking one car Nelson continued west along Charlotte St., Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said, and hit the rear bumper of another car. The car which was hit was driven by James Fleming, JP, clerk of city police court.

Nelson denied travelling at a speed greater than 20 mph. He was fined $10 with $2.50 costs.

Norwood Men Snuff Out Big Bush Fire

John McColl of Asphodel, chairman of the county reforestation committee, snuffed out the last flickering flames of the bush fire in Dummer township Wednesday afternoon about 15 minutes before a drenching rain fell.

Reports from Norwood in the morning that the fire had got out of control and into the county forest were a flagrant exaggeration of the fact that Wednesday's work was mostly the completion of the effective checking done throughout Tuesday afternoon until after dark.

"I felt rather nervous about going home Tuesday night with pockets of the fire still smouldering and likely to break out again," Mr. McColl told the Examiner on the road out of the forest about 4 p.m. Wednesday. "But, it looked like a safe chance, because bush fires don't burn much during the night unless there is a strong wind. I was back again early this morning, with the same helpers from Norwood, and we gradually finished it.

I wouldn't say it was out of control, after the work that was done Tuesday."

Norwood Recruits

The group of fire fighters that stamped out the last embers was recruited in Norwood by Art Jones of the village, father of Mrs. Raymond Rogers whose husband is the caretaker of the forest. With Mr. Jones were Ray and his brother Del Rogers, Murray Haddlesley, Ken McKenzie and B. Kelly. They were in action throughout Tuesday, several of them until midnight, and again on Wednesday. They and Mr. McColl were soaked literally from head to foot by the rain that overtook them on their way out through the forest, after they had satisfied themselves that they had extinguished the fire.

"And was that rain cold," said Mr. Jones. "There was no shelter in the woods, so we just had to take it."

"The Hydro men, 18 or 20 of them, did a fine job Tuesday afternoon and were a big help at a critical time," Mr. McColl said. "As the fire was along the wide swath under their tower line, they intended at first to stay through the night. However, a question of the county's responsibility came up, and also a matter of whether they would be paid for their time, so they all took off. I felt it was the county's job, all right."

200 Acres Burned

Mr. McColl said the burned over area was about 200 acres in extent. The fire did not reach the county forest, but it was getting close before it was conquered.

"We had some portable force pumps a man could carry under his arm, with a spraying distance of about 30 feet. They were a real help. We got water from wet spots in the swamp."

The area swept by the fire was burned over about 10 years ago, and there was quite a lot of young growth on it. On the higher levels the brush was dry as tinder, and when the fire reached the gummy spruces they flamed up with crackling sound like some fireworks.

Mr. McColl said that one of the Tuesday workers was Leonard Hannon, whose farm is about four miles south of the fire area.

Enquiries about the origin of the fire brought out the information that William Saltern of the ninth line of the township had told some of the men he had started the fire to burn the brush that had been left in the Hydro tower lines' path. He said he had cut the swath in the first place, and his contract called for burning the brush, according to this information.

Asked To Investigate

It was reported that Mr. Saltern was asked about the source of his authority to begin the burning at this season, but there was no definite identity given in the explanation. Provincial police were asked to investigate the circumstances, according to report.

Mr. McColl was on his way when the Examiner met him on the narrow, winding road to the north. He was as wet as if he had fallen into the swale back in the forest, his face still glowing from the heat of the flames he had been fighting, and smudged with smoke.

"Those of us who didn't have the water cans were busy beating out the fire with sticks," the forest committee chairman said. He was taking off for his home in Asphodel, satisfied that the job was thoroughly done, with the ironic heavy dampening of the rain. Farm fields on either side of No. 7 Highway were outside the route of the rain, and dust was blowing behind farmers' cultivators.

bargaining position in the talks we have been having with them about an interim agreement between eastern and western Germany."

Hays expressed the opinion that "the Russians did not act in bad faith."

"There is every indication they wish to reach a trade agreement," he continued. "The situation is not stalemated. There are always bound to be difficulties, but they can be settled."

Everyone In Dark

His statement marked least a measure of progress in efforts to reach some real understanding of the confusing developments. The restrictions had followed such an erratic pattern that nobody really was able to appraise just what manoeuvre the Russians were up to now.

The Soviet banned all loaded trucks from the Helmstedt-Berlin super-highway, even those that had eastern permits to enter the Soviet zone.

On other major roads between the British and Soviet zones, however, truck driving was described as normal, with Russian sentries not demanding eastern-issued travel permits from the drivers.

As a result, nobody knew for sure whether all this was the forerunner of a new Berlin blockade, or whether something else was behind the manoeuvre.

Only 250 trucks reached Berlin Tuesday from west Germany after crossing the intervening 100 miles of Soviet territory. Wednesday only 40 trucks arrived.

Meanwhile freight destined for rail movement from west Berlin to western Germany piled up in railroad yards, with no Soviet-operated locomotives on hand so it could move. The Russians insist that their locomotives draw trains between west Berlin and western Germany.

The British-American air lift and 17 daily incoming trains remained the only reliable source of supply to western Berlin.

Many Interruptions

Mrs. Sanborn, describing a March 9 meeting of the Board at which Miss Maybee presented her story in person, said there were a great number of allegations and interruptions at the meeting, chiefly by Mayor Reaume.

Miss Maybee was asked to return to the hospital but she refused, saying such a position would be untenable.

Mrs. Sanborn said that at a later meeting, when she pointed out that organizations had asked for an explanation of circumstances surrounding Miss Maybee's resignation, Judge Albert Gordon, chairman, said those interested could appear before the board, "but that no one probably would."

When she suggested to the judge that nurses would not be expected to appear, because "I have been told some . . . have been intimidated," Mayor Reaume told her she was out of order, that it was not necessary to pursue the subject further.

125 Million Gallons Pumped In One Month

April pumpage at the waterworks of the Utilities Commission was 362,000 gallons a day more than a year ago. R. L. Dobbin reports that on April 28 "we pumped 4,700,000 gals., which is very high for this season of the year." Total for the month was 124,962,000 gals., against the reading of 114,096,000 in April 1948. Fifty-one new water services were laid; also 875 feet of six-inch main on Frank St. between High St. and Western Ave., and 225 ft. of 8-in. main on High between Frank and Chamberlain Streets.

In the electrical department the power peak for April was 22,000 h.p. as compared with 22,700 h.p. a year ago. New circuits were constructed to serve dwellings on Rose Ave., and a transformer bank and service for the new Civic Hospital Seventeen street lights were set up at various points of the city.

Employees of the commission prior to July 1, 1929, receive three are taken between Jan. 1 and March 31; otherwise the three weeks period will have to be broken into two weeks at one time and the third week later. Employees of less than 20 years' service get two weeks, and the more recent one week.

Hospital Mixes Sick Babies

TORONTO, May 19—(CP)—An anxious two-week waiting period that included a hospital mix-up in babies ended Tuesday with the funeral of 11-day-old John Lee Griffiths, an RH victim.

The baby was rushed from Barrie, 60 miles north of here, by police-escorted ambulance after his birth. Given a blood transfusion to save his life, he rallied for a time until pneumonia set in. In an RH condition the blood supply must be completely replaced since infants with this type of blood cannot live.

His father, Arthur Griffiths of Thornton, Ont., said that a few days after the hectic trip, he was called to the Hospital for Sick Children to pick up his baby, only to find the hospital had made a mistake.

"They brought out a baby they said was mine, but it was a month old," he said. Later he learned pneumonia had set in and his baby died on Monday.

Joseph Bower, hospital superintendent, said the mix-up was "regrettable." There were three babies named Griffiths in the hospital at the time.

Hold New Talks To End Strike

QUEBEC, May 19—(CP)—A two-hour conference Wednesday between Labor Minister Barrette and a union official was seen today as a new attempt to end a strike of 5,000 workers that has tied up Canada's asbestos industry for three months.

The Labor Minister's meeting with Gerard Picard, president of the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor, was believed to be the first direct contact between the union and the government since earlier attempts at a settlement broke down more than three weeks ago.

It is understood the talk was a preliminary move to reach agreement on the basic points at issue before opening negotiations of an official nature. It was on this reasoning that hopes of a possible settlement were pinned.

Small Boy Buried

Funeral service for James Holland Gifford, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gifford, who died on Monday after a brief illness, was held Tuesday afternoon from the residence of his parents, Ennismore, to St. Martin's Church.

The service was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors of the parents and little friends of the deceased. Pallbearers were the following playmates: Jack Harrington, Paul Costello, Harry Kyle, Bobbie Kyle, Billy Crough, and Eddie Corkery.

Interment was in St. Martin's cemetery. The parish priest, Rev. C. G. Gillogly, officiated in the church and at the grave.

Prices Fluctuate In Dull Session

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Prices fluctuated irregularly in a dull session on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Early firmness in industrials disappeared and fractional losses appeared. Western oils also moved downwards as key issues lost. Golds and base metals were about balanced.

Volume for the first three hours was 354,000 shares, about 37,000 shares more than Wednesday's similar period.

Papers were down fractions in the industrials and a few utilities eased. International Paper, ahead in early dealings, dipped ⅝ to 50. Canadian Dredge was down ¾ at 22¼.

Calgary and Edmonton dropped 45 cents at $5.40 in western oils.

Senior golds were mixed and some junior producers showed increased activity for some gains. Kerr Addison was down the minimum fraction in seniors while Lake Shore gained a like amount. Giant Yellowknife, Pickle Crow, Madsen and Campbell were among the junior gainers.

Noranda lost ¼ at 54¼ in base metals and Steep Rock, Falconbridge and Anacon Lead tightened.

Bickering Marks UN Session End

NEW YORK, May 19 —(CP)— The third session of the General Assembly ended Wednesday night after a last-minute, unsuccessful Polish attempt to bring before the United Nations the case of Gerhart Eisler.

The final hours of the six-week spring session were marked by unprecedented shouting and bickering in the assembly hall at Flushing Meadow.

Polish delegate Julius Katz-Suchy challenged the ruling of assembly president Herbert V. Evatt, Australia's external affairs minister, that the Polish proposal was out of order.

The weary delegates overwhelmingly voted down the challenge and went on with the business of closing the session with expressions of thanks to the president and secretary-general Trygve Lie.

Katz-Suchy warned he might request a special session of the assembly to take up the case of Eisler who last week was taken off the Polish liner Batory by British officials at Southampton, England.

A British delegate told reporters Katz-Suchy's conduct was a "farce."

High Winds Topple Winchester Buildings

WINCHESTER, May 19 (CP)— High winds ripped through this Eastern Ontario village Wednesday knocking down buildings and hydro poles. The storm, accompanied by huge hailstones, lasted for some 20 minutes, but it shifted buildings, blocked roads with fallen poles and left four villages without power for four hours.

The storm carried away the half-finished barn of Simon Cayer, with damage estimated at $3,000, and moved his henhouse nearly a foot. On another nearby farm an empty silo was smashed and debris scattered for nearly 100 yards while a shed containing farm machinery was lifted from its foundations and dumped in a nearby field.

Three horses were knocked unconscious when the lightning struck a barn owned by Dwight Dawley near here and started a small fire. Hydro poles were knocked down at nearby Chesterville and the highway from here to Chesterville was blocked by fallen poles.

Practically no damage to crops was reported by the hail. Some of the hailstones were said to be as large as pullet eggs

Fred A. Broom Dies In Lindsay

LINDSAY, May 19—A veteran of the First World War, past president of the Lindsay Great War Veterans' Association, former town alderman and ex-railway conductor, Frederick Albert Brown died here Wednesday.

He was born in England 75 years ago, where he served in the British army; he came to Canada and Lindsay 43 years ago. He entered the service of the old Grand Trunk Railway and became known as a champion for the rights of the employees and the working man.

As a member of the town council he acted as chairman of board of works. A collector of old coins, he had one of the largest and most valuable to be found in Canada or the United States and he contributed many articles to U.S. magazines on this subject. He was a charter member of the Sir Sam Hughes Branch of the Canadian Legion. He was buried by his comrades in the army.

80 YEARS AGO

The Northwest Territories were admitted to Confederation in 1869.

HERE IS SONNY, veteran Montreal police horse, who lived on borrowed time. He was humanely put to death recently. He was old, vets say, of no use in the service, and had great difficulty in swallowing food. But here, dreaming of past glories and recalling his sunlit days on the slopes of Mount Royal, he holds his head up proudly and watches for a word from his master, Constable M. Duranleau.

Martin Denies Power Abused

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 19. — (CP). — Health Minister Martin, first federal cabinet minister to campaign in Newfoundland for the June 27 general election, today continued a four-day tour of the island. He will give two speeches, a radio address and a press conference.

Mr. Martin Wednesday challenged statements by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, that the Liberal administration is abusing power in Ottawa. An example of the Government's policy of consulting the provinces on major issues was provided by the Unemployment Insurance Act of 1941.

The provinces were consulted before the Federal Government brought in an insurance bill. In contrast was the procedure of the Bennett Conservative Government which earlier had passed a similar bill without consulting the provinces only to have it declared unconstitutional by the Supreme Court of Canada.

May Reduce Quality

NEW YORK, May 19—(AP) — Because of the conflict in seasons and the distance involved, United States representation in the 1956 Olympic games at Melbourne may be reduced in quality or quantity—possibly both. This was put forth by sports leaders here today after learning from J. Sigrid Edstrom, president of the international Olympic committee, that the Melbourne games will be held in October.

Debentures Sell For Premium

COBOURG, May 19—(ENS)—The town of Cobourg Wednesday night sold debentures to the value of $423,000 bearing interest at 3¼% at a very excellent rate of 101.40. The successful tender was that of the Bank of Toronto and Midland Securities. The rate last year was 100.582. The tender this year amounted to $428,922, or a premium of $5,922. This is a cost basis of 3.08 as compared with 3.1868 last year.

Purpose of the debentures is to finance the sewage disposal system and will be on a bais of $338,000 for 20 years and $85,000 for 15 years. The $84,000 is not chargeable against the town's debentures but represents a utilities watermain and will be taken care of by the public utilities financing.

H. O. MacDonald, manager of the Midland Securities, congratulated the mayor and council.

"The mayor, finance chairman and council are very much to be congratulated on an almost unprecedented low rate of borrowing. You are reaping the dividends on your good faith over the year. There were municipalities in the difficult days that defaulted or did not live up to the full liability. Cobourg was not one of those municipalities. Some had the ability to pay but not the willingness. For Cobourg, its sense of obligation and a keen desire to meet just debts, is the reason you have got such an extremely low rate those who guided your administration in the past and in the present, deserve the gratitude of the taxpayers," Mr. MacDonald declared.

The rink committee submitted plans for the new recreational centre at a cost of $95,361.00 for the building plus $36,000 for the ice making machinery. George Hipel, who drew up the plans, told the council that this year and last, all artificial ice arenas made money in this province.

Council passed a resolution approving of the plans of the building committee, subject to final approval by the Municipal Board and also subject to a clause that the work is to be subject to supervision by the town's consulting engineer.

Obituary

MRS. JOSIAH TOBICO

ROSENEATH, May 19 (ENS)—The lengthy tolling of the bell of Alderville United Church, early Wednesday morning made it known to the residents that Mrs. Josiah Tobico, an aged resident of the reserve had died. The tolling of the bell is an ancient custom of the residents of the reserve. It tolled 81 times, the age of the deceased.

Life-Long Resident

Mrs. Tobico, formerly Susan Sunday, was a highly esteemed resident of Alderville and spent her entire life here. Her husband, the late Josiah Tobico, predeceased her over 30 years ago.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Noah Smoke of Oakville, Mrs. Moses Smoke, Jr., and one son John Tobico, both of Alderville, also one brother, John Sunday of Alderville.

The funeral service will be held on Friday at 2.00 p.m. in Alderville Church. H. Sander, Cold Springs, will officiate.

Interment will be in Alderville Cemetery.

Manning The Peterborough Guns

The Army is on parade in Peterborough this week, and an interesting show it is. Gone are the days when a public military demonstration was a matter of forming-fours on a parade square amidst shining brass and a painful hush before the barked command to "Slope Arms". Arms are sloped infrequently these days; instead monster Ack Ack guns are tilted; soldiers twirl buttons on radar equipment and demonstrate their knowledge of complicated machinery and electrical gadgets.

• • •

"Saturday night soldiering" is no more. Men in the Reserve still "parade" but they practise other things than standing at ease. They learn all sorts of interesting skills, and in a unit such as the local 50th Anti-Aircraft Regiment, the mid-week evening parades are stimulating and instructive - - as well as profitable, since some pay is given for this voluntary service.

• • •

The Commanding Officer of the Eastern Ontario Area, Brigadier Geoffrey Walsh, C.B.E., D.S.O., in town for Army Week, commented Tuesday evening that he would like to see the regiment larger. We think that it could easily become larger when men of Peterborough and district realize the opportunities it presents.

• • •

Canadians are not militarily minded. There seems to be a Canadian disposition to take pride in a uniform and the wearing of it only when battle sounds are in the air. Such an attitude is not to be condemned; an excess of the contrary has led the world to much woe. However, in these uncertain days, in a country whose internal and external commitments have vastly increased, peace-time soldiering in the Reserve or the Active Army is a necessary, a commendable, and honourable national service. The few guns Canada maintains in peace time have to be manned; otherwise they are as useless as spiked ones. Spiked guns are splendid as historical mementos or as dreams of future perpetual peace, but they do not meet the needs of today.

The Irish Find A Grievance

For about as many years as Ireland has been sitting across the Irish Sea from England, Irishmen have coddled a hatred for England. It is in their spleen, they nurse it as affectionately as they do their love for dear old Ireland. Perhaps they fear losing their sense of grievance against England lest it impair their love for Ireland. But from last Easter Sunday all cause of bitterness seemed to have been removed.

Eire became a completely independent republic. It severed its connection with the Commonwealth. England and other Commonwealth countries not only recognized the new Republic but sent its officials and people messages of congratulation. They did more. With great friendliness and no strings attached they declared that Irishmen could not be considered foreigners. By Clause 2 of the Irish Act passed at Westminster this month, a new category was provided for Ireland, giving citizens of the Republic of Ireland statute rights in Britain.

What could be more generous? What further gestures and concessions could the Irish expect? Surely now even the pretext for animosity had disappeared? Now the new Republic should express the most cordial feelings toward Britain and its thanks for the understanding treatment accorded it by the British Government.

Not so. There was no flood of thanks across the Irish Sea. Instead on Tuesday, May 10th, the Dail Eireann (Eire's parliament) 'solemnly re-asserted' . . . "the indefeasible right of the Irish nation to the unity and integrity of the national terriory." It 'repudiated' "the claim of the British Parliament to enact legislation affecting Ireland's territorial integrity in violation of right"; it 'pledged' . . . "the determination of the Irish people to continue the struggle against the unjust and unnatural partition of our country until it is brought to a successful conclusion". And it "indignantly protests" the Irish Act, which was given second reading on May 11th.

So there it is. No thanks and cordial expressions, but a trumping up of grievance, a fanning of old flames. Eire refuses to recognize any British benevolence. Perhaps it fears friendship lest the old political battle-cries become meaningless to voters and to the millions of expatriated Irishmen the world over who can still be persuaded to sing that "the shamrock is forbid by (English) law to grow on Irish ground". Paddy dear refuses to allow his animus to subside, to exorcise the Anglophobia from his spleen.

The grievance now flaunted is the quarter-century-old partition of the island between Northern Ireland and Eire. Britain cannot of course hand over the six northern counties to Eire, and Ulster will not cease to be a part of the Commonwealth, as Prime Minister Attlee has explained, without the consent of the Parliament of Northern Ireland. Eire apparently wants freedom and Home Rule for itself but is not prepared to allow it to Ulster.

Who Is The Enemy of Freedom?

In his anxiety to link the Liberals, the C.C.F. and the L.P.P. parties as enemies of individual freedom and private enterprise, Mr. George Drew has allowed himself considerable liberty of expression during his tour of the Maritime Provinces. It was not surprising, therefore, that Mr. St. Laurent, in a speech at Halifax, pointed out that the most barefaced attack upon a democratic freedom—the freedom of the press—which has been made in Canada in a very long time was made by the Ontario branch of the party which Mr. Drew leads in the Dominion. The Charitable Gifts Act was the name which was given to the attack, and the Legislature of Ontario was the instrument which was used to make it effective. There are great numbers of people who will never get it out of their heads that the Charitable Gifts Act was George Drew's revenge upon his old enemy the Toronto Star, and that the premiership of Ontario was Mr. Leslie Frost's reward for acting as Mr. Drew's choreboy.

The details of the case are well-known and need not be repeated here. Will the people who believe that the whole affair was a case of revenge carried beyond the grave be impressed by Mr. Drew as a champion of freedom and democracy? Prostituting a legislative body for personal revenge is the sort of democratic action which we expect of Signor Peron.

Mr. Drew could, and doubtless does, deny that he had anything to do with the shameful Charitable Gifts Act. But his association with Premier Duplessis of Quebec, another enemy of press freedom, is scarcely a happy one if he hopes to pose as an advocate of freedom and private enterprise. The link which Mr. Drew seeks to expose between the Liberals, the C.C.F. and the Communists is not half so apparent to the eye as the link which binds him to Canada's disorganized, but powerful, totalitarian influences.

Bush Fire Hazard

The brush fire near Eagle Lake in Haliburton last week should remind us all that our valuable and beautiful forest areas are particularly vulnerable to flames at this season of the year. Hydro workers clearing out brush near the hamlet of Eagle Lake were unable to control small fires which they had set as part of their clearance operations. A wind whipped the fires into a blaze and soon many acres of wildland were aflame. Fortunately volunteer firemen were able to extinguish the fire before the day ended, and no great damage was done.

One live cigarette carelessly dropped, one small campfire improperly tended or extinguished, one match, can cause an expensive, dangerous and destructive forest fire. People in these lake and wooded areas must be careful, and particularly touring groups driving through them for a day's outing. Visitors too often are unaware of the great harm a careless toss of a cigarette can cause. If motorists will remember to put cigarette butts and matches into trays in their cars and not to throw them out the windows, and if campfires are not lit in brush land, the number of forest fires will be greatly lessened. Our forests must be protected from wanton wastage.

A Virginia choir boy, who hadn't missed Sunday School in two years and was an Eagle Scout, has confessed to murdering a girl with a bottle. Such a good boy was certain to break out some time. An occasional glass of beer, or a cigarette behind the barn might have saved him.

From The Critic's Notebook

WATCH THE NORTHWIND RISE, by Robert Graves (Creative Age). Readers who may have been persuaded to read this author's amazing book "The White Goddess" by a review of it which appeared in this column of a few weeks ago will be interested to hear of this novel, in which Graves employs some of the material from that book as background for a work of fiction.

Novels about Utopian civilizations can be dreadful bores; "Watch The Northwind Rise" not only steers clear of boredom, but is an expert and provocative work of fiction. The story, in brief, is this: an English poet of the present day is transported, by magic into the new Cretan civilization, some thousands of years in the future; his translation is managed by some New Cretan magicians who need him in their work. He discovers that the civilization of the future is not the Brick Bradford horror which so many novelists have presented, but a culture in which science plays only a small part; hand work is highly valued and many of the confusing external devices of modern life (labour-savers) are unknown; the people of the future have discovered that labour is one thing which it is quite unnecessary to save. Their society is sharply stratified; workers, leaders, magicians and other groups have different duties and different privileges; magicians are the most highly esteemed, and they have carried on more or less from where science has left off, but with a more intelligent regard for rights of mankind; these are magicians with a keen moral sense.

The appearance of the English poet, however, causes trouble for two new Cretan witches fall in love with him, and employ their arts to get him. This results in a good deal of amusing intrigue, and lightens the heavy and expository passages to which all Utopian novels are prone.

Many readers will find the strangest single feature of the New Cretan civilization its worship of the White Goddess, and its abandonment of Christianity. Certainly an Utopian novel which is more concerned with religion and humanity than with scientific bugaboos is a novelty. I recommend this highly.

THE CHAMPLAIN ROAD by Franklin Davey McDowell (Macmillan). A fine new edition of this well-known historical novel about the Jesuit Mission to the Hurons, first published ten years ago, has just been released. Growing interest in the tragedy of Huronia has led to the sites of Fort St Marie and the mission village of St. Ignace being acquired by the Jesuit Order since that date. In co-operation with them, the department of Indian and Pioneer Archeology at the University of Western Ontario has carried on extensive excavations there. Although this work has brought new facts to light, Mr. McDowell has not attempted to change the setting of his romance, but has shortened it slightly. Everyone interested in the history of our country will enjoy reading or re-reading "The Champlain Road".

THE OBLONG BLUR by Philip Hamburger (Clarke, Irwin). This is a collection of long and short pieces by one of the ablest reporters on the staff of the New Yorker. There is no other magazine or paper of wide circulation on this continent which maintains such a high standard of literate and informed reporting as the New Yorker, and collections of the work of its writers are by no means uncommon. Mr. Hamburger acts as music critic for the magazine, and he also does general work on such assignments as spiritualist seances, breakfast club radio programs, and artists who paint pictures at so much per foot. He has travelled abroad as a correspondent for the paper; in many ways he must be one of the best reporters in the U. S. A.

He is also an admirable writer. It is necessary to say so, for the belief persists in Canada, and even among newspapermen, that writing for a newspaper is in some mysterious way unlike any other sort of writing, and that a good reporter may be an illiterate and even a stupid fellow. Mr. Hamburger shows clearly that a good style, wide knowledge, wit and a smattering of philosophy are just as useful to a reporter as to any other writer. I recommend this book highly.

THE PORTABLE VOLTAIRE, edited by Ben Ray Redman (Macmillan). There are thousands of literate people today to whom Voltaire is known only by Candide; this is as though Bernard Shaw were to be known only by "Candida". This excellent selection from the vast body of his work should do much to make his stature known—as though a breeze were to blow the mist a little higher up the slopes of a mountain. The excellent introduction does much to clarify certain of Voltaire's ideas which time and well-meaning admirers have muddied; it is made perfectly plain, for instance, that it was with Christianity that Voltaire was at odds, and not merely with some aspects of the Roman Church. The generous quotations from the "Philosophical Dictionary" are welcome, also, for this is a work of which . . . This is the ideal gift for that sharp-witted nephew of yours who is going to the university in the Fall.

Soil Depletion

Many symptoms of the growing infertility of the soil in Essex are apparent. We are not improving our corn yields, in spite of the great advance in scientific methods and increased use of commercial fertilizers. The drains worked efficiently a generation ago, but now the water has difficulty in reaching the tile, and we rely more on top-drains.

Topsoil is deteriorating, although much of it has been cropped for only three or four generations. What is to happen in another three or four generations? As productivity of our soil is lost, our towns will suffer a parallel economic loss. Early vegetable and tobacco growers have been able to keep their soil-fertility through buying manure, thus robbing the soil of our general farms. But there is an end to this.—Kingsville Reporter.

RED CAP

First Women K.C.'s

(U.K. INFORMATION SERVICE)

Visitors to London's Law courts a few days ago saw an ancient and picturesque ceremony. Into each of the 28 courts in turn came a procession of seventeen men and two women wearing full-bottomed wigs and black silk gowns. They were the newly-appointed King's Counsel come to take their seats in the prescribed manner. But the difference between this procession and all those which preceded it was the presence of women. For the first time they have been appointed as King's Counsel or leaders at the English Bar.

In each court business was suspended while the judge called the new K. C.'s by name and repeated the old legal formula: "His Majesty having been pleased to appoint you one of his counsel of learned in the law you will take your seat accordingly". Each bowed to the judge, the lawyers, and the public and passed on.

The two women K.C.'s are Mrs. Helene Normanton, who had already made legal history by becoming the first woman barrister in England, and Miss Rose Boilbron. Miss Hoilbron, who is 34 and has practised at the bar for some years, is in private life the wife of a Liverpool surgeon.

The appointment of women K. C.'s created no problem in ceremonial dress for in the place of the knee breeches of the men women wore plain black skirts.

Women have long since won their fight for recognition in the legal profession in Britain. Today the only major office in the courts no woman has yet held is that of High Court judge. It is only a question of time before that can no longer be said.

Six Eggs A Day From One Hen

Sixty-five normal-sized eggs from one fowl in forty-four days is the remarkable record claimed by Mr. C. L. Woodbine, of Barr Road, Gravesend.

Since the hen startled the poultry world in February by laying thirteen eggs in a week, she has twice produced six in one day.

Poultry experts do not believe it physically possible for a bird to lay six eggs in one day, unless "she is the first of some new race of fowl."

Mr. Woodbine is emphatic that it has been done. "Since she started eating feathers off her companions I have had her locked up in a run on her own", he said.

"In the period from March 15, when she laid four, to the 19th, she produced nineteen eggs."

The bird, a Rhode Island Red crossed with Light Sussex, was one of a batch of six-week-old chicks he bought from an Essex poultry farm in January, 1948.

Glee In Moscow

The C.C.F. far left outfielders who voted against the Alantic Pact at their B.C. convention should now be rubbing their hands in glee.

They've made the headlines in the Moscow papers.

Along with Communists and other party-liners, the Socialists gave Pravda the basis for a propaganda news story that "the Canadian people are conducting an active struggle against the aggressive North Atlantic Pact."

Although the C.C.F. party leaders did their best to hush up and minimize the opposition of their members to the Atlantic Pact, it didn't take long for the "good" news to reach the Kremlin.

In winning Pravda's acclaim, they are in bad company. They are lined up with boys like Tim Buck and Henry Wallace, who denounced the pact as a war-mongering threat against the "peace-loving" Soviets.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said . . . . Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are! . . . . Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart. If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles . . . . For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God . . . . Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways. (Job 22: 1, 12, 21-23, 26, 28.)

Heal me, O Lord, and I shall be healed: save me, and I shall be saved: for thou art my praise. (Jer. 17: 14.)

❖ ❖ ❖

And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest. (Matt. 9: 35-38.)

Profits Are Low

Most men and women who buy $1 worth of groceries in major Canadian chain stores are astonished to know that only about 1½ cents is net profit. Few would guess that the meat packers' net profit is currently about 9/10ths of a cent on every $1 sale. And the same thing applies to every other commodity. For the millions, the convincing, the clear, the conclusive facts about the profits of companies is, how much profit on the sales dollar. And they will be astounded at how low it is.

From many responsible sources, including the recent Commission on Prices, comes a continuous barrage of complaints about the inadequacy of company reports; about the failure of firms to make the most of this, the best opportunity in their business year, to help themselves, all business and the whole community by giving the public facts it can understand.

Confirming this failure was a recent survey which showed that only 2 per cent of annual reports in this country tell anything more than the absolute minimum required by law.

Since business generally has such a good story to tell, and since public misapprehension about profits is so great, it is tragic that the story isn't being told.

OLD COMRADES BREWERY Limited

(Incorporated under the Laws of the Dominion of Canada)

The Brewing Industry and Brewing Stocks

The Brewing Industry has enjoyed a remarkable record of Profits, Progress, Growth and Expansion in the last ten years — both in war and peace.

During this period, the stocks of Brewing Companies advanced 170%, 280%, 470%, 590%, 1530% and 4820%! In $ & ¢, this means that $1,000 invested in these stocks would have shown you profits of $1,700, $2,800, $4,700, $5,900, $15,300 and $48,200!

Production, Profits and Dividends in 1948 reached the highest of all time in the long history of the Industry. We predict 1949 will surpass 1948.

Production exceeded Two Hundred Million Dollars ($200,000,000) last year, and plans for expansion by the Big Companies in the Industry call for a total outlay of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000).

Old Comrades Brewery

In an industry, which is as large and as prosperous as the Brewing Industry, there is plenty of room, a big field and a fine opportunity for a new Company with expert management and a superior product.

This has been proved by the record of Old Comrades Brewery Limited, which started production August 20th, 1948, just 9 months ago. Because of the great demand for its products, "Schneider's Beer and Ale", the Company has already outgrown its present producing capacity and is now forced to expand.

The equipment necessary for expansion has already been ordered. On installation, it will double the present capacity and greatly increase earnings and the value of Old Comrades shares.

Profit Possibilities

We believe OLD COMRADES SHARES at $2.00 have GREAT PROFIT POSSIBILITIES.

To show you the PROFIT POSSIBILITIES in the Brewing Stocks, take Canadian Breweries Common Stock as an example. If someone had brought to your attention the profit possibilities of Canadian Breweries Common Stock in 1941, when it started its expansion program, and you had the foresight and vision to buy it, here is what would have happened:

You could have bought the stock as low as 60¢ per share. Since that time you would have received $6.13 per share in dividends or over 10 times your original investment. Your shares would now be selling at $20.00 per share or over 33 times your original investment. Your total of dividend returns and market profits would now be over 43½ times your original investment!

"History repeats itself" is an old and true saying. We believe it should repeat itself in the case of Old Comrades Brewery Limited.

Our Special Offer

For one reason, and one reason only, that is, to introduce our investment service to you readers of this newspaper, and to obtain new clients for our firm, we are making a special offer. Here it is:

Donaldson and Mrs. Charles Crawford reported for social service and Mrs. Earl Heath gave the treasurer's report. It was decided to hold the June meeting at Crowe lake at the summer cottage of Mrs. Teresa Warren.

Mrs. Joseph Doyle and Mrs. William Forestall volunteered to visit the sick and shut-ins for this month. It was decided to hold a strawberry social on the school grounds at the end of June. The president requested the women of Groups 3 and 4 to provide the lunch for the June meeting.

The Rev. Father Farrell addressed the meeting. He spoke of the Diocesan convention and hoped as many members as possible would attend this year when it was being held so close by. He also spoke of the Mission which will open here on May 29 by the Ascension Fathers. He urged the parents to have the family rosary in the home. He concluded with words of congratulation for Mrs. Black and Verna for the success of the play presented by the Sodality. On behalf of the League, Mrs. Bernard Hughes tendered them a vote of thanks.

The program consisted of a piano selection by Mrs. Trnest Shannon, a reading, "The Miracle of the Roses," by Mrs. Sandham, and a reading by Mrs. Rose Johnston, entitled "Ladder to Heaven" A few games were enjoyed, after which refreshments were served by the executive.

Removed From Stand

WASHINGTON, May 19—(AP)—An official of the American Labor party Wednesday was forcibly removed from the witness stand at a Senate hearing when he refused to say whether he is or ever has been a Communist. The witness was Arthur Schutzler, New York State executive secretary of the American Labor party. Guards seized Schutzler by the arms and hauled him from the chair when he persisted in talking without saying yes or no to a question about Communist affiliations.

Steps Taken To Organize Women's Auxiliary

HAVELOCK, May 19.—(ENS).—The first step in the organization of a Women's Auxiliary to the Havelock-Belmont Branch No. 389 of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., was taken on Tuesday evening when a meeting was held in the Legion Hall, with representatives from Peterborough Branch No. 52, Women's Auxiliary in attendance.

Mrs. S. Southward opened the meeting and after introducing the visitors from Branch 52, asked them to take charge.

The president, Mrs. A. C. Mason, presided, assisted by Mrs. A. Parrington, past president; Mrs. G. Stevens, first vice; Mrs. R. Ritchie, treasurer; Mrs. A. Wagstaffe, wife of the zone commander.

Outlines Rules

Mrs. Mason said it was necessary to have a provincial officer present to organize an auxiliary. She outlined the aims of an auxiliary, the routine to follow at the meetings and on her suggestion the following officers were nominated. Their names will be forwarded by the Peterborough Auxiliary to the provincial officer, who will set the date for the installation ceremony:

President, Mrs. O. R. Pomeroy; first vice, Mrs H. J Adams; second vice, Mrs. W. P. Cartwright; secretary, Mrs. W. Forsyth; treasurer. Mrs. J. Diaper; standard bearer, Mrs. C. Toms; pianist, Mrs. S Southward.

Refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

Pole Felled By Willie Davis In Main Pro Grapple Bout

Wee Willie Davis defeated Blockbuster Talun in two straight falls of the main pro wrestling bout at the Brock Arena last evening. He took the first by the disqualification route and the second with a "Boston crab" hold, aided by heading the ropes, as the fans shouted disapproval, Talun being more popular. Pat Flanagan took the semi-final over Sandy O'Donnell on the referee's decision, as the prelim went to Bill Stack over Frank Valois. The heat kept the crowd down.

Referee Bert Maxwell took quite a beating from Talun, as the 318-pound Pole appeared to have a one-track mind. In the first round, he was working on an armlock on Davis, when his 260-pound opponent began eye-rasping and other illegal tricks. The enraged Pole pulled White into the ropes and tried to choke him, ignoring referee's warnings and finally throwing Maxwell around. He got both Davis and Maxwell down and tramped on them with his No. 19 shoes, and it was quite a job to get him pried off. The indignant official then awarded the fall to Davis in 22 minutes, but the fans were all cheering Talun.

They were a ponderous pair, not fast, but powerful, and they jumped the bell in the second round. Davis tried to hop on Talun from behind, but the Blockbuster caught him around the neck with his towel and choked him to the mat. Again the referee—who got madder by the minute—was thrown carelessly around by the big fellow. After the gong officially started it, Davis tried a Boston crab and was promptly kicked clear through the ropes by his strong opponent. But he applied it again and used his head on the ropes for leverage this time to eventually make Talun concede the fall in four minutes.

Extra Scrap

Flanagan weighed 223 to O'Donnell's 246 and he also gave away height, but he was faster and displayed some fancy holds to offset rough tactics by the stronger Sandy. The latter early drew the fans' ire and warnings from the referee for illegal stuff, but he bothered Pat plenty for a time with a punishing hammerlock. They both used fists and elbows freely in a lively scrap, Put once pulling a nifty rolling reverse leg hammerlock to almost pin the other. When the gong finished it, Pat's hand was raised and this touched off another hot tussle, with Pat finally being flung out on the arena floor. Nick Vicchiarelli went to help him up and the dazed Pat grabbed and flipped him, but no harm was done.

Stack Wins

It took Bill Stack, scaling 227, just 21 minutes to win the prelim over 236-pound Frank Valois of Montreal, using a series of monkey flips effectively and a body slam. They opened fast and clean with both showing good holds and honors about even, Stack being more popular. Later, Valois roughed it up and was warned a number of times for the stuff he pulled as boos showered down on him. He threw Stack out of the ring and pounded him hard, but Bill came back strong to fling him out. He kept right after Valois to make him jump out to escape punishment. It was nip-and-tuck for a time, in and out of the ropes, till Stack connected with the flips off the ropes to end it.

THOMPSON WINS

Billy Thompson of England Wednesday night retained his British and European lightweight boxing titles by stopping Harry Hughes of Scotland in the fifth round.

Harriers Plan To Enter Oshawa Meet

Peterborough Harriers Club will compete in a dual track and field meet against Shamrock AC in Alexandria Park on May 28. This will be the second meet. The first was held in Peterborough last fall with the Shamrock the victors by a score of 50 to 36.

Coach Bill Morwood has his athletes in training on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the Exhibition Grounds track. These training sessions are open to any athlete who is interested in track and field. The club lacks high jumpers and field men of which the Oshawa club is strong.

The Harriers will be sending a 10-man team and this does not include the four new junior athletes who have joined the ranks. These boys have been under the watchful eye of the coach for the past two weeks and by the time the Oshawa meet draws around they should be able to do their bit for a Peterborough victory.

In the long distance field, Thistlewaite, the winner of the three-mile road race, and his running companion McNeil, are in heavy training for the two-mile event and are hoping to down Oshawa's Jim Harris who won the event last fall by a slim margin, Jack Martin will run in the two-mile as a second entry, as the half-mile run will be his main event; he will not be alone in this event as Mike Basiano, a young junior athlete, has been showing surprisingly fine form on the half, and a newcomer, Jack Vale, a six-foot-four Englishman of Birmingham, will also compete, but has been out of competition for the last four years.

In the sprints, Jim Flowers and J. McGillis will run into some fast competition from Wimp Crawford and Eric Kofmel of the Shamrocks, with the latter last year's winner.

On the whole the club will be sending a stronger team than last time and the competitions should be keener and faster.

Torgeson In Hospital

BOSTON, May 18 — (AP). — Boston Braves' first baseman Earl Torgeson was reported resting comfortably to-day at St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he underwent a 3½-hour operation Wednesday. Doctors removed about 12 inches of tissue from his thigh and used it to tie together his left shoulder which was separated. The bespectacled Boston first baseman suffered the injury on Saturday night when he threw a block at Brooklyn second baseman Jackie Robinson in an effort to break up a double play.

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

A successor to Dit Clapper as coach of Boston Bruins in the NHL hasn't been named yet, but Baldy Cotton and Johnny Crawford are mentioned as good prospects for the job by Dan Odette of the Kitchener sheet. Milt Schmidt visited there the other day and said he'd decided against retirement but would play defence next year. As Prexy Weston Adams of the Bruins isn't fussy about having a playing coach, this leaves Milt out of it for the time being. They'd like to have Schmidt playing ball for them in Waterloo this season but he wants to rest and will return to his home in the States (in Newton, Mass.) where he hopes to open a sports store eventually. Chuck Conacher won't be with Bruins as the Hawks are retaining him.

Season is young yet in men's softball over at the Bowl but already keen rivalry is in evidence. Knights lead with three and no. Cosmos and Outlaws having two wins and a loss each, as Uniteds have broken even in four, and Jewellers have dropped three. Latter team is being shaken up by Stan Hhoulihan. Changes, too, in the Uniteds where Manager Ken O'Toole and three players—Woods, Tompkins and Condon—were dissatisfied and left the team. The players will seek transfers to other clubs. Some internal friction, one supposes. All teams will have changes yet ere too long, we imagine, as they strengthen up. Games tonight: Cosmos vs. Jewellers, and Outlaws vs. Knights.

Shoemen And Petes

Batawa Shoemen open the Central Ontario Baseball League against the Petes at three Saturday aft in Riverside, pitching probably Max Smith or Gordie Muffitt. Haven't Ed Murphy's starting lineup at the moment, but may have something on it tomorrow. At least two newcomers on the team, Joe Lowrey, a pitcher and outfielder from Connecticut, and Pat Wilson of Toronto, an outfielder. Some good former juniors on the list, too, and a number of last year's COBL champs back again. It'll be a strong squad in a keen circuit. No schedule out yet, but the Petes will be in Belleville on May 24.

* * * * * *

Mayor Max Swanston will faceoff to officially open the OLA senior "A" schedule here tomorrow night. Yeah, Weston and the Petes start it off at 8.45 Friday eve in Miller Bowl, same squads tangling in Weston on May 24. Schedule is being revised now, the senior "A" setup including: Hamilton, St. Catharines, Mimico, Brampton, Owen Sound, Weston and Peterborough. They'll all be in action within the next few days and a week or so should give gutted-stick fans an idea of the early season strength of the seven big squads. Likely a local lineup available tomorrow, and folks here should see a stronger club in action than the one which won the senior "B" title the past two years.

Referee In Trouble

Much puffing, panting and tugging in the main mat go at the Brock last eve as Talun, weighing 318, and Wee Willie Davis, at 280, fought it out in ponderous style. Referee Bert Maxwell took the worst of it as the huge Pole flouted authority—iron curtain escapism, maybe—to toss Bertram around like a buxom feather pillow. He trampled Willie and Maxwell together once and that was too much for the Royal York house dick. He promptly awarded the fall to Davis. The latter then won the next one with a crab grip, using the ropes illegally to help him, but ye ref paid no never mind to that. Flanagan won the semi-final over O'Donnell — though losing the aftermath—whilst Stack took Valois in the prelim.

President Bill Bennett of the Girls' Softball League has drawn up the schedule, which we'll run tomorrow. It opens next Wednesday eve in the Bowl with Westclox playing Marines and CGE tangling in the nightcap with Lindsay. Some of the Lindsay lasses' games will be played on the Scugog diamond, these showing in the schedule. Teams aboard are Westclox, Marines, Lindsay, CGE, Lock Co., Ashby's and Woollens. Play winds up in the first week of August, with the various playoffs following. Loop is affiliated with the PWSU again. Teams should be stronger this semester and likely a lot of keen competition lies ahead for followers of the colleen softballers.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Charley (King Kong) Keller, veteran New York Yankee outfielder, and Whitey Kurowski, sore-armed St. Louis Cardinal third baseman, were the most important "name" players dropped Wednesday as the major leagues pared down to the 25-man deadline, effective at midnight. Keller was sent to the Yanks' Newark farm club in the International League. It is hoped he will be able to work himself back into playing condition while assisting the Newark manager as a coach. Kurowski has been placed on the disabled list, which means he will not be eligible for active service for at least sixty days.

Detroit sent Pitcher Saul Rogovin to Buffalo, gave outfielder-infielder Jimmy Outlaw his unconditional release and sold outfielder Don Lund conditionally to their Toledo farm of the American Association. Brooklyn optioned pitcher Eza (Pat) McGlothin to their Montreal farm club, and the Phillies sent catcher Hal Wagner and picher Jock Thompson to their Toronto affiliate.

Take it from Red Rolfe — the heat is really on in the American League. "Yes, sir," the carrot-topped manager of Detroit Tigers said Wednesday at Washington, "from top to bottom this year's American League pennant race is going to be one of the closest in recent years." He won't pick his Bengals for the junior loop's top spot. But the freshman pilot observed: "I hope we finish in the first division."

Lord Derby's Swallow Tail, second favorite for the derby, was beaten by three-quarters of a length, in a 1¼-mile tune-up race at Liverpool Wednesday. The horse was a 2-to-9 choice. In a field of four, Swallow Tail was edged out of first place by the 33-to-1 outsider, Prince Royal, in the $2,000 added Knowsley Dinner Stakes.

Mrs. Andy Schuttinger's Ferd gained prestige as the best two-year-old yet uncovered in New York this season when he won the $10,000-added juvenile stakes at Belmont Wednesday.

Hodgen, a six-year-old bay driven by Eddie Cobb, thrilled 9,118 harness racing fans Wednesday night at Fairmount Park, Ill., with a double victory in the $3,000 divided sixth and ninth races in a nine-race card which opened the grand circuit season here.

Name 29 Horses To Run In Plate Trial

TORONTO, May 19—(CP).—A total of 29 three-year-olds have been nominated for the six-furlong plate trial, feature of Saturday's opening of the spring meeting of the Ontario Jockey Club at Woodbine Park.

The plate trial will give some indication of the competition to be expected when the classic King's Plate itself is run at the same track May 28. But the 90th renewal of the King's Plate is at a mile and an eighth, and the winner of the shorter plate trial may be dragging his heels before they reach the final pole a week from Saturday.

However, the plate trial lists all the substantial contenders for the King's guineas and, as in former years, will probably be run in two divisions to accommodate the large field. The track at old Woodbine won't take any more than 12 to 15 starters.

In the trial they'll be running for smaller awards than in the plate itself, which with the King's guineas and $10,000 added by the Ontario Jockey Club figures to be worth $15,000 o rmore.

George McCullagh's speedy Irish and E. P. Taylor's Epic are among plate favorites who will spring in the trial. Others are Willie Morrissey's Gem Thief and John Stuart's Bunty Line.

The other plate trial nominees are Koo Shot, Toe the Mark, Tab Field, Set Field, Regan Lad, Filsis, Platemaker, Sun Bomber, Kand Is, Rail Strike, Bolaris, Ray Companion, Graydon Tina, Sovia's Bunty, Mandatea, Royal Bomber, Pathem, Grandehem, Bunty's Jewel, Elmbrook Joe, L'Habitant, Tedwee, Wing Commander, Blew Brush and Ramillion.

Giants Smother Maple Leafs In 7-0 Victory

By The Associated Press.

Jersey City holds a two-game lead in the International League as the result of George Bamberger's seven-hit, 7-0 victory over Toronto Wednesday night.

Bamberger notched his second triumph for the New York Giant farmhands while his mates thumped loser Lou Possehl and two other Toronto pitchers for 11 hits.

Rochester smothered Newark 11-1 to give Johnny Yuhas his first victory of the season. Eddie Mierkowicz led the attack with a homer and two singles and Bob Young smashed a triple, double and two singles.

Buffalo cut loose with six runs in the third inning to knock Bryan Stephens, former St. Louis Browns' pitcher, and overpower Baltimore 12-8. Cy Block helped the Bisons to their third straight victory with four hits, including two doubles. He drove in four runs.

Montreal and Syracuse were not scheduled.

Hockey Hall Of Fame Sites Being Studied

KINGSTON, May 19 (CP). — Whether the Royal Canadian Architectural Institute will sponsor a competition for the best design for the International Hockey Hall of Fame to be located in Kingston is undecided.

Two Montreal architects, John Smith and Charles David, accompanied by Clarence Campbell president of the National Hockey League, were in the city Wednesday to inspect possible sites for the hockey shrine.

They explained that before the Institute could agree to hold the competition, its members must be assured that the site for the Hall was one fitting to the high class type of building the shrine would call for.

Campbell explained that a grant for the NHL of $30,000—$5.000 from each club—was conditional on a suitable design being obtained, preferably through an RCAI contest, which the NHL would underwrite.

Robinson Trade To Senators Veeck Mistake

WASHINGTON, May 19 (AP)—Bill Veeck, boss of the Cleveland Indians, may be charged with baseball's trading boner of the year if Washington first baseman Eddie Robinson keeps up his present pace.

The 29-year-old Senator, who came here in a winter-time deal which sent Mickey Vernon to the Indians, slammed his seventh homer of the season Wednesday night to give his club a 6-3 victory over Detroit.

Robinson has built up one of the best baseball comeback stories of 1949 in the last three weeks. Soon after the season started, manager Joe Kuhel bought first baseman Herman Reich from the Indians for $10,000 and put Robinson — then hitting .161—on the trading block.

But the day Kuhel announced Reich's purchase, Robinson rapped out two hits. The next day he paced the surprising Washington attack with four hits in a twin bill at Philadelphia. He opened the Chicago series with a home run.

Robinson now is batting .316. He has knocked in 22 runs, scored 17, and has rapped out six doubles and one triple.

Meanwhile, Mickey Vernon is hitting around .250 for Veeck's team.

Reich went back to Cleveland on waivers nine days ago and Robinson has continued to lead the surging Senators at the bat. Last Tuesday, he gave the Nats a 5-4 victory over Boston by sending in the tying and winning runs with a solid single in the seventh.

Bells Beat Drivers To Open Civic Loop

Bell Telephone opened their Civic Softball League season last evening with a 12-8 win over the Bus Drivers. They had a slight edge hitting—including a homer by Boyce—and fielding in a neat number, finishing stronger to yank out the verdict. Simmons and Jamieson howered for the losers, who used Clark and Brown on the mound, while Stewart and Harrison pitched for Bell.

Bell—Greatrix rf, James c, Ackford ss, Harrison rf, p; Gillespie 1b, Tashingham lf; Wood 2b, Boyce 3b, Stewart p, rf.

Bus Drivers—Rowe c, Knox lf, Gordon rf, Jamieson ss, Grey 3b, Brown 2b, p; Arnold 1b, Simmons cf, Clark p, ss.

Police Victorious Against Bankers

The Police pounded out a 22-6 triumph over Bankers to open the Civic Softball League last night, bashing 30 safe blows off Lobb and Rollins, while Fife limited the losers to nine hits. Rollins hit a homer, while McGillen banged out two round-trip blows, a triple and two singles in a big night for the law. Seven of the Bankers went down on strikes in the one-sided joust.

Bankers—O'Rourke cf, Crawford ss, Rollins 3b, p; Robinson 1b, Stillman c, Guerin lf, Lobb p, Simms rf, Ethier 2b, McNiven 3b, Marino, Suden.

IT'S ALL OVER—Captain Bob Frampton of the Montreal Royals hugs the Memorial Cup, emblem of Canadian junior hockey supremacy, as the trophy was presented to him following the final game with the Brandon Wheat Kings in the Winnipeg Amphitheatre. The series, which went to eight games, was decided when Royals won 6-4 Monday night. Other members of the victorious Montreal team crowd around their captain as Frank King, right, captain of the Brandon team, offers his congratulations.

Try To Prevent Any Exploitation

KINGSTON, May 19 (CP). — An earnest attempt to prevent any possible exploitation of hockey players of school age will be made when the Canadian Education Association has completed its survey of the problem, Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockep League, said on Wednesday night.

Campbell arrived here for talks with the director's of Hockey's National Hall of Fame, and was asked about progress of the investigations into the various charges about both amateur and professional hockey league contract systems and their effect on youthful prospecs.

Dr. G. E. Hall, president of the University of Western Ontario, topped recent charges with the declaration that hockey's signing of youngsters still in school was comparable to the old English workhouse days.

The matter was discussed at the meeting of the various Federal organizations in a national fitness conference at Ottawa last January when it was suggested that the CEA undertake a survey.

This survey now is under way, and when the report is received a copy will go to Campbell and to George Dudley, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, for their consideration.

18TH CENTURY "NUISANCE"

In the middle of the 18th century, oil in America was considered a nuisance because it spoiled so many of the surrounding salt wells.

Amazing Senators Top Detroit Tigers In 6-3 Win

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

How about that zany Washington club? Now they come up with a one-hitter shared by four pitchers.

Not content with upsetting the American League with a streak of nine straight victories in the west, they're back home winning ball games in unorthodox fashion.

This latest dilly involved pitchers Paul Calvert, Dick Weik, Forrest Thompson and Dick Welteroth. They served up a total of one hit—a single—yet they needed a three-run homer by Eddie Robinson to top Detroit 6-3.

Of course, there's a gimmick. Nine bases on balls and three errors made it close. It turned out that the hit—Aaron Robinson's single in the fourth—didn't figure in the scoring.

Calvert, the bespectacled Montreal French-Canadian, started. He was forced to retire in the seventh because of a blistered finger. Weik came in and walked the first four men he faced. That was all for Richard. Thompson got the side out but Washington trailed 3-2 going to the last of the eighth.

Robinson lifted Marvin Grissom's pitch over the right-field fence with two on to give the Senators the lead and Welteroth was able to hold it.

Another Beating

Bobby Feller took another beating as the New York Yankees thumped Cleveland's faltering ace, 6-0, behind Vic Raschi's two-hit pitching.

The Yanks, led by Tommy Henrich's two homers, clubbed Feller for 12 of their 13 hits in the seven innings he worked. It was his third loss and Cleveland's fifth straight.

Boston Red Sox made it two in a row over Chicago, 7-4. Bobby Doerr and Ted Williams hit homers for Boston. Gus Zernial, the White Sox's rookie outfielder, drove in all four Chicago runs with a three-run homer and a 400-foot double.

Home runs by Stan Spence, Roy Sievers and Sherm Lollar enabled St. Louis Browns to win their ninth in 29 starts, downing Philadelphia, 8-6.

Upset Picture

Cincinnati continued to upset the National League picture, knocking off the Boston Braves, 13-9 on Grady Hatton's homer with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth.

Brooklyn went on a 20-hit spree to thump Chicago, 14-5, with Joe Hatten coasting to his third win; a 10-hitter. Roy Campanella and Duke Snider hit home runs for the Dodgers.

Johnny Mize hit the 304th and 305th homers of his career, passing the idle Joe DiMaggio to take the lead among active major leaguers, but the New York Giants lost to Pittsburgh, 5-3. Larry Jansen was touched up for nine hits including homers by Ed Stevens and Eddie Bockman.

Philadelphia Phillies made it two in a row over St. Louis Cards, 3-2, the winning run coming on a double by Granville Hammer and a single by Eddie Waitkus off reliefer Ted Wilks.

A Crucial Period

MONTREAL, May 19 —(CP)—Like other institutions, universities today are passing through a crucial period but still reflect changes in modern society, Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey, Chancellor of the University of Toronto, told a public meeting of the Anglican Province of Canada Synod here Wednesday. "One cannot isolate universities from the communities in which they have their being," Mr. Massey said. "Consequently they 'mirror' our contemporary failings."

OBAD Bowlers Tourney Won By Toronto

Toronto Lucky Strikes won the championship at the 10th annual bowling tournament of the Ontario Bowling Association of the Deaf at London recently. There were 23 teams in, including one from Peterborough. At the meeting after, George Forfar of Toronto was elected president for his fifth term, with William Mayfield of Peterborough the secretary-treasurer. The next tourney will be in Toronto in 1950.

M. Mandell captained the winners in class "A" with a total of 2952 as Lucky Strikes won from Toronto Old Classmates, captained by L. Charbonneau, former champions who had 2886. In third place was Peterborough Rough Riders, captained by William Mayfield, with 2875.

In section "B", Toronto won with 2700, under captain Charles Daney, as the Toronto Spiders under G. Robertson came next and W. Siwicki's Toronto Hurdlers were third. Class "C" went to Cobourg, led by E. Pollard, with 2380, Kitchener being second, and Windsor third.

The women's section was taken by Toronto Westward Ho's, under Pauline Malyk, with 2346. Caroline Hunter's Maple Leafs of Toronto were second and Brantford, captained by Freda Sero, was third.

To Revoke Charter

WASHINGTON, May 19—(AP)—The CIO's top leaders decided Wednesday night to recommend that the next CIO convention revoke the charter of the left-wing Farm Equipment Workers Union. The labor organization's executive board took the unprecedented action by a vote of 35 to 9

King Edward Wins

King Edward Juniors took a 15-9 School Softball League win over Confederation yesterday at King Edward. It was a good game most of the way with the KE boys scoring four runs each in the first and fifth, five in the second and one apiece in the fourth and sixth. The losers tallied three in the third, two in the fifth and one each in the first two, the fourth and seventh. Pagett and Perry hit homers. This clinched first spot in the south division for King Edward, being their fourth straight win in as many starts. Teams:

Confederation—McDougal 1b, Goldie 2b; Manley ss, Wright ss, Perry 3b, B. Floyd 3b, Bryan c, M. Perry p, Chesher cf, Rose rf, McIntosh lf.

1700 At Garden Party

LONDON, May 19 — (CP)— About 1,700 persons, including more than 50 Canadians, were presented at court Wednesday in a huge afternoon tea party at Buckingham Palace. The King and Queen gave the party for invited guests from countries starting with the letters A through L. They will give another today for those from countries beginning with M through Z.

HOSPITAL OF THE NORTH—Although organized to look after military personnel stationed at the northern military centre at Churchill, Man., the army medical centre has extended its services until it tends to the medical needs of Eskimos, Indians and whites residing in a wide area around Hudson and James Bays. In charge of the hospital is Maj. B. L. P. Brosseau of Montreal, shown here talking to Jeremiah Albany, chief of the Fort Severn band of Indians, one of the patients. Chief Albany, who accidentally shot himself while tending a beaver trap, was brought to the hospital by Maj. Brosseau.

Teachers Rap Salary Boost

MONTREAL, May 18.—(CP).—French and English-speaking Roman Catholic school teachers Wednesday night criticized a new salary scale boosting their total wages by $1,500,000 for 1949-50.

Almost 4,000 lay and religious teachers, employed by the Montreal Roman Catholic School Commission, based their disapproval on two points—maximum salary is not available until 31 years of service under the plan and no allowance is made to give them increases for the 1948-49 term.

Executives of the Federation of English-speaking Roman Catholic Teachers and the Alliance Des Professeurs Catholiques who went on a 10-day strike last January, met separately Wednesday night to study the new scale.

They will hold a joint meeting tonight.

A commission spokesman, in announcing the plan Wednesday, said it was considered to be higher than the aggregate salaries sought by the alliance, which called the January strike to enforce its demands.

Under the new scale, lay women teachers will receive a minimum of $1,600, while single men will get $1,900 and married lay teachers $2,200. Present minimums are $1,300, $1,700 and $2,000, respectively.

Mrs. S. Northey Re-elected HSA President

OMEMEE, May 19 —(ENS)— With the annual meeting Monday, the Omemee Home and School Association concluded a successful year under the leadership of Mrs. S. Northey.

The report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. Stephenson and the complete slate was elected. The officers are: president, Mrs. S. Northey; vice-presidents, Mrs. H. Green and Mrs. A. Stephenson; secretary, Mrs. Kennay; treasurer, Mrs. D. Hicks; executive members, Mrs. C. G. Shaw, Mrs. V. E. R. Zufelt and Mrs. Wm. Earl. The officers were installed by Mrs. Moyer who presented the president with a manual and the other officers with a copy of the constitution.

In the secretary's summary of the year's work, which was read by Mrs. A. Stephenson, it was stated that membership for 1948 had reached an all-time high of 52, under the convenership Mrs. H. Bent who attributed for success to the appointment of Room Mothers.

Describes Programs

Eight regular meetings were reported and seven executive meetings. The programs were all of a profitable nature and supplemented by musical numbers. Mrs. Hough, program convener, classified them as three on health topics, one on membership, one Founder's Day, one religious and two educational. Of the latter, one which was in educational week took the form of a forum entitled "Education What For?"

A Christmas treat had been given the school children and soft drinks supplied them on their field days. Under the management of Mrs. C. G. Shaw, a group of H. and S. members had co-operated with the Board of Education in serving soup during the winter months to children staying at school for lunch. For the best representation of parents at H. and S. meeting during the year, Miss Lamb's room was granted $4 to be used for a treat or otherwise as they wished.

The major year's project however was radios for school use. Mr. L. M. Curtis reported that two had been secured.

Convention Report

Mrs. Northey gave an interesting account of a day at Ontario Federation Convention stressing as the highlight the address by Dr. Robert B. McClure returned Medical Missionary from China. Mrs. Pooley reported for Publications and read an article on "Books and Reading." A piano duet was played by Frances McPhee and Joan Whitmore, and George Pooley sang a solo, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Stephenson.

Mrs. Northey thanked her fellow workers for co-operation during the year. Mrs. S. H. Moyer conducted election of officers.

Billie Burke Planning Tour

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 19—(AP) —Trouper Billie Burke is hitting the road again—this time with a different production.

After she finishes "Baby Is Here," the actress leaves on a tour to help introduce her autobiography, "With a Feather In My Nose," which she wrote with Cameron Shipp.

Miss Burke tells me there have been talks of filming her life story and she has several actresses in mind to play herself.

Sight of the week was Robert Cummings and Rosalind Russell dunking into a studio tank in formal attire. For a "Tell It To The Judge" scene, they stood waist high in water most of the day.

Window Breaking Reported To Police

An outbreak of throwing stones at windows has come to the city. Several instances have been reported to city police lately, the last being from the office of the Board of Works yard, where four windows were broken early Wednesday.

Jack McKibbon, superintendent of the yard, found the windows broken and stones inside his office. He reported it to Constable V. C. McConnell.

Constables Andy Dalton and Jack Morrow found three youngsters under 12 years of age throwing stones at windows at Green's Foundry, McDonnel St., shortly before 9 p.m. Tuesday. On Monday Constable Eldon McDonald had visited the foundry to investigate windows broken there during the week-end.

Robbed of $120

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — Max Robins, owner of a men's wear shop, Wednesday was trussed up with his own neckties by two youths who stole $120 from his wallet, $80 from the till and took his wrist watch. Robins managed to crawl along on his knees and roll out of the shop where a woman shopper untied him and called police.

Ask $2,200 Minimum

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — The Synod of the Toronto Diocese of the Church of England Wednesday decided to seek a minimum salary of $2,200 a year for Anglican clergymen. Secretary-treasurer of the Toronto Synod, D. K. MacKintosh, said it was time the Toronto Diocese took the lead for the Anglican Church in Canada to pay 'decent stipends.'

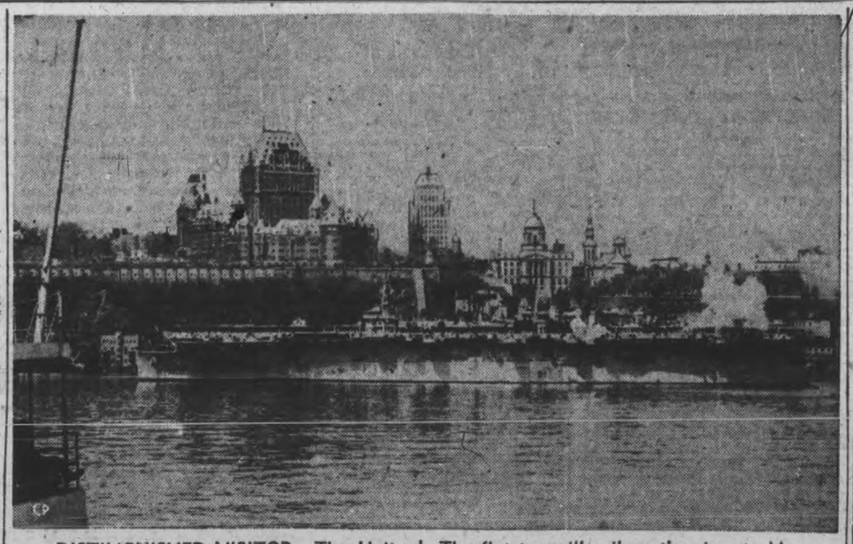
Dies of Broken Heart

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP) — Max Lurye, 72, father of a slain American Federation of Labor organizer, died Wednesday night. The International Ladies Garment Workers' Union (AFL) said grief over the son's death killed him. The son, William, was stabbed by three unidentified men last week while on an organizing tour of the garment district.



DISTINGUISHED VISITOR—The United States aircraft carrier Saipan is framed against the Quebec skyline as it sails into the harbor on a St. Lawrence River cruise. The flat top will sail up the river to Montreal later this week. Providing escort for the vessel were two US destroyers, the Massey and the Zellars.

Norwood Board Of Trade Affiliates With Chamber

NORWOOD, May 19 (ENS) After a dinner served at the Hasty Lunch by the proprietors, Ross Althouse, Herb Owens and Don Scott, members of the Board of Trade and their guests repaired to the Town Hall for the evening's program.

Mr. Bruce McClure of the Public Relations Department of the Bell Telephone was the first speaker, and gave some interesting facts of especial interest to those present. Norwood was one of the first three in this territory to have the dial exchange. In this district in 1948, 63 out of every hundred families have telephone service. Every one on Norwood's waiting list last year had now been supplied, and only two in the rural area were still without service. Mr. McClure then showed two interesting films, "Party Lines" with Bill Baird's Marionettes, and the "Bell Telephone Hour".

Mr. Armar Weir thanked Mr. McClure for the interesting program.

Chamber of Commerce Speaker

Dr. A. R. Atkinson, president, introduced the next speaker, Mr. Charles K. Bantock, representative of the Field Service Department, of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. In his address Mr. Bantock pointed out the advantages of belonging to the parent body. He noted the progress made by the Norwood Board of Trade since their new beginning, when Mr. J. J. Stewart was president.

"With a membership of forty in this small community, you are still a part of a large organization," he went on to say. "Canada is now third country in the world of trade, and with that growth so has the Board of Trade grown." Two hundred new branches had tied in with the parent body in the last two years.

He explained that parent body have trained representatives sent around the country to help in an advisory capacity. In every community there are four sides, civic, agricultural, commercial and industrial. The Board of Trade should make a complete analysis of their community, organize a program of work, short range projects and long range projects. "Actual developments may not be for years, but plan."

Decide to Affiliate

There are over 600 branches, representing 100,000 members. Mr. Bantock came down to ask the organization to become a part of the national body.

Mr W. H. Giffen asked what the fee would be to belong, and upon hearing the small amount, immediately asked "how could all these services be covered?" Mr. Mantock informed the meeting, that there are 1850 corporate members who pay large sums to the national body, yet have no vote. There are 600 Boards of Trade or Chambers of Commerce and regardless of membership, large or small, all have just one vote

At the business meeting that followed it was unanimously decided to join the Canadian Chamber of Commerce.

Engage Swimming Instructor

Dr. A. R. Atkinson reported upon an executive meeting held recently, at which time Miss Ethel Gill had been engaged as swimming instructor this year at a salary of $150 per month. This decision was endorsed by the meeting as a whole.

A gala summer carnival was planned to take place about the middle of August. Mr. Earl Armstrong, secretary, was appointed chairman to convene the event, and a committee was also formed, Mrs. Bradley, Messrs. Stan Flett, Ken Stewart, Fred Kempt, Perrin Rork, Wilson Small, W. H. Giffen, L. McMillan

Mr. Armstrong informed the members that everyone would have something to do before the carnival was over.

The next general meeting will be held in September.

$2,000 Fire At Hotel

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP)—A $2,000 fire damaged the roof of the mezzanine floor skylight of the King Edward Hotel Wednesday. Firemen said they believed a cigaret ignited a tarpaulin. A number of hotel guests left the building as a precautionary measure. A meeting of between 40 and 50 Liberal delegates from Western Ontario was broken up by the blaze.

Study Licensing

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP) — The health committee of the Ontario Federation of Agriculture at a meeting Wednesday suggested study of a system of licensing doctors, dentists and nurses with the objective of reviewing their efficiency and renewing their licences every five years.

Riding Master Killed

ST. THOMAS, May 19 — (CP) —Cecil Kemshead, 63-year-old riding master at Alma College here, was killed Wednesday when a frightened horse dragged him 1,400 feet and dashed his head against a tree. Kemshead had taken the animal out to graze.

Three Trapped In Boat

VANCOUVER, May 19—(CP) —Trapped in the cabin of a fish boat, three persons were drowned Wednesday in the swollen waters of the Fraser River 25 miles east of here. The dead George Deroche 56-year-old fisherman, Mrs. Maggie Savina, 45, and her nine-year-old daughter, Anita. The small fishboat struck a log boom and sank.

Air Force Gets North Star Plane

OTTAWA, May 19—(CP)—An R.C.A.F. spokesman said Wednesday night the air force is obtaining a new pressurized North Star aircraft for high-level experimental and training flights and for carrying government officials on business trips.

The aircraft will come from Canadair, Limited, in Montreal and will be similar to those produced for passenger service on Trans-Canada Air Lines. It will replace a North Star damaged in a taxiing accident while being used by T.C.A.

The spokesman said none of the 22 North Stars now used by the R.C.A.F. are pressurized. They were designed for carrying freight and were unsuitable for passenger service.

He added there was no consideration being given by the R.C.A.F. to reconverting the present fleet to radial engines and discarding the Merlin engines now used on the North Stars.

WITH THE BOY SCOUTS

Camporee ahead. Those Patrols who intend to camp out for the weekend at Nassau should be getting all their equipment checked and planning their menus etc.

We understand that the registrations are slow coming in but can assure everyone of a good time. Please send in your applications at once to Field Secretary Fred C. Ford.

Just to clear up a misprint—there is no fee attached to this camp.

Officers attending are to notify A. Ingham the Quartermaster early in order that he will be able to purchase the supplies.

The Camp will be open Friday evening until Sunday afternoon.

Canadian Jamboree: To much publicity cannot be given this event. It is one of the greatest in Canadian Scout and public history. Scouts from all over the Canada, U.S.A. and from the United Nations will be on hand to mingle and learn. It is one of the stepping stones to world peace.

The Local Association is prepared to financially assist every boy who can attend. It is definitely stated that those boys who are not at the present up to the standard of 1st Class but who are working toward this end and are planning to attend, can submit their application with power to withdraw by June 15 should they fail to qualify.

It is a grand opportunity of finding out just how the other fellow acts in scouting and to promote world friendship.

Reports:—Owing to pressure of work and lack of news we have not been in the Scout column very regular of late. The Field Commissioner would like us to run a series on The Bushman's thong. In order to see if this is worth while we would like to have word from those who read the column. Just cut out this and mail it to me.

I read the Scout Column every week and would like to see the series started at once ..... in the fall ..... Mark X to which you feel would be best. Signed. .... No. ..... Troop or Pack Mail this The Skipper 296 Rogers St. Peterborough.

Mrs. D. W. Boucher To Speak In City

A past president of the Ontario Horticultural Association, Mrs. D W. Boucher of Kingston will be the speaker at the meeting of the Horticultural Society Monday, May 23 at the YMCA.

"Because of the long holiday," Wm. C. Wilks, secretary, said today, "we tried to change the date of Mrs. Boucher's coming to Peterborough, but we found that she has a speaking engagement at McGill University on the only other date we could suggest.

Mrs. Boucher publishes a monthly article in the horticultural magazine "Your Garden and Home," and is a consultant on its staff. She is bringing still and moving pictures to accompany her subject. We are hoping for a large attendance because Mrs. Boucher is thoroughly conversant with all phases of floriculture."

The society will have a booth at the Junior Chamber of Commerce jamboree, providing information pertaining to home beautification with plans for laying out trees and shrubs, and other general information.

years, this recently-incorporated town Wednesday night voted overwhelmingly to go "wet" on five separate ballots for the sale of liquor. The vote was about 3-1 on all ballots.

Warkworth Church Marks Anniversary

WARKWORTH, May 19 (ENS)—The 98th anniversary of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Warkworth, was celebrated on Sunday.

Large congregations attended both morning and evening services. The Rev. Marshall Heslip, St. Peter's Presbyterian Church, Madoc, officiated at both services and preached the sermons.

Music in the morning was under the direction of Mrs. J. A. Weatherson, organist and choir leader. Mrs. Gordon McCubbin sang a solo "Thanks Be To God."

In the evening Mrs. J. M. Ritchie sang "I shall Not Pass This Way Again."

The Rev. H. G. Lester, BA, BD, of St. Paul's United Church, assisted at the evening service and brought greetings from his congregation.

Flowers, arranged by the Ladies' Aid, decorated the church.

Youth Convicted Gets 2 Months For Joy Riding

A charge against 18-year-old Kenneth Robinson, 1178 Monaghan Road, of stealing a car was reduced Wednesday to one of joy riding at the end of an all-day hearing before Judge S. L. Smoke He was convicted of the lesser offence and sent to jail for two months.

The car was a 1946 Buick owned by Percy Harrison, proprietor of the lunch counter at Water St. and Park Hill Road.

Elgie Dunford, 23, of 181 Murray St. has also been charged with theft of the car and, like Robinson, elected trial by a judge when the case came before Magistrate W. R. Philp, KC, in city police court May 12. Dunford still awaits trial.

Larlie Conviction

Both lads were convicted by the magistrate on May 12 of attempted theft of gas from a car owned by Ansel Woodcock, 266 Romaine St. Robinson was sentenced to 20 days in jail and Dunford is serving two months.

Woodcock described how, on April 21, he had been sitting in his car outside the Brookside Pavilion and saw Robinson and Dunford drive away from the parking lot in a Ford car and return later in a Buick. The Buick had been parked outside the Armouries, where Mr. Harrison, its owner, had been playing cribbage and it was not until he was notified by Provincial Police, that he knew the car had been taken.

Robinson, who was defended by W. J. A. Fair, KC, told the judge that he had been drinking during the afternoon and evening and did not remember taking the car. Other witnesses said that he had been drunk. He remembered going for a ride in the country but could not give evidence of taking the car.

Robinson's father, Kenneth Robinson, said his son was unable to drive a car.

Unsatisfactory Home Life

Mr. Fair pleaded for leniency on behalf of the boy on the grounds of an unsatisfactory home life. He said the boy's father planned to help him to avoid mixing with undesirable company and to avoid any recurrence of that type of behavior.

In addition to the previous conviction of attempted theft of gas Robinson served a month in jail earlier his year, when convicted by Magistrate Philp in January of joy riding.

In consenting to reducing the charge from theft to joy riding Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said that thefts of cars were becoming prevalent and they were a serious matter to the owners. Almost invarious the vehicles were wrecked, although that had not happened in this case.

Trailerites Gone

Trailers in which workers on the wartime housing estate in the north of the city have been living in contravention of a city bylaw, have been removed.

Charges against four men who have been living in the trailers with their families, were withdrawn today in city polce court. W. F. Huycke, KC, city solictior, was prosecuting on behalf of the city.

AIDS FEATHERED FRIEND

John Johnston, young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Johnston, 44 Lafayette Ave., performed a deed of kindness for a feathered friend early today when he noticed a robin caught in a piece of cord attached to the roof of a neighbor's home He secured a ladder, climbed up and soon released the bird from its bondage. It flew on its way apparently unharmed by its period of mid-air suspension.

Driving Tests Given Many At Army Circus

Citizens took advantage of the free drivers' test offered Wednesday by the Canadian Army's Travelling Circus at the armouries. From the opening of the bus until just before closing there was a line of people waiting to take the tests. The tests numbered six: steadiness, color vision, field of vision, visual acuity, reaction time (alertness in applying the brakes) and depth perception. Throughout the bus there were signs with traffic laws and driving suggestions.

The Safety Drive Test Bus was only one of the two score army vehicles in the Travelling Circus. In the Circus were ambulances, motorcycles, scouting cars, post-hole diggers, three-point-seven ack-ack gun, cable laying truck, electrical equipment tester lorry, radar and wireless lorry, and a terminal equipment vehicle.

A 12-ton army wrecker was the feature of the large army trucks. It had 10 forward speeds and two reverse speeds. The lift of the crane is 16 tons and the straight pull of the wrecker is 40,000 pounds. It was also equipped for any type of welding job.

Operators of the 40mm light anti-aircraft gun and the 20mm AA quadruple gun were asked many questions. The 40mm gun was on a self-propelled mounting on a truck. It was capable of firing 140 rounds a minute. The barrel could be changed in 30 seconds. The truck had a crash-action deck, the seats, windshield and other erect objects folding down to allow clearance when firing on ground targets.

No. 3 Supply Point put on a display of the breakdown of food stuffs into the rations for the army. They also displayed an example of a breakfast, dinner and supper which had been cooked in the mobile kitchen in the Circus.

Outside the armouries on the parade square the Reserve Units were practising lining up the ack-ack guns on the Harvard aircraft from Trenton. In the gun room movies were shown.

Death Of Youth Said Accidental

DES JOACHIMS, Que., May 19 —(CP).— Police authorities said to-day that death of 23-year-old Alexander Richardson, found shot between the eyes on Tuesday at the home of his father here, was accidental.

Son of Angus A. Richardson, general manager of the Ontario Hydro project in this community about 150 miles north-west of Ottawa, the victim had been examining a .22 calibre rifle in his room when it discharged.

Noise from passing trucks and blasting at the Hydro project nearby was believed to have muffled the sound of the shot.

A student at the University of Torono, Alexander had arrived on Monday.

Coroner D. A. McKercher of Cobden, Ont., termed death accidental. Crown Attorney H. B. Johnson of Pembroke, said an inquest would not be held.

Funeral service was held today at 3:30 p.m. at the residence of his uncle, Jack L. Gillespie, 499 Homewood Avenue, Peterborough. Rev. M. J. Aiken of St. Andrew's Unitad Church officiated, and burial was at Little Lake Cemetery.

Mr. Richardson was born in Peterborough and received his primary and secondary education in city schools and at St. Andrew's College, Aurora.

Besides his father, he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Robert Parson (Mary) of Clifton Springs, NY, Mrs. Thomas Sheppard (Agnes) of Port Arthur, and Miss Louise at home

A veteran of the Second World War, he served three years in the RCAF and infantry.

Earl Druery Named Program Director

Earl Druery will be director of the Boys' Camp on Clear Lake this summer, it was announced today. The camp is sponsored by the [illegible] Men's Club. Mr. Druery has had much experience in boys' work and for the past five years has been on the Public School teaching staff.

John Lewis will be Mr. Druery's assistant. He directed the Peterborough County Camp Wakonda. Mr. Lewis is a teacher in Omemee having attended PCVS and the Peterborough Normal School. He will be in charge of waterfront activities and will assist in the general sports program.

Others on the camp staff are Donald Duncan, director, N. C. Munro, consultant director, Mrs. Donald Munro, camp hostess, and Dr. Lloyd Bailey.

Shortly after M. A McWilliams, Bridgenorth, parked his car on Hunter St. outside Scarfe's store today, a stranger took the wheel and drove away. Mr. McWilliams intended leaving his car only a short time while visiting a nearby restaurant.

Borrow Cash Strength Of Debenture Bylaw

"If the actual selling of debentures was delayed, the Utilities could always borrow at the bank on the strength of the debenture bylaw," said City Clerk Outram today, referring to the concern of the Commission about its $200,000 borrowing.

"We have told the Ontario Municipal Board that the Utilities bylaw was urgent for their program of work this year," Mr. Outram said. "It will likely be approved one of these days. Then, if the actual sale of the debentures was deferred for awhile, and I have nothing whatever to say about what the council action may be, the Commission could get a loan at the bank on the bylaw and repay it when the debentures are issued.

"All that I am suggesting is that there is no occasion for any alarmist feeling that the Commission would not be able to finance their various projects this summer."

Mr. Outram said in fairness to the Commission that they had asked for the bylaw back in January, but it had been somehow delayed until April. Hence, there was no tardiness on their part, and it was probably otherwise assumed that any local bylaws would be immediately approved by the Municipal Board.

"It may be," said the clerk, "that, because Peterborough has been submitting more borrowing bylaws than usual, the Board wished to give the $200,000 Utilities bylaw a careful examination."

"We don't want any people worrying about the prospect of not getting water connections into new houses this season," Mr Outram said.

As to policy in issuing and selling debentures, he said the practice had been lately to issue a group of debentures at one time, instead of in small amounts.

Boys Take Car For Joy Ride

A 12-year-old lad who saw a car parked on the corner of Brock and Downie streets at 11 p.m. Wednesday, drove it away, taking his 11-year-old companion on a joy ride. The boys travelled west through the city into the country, ending their escapade in a ditch

It was not the first time the 12-year-old boy had gone joy riding. He was only seven years of age when he stole a truck. Both the lads admitted to the police that in addition to taking the car Wednesday, they had taken two bicycle from the alley beside the Capitol Theatre.

The car had been parked by the owner, Douglas T. Smith, 175 Lock St. After spending the evening at the Armouries, he and his wife went to collect their baby from friends who were baby sitting during their absence. The Smiths returned to the street to find their car missing, only 20 minutes after parking it.

Provincial and city police made a search for the missing car. It was discovered by Nelson McConnell of Smith township who immediately notified Provincial Constable Archie Grayling.

City Constables Jack Morrow and G. A. Edmison took the police cruiser to the ditched car and found the two lads there.

Operating Cost Lowered At Gas House

Price of liquid propane, used for gas production by the Utilities Commission, has declined from 14c cents a gallon eleven months ago to 11¾c, Mr. R. L. Dobbin reported at the meeting of the Commission Tuesday.

This is one of the bright spots in the experience of the gas department since the commission undertook to scrap the old stystem and replace it with propane. Sale in April was 3,777,100 cu. ft. as compared with 5,740,300 cu. ft. in April last year. The reduction was on all three sectors, domestic, commercial and industrial.

Incidentally, total sale of gas to April 30 last year was 25,571,300 cu. ft. as against 14,821,600 cu. ft. for the four months of this year.

Mr. Dobbin said the department was [illegible] coming into its best season of the year, and the prospects were for a change to increased consumption. The gas house staff has been cut to two men, the possible minimum, and with the improvement in price, plus increasing demand, plus the higher quality of the gas, it was believed that the Department would soon be able to present a brighter report.

To Sell Boilers

The Commission has adopted a recommendation of Mr. Dobbin to sell the two steam boilers at the gas plant and replace them with a new one described as follows: one 25-horsepower Sellers Horizontal Gas Fired Immersion Steam Boiler constructed in accordance with A.S.M.E. power code, etc., costing $2,675.

The two old units were coal fired and the steam was required to heat the buildings and the gas holder, and to make gas. "Since the new plant was installed, boilers of this capacity are not required," Mr. Dobbin said. "I think they have some salvage value. We still need steam for heating and for vaporizing the liquid propane."

The price of propane is down 2¼c a gallon in less than a year, and as the lighter labor needs for propane gas production will also lessen costs, the Commission feels certain that with return even to normal demand this utility will make a saisfactory showing.

In the electrical department last month domestic and commercial requirements were higher than a year ago but commercial power, the industrial designation, showed a decrease of 14.11%. Domestic lighting was up 13-17 per cent and commercial lighting was also increased by 15.33%.

Swimming Instruction During Summer

One chief instructor will be hired to direct the "learn to swim" project of the Recreation Commission this summer, it was decided at a meeting of the swimming committee of the commission Wednesday. To aid him the committee decided that they would hire four assistants to teach swimming, two assistants being full time and two others being part-time employed. The two swimming areas to be supervised, are Inverlea and Riverside Parks. At least two uniforms will have to be bought by each instructor.

As last year, the beach patrol will be operated, but it is hoped with more success. Last year volunteer patrollers failed to appear regularly. Ten boys will be in the patrols at each beach. The purpose of the patrol is to assist the lifeguards and instructors.

A merit point competition will also be carried out in which participants may win special awards.

High School Boards Meet In City For Convention, Province-Wide Salary Plan

About 75 delegates from all sections of the province registered at the Empress Hotel today for the 18th annual convention of the Associated High School Boards of Ontario. President H. E. Dickinson of St. Mary's presided. Highlight of the two-day convention will be the address tonight of the Hon. Dana Porter, KC, Minister of Education, who will speak on "The Teaching Profession."

The morning was occupied in registering, reading communications and striking of committees to handle the session's business. There are at le[illegible]ix resolutions that various have submitted for the Association's approval.

Two of them were from Weston. One was that the Association discuss other sources of educational revenue in view of the existing burden being borne by property taxation, and a suggestion that the Federal Government make substantial grants to education in all provinces.

Salary Schedules

The other was that the question of teachers' salaries, cost-of-living bonus, cumulative sick leave and retirement plans be studied by the Association for the possible presentation of a province-wide plan to the Department of Education.

Another two resolutions these from Riverside were (1) "that the Associated High School Board approach the Minister of Education to have legislation passed fixing four or more scales for salary, schedules, comparable with living costs and assessments in different municipalities and districts, thereby giving trustees a legal and fair basis to discuss salaries in their respective communities." (2) "that if the Teachers' Federation of the Province of Ontario is not prepared to change their demands for salary increases, to merit only, the Minister of Education be approached by this Association to have departmental inspectors disassociated from the Teachers' Federation and made responsible for discharging incompetent teachers."

The Beamsville resolution urges that the Association try to organize a central executive committee representing all secondary trustee Boards in Ontario, so "the thoughts and opinions of trustee boards in general with regard to policies of common interest may be discussed in a more satisfactory and co-operative manner with either the Department of Education or the Teachers' Federation."

Gordon C. Hunter of the Canadian Underwriters' Association, spoke on "Fire insurance as it affects School Boards" at the luncheon. He was introduced by Mrs. A. W. Mills of Sarnia and thanked by C. W. Stitt of Cayuga.

Peterborough's Board of Education will be host to the delegates tonight at the convention dinner in the Empress Hotel. They will be welcomed by Frank H. Jobbitt, chairman of the local Board, and Mayor Max J. Swanston. Guest speaker will be the Hon. Mr. Porter.

On Friday afternoon the delegates will be taken on a conducted tour through the city and they will inspect the Quaker Oats plant.

An Invitation

Anson House Board invite the Public to call at the Anson House, Anson St., Friday, May 20, from 3 to 5 p.m.

Toronto Youth To Have Camp On Pidgeon Lake

A summer camp which will eventually accommodate 75 underprivileged Toronto children is being constructed on Pidgeon Lake near Sandy Point. It will be the summer playground for the boys and girls of the Earlscourt Children's Home, Toronto.

Present plans call for the camp to open June 15.

It will accommodate children between the ages of four and 12 years regardless of race, color or creed. The boys and girls cared for by the Earlscourt Children's Home are those with the domestic disadvantage of having only one parent or guardian to care for them. They are not wards of the Home.

The camp will remain open all summer.

The original idea to build it came from some members of the Broker Dealer Association of Ontario, and they have been active in raising funds for the project. Citizens of Bobcaygeon have also helped by gifts of money, materials and services.

Foundations for the permanent building have been laid and a floor is now nearly complete.

The property is vested in the United Church of Canada with the Very Rev. Peter Bryce, Hon. Chairman.

City Organizations Invited To 25th Anniversary Tea Of Local Hadassah Chapter

To mark the 25th anniversary of Peterborough Chapter of Hadassah the members gave a tea Wednesday afternoon in the community hall adjoining their Synagogue on Reid St. Making the occasion truly memorable, about 80 ladies who belong to associations and clubs in the city attended as their guests.

Women of the Jewish Community are organized as a service group and work hard at various projects. Money-making efforts are kept within their own faith and no appeals are made to the public. So, sister societies felt it a high honor to receive invitations to attend the silver anniversary tea. The local chapter of this Order which was founded in Canada 37 years ago has a total membership of 66 and about 60 are relied on as active members.

Receiving were Mrs. Harry Cherney, President, and Mrs Jacob Low, public relations chairman, and vice-president Mrs. Allan B. Collis took names for the guest book. Chapter members ensured everyone's enjoyment by completing introductions and entertaining.

Bouquets of tulips in bright hues made the tea room most attractive. The table was like a lovely picture with spring flowers arranged effectively in wine-colored crystal vases as a background for charming figures in Dresden china on the centrepiece that was bordered with clustered apple blossoms. The beautiful cloth used was of ecru linen with fine hand cutwork and embroidery done by French nuns.

The tea was poured by Mrs. J. Mayer, Mrs. Rae Green, Mrs. Leah Zachs, Mrs. Harry Zachs, Mrs. Meyer Levine and Mrs Ben Swartz.

Social conveners Mrs. Moe Cowan and Mrs. Fred Pulver were assisted with tea arrangements by Mrs. Ben Green, Mrs. Morris Mandel and Mrs. Gordon Shier, and the table setting and decorations were taken care of by Mrs. Jacob Low and Mrs. Meyer Levine.

Tea hostesses were Mrs. Meyer Cherney, Mrs. Louis Zachs, Mrs. Sam Moldaver, Mrs. Morris Duke, Mrs. Zimel Levine, Mrs. Joe Rogow. Mrs. Meyer Florence Mrs. H. H. Ruskin, Mrs. Abe Semel, Mrs. Irving Cipin, Mrs. Harry Schwartz.

Much Work Done By Westwood WI During Season

WESTWOOD, May 19—(ENS)—A successful year has ended for Westwood Women's Institute members, as reported by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Stuart Graham, at the May meeting on Tuesday.

Twelve regular meetings were held with an average attendance of fifteen members, and a total of 66 visitors. There is a financial balance of $101.08 and $28.26 was earmarked for the Community Park Fund.

At each monthly meeting instruction talks were given and demonstrations presented.

Books Purchased

Throughout the year the sick and shut-ins were remembered with fruit and flowers. Fifty new books were purchased for the institute library and the old books were sent to Peterborough hospitals.

The institute helped sponsor a chest X-ray clinic at Norwood on August 11, when 621 persons from Westwood, Norwood and district were X-rayed in the T.B. Mobile Clinic.

An oratorical contest was held in the town hall for the school children. A boy at the DVA hospital in Kingston was adopted and letters and parcels were sent to him each month.

Donations were made as follows: Park committee 50.00; oratorical contest 7.00; district expenses 5.00; library 30.00; Westwood hockey team 20.00; and Norwood Fair Board 5.00. A parcel of used clothing was sent to British Columbia for flood relief.

The new president, Mrs. William Post, took charge of the May meeting.

Present Flag

A large Union Jack was presented by the Institute to the Town Hall. An address of appreciation was read to the retiring president, Mrs. Aubrey Wood, and a cup and saucer were presented to her.

Reports of committees were given as follows: citizenship, Mrs. R. Wilson; historical research, Mrs. J. Thompson; home economics, Mrs. W. Renwick; agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. W. Post; publicity, Mrs. L. Hutchinson; social welfare, Mrs. Thompson for Mrs. F. Neilson.

The district executive meeting held in Peterborough was reported on by Mrs. W. Morris.

A reading "Flowers for the Living" by Nellie McClung was given by Aubrey Wood.

Deputy Grand Master At Springbrook IOOF

BONARLAW, May 19 (ENS)—District Deputy Grand Master Percy Sherwin, of Campbellford Lodge IOOF paid an official visit to Springbrook Lodge IOOF No. 429, Tuesday evening. He was accompanied by Bro. Earl Haig, a veteran member of Campbellford Lodge.

There was a splendid attendance of Oddfellows of Springbrook Lodge who listened to an address by the District Deputy Grand Master who stressed the fact that the teachings of Oddfellowship were tolerance and brotherly love not only to brothers but to all mankind whether or not they were members of the fraternity.

Ideas were given as to how the different degrees could be made more impressive to the candidates. At the close of the address Noble Grand Frank Cosbey thanked Bro. Sherwin for his splendid address.

Other members who addressed the Lodge were: Bro. Haig of Campbellford, Past DDGM's Harry Heath and J. F. Baker, Vice Grand Reg McKeown and Past Grand Earl Cranston.

At the close of the session the lunch committee served sandwiches, cake, soft drinks and ice cream.

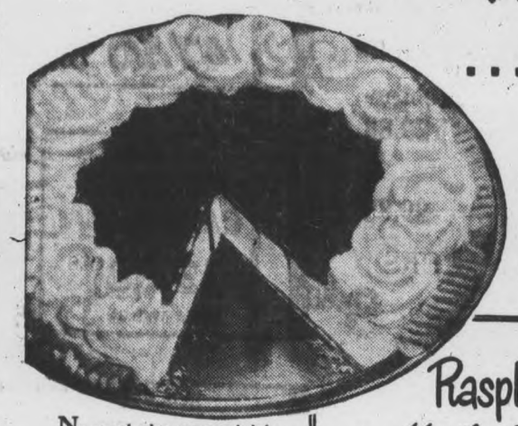
BOORMAN'S BEVERAGES

Easier than you dared dream to bake flaky pastry...

... with Swift'ning* the new kind of shortening ... quicker, too!



Raspberry Angel Pie

A Martha Logan "HELPING HAND" RECIPE

See the little "helping hands?" They show where mistakes might be made. Watch for the "hands," use Swift'ning, and you'll get extra flaky piecrust that's a thrill to serve.

PIECRUST: Preheat oven 450°F. Sift 1 c. sifted all-purpose flour and ½ tsp. salt in a bowl. Cut ⅓ c. Swift'ning into flour with pastry blender or 2 knives until particles are size of small peas. Sprinkle cold water, a little at a time, over different parts of flour mixture. Toss together lightly with a fork. Use as little water as possible, just enough to make dough hold together (2 or 3 tbsp. or less). Place dough on waxed paper. Press gently with the paper into a ball. Let stand at room temperature for a few minutes. Lightly flour board and rolling pin; or cover board with pastry canvas and rolling pin with knitted cover, both lightly floured. Roll dough in circle ⅛" thick. Use light strokes ... rolling pin as it nears edge. Invert 8" pie pan on dough; cut 1¼" beyond edge of pan; fold in half; lay fold in center of pan; unfold. Fit pastry in pan, pressing with finger-tips from center out to remove air bubbles. Fold pastry under to fit edge of rim. Indent edge with finger-tips. Prick with fork. Bake 12 to 15 minutes.

FILLING: Boil ½ c. sugar and ⅓ c. water to soft ball stage (235°F.). Pour syrup, in a fine stream, over 2 stiffly beaten egg whites beating continuously. Soften 2 tsps. gelatin in 2 tbsps. cold water. Dissolve over hot water. Combine with egg white mixture. Beat 1 min. Add ¼ tsp. salt and 1 tbsp. lemon juice. Cool, while beating ½ pt. whipping cream. Fold both together. Pour into cooled pie shell; chill till set. Serve with whipped cream border and this Raspberry Sauce in center: Press 1 c. fresh raspberries through a sieve and add enough water to make 1 cup. Gradually blend this with ⅓ c. sugar and 1 tbsp. cornstarch. Stir constantly over medium heat until thickened and clear. Reduce heat. Cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Cool.

Make Plans For Bazaar And Sale

NORWOOD, May 19 (ENS) — The May meeting of the Women's Missionary Society was held Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Edwin Scott, presided.

The treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Hogg, reported the Easter offering was the largest in a number of years. An invitation was read from the WMS of Trinity United Church, Hastings, to unite with them for their 60th anniversary on Thursday, June 9. Final arrangements were made for the bazaar, home baking sale and afternoon tea which will be held on Saturday afternoon, May 21 in the church basement.

In Charge of Program

Mrs. Jack Starke took charge of the program and read a poem, "Something Good About You." Mrs. Sam Buck led in prayer. Miss Lila Kirk sang a solo, "Sharing," accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Baskey. The scripture reading was taken by Mrs. Gordon Brown. Mrs. Wesley Chamberlain gave a talk on "The Christian Church in China." Mrs. M. Brown gave a reading, "Your Mother and Mine."

Robin Hood and his Merrie Men had to score a hit with a bow and arrow or they didn't eat! To score a hit today shoot over to the grocer's for Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes — that convenient, ready-to-eat, easy-to-digest cereal made not from one but TWO grains — wheat and malted barley.

What a treat! — that gorgeous Grape-Nuts flavor in crisp honey-golden flakes. Good for young and old because Post's Grape-Nuts Flakes provide nourishment . . . useful quantities of carbohydrates, proteins, minerals and other food essentials. Served in a jiffy — eaten on sight. Ask your grocer.

Anglican Synod Of Huron Won't Set Retiring Age

LONDON, Ont., May 19—(CP).—The Anglican Synod of Huron Wednesday declined to direct that its Bishop must retire at the age of 71 years, bringing a breathing spell in a contentious issue which had been hanging fire since the death of Archbishop C. A. Seager last year.

There was only mild debate at the closing of the 73rd Synod and delegates decided that the question should go back to committee for further consideration.

Priests generally retire at the age of 70 in the Diocese of Huron, but it is not compulsory.

Last year's motion in regard to Bishops was proposed before the election of Bishop G. N. Luxton. Presiding over his first Synod, he took a neutral stand.

"I have always upheld the theory," he said, "that a Bishop should relinquish office at an early age—70 is too late. It is not good to flog a man in his declining years—yet I would hate to behead a man in the full flower of his episopate. The truth is that men differ. Some men should be urged on and others prodded out of office."

Not Ready Yet

"It would be a sorry thing," Bishop Luxton said, "that such a man as Bishop Renison (Bishop of Moosonee) should be forced to retire. I think we are not quite ready to take such a precedent."

Rev. J. R. Thompson of St. Thomas declared in opposing the motion, that "I am ready to admit that every man is senile and foolish at 70."

"I will admit that not every man would be psysically able to carry on the service of his diocese at that age—but we must remember that if we pass this when the priests of the diocese must retire at that age, and there are those among us still giving good service who are more than 70."

Canon R. D. Mess of Chatham, described the motion as a "faulty canon" and as such should not be passed. "Surely we as a Christian fellowship can approach this problem when and if it should arise in a manner of common and proper honesty," he said.

Misrepresent Facts

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP)— There is no guarantee that ammoniated dentifrices will prevent dental decay, Dr. Charles H. M. Williams told the Ontario Dental Association convention here Wednesday. An advertisement in an internationally-distributed magazine, referring to a "95-per-cent reduction in the occurrence of cavities," with the use of an ammoniated dentifrice, misrepresented the facts, he said.

Picketing Hall

MONTREAL, May 19—(CP)—Members of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) picketed the hall Wednesday night where Transport Minister Chevrier addressed a Liberal election meeting for Postmaster-General Bertrand in Montreal Laurier. "The government knows what it is going to do about the strike," Mr. Chevrier said in answer to a question from one of about 50 pickets.

Honor Two For Service

NEW YORK, May 19 (AP). — The National Institute of Social Sciences last night honored a military leader, a woman engineer, and an industrialist for "distinguished service to humanity." Gold medals were awarded Gen. George C. Marshall, Dr. Lillian M. Gilbreth, engineer and psychologist, and Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman of the Board of General Motors Corporation.

Ohio Columnist Dies

COLUMBUS, O., May 19 (AP) —Elmer P. Fries, 64, editorial writer and political columnist for the Columbus Dispatch since 1935, died in hospital here Wednesday.

Gets Presidential Fish

BANGOR, Me., May 19 (AP).— The first salmon— traditionally sent to the White House — was taken from the Bangor salmon pool Wednesday, 48 days after the season opened. Adolf Fischer of Brewer landed the 10-pounder. This is the fourth year that he has caught the Presidential fish.

Flower-Filled Tea Rooms For George St. WMS Guests

Quantities of fresh spring blossoms from the country lanes were in the parlors of George St. United Church to thrill city-dwellers who attended the WMS Spring Tea Wednesday afernoon. From the very doorstep, guests tread a way between baskets filled with heavily perfumed lilac blossoms and solid bank of the flowers filling an upper staircase claimed their admiration. Throughout the rooms there were also baskets of gay and colorful tulips.

Passing through a white latticed arch twined with delicate pink apple blossoms in which a yellow bird house was nestled, a greeting as pleasant as the decorative setting was extended by Mrs. E. H. Brown, president, and Mrs. Jas. Semple.

In the flower-filled tea room hostesses Mrs. R. Parnall, Mrs. M. McIntyre, Mrs. H. Crowe and Mrs. W. H. Girven made guests feel at home and at ease to enjoy the delightful surroundings and dainty refreshments.

An epergne of rose-tinted crystal with beautiful white lilacs in the top and a mass of the mauve variety at the base was an unusual and effective centrepiece for the tea table. This captivating arrangement, giving so much pleasure to the visitors, was enhanced by bright green candles in crystal holders. A handsome lace cloth covered the table and lovely silver tea sets were placed at each end.

Filling the tea cups during the afternoon were Mrs. M. Tinney, Mrs. F. Reynolds, Mrs. H. G. Walker, and Mrs. J. W. Kelly.

Mrs. Scott Wildman was in charge of the tea table and her servers were Mrs. Gordon Marshall, Mrs. L. Sedgwick, Mrs. L. Thompson, Mrs. A. Townsend, Mrs. F. Syvertson, Mrs. C. H. Elliott, Mrs. W. J. Sharpe, Mrs. J. Bickell, Mrs. F. Latimer, Miss J. Schaeffer; Mrs. J. McKinnon, Miss Mary Elliott, Mrs. Chas. Allen, Mrs. Frank Barrett, Mrs. A. Fitzgerald, Mrs. R. McKee, Mrs. A. Rose and Mrs. S. Booth.

Mrs. W. H. Morton was ushering guests into an adjoining room where there was an assortment of goods for sale. Mrs. J. W. Hales and Mrs. George Benton attended a table of fancy cotton aprons and made made doilies. A well-supplied home-cooking booth was in charge of Mrs. J. Stenton and Mrs. E. Rosborough with Mrs. H. Lancaster and Mrs. M. Beatty assisting.

Members of the Baby Band Mother's Auxiliary had a quantity of children's wear for sale. The display was in charge of Mrs. R. Hutton and Mrs. R. Parnall with Mrs. D. McDonald, Mrs. H. Gray and Mrs. S. Rowe assisting. dresses for little girls and fancy aprons and sun suits in the small sizes as well as knitted bootees, bonnets and soft dolls in the baby colors.

Mrs. H. S. Powers and Mrs. J. Beatty were co-conveners of the tea. Decorating plans were made by Mrs. J. Semple with assistance of Mrs. H. Kerneghan, Mrs. C. H. Elliott and Mrs. Stan. Gilmore.

At the treasurer's table Mrs. J. M. Fanning and Mrs. Roy Powell were in charge.

Flower Tea at St. Paul's Increases Fund for Gifts

The fund set aside to buy flower gifts for members of St. Paul's Church congregation on occasions was augmented substantially Wednesday with proceeds from a Flower Tea. Members of the Ladies' Aid under convenership of Mrs. W. A. Burrell, arranged the tea and made candy and baked goods for sale to increase the amount.

Mrs. L. R. Mitchell, flower convener, gathered apple blossoms, lilacs and tulips to fill flower baskets set all around the tea room. With colorful lawn furniture, these beauties of the outdoors created the illusion of a spring garden.

A miniature summer house, roofed with sweet smelling apple blossoms, on verdant setting, was a delightful sight and a topic for conversation around the tea table. The arrangement was on a handsome tablecloth of pale ecru lace and was highlighted with candlelight from pink and green tapers in triple silver candlebrae.

In the corner of this grassy garden space was simulated a tiny mirror-clear pool that was a gathering-place for china ducks and birds of pastel coloring. The figure of a lovely black and white setter completed the home-like scene that was enlivened with garden visitors in the old-fashioned styles, copied fragile china.

Throughout the tea hours there was soft music, played by Mrs. Adam Sands and Mrs. Vernon Read.

Pouring tea in turns were Mrs. D. W. Clark, Mrs. W. Moorehead, Mrs. J. Anderson and Mrs. C. G. Boyd.

Mrs. J. Hornal and Mrs. C. Sherwood had charge of the tea table and their assistants were Mrs. H. Dunsford, Mrs. H. McKenzie, Mrs. J. R. Allen, Mrs. W. Gray, Mrs. S. Lowes, Mrs. R. Pearse, Mrs. D. Dickson, Mrs. F. Finnie, Mrs. J. Mackness, Mrs. L. Howson, Mrs. H. Cranfield, Mrs. A. Shearer, Mrs. T. McArthur, Mrs. C. Lockington, Mrs. C. Mann, Mrs. M. Morgan, Mrs. J. McQuaig and Mrs. J. Rosenburgh.

Mrs. J. McLeod, president of the Ladies' Aid, and Mrs. J. Stevenson, vice president were receiving with Mrs. L. R. Mitchell. Mrs. H. Fry and Mrs. A. Watkins were at the treasurer's table.

Pretty baskets of spring green crepe paper held the home-made candy that was for sale by Mrs. A. E. Barrie and Mrs. C. G. Law. Saleslades at the home baking table were Mrs. E. Fraser, Mrs. B. McLean and Mrs. D. Miller.

work Membership increases in the past year bring the total now to 2,400.

Welcome to newly appointed presidents in the various associations was extended by Mrs. Nelson. It was announced that Mrs. E. Chambers was re-appointed to the executive of Ontario Federation. Appreciation was extended to her for splendid leadership, high ideals and untiring efforts shown throughout the district.

Mrs. Chambers addressed the gathering with "Musings of a District Chairman," stressing that these associations are not social clubs but adult study and action groups.

After telling a few humorous incidents of her travels as district organizer, Mrs. Chambers closed with remarks on the splendid activity among district associations and asked Mrs. A. Stephenson of Omemee to give highlights of their work.

Mrs. Nelson said the duty of Council is as a conference group to aid, help and inspire. Trained leaders are necessary and workers must be increased. She gave the following 12 thoughts to remember: value of time; success by perseverance; pleasure of working; dignity of simplicity; worth of character; power of kindness; influence of example; obligation of duty; wisdom ymofecono duty; wisdom of economy; virtue of persevering; improvement of talent; joy of organizing.

Mrs. H. J. Morley favored with two beautiful solos and was accompanied by Mrs. J. Stuart.

Mrs. L. Gibson expressed thanks on behalf of Council to guests, also to retiring officers and those assisting in the past year.

All enjoyed the hospitality of Bridgenorth Association when the members served refreshments during a social hour following.

Badges Presented At Dessert Party

Closing meeting of the Girls' Auxiliary of St. John's Anglican Church opened with a dessert party Tuesday evening in the parish hall. Representatives of the senior branch, mother of members, past members and Archdeacon C. W. Balfour were invited guests.

A short devotional and business meeting was conducted by the president, Sylvia Caldwell. Brief reports of the WA annual meeting in Toronto recently were given by Margaret Stevenson, June Kilborne and Kathryn Flowers.

Presentation of badges by Mrs. H. C. Sootheran, president of the Senior WA, followed.

Missionary badges were awarded Gail Craig, Jean Stewart, Sylvia Caldwell, June Kilborn and Kathryn Flowers; Dorcas badges to Jean Stewart, June Kilborn, Carol Fausett and Eleanor Biddle; first aid badges to Eleanor Biddle, Carol Fausett and Rosalyn Stevenson.

In addition, WA pins were awarded Eleanor Biddle and Carol Fausett.

Mission instruction was given by Mrs. T. H. Floyd and Miss Margaret Stevenson. Dorcas work was supervised by Miss Margaret McCulloch and first aid classes were under instruction of Miss Gwen Sorby.

Tea and Bazaar At St. Alban's Successful Event

The Afternoon Guild of St. Alban's held a most successful tea and bazaar in the Chapel rooms Wednesday afternoon. The lovely affair was largely attended. Mrs. C. Barnes, president, received, assisted by Mrs. E. C. Moore and Mr. V. Blake, student in charge.

Quartette tables with dainty luncheon cloths, each centred with vases filled wih spring flowers, were charming places for guests to sit and enjoy the English style refreshments.

Hostesses were Mrs. G. Silby, Mrs. Godfrey Moore, Mrs. Chas Copping, Mrs. W. Hawkins, Mrs Young and Mrs. E. Miller.

The bazaar table was well stocked with fine work and beautifully embroidered articles. Conveners were Mrs. W. Pollard and Mrs. W. Woods. Home baking was also sold by Mrs. Ed. Simmons and Mrs. W. Herd.

Winner of the raffle on an electric clock was small Heather Richardson with a ticket drawn by the Rev. E. C. Moore.

Brown Owl Ivy Scotcher of the new Brownie pack brought Brownies Marie Fowler, Irene Kelly, Pat and Kay Sibly to sell candy, and each was smartly attired in a new uniform. Brownie Mother Mrs. H. Fowler supervised the sales.

Tea cup reading was a novelty that was greatly enjoyed.

DOROTHY DIX

Mother Slaves for Girls Now Earns Only Contempt

DEAR MISS DIX: Do you think that children should be spared the burden of housework? I am the mother of a large family and I work from morning until night, but I hate ask my daughters to help me as I want them to spend their time in play and pleasure, not in working. The hardships of life come soon enough and I do not want them to have the hard life that I have had.

Dorothy Dix

My husband says I am wrong about this. What is your idea?

AN OVERWORKED MOTHER.

ANSWER: Well, I agree with your husband. I think you are wrong, and that it would be better for you and far better for the girls themselves if you would let them help you with the household chores. For if you slave and let your daughters go idle, if you do without everything to give to them, you will not only make them selfish, but you will teach them to put you below themselves and they will have nothing but contempt for you. Believe me, it is not the mothers who work themselves to death for their children and who sacrifice everything for their children whom their children admire and reverence and appreciate. On the contrary, the adored mothers are those who put themselves up on a pedestal and make their children serve them.

Assign Jobs

I think from the time children are little tots they should each have their family responsibilities—little jobs that they are capable of doing, that they should be held responsible for doing. This would not only teach them habits of efficiency, but it would breed in them a sense of family loyalty. It would make them feel that they had a duty to the family and must do their part toward making it a success. I think children should be brought up to feel that they must help beautify the home and to keep it clean and orderly.

So, poor overworked mother, let your daughters help you with the family chores. It will not curtail the pleasures of their youth, for if the work is divided among the children the burden will be light for all and there will be plenty of time for play.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I have been married for one year and in that time my wife had gone home to her mother four times. We have been in a perpetual row ever since we were married and every time I don't give in to her she cries and rushes home to Mama and I am so fed up with the situation that I don't think I shall attempt to get her back. I don't think she loves me very much. Anyway, she does not act like she does. What shall I do?

TOM.

ANSWER: Well, Tom, my advice to you is to go to see your wife and find out if she is willing to come back and make a real honest-to-goodness try at making marriage a success. If she isn't and if she intends to pack up her belongings and go back to Mother every time she gets peeved, she had better stay there.

If she does return to you, make up your mind that there will be no more fussing and arguing between you. You can stop fighting if you want to. You get along with other people and you can live peaceably with your wife if you are determined to do so.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a boy of 20, married to a girl of 19. I would be very happy except that my wife is the worst housekeeper you ever saw. Our home is a perfect mess. Floors are never swept. Beds neevr made up. The dishes left unwashed in the sink. Clothes left on the floor just where they were dropped. And it drives me crazy, for I was brought up in a home where everything was spick-and-span and neat as a pin.

I try to make my wife realize how miserable it makes me to live in such a cluttered-up place, but it does no good. She says she is going to keep house the way mother does. So there I am, and I don't know what to do. Can you suggest anything?

UNHAPPY YOUNG HUSBAND.

ANSWER: There is nothing you can do except to try to put a score into her by telling her that unless she mends her ways with the mop and broom that you are going to leave her. If she is very much in love with you, she may think it worth while to change her tactics of never do any cleaning to-day that can be put off to Heaven knows when.

But I doubt it. Girls who have been reared in sloppy households stay sloppy. And the moral of the story is that before a boy asks a girl to marry him he should find out what sort of housekeeper her mother is.

5 Dionne Sisters Just Like Other Teen-Agers

By KAY REX.

CALLANDER, May 19 (CP) — Amid gigglings and shrieks of laughter, Annette tumbled to the floor.

Or was it Annette? It could have been Emilie—that's how difficult it is to tell these Dionne quintuplets apart.

Marie is the only one easy to spot. But that is because she wears glasses and is not quite as husky as the others. Yvonne, Cecile, Emilie and Annette are images of each other.

But back to that tumble again. It was really Annette who had fallen when the leg came off the chair on which she had been sitting. However, as quickly as you could count to five, she had it back on, and was again playing another round of "cochon" (pig) —a card-game.

It was a holiday and the quints were entertaining 10 other girls who attend their school, established in the nearby building which once housed their nursery.

Helps Mother

Cecile had gone upsairs to help her mother prepare sandwiches for the crowd.

Marie sat playing with Jacqueline Giroux of River Valley, Ont., Annette and Emilie.

In another corner of the room Yvonne was playing with some of the other girls, Constance Vachon and Rita Vannier of Haileybury, Celine Lavoie of Hurst, and Cecile Allard, Drummondville, Que.

Sister Aimee Des Anges who is head of the school, also was there.

"We decided to give the girls a holiday because they worked so hard for the concert," she said.

The show, which lasted 2½ hours, was given Mother's Day.

Ladies' Auxiliary of Ninth Parkhill Cubs and Scouts met Tuesday evening with Mrs. D. Hillier, president, in charge. Main business was the discussion of plans for the Cub camp. Mrs. V. Brown and Mrs. H. Reynolds were tea hostesses.

NIAGARA-GROWN FRUITS FAMOUS FOR FLAVOR!

WINONA, ONT. — Interest in the fruit-growing advantages of the Niagara Peninsula is greater than ever, according to officials of E. D. Smith & Sons Limited, whose modern preserving kitchens are located near this tiny hamlet in the heart of these famous fruitlands. This fact reflects a growing appreciation for the superior quality and flavor of Niagara-grown fruits.

As the makers of E. D. Smith's Pure Jams — Canada's oldest brand name in jams — this firm has long been experts in growing of fruit trees and the scientific development of fruit varieties as well as the production of quality jams. Nearly 50 years of experience stands behind their skill in bringing the full deliciousness of Niagara-grown fruits to your table in Canada's finest jams.

ORCHARD IN SPRING — Apple blossoms vied with peach blossoms for beauty in southern Ontario this May. Here a spanking team prances down the orchard on the farm of Mrs. John Chase Steckle, near Kitchener, Ont. The driver of the team is Walter Lampinen, who recently came to Canada from Finland. Mrs. Steckle, who is a native of Fort Williams, NS, was the first woman graduate of the Ontario Agricultural College and only woman president of the Nova Scotia Fruit Growers Association in that organi-

Seamen's Split Introduces Some International Angles

By The Canadian Press.

The Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC), strike reached into Great Lakes traffic Wednesday, engendering not only bitter inter-union charges but possible international angles.

The strike had its inception March 31 when the CSU, said to be Communist-dominated, ordered its members from Canadian east-coast deep-sea ships in protest against signing of contracts by the owners with the Seafarers' International Union (AFL).

From Detroit Wednesday the SIU told its allied AFL unions along the inland waterway to deny cargo service to three Canadian firms whose vessels are partly manned by CSU crews.

The SIU said its move was directed against Communism on the lakes and named more than 50 CSU-manned ships as targets of the drive.

In Montreal, T. G. McManus, CSU secretary-treasurer, promptly charged the SIU with "interference with the commerce of another nation."

Many Affected

Affected by the SIU's Detroit action are 24 ships and two barges of Paterson Steamships, Ltd., Fort William, Ont.; 20 ships and six barges of the Upper Lakes and St. Lawrence Company; six ships and six barges of Quebec and Ontario Transport Company and vessels of half a dozen smaller firms.

The situation was touched off Tuesday when the Paterson Line's Cartierdoc was not permitted to dock at the newsprint pier of the Detroit Free Press, although another ship, carrying an SIU crew, was allowed to unload.

Mr. McManus denied there are any Communists among the crew of the Cartierdoc.

He said the Canadian government had previously given his union and shipping officials "assurance that no such development would take place" as the sudden S.I.U. stand in Detroit.

The C.S.U. official said that along with Senator N. M. Paterson on the Paterson Line he had called on Arthur MacNamara, Deputy Minister of Labor, in March and learned of a letter from Joseph Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's Association (A.F.L.) urging the government and ship owners against signing with the C.S.U.

"No Interference"

"The Canadian government told us they would not tolerate any interference with Canadians by Americans," said McManus.

In Ottawa Mr. MacNamara said he would need more information before commenting on the claim of "assurance" by the C.S.U

"My understanding of the Detroit difficulty is that a picket line was established by the S.I.U. The captain saw the S.I.U. picket line and anchored in the stream.

"I don't quite see what Joe Ryan has got to do with" the Detroit situation.

Delicious Coffee instantly!

Economical too!

Make one cup of delicious coffee—or make several cups in your coffee server—quick and easy. Just add one cup of boiling water to each teaspoonful of Nescafé. Instantly the coffee is ready—with all the flavour and "lift" of freshly brewed coffee. No waste. No messy grounds.

And Nescafé is economical. Cup for cup it costs less than ordinary coffees in can or jar.

Try Nescafé today. Two sizes—4 oz. and the 12 oz. economy jar.

More people drink NESCAFÉ than any other instant coffee!

"Nescafé (pronounced NES-CAFAY) is the exclusive registered Trade Mark of Nestlé's Milk Products (Canada) Limited to designate its Soluble Coffee Product. It is composed of equal parts of pure soluble coffee and added carbohydrates (dextrins, maltose and dextrose) added solely to protect the flavour."

Promise To Assist

NEW YORK, May 19—(AP) — The city threatened Wednesday to close down the theatre on the smash-hit musical "South Pacific" because a theatre official refused to talk in a ticket-scalping investigation. A short while later however, the theatre management said it would seek to have the official help authorities in any way possible.

Can't Reach Solution

DETROIT, May 19 — (AP)— Federal mediation experts maintained a watchful position on the sidelines Wednesday as direct company-union negotiations failed again to produce a solution to the two-week-old Ford "speed-up" strike. Officials of Ford and the United Automobile Workers (CIO) met Wednesday for two hours and recessed until today.

6—In Memoriams

GARDNER: In loving memory of our our dear Dad, who passed away May 19, 1942.
Seven years have passed since that sad day
When one we loved was called away
God took him home, it was His will,
Within our hearts, he liveth still.
—Always remembered by Gladys Gordon, and Granddaughter, Sandra.

GARDNER—Mr. Alfred who passed away May 19th, 1942.
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall,
He had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we known not when,
To clasp his hand in the better hand
Never to part again.
—Ever remembered by son Alf, Annie and family.

SYMONDS—In memory of Robert George Symonds, who passed away May 19, 1941.
We cannot clasp your hand, father dear,
Your face we cannot see.
But let this little token
Tell that we still remember thee.
—Ever remembered by wife and family.

SYMONDS—In loving memory of Robert Symonds, who passed away May 19, 1941.
His presence is always with us,
His love remains with us yet,
For he was the kind of a friend
That we could never forget.
—Ever remembered by Mr. and Mrs Bert McCarrell and family.

LIGHTNING HITS

During the short thunder storm Wednesday afternoon a bolt of lightning hit the power lines at the Quaker Oats Company. It ran up the wires to a set of disconnecting switches in the boiler room of the sub-station. There it went to ground. It caused some parts of the plant to stop work for nearly half an hour.

F. H. Johnston Heads Appliance Men

A local branch of the Ontario Association of Radio and Appliance Dealers was formed Wednesday night at an organizational meeting held in the Empress Hotel.

The area from which members are drawn includes Peterborough, Lindsay, Millbrook, Campbellford, Port Hope, Cobourg and Belleville. An official name for the local association has not yet been decided on.

Frank H. Johnston of Peterborough was elected president; William Hamilton of Lindsay, vice-president; and Fred Meagher, of Peterborough, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Stan Tuff, Fred Meagher, Don Loucks, F. H. Johnston and Harry Knox of Peterborough. William Hamilton of Lindsay, Enos David and Roy Van Dusen of Belleville, Hugh Coleman of Port Hope and Wallace Rawcliffe of Cobourg.

The nine directors of the Ontario Association of Radio and Appliance Dealers met on Wednesday afternoon. They pledged themselves to co-operate with the Retail Merchants' Association in any action the latter might take to see there is an "equitable distribution of electric power this Fall" If there are to be restrictions the association claims they should be made in a more equitable manner.

Wilfred Hodgins of London stated that manufacturers, jobbers and laborers were organized and said that those in the retail section of the electrical industry should do the same. He quoted Donald Gordon, former head of the WTPB that they were the only class of merchants severely hit by the WPTB regulations.

Cutting Of Prices

He deplored the cutting of prices now going on in retail trade in the United States.

"We don't want that to happen here," he said. "The way to prevent it is for you and I to stick together and do what the manufacturer asks us to do."

William Garlick of Toronto, guest speaker, also viewed with misgivings the trend of the trade in the United States. Since the latter part of 1948 the stores have been loaded with electrical merchandise, he said. A large part of the individual dealer's dollar was tied up in inventory, stated Mr. Garlick.

Because of price cutting and premiums he said 1949 would be a "question-mark year" in the United States.

Do Job of Selling

"I think Canada is envied in a good many parts of the United States," he said referring to three good years for the electrical trade and the lack of price cutting.

"We should be ready to do a job of selling instead of price cutting," he counselled.

He concluded his address with detailed advice on salesmanship.

The speaker was introduced by Frank Cavers of St. Catharines and thanked by Mr. Hamilton of Lindsay. Mr. Loucks was in the chair.

Other visitors were the Canadian president of the association, Vaughan McDonnel of Windsor; L. Hartman of Toronto; Frank Quartermaine of Toronto; and three other Ontario directors—Ron Grant, Ottawa, Joseph Cheshire, Hamilton, and Ray Keelan, Sarnia.

C.C.F. Nominate Jaffey In Hastings-Peterborough

MADOC, May 19 (ENS)—John Haffey, Trenton merchant and CCF organizer for Hastings county, was the unanimous choice of a CCF nominating convention held in the local Legion Hall to contest the riding of Hastings-Peterborough in the Federal election of June 27.

Mr. Haffey, an army and air force veteran of the Second Great War, in accepting the nomination stated that he had sold his business in Tre[illegible] in April and would be gi[illegible]ull time to campaigning in the riding. He said he would endeavour to contact as many people as possible during the six weeks' campaign.

The candidate said that he and another CCF organizer, James Russell, had travelled extensively in the constituency during the past two weeks and had found many members of the two old line parties waiting to hear the gospel of the CCF. In appealing to the delegates and other party sympathizers for full support, Mr. Haffey said: "What you do in the next six weeks might well mean the difference between security and chaos."

Wants More Social Security

Mr. Haffey declared that the farmers are beginning to realize "the trimming" they have been receiving from the meat packing plants, dairies, and farm implement manufacturers; the factory worker that there is no need of working six days a week at low wages when there are over 250,000 unemployed; and the business man that, as fares the farmer and working man, so does he.

"Everybody except the capitalist now realizes that we need such social security measures as higher old age pensions at 65 instead of 70 and without a means test, a national health plan for all irrespective of income, subsidized housing program for low income groups, and extension of family allowances from the present age limit of 16 to 21 if the son or daughter is in school or college.

Approve Raise In Salary For Anglican Clergymen

KINGSTON, May 19—(CP) — Increases in salaries of Anglican clergymen serving on self-supporting, as well as mission charges, was approved today by the annual meeting of the incorporated synod of the Diocese of Ontario.

Present minimum salary for ministers serving on self-supporting charges is $1,600 and on mission charges, $1,400. The approved recommendation calls for $200 annual increase in each case. The boost is to go into effect next January 1.

Rural Dean R. A. Penney, Sharbot Lake, said he felt that the clergyman serving on a mission charge was put to greater expense than the minister on the self-supporting charge.

Mr. Penney said he felt laymen should take the matter in hand. If they did, he was sure the additional funds necessary to raise the stipends would be obtained.

Rev. S. H. Coleman, Ameliasburg, said he felt a clergyman appointed to a mission should receive the same amount of money as those in self-supporting charge. "The minister on the mission has to do more travelling, and the upkeep of his car is greater," he said.

Archbishop John Lyons said: "I believe the two ministers should be on the same level. I feel the money can be raised."

Progress both in membership and finance was reported by the committee on the state of the church Wednesday night.

Rev. Ernest Teskey, rector of St. Paul's Church, Kingston, chairman of the committee, reported 45 new families enrolled, together with 111 single people. The church population shows an increase of 869.

The financial picture was encouraging, he said. Receipts show a total of $242,139, an increase of $26,423. The total stipends increased by $7,442.

GRADUATES SATURDAY: W. Fred Hampton son of Mr. John Hampton and the late Mrs. Hampton of Lakefield who will graduate from Queens University, Kingston on Saturday.

W. Fred Hampton Queen's Graduate

W. Fred Hampton will receive his B.A. degree, in an Honour Course in Biology and Chemistry, at Queen's University convocation, Kingston, on Saturday. He is the son of John Hampton, Lakefield, and the late Mrs. Hampton and his wife, a teacher on the staff of Havelock High School, was the former Natalie Hermans.

Mr. Hampton graduated from Lakefield High School in 1934 and from the Peterborough Normal School the following year. He spent three years teaching in Chandos township, at S.S. No. 8, was principal of Warsaw Public School from 1939 to 1943 and from there entered the RCAF. After 27 months service as wireless mechanic he returned to head Warsaw School for another year, 1945-46.

He entered Queen's University in 1946 under the rehabilitation scheme where he has just completed his studies. He will join the staff of Chatham Collegiate Institute as science teacher in September.

Negro Jailed 15 Years

CHICAGO, May 19 —(AP)— Maurice Scott, 43, a negro was convicted wednesday of raping a white woman while holding her captive for three days. Judge Joseph A. Graber sentenced Scott to 15 years in prison. Mrs. Helen Trepac, 28, a widow, testified Scott raped her in May, 1948, when she went to his apartment to discuss payment of a $28 bill she owed Scott for furniture storage.

New York Artist Dies

WILTON, N.H., May 19 (AP)— Chauncey Foster Ryder, 81, of New York, internationally-known artist, died suddenly today while painting at his summer home on Abbot Hill here. He received the silver medal at the San Francisco Exposition in 1915 and honorable mention at the Societe Des Artistes Francais, Paris, in 1907.

Manager Retires, Bank Service Of 42 Years

At the end of this month James L. Thompson, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Toronto, is retiring 42 years after he began work with his bank in Barrie. For the past six years Mr. Thompson has been manager of the local branch. During that time he has taken an active part in civic enterprises.

Mr. Thompson is a member of the Peterborough Club, the Rotary Club, Board of Directors of the Victorian Order of Nurses, the Chamber of Commerce, Trinity United Church Board and treasurer of the Peterborough Health Association.

Mr. Thompson began his career with the Bank of Toronto in Barrie in 1907 under H. B. Henwood who later became general manager of the bank. From Barrie he was transferred to Toronto, then to St. Catharines. From there he went to Vancouver, again under Mr. Henwood who had just been placed there. After 10 years Mr. Thompson was moved to Winnipeg where he stayed three years. He was then assigned to relieving managers in Alberta.

From West to Ontario

His first managerial position was at Caron, Alberta. After several years he was again transferred back to Ontario becoming manager of the branch bank at Kerwood. After a year he was moved to Coldwater, residing there five years. Prior to coming to Peterborough Mr. Thompson was manager at the Preston branch for 14 years.

Upon retirement Mr. Thompson plans to take a two-month motor trip to Vancouver. He will continue to reside in Peterborough.

Successor to Mr. Thompson at the local bank will be W. A. McEvoy. Mr. McEvoy has been with the Bank of Toronto for nearly 34 years. Before being transferred to Peterborough Mr. McEvoy was manager in Preston for five years.

Obituary

MRS. WILLIAM T. TULLY

The death of Mrs. William T. Tully, formerly Susan Edith Matchett, occurred at her residence, R.R. 11, Peterborough on Tuesday after an illness of two years. She was in her 82nd year.

Mrs. Tully was born in Otonabee and lived all her life at R.R. 11, Peterborough.

Beside her husband, she is survived by three daughters and one son, Mrs. Charles Huffman, Peterborough; Rosanne, Toronto; and Mary and Joseph, at home. She was predeceased by another son, John James, and by two sisters, Mrs. George Pidgeon and Mrs. William Irvin.

Mrs. Tully was a member of Knox United Church, Peterborough.

GUEST OF HONOR and speaker at the dinner of the Life Underwriters Association on Friday evening in the Empress Hotel will be the Hon. Lester B. Pearson, Secretary of State for External affairs. Mr. Pearson will be making his first visit to Peterborough, where he attended school, since his appointment as a minister of the federal government.

Seven Days In Cooler End Housekeeper Hunt

He said he had been on a three-day hunt for his housekeeper. Police took another view and arrested Wilbert Succee (pronounced Sookey), RR 1, Keene. Today he was convicted of drunk driving and sent to jail for seven days. This ended whatever housekeeper hunt had been going on. The arrest was on April 26 and the case was adjourned until today.

Defended by W. J. A. Fair, KC, Succee said that when he was stopped by Constables Trennum and Andrews at Water and Hunter streets he had not been drunk, but had been suffering from lack of sleep and food.

Constable Trennum identified a bottle of brandy as having been found in Succee's car. The accused admitted having the liquor, which he said he had shared with two other men at Mamouth. He had driven from Peterborough to Mamouth and back on the same day.

2 Tramped In Panic

BOSTON, May 10 (AP)—Two women were trampled Wednesday night when 20 passengers rushed in panic to the exits of a trolley after 100 feet of live wire fell near the vehicle. The operator of the trolley said the passengers became panic-stricken when the thrashing wire lit up the area with brilliant electrical flashes. The women were not severely injured.

FLAMES MENACE TOWN—A wall of flames races toward Canyon Creek on the shore of Lesser Slave Lake about 130 miles north-west of Edmonton. More than 200 fire fighters in the area checked the fire before it reached the town, but further west at Assineau 75 were left homeless. Forestry officials blame settlers in the area for starting the inferno in Alberta's tinder dry forests by lighting small fires to clear the land. A dry fall and light snow during the winter left timberland so dry, fire hazard is the greatest in history.

CPR Vice President E. D. Cotterell Dies

VANCOUVER, May 18—(CP)—Edward Darlington Cotterell, 68, retired vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway's eastern lines, died suddenly Wednesday in the Vancouver Club.

Mr. Cotterell joined the company as a telegraph messenger at the age of 16.

In 1913 he became general superintendent of Canadian Pacific Railway's Manitoba division; headed divisions in Saskatchewan and Alberta, and went back to Toronto as assistant vice-president to H. J. Humphrey.

In 1944 he became vice-president of eastern lines.

He moved to the coast on his retirement in 1947.

Surviving are his widow and two daughters, Elizabeth and Mrs. G. E. Morris of Vancouver.

Says CSU Will Fight Picket Injunction

VANCOUVER, May 19 (CP)—James Thompson, west-coast vcie-president of the Canadian Seamens' Union (TLC), said Tuesday night his union would fight Supreme Court injunctions banning picketing around the Star.

Earlier yesterday the picket lines around the Seaboard Star and the SS Seaside were lifted for the first time since they came into port.

Longshoremen began working cargo. It was the first time the eastern-owned ships had been worked since the strike began six weeks ago.

The lines were lifted in compliance with the Supreme Court injunction.

Hospital Fire Hazard

SARNIA, May 19—(CP)—Fire hazards in Sarnia General Hospital are similar to those that brought more than 300 deaths in a hotel conflagration in Atlanta, Georgia, a few years ago, prevention officer A. D. Desroches of the Ontario Fire Marshal's Department said here Wednesday. He gave a preliminary, verbal report to the hospital board which had requested a survey of the institution.

Car Cut In Two Driver Killed

HAMILTON, May 19—(CP)—A 63-year-old knitting mill owner, whose home is in Toronto, was instantly killed near his Milton plant Wednesday when a C.P.R passenger train knifed through his automobile and hurled him into a ditch. He was Samuel Smith, owner of the Model Knitting Mills with plants at Toronto, Milton and Hanover.

The accident occurred at 9.46 a.m. on the C.P.R. double-track line through Milton. Mr. Smith was driving away from the plant and was crossing the tracks at a point where three other mill employees have lost their lives in the last 25 years.

According to Provincial Constables Ray Mason, J. J. McKee, of London, engineer of the train, said he had not stopped at Milton station and his speed at the about 50 miles an hour. The train was proceeding easterly.

Turn Down Proposal

TORONTO, May 19 — (CP)—The Labor Relations Committee of the Toronto Building Exchange Wednesday night turned down Labor Minister Daley's second proposal for settlement of this city's building strike. Committee chairman Thomas Beattie said the minister's settlement offer was not acceptable to the employers because it was based on a negotiated agreement with common laborers.

Belleville Minister Archdeacon Of Ontario

KINGSTON, May 19—(CP)—Installation of Ven. F. Arthur Smith of Belleville as archdeacon of Ontario was held Tuesday night in the annual synod service of the Church of England St. George's Cathedral. He was installed by Archbishop John Lyons, metropolitan of Ontario.

Special preacher for the occasion was Rev. T. J. Finlay, rector of St. John's Church, Ottawa.

REJECT RED PLAN TO END GREEK STRIFE

Ford Refuses To Open Wage Talks

Federal Mediator Joins Discussion For First Time

DETROIT, May 20 (AP)—The Ford Motor Company today flatly refused to open simultaneous union contract talks while negotiations continue for settlement of the United Automobile Workers (C.I.O.) strike which started 16 days ago.

The U.A.W. threatened Thursday night to walk out on strike peace talks unless the company agreed to begin consideration of a new contract by next Monday. The union's Ford contract expires July 15.

John S. Bugas, Ford vice-president, reaffirmed in a press conference today the company's previous stand that it would not consider starting contract talks before June 1.

He said that under the law the company is required only "to agree to reopen contract talks in a reasonable time before its agreement with the union expires."

Sixteenth Day

Bugas' statement came as Federal mediator Arthur C. Viat intervened for the government in across-the-table peace talks on the 16th day of the Ford strike.

As Viat joined union and company negotiators for his first active participation in the direct peace talks the union's "speed-up" strike had made idle more than 100,0000 Ford workers.

Ford and the UAW are locked in a dispute over workmen's production rates at Ford's Rouge and Lincoln-Mermury plants.

The union at a strikers' mass meeting Thursday night, made its threat to quit negotiations unless Ford agreed to go into simultaneous new contract discussions.

UAW president Walter Reuther demanded that Ford start contract talks next Monday and continue simultaneously with strike negotiations "until both matters are disposed of."

BURNED OUT—These three loggers and the camp cook pose in front of all they could save from a northern Alberta logging camp when a forest fire swept along the south shore of Lesser Slave Lake. Most of the camp equipment and buildings were destroyed in the fire, one of the many which kept hundreds of fire fighters busy in a round-the-clock battle. Seventy-one persons were made homeless by the fire at Assineau not far from this logging camp.

Say Athens Must Be Consulted

Britain, U.S. Refuse To Negotiate "Behind Govt's Back"

LONDON, May 20 — (AP). — Britain to-day announced she will refuse to negotiate a settlement of the Greek Civil War "behind he back of the Greek Government."

Informants in Washington said a similar reply was given by the United States to a proposal by Russia far halting the three-year-long civil strife between the Athens government and Communist-led guerrillas.

Athens "must be fully consulted" on any steps, Britain holds.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said in Moscow that Andrei Gromyko had proposed negotiation of a Greek settlement based upon recent peace proposals of the guerrillas, who have proclaimed a Separatist government of their own. Athens has rejected such guerrilla overtures several times and demanded unconditional surrender.

Tass said Gromyko proposed that if the three powers worked together on the Greek problem, they jointly call for an end of hostilities, a general amnesty, and free, supervised elections. He also called for an international commission to control the frontier areas, which is a departure from previous Russian policy.

Gromyko, according to Tass, has proposed big power negotiations on the Greek question under certain circumstances, which would include withdrawal of all foreign military aid to the Nationalist Government.

See "Balls Of Fire"

HELSINKI, May 20 (Reuters)—Finnish military authorities said today they received reports of "flying balls of fire" moving in the direction of the Russian frontier. The reports were received from inhabitants in different parts of eastern Finland.

The inhabitants told authorities the balls had trails of sparks and made a whining noise as they passed overhead at about 500 feet.

Authorities said that during the last two years various types of flying bodies have been reported in land but scientific investigation proved them to be natural phenomena.

Communists Drop Shells In Shanghai Proper, Assault Renewed On City

Shanghai's Time Is Drawing Short
Waterfront Banned To Civilians
Reds Attempt To Seize Radio Transmitter

By FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, May 20—(AP)—The first shells of the civil war smashed into teeming Shanghai proper today as the Communists returned to the assault on this largest city in all Asia. In the old French quarter at least six Chinese civilians were killed. Ten others were wounded. A garrison communique said two companies of Communists tried to seize the government radio transmitter in the Woosung sector, 10 miles north of Shanghai but were beaten back.

It said that government positions were intact on the east side of the Whangpoo river in the Pootung sector. The Reds last were six to eight miles from Shanghai proper on this front.

It appeared that Shanghai's time is drawing short.

The Bund, Shanghai's waterfront thoroughfare, was banned to civilian traffic. What the Nationalists are doing there is not clear. There were no important troop loadings on ships waiting at anchor.

Nationalist troops are on the move in Shanghai—north, south east and west.

The United States navy still has not resumed the ferry service from Shanghai to waiting ships in the Yantze. This service was suspended temporarily three days ago.

The situation southwest of Shanghai was this:

Officials at Lungwha airfield, five miles south of Shanghai, said they heard machine-gun fire about five miles away.

The control tower at this last air link between Shanghai and the rest of the world reported:

'Don't think we will be here much longer."

(There were no developments reported from the rest of China civil fronts. The Communists last were reported threatening Foochow, on the southeast coast, spearing south of fallen Hankow in central China, and moving south of Canton, refugee capital).

Hospital Head On Stand Before Inquiry

WINDSOR, May 20 —(CP)—Horace Atkin, superintendent of the Metropolitan Hospital, today denied that he had at any time tried to date nurses at the hospital. He was refuting evidence given by former superintendent of nurses, Miss Valeria Drope, that one nurse left the hospital after working 10 days because he tried to "date" her

Giving testimony before a royal commission probing administration of the hospital, Atkin told the court that nurses attended a party in a Detroit hotel on the invitation of Windsor City Mayor Reaume. Mr. Atkin explained that he was told to invite anybody he wanted to and "I ran into one of the girls coming down the stairway . . and told her a group could go to the party."

For two days Mr. Atkin has been under fire from several sources. Nurses testified he and other influential Windsorites attended a now-famous Detroit party and that the Superintendent was responsible for "dating" the girls.

Other nurses have said Mr. Atkin tried to take them out on parties to cottages or week-end excursions.

Finances Attacked

Financial setup of the hospital has been attacked and charges that he, and Mayor Arthur Reaume, tried to prevent investigation into the hospital affairs have been made.

Rumors which started over secrecy surrounding the resignation of Mildred Maybee as superintendent of nurses snowballed into the inquiry being heard before Judge Eric Cross of Woodstock, one-man Ontario Royal Commission.

Earlier nurses who attended the Detroit party named Mr. Atkin, Mayor Reaume, Gordon Fuller, Windsor contractor and Dr. P. J. G. Morgan, superintendent of East Windsor Hospital, as their escorts.

Montreal Police Guard Piers As Vessel Docks

MONTREAL, May 20 (CP) — Police in force patrolled the waterfront area today when the Canadian freighter Mont Rolland, manned by members of the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) arrived from Mediterranean ports.

It was believed the crew would join the strike called March 31 by the CSU in protest over Eastern Canada shipowners signing contracts with the Seafarers' International Union (AFL.)

A sister ship, the Mont Sandra of the Montship Lines, is due in port tonight. She is manned by an ISU crew and is the vessel that cleared Halifax early in the strike after a waterfront fight.

The company is expected to place an SIU crew aboard the Mont Rolland. Both vessels will load for Europe.

Killed By Car.

CAPETOWN, May 20 (CP)—Harold Powers of Halifax, seaman aboard the strike-bound Canadian ship Cumberland County, was killed here Wednesday when struck by an automobile. The death was not connected with the strike of Canadian Seamen's Union members aboard the ship, police said today.

Railway Workers Of Berlin Threaten Tie-up

BERLIN, May 20 (AP)—Traffic rolled on all roads to Berlin today without Russian interference, although the Soviets still have not answered Western protests against their on-again-off-again rules.

Economists of the Russian and Western zones got together for more talks in their deadlocked efforts to arrange for a revival of inter-zone trade.

The Russians renewed their accusation that the Western military governments are trying to "destroy" the Soviet zone's economy, and the Westerners stuck to their old denial.

Berlin railway workers, disgruntled by failure to obtain full payment of their wages in West marks instead of the less valuable Soviet zone currency, threatened to start a crippling transport strike at midnight tonight. Mayor Ernest Reuter of West Berlin said he would meet with leaders of the anti-Communist Railway Union this afternoon, and hoped to get a settlement.

Temporary Cessation

The Soviets yesterday called off temporarily their ban on the movement of freight trucks on the Autobahn, the main road and shortest one linking Western Germany to Berlin.

They had indicated this was a temporary move, and that only trucks bearing Soviet permits as well as those from the Western Allies would be permitted to move on to Berlin on this route starting today. But they made no move early today to interfere with those lacking Soviet permits.

The Russian accusation against the Western military governments was voiced in the Soviet army newspaper Taegliche Rundschau

The paper reiterated Soviet demands for reinstatement of the 1948 East-West trade agreement which was suspended during the blockade, and which the West contends is no longer applicable.

Boards Advised To Spend Money On Essential Courses

Care should be exercised to see that the taxpayers' money is not spent on inconsequential knowledge but on essential education, the Hon. Dana Porter, Attorney General and Minister of Education on Thursday night told delegates to the conference of Associated High School Boards of Ontario.

The 75 delegates from various High School Boards in Ontario are holding their 18th annual convention here Thursday and today. On Thursday night they were guests of the Board of Education.

"It is vitally important for every person who has any direct interest in education to know just how far we should go in making innovations and changes and just how far we should consider retrenching and making sure that the money will be going into the essentials of education," he said. "Then the child-

Says Business Must Cut Profit

WALKERTON, Ont., May 20—(CP)—Walter E. Harris of Markdale was chosen unanimously Thursday night at Liberal candidate for Grey-Bruce in the June 27 Dominion election. Parliamentary assistant to Prime Minister St. Laurent, he had represented the riding since 1939.

Transport Minister Chevrier who addressed the meeting in this community, 35 miles southwest of Owen Sound, said the election would be decided on the record of the Liberal government and the personalities of Prime Minister St. Laurent and George Drew national leader of the Progressive Conservative party

He warned capital it must be prepared to accept a smaller share for its efforts. Big business must curb its profits to avoid a repetition of the situation that existed after the First World War.

He described Mr. Drew as a leader with a favorable personality and a good radio voice. He had "all the vanity—and more—of the late Lord Bennett but very little of his ability."

Sees Defense Pact

SEOUL, May 20—(CP)—President Syngman Rhee of South Korea said today that if the United States believes a Pacific pact is impossible now "I think Asiatic nations alone can meet together for their own collective security."

Rhee told a press conference that messages had been exchanged on the subject and "certain nations have indicated an interest."

Rhee mentioned Australia and the Philippines as countries showing an interest in a possible meeting.

Hawkins Family In Red Area

By AMOS LANDMAN

SHANGHAI'S WESTERN DEFENCE PERIMETER, May 20—(AP)—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hawkins of Somerset, England, are calmly sitting out the battle of Shanghai surrounded on three sides by Communist armies.

They live in suburban Hungjao, 10 miles from Shanghai's bund. Their house is a rambling three-storey affair surrounded by a garden and wall.

It was quiet there today. But earlier it was the scene of bitter fighting.

"We like it here," remarked Mrs. Hawkins, 58, and China born. "We've been here 27 years so I guess we'll just stay."

From the Hawkins' roof-top Red troops could be seen working on their defences 1,000 yards away.

Shells fell in the Hawkins' courtyard repeatedly, Hawkins said. The windows and doors of the house are heavily sandbagged. An ample food supply is on hand.

Mrs. Hawkins has been in bed with a cold for several days. The bed has been moved from the second floor to a better protected spot under the stairs on the first floor. She faces a 10-foot Union Jack.

"I must get up tomorrow," she said cheerfully. "This is a poor place from which to watch the show."

Levelled houses stud the desolate countryside all about the house. The Hawkins are among a handful of foreigners remaining on Hungjao road. Most of the others have moved.

A few Nationalist soldiers remain in the area.

As I started to leave, Hawkins said:

"You must come see our children."

He led the way to a large multi-colored living room with several vases of flowers in it. A tea pot and cups were set out on a small table in preparation for afternoon tea. Photographs of their five daughters were placed in a row on a small table.

They were pretty, too.

Netted Million In Car Racket

NEW YORK, May 20—(AP)—A Brooklyn man is accused of netting close to $1,500,000 through the cash sale of used cars he allegedly never delivered.

William Corcoran, Jr., 31-year-old naval reservist, was booked yesterday on grand larceny charges involving the alleged used car swindle.

Brooklyn District Attorney Miles F. McDonald gave this description of the alleged swindle:

Corcoran would purchase a shiny new car with low mileage at a used car lot.

He then would park the car outside some large office building or factory and wait for workers to pass by and admire it. Then Corcoran would strike up a conversation with the employees and offer to sell the car several hundred dollars below market value.

Word about the bargain would get around, and other workers would want the same "buy." Corcoran then collected cash payments in advance, but never delivered the cars.

The district attorney said Corcoran's activities extended into New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New Hampshire and Vermont. McDonald said more than 800 persons may have been defrauded in the alleged scheme.

18 Cars Derailed

MONCTON, N.B., May 20—(CP)—Eighteen cars of an eastbound freight train jumped the tracks on the Canadian National Railways' main line 18 miles east of here today but there were no casualties among the train crew.

CNR officials who reported considerable damage in the wreck, were unable to say how long it would take to clear the line. Arrangements were being made to transfer passengers around the wreck.

Poisoned Tarts Sent To Wife

GODALMING, Surrey, England May 20 (CP)—The law today closed its files on the case of Frederick Radford, 46, who sent presents of poisoned tarts and jellies to his wife when she was in hospital and then took his own life by swallowing prussic acid.

A coroner's jury yesterday returned a verdict of murder and suicide after hearing evidence concerning the poisoned food fatally eaten by Mrs. Radford while she was in sanitorium suffering from tuberculosis. The suggestion had been made that through her death Radford hoped to become free to marry for the third time.

Medical evidence showed that although Mrs. Radford would have succumbed to tuberculosis, her death was hastened by arsenic poisoning administered through the pies, tarts and jellies sent her by her husband.

But Radford maintained his innocence to the last. He left a note saying he was tired of "being badgered about for something I know nothing about."

He had sent the tarts and jelly to the hospital and friends and refused she had complained of illness after eating them. A doctor at the hospital said he had eaten part of a tart intended for Mrs. Radford and had immediately become ill.

An examination of the tarts at a laboratory showed they were poisoned with an arsenic solution introduced through holes in the crust.

Judge Prevented From Presiding

SHEBROOKE, Que., May 20—(CP)—A writ of prohibition was served today on Judge Aime Chasse to prevent him from hearing one of the cases of Asbestos Union leaders charged with conspiracy to incite illegal assembly. The judge immediately withdrew from all the cases.

It was not immediately clear what procedure would be followed after the writ was served by Alexandre Chevalier, counsel for Rene Roch, a union organizer who was arrested last Saturday with 15 other officials of the striking Asbestos Workers Union.

The writ alleged that the judge had "lost jurisdiction" because on several occasions he had made statements giving "the accused reason to believe he would not receive justice."

Judge Chasse said the writ contained erroneous statements, but he was withdrawing from hearing all 16 cases.

The 16 were arraigned last Monday on charges growing out of clashes between police and strikers at Asbestos May 9. Their cases were to have continued today.

Strike Of Builders In Toronto Spreads

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — Toronto's building workers' strike is scheduled to spread today to three more construction jobs.

Mike Nicols, organizer for the Hod Carriers and common laborers' Union (AFL), told the Toronto District Labor Council (AFL) Thursday night that the extension of the strike will bring the number of projects affected to 76.

The strike started 17 days ago when the union demanded that the Toronto Builders Exchange establish a modified closed shop. The union asked the contractors to agree that all laborers in their employ would be compelled to join the union by May 31.

More Training In Store For Britain's 2 Princesses

By NORMAN CRIBBENS

LONDON, May 20 (CP)—The King and Queen and their advisers at Buckingham Palace have recently been discussing the future training and official duties of Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret.

Both will in future take a larger share of the Royal Family's public duties.

Elizabeth's obligations as a mother no longer prevent her from undertaking official duties as heir to the throne. The King's recent indisposition has meant that she has had to represent him on more occasions than hitherto.

Prince Margaret, who will be 19 Aug. 21, has hitherto been allowed to lead more or less her own life and to enjoy pleasures of her own choosing. Now she, too, must relieve her father of many of his tasks. To that end she is being put through a program of comprehensive education in state matters.

By their gracious and dignified behavior at all kinds of public functions the Princesses have won world-wide respect. During her holiday in Italy Margaret surprised many elder statesmen with her grave and responsible deportment on important occisions, notably when she called on the Pope in Rome.

This summer Margaret will tour a number of factories in the London area and it is believed she will pay increasing attention to the question of women's place in industry.

Princess Elizabeth has always shown a keen interest in British and Commonwealth matters, and the new policy at Buckingham Palace will give her wider scope in this direction.

Sticks To Accusation

UK Embassy Anti-Red

MOSCOW, May 20 (Reuters)—Archibald Johnstone, who resigned recently as editor of British Ally, British foreign office newspaper in Moscow, Thursday answered criticism in the British press, radio and House of Commons of his action in renouncing British nationality.

At a conference of foreign and Russian newspaper men he declared British correspondents present should, of their own knowledge, bear out his accusation that "the British Embassy in Moscow is bitterly anti-Soviet and a person with even moderately progressive views is unwelcome here."

Asked whether it was necessary for him to give up British citizenship to work for peace, Johnstone said that if he had returned to Britain he would have been ignored by "the big capitalist press."

Prospects For Peace Best Since War's End--McCullagh

TORONTO, May 20 (CP)—The way to combat Socialism and Communism "is to amend capitalism and make it work" George McCullagh told a service club luncheon meeting today. After a fact-finding tour of Great Britain and western Europe the Toronto newspaper publisher said he was convinced that "Socialism is not the most desirable system under which to live."

In a speech prepared for delivery Mr. McCullagh told members of the Canadian and Empire Clubs that "this is a testing time for all the world." Canada had a "proud and noble part to play" in the "great laboratory out of which is either going to be produced a formula for peace or the millenium."

Mr. McCullagh, who included Italy, France, Holland, Switzerland and Germany in his tour, said he had returned "with the definite conviction that war is far less a possibility today than ever since the cessation of hostilites."

In an attack on the present Socalist government in England Mr. McCullagh said that "a system which gives free play to individual initiative and thereby nourishes that quality in everyone of us. . . is far more compatible with human nature than a regimented society.

He said that there might be some excuse for England drifting into Socialism after spending her material and human wealth on the defence of freedom "but if political leaders espouse this social doctrine of security to a young and rich country like ours, it is nothing short of wicked."

At the moment world peace was not threatened from Germany but from Russia and Communism. In the fight against Communism "the Roman Catholic church is well recognized as playing a leading and commendable role."

Mr. McCullagh, himself a Protestant, said that if Communism is considered the greatest evil "we would be utterly unwise if we did not co-operate to the utmost with that group which could fight Communism with the great perseverance effectively and on a spiritual, rather than a purely political, plane—and such a group is certainly the Roman Catholic church."

BULLETIN

SARNIA, May 20—(CP)—Stabbed in the chest with a six-inch hunting knife, Edward Birmingham, 60, was found dead in his home at nearby Blue Water today and police took a companion, Everett Robinson, 55, into custody. A third man, who occupied the two room shack with Birmingham, Albert McGill, 70, is in hospital suffering from knife wounds.

3 Party Leaders Push Campaign In Maritimes

By Canadian Press Staff Writer

A mandate to work for the country's peace, security, trade and prosperity was asked of the people of Canada Thursday night by Prime Minister St. Laurent as he approached the end of a two-week general election campaign tour of the Maritimes.

Mr. St. Laurent detailed his election manifesto in an address broadcast nationally from the New Brunswick rail-hub city of Moncton. George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, spoke at Campbellton, N.B., and M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. chieftain, addressed a rally at Halifax.

Mr. Drew said Canada's foreign trade today is supported by the United States' European Recovery Program and predicted that the country faces "disastrous prospects" if that support is withdrawn.

For the first time in his campaign along the eastern seaboard, he touched on the Hong Kong controversy and said his party believes the men of that ill-starred wartime expedition should be given Pacific pay from the date of their sailing from Canada in 1941. The government has paid them Pacific rate only from the date the war ended in Europe.

Mr. Coldwell took a stab at the government's housing policies and accused it of shirking its responsibilities.

The Liberals "passed the buck" to the provinces when they were confronted with the growing housing problem

Mr. St. Laurent, too, touched on housing in his election manifesto and disclosed that the government has asked the province to make proposals for federal aid in providing locally-managed, low-cost rental units. He pledged full federal co-operation with the provinces and the municipalities in a housing program.

The Liberal party would persist in seeking a "national standard of social security and human welfare which assures the greatest possible measure of social justice to all."

Pair To Stand Trial On Shakedown Count

WELLAND, May 20 — (CP).— Michael P. O'Connor and William J. Horrigan of Toronto will stand trial next month on charges in connection with an alleged attempted shakedown of Niagara Peninsula liquor licence applicants.

The men late yesterday were committed for trial at the next Welland County Sessions of the Peace, starting June 7. They are accused of conspiring to obtain money by false pretences with intent to defraud.

Magistrate H. D. Hallett of St. Catharines, who commited them, dismissed charges against Leslie F. Gallway of St. Catharines of obtaining $1,000 by false pretences from George Kares, a St. Catharines poolroom and restaurant owner, who sought a licence for a hotel he was building. Also dismissed was a charge against Gallway of trying to obtain $500 by false pretences from W. S. Martin of Niagara Falls, Ont., president of the Niagara Falls City Club.

Witnesses said they were induced to make donations to an organization described as the Conservative Young Men's Movement of Canada.

Reach Understanding On Canada Affiliates

CLEVELAND, May 20 (CP) — The AFL executive council reached an "understanding" Thursday with the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress over treatment of affiliates in Canada. The AFL, like the CIO, has many Canadian branches. Differences arose over past efforts of some left-wing Canadian unions to "pack" the conventions of the TLC

That resulted in the ouster a year ago of the Canadian branch of George Harrison's Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks from the TLC, The clerks have been restored to membership but only after noisy charges and counter-charges.

West Bargaining Position Much Improved Since Yalta

BERLIN, May 20—(AP)—Britain, the United States and France will go into the Paris foreign ministers conference in their strongest positions since Yalta. The Soviet Union's bargaining situation has been considerably weakened economically and politically since the Moscow and London conferences. In both previous conferences the west was in a defensive position trying to seek agreements with Russia.

At the Paris conference for the first time diplomats believe the west can take the offensive or sit tight and let the Soviets seek to break the deadlock.

In a nutshell, the comparative positions on Germany are seen in this light:

Western Advantages

1. Last year and two years ago western Germany was poverty stricken and economically stagnant. Today its industry is booming, living standards have been raised and recovery is well under way.

2. Last year and two years ago west Germany was a political vacuum. There was no government nor did anyone care much about one. Today the Germans are busy setting up their own west German state and Germans as a whole have taken an interest in politics again.

3. Last year and two years ago the western powers were split on their German policy. With security fears largely alleviated by the Atlantic Pact, France is now closer to Britain and the United States and united in a common German policy.

Russia's Position

1. At the end of the war the Soviets had the only zone which could support itself economically, particularly in food. Its standard of living was far higher than the industrial west. Today, stripped by reparations, and shipping vast quantities of goods to Russia, the eastern zone is a deficit area.

2. At the end of the war, the Russians had a chance to win German support by a lenient occupation policy. Today there is no hope for such support except by force of arms.

Act As Taxpayers

The Minister asked the assembled trustees to look at requests for education grants as taxpayers rather than Board members.

During the past few years School Boards have had great encouragement to spend money, he stated, and the public has been willing to sanction this expenditure. But he warned that it all had to come from the people's pockets and as businessmen and taxpayers they should not lose sight of this.

More progress had been made in education recently than in the last 100 years, he said, and the public is getting a higher money value for its educational expenditures than ever before.

"We are always glad to spend your money but we must first raise it," he stated.

Reviews Chief Sources

He briefly reviewed some of the chief sources of revenue and each time asked if the delegates, as ordinary taxpayers as well as trustees, would be willing to sanction an increase in the tax.

At the moment the Department gets seven per cent of the Corporation Tax. This, he explained, is a net profit tax and unless a firm shows a net profit there is no revenue. It amounts to about $40,000,000.

When the Federal Government abdicated the gasoline tax field the Ontario Government stepped in and re-imposed the three per cent levy for educational purposes. Would delegates be willing to see this boosted, he queried.

The Succession Duties Tax was also a source of revenue but much smaller.

As delegates chuckled he dismissed the subject of revenue from liquor sales in the province. "That's something we take and pay to the School Boards but no one says anything about it."

The Province might also step into the Income Tax field if more money were needed, but would they be willing for such a levy," asked the Minister.

Tribute to Teachers

He paid high tribute to school teachers. He estimated there were as many as 25,000 men and women hired by the various Boards in the province.

"No group paid out of taxpayers' money can expect to become rich," he declared. "They have other interests and ambitions than just to amass wealth."

"Their profession is to practise the profession of teaching the rising generation... they are devoted to a cause."

The minister was introduced by A. J. Skeans, chairman of the Toronto Board of Education and thanked by W. J. Dowkes of Owen Sound. Frank H. Jobbitt, chairman of the Peterborough Board of Education was in the chair.

The delegates and the Hon. Mr. Porter were welcomed by Mr. Jobbitt on behalf of the local Board, and by Mayor Max J. Swanston on behalf of the city.

Other guests, invited by the association, were J. E. Morris, Hamilton, president of the Urban School Trustees Association, the Rev. J. V. Mills, Toronto, executive secretary of the Ontario School Trustees and Ratepayers Association, Romeo Lachaine, Ottawa, of the Bilingual Trustees Association, and S. G. B. Robinson, general secretary of the Ontario Secondary School Teachers' Federation.

H. E. Dickinson of St. Mary's, president of the Associated High School Boards presented bouquets of roses on behalf of that organization to Mrs. Dana Porter, Mrs. Frank Jobbitt and Mrs. M. J. Swanston.

Entertainment during the convention dinner was provided by girls from the PCVS Choral Club under the direction of Melvin J. Curtis.

Vessel Grounds In Sudden Gale

KINGSVILLE, May 20 (CP) — Gale-force winds in a sudden squall on Lake Erie Thursday blew the passenger-and-freight carrying ship, SS Pelee, broadside on to a sandbar 300 feet off West Dock on Pelee Island. Fishing tugs from here went to the vessel's aid.

In a ship-to-shore telephone interview Captain John Stewart of the tug Arlene said all the Pelee's crew were still aboard, and that the vessel was an on even keel.

Telephone communication between Leamington and the Island was disrupted by the storm. Kingsville first learned of the mishap when a boat crew en route from Port Dover put into the harbor to report the Pelee in trouble.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, May 20—(CP) — A moderate increase in selling and a noted lack of support contributed to an easier tone in all grains in early dull trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange. The fall off came in sympathy with declines of grains on the Chicago market.

Routine shipper demand appeared in both oats and barley at th eopening, but prices fell off as offerings increased. Commission houses were sellers in rye. Flax was not open.

10 a.m. prices:

Oats—May 1 lower at 78⅞A; July ⅛ lower at 74!A; Oct. ¼ lower at 69⅜A.

Barley — May ¼ lower at $1.16¾A; July ⅜ lower at $1.10¼; Oct. unchanged at $1.00.

Rye—May 1⅜ lower at $1.29¾; July 1½ lower at $1.30⅝B; Oct. 1¾ lower at $1.31⅜B.

Flax—Not open.

Inspections: Wheat this year 303; last year 312; cars of contract 246; oats 45-23; barley 84-39; flax 14-4; rye 17-2; other grains 4-3; total 467-383.

Warns Of Dumping

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — A warning against the "dumping" of United States rubber goods on the Canadian market was given by C. C. Thackray of Montreal, president of the Rubber Association of Canada. Speaking at the annual meeting of the association he said Canadian industry would have to maintain a vigilant outlook as competition with the United States becomes severe.

Drew's Remarks On North Stars 'Phoney' -Howe

OTTAWA, May 20 (CP)—Trade Minister Hows charged Thursday that George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, and George McCullagh, publisher of the Toronto Globe and Mail—what he called the "two Georges"—were making "phoney" statements in connection with the structure and performance of Canada's North Star aircraft.

Speaking before a Liberal nominating convention in the Carleton riding in the western suburbs of Ottawa, Mr. Howe said

"I know it is difficult for a politician to challenge a newspaper successfully, but I should like to brand as malicious, false and wholly irresponsible, the stories that have been featured in the Globe and Mail—on the front page."

He told the convention, which chose John McDonald, 35-year-old Ottawa lawyer to contest the riding now represented by Mr. Drew, that "ordinarily, it would be a pointless effort to deal at all with opinions expressed by these two men (Mr. Drew and Mr. McCullagh) on a subject of which they know nothing."

But since the decision to instal British Rolls-Royce Merlin engines in Trans-Canada Air Line's new North Star aircraft now was "under bitter attack," there had been some doubt cast on the the "reliability" of T.C.A.'s "services and equipment" and he felt he must place the facts "in their proper setting."

"It is a matter that touches all of us," said Mr. Howe, "since not just the government of Canada is being censured, but the government of Great Britain, many thousands of Canadian craftsmen, some of the world's great engineers and perhaps least important of all—myself.

"I feel that some effort must be made to expose the phoney quality of the statements that are being made."

(The Globe and Mail said Monday in the first of a series of stories dealing with North Star aircraft that it had learned from technicians at Dorval Airport that "replacement of the Merlin engines in its North Star fleet has been secretly planned by Trans-Canada Air Lines." At that time an official of the line denied that TCA planned to discard the Rolls Royce Merlins. Trade Minister Howe said it was "preposterous" to suggest that TCA planned replacement.

"Unexcelled," Claim

He said one article suggested "that the North Star and its magnificent Rolls-Royce engines are not first-class." In his view the North Star was "unexcelled in the world to-day" for "performance under all conditions of flying."

"There are larger aircraft, and there are faster aircraft, but there are no aircraft available to commercial air lines as suitable to the conditions under which we, in this country, must be prepared to operate." Of the Merlin engine, he said it was performing as expected.

"TCA's engine experience has been no worse than that of any other air line, but in most respects, has been far better," he continued.

ber of the ticket committee for the Detroit Press Photographer's Ball in Detroit on Feb. 18, said he sold the tickets to the Windsor men.

On the stand Mr. Dalgleish deplored the fact that the photographer's ball has been construed by witnesses as a 'wild party."

Mr. Dalgleish was also named as one of the men in the room at the Book-Cadillac Hotel where the party was held.

Well Conducted

"It was a well-conducted ball and it is very embarrassing as a member of the association, to have any slur cast upon it. We were very careful whom we invited," he said.

Dr. Clifford Weber, former chief of the medical staff at the city-supervised hospital, made the first attack on the financial setup at Metropolitan. He testified he had never seen a complete account of the budget figures. Dr. Weber said that as far as he could find out the hospital budget is arrived at by taking last year's deficit and adding two per cent.

The inquiry, after to-day's session, recesses until next Wednesday. At that time Mayor Arthur Reaume is expected to testify.

Forest Blazes Still Threat

WINNIPEG, May 30 (CP) — Forest fires still are posing a serious threat to Northern Saskatchewan and parts of Alberta, but elsewhere in Western Canada the situation is well in hand.

Thirteen fires are reported burning in the Prince Albert district of Saskatchewan. But, though the hazard is high, most of the blazes are under control. A temperature drop to 28 degrees last night aided firefighters.

To the northwest of Prince Albert at Cowan Lake and the Meadow Lake districts came reports of further serious blazes.

Men and equipment were rushed to Cowan Lake, 30 miles north of Big River, in an effort to bring the fires under control before the hazard increased. Fifteen men and two bulldozers joined forces with firefighting crews already at the scene to combat the threat.

The hazard is also reported "extreme" in other Northern Saskatchewan areas. In Alberta, three serious fires are reported out of contol but most other blazes are being held in check.

Old Church Converted Into Community Centre

CAMPBELLFORD, May 20 — (ENS)—A community cannot accomplish much unless there is a healthy community spirit. Such a spirit has been demonstrated by the people of Norham, a little village ten miles southwest of here, where an old church, built in 1878, has been converted into a thriving community centre.

The citizens purchased the building from the property committee of the United Church of Canada a few years ago and through combined community effort the 75-foot steeple was demolished, the church wired and the interior redecorated. The total investment was about $1,000.

Now, plans are being made to modernize the building with the addition of a fully equipped kitchen and inside toilets. Lots in the rear are to be fitted up as playgrounds for the children. Later, they expect to build a community rink.

Fred M. Rutherford of Campbellford met the board of directors recently and outlined the department's plans and regulations in connection with community centres.

Ray Campbell, Ted Pearson, Frank Yabsley, Clarence Brenton, Leonard Langford, Bill Newman, Kenneth Gummer, Percy Windover and many others were responsible for promoting the project from its beginning. The ladies have raised hundreds of dollars for the enterprise through progressive euchre, bingo and other attractions.

Mrs. Hoarde Hostess To Hastings Auxiliary

HASTINGS, May 20—(ENS)—The May meeting of Trinity United Church W.A. was held on Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. Hoarde, Bridge Street, with 21 members present. The president, Mrs. G. Thompson, presided.

Mrs. Lorne Nelson read the scripture.

The theme of the worship period was taken by Mrs. A. Orr. Mrs. Walter Thomas gave a reading and Misses Barbara Scriver and Bonnie Chennell sang a duet "I'm A Child Of The King" accompanied by Mrs. C. Scriver at the piano.

It was decided to leave the final arrangements for the home baking sale until the next meeting.

Mrs. R. Burnham invited the ladies to hold their next meeting at her home on June 7.

The worship and program committee will be Mrs. C. Scriver, Mrs. L. Switzer, Mrs. H. Scriver, Mrs. F. Scriver and the lunch committee, Mrs. B. Preston, Mrs. A. Orr, Mrs. Lottie Oliver and Mrs. Carl Oliver.

Mrs. G. Thompson extended a vote of thanks and appreciation to Mrs. B. Preston for the altar flowers to the church during the month of April, also to the programme committee for their delightful programme with special thanks to the two girls for their duet.

Rev. N. Cole spoke briefly and closed the meeting with a prayer.

Cobourg Arena To Cost $150,000

COBOURG, May 20 —(ENS)—Following up the approval by the town council of the recreational centre plans, the finance committee met Thursday night in the town hall and drafted plans for the campaign. Next week the municipal board will be asked to finally approve the project and once it has been obtained the committees will swing into action.

Under an earlier ruling of the municipal board, the $50,000 authorization by the ratepayers, must be matched by an equal amount by public subscription.

Cost of the building will be $95,365.00 and the artificial ice plant will cost $36,000. The site has cost $4,200 and as the amount of the grant plus cash and pledges total $86,000. The balance is $82,000. In order to take care of everything, the total cost is being set at $150,000 but work will start when the total amount on hand is $100,000.

If all goes well the corner stone would be laid early in July and the building will take three months to erect, the meeting was informed. One of the items which would be included in the figure of $150,000 will be the floor and while it is not to be laid until a year after the building is in use, it would cost $10,000.

Strange Behaviour At A Red Cross Outpost

The report of the strange behaviour of the nurse at the Red Cross outpost hospital at Wilberforce will come as a shock to many people who have supported the Red Cross in the past. Let us recapitulate the story briefly: a man drove his wife to the hospital at Wilberforce, as she was going to have a baby; the child was born on the journey; the nurse at Wilberforce gave the child some brief attention, but declined to do anything for the mother, advising the couple to drive on to Bancroft, 25 miles away. A Red Cross official from Toronto is trying to put the best face on the story, but so far her efforts have not been very successful; she appears to have taken a somewhat haughty line in the matter, for she is reported by Canadian Press to have said that if the hospital at Wilberforce is not wanted, it will be removed.

* * *

That is no attitude for the Red Cross to take. It appeals to the people of Canada every year for funds on the ground that it does emergency work and field work which is attempted by no other organization. The hospital at Wilberforce was built by public subscription. There is always a tendency on the part of employees of large and highly organized charities to forget that their first duty is not to a system of rules, or to their own convenience, but to humanity. The Red Cross collects not only money, but a vast amount of public approbation for its humane work; incidents of this sort tarnish its reputation.

* * *

The unfortunate couple and the infant were turned away at Wilberforce on the excuse that it would take a long time to get a doctor there. Unless the birth presented unusual complications, there was little that a doctor could do for the mother which could not have been done by a nurse—particularly a nurse at a remote outpost, where such emergencies are expected and where, presumably, women of considerable experience are stationed. It is worth noting that the nurse at Wilberforce did nothing for the newly-delivered mother before sending her on a 25-mile journey.

* * *

The Red Cross appears to be at fault. It is incidents of this kind which give the phrase "Cold as charity" its bitter savour.

The Risk Of Free Elections

The elections in Russian-occupied Germany (including eastern Berlin) held last Sunday and Monday were by no means free. The electors were free to vote, but they had to say yes or no to slates of names foisted on them; they had no freedom of nomination or choice. Nevertheless, the Soviet and Communist officials have reason to know now that even that limited freedom is dangerous, thought we suspect they knew it already but gambled that their indoctrination in Germany, the promises made of a brave new communist world, and the presence of military police, would cow the voters into being yes-men.

Their indoctrination was not apparently complete enough, the rosy glow of Communism was jaundiced, and perhaps the Germans, having suffered from the Gestapo, were not to be frightened into complete submission by the secret police. At any rate, the Communists had to admit that 33.9 per cent, or 4,080,272 persons, voted against the Communist slate. It is suspected in the western world that far more people, perhaps even a majority, voted against the Party, and that the figures have been juggled so that an outright defeat will not be shown.

Even the 33 per cent. record must be a blow to the Communist officials in Germany and Russia. It was a revealing vote. The eastern Germans have been under Russian influence for four years; they have been bombarded by their propaganda; they have been courted by Russia. Despite all this, four millions of them voted against the Communist way of doing things. Some of them remember democratic government in the Weimar post-Great War Republic; all of them have experienced the Nazi form of government; all of them have lived under Communism. That so many should reject Communism (and, as a corollary, prefer a democratic political system), may be more than a wish to try something different. It is likely that they see how relatively well, securely and freely Germans live in the west, and would want the same system for themselves.

We hazard a guess that there will be no more "free" elections in eastern Germany until the Communists have the voters properly muzzled, as they are in Czechoslovakia and Poland. The risk would be too great—the risk of losing face, though of course not control.

The Cost of Rehabilitation

Prime Minister St. Laurent remarked last Wednesday that the Government had spent on the rehabilitation of Canadian veterans more than twice as much as it had planned to spend in 1945. One reason for the increased cost is that like other costs which rose sharply after 1945, the cost of providing tools, education and land to veterans rose. Another is that Canada has been very generous in its financial treatment of the returned men and women, compared with the post-discharge benefits granted after 1918, and compared with other countries after the recent war.

Thus far, Canada has spent $1,360,680,000 in its program to reintroduce its veterans to civilian life, and to re-equip them for it. All told 1,086,771 persons or 9.65 per cent of Canada's 1939 population, served full time and for varying numbers of years in one of the three armed services. Allowing for the 41,000 men and women who were killed, the more than a billion dollars spent on rehabilitation is the equivalent of $1,302 for every man or woman who served in the active forces, whether for a month or six years, whether in Canada or overseas. Canada and its present Government cannot be accused of being stingy in the monetary help given veterans returning to civil life.

Labour Party Discipline

It is easy to overestimate the importance of the British Labour Party's action in removing five of its members from their posts as parliamentary secretaries because they did not support the party stand on the Irish bill. People who think that the Labour Party is always wrong will not be slow to suggest that such rugged discipline suggests Russia rather than England. Such a suggestion is offset by the news that two strongly communist Labour Party members have been expelled because of their continued criticism of the party's attitude toward Russia. We do not think that these rather violent measures reflect anything but Mr. Attlee's well-known ruthlessness toward party members who will not do what they are told.

To what extent should a parliamentarian obey his party? In theory all M.P.'s are free to act as their consciences direct; in practice no party could permit such freedom without endangering its existence. An M.P. must support his leaders in public; if he disapproves of their policies he has his chance to say so in caucus. Mr. Attlee has, before this, said that it is not necessary for all Cabinet ministers to support a Government measure; obviously he is not prepared to put up with insubordination from underlings.

As is so often the case, this matter was summed up years ago in those remarkable political documents, the Gilbert and Sullivan operas. A character in Iolanthe aptly observes:

When in the House M.Ps divide,
If they've a brain and cerebellum, too,
They've got to leave that brain outside
And vote just as their leaders tell 'em to.

And he continues, with equal good sense:

But then, the prospect of a lot
[illegible]
All thinking for themselves is what
No man can face with equanimity.

And there, so far as we are concerned, the matter rests.

NOTE AND COMMENT

The spirit of free enterprise will be given new vigour by the news from the West, reported in the Calgary Herald of two ambitious fleas who worked hard, saved their money, and finally bought their own dog.

Toronto's Board of Education will permit "sex to be taught in grade schools" provided there is "nothing physiological, biological or sexual about the course". The real education, then, will be continued in the extra-mural limericks and smut courses

Notes And Queries

By ALPHA

Questions are solicited for this column, particularly those relating to local lore and tradition.

QUESTION: Why does Canada keep on celebrating as a national holiday the birthday of Queen Victoria? England doesn't do it, and as far as I know, no other country does.

ANSWER: It's as good a reason as any for a holiday, and better than many. Queen Victoria and the character of her period left a firm lasting impression on Canada, then in its formative stages. Our architectures shows it—have you noticed how many of our public buildings bear the initials VR on their corner-piece? The corner-stones of Canada's moral life were laid by her.

Our whole timing process would be thrown out to kilter were the 24th abandoned. Everybody now knows that seedlings should not be set out before the 24th; that spring housecleaning should be ending; that summer underwear and cotton frocks may safely be put on after the 24th; that that is the day for the first picnic; that summer holiday plans must be formed; that daring swimmers take their first plunge then. Do without the 24th? As easily try to do without firecrackers.

SIR: Are the adherents of the Roman Catholic faith on the increase in Canada?

ANSWER: Yes, but so are those of other religious denominations because the population is increasing. In 1871 there were 1,532,471 Roman Catholics; in 1881, 1,791,982; in 1891, 1,992,017; in 1901, 2,229,600; in 1911, 2,833,041; in 1921, 3,389,626; in 1931, 4,285,388; in 1941 (the last census year; we must wait until the next census in 1951 for a later accurate report), 4,986,552, which was 43.34 per cent. of the population.

However, considering the number of Roman Catholics as a percentage of the total population, there has been almost no increase since 1871. Since that first complete census year, the Roman Catholic population has been remarkably constant, at about 40 per cent.

Compare this figure with those of ten years after the British took Canada. In 1774 there were 150,000 Roman Catholics in Canada and only 360 Protestants. However, soon after that year thousands of New England traders began to flood the country; then the U.E.L.'s came, during and after the American Revolution. They were mainly Protestant. In their wake came the Methodist "circuit riders" from across the border, to spread their type of Protestantism.

ALPHA: Another street name question for you! After whom was Fleming Place named?

ANSWER: I suspect it was named after Sir Sandford Fleming, surveyor, railway pioneer, and the "father of Standard Time". The engineering building at Queen's University called Fleming Hall is named after the same man.

Sir Sandford Fleming was not a Peterborough man by birth, education or residence. He was a Scot and his home was principally in Ottawa. But he came to Peterborough in the course of his affairs, met his future wife, a sister of the late Sheriff Hall, and married her. As Sir Sandford's connection with Peterborough is very slight there is no warrant for a Petterborough memorial of him such as the tablet unveiled in November 1938 outside the building occupied then by the Sons of England Society at Richmond Street east and Berti Street in downtown Toronto. Sir Sandford has Fleming Place in Peterborough, and in this city there is more point in honouring Sheriff Hall, who was, in the words of one elder resident of the city, "an estimable and humble-minded citizen and not the sort of man at all who would have enjoyed the publicity of basking in the rays of glory sparkling from a halo of a brother-in-law's crown, or anybody else's".

THE TORONTO memorial tablet to Sir Sandford Fleming was erected by the Canadian Jewellers' Association, on the walls of the building formerly occupied by the Canadian Institute, before which Sir Sandford, in an address, first outlined his plan to have standard time zones throughout the world 70 years ago (1879).

Before the adoption of Standard Time the problem of keeping clocks and watches in time with the sun was perplexing, particularly since earlier in the century travel by train and over long distances had become fairly common. The first trains between Toronto and Montreal were required to make four time changes during the 350-mile trip. There was a difference of 23 minutes in sun time between Montreal and Toronto, and 6½ minutes between Toronto and Belleville.

Sir Sandford's original address was printed and distributed throughout the world by the Governor-General of Canada, the Marquis of Lorne. The English received the proposition coolly, but the Czar of Russia, in whose country time changes were as great a problem as in Canada, took it up. He called a conference which sat in Rome, and later adjourned to Washington, where Standard Time was adopted by most of the countries of the world. Shortly afterwards Fleming was Knighted by Queen Victoria.

When B. C entered the Dominion of Canada in 1871, Fleming was appointed chief engineer for the construction of the C.P.R. to link the new Province with the rest of Canada. It was at a later date that he became Chancellor of Queen's University.

ALPHA: Con you tell me why the huge new Paramount Theatre sign is tilted the way it is? Is that the latest fashion in signs?

ANSWER: The ways of advertising are murkily understood by me. I can but hazard guesses. I doubt that tilted large signs are latest dictates of advertising experts. The new Paramount sign sticks out at the top so that it can be seen from afar. I suspect that the reason it does not obtrude so far at the bottom is because of the municipal by-law which lays down the law about them. It sets down the distance a sign may overhang the pavement, measured from its base. So the base of the sign conforms. The top of it may be a long way around the by-law.

I do notice that the new sign blots out the town clock from the south. I hold no gurdge against main street illuminated signs. They add to the galety of the city, give it an urban look.

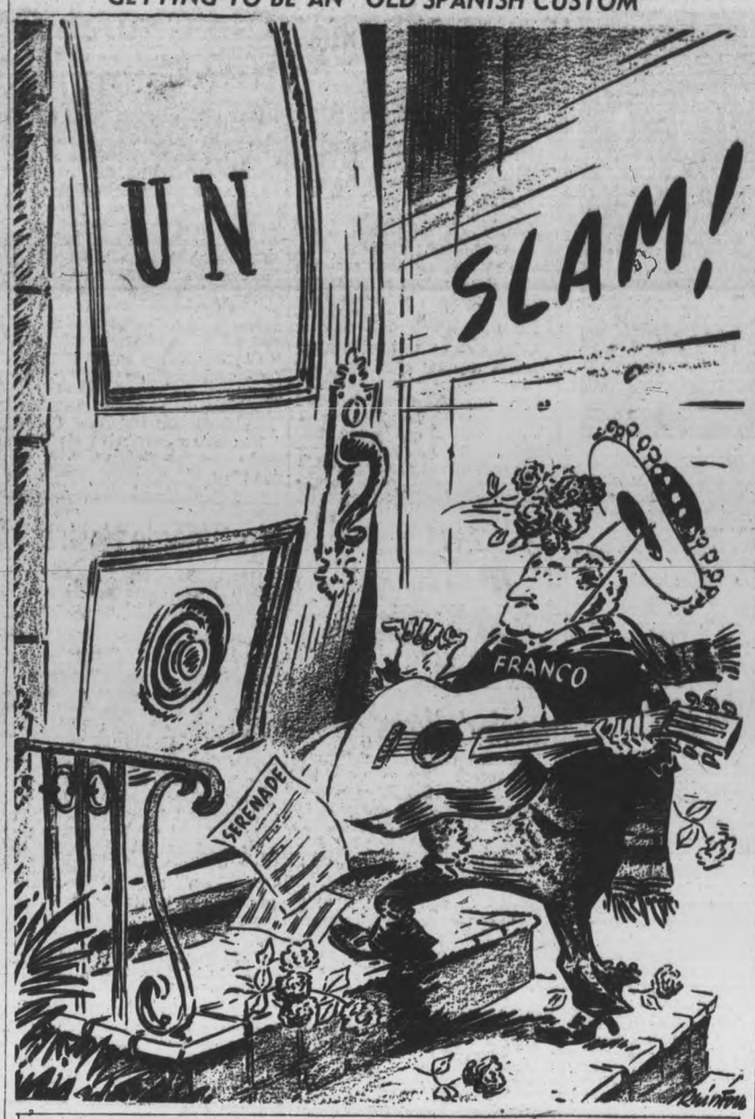
FOR THE RECORD: Since the 24th of May is more a seasonal demarcation than a date on a calendar or the birthday of the late Queen it is fitting that I should at this time remark that spring has been early and warm and graciously bright, that tulips are about done, that lily of the valley and lilac are in full bloom, and that peonies are coming into firm bud. A night frost which weather prophets threatened early in the week did not descend, and I judge it entirely safe to change from woollens to cottons, even though the 24th is not quite at hand and despite the saw "Change not a clout before May is out".

GETTING TO BE AN "OLD SPANISH CUSTOM"



Letters To The Editor

WANTS SOUTH END PARK

Sir: It's all very well to talk about a park at the west end, but what about the south end. The west end has Jackson's Park, Queen Mary School grounds, Prince of Wales School grounds. The south end has only King Edward Park. That is flat as a pancake, as uninteresting, and no park at all because it has almost no trees, has no benches, and is just an addition to a sports ground. The south end is growing faster than the west. What about it, Mr. Aldermen?

Yours,
PARKISH-MINDED ARNDON DWELLER.

UNAUTHORIZED SIGNS?

Sir: The River Road to Lakefield and its canal banks are about the only decent and free picnic grounds within 20 miles of Peterborough. It's a fine pleasant road, and the grounds and trees at the various locks are nice. Why spoil them?

Spoiled they will be if what's happening at one of the locks north of Nassau spreads to others. I don't know the lock number, but there are new cabins across the road from it.

At this particular lock there are soft drink signs, a sign advertising cabins to rent and another advertising milk. All these are on Trent Valley Canal (Dominion Government) property. All are on the left (get that) left side of the road, going north; that is, the river side. A couple of them may be so near the road that they are on County Road property.

Anyway, they have no business to be there. Has the lock master done a dicker with the soft drink company or the owner of the cabins, or is he blind? And what about the Canal Superintendent's eyes? Who gave permission for them? Who is going to tear them down and when? They have no damned right to be there, the way I see it.

Yours,
RIVER ROAD LOVER.

UNMARRIED MOTHER'S HELP

Sir: I see in tonight's paper a report from the Children's Aid Society. I suppose since it is a routine monthly report nobody will pay much attention to it.

May I be allowed to call attention to one little item? It is: "The Society was consulted by five unmarried parents. Three made their own plans and two asked for assistance in planning for their babies."

That is very important, sir. Too few people in trouble know that they can go to the Children's Aid Society for advice and help. Horrible things have happened in Peterborough because unmarried girls about to have a child became frantic and did not know where to turn.

There are a lot of bigoted, over-righteous "good" people in this district who condemn a young girl because she is going to have a baby and hasn't recited marriage lines. It's very bad for the girl and worse for the child.

I suspect that a lot of these "good" people are just bitter. The truth is, I suspect all "good" people. They are too good to be true.

I do not say intimate relations between a young couple before marriage are bad. Isn't that the fullest test of knowing each other? There would be fewer unhappy marriages if couples had these intimate physical relations before marriage, and a lot less false romantic nonsense.

I wish, sir, that you could publish once a week that an unmarried girl in trouble could find help from the Children's Aid or the Salvation Army. It would prevent a lot of murders and suicides. A friend tells me that in a country like Denmark these matters are well handled, and the girl has good attention and no spot on her name, by a state program. We have none here, but there are the substitutes I have mentioned.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem, and found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: and when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an house of merchandise....Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body.

When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. (John 2: 13-16, 18-22.)

Hard For Farmer's Sons

The day has gone when a farmer's son could acquire a cheap quarter section of land and by hard work and frugality use it as the foundation for building his own future. Today that young man is faced with the necessity of acquiring a minimum of half a section of land and upwards of $10,000 worth of equipment. He must have sufficient capital of his own to enable him to borrow anything from $10,000 to $20,000 to get started in business. Repayment of this huge debt becomes the first charge on his income.

This is a problem that ought to be concerning the whole country. What can be done to make it possible for young men to stay on the farm? What encouragement can be given to young men to strike out on their own on farms of their own? Instead of even consideration of these questions, we are bombarded by a stream of 'security' propaganda that seems to have as its aim the destruction of self reliance and individual initiative.

—Calgary Farm Review.

Soul With Sore Tail

The radio and the movies have done much to spread U.S. culture throughout this land. And a great deal that passes for culture. But just about the last form of U.S. culture Canadians desire to adopt is the hillbilly and his songs, which, in their plaintive falsetto, sound like a lost soul with its tail caught in the crack of a door.

Wagon Shaft Pierces Hood Of Automobile

When a horse drawing a milk wagon was startled on George St. Thursday near Parkhill Road the animal ran into the middle of the road and a shaft pierced the hood of a nearby car.

Max Beebe, who was in charge of the horse and wagon, had unfastened one trace when he stopped to fix a flat tire, to avoid the horse from pulling the wagon off the jack. The horse was apparently startled by the noise of the tools used in fixing the tire.

When Consable W. G. Scottt arrived at the scene, the shaft was wedged through the hood of the car, owned by Sam Bickell, 473 Mark Street.

Parsons Flings Good Ball As Cosmos Win

Tommy Parsons displayed good form both on the mound and at bat last evening at the Bowl as Cosmos downed Credit Jewellers 15-7 in the opener of the regular men's softball twin bill. The victory was the third against one defeat for Howie Dalton's boys. Despite wildness, Parsons held the upper hand over his three rivals, struck out 11 and had two hits, one a homer. Crowe had four for five including a homer and two doubles to lead his team at bat with Wyatt, Robso.. and Withers each having two, Crary and Cooper led the Jewellers with three and two hits respectively.

Batting—Larry, Doby, Indians—Smashed 450-foot plus homer, one of the longest ever hit at Yankee Stadium and drove in two runs with single in Cleveland's 3-2 victory over Yankees.

Pitching— Freddie Hutchinson, Tigers, held Washington to seven hits and contributed single, double and triple in 10-1 win.

SUMMER SPORTS

While the pickerel season is a little off is appointing, they just be lazing around somewhere and it's just a matter of time until we can land our quota.

The boys have been cussing their luck, rods and reels in turn. Now luck is something we have no jurisdiction over, but when it comes to rods and reels . . . that's our dish. We sell them, and we repair them, you'll be interested in our smart repair set-up, drop in and look-see.

TENNIS, TOO

Comes the season of shorts and racquets, we are restringing old frames and making them as good as new, so if you need yours repaired or a new one, we can get together. Come and see us at our new stand.

HORSE TO WATCH—Bunty Line, owned by John Stuart of Toronto, is considered one of the horses to watch in the King's Plate at Woodbine of May 28. Not a favorite in the early betting, Bunty Line has been impressive in his workouts, clocking in one a time faster than most Plate winning times.

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Senior "A" lacrosse comes to Peterborough for the first time tonight when Weston plays the Petes at 8.45 in Miller Bowl, opening tilt of the OLA top schedule. The Mayor will face off, and the place should be packed if the weather is okay. Weston will be tough—they all are in senior "A"—but Red Creighton will field a strong squad, too, better than the senior "B" champs of 1948. Newcomers include Jim McNulty and Leo Teatero of St. Kitts, Jack Howse of Detroit and a few others, along with such '48 aces as Jack Foote, Warren, Bun Hill, Lou Vitarelli, the Breakspears, Arn Dugan, the Creightons, Chute, Magee, maybe Terry Gordon and Jack Westonfeldt, and the rest. A slambang lacrosse game will result to start off the 36-game schedule.

* * * * * *

The gutted-stick game has certainly come a long way in this borough since the boxed version was introduced in 1931. Since the playing days of Doug Miller, Pete King, Ira Dundas, Buster Whitton, and those rugged stars of yesteryear, lacrosse has generally flourished, but for the war interlude, here. And the game took a new lease on life several seasons back with the building of spacious Miller Bowl. In the last two years, the colorful Petes have swept through to two provincial senior "B" titles, and now they're taking a crack at the faster senior "A" company. Minor players galore are coming up, too. It's a rugged, exciting, typical Canadian sport and has a great many local followers.

Opening The COBL

Diamond enthusiasts will be out in force, no doubt, Saturday aft at three in revamped Riverside Park to see the COBL opener. It's Batawa Shoemen (with Gordie Muffitt likely flinging) against Ed Murphy's Petes. The 1948 loop champs have quite a few changes coming up. Don't know their starting lineup, but likely the three available twirlers, Gunner Whitehill, Bill Dadson and Bryan Wade, will see action, with Al Menzies catching. Edwardson, Crowe, Pagett and Dalton probably on the infield, with Garvey, Joe Lowrey, Mackness and Stewart available for the garden. Lowrey and Edger will later get their hurling turn, and Pat Wilson will aid in catching when an injured leg recovers. Ray Fitzgerald, Red Sullivan and others may be in there, also, ere long. Opening ceremony proceeds the big game.

* * * * * *

Not only is the diamond sport full of drama and thrills, but it can be rough in spots, too. For instance, the Pirates and Cards are feuding bitterly in the National League with bean balls, spikes and fights occurring frequently. Lou Boudreau of Indians has been beaned four times so far, and others in the big leagues are complaining of pitchers throwing at their heads. Lou says he doesn't mind being dusted off but he objects to pitchers aiming higher than the shoulder at a batsman. Cobb was the roughest of all players, and Durocher says: "Nice guys don't win ball games."

In Ye Men's Loop

Cosmos defeated the Jewellers 15-7 and Knights edged the Outlaws 8-7 in men's softball over Bowlward last evening before a chilly gathering of fans. Tom Parsons pitched and hit well for the Dalton dudes, with Bob Crowe clouting a homer, two doubles and a single in five trips. Crary had three bingles for the Houlihan boys Eakins and Hunter were on the mound for Outlaws as Hinton went the route for Knights, Taylor got three hits for the Richardson squad, as Evans, Vic Griffin and Giardino had two apiece for the Russelle crew. Foster and Blewett roped in nifty catches Correct standing now has Knights and Cosmos on top with three and one each, while Outlaws and Uniteds are tied with two and two apiece, Jewellers having dropped four. Tomorrow it's: Outlaws vs. Cosmos, and Uniteds vs. Jewellers.

About 85 sat down to an enjoyable dinner in Legion Hall last p.m. as Branch 52 paid tribute to its senior "B" puck champs. City contributed $100 toward the "do", and Ald. Hurrell Dodds represented the Mayor. He intimated there would be a city championship dinner again to honor all champs of the past year. Prexy Tiny McFadyen of the OHA Legion, while Frank Buckland of the OHA and Coach Ned Vitarelli passed out the championship medals. Harold Yelland, branch president, welcomed the guests, and Lou Durkin was m.c. at the dinner, served by the ladies' auxiliary of the Legion. El Jones' recording of the Sarnia final was run again, and the whole evening proved enjoyable.

Legion Team Honored At Big Dinner

Legion Branch 52 paid tribute last niht to its OHA senior "B" champions with a big banquet in the Legion Hall, at which 85 guests attended. President J. J. (Tiny) McFadyen of Galt, of the Ontario Hockey Association, was present, as well as Frank Buckland, local OHA member, and their wives.

These were guests at the head table along with Ald. Hurrell Dodds—representing the Mayor—Branch President Harold Yelland, Cy Withers (sports chairman of the branch the past year), Coach Ned Vitarelli, of the Legion hockeyists, and Lou Durkin as master of ceremonies. Their wives accpanied them. Bob Graham, new sports chairman, was also introduced.

El Jones presented a rebroadcast for CHEX of the final game in Sarnia. The ladies' auxiliary of the Legion was thanked for the fine dinner served the large gathering in the hall, the ladies' president, Mrs. Mason, responding.

President Talks

Mr. McFadyen spoke at length on hockey, as he presented the OHA trophy to Cy Withers. He said junior "A" hockey in Ontario was the best league in the world, giving great opportunity to young fellows to make some $60,000 in about 10 years of NHL play. The OHA looks after 25,500 players now, nearly half as many as the entire CAHA, he said, and he explained his association's stand with the NHL on the "C" form, stating that their agreement to observe respective suspensions pre-dated the "C" form.

Mr. Withers received the trophy and stressed team harmony as the reason Legion won out this year. President Yelland then presented the most valuable player trophy to coach Ned Vitarelli, the team later—through Captain Johnny Godfrey—presenting Ned with a going-away gift of a set of golf clubs, Ned and Frank Buckland presented the players' medals, and Isadore Black was thanked for his gift of shirts to all the players.

Ald. Hurrell Dodds said the council was proud of the achievement of Legion in the OHA and a championship dinner for all local winners in the past year was planned. He said that the council had also granted $100 to Legion toward this dinner held last night for its work in advertising the city.

Following the dinner, presentations and speeches, the gathering was entertained in free-and-easy fashion for the next two hours, with amateur singing and some daneing enjoyed by the big gathering.

Knights Take A Close Victory Over Outlaws

K of C edged Outlaws 8-7 in the nightcap, a close and hard-fought duel with little to choose as both teams fought to a tight finish. The winners scored three in the eighth to win out on Evans' single, Blewett's walk and Vic Griffin's long homer.

Hinton twirled steady ball for Knights and was aided by good support. Evans, V. Griffin and Giardino led at bat with two safe bingles, while Blewett's great running catch in centre off Kumpf in the ninth was the fielding feature.

For the losers Kumpf hit a homer while Taylor had three for six, one a double, and McCarthy and Castle each collceted two safe bingles to lead at bat.

Rochester Outfielder Highest League Hitter

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP). — Ed Mierkowicz, veteran outfielder of the Rochester Red Wings, is hammering International League pitching at a .372 gait, top mark in the circuit.

Mierkowicz, once the property of Detroit Tigers, has collected 35 hits in 94 trips to the plate, including games of Wednesday.

Bobby Morgan of the Montreal Royals and Johnny Blatnik of Toronto Maple Leafs are tied for second at .365.

Ed Sanicki, Toronto outfielder, who led the league in runs batted in last year, tops the loop in homers with 11 and runs scored with 36.

Wes Westrum, Jersey City catcher, who has hit 11 homers three of them with the bases loaded, leads in runs batted in with 32.

Five Home Runs Chalked Up By Lou Novikoff

By The Associated Press.

Maybe Lou Novikoff is dissatisfied but if he is, his bat certainly isn't.

The famed mad Russian, spurned by the Pacific Coast League, is wrecking International fences for the Newark Bears.

He made his first appearance of the season a week ago and socked two homers and drove in five runs. He has been going great ever since.

Last night he again drove home five runs including ... winning run in the last of the ninth when he homered to give the Bears a 7-6 triumph over the league-leading Jersey City Giants.

Novikoff, first man up in the ninth against rookie lefthander Roger Bowman, cracked a 3-and-2 pitch into the left-field seats to break up the game.

The Giants ran up a 5-0 lead in the first three innings and led 6-3 at the end of the sixth. The Bears scored once in the seventh and knocked starter Wes Bailey, gunning for his seventh straight victory, out of the box in the eighth when they scored twice to tie the count. Novikoff then climaxed the thrilling game with his four-bagger, the first of the season yielded by Bowman who now has a 5-2 won-and-lost record.

Eleventh of Season.

The Giants whacked four Newark pitchers for 14 hits including homers by Pete Pavilick and Wes Westrum. Westrum's belt was his 11th of the season and it enabled him to tie Toronto's Ed Sanicki for the circuit lead in that department.

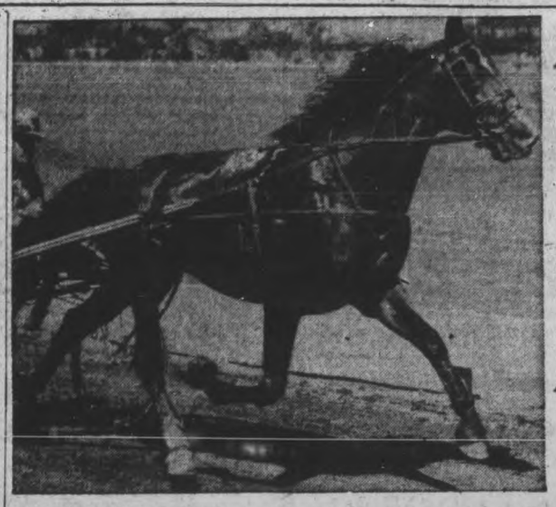
Syracuse celebrated its first home night game of the season by shading Baltimore Orioles 3-2. All of the scoring occurred in the first three innings with the Chiefs wrapping up the game with two in the third on two singles, an error and Ray Lamanno's double.

Harry Perkowski, who won 22 games for Tulsa of the Texas League last year, went the route for Syracuse, spreading 11 hits to win his second game of the season. Workhorse Al Widmar went the distance for Baltimore and was tagged with his third loss in nine decisions.

Scheduled games between Montreal and Toronto, and Buffalo and Rochester, were postponed because of rain.

INJURY AT MEET

One casualty was reported at the Toronto and District Inter-Scholastic Athletic Association meet yesterday. Dick Munshaw from Earl Haig High School broke his leg when he landed awkwardly in the junior pole vault event.



DEL MILLER is driving and training Rapidan at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, N.Y. Rapidan will carry Will N. Reynolds' colors in the $65,000 Hambletonian at Goshen, N.Y., Aug. 3. Tobacco man Reynolds has had horses in the money in eight runnings of the Kentucky Derby of the harness world. Rapidan's dam, Mary Reynolds, won it in 1933.

Detroit Two Games Behind League-Leading Yankees

By JACK HAND.
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Red Rolfe is winning his spurs as a successful big league manager at Detroit.

The former New York Yankees' third baseman, who never managed any baseball team except Yale University until this spring, has his Tigers in second place, two games behind the American League-leading Yankees.

Rolfe set up a pitching "big four" of Hal Newhouser (4-2), Virgil Trucks ((5-1), Ted Gray (3-1), and Freddie Hutchinson (2-2). He confined Dizzy Trout to relief work. Old Diz has been generally effective in 11 bullpen assignments.

Hutchinson, who turned back Washington with seven hits yesterday 10-1, is as handy with the bat as he is on the mound. Hutch drove in three runs with a single, double and triple.

Pick Up Full Game

Detroit picked up a full game on the Yankees who were dropped by Cleveland, 3-2, on a terrific slugging display by Larry Doby. The Indians' Negro outfielder smashed a 450-foot plus homer — said by veteran observers to be the longest ever hit in the Yankee Stadium—as Steve Gromek shaded Bob Porterfield.

Doby later hit a single with the bases loaded in the fifth to break a 1-1 tie.

Gromek gave up eight hits including Yogi Berra's third homer of the season.

A jittery defence cost Boston Red Sox a 10-inning ball game, on an error by first baseman Billy Hitchcock on Vern Stephens' throw. The Red Sox made four errors in the game but Hitchcock's was the big one that gave Chicago a 7-6 margin.

Rookie Grover Bowers who had four hits opened the 10th with a single. He was sacrificed to second and scored on Joe Tipton's grounder to Stephens when Stephens' throw glanced off Hitchcock's glove for an error.

Homers by Dom DiMaggio, Al Zarilla and Birdie Tebbetts were wasted by Boston. It was Mickey Harris' loss and a first victory for Specs Klieman, recently acquired by the White Sox from the Yankees.

Boston Braves and New York Giants, tied for first place in the National League for an entire week, remained deadlocked. The Braves came up with two runs in the ninth to top Pittsburgh 3-2, and the Giants bumped Cincinnati 6-2.

Wins Own Game

Vern Bickford of the Braves won his own game with a ninth-inning single scoring Phil Masi to climax the two-run uprising. Sheldon Jones also picked up his fifth victory for the Giants, although nicked for 13 Cincinnati hits. Johnny Mize's ninth homer and a two-run double by Walker Cooper sent Johnny Vander Meer down for his third loss.

Brooklyn, sizzling through the west with three straight victories moved into a third-place tie with Cincinnati on Preacher Roe's 2-0 shutout of St. Louis. It was the Cards' third loss in a row since returning home and a third setback for Howie Pollet who yielded only six hits to eight off Roe.

Stan Musial pocketed a $500 cheque and accepted the Hillerich Memorial Award for winning the National League batting title last year. Then he broke out of his slump with three hits in four trips.

Philadelphia A's and St. Louis Browns were not scheduled and a National League game between the Phillies and Chicago Cubs was postponed because of threatening weather at Wrigley Field.

UK Soccerites Defeat Montreal

MONTREAL, May 20.—(CP).—Newcastle United opened their North American cross-country exhibition tour with a 4-1 victory over Montreal All Stars before 15,000 soccer fans here Thursday.

Held scoreless during the first half when they seemed lost under the floodlights, the Englishmen rallied strongly in the second half to score all of their goals. It was their first experience playing under lights.

Next engagement on the Newcastle schedule of their Canadian tour takes them to Toronto for a game there May 24.

Confederation Wins

Confederation School seniors climbed two points nearer a playoff spot in the school league by virtue of a 15-4 win over King Edward.

The losers started strong but their hitting failed in the final innings, although they never ceased trying until the final out.

Umpires—Plate, D. Lawless; bases, H. Wilson.

King George Victors

King George seniors of the ... League ... yanked ... bid in the second with 11 runs, getting three more in the fourth, but the winners notched 10 in the first, five in the second, and one more in the fourth. The teams:

Queen Mary—Cullen, Drury, Deck, Watson, Dunn, Stave, Clement, Burgess, Franks.

King George—Withers, Barker, Ash, Crowder, Hutton, Starr, Thompson, Fell, Roote, Barclay, Taylor, Rowe.

Umpires—Messrs. Wilson and Ball.

The Grand Trunk Boating Club will be hosts at the Eastern Division Championship Regatta of the Canadian Canoe Association July 30, it was decided Wednesday at a meeting of the clubs from the division at Montreal. The regatta will be held off suburban Pont Viau.

Hollywood Star New Threat In Golfing Wars

PHILADELPHIA, May 20 — (AP). — A husky young movie actor on a golfing vacation matched strokes with the best in the pitch-and-putt business today as a definite threat to win the $15,000 Philadelphia Inquirer tournament.

Joe Kirkwood, Jr. — in the movies he enacts Joe Palooka — shared the first round lead with Bobby Locke, the South African who now is the hottest thing in professional golf. Each posted a four-under-par 68 yesterday over the 6,670-yard Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course.

In addition to Kirkwood and Locke, 10 others bettered the course's 72 par. Eight had par and 28 in all were within five shots of the leaders.

The 27-year-old six-footer, son of a famous golfing father, has cropped up in several recent tourneys to challenge the stars. He finished seventh at the Masters in Augusta, and did well at Greenbrier, NC, and Wilmington, NC.

Chip Off Old Block

His father, Joe Kirkwood, Sr., has travelled the world giving exhibitions of trick golf shots.

Kirkwood's booming drives yesterday were nudging the 300-yard mark most of the day, and his approaches and putts were deadly accurate. Two putts went into the can from beyond 20 feet, and only the 17th and 18th holes —he parred both—gave him real trouble.

It was the same pair of finishing holes that kept Locke from exclusive possession of the lead.

Leaving the 16th green, the methodical South African was five shots better than par. But an off-line drive held him to par five on the 17th and a pair of shots that stopped in sand traps cost him a one-over five on the final hole.

ORFU ENTRIES

Ten teams are already entered in the intermediate division of the Ontario Rugby-Football Union, it was announced at Toronto. Deadline for new entries is July 15.

Teams have been entered from Hamilton, Toronto, Niagara Falls, Cobourg, Trenton RCAF, Oshawa, Peterborough, Orillia and Oakville. In addition two teams are expected to be entered shortly from Kingston and one from Fenelon Falls, Brantford and Kitchener.

Says Fast Balls To Blame For Low Average

NEW YORK, May 20 (AP). — Larry Doby, Cleveland's fine-looking sophomore outfielder, came into Yankee Stadium Tuesday nursing an anaemic .210 batting average.

The soft-spoken young negro star of the Indians knew what was wrong with him.

"It's those fast balls," he said. "I can't seem to get my bat around fast enough to meet them. Those fast-ball pitchers just fire it past me before I can move a muscle.

"It's a funny thing, though. Last year those fast ball pitchers were my meat. It was the curve-ballers I had trouble with. This year I have been hitting the curve pretty good. No trouble with it at all. But those fast balls—gosh."

For Home Run

So what happens. In his first game against the Yankees, Ed Lopat throws him a fast one. Whop. Into the right field stands it goes for a home run.

Wednesday, Vic Raschi stands the Indians on their heads with his fast ball. The Tribe get only two hits—and Doby gets one of them, a ringing double down the right field line.

Yesterday took the cake, though. In his first time at bat, he connected with one of Bob Porterfield's fast balls and cracked it high and far into the centrefield bleachers for a home run. The drive carried at least 450 feet on the fly, clearing the 20-foot wall in dead centre. Veteran observers thought it was the longest ever hit in the spacious park.

Exempt From Tax

FORT ERIE, Ont., May 20—(CP)—County Judge Harold E. Fuller ruled that insurance men doing business from their own homes are exempt from $100 business tax paid by other insurance companies operating from offices. Glenn O. Sherk and Robert Graham, local life insurance men operating from their own homes, were told they didn't have to pay the tax levied by Fort Erie municipality.

BRANTFORD, Ont., May 20—(CP)—The Nurses' Alumnae Association of the Brantford General Hospital has been awarded a $100 prize by the Registered Nurses' Association of Ontario, for outstanding achievement in their recent recruiting campaign. The hospital nurses put up window posters, gave lectures and spoke before high schools in several towns and cities.

Explains Carrots

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — The Revenue Department said Thursday it was referring to carrots without tops—not with tops—in announcement restriction their import would be lifted on May 23. Import of carrots without tops, banned under emergency import control regulations while carrots were in good supply, will be permitted after that date in the Maritimes and Central Canada.

JOHNNY HOPP SLIDES on his belly attempting to stretch a single into a double at Ebbetts Field, but Right Fielder Carl Furillo has the ball in Pee Wee Reese's glove, and the shortstop simply waits for the Pirates' pinch-hitter to tag himself. The Dodgers plastered the Pittsburgh club, 11-6.

Electrics Get Win Against Petes

CGE defeated the Petes 2-0 Thursday evening, in a return soccer league feature at King Edward Park, before a good attendance. Petes won the first fixture 5-4 which evens the count. Best for the losers were T. Foster, Hennessy and E. Lane; for the winners, G. Gourley, late of Glasgow, Scotland; C. Murduff and R. Strong. J. Buchan handled a good game.

Petes carried out a good offensive in the opening exchanges, with the CGE halfback division concentrating in feeding their forwards to advantage with Strong and Cotton rattling the uprights with terrific drives. Eventually Strong gained a successful corner kick that landed into the far corner of the upright where Goodhue headed into the net. The superb defense of S. Murduff and Titshell held their opponents scoreless although Attar was robbed of a sure goal when T. Foster Jr. dropped back into the goal to clear.

Increased Lead

Petes' attack failed to click, on resuming, with D. Downer at the pivot position. For the next 30 minutes the Petes outplayed the Electrics in every department to confine the play within Chamberlain's goal area. Ten minutes to go, Gourley drew the Petes' full backs wide to permit Strong to dash through the centre to make it read 2-0. Towards the finish Petes endeavored to reduce the count without success.

Petes—J. Hennessy, goal; T. Foster Jr. and G. Foster, fullbacks, K. Downer, D. Downer and N. Lane, half backs; L. Payne, H. Payne, W. Cribbiss, E. Lane and J. Downer, forwards. Subs, G. Downer, N. Downer.

CGE—J. Chamberlain, goal; S. Murduff and J. Titshell, full backs; H. Steel, J. Craig and J. Ward, half backs; R. Strong, E. Cotton, F. Attard, G. Gourley and J. Goodhue, forwards. Subs, J. McCauley, C. Murduff.

Referee—J. Buchan. Linesmen, D. Duncan and H. Foster.

Here and There In Sport

By The Canadian Press

Two horses scheduled to run at the Salisbury Track in England were found temporarily blind and palayzed in the hind quarters Thursday.

E. W. Lane, owner of one of them, said "there seems to be no doubt that my horse and the other in the stable were 'got at.'" The horses are Lane's Nighttime, a four-year-old, and Happy Trio, three.

Trainer Walter Nightingall said the horses were perfectly sound on arrival.

A veterinary surgeon examined Nighttime and Happy Trio and reported they were "suffering from suspected poisoning by some toxic substance and at present both are affected by temporary blindness."

The new International Boxing Club headed by Joe Louis was criticized at Des Moines by Jack Dempsey, former world heavyweight champion.

In an interview, Dempsey expressed disapproval of the new club's action in billing the Ezzard Charles-Jersey Joe Walcott fight in Chicago June 22 as a title bout.

"What right has one or a group of persons, to pick out two men and tell they that they are fighting for the world heavyweight title?" Dempsey asked.

Brampton fans will get a look at revamped Brampton Excelsiors Saturday when they clash with Owen Sound Crescents.

The Excelsiors of the Ontario Lacrosse Association's senior circuit will have Archie Browning, star of last year's New Westminster Adanacs, and fleet Gordon Cruickshanks from Weston, Ont.

Last year's punch line of Nick Ferri, Harry Graham and Carl and Harvey Midagett is expected to be more potent than last season, while the team's defensive strength has been bolstered by Al McNair and Jack Bryans with Sammy Arthurs playing goal.

At Montreal, Roy Ashworth, president of the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, announced that the Canadian amateur championships will be held in Vancouver on or about Aug. 14. The swimming team to represent Canada at the British Empire Games in New Zealand next year will be picked from the forthcoming meet at Vancouver.

Baseball's hall of fame at Cooperstown is going to be enlarged to almost twice its present size. Officials of the sports shrine announced work would begin immediately on an addition to the present three-storey structure. The addition, also three storeys, is expected to be completed within a few months.

The new structure will contain a baseball library and offices as well as exhibition halls, one of which will house the Babe Ruth collection. The collection, made up of uniforms, gloves, bats and other mementos of the late Babe, was willed to the Museum.

Indians Make Movie Debut

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 20 (AP)—Cleveland Indians will start emoting before the cameras May 27.

The baseball club is scheduled to begin location scenes for "The Cleveland Story" on that date. The shots will be taken on the home grounds with the entire team taking part. Bill Veeck Lou Boudreau, Tris Speaker and Hank Greenberg are slated for important roles.

Republic and producers Herbert Kline are still looking for two boys of 14 and 17 to appear in the Juvenile Delinquency Story. George Brent is set for a role as a radio announcer.

More Ball

Speaking of baseball brings us to Loraine Day. She is a different gal since being married to New York Giants pilot Leo Durocher. She had a kneeling scene in "I Married a Communist."

When she finally finished it and straightened up, she remarked, "now I know how Walker Cooper feels." (For non-baseball fans, he's a giant catcher.)

Trace Uranium Hoard

FRANKFURT, Germany, May 20 (AP)—Two new arrests spurred United States army Thursday in its search for a uranium hoard which may have been used by the Nazis in their wartime quest for the atomic bomb. Two Germans were arrested allegedly trying to sell four grams of uranium They were charged with possessing war materials—which are forbidden to Germans.

Cattle Receipts Show Drop On Toronto Market

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — Cattle prices on the Toronto Livestock Market this week were steady to strong on killers and weaker on stockers, the Dominion Marketing Service reported to-day. Calves gained $1 on top. Hogs, sheep and lambs were unchanged.

Cattle receipts of 6,260 head were 174 fewer than last week and about the same in volume as for a year ago.

Tops on weighty steers were mostly $22.35 with a few at $22.50. Good to choice steers were mostly $21-$22. Medium to good light steers sold $20-$21.50. Medium to good heifers brought $19.50-$21. Good cows sold at $17-$18 with plain down to $14.50. Canners and cutters were mostly $11-$14. Good bulls brought $18-$18.75. Fed yearlings sold from $19-$22.50 a hundredweight.

Stockers moved slowly at easier prices. Picked lots were $19-$19.50, with others from $18.00 downwards to $15. Plain to medium quality milkers and springers were $150 to $200 each.

Calf Receipts

Calf receipts totalled 1,839. Good to choice vealers sold at $23-$26. Plain to medium kinds were $13-$22 and a few grassers sold for slaughter at $12-$14 a hundredweight.

Hog receipts totalled 7,095 head. The market was generally at $30 for Grade A and $29.60 for Grade B1. Sows were $21 dressed.

Sheep and lambs totalled only 273 head. A few medium to good spring lamb ssold at $30-$35 a hundredweight. Good light sheep were $11-$13, with heavies at $9-$10 a hundredweight.

The market will be closed on Tuesday, May 24.

May Change Engines

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — RCAF headquarters today said in a statement that it was considering the installation of four American Pratt and Whitney engines in a North Star aircraft now being constructed for special service use. However, there has been no final decision and no order has as yet been placed for a power plant for the North Star, scheduled to be completed by Canadair Limited, in Montreal and delivered to the RCAF late this year.

The Peterborough Examiner

VOL. XCVIII, No. 118 — FRIDAY, MAY 20, 1949

Policemen Make Movie Moves In 2-Hour Chase

A dramatic two-hour chase through the streets of Peterborough was staged by City Police Thursday. The entire mobile section of the Police Force including two cruisers, two motorcycles and one push bicycle, head by Chief Constable John Thompson driving his own car dashed in and out of side streets in the south end of the city in pursuit of Charles Bloxam, 24, of 126 Park St. S.

On the police "wanted" list all this week, Bloxam escaped the custody of Sergeant Detective John Stevenson and Detective William Clark early in the afternoon. After his escape every available constable on the City Force joined the chase. Bloxam dodged round buildings, through streets and alleys and the entire area was buzzing with excitement.

She Hid Her $200

Women ran from their houses to take a look at the movie-like action and one elderly woman hid the $200 which she had stored in her home.

After two hours the police returned to headquarters, Bloxam having given them the slip. They had not given up the search but decided it was useless to continue with the chase.

Later, in the evening, Constable Douglas Farthing, who was posted near Bloxam's home in the hope that he would return, saw the hunted man enter the house through a window. After watching him climb a ladder to the roof and disappear through a window, the constable made the arrest and Bloxam is now in police custody.

Theft Charge

Bloxam was wanted by the police for questioning about theft of $51 from the till of McCarthy and Johnston, coal dealers of Hunter St. E., reported in the Examiner Tuesday.

In city police court today Bloxam was remanded until Saturday on a charge of escaping from police custody. He is already on suspended sentence for taking a refreshment truck without the consent of the owner.

Reckless Drivers Worry Parents

The tot-lot in the McKellar housing area has to be barricaded against reckless traffic for the safety of the children of the neighborhood who play there, Ald. Herb Young told the council this week.

"I had several phone calls from mothers of those children and I went down to see what was going on. The lot is between McKellar and Hamilton Sts. A delivery car cut across this play lot and just missed three children. Other traffic followed in the tire marks of the truck. You would hardly believe that the tire tracks are only five or ten feet from the children's swings."

Ald. Young wanted some obstruction set up for the safety of the youngsters, and was promised immediate action.

Outsiders Seek Jobs In City

"We've had men from the Atlantic to the Pacific in the last few weeks applying for work," W. H. L. Mellis of national employment services told the Examiner today.

"One of them this week was from Sydney, N.S. I asked him why he had come all the way up here. His answer was that things were not too brisk in Sydney, and several people advised him to strike out for Peterborough. They almost guaranteed him a job."

"We have sent a lot of men and girls to jobs since the spring opened, but others keep coming from out of town. One of them this week was from Vancouver, B.C. We can't succeed in making a good showing for Peterborough because of those who land in here on the strength of rumors that industry is especially active."

Mr. Mellis said the present unemployed list was 449 men and 258 women. The number of applicants added to the list this week was 110.

"If you listened to them the way I do, you would conclude that Peterborough has a far wider reputation as an industrial city than most of its people know."

Knifed In Stomach

WHITBY, May 20 (CP)—Lawrence Green, 30, was charged today with causing grievous bodily harm as a result of a street fight Thursday night in which his brother Jack, 24, suffered a knife wound in the stomach. The wound is not believed to be severe.

ELECT OFFICERS

Jack Richardson was elected president of the Y's Men's Club Thursday night succeeding William Moorhead. Other officers are vice-president, Joseph Barnard; second vice-president, Woodrow Roberts; secretary, Cecil Osborne; treasurer, Wallace Davidson. Ray Brown conducted the induction of officers.

Baptist Church To Ordain Local Student

Kenneth Gillespie, B.A., B.D., 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gillespie, 110 Lock St., received his Divinity degree at McMaster University, Hamilton on Thursday. His ordination into the Baptist ministry will take place on Monday afternoon at Murray St. Baptist Church.

He will be examined by a board of the Peterborough Association of Baptist Churches consisting of the minister and two laymen from each church. He will be required to answer three statements, his Christian experience, his call to the ministry and his Christian doctrine.

His former minister, the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe, now of the First Baptist Church, Auburn, N. Y., will preach the ordination sermon on Monday night and also on Sunday morning at his old church, Murray Street Baptist. Mr. Gillespie will preach at the Sunday evening service.

A home-town boy, Mr. Gillespie received his education in city schools and has spent the last six years at McMaster University. He was a very active member of the BYPU while he attended Murray Street Baptist Church and in May 1948 was elected president of its interprovincial cabinet at Brantford at a convention attended by more than 900 delegates from 20 countries. He still holds this position. He was also a former basketball star at PCVS.

Mr. Gillespie has been appointed Associate Minister of the First Baptist Church, Montreal, and will fill this postion after his ordination on Monday.

KENNETH GILLESPIE, B.A., B.D., will be ordained into the Baptist Ministry at Murray Street Baptist Church on Monday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gillespie, 110 Lock St.

MAIN ST. TOPICS

National Employment Service and unemployment insurance are moving Saturday morning from the Barrie Building to the Cherney Building at George and King Streets.

APPEAL DISMISSED

Edward A. Finnen Thursday in Toronto lost his appeal against a 10-year prison term imposed at Cobourg for breaking and entering and theft. He was sentenced last July 19.

TAKES NEW STORE

Gordon Shier, manager of the Metropolitan Store, will leave Peterborough at the end of this month to manage a new store in Orillia. Ralph Salmon, manager at the Aylmer branch, will succeed Mr. Shier.

TAKING OUT CELLARS.

Excavation for two houses was under way today on Monaghan Road, one at the northwest corner of Lundy's Lane and the other down the street a short distance, north of the CPR and on the east side of the street.

ATTEND UNION CONVENTION

Three Peterborough officials of the UPWA will attend the sixth annual convention of the UPWA in Estes Park, Colorado, on May 31 to June 2. They are John Beggs, president of Local 293; William Gunn, also of Local 293; and Alfred Barber, president of Local 295.

STEAL CLOTHES

Mrs. Samuel Longo, 555 Albert St., has made a resolution to hang her washing out in the daytime for on Thursday night she hung her washing out to dry. But someone else relieved the clothesline of its burden. Mrs. Longo was painting in the back porch until about 11 p.m. and the clothes were still on the clothesline when she retired for the night.

Work Starts On Ice Plant

"We got started yesterday on the artificial ice job for the Park St. Arena," Ald. H. Dodds mentioned today with accents of satisfaction.

"As reported a few days ago, part of the contract was let to Eastwood Construction Co., and I understand Curtis Bros. began Thursday with their big shovel taking out earth in the first step toward the terraza floor. The earth is being dumped along the sides, and will be banked there, cutting out the drafts the public had to endure last winter. We left open the joining of the walls to the cement footing last winter to get all the cold the weather had to offer. Now we'll make our own freezing, and begin thinking of a bit of comfort."

Ald. Dodds is convinced that the Arena will show a profit from year to year, and some of that money could be used for insultation purposes.

At any rate, the beginning of artificial ice period in Peterborough, apart from the curling rink, may be written down as Thursday May 19, 1949, an item for the record.

Christian Scientists Seek New Church Site

The members of the Christian Science congregation in Peterborough are considering the erection of a church at the northeast corner of Charlotte St. and Monaghan Road.

A letter from the realty firm of Braund and O'Toole to the council this week asked for information as to the official attitude toward building a church on that site. It is understood that the Christian Science membership desires to know whether the city would issue them a permit to build. If they had assurance that there would be no objection to their project, they would proceed to acquire the property.

The council sent the letter on to town planning committee.

Obituary

WILLIAM BENNETT SANDERS

HAVELOCK, May 19—(ENS)—William Bennett Sanders, 85, died at his home on Wednesday after an illness of nine days.

Mr. Sanders was one of the pioneer residents of Belmont Lake district, settling there with his parents, the late Benjamin Franklin Sanders and Joann Saltern at the age of 14. They came from Madoc Township, where Mr. Sanders was born. He followed farming as an occupation and resided on the Sanders homestead until he moved to the village about five years ago. His wife, the former Mary D. Henderson, died in August, 1945.

Mr. Sanders was a member of Victoria Free Methodist Church.

Surviving are three daughters, Miss Leta Sanders, a nurse at Toronto Isolation Hospital; Mrs. Grant Dafoe, Belmont Township; Miss Edith Sanders, Havelock; five sons, Arnold of Odessa; Omer, Sault Ste. Marie; Carman, Marmora; Thomas, Peterborough and Ted of Havelock; one sister, Mrs. Phoebe Weymark, Havelock; two brothers, Albert of Wellington and George B. of Havelock. There are also 19 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

The funeral service was today in Victoria United Church conducted by the Rev. G. McLeod of Cordova Mines and the Rev. W. J. Hicks of Campbellford. Burial was in Victoria Cemetery.

MAGAZINE OUT

"The Echoes", the yearly publication of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School, was distributed to the students of the school Thursday. After four o'clock Thursday and before 9 a.m. Friday the students milled around the halls getting autographs.

47 Students Quit Early For Farm Work

Forty-seven students of the Peterborough Collegiate and Vocational School hit the hay this afternoon. Their schooling for this year is ended, the farm service beginning. The students have leave to go out on farm service according to the regulations laid down by the Department of Education and the Board of Education in Peterborough.

Sixteen of the pupils leaving are girls, 31 are boys. Thirty-one are from the Academic department, as follows: two Grade XII, four Grade XI, eight Grade X, and 17 are from Grade IX. In the Technical Department there are 11 boys from Grade X, four from Grade XI and one from Grade XII.

A month ago applications for farm service were sent through the school for students wishing to apply. If the students could meet the reuirements, they were notified personally by C. S. Browne, Principal of PCVS last Friday. Another form will be sent to each student for the employer to fill out at the end of the farm service.

A pupil must have a 65 per cent average on his mid-term and examinations and have no failures. A favorable report must come from the teachers on the student's work. He must stay on the job for a minimum of 13 weeks.

Few For Niagara

Mr. Browne reports that only two students have made application for service in the farm camps in the Niagara Peninsula. He explained that the students of the school do not like to sign up for two months, preferring only one month. If there is no work at the camps the students are sent home. He added if the students were sure they were going to be called before the June examinations more would go. But students for this service have to stay at school until their service is asked for.

Passengers Escape Level Crossing Crash

BETHANY, May 20 — (ENS). —A car and the CPR train due at Peterborough at 9 p.m. from Toronto crashed Thursday near the Manvers Crossing, 25 miles west of Peterborough. The front of the car was smashed, but neither Wesley Clapper of Manvers Township, who was driving, nor his passengers, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and baby, also of Manvers, were hurt.

The accident happened at about one-quarter of a mile west of Manvers Station, and good view is reported on either sides approaching the crossing.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Clapper and he was taking them to their home when the accident happened. The train was delayed half an hour.

MINOR COLLISION

A half ton pick-up truck and a car collided today shortly after midnight at the entrance to Kawartha Motors on Highway No. 28. Damage to the vehicles was estimated at approximately $130 but both drivers escaped injury. Charles Fredericks, Norwood, who was driving the car, had turned into the garage as the rear of his car and the front of the truck driven by Henry Brown, 338 Aylmer St. collided.

Family Allowance Plan Suggested As Aid To Married Men Teachers

A family allowance plan which would be of particular benefit to married men teachers was advocated on Thursday by P. M. Muir, Business Administrator of the East York Board of Education. He was addressing the 18th annual convention of the Associated High School Boards of the Province of Ontario meeting in Peterborough Thursday and Friday.

"Unless something is done to benefit the lot of married men in the near future the educational system is going to suffer," he said. "We are going to get a lower quality of men teachers."

Added Responsibilities

He stressed that he was not desirous of seeing teachers' salaries cut but he felt that a married man with a family should get that much more because of his responsibilities.

Mr. Muir informed more than 75 delegates from various Ontario localities that he did not agree with the principle of equal pay for equal work.

"I think wages should bear some relation to needs and responsibilities in the community," he said.

That principle was only workable in industries where production could be acurately measured and wages or salaries allocated on a "unit pay" system. In a school it is a case of producing intangibles and equal pay for equal work does not apply, he stated.

In industries where remuneration is based on the "equal pay" method, the man, largely because of physical ability, has the opportunity of increasing his earnings by greater production or working overtime. Again this does not apply to the family man teaching school, he pointed out.

"If he works from dawn to dusk he won't get a dime more."

Both men and women make their specific contributions to a school staff, and it is desirable for the education of a child that he have a male instructor, he said. For this reason delegates should ensure that an adequate and competent supply of male teachers is always forthcoming.

$50 Week Good Pay

"Ladies in the ordinary business world do not make the money they do in school teaching. For them $50 a week is very good pay. But men can make better money elsewhere and over a long period of time will gravitate to business," said Mr. Muir.

The result would be a lower quality man teacher. There would be good women teachers and lots of them, he said, but the inferior grade of men would adversely affect the education of the children.

He named a well-known bank that recognized the extra monetary needs of the family man and paid twice as large a cost-of-living bonus to him as it did to the single girl. The same principle prevailed in the armed services during the recent war, and he claimed there were no grumbles among the single men who recognized the need as self evident.

Mr. Muir proposed a basic salary for men and women teachers —married or single. Other grants would be made according to need. Salary adjustments would be made for marriage, the first two children, and for soecial dependents.

"I'm not forgetting that some of the girls have dependent parents and I think they should be reimbursed," he said.

How a check would be made on the legitimate claims for aged dependents he recognized as a major problem, and he suggested that the teacher be required to file an affidavit with the board testifying that the aged person came within the regulations.

Many of the single woman members of the staff are able to take long trips across the continent or even to Europe, he stated while the married men in some instances are forced to take temporary jobs and forego necessary summer school courses.

"They are not getting a break," he said.

On the subjects of dependents Mr. Muir said that often the married male teacher had to worry not only about his own parents relying on him for financial support but also his wife's. He was challenged on this ground by Miss T. Davidson, also of East York who cited a legal precedent contending that the husband was liable for the support of his own parents but not for the support of either mother-in-law or father-in-law.

Claimed a Poor Cause

A. J. Brown of Toronto claimed that Mr. Muir was making "a good plea for a very poor cause" and asked if boards were expected to pay for ability or responsibility.

"A girl puts in a lot of training as well as a man, and she wants a suitable wage in return," said Mrs. May Robinson of Toronto.

The Rev. A. Billingsley of Chatham said: "There is a good deal to be said for paying a married man a little more in these days of high cost of living. We certainly need more male teachers on our staff."

He contended that he did not follow some of the criticisms of the speaker. Boards at the moment do not pay from the standpoint of merit and ability but according to the salary schedule.

"We don't pay according to merit," agreed President H. E. Dickinson of St. Mary's, "and I am one who feels that we should forward a move to establish that possibility . . . A teacher's merit should be the guiding factor.

The discussion ended with no action taken.

Certificate Given William Duignan

A parents' banquet was held by the members of the St. Peter's High School Key Club Wednesday night at the YMCA. Walter Howell presented William Duignan, president of the club for the past two years, with certificate of merit from the Key Clubs in the Ontario, Quebec and Maritime zone. Mr. Duignan also received a gold chain with the Key Club insignia from the members of the St. Peter's Club.

Has City Right To String Barbed Wire?

Has the city council authority in the use of barbed wire as fence material? Ald. Doug. Miller asked that question this week, relaying it from some citizen whose child had been cut on barbs.

"I don't think it should be strung in a fence bordering another person's property," Ald. Miller said.

City Solicitor Huycke said he hesitated in deciding off hand how far the city could go in regard to the right of a property owner to use barbed wire in a fence. He promised to have an answer to the Miller question for the next council meeting.

Herbert Moran Wins Promotion

OTTAWA, May 20 —(CP)— Leon Mayrand, 44, of Montreal and Herbert Owen Moran, 41, of Peterborough, have been elevated to the ranks of Assistant Under-Secretaries of External Affair, the department announced Thursday.

Mr. Mayrand formerly was head of the American and Far Eastern division of the department. Mr. Moran was special assistant to the Under Secretary, A. D. P. Heeney.

The appointments will mean a reshuffling of jobs in the department, the creation of administration powers for the new assistant Under-Secretary and the appointment of two new division chiefs.

Mr. Moran for a time practised law in Toronto. A graduate of both the University of Toronto and Osgoode Hall, he was called to the Ontario Bar in 1935. During the Second World War he served overseas and became officer in charge of Canadian Army Headquarters, British Army of the Rhine.

He retired with the rank of Colonel, became head of the economic division of the External Affairs Department and was appointed special assistant to the acting Under-Secretary in October, 1948.

Name Teachers To Fill Three Vacancies

NORWOOD, May 20 (ENS)—Vacant posts of teachers at S.S. No. 6, S.S. No. 7 and S.S. No. 1 in the Asphodel Township School Area were filled at a meeting of the Trustee Board. Mrs. Rita Dupuis of Asphodel was appointed to S.S. No. 6, Miss Poppy Brown, of Toronto to S.S. No. 7, and Miss Shirley Adams of Ottawa to S.S. No. 1. Five applications had been received altogether for the vacancies.

At a previous meeting of the board Miss Isobel Bowins and Miss Marion Archibald had been appointed teachers of S.S. No. 1 and S.S. No. 7, respectively, but since that time letters were received from both of them informing the board that they had accepted other schools before receiving the trustees' letters of acceptance of their applications.

On motion of Gordon Warner and Wilfred Buck, it was decided to purchase a new lock for the door of S.S. No. 6 school.

Set Meeting Date

It was decided, on motion of Mr. Warner and Irwin Russell, that the regular monthly meetings of the board will be held on the first Tuesday of each month.

The following accounts were approved: Globe & Mail, teacher wanted ad 3.90; Book Society of Canada, 1 wall atlas S.S. No. 6 14.67; Fleti's Hardware, furnace repairs and supplies S.S. No. 6 13.82; Mrs. L. Kennedy, cleaning S.S. No. 6 after electric wiring 8.00; Lorne Hutchinson, 1 trip Peterborough 4.00.

Abduct Taxi Driver Thugs Robbed Of $20

TORONTO, May 20 —(CP) — Abducted in his taxi cab by three men Thursday, Harry Thompson of the Diamond Cab Company was driven to a field in nearby Weston, robbed of more than $30 and threatened with violence.

Thompson told police the three men jumped him in the cab and went on a two-hour trip through suburbs before stopping the car. He was forced to lie on the rear floor with his head covered with a coat and the robber's foot on his face.

He was warned that if he reported to police they would come back and give him a "real beating."

The cab was found abandoned in another vacant field.

Arrested Seamen Freed By Judge

VANCOUVER, May 20—(CP)—Supreme Court Justice A. M. Manson Thursday freed 12 members of the striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) who failed to obey promptly an injunction ordering them off the strikebound freighter Seaboard Star.

The men were charged with contempt of court. The injunction granted the vessel's owners May 10 ordered the men ashore and also banned picketing of the docks' approaches.

Mr. Justice Manson said he did not believe the men were aware of facing contempt of court charges when they failed to vacate the ship within 24 hours. Six other CSU men named in the injunction were freed when the court learned they had obeyed the order.

Escapee Gives Up

PICTON, Ont., May 20—(CP)—Leslie Pringle is back in county jail today after his girl friend persuaded him to give himself up. He escaped Wednesday night and made his way to nearby Mount Pleasant where the friend lives. He was awaiting transfer to the Guelph reformatory to serve a one-year sentence for perjury.

Suffers Hand Burns

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., May 20—(CP)—Frank Hunt, 20, suffered shock and hand burns late Wednesday when a measuring tape he was holding touched a 4,000-volt power line. A strong wind blew the tape against the high voltage wire.

THIS, IN CASE YOU DON'T RECOGNIZE IT, is a cell in the county jail, Cleveland, O. Its occupant is George Stewart, 39, doing a year as an habitual offender on disorderly conduct charges. The sheriff allowed Steawrt, an artist, to decorate his cell as he pleased. So Stewart obtained materials from friends, draped the bars and bed, constructed knick-knack shelves, plastered the walls with photos—and this is the result. In the picture, deputy Joe Uccello grins as he examines a cardboard telephone which Stewart made.

Washington Won't Part With 16 Equestrian Statues

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, May 20 (CP) — Sixteen equestrian statues — bronze men on bronze horses—are a time-honored part of the Washington scene. But the honor shown these motionless riders is an odd mixture fo curious respect and casual indifference.

Day in, day out, camera-wielding tourists "shot" the 16 heroes and read the hard, cold inscriptions of their deeds. And every sunny day at noon, office workers dash for the statue of general so-and-so and curl up with a sandwich and a magazine.

But Washingtonians, proudly stepped in history, bristle at any suggestion that 16 equestrian statues are too many. Donald M. Nelson, when chairman of the war production board early in the Second World War, can testify to that.

Not For Scrap

Plagued by a shortage of scrap metal, Nelson suggested some of the bronze horsemen might be melted down in the name of national security. There was a roar of disapproval. In a barrage of letters to newspapers, citizens branded Nelson an unsentimental, brutal destroyer of landmarks. They'd have him know, they would, that those 16 statues contributed greatly to the "flavor" of the capital.

Nelson called a press conference a few days later. His advisers had told him the metal in the statues wasn't the kind needed for war production, he said. He found the needed scrap elsewhere; the equestrians stayed put.

Nine of the 16 are American Civil War leaders; two are generals who fought under George Washington in the Revolutionary War; one is Washington himself.

Oldest of the 16 equestrian statues—and the oldest in the United States—is of Gen. Andrew Jackson, seventh President of the Union. Jackson, his hat raised in salute, as he gazed across at the White House from Lafayette Park since 1853.

Careless Driver Fined

Claiming that glaring head lamps from an oncoming car were responsible for his driving onto the soft shoulder on Highway 28 at the bend of the road west of the city, David E. Baxter was Thursday fined $15 with $5 for careless driving.

In city police court Constable Harold Mesley said he found the car turned over on its side and skid marks showed the car had travelled 70 feet along the shoulder, continued a distance on the travelled portion of the road and then gone onto the shoulder again where is overturned.

Triplet Tulips Born

OTTAWA, May 20 — (CP) — Maybe it's the weather, or maybe it's just nature acting contrary. At any rate the tulip birth-rate is soaring in the gardens of suburban Woodroffe. Twin flowers, and even triplets are blossoming among the usual single blooms. M. B. Davis of the experimental farm commented that triplet tulips are seen only "very occasionally."

TURNING THE PAGES OF "CANADA UNLIMITED"

In early Canada, the flickering fire from the hearth gave the habitant his only light.

Lamps burning animal and fish oil gradually came into use during the 17th century. In 1759, by order of the Governor, citizens had to carry lamps when they went out at night.

Gas was hailed as a great advancement when it was first used for lighting in 1841 in Toronto. 36 years later, Montreal harbour-front saw the first electric lights—and a new era was born. Today, even in remote country places, homes and buildings are efficiently illuminated by electricity.

Now the uses of light are many, from decoration to display, and each new use opens up many more. In the application of lighting to our life there is a shining future, with great opportunity for Canadians. Yes—there's room to grow in Canada Unlimited.

Summer Bags Are Compact

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Leather handbags can match weight-lifting with summer carry-alls of straw and fabric.

The woman who elects leather for her standby bag can pick one of patent as flat as an envelope, one of calf which has also been freed of burdensome metal and wood.

Soft, lightweight calf makes compact bags which designer Richard Koret has given taut, firm contours without the aid of wooden underpinnings. A big help in carrying the load which a woman will add to this bag is a double basket-handle.

As flat and almost as weightless as an envelope are the patent leather bags styled for easy carrying and sized to go inside a pocket. Such bags, which will take without a bulge all of the effects a woman needs in transit, are called "plus-bags" because of the extra outside pocket, equipped for carrying sun-glasses,

So scarce is sole leather in Soviet Russia that many indoor workers perform their duties either barefoot or in bedroom slippers.

Final meeting, this season of Grace United Church WA was held Thursday evening with Mrs. A. Cameron presiding. Scripture was read by Mrs. A. Keene and Mrs. M. Safranski led in prayer. Main business was on decision to unite with the Sunday School for the annual picnic. The date will be set later. Mrs. G. Todd entertained with a pleasing solo. Guest speaker was Mrs. E Wand, Presbyterial WA president, who gave instructions on carrying out the WA work. After thanks had been expressed to her by Mrs. E. McKinstry, lunch was served by the social committee, Mrs. E. Hodgson, Mrs. W. Harrison and Mrs. A. Keene.

Plan Tea May 27

Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Church met in the church parlors this week with 23 present. Mrs. F. W. K. Harris, Plans were made for a spring tea president, opened with prayer. on Friday, May 27. Miss F. Dixon's group was in charge of the worship service. Scripture was read by Mrs. W. King and Mrs. E. F. Reid led in prayer. Mrs. C. M. Scott read a touching account of displaced persons arriving here from Europe, and asked members to be more friendly with them. Mrs. A. Radford contributed two lovely solos, and was her own accompanist. Mrs. H. Tremaine reported on the Presbyterial meeting held recently at Smiths Falls, disclosing that Bay of Quinte Branch raised $9,100 last year. Refreshments were served by the group in charge.

McCarrell-Burnham

The marriage took place quietly on Thursday of Daisy Dorothy Burnham, daughter of Mrs. Inch and the late A. F. Inch to Mr. Ivan Donald McCarrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. McCarrell, all of Peterborough. The Rev. Dr. James Semple of George Street United Church officiated.

The bride wore a blue gabardine suit and hat to match, navy accessories, and corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

Miss Bertha Inch, of Toronto, attended her sister wearing a suit in dusky rose shade, navy accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. The groomsman was Mr. Rodger T. Nichols of Peterborough.

Joint WA Meeting Held At All Saints' Church

Annual joint meeting of the Afternoon and Evening Branches of All Saints' Church Women's Auxiliary of the Church of England in Canada was held Tuesday evening. Miss M. Riel, president of the Evening Branch was in the chair and welcomed the members Mentioning that all women of the church should be WA members, she hoped each member would go from the meeting with new power and greater zeal to enlist more members for the missionary society. Miss Riel led in prayer, and Mrs. A. Dowdell read the lesson.

Mrs. A. Beardsmore of the Afternoon Branch gave two interesting and most informative reports covering thoroughly the 63rd annual meeting of the Toronto Diocesan Board held in St. Anne's Parish House, April 30 to May 5. Quiet Hour at the meeting was conducted by Canon J. D. Paterson, a former rector of All Saints' Church. Mrs. Roy Price reported on the meeting on social service work of the WA which was held in the Church of the Messiah, Toronto. Miss Agnes Moore favored the gathering with two solos, "My Task" and "An Evening Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. Percy Hooper.

A vote of thanks to delegates for their splendid reports was moved by Mrs. H. Allen and Miss Margaret Grey. A social hour followed, with Miss Laura Powell and her committee serving lunch.

Mrs. C. Thackeray, president of the Afternoon Branch, thanked the hostesses for an enjoyable evening.

LCW Members Donate $45 To Child's Support

Mrs. Gordon K. Fraser, first vice president, presided in the absence of Mrs. W. Addyman at the regular meeting of Local Council of Women Thursday afternoon in the YWCA green room.

Names of members who had donated money to a total of $45 toward maintaining an European child in hospital for rehabilitation for three months were read by Mrs. F. Lundy, convener of the committee in charge. The money is being sent through the Unitarian Service which is looking after work of building up impoverished children in war-torn countries.

Mrs. E. Wand was appointed official delegate to the semi-annual Provincial Council meeting at Chatham on June 10 and 11. Mrs. A. Leach will also attend, and other members of the executive if possible.

Introduction of representatives from the newly affiliated society Ladies' Auxiliary of the Kawartha Police Association, Mrs. P. Morris, Mrs. J. Morrow and Mrs. H. Mesley, was made by corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. W. McClennan.

An organizer of the Peterborough Summer Theatre addressed the meeting, asking for support of members to disseminate information regarding the project as broadly as possible. If successful in their first year, the management plans to open the theatre annually, bringing as many prominent stars as proceeds permit. Benefit to the city and district should be considerable and Local Council plans to sponsor the movement.

Wallace-Leahy

The wedding was solemnized in the sanctuary of Holy Rosary Church, Toronto, by the Rev. C. F. Lyons of Genevieve Marion Leahy, formerly of Peterborough, and William A. Wallace of Toronto.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Charles A. Clarkson, the bride was attired in a suit of navy barathea cloth, dusty pink flowered hat, veiled with blue tulle, and wore a corsage of pink roses and forget-me-nots. Bridesmaid was her sister Miss Elizabeth Leahy of Peterborough, wearing dusk gabardine suit with pale blue flowered hat, caught with matching veil, and corsage of pink roses and lily of the valley.

The groom was attended by Mr. Harold McCue of Toronto. Harry Leahy of Peterborough, nephew of the bride, was usher.

Reception and luncheon following was at the Granite Club. The couple left later on a wedding trip to Detroit.

English Couple Marry Here

The marriage took place in All Saints' Anglican Church Saturday of Molly Noble Teaby, of London, England, daughter of Mrs. F. Teaby and the late Mr. Teaby, and William Goodfellow Wright, son of Mrs. M. E. Wright and the late Mr. Wright, Birmingham, England. The Rev. W. E. Kibblewhite officiated.

The church was decorated with multi-colored tulips and the wedding music was played by Mrs. A. Logan. During the signing of the register Handel's Largo was played on the organ.

The bride wore a ballerina-length frock of white organdy with sleeves. Her veil was of tulle, topped with a headdress of white sweet peas and American beauty roses. She carried a Colonial bouquet of matching roses and sweet peas. She was given in marriage by Mr. S. Jennings.

Bridal attendant was Miss Mary Wilson who was in a ballerina dress of apple green corded taffeta and wore elbow-length gloves to match and shoes of a darker shade with matching veil on a bonnet of cream straw trimmed with roses. She carried a shower boquet of cream roses.

Groomsman was Mr. Frank Booth and ushers were Ian Morrison and James Orr.

A reception was held at 109 Hunter St. E. where Mrs. S. Jennings received, dressed in brown and white polka dot crepe and cream hat trimmed with brown. She wore a spray of cream roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will reside at 694 Water St.

MISS MARGARET ELIZABETH ABBOTT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Abbott of Peterborough, and Mr. John Coatsworth Stodgell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon John Stodgell of Walkerville, whose engagement has been announced. The wedding will take place on June 4 in St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

Kawartha Women Golfers Hold Field Day Opening

Ladies of the Kawartha Golf Club opened their 1949 season Thursday with luncheon at 12.30 in the club house. Mrs. Adam Sands, president, held a short business meeting afterward before going out for the field day competitions.

Mrs. E. Riley, captain, and Mrs. D. Anderson, vice captain, were in the charge of the golfing. A number of tied scores were turned in and draws decided the winners of these competitions.

Low gross winner was Mrs. L. Browne Mrs. H. R. Scott and Mrs. F. Dunfield tied for low net and Mrs. Dunfield won the draw.

Mrs. J. Raine was draw winner on sealed holes from Mrs. V. Selkirk, Mrs. J. Watts Mrs. H. Woodcox and Mrs. D. Miller. Mrs. C. G. Holmes and Mrs. E. Riley tied on putting and Mrs Riley won the draw.

Nine-hole players tied for low gross were Mrs. A. Jones and Mrs. D. Lamont, the latter winning the draw. Mrs. Leo Copp won the sealed holes prize on draw with Mrs. J. Condon. Putting was won by Mrs. Wm. Nash.

A special prize donated by Lex Robson, club pro, was won by Mrs. J. Watts.

Mrs. C. G. Solmes arranged the afternoon tea that was served to players and guests. The tea table with lace cloth was centred with a large silver bowl filled with purple and white lilacs and bright colored tulips and flanking silver candelabra held ivory tapers.

Tea cups were filled by Mrs. Ian McRae and Mrs. Frank Buckland. Servers were Mrs. J. Watts, Mrs. L. Browne and Mrs. C. B. Neal.

Greetings were received from the Peterborough Golf Club, through the president, Mrs. R. H. Turner.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Beware of Philanderer He's Seldom Ever in Love

DEAR MISS DIX—I have been married for ten years and have two children. I love my husband and he has many fine qualities. He is a good father, generous, attentive, amiable and pleasant at home, but his great weakness is women and his infidelities make me miserable. He says I am his only real love, but it is hard for me to believe him.

Do you think I should divorce my unfaithful husband, or should I try to stick it out?

TROUBLED WIFE

ANSWER—The man who forsakes his wife for one woman is hopeless because he prefers this other woman to his wife, but the husband who is lured by every pretty face is really in love with none. Mr. Howell said, "imperfectly monogamous after centuries and civilization."

Dorothy Dix of Christianity

So it seems to me that the wife who has such a husband may well shut her eyes to his philandering if he is a good husband in other respects.

In deciding whether you should divorce your erring husband or not, you must take your own feelings into consideration. Would you be happier if you completely severed the bonds between you? When a woman loves her husband, as you say you do, often life is meaningless to her without him, and she is better off with him under any conditions than she would be if she divorced him.

Material Comforts

There are material things, too, that you have to consider. You have a good home, a comfortable income, a settled place in society. Think well before you give them up for a little alimony.

Finally, when you face the problem of whether you should divorce your husband or not, think of your children. They will be the real sufferers, and you may well forgive your husband much for the sake of keeping your home together and giving your children a father's support, a father's guidance and the start in the world that a father can give.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I have been engaged for a long time but have not married owing to the fact that the father of my fiance objects strenuously to the match. He has no fault to find with me except that I am five years his son's senior.

My fiance says he loves me, but that he cannot break his father's heart by making a marriage that will displease him. He is utterly wretched over the situation and he feels that his father is ruining his life, but he doesn't know any other way out except to break our engagement.

What is your advice in the matter?

MARGARET B.

ANSWER—I think that if your sweetheart hasn't enough manhood and spunk about him to marry you in spite of his father's silly objection, that you are well rid of such a weakling. Five years difference between the age of a man and a woman is nothing.

Your sweetheart's father is making a mountain out of this molehill in order to camouflage his real motive, which is to keep his son from marrying at all. He wants to keep his boy to himself. So my advice to you and your fiance is to say nothing more to the father about the matter. Just go out and get married and when it is all over he will be as pleased as Punch. There is no reason why you should be sacrificed for the whim of an old man.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I live in a small town and I seem to have gotten into a rut. I have a good profession, but it seems like things here get duller and more drab all the time. I would like to leave my home for a new environment and see new faces and have new experiences. Shall I leave deadly monotony for fresh scenes that may possibly mean discomfort?

AN UNATTACHED MAN

ANSWER—As long as you are unattached, there is no reason why you shouldn't leave home and get the stimulation that comes from meeting strangers and living in a different environment. It will do you good mentally and physically. It will broaden you, educate you, make you more human.

As long as you have a profession there is no reason why you should experience discomfort in a distant place. Personally, however, if I had to make a choice between discomfort and monotony I'd take the discomfort any day.

✧ ✧ ✧

DOROTHY DIX cannot reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.

Paris Sun Togs Most Vivid

PARIS — (NEA) — Orange linen, which takes its color cue from the sun, will go down to the seas from Paris this summer.

Orange linen, for example, makes the duster-styled beach coat (center) which tops a swim suit of orange-and-green of Jacques Fath's design. The striped linen makes cuffs for the coat and a big sun-shade hat.

The military-styled blouse (right) is of orange linen which picks up one of the vibrant shades of the multicolor-striped slacks with which it is worn.

The strapless "sun bra" (left) with "pirate pants" is made of orange linen. The pirate pants, Jacques Fath's new idea in beach shorts, feature a batik-print of orange, green and navy blue linen.

Lamb, Meat for Spring Replaces Beef and Pork

By KAY REX
Canadian Pres Staff Writer

OTTAWA, May 20 (CP)—Next time she visits the butchershop, the housewife would be wise to buy a a piece of lamb instead of the usual cut of beef or pork. It is the meat for spring.

Home economists, say the best lamb comes from well-rounded carcasses. The meat should be moist but firm and fine-grained The thin paper-like covering should be left on roasts, but removed from chops. Good lamb has a smooth even covering of firm creamy fat with a slight pinkish tinge. The bones also have a deep pink color which whitens with age.

Tender cuts of lamb are leg, loin and shoulder, although being young, none of the meat actually is tough. Lamb should be roasted at 325 to 350 degrees Fahrenheit for 30 to 35 minutes to the pound if it is preferred well done. Medium done—25 to 30 minutes to the pound. Chops one-inch thick will cook nicely in 12 minutes.

Scandinavian Lamb Stew (Faarikaal) — Ingredients: two pounds lean stewing lamb; two tablespoons fat; 1½ teaspoons salt; one-half teaspoon whole pepper corns or one-eighth teaspoon pepper; two cups water; one medium cabbage.

Cut lamb in two-inch cubes and brown in fat; add seasoning and water, cover and simmer about 45 minutes or until lamb is almost done, adding more water if necessary. Cut cabbage in eighths and remove core; add to lamb and cook covered, until cabbage is tender (about 20 minutes). Serve piping hot. Six servings.

Leftover meats always are a problem to serve, but if converted into such a appetizing dish as Shepherd's Pie, chances are the family will consume it with delight.

Ingredients: one-quarter cup tapioca; one cup hot gravy or stock; one teaspoon salt; one-eighth teaspoon pepper; one-eighth teaspoon paprika; 1½ cups hot water; one onion chopped one tablespoon parsley chopped one tablespoon catsup; two cups cooked meat; cut in cubes; two cups mashed potatoes, seasoned.

Add topioca, pepper, salt and paprika, to hot water and gravy. Cook in double-boiler 15 minutes. Add onion, catsup and meat. Mix well and put in a greased baking-dish, spread mashed potatoes on top, and bake in a moderate oven.

House Hints: Heat lemons well before using and there will be twice the quality of juice.

When a recipe calls for melted butter, always measure the butter after it has been melted, not before.

To prevent cakes from sticking to pans, sprinkle the tins with equal parts of flour and fine sugar.

When taking a cake from the oven place it for a few minutes on a cloth wrung out in cold water and it will be turned out easily without sticking to the pan.

NICK NICKELS

Mr. and Mrs. PETER BOROUGH and all the little Borough's will join thousands of fellow Canadians on the GREAT EXODUS for their summer cottages on VICTORIA DAY weekend. With the family car crammed with all the paraphenalia of camping, down to Junior's new toy sailboat, they will drive bumper to bumper to finally reach BIDE-AWHILE cottage, completely exhausted. The kids, let loose in the country for the first time in months, will be of no help but poor Pop and Mom will be as busy as beavers. There will be shutters to come off, water pipes to install, boats to soak, raking, cleaning and sweeping. Added to the general confusion Nature will curb their ardour, if they don't watch out. HOT SUN, POISON IVY, MOSQUITOES, and swimming CRAMPS are just a fraction of the price they will pay for their first energetic outing. It will be a weary family that swings out into homeward traffic on Tuesday evening. We are in sympathy with Pop who wonders on his arrival home, and Mom too, if the effort is worth it. Maybe a special sort of medal should be struck and awarded to parents of boisterous families who go through this sort of thing, year after year. And yet, it is so firmly an ingrained tradition after so many years, they would expect no award, except to dream of the days to come when they can visit their children AFTER their families have opened BIDE-AWHILE for them. When that time comes they will only have to guard their grandchildren against the hot sun, poison ivy, mosquitoes and cramps and help sons and daughters-in-law with shutters, water pipes, raking, and cleaning.

Since a cat may look at a King, I supposed it was in order for a newspaper to write to the Governor - General Viscount Alexander of Tunis in regard to the CANOE presented to him on his official visit to the city last November. His Secretary wrote to say that the canoe will be used by the Vice-regal's family at their summer cottage at KINGSMERE, P. Q. The token canoe model made by WALTER WALKER of Lakefield and presented to Viscount and Lady Alexander has found a place on His Excellency's study table at Government House.

And further of canoes, the KAWARTHA CANOE DERBY is showing signs of life. A mass meeting for enthusiasts is to be held at the auditorium of the Peterborough Public Library on Monday evening May 30. Its chief purpose is to explain the rules on which established canoe derbies are run, to discuss a course and to elect a LIVE COMMITTEE. If this year's effort is small, but ably managed, it will establish a stepping stone for similiar events for the years to follow. There will be a color movie of canoe building and, quite possibly, a trip through the Peterborough Canoe Company after the meeting to see boats in their various building stages. Get your paddle arms into the swing of this effort and put PETERBOROUGH on the map as the CANOE CENTRE OF CANADA. The idea has been noted and commented on by BOB TURNBULL, Toronto, in his Outdoor Trail column. Thanks, Bob, how about attending this affair on May 30?

What the Stanley Cup stands for in the field of world championship hockey, the MCKEE TROPHY is the coveted award of Canadian airmen awarded each year for one or a series of outstanding achievements. Among the many who have been presented with it since 1927 are PUNCH DICKINS and MATT BERRY. For 1948, it went to RCAF's FO. R. B. WEST for many Firsts. Two mercy flights from Dartmouth and Greenwood, N.S., to MUTTON BAY and HARRINGTON HARBOUR to evacuate persons requiring medical attention and many flights carrying sandbags and vital materials into the flooded areas of British Columbia last Spring. Last June, FO West was chosen to perform the first large-scale rain making operations over the forest fire area north of SAULT STE. MARIE.

We don't know a thing about fishing in Australia, except that they catch the queerest things Down Under. For instance, two fishermen recently at PITTWATER, near Sidney, hauled in an octopus and believe it or not, they said, its tenacles were fastened tightly to a full bottle of gin. To prove that they were NO WOWZERS, non-drinkers, they tossed the ugly brute back again and no doubt used the bottle to quiet their qualms.

WALTER GILBERT of Vancouver, lecturer DICK FINNIE and STAN McKNIGHT will all be chorteling, "Better late than never," these days, when they read of the RCAF's success in finally crossing the geographical North Pole early this month in a long-range Lancaster. They took off from KITTYGASUIK on the Mackenzie River delta and located the Pole about 1400 mile away. The three men above, together with the late Major Lockie T. Burwash of Cobourg, located the Magnetic Pole NINETEEN YEAR AGO this summer in an old Fokker seaplane G-CASK. The plane was abandoned all one winter until they located it, threw in some gas and took off. They were on a search for evidence of the ill-fated Sir John Franklin expedition and flew over the Magnetic Pole to give spice to the routine flight.

Northern men are gamblers and one of their pet games of chance is staged each spring to guess to the minute when the winter ice breaks from some river or lake at their front doors. I have been in, and even acted as timekeeper for a couple of seasons up in the Narrow Lake country of Northwestern Ontario. The pots were small, about $200, but it was fun We were pikers alongside the town of FAIRBANKS, Alaska Last Spring their timing went haywire and the considerable kitty was held over until this year. The river ice went out of Chena Slough on May 11 at 6:20 p.m., Alaska time, and Max Williard of Anchorage was richer by $68,000. What a pot!

Make room for me, JIM COLEMAN, in your expose of the Winnipeg "Sicoe" advertising racket by Toronto's restaurateurs. Such fish are an unknown quantity and if restaurants are trying to make customers think they are getting a substitute for WINNIPEG GOLDEYES, things are coming to a pretty pass. A few years ago in Winnipeg when Goldeyes were hard to get, chain stores were selling smoked tubilees in lieu of the real McCoy. They were comparable to suckers or ling and Westerners were only fooled the first time. "Siscoes" could be tulibees, Jim, and just another phoney.

Newspaper photographers spent some time each day rooting through pictures in various papers, to get ideas, to look for flaws. A three-column of PETE MCGILLEN in Saturday's Tely has me guessing. The Outdoor Editor is fishing for pickerel somewhere at high noon. We trust it was taken BEFORE Saturday, Pete, and that the retouched fish on the log were SUCKERS. Just professional interest, of course And now a bouquet for you. Thanks for the plug on the sale-stand release of the Examiner's CANADIAN VACATION EDITION.

BEAT HOUSING SHORTAGE—A family of robins, apparently bent on beating the housing shortage, grabbed off this spot atop a stepladder a few feet from the kitchen door of a Windsor, Ont., house. The home-owner decided not to disturb the family and this photo shows the mother feeding her young in the nest. She was startled by the photographer's flashbulb but continued feeding her brood after the photo was taken.

Says Reds Suppress Religious Freedom

PRAGUE, May 20—(Reuters)—The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Prague, Most Rev. Joseph Beran, has accused Czechoslovak Communists of suppressing religious freedom, contrary to the constitution, in a letter whose contents became known here Thursday.

The message, dated April 29, was originally planned as a pastoral letter, but ultimately was sent out as a communication to the clergy only, for their information.

The letter alleged that the Roman Catholic bishops of Czechoslovakia had to stop one of their meetings at which they were discussing negotiations between church and state, because they found that lay authorities had set up hidden microphones in the meeting place.

Key Club Day Is Observed By Kiwanis Club

Thursday was "Key Club Day" at the regular weekly luncheon of the Peterborough Kiwanis Club in the Empress Hotel. The program consisted of short talks by the outgoing and newly-elected Presidents of the PCVS Key Club and the St. Peter's High School Key Club. The retiring President of the latter club, Bill Duignan, gave the address which he delivered last March in Washington, D. C., at the annual international convention of Kiwanis Key Clubs.

Chairman was Walter Howell of the local Kiwanis Club's Key Club Committee, who also heads the Key Club committee of the Ontario-Quebec-Maritimes District of Kiwanis International.

The title of Bill Duignan's address at the Washington convention was "It's Fun to Live in Canada". He delivered it in an oratorical contest as representatives of Canadian Key Clubs, there being 13 contestants. He also gave it at the convention of district Key Clubs held in London, Ontario, in April.

The address stressed these points: "It's fun to live in Canada because it is fun to be free" and "It is fun to live in Canada because it is fun to live in a land that is itself growing up." It also emphasized the democratic freedom of thought, speech, franchise and worship that exist in both Canada and the United States. The speech closed on the note of the great co-operation that distinguishes the relations of Canada and the United States in many fields. "It's fun to live in America" was the final sentence.

Other speakers at the luncheon were: Harry Taylor president-elect of the PCVS Key Club; Gerry O'Neill, president-elect of the St. Peter's Key Club; and Doug Rattanbury, retiring president of the PCVS Key Club. All expressed their sincere thanks to the Kiwanis Club members for enabling them to enjoy the great privileges which Key Club membership means.

Before giving his address Duignan praised the Kiwanis for their great interest in youth stating that the Key Club idea was an effective means of attacking juvenile delinquency. He said the Peterborough Kiwanians had gone far ahead in the training of youth" by urging Key Club members to follow the precept of "service to others." He lauded the fine work done for the Key Clubs by Mr. Howell, who was always available for consultation and advice at any time.

Mr. Howell informed the Kiwanians that at the London district convention the St. Peter's Club won first prize in both the achievement and travel contests, while the PCVS club won second prize in the travel contest.

Streamers To Advertise City's Summer Theatre

As requested by Michael Sadlier, managing director of the Peterborough Summer Theatre, city council has given permission for the placing of canvas advertising streamers, one on Charlotte and the other on George St. They are intended to attract public attention to the theatre schedule at Queen Mary School from June 27 to Sept. 10, and especially to catch the notice of tourists. Profits of the season are to be divided between Civic and St. Joseph Hospitals.

"We appreciate the theatre group, and their wish to make contribution to the hospitals," Ald. Doug Miller commented, "but usually after the first week these canvas signs hang loosely and are anything but beautiful."

"I think we should encourage them in their first season," said Ald. A. B. Burrows. "It will give them a chance to show what they can do."

City Clerk Outram said that if this city could develop summer theatricals and concerts to anything like the scale established by Peterborough, New Hampshire, it would be a great community asset.

The request was granted on Ald. Anglesey's motion, seconded by Ald. Burrows.

Teachers Appointed To High School Staff

LAKEFIELD, May 20 (ENS)—At a special session of the Lakefield District High School Board this week, Mrs. Jean Benning of Havelock, was engaged as English and History teacher at a salary of $2700.00 per annum.

Mrs. Harry Stabler was engaged as part-time teacher for afternoons beginning September 1 at an annual salary of $1250.00.

It was moved by trustees Tucker and Clark that the board call for tenders before purchasing buses to transport the children to the Lakefield High School.

Holiday Sport AT ALGOMA

North of highway No. 17—between Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie—every road leads to fishermen's territory. This is Algoma—famous for big muskie, trout and fighting bass. The Algoma Central Railway is the "sportsman's railroad" that serves this area north of Soo. Blind River, Algoma Mills, Spruce Lake and Mississagi River . . . these are but a few of its well known fishing centres. There's plenty of sight-seeing interest—the beautiful Batchewana Highway from Soo to Lake Superior—the roaring Agawa canyon—the Chapleau Game Preserve. It's a two-day train trip from the Southern Ontario area to Sault. Ste. Marie, whose Board of Trade will be glad to answer all your questions.

In Ontario we have a holiday paradise . . . let's do all we can to encourage visitors from across the border. Published in support of the tourist business by John Labatt Limited.

90 High Schools Established Trustees Told

Members of Boards of Education and High School Boards having jurisdiction over more than one municipality are eligible for a mileage allowance and fees for services, S. D. Rendall, High School inspector, on Thursday told the convention of Ontario High School Boards.

He was addressing the delegates on the subject, "New Legislation Affecting High School Districts."

If the boards have this jurisdiction members will receive seven cents a mile for necessary travelling and $5 for each of not more than 12 meetings a year (maximum $60).

New legislation allows municipal boards of education to be established for more than one municipality. Under the new setup a single board would be substituted for the several previously existing.

He also explained that there has been some clarification on municipal representation of High School district boards. When a city or separated town come into a High School district the city is allowed six members and the separated town three.

The inspector referred briefly to the growth of the High School district system. Since 1944, 90 districts, comprising three-quarters of the province, have been established. During that time the number of pupils coming under the transportation scheme has risen from 500 to 20,000, he said.

Of these districts only about half a dozen are dissatisfied with the present arrangement, he estimated.

He listed some weaknesses.

One of the chief causes of complaints has been large towns together with two or three villages and some townships. Some of the villages in the district, according to the county system of equalized assessment, pay as much for education as the towns; and yet they have only half as many students attending school.

Get Away From County Basis

The remedy was to get away from the county's basis of obtaining the educational revenue by way of the equalized assessment, he stated, and there was provision for this in the High School Act.

Municipalities may pay a stipulated amount as a result of working on an agreement basis. Instead of the village paying the full 100 per cent. assessment it could pay substantially less if a settlement were made.

After making a careful survey of the subject, Inspector Rendall said he had found that 75 per cent. was often a reasonably fair basis.

Hawkesbury, Elmira and Wallaceburg are three centres where the "agreement basis" has proved workable.

Some suburban High School districts near major cities also pose a problem, he said. The local board buys the education for its students in the city, and apart from transportation arrangements and setting the mill rate, has little to do.

Members of the board have no school, and they are not directly responsible for the education of their children. This causes lack of enthusiasm and is a bad thing, he declared.

The solution is from a metropolitan area where the towns and cities in time will take in these districts. Several areas in the province have already adopted this measure and others are considering it.

To make a more co-ordinated unit it is also proposed to have a single board of education operate High School district and the Public Schools. The board with complete educational jurisdiction over the area would be composed of representatives from all of the municipalities contained in it.

The board would get the township area grant from the province on the one hand and the High School district grant on the other. This is being proposed in Stamford in Welland County, Bancroft in North Hastings, and in the provisional county of Haliburton, said the speaker.

Halting Rally Marks Stock Market Trading

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — Industrials and western oils declined steadily in a dull session on the Toronto Stock Exchange today. Changes were generally small with a few firming tendencies appearing in mid-session. Golds and base metals moved narrowly to hold steady.

Volume for the first three hours was 346,000 shares, about 3,000 less than yesterday's similar period.

Almost all industrial issues trading were lower and under mild selling pressure.

Dome Mines was strong in senior golds while Kerr Addison weakened despite declaration of an increased dividend.

Key western oils continued downwards for the second successive session.

International Nickel, selling ex-dividend 40 cents, dipped 75 cents in a mixed base metals list.

TO OBSERVE JUBILEE, Rev. Father Cyril J. Carroll pastor of Norwood-Havelock parish since 1937, will observe the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood with a solemn mass in St. Paul's Church, Norwood, on Tuesday, May 24, at 10 a.m.

Parish Priest's Silver Jubilee

NORWOOD, May 20 (ENS)— Rev. Father Cyril J. Carroll, pastor of Norwood - Havelock parish, has issued invitations for a solemn mass commemorating the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood, to be held Tuesday, May 24, at 10. a.m. in St. Paul's Church Norwood.

Father Carroll was ordained in St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough, on February 10, 1924, by the late Archbishop M. J. O'Brien. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll of Young's Point and received his education at Lakefield High School, Peterborough Collegiate Institute, and St Augustine's Seminary, Toronto.

He was assistant, at Tront Creek from 1924 to 1926, in Lindsay for six months during 1926, at Immaculate Conception Church, Peterborough, 1927-32; and St. Peter's Cathedral, 1932-37.

He has been pastor of St. Paul's Church, Norwood; and Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, Havelock, since 1937, where he succeeded Rev. J. J. McCarthy, now pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Douro. Father McCarthy will be the special preacher at Silver Jubilee Mass.

While a resident of Peterborough, Father Carrol was active in dramatics and music.

State Secretary Urges Caution

WASHINGTON, May 20 (AP) —On the eve of his departure for the Paris Big-Four conference, State Secretary Acheson sternly declared Thursday that he will refuse to "barter away" to Russia successes already scored by the West in rebuilding a democratic Germany.

He warned the American people against "the luxury of either undue pessimism or premature optimism" as to the outcome of the new East-West talks. No one could tell now whether the Paris meeting will succeed or fail.

He appealed for "steadiness and consistency" in United States foreign policy, declaring it would be tragic if the country should prematurely slacken its efforts to get the kind of world it wants at the first sign of success.

Three Persons Saved As Vessel Grounds

KINGSVILLE, Ont., May 20— (CP)—Two adults and a child were rescued from the Steamship Pelee when it ran aground off the west dock near Pelee Island in a raging sea Thursday night They were brought to shore aboard a lifeboat which put out from the island.

The trio was later identified as Mrs. Catherine Stoltz of Pelee Island, Mrs. William Otter of Toledo, O., and Mrs. Otter's three-year-old daughter.

The Pelee was still fast aground today and the tug America was on her way from Toledo, O., to give aid.

The Pelee got into difficulties as she was tying to the west dock Thursday afternoon about four o'clock. Her crew had made two lines fast to the dock when the wind hit, causing the lines to part and putting the ship at the mercy of the gale.

New Party Split Threatens Truman Promise

By GEORGE RONALD

WASHINGTON, May 20 (CP) —A new split in Democratic party ranks is threatening still another of President Truman's election promises.

A senate combination of Republicans and Northen Democrats is set to fight his bid for extention of the reciprocal trade program in its original form. On the other hand, Truman this time has the support of Southern Democrats who have been his big stumbling-block on most issues this session.

Republicans will spearhead the drive to retain existing restrictions on the President's authority to cut United States import duties. Truman's followers went to give him back the power he had until the 80th Congress—Republican - controlled — made changes.

Truman appealed to the new 81st Congress to restore the trade agreement act "to full effectiveness" by wiping out the restrictions and extending it for three years.

Limit Action

The 80th extended it only for 12 months and inserted the controversial "peril point" clause. It directed the Tariff Commission to fix a minimum to which Tariffs could be cut without harming domestic industry. If the President goes below this point, he must explain why to Congress.

The late President Roosevelt, who originated the trade plan, never worked under that "handicap." the act gave him a free hand to cut tariffs in return for other countries' reduction of import duties on United States goods.

The House of Representatives has eliminated the "peril point" restriction." But Republicans gave an indication of their opposition by fighting in the Senate Finance Committee to retain it. They lost by a 7-to-6 vote.

Women's News Looms Large In Discussion

TORONTO, May 20 — (CP) — News about women emerged as one of the chief topics of discussion Thursday as members and news editors of the Canadian Press central circuit region held their annual meeting here.

The editors—all men—agreed that the women's sections of their newspapers are becoming increasingly important, imposing greater demand for lively reporting of events dealing with the home, family, education, and other subjects of special interest to women.

Herve Major, Montreal La Presse, first vice-president of the National News Co-operative, presided.

Emphasis on women's news developed during a panel discussion on CP news features, led by E. R. McCall of the Toronto Telegram and J. Frank Williams of the Ottawa Journal.

H. J. Larkin, the Montreal Gazette, and Milford Smith, the Hamilton Spectator, led a discussion on proper handling of parliamentary news from Ottawa. World and Canadian news generally and the place of pictures in the news report were other subjects reviewed.

Monthly Tribute Paid By Burma Oil Co.

RANGOON, May 20—(AP)—A rebel force in control of Central Burma areas has demanded and received some £23,000 ($92,000) "protection" money from the Burma Oil Company and is asking monthly tribute, an authoritative source said today.

The rebels are members of the White-band Peoples' Volunteer Organization, are demanding £9,000 monthly as a royalty to a "government" which the PVO group has proclaimed in Central Burma, an informant said.

The British embassy recently sent Consul D. C. Philips to Burma Oil Works at Yenangyaung to check on British interests and the welfare of British Nationals employed there.

Greek Prelate Dies

ATHENS, May 20—(Reuters)— Archbishop Damaskinos of Greece died today at his country home. He was 57. The six-foot-four-inch, black bearded archbishop acted as regent of Greece from the time of the country's liberation in the Second World War until the return to the throne of King George.

98 New Patients Ask VON To Aid In April

Peterborough V.O.N. decided Wednesday to discontinue advertising on city buses. Miss Mary Ross, superintendent, reported to the Board Wednesday on behalf of J. D. Anderson, convener of the publicity committee, that the committee thought it more advantageous to spend its advertising money on increased newspaper publicity.

P. D. Scollard, who represented Peterborough at the annual VON meeting in Ottawa, reported on a round table conference which he attended there. Miss Ross, who attended accompanied by Miss Wilma Armstrong, a VON nurse, presented reports on addresses to the conference.

The Board asked Miss Ross and Mr. Scollard to consider what recommendations of the annual meeting might be discussed by Peterborough branch and to pass on their comments to the appropriate committees.

Miss Ross reported that during April Peterborough branch had a case load of 209 patients resulting in 524 visits. Of these 98 were new patients. There were 36 medical and surgical cases including two with pneumonia and seven who had been discharged from hospital but were still in need of nursing cars. Twenty of the patients were for prenatal advice and there were 42 mothers and babies.

The number of chronically ill patients attended by V.O.N. nurses in Peterborough has doubled since May last year, Miss Ross said.

Commenting on the sources from which patients receive information about the V.O.N. service Miss Ross said that 32 people had applied for nursing care from the V.O.N. on the advice of friends, other members of the family neighbors or had had previous experience of its service. Doctors had recommended 37 patients to the organization, two had known the V.O.N. in other cities, seven had come to the organization through DVA and others contacted the nurses after hearing radio announcements, reading about the V.O.N. in newspapers and one person remembered its service from a membership campaign conducted by Peterborough branch.

One husband had stopped a VON nurse in the street to ask her to visit his wife for prenatal treatment.

HERE IS A SAMPLE of the meals served in the Canadian Army. For breakfast bacon and eggs, toast and cereal. Dinner is soup, ham and dumpings. For supper the boys get tomato soup, beef, celery and potatoes. The three meals were on display at the armouries Wednesday night. They were cooked in the mobile kitchen with the Canadian Army Travelling Circus.

Veterans' Land Act Designed To Help Meet Housing Problem

Surprise was expressed by A. R. Macnab, regional supervisor under the Veterans' Land Act, Kingston, during a visit to Peterborough yesterday that there were as many as 524 veterans looking for housing accommodation, as reported in The Examiner of May 10. The report was made by the local administrator of Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to City Council.

Mr. Macnab said that he felt quite sure at least some of these veterans might not be fully conversant with the benefits contained in the Veterans' Land Act, which was designed expressly to help meet such needs. Mr. Macnab's territory covers the nine counties from Leeds to Haliburton. He was in the city to attend a meeting of Regional Advisory Committee under the V.L.A. to be held on Friday in the D.V.A. offices, Barrie Building.

Mr. Macnab said that veterans who qualify under the act's provisions can secure a maximum loan of $6,000, which can be expended either on making changes to existing land and buildings or for the purchase of a parcel of land on which to erect a dwelling. The veteran contracts to repay only two-thirds of whatever moneys are expended for this purpose, at 3½% interest over a period not exceeding 25 years. The other third does not have to be repaid except for 10% of the maximum loan applied for, which has to be paid in at time the loan application is made.

Any veterans who desire further information on the act as provisions are urged to contact the local DVA office in the Barrie building, officials of which will be glad to arrange an interview with Mr. MacNab, who visits Peterborough every week in the course of his duties.

Television Set's Reception In City Reported Good

A television, set has been in operation in Peterborough for the past four days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken McCannan, 1304 Clonsilla Ave. Their children and 30 friends who have seen television shows from Buffalo in the McCannan sitting room have nothing but praise for the splendid reception and fine entertainment.

The study of television is nothing new to Mr. McCannan. He has been studying it as a hobby for almost two years and by constant research, and not as little expense, has finally fooled city sceptics that said Peterborough was off the beam for TV reception.

Reception is especially good during evenings of normal weather conditions, according to Mr. McCannan. Electric disturbances which were prevelant on Wednesday night, interferred slightly, but, on Tuesday night he and his guests enjoyed a telecast from a Buffalo studio which lasted from 5:30 until 11 p.m. It started with a Punch and Judy show for the children's special consumption and went on through series of ads for laundry, food and drink firms and finally the Arthur Godfrey show which lasted in itself for two hours.

The table model set is enclosed in a cabinet about two feet square, a combination machine which includes standard broadcast and FM radio reception, record player and a 12-inch television screen. There are 13 channels on the TV selector switch to correspond with the number of present day television stations. Buffalo is the only one coming in now which can be reached by Peterborough and by mid-June Rochester and Syracuse will both be on the air. It is said that Toronto will have their first TV station in operation in about a year's time.

2 Badly Hurt In Crash At Bancroft

Five Others Injured As Truck, Car In Collision

BANCROFT, May 21 — (ENS) —Seriously injured in a traffic collision seven miles north of here Friday afternoon, two Peterborough men, Charles Toplas and Ted Carew were transferred from the Red Cross Hospital here to St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough. They were reported suffering concussion of the brain and lacerations of the face and head.

Five persons were removed from the accident to the local hospital. They were Charles and Leonard Toplas and Ted Carew of Peterborough, and Mr. and Mrs. William George Cook of Oshawa.

Mr. Cook and Leonard Toplas were given first-aid treatment, and were able to leave the hospital. Mrs. Cook suffered broken ribs and cuts on the face.

The five persons in the two vehicles were all injured in the crash which occurred on No. 62 Highway. It was reported that a truck owned by Clarence Sherratt of Port Credit and driven by Charles Toplas, accompanied by Leonard Toplas and Mr. Carew, was in collision with an automobile driven by Mr. Cook, with his wife on the front seat beside him. It was owned by the Mill Valley Lumber Co. of Oshawa.

Doctors Called

Dr. S. S. Lumb of Bancroft attended the injured on the roadside, and was joined by Dr. O. W. Anderson, also of Bancroft, at the hospital.

It was said that the extent of he injuries of Charles Topas and Carew could not be immediately determined, and it was decided to remove them to Peterborough.

Dr. Herbert Young, of Peterborough, who was attending them until 1 a.m. today said they were badly cut about the head and he suspected Carew had a fractured neck and Toplas a broken jaw. He was not yet able to report fully on their condition, which he did not think was critical.

Circumstances of the accident were investigated by Provincial Constable W. J. Fitzsimmons of Bancroft. It was said that tire marks indicated the truck skidded 185 feet before its broadside collision with the passenger car. It was intimated that a criminal charge was being considered by the authorities.

THE HON. LESTER B. PEARSON, OBE, Secretary of State for External Affairs, was guest speaker at the second annual convention of the Peterborough Canadian Life Underwriters Association on Friday evening. A boyhood resident of Peterborough, he warmly greeted his favourite schoolmaster, R. F. Downey, Right, during the city's civic reception ceremonies. It was also Mr. Downey's birthday. Crisis Eased By Pact Official Says

Recalls Old Days When Father Lived In Peterborough

A fascinating challenge to the imagination of the dinner assembly he addressed at the Empress Hotel Friday night was the Hon. Lester B. Pearson.

The boy whom Ross F. Downey taught at the Central school stood modestly before the gathering of 300 men and women as one of the signatories of the Atlantic Pact, and also as Canada's representative in that great potential alliance that was the British Empire, now transformed into the Commonwealth of Nations.

Mr. Pearson has been Secretary of State for External Affairs, and the brief recital of a mere outline of his experiences in the diplomatic arena was listened to with rapt attention at the dinner of the Peterborough Life Underwriters' Association.

The young Minister studiously avoided partisan political topics in what was obviously his presentation of the importance of the Department of External Affairs has acquired with Canada's development in international affairs in the last 20 years. It was not a luxury, but a positive necessity, and in its broader institution, Mr. Pearson said, especially in its United Nations membership, it had represented both the government and opposition sides of the House of Commons.

The dinner chairman was Mr. E. G. Pridham. Grace before dinner was offered by Mr. E. L. Sackville. Major M. J. Swanston extended a welcome to the company

King In England

LONDON, May 21—(AP)—A Buckingham Palace spokesman said today that reports that the King had his leg ailment treated at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., this month were "absolutely untrue." "The King has not left the country," the spokesman said.

He added the King received Prime Minister Attlee May 3, his doctors on the fourth, and other physicians on the 17th.

Shanghai Cut By Air, Reds Gaining

SHANGHAI, May 21 — (CP) — Shanghai today was cut off by air, her sea lane menaced, and great fires blazed across the river to the east and north where Red besiegers are on the attack.

One of the fires burned at the Standard Vacuum depot on Gough Island, eight miles north of downtown Shanghai. At least one tank was ablaze at this biggest oil installation in East Asia.

Lungwha airport, five miles to the south, suspended operations. Officials said, however, flights may be resumed later in the day.

Three Chinese civilian planes at the airport were commandeered by the military. They were standing by to take out high Chinese officials still in Shanghai.

The garrison commander ordered all but military traffic off the Whangpoo—Shanghai's sea lane—during afternoon hours.

The fighting ebbed and flowed around Pootung, the industrial district across the Whangpoo from Shanghai. It raged through the night and continued under soggy skies early today.

At one time Friday night, 27 fires could be counted in and beyond the Pootung district.

Communist troops were reported to have infiltrated Gough Island and were engaged by Nationalist troops. The fire resulted.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to obtain dependable information. However, it was learned that the fortress of Woosung 10 miles to the north still is being defended doggedly against attack from the west.

Ships moving between Shanghai and Woosung run the risk of small arms fire at several points. There have been no reports of anyone on ships being wounded.

(This guarded dispatch, written under censorship, indicates the Communists are on or near the river in greater numbers than the garrison has conceded.)

12,000 Strikers In Berlin Battle Young Reds In Elevated Rail Stations

Hundreds Injured In Morning Fighting As Train Traffic Halted; City May Be Forced Back To Austerity

BERLIN, May 21—(AP)—Twelve thousand striking railway workers fought young communists cast in the role of strike breakers today in nearly a dozen stations of Berlin's elevated railway. Hundreds were injured during the fighting, which raged through the morning. The outbreak shut off rail shipments to western Berlin and threatened to force the city back to the austerity of the blockade period.

An elevated passenger train was set ablaze during one melee. Clothing was torn from women who got into the fight.

Western Berlin police said Maj.-Gen. Pavel Kvashnin, the transport chief of the Soviet zone, was insulted and threatened by a group of strikers at the Tempelhof elevated station in the American sector.

The police said they gave Kvashnin protection from the strikers and he was able to drive away without physical injury. Another Soviet transport officer of junior rank was stoned by strikers at the Hermanstrasse station, also in the American sector, police said He was reported not severely injured.

This is the crux of the situation: The Soviet-appointed Reichsbahn management controls both zonal railroads and Berlin's elevated line. Railway workers went out on strike early today to enforce their demand for payment of wages in west marks instead of east marks. West marks are four times as valuable as the Soviet zone currency. East marks are banned in the west

Fighting broke out when the Russian-controlled management sent squads of militant young Communists, including teen-age girls, into the western sectors of the city to "recapture" elevated stations seized by the anti-Communist strikers.

More Strikers

The strikers outnumbered the Communist strike breakers. Both sides fought with clubs, showers of stones and their fists.

Western Berlin police fought with the strikers against the Communists and Soviet-controlled railway police. In breaking up one fight the policemen fired their pistols into the air. That was the only shooting.

Western allied officials maintained a hands-off attitude in connection with the walkout but were sympathetic toward the strikers. However, one British source said: "This strike can't be allowed to go on too long."

British and American planes of the air lift and trucks continued to supply western Berlin. Although the anti-Communist railway union which called the strike had pledged itself to operate western allied and German interzonal trains, switches and signals in west Berlin yards were left unmanned.

This blocked all incoming supply trains from western Germany. A British military passenger train slipped through by running against untended red signals. It was the only train that moved.

The Russian military command ordered all Berlin-bound trains halted on the outskirts of the city because of the strike.

Nothing Wrong At Whitby Goodfellow Says

WHITBY, May 21 (CP) — William Goodfellow, acting Ontario Minister of Health, visited the Ontario Mental Hospital here Friday to investigate charges of unsanitary and inhuman conditions. He said in an interview there will be no changes as a result of his visit.

"The allegations are grossly exaggerated," said Mr. Goodfellow. "I can say that there will be no specific changes as a result of our visit, but only the ordinary improvements which are always being made. The hospital is very well managed. Dr. Phair and I noted that some improvements are necessary, but on the whole everything is in good order."

Referring to Mrs. Sherman's statement that in one cottage there were 70 patients to one bathtub, Mr. Goodfellow said "In the cottage at which the criticism was directed, there are adequate toilet facilities for the 70 patients. There are eight wash basins, three showers and one bathtub. We interviewed some of the patients and none had any complaints to offer. It is true that the hospital has been somewhat short in staff. We made the visit to satisfy ourselves that everything was all right."

Mr. Goodfellow said he found the beds comfortable and uniform with no straw mattresses as had been charged. We found nothing to support Mrs. Sherman's statement that the 50 DP girls there are not giving good service, although perhaps there have been individual cases open to criticism."

Dr. Phair agreed with Mr. Goodfellow's analysis of the situation.

Government Men Try To Keep Ford Talks Going

DETROIT, May 21.—(AP). — Government men, striving to save the Ford strike negotiations from collapse, today worked to keep the company and the striking United Auto Workers (C.I.O.) at the peace table.

The strike's 11th negotiation session was scheduled today.

A union ultimatum to walk out unless Ford agreed to start 1949 contract negotiations Monday forced the new issue on the U.A.W. "speed-up" strike's 17th day.

Ford, all of whose 106,000 production workers are idle, bluntly refused.

Federal mediators Arthur C. Viat and Sylvester Petz were hopeful. The two formally entered the negotiations yesterday.

The recriminations in an increasingly bitter verbal battle reached a new peak yesterday

Vice-President John S. Bugas of Ford and U.A.W. President Walter Reuther, chief negotiators, blasted one another.

Bugas told Reuther in a letter: "Your intention seems throughout to have been to use every possible device to keep this strike going."

This was in reply to a Reuther accusation that the company was "using a legitimate strike as a subterfuge to delay contract negotiations."

The union wants to negotiate a new contract at the same time that the parties try to negotiate a strike settlement.

$100,000 Fire Destroys Church, Four Buildings

CLARENCE, Ont., May 21—(CP)—Fire which broke out shortly before dawn today razed the Baptist Church in this village 26 miles east of Ottawa and four nearby structures with a total loss of more than $100,000. The blaze, believed to have broken out in an ice house near the church, left homeless the family of Arthur E. Wilson, 86-year-old storekeeper, destroying also a general store, stable and warehouse, all owned by Mr. Wilson.

The church, built 123 years ago, was one of the oldest in the Ottawa district and was a well-known landmark.

Provincial constables C. B. Cresswell and Paul Laperriere of nearby Rockland were on the scene within a few minutes but the Rockland fire apparatus was not called since saving of the buildings was a hopeless task from the outset. Only two wells were available and these could not be reached because of the intense heat from the fire.

Save Money Orders

Members of the Wilson family managed to save a quantity of unused money orders and cash from the post office at the rear of the general store and also most of the contents of the dwelling. However, two work horses and three calves lost their lives in the stable.

Members of the family left homeless by the fire included Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, three daughters, Lucy, Florence and Mary Wilson, and a son, Clyde. Mr. Wilson said he carried no insurance on the buildings.

Name Caretaker In $75,000 Will

BELLEVILLE, May 21.—S. J. Price, caretaker of a number of estates here, has been named chief beneficiary in the will of Mrs. Byron Coll, by whom he was employed. Mrs. Coll, wife of the former U.S. consul in New Brunswick, had no living relatives.

Estate of Mrs. Coll has been estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000. Mr. Price said he believed Mrs. Coll had left $10,000 to the United Church of Canada and approximately $5,000 each to three or four friends.

He said he had looked after the entire estate for the past six or seven years and had bought the groceries and paid bills. He said he would keep on working and, if he felt he could afford it, he would like to have a trip back to England and visit relatives.

He came to Canada in 1913, and served in the First World War with the 18th Battalion. The Coll will has not been probated.

Heavy Rains Aid Firefighters

WINNIPEG, May 21 (CP) — Prayers for rain over the northern Saskatchewan forest fire front were answered Friday night. Heartening hundreds of men who went on with the task of battling big surface blazes and smouldering ground fires which have cut huge swaths through timber and bush.

The fire situation across the northern prairies today generally looked brighter than it has been for days. No new outbreaks have been reported in Manitoba where all fires are under control. Despite the high fire hazards in both Saskatchewan and Alberta, few new blazes are cropping up and all are being held in check.

Intermittent rain, which started yesterday evening and continued through the night, fell in the heart of the most serious danger area north of Prince Albert, Sask.

While the Saskatchewan Forestry Department considered sending smoke-jumpers into the region by air yesterday, aircraft stood by with men and equipment, ready for use against four fires near Buffalo Narrows, 210 miles northwest of Prince Albert.

Accidents Up 53% In Peterborough Area

TORONTO, May 21 (CP)—A 22-per-cent increase in motor vehicle accidents in Ontario for the first quarter of 1949 as compared with the same period a year ago, was reported Friday by Highways Minister Doucett.

In the first three months of this year there were 6,887 accidents in the province as compared with 5,643 in the same period last year.

The greatest increase was in highways district 6 embracing Bruce, Grey, Huron, Petrth and Waterloo counties, where a 64-per-cent increase was reported. District 8, Durham, Northumberland, Peterborough, Victoria and Haliburton, was next with 53 per cent increase.

New Tornadoes Lash 4 Mid-West States

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 21.—(AP).—Toriadoes lashed four states across the mid-section of the United States Friday night.

At least two persons were killed Nearly a score were injured. Property damage was unestimated.

Hardest hit was Oklahoma. But twisters flicked out at scattered communities in Colorado, Kansas and, far across Mississippi Valley, caught two small eastern Tennessee communities.

It was Oklahoma's fourth straight night of twisters. Most of the communities hit were small.

D See Signal

TORONTO, May 21 (CP) — Six persons suffered only cuts Friday night when an automobile in which they set out from here for a week-end trip to Midland plowed into a train at a level-crossing at suburban Weston. The train was bound for Owen Sound. Police said they believed Frank Edwards, 22, whom they described as the driver of the car, was momentarily blinded by the setting sun and did not see a wig-wag signal.

Believe 2 Americans Rob Store Manager

WINDSOR, May 21—(CP)—Two unidentified men, believed to be Americans, held up and robbed Henry F. Fehler, cigar store manager, of approximately $750 and a valuable ring Friday night.

Witnesses said the well dressed bandits spoke politely as they strode into the store on Windsor's waterfront, flashed a gun and demanded the money. They took the ring from Fehler's finger.

How Times Change Fliers Get Own Rooms

STOW-ON-THE-WOLD, Eng., May 21—(CP)—The first new-style RAF barracks with a single room for each man, has been opened at the Central Flying School at Little Rissington, near this Gloucestershire town.

The new buildings are of concrete and steel, two storeys high, with flat roofs and prefabricated fronts. Each has 84 single-berth cubicles and four four-berth dormitories.

Beside each bed is a built-in wardrobe and cupboard, a folding writing-table and a chair.

The barracks are built along lines advocated for the army by Viscount Montgomery while Chief of Imperial General Staff. But RAF officers said in future 84 per cent of new barracks would be devoted to four-berth dormitories, as many recruits were not accustomed to and did not like rooms to themselves.

Think Bancroft Hospital Best

TORONTO, May 21 (CP)—The Sudbury hospital where the Ontario division of the Red Cross said Friday that a decision to send a mother and her newborn baby from Wilberforce to a hospital at Bancroft, 25 miles away, was made in the interest of the woman and the child.

The committee, commenting on reports that the woman and baby were refused admittance to the Wilberforce hospital this week, said in a statement:

"Nurses in charge of outposts are often called upon to make important decisions. In this case, the decision to send a patient on to the eight-bed, well-equipped outpost hospital at Bancroft, where she would receive immediate medical care, rather than admit her to the one-bed nursing station at Wilberforce, 25 miles from the nearest doctor, was made in the interest of the patient and her child."

London Circles Deny Royal Baby Expected

LONDON, May 21 — (AP)—Circles close to Princess Elizabeth pooh-poohed today a report published in Sydney, Australia, that she may become a mother again by the end of the year.

The report got an even brisker dismissal from a Buckingham Palace spokesman.

He declared stiffly, "The story arose without any assistance from anyone here."

Persons close to the Princess said she will be riding horseback June 9 at the trooping of the colors in honor of the King's birthday.

Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip became the parents of their first child, Prince Charles, last Nov. 14.

Hold Ex-Sailor In Knife Murder

SARNIA, Ont., May 21.—(CP). —Everett Armstrong, 64, faces a charge of murder in the drinking party stabbing of Edward Birmingham, 43-year-old former sailor.

Armstrong, who lives at Aberfeldy, about 35 miles southeast of here, appeared in court before Magistrate C. S. Woodrow late yesterday and was remanded to May 27.

Police said Birmingham was stabbed with a skinning knife in the two-roomed shack he and Bert McGill had shared for the last four months. McGill, owner of the shack, was treated in hospital here yesterday for knife wounds about the hands and arms.

The slaying was discovered when Armstrong told neighbors he had killed a man and asked them to call police. The neighbors said Armstrong appeared to be coming out of a wine haze. Police found Armstrong sitting on a stump outside the door of the shack.

Saskatchewan Hot Spot In 1949 'Hopper Battle

REGINA, May 21 (CP)—Soon, now, the grasshopper will be hatching in its billions. The battle of 1949 is on. Early indications point to the worst, 'hopper infestation on the western plains since 1948.

This year, all three prairie provinces, alarmed at reports showing an unusually heavy "crop" of 'hopper eggs, have planned eradication campaigns more extensive than any undertaken previous. Saskatchewan, Canada's chief grain-growing province, is the "hot spot" in the fight but the menace also is great in Alberta and Manitoba.

Entomologists estimate that 40,000,000 acres in Saskatchewan are menaced.

The "battle line" in this province is expected to run north and south through the centre of the province — roughly from Saskatoon in the north to Swift Current in the south. In Alberta, where 5,000,000 acres of grain land are menaced, the hardest-hit area is expected to be around Medicine Hat in the southeast. Manitoba expects a 2,000,000-acre infestation, chiefly in the south.

In Saskatchewan alone, grasshoppers have destroyed, since 1935, crops worth an estimated $100,000,000.

Few farmers shirk their responsibilities, but many municipalities plan to "get tough" with those who do. They have passed by-laws compelling all farmers to undertake anti-grasshopper work or to force those with badly infested fields to summer-fallow their land. This would mean the loss of a farmer's entire crop. No compensation is provided.

Charges Dismissed Against 4 Strikers

ORILLIA, May 21—(CP). — Charges of creating a disturbance at the picket line of the Heywood Wakefield Company plant were dismissed yesterday against four strikers at the request of Police Chief W. G. Carson. Each man was ordered to pay court costs.

An assault charge against a fifth man, Kenneth Eastman, was adjourned.

The strike, called May 1 over dismissal of 18 workers of the Baby Carriage Company, ended Monday when it was decided to put the case before an arbitrator to be chosen by the Labor Department.

War Hero Britain Forgot Awarded Posthumous VC

LONDON, May 21 (CP) —The story of a war hero Britain almost forgot was told today.

The London Gazette announced the posthumous award of the Victoria Cross to George Albert Cairns, a former London bank clerk, who died on a Burma hill-top five years ago.

The award of Britain's highest military decoration might never have been made if his 30-year-old widow, Ena Cairns, hadn't listened last December to a broadcast account of battle action in Burma involving her husband's regiment, the South Staffordshires. The broadcast told how Cairns, a Lieutenant led a Chindit assault on a Japanese-held hill.

His great courage inspired his men and they routed the Japs.

The broadcast disclosed how Cairns' commanding officer had recommended him for the VC on the spot—something Mrs. Cairns didn't know.

The VC recommendation went to Gen. Wingate, Chindit leader, but before he could act the general was killed in a plane crash Destroyed in the crash were the official records of the action and Victoria Cross recommendation.

Maj. J. M. Calvert, DSO, lone surviving witness of the action, supplied the necessary evidence and the award was made.

Cairns was married in 1942, two years after he joined up. Within a year he was drafted to India. Within two years he was dead.

Drew Promises To Restore Provincial Rights

By The Canadian Press

The general election spotlight swung to Quebec today as two campaigning national party leaders moved into the French-speaking province after touring the Maritimes.

George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, made his Quebec political debate Friday night with an address in the Gaspe Peninsula town of Mont Joli, in which he promised to restore provincial rights.

Prime Minister St. Laurent moved into Quebec after a day-long sweep through the New Brunswick countryside.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. chieftain, carried his campaign to the new province of Newfoundland to address the first C.C.F. meeting held there, while Solon Low, Social Credit leader, returned to Ottawa from a two-week tour of his home province in Alberta.

Mr. Drew said the Progressive Conservatives believe "in Canada's sovereignty in international affairs just as we believe that our country should live up to her undertakings."

Speaks in French

Speaking in French for the first time since he started his campaign tour, Mr. Drew read a prepared text. His French-speaking audience cheered when he had finished.

Mr. Drew told the rally that Canada above all desired peace, a true and Christian peace that would be guaranteed through collective security.

He said that as premier of Ontario he had occasion to collaborate closely with French-speaking Canadians of Quebec and that, as a result, he had come to know them better and truly appreciate them.

Won't Get Budget

Earlier Mr. Drew said in a radio address the 1949-50 budget would never go into effect. If the government were returned to power it would introduce an entirely different budget.

He said the budget was offered as a pre-election bribe which the government even refused to honor.

Prime Minister St. Laurent told his fellow French-speaking Canadians in Quebec his position is a demonstration that "there is no obstacle because of race in our country."

He made the satement at Causapscal in Gaspe, where hundreds met his train. It was one of 11 stops he made by car and train over the 300 miles between Moncton, N. B., and Mont Joli. He spoke 12 times.

Mr. St. Laurent visited the Acadian county of Kent, N. B., and drove on up the east coast to Newcastle, Amqui, and Sayabec, but made no long, major speeches. He spoke of the mutual responsibilities of Canadians; of the value of their system of government, and of their citizenship.

CCF Takes Credit

Mr. Coldwell, keynoting his tour of Newfoundland, told a CCF rally in St. John's that the CCF deserves credit for social security measures now on the Canadian Statutes and promised, whether in government or in opposition, to prevent exploitation of fishermen. They would be assisted to organize co-operatively "for their common interest."

He said the CCF believes that the basic rights of organized labor should be protected by a national labor code along the lines of the Provincial Labor Act in force in Saskatchewan.

Sees Sweeping Gains

Mr. Low addressed a campaign meeting in Ottawa and predicted the Social Credit group will make sweeping gains in the June 27 federal riding.

The national Social Credit leader said the Liberal party is "desperately attempting to buy support in the west to make up for losses which they fear in Quebec and in the east."

". . . The Liberal party is very worried about the situation in Quebec," he said. "For this reason the Liberals are making an intensive drive throughout western Canada, the most intensive they have ever made in the history of recent federal elections.

"They are resorting to every known artifice to blast ingratiate or purchase their way into western constituencies or provinces where their support for some years has been poor or only fair."

Will Prosecute Three Policemen

TORONTO, May 21 —(CP)— Three Toronto police officers will be charged with assault in connection with the arrest last February of Douglas Tolmie, 32.

A special meeting of the Toronto Police Commission Friday instructed Chief Constable John Chisholm to charge Patrol Sgt. William Kelso and Constables Joseph O'Rourke and John Payne.

Tolmie's treatment by police was described by Chief Justice Robert S. Robertson during the hearing last Wednesday of an appeal against his conviction on an assault charge.

In quashing the conviction, the chief justice commented: "We'll have to get someone to protect us from the police if they persist in being a menace."

This statement by the chief justice resulted in the calling of the special meeting of the police commission. At its conclusion Chairman Hiram McCallum announced:

"The Board of Police Commissioners ordered that the officers complained of in the Tolmie case be prosecuted in the courts on charges of assault and instructed the chief constable to have information laid accordingly."

the west Berlin city hall hurled rocks at four Soviet officers who drove up in a sedan.

Brig.-Gen. Frank L. Howley, United States Commandant, expressed sympathy for the strikers, and questioned whether it was the strike or Russian manoeuvring which had halted the freight shipments from Western Germany.

He said the Russians could settle the strike "very easily" if they had the desire, and meet the strikers' "entirely legitimate" demand for payment of wages in West marks, which are four times as valuable as the Soviet zone currency they now receive.

West-Berlin city officials said at noon that the walkout had completely disrupted freight movements, despite the promises mentioned by Howley.

Scores of minor casualties were reported in a series of fights between strikers and young Communists sent in to try to break the strike.

One group of Communists shouting "You spy," pummelled Fritz Remus, an Associated Press photographer taking pictures at the scene.

Fifty persons, all or most of them Communist "invaders," were reported to have been jailed.

A smaller number of West-German police fought a rough-and-tumble battle with 50 Communist railway police at one point, swinging fists and clubs. They arrested 15 of the railway policemen. The strike was called by the West Sector Union (UGO) to back the workers' demands that the Soviet run railway system pay their wages in West marks.

Textile Workers Open Office In Peterboro

Tenth anniversary of the Textile Workers of America will be celebrated on Saturday, May 28, the same day that the office of the Trent Valley Area Textile Joint Board is officially opened. The office is at 168½ Charlotte St.

and spoke briefly of the helpful work of the insurance men by encouraging the practice of saving and investment in homes.

Mr. Pearson was introduced by Mr. Jack Allen, president of the Association, and the thanks of the assembly was expressed to Mr. Pearson by Leslie Dunstall, Toronto, manager and vice president of the Life Underwriters Association of Canada.

Public Relations Affair

The dinner was arranged as one of the public relations affairs of the insurance men, and the opportunity of the public to hear Hon. Mr. Pearson was acknowledged by Mr. Don Loucks.

At the head table were: Mr. Pridham, Mayor Swanston and Mrs. Swanston; His Honor Judge Smoke and Mrs. Smoke, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen, Mr. Dunstall, and the guest of the evening, Mr. Pearson who was accompanied by Mrs. Pearson. The program included vocal solos by Don Landry.

"I assure you that I am delighted to be in Peterborough again," Mr. Pearson said. "I feel very much like an old boy, but by accident, if you like, because my father was a Methodist minister at George St. Church, and not of long residence in any one place. I am an old boy of eight Canadian municipalities. Without any invidious comparison I may say that no place means more to me than Peterborough because of my remembered enjoyment of my early life here and my associations with my father and grandfather both of whom preached at George St. Church. I am sorry that it remained for me to break that chain and make my way in a different direction. Some people would say, I suppose, not for the better.

I hope I will be pardoned for making personal mention of my old teacher, Mr. R. F. Downey. I don't know how he is on the curling ice, but I can testify that there were times when he used to make my hair curl as a boy. I have been subject to a great many pedagogues at school and in two universities, but there was not one of them who made a greater impression upon me than Mr. Downey."

Avoids Election

Mr. Pearson referred to the receipt of his invitation to Peterborough when there was nothing like a general election in the offing. "I gave your hosts an opportunity to postponed my visit, not to cancel it, because I was determined to accept it for some time, but they wrote me that they wished me to come, and felt that they could leave my speech to my discretion."

Mr. Pearson said he realized that at election time practically nothing was non-controversial, but there was one phase of it which he wished to mention. That aspect was the contrast between Canadian democracy in operation and political conditions in Europe especially in those countries under the Communistic despotsim.

"It should make us all feel proud that the Canadian people can meet this supreme test of a general election and come through with all its advantages to the state, and in the spirit of good sportsmanship and acceptance of the decision of the people.

It is an extremely fine thing that we can have several parties, now three or four, competing for [illegible] uniting again for the good government of Canada. One of those parties becomes the government of the day, another the opposition determined to see that the administration of the nation's affairs is carried on honestly and efficiently and for as short a time as possible."

Contrasting Methods

Mr. Pearson said the people of Canada would be still prouder of their country and its institutions if they could realize, as he did from his visits and living in Europe, the contrasting condition of the people especially in the countries affected by communism and those behind the iron curtain.

"I am glad to meet so many of you, and also my friend Mr. G. K. Fraser who has been with me as a member of the House and also in the United Nations. We have tried to keep our foreign policies as much as possible on a non-partisan basis, and for that reason members of the Opposition have been with us in the United Nations. The responsibility of governing rests, of course upon the government, and that applies to the Department of External Affairs, but we have been fortunate in lifting our foreign policy to a non-partisan level. On principle and basic policy the three leading parties in the House are agreed, and I think it is a good thing for Canada that we can face the world as a united people. As an American has said, our politics should end at the water's edge."

World Affairs Important

Mr. Pearson said there was nothing more important to the people of today than the play and interplay of international interests and forces. That sphere might seem far off to communities like Peterborough. "Those forces first showed in 1914, and some of my friends who left George St. did not come back. They have shown since then, and it is now true that the frontier of freedom runs down our main streets, and in the maintenance of freedom there can be no isolation."

"I think there is a new realization at Ottawa and throughout the country of the importance of international relations to ourselves. We used to leave those things to Britain, and they handled them with great skill and wisdom."

With the political develpment of Canada, and its assumption of a new responsibility in world affairs, one of the first things that had to be done was the upbuilding of the diplomatic service. Some people might regard it as a luxury, a waste of money, but Mr. Pearson said it was absolutely necessary to Canada's new position in the world.

150 Officials

"So, in 1928 after leaving the university, I was one of five officials comprising that department. Now there are 150 in the Department, including the officials abroad. That is a reflection of what the British used to do for us, and what we now have to do for ourselves."

The Department extended into the field of economics because a country in this age could not live to itself, set up a fence around its border and trade only among its own people. "So, our external affairs is a matter of life and death in international affairs and also as a matter of dollars and cents."

Mr. Pearson spoke of the rise and decline of the United Nations as an agency of guaranteeing security in its first conception and drafting. It was still a great forum in which the public opinion of the world could be discussed, but as an agency of security it had not succeeded.

The security council was established on the principle that the five great partners would be able to work together. The veto that was given to each of them was not so important in itself, but its exercise became an indication of what was wrong. The division in the council reached the stage in its third session where hope was almost abandoned of trying to work out a compromise.

Atlantic League

Mr. Pearson traced from that stalemate the growth of the idea of the Atlantic League, comprising a smaller group within the United Nations trying to work out a security agreement of their own. Canada was first to bring it formally on to the floor of the United Nations about a year ago as a contribution to peace.

"The countries represented in that group had confidence in one another, in their desire for peace and in their good faith. Essentially there was a willingness to agree, and so a month ago we signed in Washington the Atlantic Pact, one of the most important political pacts of our time. Those countries, and notably the United States, pledged themselves to come to the help of any one of the group if that member is attacked.

Prior to 1939 Canada hesitated about making any commitments of that kind. Our attitude was to wait until we could see how things developed. Canada has now committed herself to go to the help of a member nation if that nation is attacked, and more startling was the fact that the United States signed. Our countries recognized that our interests dictated our intervention. We have not placed chips on our shoulders, but the democratic, peace-loving group has declared itself ready to stand shoulder to shoulder if attacked. With all the resources of that group of nations, any would-be aggressor will think two or three times before making that attack."

Not Provocative Pact

It was not a provocative agreement, Mr. Pearson said, but it was a nice mixture of firmness and conciliation which had not escaped the ears and minds of the Kremlin. Signs pointing in that direction were the lifting of the Russian blockade of Berlin and the meeting of the foreign ministers in Paris next week.

Mr. Pearson closed his informal discussion of affairs with an outline of the Commonwealth meeting in London, which he attended as the representative of Canada. Its spirit and atmosphere was a refreshing contrast to the sense of frustration in the United Nations. The six meetings at No. 10 Downing St. produced an unanimous report, with a solution of one of the most ticklish problems that could have faced any group, if that group was not anxious to agree.

The question was: "Did we have room in the Commonwealth of Nations for a republic?" It involved the new position of India as an independent, sovereign republic.

"They said that if we liked to keep them, they would like to stay, but not on the basis of allegiance to the King."

Compromise between the positions of New Zealand and Australia on one hand, and India on the other, with Canada taking the middle way of conciliation, along with Britain, brought about agreement. In the first paragraph these willing and friendly nations, which had comprised the British Empire, described their grouping as the British Commonwealth of Nations, and in the last it was simply the Commonwealth of Nations. And that was the message the representatives, all of them Premiers except Mr. Pearson, carried to His Majesty the King.

Inspection Held Of Sea Cadets

Lt.-Commander David Olive, Royal Canadian Navy, Area Officer for Sea Cadets inspected Friday night the HMCS Howe, Peterborough Sea Cadet corps at the George St. wharf. On his inspection tour of the ship's company Lt.-Commander Olive was accompanied by Commanding Officer, Lieut. J. C. Raine and executive officer, Lieut. W. R. Thomas. The parade was under the command of Lieut. J. S. Gardiner, officer commanding Division 1.

As he inspected the corps, he spoke to each man. Lt.-Commander Olive asked them question regarding their schooling and their reasons for joining the cadets.

Falling in at the ship on George St. the cadets marched down to the George St. wharf. Here they lined up for inspection along the waterfront. After the inspection the cadets passed the reviewing stand in column of route.

HMCS Howe's two cutters, one manned by 10 men and the other by eight men under Sub-Lieut. Robert Shadgett and Sub-Lieut. Robert Robinson gave an exhibition on Little Lake.

During the inspection Lt.-Commander Olive commented highly on the Sea Cadet band, led by Sub-Lieut. Robinson. In the band there are three snare drums, two tenor drums, one bass drum and eight buglers.

Officers in charge of the divisions were Sub-Lieut. William Carr, Sub-Lieut. Shadgett, Sub-Lieut. Robert Moffatt, Lieut. Gardiner. Members of the Civilian Committee of sea cadets are Thomas Lillico, Les Davis, Col. Smillie, George Aboud and Jack Rogers. C. M. Sedgewick, secretary of the Ontario Sea Cadets Committee of the Navy League of Canada, was present.

HMCS Howe Sea Cadet Ship was formed in 1943 under Lieut. Stanley Longhurst. He was succeeded by Lieut. Charles Huffman. In 1946 Lieut. Raine took charge.

Health Program Expanded To Suit Russia

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., May 21 (CP)—Dr. Brock Chisholm said Friday he hopes the expanded 1950 program of the World Health Organization will meet the objections which led to the withdrawal of Russia, White Russia and the Ukraine.

The W.H.O director-general, formerly Canadian deputy minister of health, told a press conference he has had no word from the three governments since they announced last Febrary they no longer consider themselves members of the United Nations agency.

He said the Soviet countries had complained the W.H.O. program was not practical enough and too many Britons and Americans were among its officers.

The Canadian psychiatrist said since 1946 he had asked Russia repeatedly for Russian experts to work with W.H.O. but so far only two had been sent.

Dr. Chisholm said the proposed 1950 W.H.O. budget for roughly $17,000,000 will come up for ratification at the organization's world assembly at Rome June 13 when some 70 countries, including Canada, will be represented.

The 1949 budget was about $7,000,000.

The new program will continue to give top priority to tuberculosis and venereal disease control, nutrition, maternal and child health and hygiene and sanitation.

OBITUARIES

THOMAS ARMSTRONG

CAVAN, May 21 — (ENS) — Thomas Armstrong, a resident of Cavan township for over fifty years passed away on Tuesday May 17, in the Civic Hospital, Peterborough where he was taken for treatment on Sunday. He had been in his usual health until two weeks ago when he suffered a heart attack from which he never recovered.

Mr. Armstrong was looking forward to celebrating his seventy-third birthday on May 22

He was the son of Robert Armstrong and Ann Malone and was born in Sligo, Ireland in 1876. His father served with the Regular Irish Regiment for years and was a veteran of the Crimean War and the Indian Mutiny. Of their eight children Thomas was the youngest. One brother and one sister passed away in Ireland and two sisters after coming to Canada, one in early childhood and one at the age of 21 years.

He was six years old when he crossed the Atlantic and with his parents and sisters and brother lived for several years in Hope township, and later years in Millbrook. When a young man he took up farming in Cavan township and about thirty years ago he bought the farm on the seventh line of Cavan where he lived until October of last year. Sixteen years ago he married Maud Moore a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Moore of the eighth line Cavan who survives him. After selling the farm they moved to Cavan village from where the funeral was held on Thursday at 2 p.m. and later a service in St. John's Church Ida of which the deceased was an active member for many years. The Rector Rev. Mr. McLean had charge of the services. The choir led in singing accompanied by organist Miss Jean Leugh.

The pallbearers were six nephews Robert Armstrong, Fairmount, Austin and Clifford Williamson Peterborough, Morris Williamsbn Toronto and John and Joseph Thompson Millbrook. The flower bearers were Fraser Carr, Donald Thompson, Gerald Merton and Allen and Ross Thompson.

Surviving him besides his wife are one brother James Armstrong Cavan and two sisters, Mrs. Wesley Williamson and Mrs. James Thompson, Millbrook.

Interment was in St. John's Cemetry Ida.

Lakefield Cadets Accorded High Praise At Inspection

LAKEFIELD, May 21 (ENS)—Lieut. C. G. Forrest, cadet training officer, on inspecting the Lakefield High School Cadets complimented the corps on their splendid performance.

"Particularly impressive," said Lieut. Forrest, "was the unscheduled part of the inspection when the corps marched into the school, when the sudden downpower of rain came. The cadets showed discipline and precision never once breaking file. Other outstanding features of the inspection were the knots and lashing and motor mechanics."

Allan Clark, member of the Lakefield District High School Board, brought congratulations from the board on the fine performance.

The fined craft display had the spectators mouth's watering as Cadets D. Calberry and D. McCracken cooked lamb chops over an open fire in front of their tent.

Presents Certificate

Principal R. E. Sutton in presenting the morse signalling certificates complimented the boys on their splendid work especially Cadet John Harding a senior for his instruction. These certificates were presented to cadets Burger, Browne, Credicott, Earnshaw, Freeburn, Northey, J. Northey R. Pearson, Rebertson Sloan and Twist.

All the cadets took part in the Physical Training demonstration

Knots and Lashing were shown by Cadets Blake, Burger and Hunter.

Internal combustion engines by Cadets Dec, Sabitino, Sloan and Wilford.

Signalling—Morse Code. Cadets Credicott, Harding, J. Northey, Robertson and Twist.

Special mention was made of the band, a real credit to the school.

Nurse Describes Life In India

MILLBROOK, May 21—(ENS)—Mrs. Fred Winslow and Mrs. Lawrence Winslow were joint hostesses for the monthly meeting of the Golden Links Mission Circle Tuesday.

The guest speaker was Miss Olive Smith, Public Health Nurse of Millbrook, whose childhood was spent in India. She gave the 34 members present interesting glimpses into the everyday life of India. She drew attention to the fact that although illiteracy is prevalent thre, India, with its vast population, has more educated people than Canada.

Miss Margaret Smith, home from United Church Training School in Toronto, told of the various posts that members of the graduating class were going out to fill. Miss Smith has just completed her first year and she is to spend her summer vacation travelling by caravan to outlying points in western Canada not served regularly by a church.

Refreshments were served by Miss M. Skitch, Mrs. D. Lunn and Mrs. Wideman.

Mrs. Nobes Hostess To Marmora Institute

MARMORA, May 21—(ENS)—The monthly meeting of Marmora Women's Institute was held on Wdnesday evening at the home of Mrs. Ethel Nobes. The president, Mrs. Eugene Brady, was in the chair and there was a good attendance of members. The roll call was "Do's and don'ts for the sick room."

Monies collected on the town canvass for contributions to the hall. Decoration funds were handed in by canvassers. The secretary was instructed to write a letter of thanks to Marmora and Lake Township Council for their valued subscription to this fund.

The Institute decided to accede to the request of the Marmora village to undertake the work of placing curtains in the town hall. Mrs. E. C. Prentice reported on the progress of "The Kitchen Cabinet Orchestra" which will put on its entertainment in the town hall on June 8 and 9. The Institute accepted the invitation of Mrs. M. Thomson to hold the June meeting in her home.

Seek To Share Estate

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Mary Bullock Powers, who lived a 19th century life behind the locked doors of a New York hotel before she died last July 20, has been named by two men as their mother, Surrogates Court records identified the men as W. Clay Powers of Andover, Hampshire, England and Raymond Joseph Powers of New York. They are among 200 persons seeking to share in the $4,638,478 estate left by the eccentric 72-year-old woman.

Convict 14 C.S.U. Men

VANCOUVER, May 21 (CP)—Fourteen members of the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) were convicted Friday of refusing to obey lawful commands of their skipper, Capt. W. H. Alexander of the freighter Islandside in Port here May 9. Thirteen were remanded to Wednesday for sentence. The ship's mate, Wallace Evans, was given suspended sentence when he testified he turned in his keys May 6. The men refused to obey the captain's orders to work the ship or vacate.

Model "F" Series...

The Oil Burner with the Free-Wheeling Hub
Well Worth waiting for—

The engineer who discovered it knew exactly what was needed and went right to the heart of the trouble. And now, a simple device solves a perplexing problem.

When pump and motor stop, "the fan with the free-wheeling hub" continues to supply air until the oil burns itself out clean! No more soot, smoke or shudder—just clean, quiet operation!

The new free-wheeling fan marks a distinct advance and a long-needed one —in pressure atomizing burners.

HERE'S WHAT IT DOES!

- Maintains air supply till fire burns out clean.
- Gives clean stops without soot, smoke or shudder.
- Reduces fouling of electrodes.
- The simplest solution to the "After-Fire" problem.

SHUR-HEET models provide

Low original cost.
Economical, trouble-free operation.
Designed by expert engineers.
Precision-built of the finest materials.
Rugged, yet beautifully streamlined.
Clean and quiet in operation.

A range of models from a [illegible] for [illegible] house to a large apartment building or for industrial boilers up to 50-horsepower.

Trade Talks

For any Canadian politician to believe that he or his party can remedy the international trading situation, or Canada's part in it, by quick measures shows a lack of realism. When Mr. Drew, speaking in the Maritimes last week, talked about immediate action to make the pound and the dollar freely convertible, Mr. St. Laurent properly chided him. There is more to the problem than one man or the Canadian Government can solve alone.

• • •

For that reason Canada, its trade experts and its Cabinet Ministers, have been actively and for a long while collaborating with other countries in trade and financial affairs. Canada participates in the World Bank, the International Monetary Fund, the International Trade Organization, and in a hundred ways is trying, for her own as for the world's sake, to restore natural trade channels and revive healthy international commerce.

• • •

Canada is a major trading country; it can almost be said to live by foreign trade. During the first post-war years its foreign commerce, supported strongly by credits, continued to expand. In 1947, for instance, our total trade was nearly 5½ billion dollars, and there was an excess of exports over imports of $237,846,285. While most of that trade was with Britain and the United States, the trade even with them cannot continue to flourish until their trade with other countries comes into better balance. It is that balance Canada seeks. So do most civilized countries. It cannot be achieved overnight. Bi-lateral bargaining and subsidy measures (like E.R.P. and our gifts and loans to Briton) are transitional and transitory.

• • •

Long-term measures are being taken, such as the multilateral Geneva Trade Agreements of 1947, involving 23 nations and a hundred pairs of negotiations which were consolidated into schedules covering 45,000 separate tariff items. This agreement came into force provisionally in January, 1948. The Geneva Conference was followed by the Havana Conference of 53 nations and the Havana Charter, signed by 53 nations. So the way has been cleared for reductions of tariffs, the freer flow of goods, and sound principles for international commerce are being formulated.

• • •

The Third Session of the contracting parties to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, (the 1947 Geneva Agreement) is now being held at Annecy, France. The trade negotiations at Annecy are on the same basis as the Geneva ones. Negotiations are first entered into by the various countries on a bilaterial and on a product-by-product basis, but all bi-lateral agreements must be mutually beneficial.

• • •

Even as the trade schedules now stand they are proving practical and are stimulating as well as freeing trade. Trade in which the tariff concessions were made accounts for two-thirds of the import trade of the 23 contracting parties and one-half of the total world imports. It is by such means and not a slap-dash electioneering statement in the Maritimes that Canada's trade will be kept healthy.

Increased Education Brings New Problems

A good deal of publicity has been given to the case of the small boy who was found recently attempting to hang himself, imitating his procedure from a "comic book" which was open at his side. As the Montreal Star says, there is nothing comic about this incident, and the people who are eager to abolish or control comic books have made the most of it. The Star says, in part:

Censorship is one remedy proposed. Censorship raises another problem. By whom is it to be done, and who is to set the standards? There are many who do not like the idea of children picking up ideas dangerous for them from comics who do not like the idea of censorship either...

If enough parents were able to influence children's reading by sharing it, there would be no need of censorship. The crime comics could lie on the newsstand and gather dust, and no one would be any worse.

This is excellent as far as it goes, but in our opinion it does not go far enough in the direction of realism. The Star's words conjure up a picture of a Canadian home in which the parents are capable of distinguishing good reading from bad, and of exercising a benevolent censorship upon their children's pastimes. Such homes are fewer than we like to imagine. The bitter fact is that great numbers of parents read very little, nor do they think of their children's addiction to the comic books as a form of reading; they probably would call it "amusement" if they were compelled to give it a name. They do not know how potent an influence on the mind reading is, because reading is an incidental, rather than an essential, element in their own lives.

Such people, a century ago, would have been illiterate, or almost so. They have been taught to read and write in our day, but they are still, in the deeper sense, illiterate. They know nothing about books. Teachers will corroborate the statement that a majority of children in our Canadian schools appear to come from homes where books, in any wide sense, are unknown, and are regarded, if at all, with apathy or suspicion.

Our increased scope of education in the modern world has taught everybody to read. It will be a few more centuries before it can teach them what to read and how to read it. Meanwhile we do not thing that censorship offers a solution to the problem. We must go forward, and all forms of censorship are backward steps. In the Golden Future every man will be his own censor.

An Appeal To Build A Church

The South End of Peterborough is quickly becoming a large and important quarter of this community; a great number of new houses have been built there since the war, and services of all kinds are springing up to serve the people who live in them. Among other developments, St. George's Anglican Church finds that it needs a new building to house its growing congregation, and is now collecting funds for that purpose.

St. George's has been in existence for forty years. It was founded as a mission of St. John's, but on May 1 of this year it became an independent parish, and now receives no aid from outside its own bounds. It was courageous of St. George's to take this step at a time when it was plain that the church—a former schoolhouse to which a small chancel has been added—was no longer large enough or safe enough for its needs.

The responsibility for raising the money to build the new St. George's rests first of all upon its parishioners. They have met that responsibility with a generosity which commands admiration, for theirs is not a wealthy parish. They are now asking for assistance from Anglicans and from any other people who are interested in their project elsewhere in the city.

We are bringing this campaign to the attention of our readers for a particular reason: St. George's parish intends to build a church which, without being in any way pretentious, is of unusual architectural beauty. The plans are prepared, and they are a combination of modernity with tradition which is striking and pleasing; we can honestly say that we have never seen a finer plan for a modern church of moderate size. The people of St. George's parish have cut their garment according to their cloth; they are not building wastefully, but they are building the best church possible on a modest budget.

The South End—indeed, the whole of Peterborough—is not rich in architectural beauties. For this reason we think that there will be many people who, as an act of goodwill, will be glad to help St. George's parish to build a church which will bring new beauty to Peterborough.

Russian agricultural experts are going to try the experiment of growing watermelon in the Moscow area. Among the sights we hope to see in the future are Joe and Andrei with seeds in their ears.

A Harvard scientist says that the clothes of the future will be made of synthetics which can be turned into sugar and eaten. The lover of the future who tells his sugar that she looks good enough to eat may be taken at his word.

Medical statistics show that girls today are taller, heavier and more muscular than their mothers. This should put a stop to that spiteful talk about beach wear: it isn't the suits which are smaller—it's the girls who are bigger.

Diary Of A Garden Philosopher

By SAMUEL MARCHBANKS

SUNDAY: A man who knows a lot about pigs was telling me of the unmotherly behaviour of sows this afternoon, as we drove through a stretch of smiling farm country. I had always supposed that a sow had nine piglets at a time, but he said that twelve or fourteen was more likely to be the number, and unless her master is quick the sow is capable of eating them all within an hour. A more doting, child-loving type of sow may content herself with eating the "wreaklings", or runts, whose chance in life is not good anyway. If a wreakling escapes this drastic form of population-control its lot is likely to be a hard one... This confirms a low opinion I formed of sows in my childhood, when I was chased by one which may conceivably have mistaken me for a wreakling, and sought me as an afternoon snack. It would be hard to popularize Mothers' Day in the porcine world.

✧ ✧ ✧

MONDAY: Was visited this afternoon by two gentlemen from Toronto who said that they were Progressive Conservative organizers; they apparently did not know that I was the leader of the Marchbanks Humanist Party, for they took me to their bosoms, saying that they had always understood that I was one of themselves. They were both, they confessed, new to politics, being "public relations counsel" by trade—in other words, hired publicity agents. . . Things have come to a pretty pass, in my opinion, when political parties employ such Babes in the Wood to do the work which down-to-earth political workers could do much better. Politics is a curious combination of art, magic and guile, and if public relations men possessed even a smidgeon of any of these qualities they would not be in that laughable and pretentious trade. Having shown themselves utterly without knowledge of me or my politics, and having said that they enjoyed my articles in a paper for which I have never written a line, they asked for my support and departed, leaving me to roll about my office floor, weak with laughter.

✧ ✧ ✧

TUESDAY: Spent some time this evening unsuccessfully trying to cheer up a friend of mine whose physician has put him on a diet, to reduce his weight. The diet is the usual repulsive conglomeration of salads, lean meat, and all the nastier vegetables, and no cake, pie, ice cream, trifle, or any of the things which make eating a joy. In addition my friend has to take tablets containing a new drug, called Tinkertum, which is supposed to lessen the desire for food. It seems to me perverse and unnatural to kill one's appetite. There are, I understand, people who have poor appetites (though none of them ever seem to visit the Towers) who would give vast sums of money to be able to go to the table with zest. Surely a man who possesses the immeasureable boon of a noble appetite is wrong if he abuses his gift? However, I concealed these reflections from my friend, and painted a glowing picture of that happy day when he would be able to see his knees again, and the pants of his dress suit would fit him. I told him (with strong mental reservations) that losing weight would add to his life expectancy. But what, I pondered, has the wretch to live for if he cannot eat?

✧ ✧ ✧

WEDNESDAY: Fell in the street today, in such a way as to ruin a good shoe and burst the knee out of the right leg of a prefectly good pair of trousers. Was profoundly annoyed, for I am not given to such clownish antics, and it is so long since I fell that I cannot remember when it was. Psychologists, of course, insist that such mishaps have a deeper meaning, and that my physical fall symbolized some inward lapse of grace. Perhaps they are right. Why else would I, the veteran of many slippery winters, the confident treader on waxed floors, the lissome leaper into soapy bathtubs, fall on a perfectly level stretch of cement, and rupture my trouser-knee?

✧ ✧ ✧

THURSDAY: An Indian woman with a load of baskets called at the Towers today and I bought a basket or two, not because I wanted them but because I have a weakness for door-to-door peddlers. Not, let it be known, itinerant vendors of brushes, encyclopaedias and miraculous spot-removers, but such picturesque folk as Indian basket sellers, and gypsies who want to mend my kitchen pots. Gypsies are rarities in Canada now, but I can recall the time when every summer brought a few tribes of them through Ontario. The young people were often of remarkable beauty, but the older gypsies—particularly the hags—were fascinatingly grotesque. I liked them because they had the gift of the gab; they never lacked for words, and they had a ceaseless flow of flattery. I like flattery, not because it massages my ego (for I am too crafty myself to be deceived by the honeyed words of a gypsy) but because it is a neglected form of art. A gypsy who could address an Ontario housewife with legs like gateposts and a face like a meataxe as "pretty lady" while attempting to sell her a ten cent comb for a dollar was an artist, and I have a weakness for artists.

✧ ✧ ✧

FRIDAY: To see a travelling theatrical company in "It Pays To Advertise", a piece which had itself been advertised as "by George M. Cohan", and also as "the play that kept New York laughing for two years". The play is not by Cohan, so far as I know; it is not listed among his works. And though it may have kept New York laughing for two years it certainly did so quite a while ago, for I myself saw it over twenty years ago, being played in a Chatauqua tent by Percival Vivian. I really think it is time that such companies as this stopped imposing on service clubs and similar organizations with such palsied dramas. This one was so old that it even presented a soap manufacturer who was supposed to be ignorant of the value of advertising in selling soap. In short, the play was written before the advent of radio, and thus belonged to the P.M., or Pre-Marconi period of history.

✧ ✧ ✧

SATURDAY: Gardened furiously all afternoon; during the month of May I am an indefatigable gardener; after May I am readily fatigable. I watered new bushes; I snipped tufts of grass; I dug up weeds with roots like parsnips; I hauled rubbish from one place to another. But my chief job was cutting the vines out of a large honeysuckle bush. For years it has been encompassed and strangled in vines, like a struggling soul in the grip of its vices, and today I decided to free it. I did so, but when I had finished the bush looked as though it would never be the same again. This caused me to meditate profoundly; if we were all delivered from the entanglements and alliances which we deplore, would we really be any the better for it? Perhaps not. . .I have always found that gardening is provocative of a good deal of rather cheap and easy philosophizing, which gives me a flattering sensation that I am really thinking.

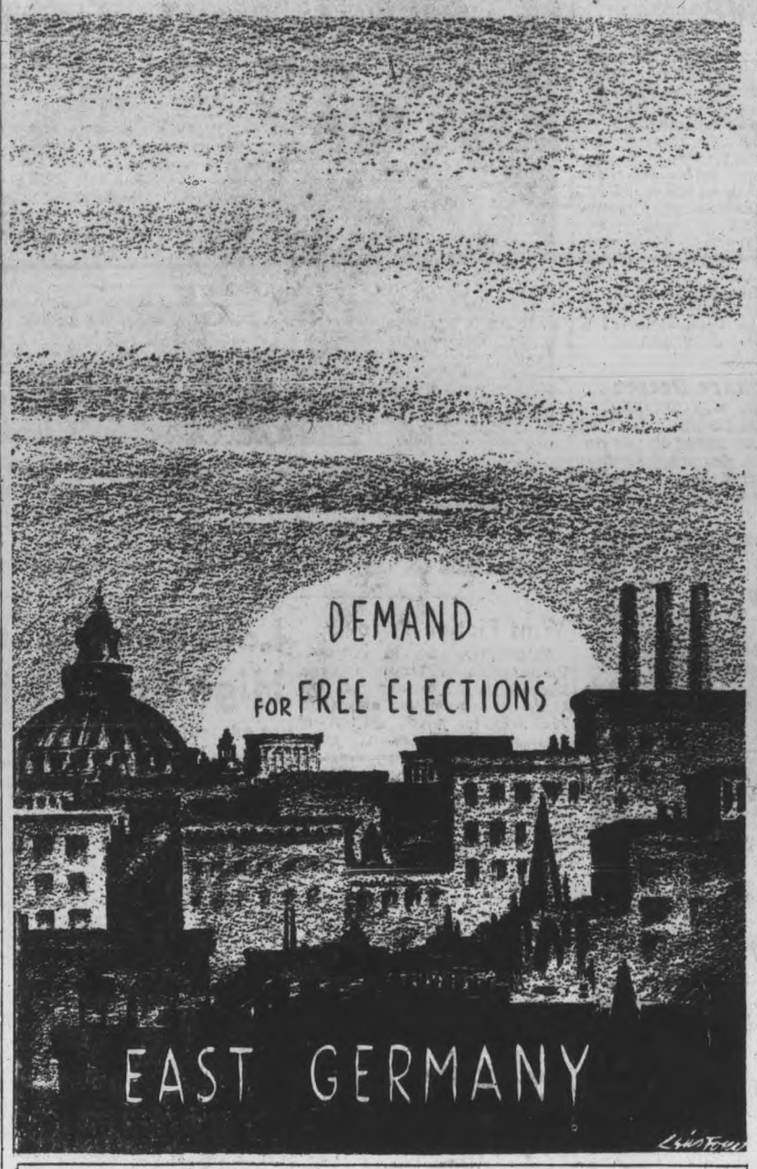
RISING IN THE EAST



Political Attack On T.C.A.

(OTTAWA CITIZEN)

IT is hardly likely that the merits of an aircraft engine have provided an election issue before. Mr. Drew's attack on the North Star fleet to Trans-Canada Airlines in the Parliament has its echoes in the campaign now raging. This may mean an unusual interest on the part of the Canadian public in aeronautical engineering, a sign of air-mindedness. Or it may mean that Mr. St. Laurent is right after all, that there is a scarcity of significant issues.

The average person will bog down quickly when it comes to discussing the technical claims for and against the British Rolls Royce Merlin motor (with which the North Star planes are equipped) and the American Pratt and Whitney radial air-cooled engine (which Mr. Drew and some of his newspaper supporters appear to favour). Nor will anyone become excited if it turns out that TCA is going out of North Stars and into something newer and bigger, whatever power equipment it may have. That would mean only that TCA is following a progressive policy of keeping abreast in aircraft and equipment.

The North Star has served Canada well in the period of postwar adjustment, when air lines in the United States possessed a world advantage in drawing on air transport equipment and experience developed in American bombing operations from Berlin to Hiroshima. It is not the North Star that is on trial in the election. It has carried thousands of passengers to Britain and back and across Canada, without losing one. After all, the other air lines use the North Star and nobody in the airline business is going to stop using the Merlin engine on the basis of Mr. Drew's opinion.

Mr. Drew has described the North Star as an "orphan" and a "hybrid," because it is a combination of American airframe and British motor. He said he wanted to examine the contract with Canadair Ltd. He spoke of the North Star "creating grave difficulties for those who operate those aircraft" and referred to "very real disabilities in both military and civilian operations" with North Star. Finally, he suggested it was advisable to "go back to the Pratt and Whitney motor"—and this seems to be his main point against the North Star and TCA. From these remarks in Parliament has arisen the controversy over engine failures on North Star aircraft.

This constitutes an attack on the safety record of Trans-Canada Airlines and it is a matter of grave importance. A few more facts may be cited to show why. The air passenger relies, not on his knowledge of aircraft but on the air line, to carry him safely. He is influenced by gossip. The greatest blow to an air line would be to give it a bad name. Fortunately, TCA's record is beyond dispute. Moreover, safety in air transport is a public regulation, both nationally and internationally. Canadian Pacific Air-lines and British Overseas Airways have purchased North Star, choosing them on the merits, performance and other advantages of the aircraft.

As a public utility, Trans-Canada Airlines is vulnerable to political attacks. But when such attacks strike at the public confidence in the safety of its operations, then most people will conclude that politics is being carried too far.

Bible Message

Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily oppresseth me.... What time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me. Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me for evil. They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul....

Indian Song For Fine Weather

(Paraphrased from the Indian of Queen Charlotte Islands, B.C., by Constance Lindsay Skinner).

O good Sun,
Look thou down upon us:
Shine, shine on us, O Sun,
Gather up the clouds, wet, black, under thy arms—
That the rains may cease to fall.
Because thy friends are all here on the beach
Ready to go fishing—
Ready for the hunt.
Therefore look kindly on us, O good Sun!
Give us peace within our tribe
And with all our enemies.
Again, again we call—
Hear us, hear us, O good Sun!

Tires Hard To Flatten

The flat tire, a major nuisance to motoring America, is gradually being shoved toward oblivion.

Despite prices three to four times as high as those on regular tubes, drivers are swinging increasingly to the hard-to-flatten type of inner tube. The trend, say industry spokesmen, means manufacturers in the future will be making fewer tubes (because they'll last longer) in relation to the number of tire casings turned out. This prospect is strengthened by the longer life which synthetic rubber is giving to ordinary tubes.

The fewer-flats tubes are of two types—"puncture-sealing" and "blowout-safety". Added to their family last year was a tubeless tire, which also has hard-to-flatten attributes.—Wall Street Journal.

Empire Celebrates May 24 Victoria Born 130 Years Ago

The 24th of May this year is the 130th anniversary of the birth of Queen Victoria. She was born at Kensington Palace on May 24th, 1819. Her mother was a widow, a German, and had already had two children by her first husband. Prince Emich Karl of Leiningen Victoria herself was the only child of Edward Duke of Kent, fourth son of King George III, and of this German widow, Princess Victoria Mary Louisa of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha.

The circumstances leading up to her birth were peculiar. In 1817 Princess Charlotte, the daughter of the Prince Regent (who became George IV and acted as king in his father George III's place during George III's frequent periods of madness) died in childbirth, and her death removed the only legitimate offspring of the 13 sons and daughters of George III.

There were numerous illegitimate offspring, but they could not inherit the throne. In order to remedy the lack of heirs, three of the sons of George III, the dukes of Clarence, Kent and Cambridge, all of them well advanced in middle life, married in the same year, 1818. The two children of the duke of Clarence died in infancy; the Duke of Cambridge had a son, also duke of Cambridge (1819-1904), Victoria's only first cousin. He was for forty years commander-in-chief of the British army, but since the senior duke of Cambridge was younger than the duke of Kent, Victoria became heir to the Throne.

She was christened Alexandrina Victoria. She never knew her father, because he, the duke of Kent, died when she was eight months old.

George III died in 1820. George IV, his brother reigned until 1830. William IV, another brother, until 1837. Upon his death Victoria became Queen. She was then 13.

When she ascended the throne, after a sequence of dissolute or irresponsible kings, a large sector of the British public were thoroughly sickened of royalty, and looked for a speedy coming of a Republic. But Victoria wore the crown for 63 years, and at her death in 1901, the British Empire was larger than it had ever been; the crown's prestige was very high, and it not only signified rule over Great Britain and Ireland and the dominions beyond the seas, but the Empire of India. (Victoria had been made Empress of India in Disraeli's time.)

Attempts have been made to make the Queen's Birthday an Empire Day, but in Canada it will always be 'Victoroa Day," the Queen's Birthday, or simply "The 24th". In England, where the holiday is not observed, it is called Empire Day. Here in this country school children observe Empire Day on the 23rd of May.

The idea of an Empire Day originated with Mrs. Clementina Fessenden wife of the Rev. E. J. Fessenden, rector of St. John's Church, Ancaster, outside Hamilton. Mrs. Fessenden was a relative by marriage of the Fessenden who was for many years principal of the Peterborough Collegiate, before Dr. H. R. H. Kenner, and when the Collegiate school was one of the Central School buildings. She was a charter member of the IODE. The IODE is a keen sponsor of Empire Day and each year attempts to increase its observance.

The Earl of Meath in 1904 took up the idea of Empire Day, and held meetings to bring about its celebration in England. To him and Mrs. Fessenden belongs the the honour of beginning this patriotic celebration.

The London (England) monument to the Earl of Meath carries this inscription: "A goodly heritage to be fashioned like unto the City of God." This was the ideal he hoped the Empire to attain.

PETERBOROUGH PERSONALITIES

Peterborough-Bred Sculptress Of Renown Katherine Wallis, Now 88, Still Works

In the pioneer days of Peterborough when the immense tasks of overcoming the elements and building up a livelihood afforded little opportunity for art and culture, there lived on the outskirts of what is today the city of Peterborough, a young woman who has since become renowned throughout the world as a sculptress. She is Miss Katherine Wallis, who ranks with the contemporary artists and some few years ago was elected Societaire of the Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts of Paris. The first years of her life until she reached womanhood were spent at her parent's home near Jackson Park.

The most familiar picture of life in Peterborough during the 60's and 70's is of hardship with few of the comforts of the homes left behind by settlers from all parts of Britain. The story of Miss Wallis' girlhood, however, throws light on a different aspect of a family of pioneer parents.

The brilliant artistic career of Miss Wallis is outlined in a biography written by A. Roger Collins, recently published privately. It can be had for $3.50 from Mrs. Alexander Collins, c-o The Bank of Montreal, Walkerton, Ont. The book, well illustrated, describes the family life of the sculptress at the beautiful home west of Jackson's Park; a life more reminiscent of European culture than that to be found generally in pioneer Upper Canada.

The way of life which the Wallis family brought to Peterborough is indicated by the following quotation from Mrs. Collins' preface to the biography:

"As culture has, invariably, a refining influence on character, it is obvious that our country has been blessed indeed by those who brought from the Old World thoughts and beliefs of vital value, and knowledge and ideas of gracious living."

Miss Wallis' father, James Wallis left Scotland for Canada in 1832 and built the first sawmill at Fenelon Falls. The house in which he first lived in Peterborough still stands on Aylmer St. at the southeast corner of Dalhousie.

After a few years he moved to Merino, the beautiful stone house half a mile west of Jackson's Park this district. During Captain Wallis' day it was a real show-place with driveways, terraces, sunken gardens, and tennis courts; a remarkable establishment for mid-19th century Peterborough. The building has lately been converted into apartments by its present owner, G. H. Roper.

Every member of the Wallis family was in some way artistically gifted, Mrs. Collins says. Her little studio in which she worked with easel, palette and brush and the family library which contained volumes of the contemporary Scott, Fielding, Swift and Byron must have created a centre of culture and relief in a country where toil was the order of the day.

When still a young girl Miss Wallis made a trip to Britain, the first step in a life of travel, to visit relatives in Scotland. Then she saw the Museum at Naples and it was while she was there that she realised how much greater power she found in sculpture than painting, as a means of expression. She visited Dresden, which in those days was a haven for artists from all parts of the world. At the Royal College of Art in London she began serious study of sculpture and on the advice of her masters Sir Edward Lanteri and Stephen Webb, she made Paris her headquarters where, during the next 30 years, she developed her sculpting talent. She was for a time a pupil of Rodin.

Mrs. Collins' biography describes Miss Wallis study of animals at the Jardin des Plants at Paris, giving an intimate picture of the artist and the triumphs which led her finally to the coveted honor of being elected Societaire of the Societe Nationale des Beaux Arts. She is the only Canadian artist to have had this honor.

Miss Wallis' travels brought her back to Canada and Peterborough. Shortly after the First World War she exhibited in Montreal and two of her works were purchased for the gallery in Montreal and another for the National Gallery at Ottawa. She spent three years in Peterborough during which time she had many associations with the Women's Art Association. In 1947 her La Lutte Pour La Vie, carved in Senegal mahogany was placed in the National Gallery at Ottawa.

One of the most treasured possessions of Mrs. Frederick Delafosse, 457 Water St., is a pair of figures modelled by Miss Wallis which the artist gave to her friend some years ago. The statues, done in terra cotta, are named L'Alsace and La Lorraine.

Among Miss Wallis' best-known works is "Mercury Charmed By His Own Invention," a delightful figure of the naked Mercury. The piece is in the Royal Ontario Museum, but the original model of it is in Peterborough, a gift of the sculptress to the Women's Art Association. The Art Association having no home of its own, the "Mercury" was for a time placed in the Library. Now it is kept in the YWCA., where it is on view all the time.

Miss Wallis, now aged 88, is living in retirement at the home of a cousin in southern California, at Santa Cruz. She has indeed lived up to the family motto "Fortis et Fidelis" (Strong and Faithful) and added lustre to Canadian sculpture.

SOMER IS YCOMEN IN

(This is the earliest known song in the English tongue).

Somer is ycomen in,
Loud sing, cuckoo;
Groweth seed and bloometh mead
And springeth the wood new,
Sing, cuckoo.
Ewe bleateth after lamb,
Loweth after calf coo;

Bullock sterteth
Buck verteth,
Merrily sing, cuckoo,
Cuckoo, cuckoo.
Well sings thou, cuckoo,
No cease thou never noo.

Confederation Sq. Memorial Recalls 2nd Riel Rebellion

By C. H. IRESON

At the northeast corner of Confederation Park stands a memorial which, though overshadowed by the Great War memorial in the centre of the Park, is not without a simple quiet dignity of its own. Examining carefully one will find two inscriptions thereon. That on the east side reads as follows:

"Pro Patria
Capt. Edward T. Brown
Fish Creek 1885 Batoche"

And on the west side.

"A tribute to Canadian volunteers and, in memory of Captain Edward T. Brown, Boulton Scouts, a native of this county who fell at Batoche, May 12, 1885."

On March 26, 1885, a dispatch was received by Col. J. Z. Rogers, of the 57th Regiment, the Peterborough Rangers, from Col. Williams of Ottawa, stating that he had been authorized to raise a regiment for service in the north west and asking Col. Rogers to supply a company.

Norwood, Keene and Hastings were at once advised. There was, as usual in this district, an immediate and numerous response, and ten times the number of men required volunteered their services.

Time was evidently considered of great importance, as they were ordered to report to Kingston in two days and, as a fact, at 7 a.m. on April 1, 1885, the selected men thereafter known as "G" company, Midland Regiment, or Boulton Scouts, under the Command of Capt. J. Burke, of Norwood, marched amid cheering crowds to entrain, being briefly addressed by the Mayor, George A. Cox, before starting.

While at Kingston the men received supplies of comforts, warm underclothing, etc. forwarded by a committee of local ladies.

From Kingston they were sent north on April 6 via the Kingston and Pembroke Railway and reach Mattawa. They then marched across the ice of Lake Superior in a blinding snowstorm and eventually reached Winnipeg on April 14. They then proceeded via Qu' Appelle and Swift Current to Clarke's Landing where they joined General Middleton's forces on May 5 and took part in the Battle of Batoche on May 12.

During the operations Capt. Edward T. Brown, remembered in Confederation Park, was shot and killed. He was the son of Mr. E. Brown, of Douro, and had gone west with a mining survey party in 1879. He was buried on the banks of the Saskatchewan River The 90th Foot of Winnipeg with the Midland Regiment provided the funeral cortege when he was buried, with full military honours.

Company "G" Midland Regiment reached Peterborough on July 23, at 5 p.m. Greeted by enormous crowds, they marched to the Drill Hall where they were entertained to a sumptuous supper with speeches by Mayor Cox and others. As a practical form of appreciation each man was presented with a ten-dollar gold piece.

To commemorate the expedition and to honour the memory of Capt. Brown, a subscription was taken up and the memorial erected.

The "Captain Edward Brown Memorial Fountain", as it was then known was publicly unveiled on March 4, 1886, when General Middleton and his staff visited Peterborough. There were the usual ceremonious proceedings and the General and his staff were entertained by the officers of the 57th Regiment at a banquet at the Oriental Hotel, Hunter Street (now a furniture shop.)

And that in brief is the connection of this city and district with the Northwest Rebellion of 1885.

As a matter of record it may be of interest to give the composition of the local contingent. It contains some well-known names—Capt. Thomas Burke, Capt. E. Brown, Lieut. F. H. Brennan, 2nd Lt. Nelles, 3rd Lt. Wehan, Col. Sergeants P. Myles and Titler, Corporals S. Hendren, George E. Mark, and A. B. Rogers, and from Peterborough H. A. Hannah, R. G. Kelly, T. Billings, W. Reynolds, W. Crouter, E. Desgood, C. Parks, S. Rush, W. B. Brown, F. Daly, Downer, M. Matheson, W. Cook, G. Crouter, J. Roberts, W. McDonnell.

From Ashburnham: T. Graham, F. T. Tyther, J. E. Cochrane, A. B. Rogers, W. Tanner, J. Crown. From Norwood: M. Seeny, H. Hogan, H. Hill, S. Hendren, C. Wood, J. Cummings. From Keene: W. Wedlock, J. McFee, G. Mark, A. Ross, M. Weir, D. McFarlane, A. Phillips. From Hastings: M. Breckenridge, J. Thompson, J. Anderson, H. Riggs, M. Sedgewick and J. Lynch.

"MERCURY CHARMED BY HIS OWN INVENTION" is the name given this graceful piece by the sculptress Katherine Wallis. The photograph is of the original plaster model now in the Y.W.C.A., Peterborough, as a gift from the artist to the local Women's Art Association. The Roman god Mercury is the Greek god Hermes who invented the stringed musical instrument called cithara, a kind of lute. The Mercury or Hermes sculptured by Miss Wallis has the picture of the nude, beardless youth carved by the great Greek sculptor, Praxiteles c 350 B.C. Thee finished bronze made from the original in the Y.W.C.A. is in the Royal Ontario Museum.

Kennedy Treasure of Giants Blanks Cincinnati Reds 5-0

By RALPH RODEN,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

New York Giants are beginning to reap some dividends from the $23,000 they shelled out for pitcher Montia Kennedy in 1946.

After years of frustration Kennedy is making that price tag look cheap with some of the niftiest pitching by a Giant lefthander since the days of King Carl Hubbell.

So far this season, Kennedy has turned in four victories, one more than he recorded for the Giants last year.

Kennedy pitched the Giants into undisputed possession of first place in the National League Friday with the finest performance of his career, a 5-0 two-hit triumph over the ambitious Cincinnati Reds.

The 27-year-old southpaw faced only 29 batters, walked none, fanned two, and retired the last 14 Red sin order.

Ted Kluzewski beat out a roller in the third inning and Jimmy Bloodworth singled to left in the fifth for the lone Cincinnati blow.

The Giants decided the game in the first inning, scoring three runs after Howie Fox disposed of the first two hitters. Two walks and three singles did the damage.

Nose Out Braves

Pittsburgh helped the Giants attain the lead by nosing out Boston Braves, who shared the top rung with the Giants at the day's start, 2-1, under the lights at Pittsburgh.

Rookie Bill Werle, outpitched another recruit, Bob Hall, to post his third victory for the Pirates.

St. Louis Cardinals turned back Brooklyn Dodgers 6-2 behind the steady nine-hit pitching of Red Munger to halt their three games losing streak.

The Red Birds clinched it in the seventh when Enos Slaughter cracked a three-run double off big Don Newcombe who was making his major-league bow after being brought up from Montreal.

Philadelphia crept to within a half-game of the American League's second place Detroit Tigers as Joe Coleman bested the Tigers' Hal Newhouser, 2-1, in a 10-inning duel.

A sparkling catch by Elmer Valo of a George Kell drive with the bases loaded and two down in the 10th saved Coleman's hide. Coleman yielded six safeties, half of them to Newhouser, and fanned nine.

Al Papai's knuckle ball was no puzzle to the Washington Senators who pounded his offerings for six hits and five runs in three innings in beating the St. Louis Browns 5-3 at Washington.

The scheduled games between the Chicago White Sox and New York Yankees, the Cleveland Indians and the Boston Red Sox and the Philadelphia Phillies and the Chicago Cubs were postponed because of rain.

Red Wings Trip Buffalo In 2-1 Triumph

By The Canadian Press

Erv Dusak, who gained quite a reputation as a minor league home-run hitter, is off to a good start with Rochester Red Wings in his bid to crash the majors again—this time as a pitcher.

Dusak, who acquired the nickname of "Four Sack" because of his home-run feats at Mobile in 1941, played the infield and outfield for St. Louis Cardinals the last three seasons but did not live up to his minor league batting reputation.

Towards the end of last season Dusak tried his hand at pitching and continued to work at the trade in spring training.

The Cards sent Dusak to their Rochester International League farm for polishing and the former slugger has come up with two victories in his first two tries.

Friday night he came up with a neat four-hit triumph over Clem Hausmann and Buffalo Bisons. He was a trifle wild, walking six. But he also fanned six.

Russ Derry hit his ninth homer of the season for Rochester in the seventh inning.

The victory enabled the Wings to maintain their virtual second-place tie with Montreal Royals, one game back of the leading Jersey City Giants.

Trounce Leafs

Montreal, 20 percentage points ahead of the Wings, trounced Toronto Maple Leafs 11-1. The Royals broke the game wide open with seven runs in the ninth. Kermit Wahl, Chuck Connors, George Schmees and Lamar Bridges homered for the Royals. Dan Bankhead went the distance for Montreal and posted his third victory. Johnny Welaj homered in the ninth for Toronto's run.

Rookie Art Hartley pitched the Syracuse Chiefs to a 5-0, four-hit victory over Baltimore Orioles. Sam Mele and Sam Meeks paced Syracuse's 12-hit attack with three blows apiece.

The scheduled game between Jersey City and Newark was postponed because of rain.

ROYALS RETURN—Bobby Frampton, captain of the Montreal Royals, winners of the Canadian junior hockey championship, holds the Memorial Cup aloft in Montreal's Windsor Station Thursday night. Thousands jammed the concourse to give the champions a rousing welcome.

3 Championship Bouts Announced For June

NEW YORK, May 21, (AP) — Boxing's newest combine showed the power of its muscles today as it tentatively listed three championship fights for June and announced it had gained exclusive use of the Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds for fights.

Acting swiftly, the New York-Chicago-Detroit axis virtually tied up world middleweight and welterwewight title fights to go with its heavyweight championship show between Ezzard Charles and Jersey Joe Walcott in Chicago June 22.

The two world-title scraps will send middleweight champion Marcel Cerdan of France against Jake La Motta at Detroit June 15, and welterweight King Ray Robinson against Kid Gavilan of Cuba in the Polo Grounds, either June 17 or 21.

JOE FISHER, 8, is a big man in his Cleveland, O., neighborhood. He's the proud owner of a one-cylinder midget racer his father made from old metal and spare parts. The pint-sized auto has forward, reverse and neutral gears and hydraulic brakes. Like all Joe's friends, Judy Wise, 8, would like to take a turn around the block in his racer. Here, she tries to hitch a ride with a fetching smile, but Joe looks undecided.

Fans at Riverside this aft for the Batawa-Petes' COBL opener will no doubt agree with Armar Butcher, parks superintendent, when he predicts it will be one of the finest ball parks in the province within a few years. The new layout already gives promise of that, but he hopes to have work start on a new grandstand next year. A three-section one of latest design, maybe one section built a year if the money isn't available all at once. Then, too, he hopes to have a hedge along the river, some six feet high, to replace the high board fence there now, thus serving an utilitarian purpose as well as beautifying the layout still more. Yes, it should be a pretty spot then.

Superstitions abound in all forms of athletics, but in none more so than baseball. Stories of such are legion. Just recently we heard of a pet peeve of Bobo Newsom, much-travelled big league twirler, as told by Zeke Bonura. Bobo couldn't pitch if there were any little loose pebbles, papers, etc., around the mound. He was in great form one day against the White Sox and had 'em hitless for seven heats. Jimmy Dykes kept studying the big talkative flinger and finally he noted Newsom, as he went out one inning, picking up a chip of paper and stuffing it in his pocket. He told Zeke to tear up some paper into fine bits and drop it there next time he was coming in. Zeke did so and Bobo was angrily trying to pick up every piece when the umpires ordered him to start pitching. He blew up and they got to him for five runs.

Entering The Jamboree

Haven't heard for sure how many local men's teams will be in the Jaycees' softball tourney in Morrow Park on Tuesday, the holiday. Uniteds have entered, and it is possible two or three more will come in yet. Meantime, two Toronto, one Belleville and one Oshawa, teams have sent their entry fees. So, there should be plenty of softball activity there May 24, and also horse races. Softballers compete for $300 in two prizes, first one of $200, while the horse races have purses of $650. If the weather is right, a big holiday crowd will likely take in the Jamboree here.

* * * * * *

Joe Dunkerley tells us the Industrial Softball League has been slow re-organizing, not enough teams being represented at two meetings. They'll try again with an open session in the "Y" at eight p.m. May 25—next Wednesday—and if it's a flop, the loop will be dropped for this season. Joe is fooling around with the "fastball" idea as tried out here and there, with softball rules stretched somewhat to take in a few more baseball tactics, such as sidearm delivery, lead off bases and so on. He thinks such a type of softball here might prove popular in the shop circuit.

Made It A Close One

Weston edged the Petes' lacrossers 9-8 to open the OLA senior "B" season here, with Jim McNulty serving a penalty for an accidental slash. A tough break for the Creighton crew but they gave the canny Weston squad a real battle, and the big crowd saw a swell lacrosse game. Rugged, close and exciting. Home players were introduced beforehand to the customers, CGE Pipe Band did its usual fine stuff, and two oldtimers—Jack Creighton and Bud Fisher—did the official opening faceoff to start the season. It should be a swell gutted-stick campaign, with top talent showing here every Friday, Hamilton Tigers, Dominion champs, come next week. Yeah, there'll be some real scraps ahead.

* * * * * *

While the Petes were a bit jittery, they still opened up the careful checkerboard passing of the visitors to make it right interesting. Our crew will really sail henceforth as they shake off any nervous feeling, and when they get Rowan Chute and Dootch Vitarelli back. Senior "A" is good lacrosse, but bolstered senior "B" champs should be right at home in that kind of company. We liked the work of the three newcomers, Howse, Teatero and McNulty—they're aggressive and capable young fellows. Capt. Em Creighton was going oke, too, and most of the rest of them were hustling after a cautious first quarter. The Petes—who go back to Weston on the holiday—will do okay, no doubt, this semester

* * * * * *

Down Sports' Rialto

As H. Downer of Weston, who scored three goals, wasn't listed on the official sheet—and arrived at halftime—the Petes could protest, if they wished....Bill Edger is up and around again; we saw him yesterday on the street with his dad, who now lives here . . Jim Conlin hopes to be back in sports again within the year . . Girls' softball commences at the Bowl next Wednesday evening . . Men's games this eve at the Bowl: Outlaws vs. Cosmos, and Uniteds vs. Jewellers. . . Couple of Civic Softball League tilts Monday . . Post Office plays COF on Monday in the Foresters Loop . . Kawartha girls drill at 7.30 tonight in Armour Field . . Oshawa and the local junior baseballers are slated to play at six p.m. here on May 24, but we haven't heard a peep from the local manager . . Kawartha Golf Club men open their season today . . Soccer goes again next Wednesday, but it's CGE in Lindsay . . Canadian junior track and field meet at Toronto Varsity on July 8-9 for juniors, juveniles and midgets; get application forms from Jack Dane . . And off we go for the long week-end, after tonight's tilts, that is.

TIED FOR SECOND

Tied for second place in the individual standings were E. P. Muntz of Hamilton and R. R. McDerment of Port Hope. McDerment established new records in the broad jump and discus throw. J. A. Dolph of Galt, beat the old mark in the 800-yard junior run

Locke Ignored, Peeved At PGA

PHILADELPHIA, May 21 (AP)—Bobby Locke set out today to prove he is the best professional golfer not invited to the PGA tournament, and probably superior to any who will compete in the big event.

The big, soft-spoken South African wasn't saying much about what his friends consider a snub by the United States Professional Golf Association in banning him from playing in the PGA next week at Richmond, Va. But the signs are apparent he is burned to a dark brown crisp. He went so far as to say, for publication, that he considered the decision "very discourteous."

With the "I'll show them" possibility as an added incentive, Locke reckoned to be a rugged competitor for the remainder of the sixth annual $15,000 Inquirer invitation tournament being played here. At the end of the first 18 holes Thursday he was tied for the lead with a comfortable 68, four under par.

Rain washed out Friday's scheduled second round and forced a program change to 18 holes of play today and two rounds tomorrow.

With a single exception the rest of the field which includes most of the top United States golf stars will have to catch Bobby to beat him.

The exception is Joe Kirkwood, Jr., Hollywood movie actor and manufacturer of the only other first-round 68.

Weston Noses Out 9-8 Win Over Petes To Open Season

Gair's goal with about two minutes left to play, and McNulty of the homesters in the penalty box, gave Weston a 9-8 OLA senior "A" victory over the Petes here last night. It was the opening of the schedule and nearly 1,500 fans saw an exciting and close contest throughout. Weston counted the only marker of the close-checking first quarter, but the Petes fought back with a pair in the second to have a 2-1 edge at the half. They outscored the visitors 3-2 in the third, but Weston finished a bit stronger for a 6-3 margin in an open fourth frame. Play was rugged but clean, with the Petes drawing six of the nine penalties. Howse was out for a time with a twisted knee but returned later.

One in First

Skhordoff scored from T. Downer for the only one in the first, but Howse and E. Creighton counted for Petes in the second, Jack Breakspear assisting on the second. Creighton, Foote and Lou Vitarelli counted for the homesters in the third as Bob Breakspear aided on one, H. Downer tallying two for Weston, Gair assisting on each, Warren, Foote and Teatere scored for the locals in the third, J. Breakspear and R. Breakspear having an assist each, but Gair got two for Weston, with Hill, Jeffries, H. Downer and Venner all beating Goalie Bun Hill, assists going to James on three and Gair on one.

H. Downer, James and Gair shone for the visitors, the whole team playing a careful, passing style, looking for breaks. The three newcomers to the Petes, Howse, McNulty and Teatere, along with E. Creighton, turned in a solid effort for the losers in their first crack at Senior A competition.

The teams:

Weston — Goal, Hartley; defence, Chard and James; centre, Gilkinson; wings, Perdue and Gair; rover, Jeffries; alternates, Hill, Venner, Skhordoff, T. Downer, Lovelace, Hatton and H. Downer.

Petes — Goal, Hill; defence, J. Breakspear and Horton; centre, E. Creighton; rover, Foote; alternates, Warren, Magee, L. Vitarelli, McNulty, Teatere and R. Breakspear.

Referees— W. Arthurs and J. Mullis.

The summary:

First Quarter

Weston—Skhordoff (T. Downer) 6:36
No penalties.

Second Quarter

Petes—Howse 10:13
Petes—E. Creighton (J. Breakspear) 13:07
Penalties — House, Warren, Gilkinson.

Third Quarter

Petes—E. Creighton 2:58
Petes—Foote 9:26
Weston—H. Downer (Gair) 11:46
Petes—L. Vitarelli (R. Breakspear) 13:48
Weston—H. Downer (Gair) 14:33
Penalties—Horton, Dugan, Gilkinson.

Fourth Quarter

Weston—Venner 1:00
Weston—H. Downer 3:13
Petes—Warren (J. Breakspear) 7:33
Petes—Foote 9:15
Weston—Jeffries (Gair, James) 9:58
Weston—Gair (James) ... 10:05
Weston—Hill 10:53
Petes—Teatero (R. Breakspear) 11:43
Weston—Gair (James) 12:52
Penalties—E. Creighton, Venner, McNulty.

Team Match To Headline All-Star Wrestling Card

What shapes up as the greatest wrestling attraction of the whole year has been signed by Brock Arena Manager Jim Laidlaw for his mat program on Wednesday night. A Tag Team bout will headline an all-star card with the team of Sandy O'Donnell and Wee Willie Davis opposing the combination of Pat Flanagan and Whipper Billy Watson. The Whipper is especially eager to be on the team against Davis and O'Donnell for he has definite scores to settle with both these huskies. Watson is the most popular wrestler to ever appear here and there have been many requests to have him back. Putting him in a team bout guarantees the fans a maximum of action and thrills. Watson and Flanagan are rated by far the best exponents of Tag Team wrestling in the game today. They form the perfect combination.

Whipper Watson

Pat Flanagan

Sliding Billy Hanson will also be back on Wednesday night when he tangles with the blond Art Brady often called the Van Johnson of wrestling. Another newcomer will be Tug Carlsen, a sensational performer who has been matched with tough Dan O'Connor. Looks like a terrific evening for all concerned, including the fans.

Make sure your car wheels are aligned properly.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Alex Hughes of Ottawa, who three years ago contacted poliomyelitis which affected his left leg, Friday won the senior championship at the anuual Trinity College School track and field meet at Port Hope, Ont.

The six-foot track star piled up 21 points, five more than second-place Bruce Little of Quebec City. Hughes, who won the junior cup in 1946, broke his own record in winning the javelin throw and also took the discus and shot-put events.

Fred W. Hooper's Olympia, leader at one mile in the Kentucky Derby, and Crispin Oglebay's Noble Impulse, who towed the field past the mile mark in the Preakness, will hook up at New York's Belmont Park today in a race covering exactly that distance. The two speed boys were among seven thoroughbreds selected by their owners today to start in the 74th running of the Withers Stakes, a Belmont fixture for three-year-olds carrying $25,000 in added money.

Although nominated, neither Calumet's Ponder, the Derby surprise, nor Greentree's Capot, the Preakness victor, will try the Withers. Their owners obviously prefer to rest them for the $75,000 Belmont Stakes June 11 at 1½ miles.

From Boston comes word that pitcher Bob Feller was taken off the starting staff of Cleveland Indians Friday and assigned, at least temporarily, to bullpen duty. In his place on the world champion's big four, manager Lou Boudreau put young Mike Garcia, a promising rookie with a record of two wins and one loss.

Feller has been complaining of an ailing shoulder all season. He lost his first game, then won one, and dropped his last two.

Jimmy Outlaw, Detroit Tiger utility infielder-outfielder who was given his unconditional release, has been sold to Sacramento of the Pacific Coast League, the Detroit management announced Friday.

COBL Schedule

The COBL schedule opens today with Batawa playing in Peterborough. The list runs till Aug. 20. the top three teams then playing off. The winners go into OBA senior "A" playdowns and the runners-up into "B" playdowns. Following is the schedule with Batawa playing home games in Belleville, generally under the lights:

May 21—Batawa at Petes.
May 24—Petes at Batawa, Oshawa at Brockville (2).
May 28 Batawa at Oshawa.
June 1—Petees at Oshawa.
June 4—Oshawa at Petes.

Leafs Offer To Sponsor Junior Timmins Team

TORONTO, May 21 (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League have offered to sponsor a juvenile hockey league in Timmins, managing director Conn Smythe announced Friday night.

"We are interested in sponsoring an organization similar to the Boston Bruins' set-up in St. Catharines," he said.

(The Bruins sponsor both junior and juvenile teams in the Lincoln County city.)

Bob Crosby, manager of McIntyre Arena at Schumacher, said in Timmins that the four teams in the league would be forced to pay $600 each for playing and practise time next season if the Toronto offer is not accepted.

Allow Landlord Give Six Months' Notice

OTTAWA, May 21 — (CP) — Prices board officials said Friday night that landlords who need rented accommodation for their own use may give tenants six months notice to vacate, providing the landlord owned the accommodation on Nov. 1, 1947.

The Canadian Press reported erroneously this week that it was necessary for the landlord to have owned the accommodation on March 1, 1947.

15,000 Citizens Given X-Ray

At the midway point in the Tuberculosis X-ray Survey the 15,000 residents have been surveyed. Of the 2468 application signed by the people in Zone 2 (a), with the X-ray unit at George St. United Church, 2114 people were X-rayed in the first three days of this week. Through Dr. R. A. Kelly, M.O.H. and the Rev. Ivan Morgan, Murray St. Baptist Church, nearly all the Chinese men in the city were X-rayed at this centre.

In Ashburnham nearly 1500 people signed applications for X-rays. Of that number 1378 people were X-rayed. The unit was placed in the Sunday School of Mark St. United Church.

Mrs. A. Murphy, 57 Park Hill Road, who is in her 78th year was the first to take advantage of calling a car to take her to be X-rayed. She could not climb the hill to the Normal School where the X-ray unit is for the northend of the city, Zone 2 (b). It has been explained by officials in the Department of Health, Tuberculosis Prevention Division, that the elderly people need to be X-rayed as much as the younger people.

Officials of the Department of Health are pleased with the way the survey is going in Peterborough. The number of people turning out is above average and the operating and organizing of the survey is good.

Firemen have been helping to move the X-ray equipment from one clinic to another. These men are doing this work when off duty.

From June 6 to 11 there will be 10 clinics held in the small centres in the county. There the residents of Peterborough County can be X-rayed if they wish. The contacts for appointments are being made by mail by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The clinic will be at Ennismore, Selwyn United Church, Buckhorn, Lakehurst, Young's Point, Douro, Warsaw, South Dummer, Westwood and Keene.

Newest Senator Still Has Three Posts In Cabinet

By HAROLD MORRISON

OTTAWA, May 21 — (CP).— He laughs at this, but some friends on Parliament Hill are comparing Jimmy Angus MacKinnon with an old fire-engine horse that is always answering the bell.

The burly, white-haired Senator admits he was a little "surprised" when Prime Minister St. Laurent relieved him of his strenuous stretch as Cabinet Minister, elevated him to the Upper Chamber and then turned about-face and sounded the alarm.

Now he is saddled not with one, but three Cabinet posts — minister without porfolio, Trade and Commerce, and Mines and Resources. He has held the Trade and Resources portfolios before.

The appointments are only temporary.

Familiar Grounds

In the meantime, while Trade Minister Howe and Resources Minister Gibson are on the hustings, Senator MacKinnon will be in his familiar suite on the main floor of the Commons, signing the orders of the departments.

"Actually," confides Senator MacKinnon, "I am glad to be back at work in the Cabinet, although I have been advised by my doctors to take things easy.

"It was my understandable ambition to become a member of the Upper House. I have had a most interesting and most strenuous term of office as member of the Cabinet for the last 10 years."

He was a member of the Commons for 14.

"The strain was increasing, when the Senate appointment came. I was relieved and happy. But when I was told that I would continue on as member of the Cabinet and take on the additional tasks, I was quite satisfied."

Senator MacKinnon says appointing a Senator to take up several jobs in the Cabinet is a rare occurrence.

In fact he can't recall "any Senators under the Liberal Government who have had the same thing happen to them," except in the case of Senator Wishart Robertson, who is minister without portfolio in the Cabinet and at the same time Leader of the Liberals in the Upper Chamber.

News Editors Of 21 Papers To Study Problems

TORONTO, May 21 — (CP) — News editors of 21 Ontario daily newspapers met in Toronto Friday to discuss news coverage problems. They agreed that one of their major jobs was to obtain and print more news about women and their activities in public organizations and in the home.

The editors, attending the annual Ontario regional meeting of The Canadian Press, discussed other problems such as handling of feature stories and improving coverage of national and provincial government activities.

Herve Major, of Montreal La Press, first vice-president of The Canadian Press, presided. Panel discussions were led by M. McIntyre Hood of the Oshawa Times-Gazette, Joseph Emmott of the Chatham News and Arnold Hughes of the Cornwall Standard-Freeholder.

Cash Loans To Farmers

FOR SEED — TRUCKS FERTILIZER — TOOLS LIVESTOCK - REPAIRS TRUCK TREES — TRACTORS

$100 to $1,000

If you need cash for farm needs, why not do as hundreds of farmers do—get a cash loan at Personal. $38.91 a month repays a $500 loan in full in 15 months. Small loans made as readily as large ones. Loans can be repaid ahead of time and the quicker you repay, the less it costs. Loans made within a 35 miles radius of Peterborough.

At Personal, we understand the farmer's particular needs—We try to serve him on the basis that suits him best — "on his own" — without someone else signing the note. So whether you are a Poultryman, a Dairyman, a Fruit Grower, or a General Crop Farmer, why not come in and talk it over.

We'll do our best to work out a satisfactory loan that will benefit you.

THE OLD GUIDE AND TRAPPER WARNS OF FIRE HAZARDS

By GORD BAILEY

The old woman was readin' the paper the other night and I'm just settin' there on the front steps watchin' them 'skeeters dive-bombing me on the wrists and ankles and then dropping dead. Seems there was an awful mess of them layin' around my feet when the Old Woman startled me with the news about the Norwood fire. Now fires always alarm me . . . I've seen so many disasterous ones that it gives me the shivers to even HEAR about 'em. And the shame of it is, that most of them are caused by down-right carelessness. Now, fires is turrible — take that one Charlie Dill was relatin' to me the other day. Charlie's a Conservation Officer with the Department of Lands and Forests and during his spell up Thunder Bay way, he saw the results of thoughtless fellows settin' fire to a whole section and it was pretty sad for their folks too' 'cause they died in the fire along with a lot of fine trees and animals. It seems it was like this. A couple of fellow drove into the bush and pitched their tent right on a spruce finger that jutted out into the lake with high rock walls on three sides of them and the lake here. So, they lights their fire and decides to have a swim afore supper.

While they're out sashayin' about in the water, they takes a gander towards shore and find that their tent and car is burning up along with a few nice spruce trees. Course the boys came runnin' in their birthday suits and worked on the fire until they was exhausted. And badly scorched too! Well they was cut off with the fire all around them 'cept the lake side and the trees therew as burnin' too. Folks . . . they had it. Soon they was nothing left only a charred country, blackened bones and the tangled skeleton of a car.

Why, just a couple of years ago, practically the same thing happened right in the Kawartha District on Compass Lake. Now this fire at Norwood is gettin' awful close to home, so we all have to be careful in the woods. I've been guidin' and trappin' for nigh on 40 years and I've seen some awful durn fools in the woods. They drops cigareet butts, matches and even walk away and leave a fire smoulderin'. It makes me so durn mad I could grind my gums every time I see one of these guys doin' this routine.

I've seen too many of these forest graveyards of blackened trees and stumps and seen too many homes burned out for my likin'. And it does somethin' to you too, watchin' them poor animals runnin' before the fire, their big eyes standin' out so far, you could knock 'em off with a club. It makes you think of some awfully frightened kid.

Well folks, be AWFULLY careful in the woods this year, they're awful dry and tindry-like. So me and the Old Woman wish you a happy, care-free 24th holiday and for LANDS sake watch them fires and butts.

High School Boards Ask Larger Provincial Grants

To meet rising educational costs the Associated High School Boards of Ontario have urged larger provincial subsidies, a federal grant, or some other means of relieving the burden of taxation on real property.

This was put forward in a resolution from the High School Boards which concluded the 18th annual convention here on Friday.

Another resolution asked the executive of the High School Boards to continue negotiations for a central council composed of all trustee orginaizations in Ontario.

Salary Scale

The delegates also endorsed in principle an approach to the minister of education "to have legislation passed fixing four or more scales for salary schedules, comparable with living costs and assessments in different municipalities and districts, thereby giving trustees a legal and fair basis to discuss salaries in their respective communities." It will be forwarded to the incoming executive.

The resolution on setting up a central council of trustee organization follows: "That the executive of the Associated High School Boards of Ontario continue negotiations for the organization of some central council composed of representatives of all trustee organizations in Ontario so that the views of trustee boards in general on policies of common interest may be discussed in a more satisfactory and co-operative manner with either the Department of Education or the Teachers' Federation, and that the incoming executive be empowered to select such representatives this year, future representatives to be elected by convention."

A resolution was rejected from Riverside which stated if the Teachers' Federation of Ontario did not change its demands for salary increases to the basis of merit only, then, departmental inspectors should be disassociated from the Teachers' Federation and made responsible for discharging incompetent teachers.

On relieveing the burden of taxation on real property the Chatham resolution, later modified, gave this example: A man of moderate means owning a small house is called upon to pay heavily toward the cost of education and yet his wealthy neighbour across the street living in a rented house pays nothing towards the cost of education.

The Chatham resolution claimed that in Chatham the provincial government pays approximately 30 per cent toward the cost of education.

Finally the convention endorsed the following: That the executive . . . . consider the problem of relieving taxation on real property of a substantial part of the burden of increasing education costs by attempting to secure larger provincial subsidies, a federal grant, or other means.

The two-day conference closed today with a tour of Peterborough and inspection of the Quaker Oats plant.

Leaps From Truck Cab As Vehicle Hits Train

ST. THOMAS, May 21.—(CP). —A flying leap from the cab of the transport truck he was driving, a split-second before the vehicle crashed into a New York Central train, 1½ miles east of Shedden, saved John McKinnon, 28, of Kitchener from possible injury Friday, McKinnon, driving a transport loaded with 10 tons of beer, leaped from the truck as the brakes failed to hold at a N.Y.C. crossing on No. 3 highway and fell uninjured on his back.

The transport was travelling northeast on the highway and McKinnon applied the brakes on nearing the crossing to permit the passing of a special eastbound passenger train. They failed to grip and the truck struck the train at the rear of the tank car.

Fast Voluntarily

HAMMOND, Ind., May 21 (AP) —A couple found near starvation in a trailer here told police Friday they were fasting voluntarily because they were "on trial before the Lord." The officers said Joseph McAllister, 34, told them he and his wife needed no help as they were "seeing the light of the Lord and were on trial before the Lord." They did not state their religion, the officers said.

STRETCHERS, holding the sick and the dying, line the route of the procession to the basilica at Lourdes. Note the pilgrims at right walking with outstretched arms.

90 Years After Bernadette's Apparitions Pilgrims Still Flock To Her Grotto Shrine

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

LOURDES, France (NEA). — Hundreds of thousands of pilgrims, from the four corners of the world, flock to Lourdes every year. They come to see and pray at the shrine where, 90 years ago, the Virgin Mary appeared to Bernadette, a humble little shepherd girl.

Many come also in the hope of finding a cure for hopeless physical diseases. Others seek solace for their ailing souls.

From an obscure little village at the foot of the Pyrenees mountains, Lourdes has grown into an important city which, in 1947, registered 1,500,000 visitors. National and international pilgrimages start from May (the month dedicated to the Virgin in the Roman Catholic Church) to September, and there is also a constant flow of individual visitors.

The original chapel, which was built above the grotto where the apparitions were seen, soon proved too small to hold the crowds which flocked there. Even the large basilica, which was subsequently built, cannot now contain the ever-growing crowds. Services are often held out-of-doors.

A pilgrimage in Lourdes is a moving sight, even for non-Roman Catholics. At every moment of the day, people may be seen kneeling in prayer and repentance on the Calvary Hill, in the churches, the baths and the grotto, the latter alight with thousands of candles, offered by the faithful, which glitter throughout the day and night.

In the bright afternoon sunshine, on the broad Esplanade leading to the basilica, thousands of people walk in procession between rows of sick, often dying people, whose pleas punctuate the litanies of the clergy.

The atmosphere, however, is joyous rather than grim. Church bells ring and voices sing hymns. Processions are apt to start spontaneouly all over the town. People kneel, pray, uninhibitedly, cry their faith everywhere.

When a pilgrimage train arrives, volunteer stretcher bearers and nurses, representing every class of society, handle their charges with care and devotion.

One of the marvels of Lourdes is the strong faith and patience of the sick and dying, hoping for recovery which has been pronounced impossible. But for every "miraculous" cure, there are uncured thousands who return to their home resigned to their fate.

In 1882, 24 years after the apparitions, a medical Bureau of Investigation was established by the Roman Catholic authorities to check on "miraculous" cures. This was set up near the famous bath where the sick are immersed in the waters of the "miraculous" spring.

From then on, every cure has been catalogued and investigated by doctors who come there from all over the world. Over 16,000 medical men have signed the Golden Book at the Bureau of Investigation.

Scientific and exhaustive inquiries are made on reported cures, which, according to the church, "are a direct challenge to the negations, doubts and sarcasms of contemporary incredulity."

Before a cure is definitely accepted, there are three conclusions to be arrived at:

1. The patient must have been seriously ill, suffering from an organic disease and not merely a nervous or functional ailment.

2. The cure has to be complete and instantaneous and no extraordinary medication administered.

3. No explanation for the cure can be found in the ordinary course of natural laws.

The obscure little shepherdess, whose life story was told to the world in the film "The Story of Bernadette," was canonized by Rome on December 8, 1933, 75 years after her death, before 75,000 people.

Twenty-nine years after she died, when her body was transferred to a reliquary, it was found to have remained intact. It remains so to this day, visible to the pilgrims who go to Nevers to pray at the shrine of St. Bernadette.

Fellowship At Last Supper Shows Brotherhood Of Man

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

One of the best-known and most widely used manuals of daily devotion is a little booklet called "The Upper Room." Its title, derived from the story of His disciples, emphasizes the sacredness of that occasion. It stress communion with God and man as the source of spiritual power, and the binding force of the fellowship, which John says is "with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ" (I John 1:3).

To the Last Supper in the upper room is related the "Lord's Supper," and communion as the symbol and determining basis of fellowship in the Christian church. This is marked to such an extent that denominations, or sects, are called "communions," in their very separateness denying the unity that ought to be in Christ. For that, of course, there are historic reasons, which in a large degree are being overcome by many who in mind, soul, heart, and will accept as fellow Christians all who love the Lord, regardless of barriers or organization and formal creed.

But there ought to be even deeper implications of fellowship as we contemplate that Last Supper in the upper room. That Last Supper, which has become the symbol of faith and fellowship in the Christian Church was the celebration by Jesus and His disciples of the Passover, the most sacred rite of the Jewish religion which was their heritage as Jews, and which Jesus said He had not come to destroy, but to fulfill.

That fact ought to give the Last Supper in the upper room a significance that it has never had either for Jews or Christians, and a meeting place in fellowship that they have never found.

Surely the supreme task of all who believe in the Christ and the fellowship of the upper room is to bring to reality and fullness in the world the spirit and the practice of brotherhood there manifested.

We know that there was one present, who renounced that who betrayed his Master. What we do not realize is that everyone who professes to share in that communion, but who does not live in the spirit of love, and in the precepts and example of the Master, is akin to Judas, rather than to those who loved their Master, and who continued in that love despite the temporary sadness and despair when His death seemed to have ended their hopes.

To partake of holy communion "in remembrance of Jesus" is not merely an act of conformity, an expression of outward faith; its reality is found only in a renewed commitment of the soul to Christ and the Christian way. If observance of the practice begun in the upper room, and reaching back into the deep sincerities and faith of Judaism, meant to the millions who practice it what it professes to mean, what marvels of transformation, betterment, and spritual power would enrich the lives of men and bless the world!

GUEST PREACHER on Sunday morning in the Murray Street Baptist Church will be the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe of Auburn N. Y. Mr. Sutcliffe who is a former minister of the Murray Street Church will also preach the ordination sermon on Monday night when Kenneth Gillespie will be ordained at Murray Street.

Find Indian Dead

ROSSBURN, Man., May 21 (CP) —RCMP said Friday that one man is being held for questioning, while another has been released, following the death of a 56-year-old treaty Indian found lying in a blood-spattered wagon near his home. Peter Keewatin Cappo was found on a trail on a reserve six miles south of this southern Manitoba village. Police said it was not known whether Cappo had been hurt in a brawl or whether he had been injured in a fall.

Jaycees Plan Jamboree Exhibition Park

Five softball teams are entered in the softball invitation meet at the Jaycee amboree May 24 at the Exhibition Grounds. The teams, Dentonia of Toronto; Blammons, of Scarborough; C.N.R. Nationals of Belleville; Pedlars of Oshawa and the Peterborough Uniteds of the City Softball League will playoff in the afternoon. The finalists will play the deciding game for the Junior Chamber of Commerce Trophy at 6 p.m. Prizes for the first and second teams are $200 and $100.

For the annual horse races there is only a fair number of entries. The three races last year drew a large crowd for which they provided many thrills. Cash prizes total $650.

At 7 p.m. at the grandstand the Jaycees are introducing a new contest to their day's entertainment with air amateur show. So far there are 12 entries. The acts include tap dancers, vocalists, pianists and an acrobatic act.

At 8 p.m. there will be an old time fiddlers' contest. Following this contest the Jaycees will light their annual display of fireworks. In the drill hall the Horticultural Association will have a booth Here information pertaining to home beautification with plans for laying out trees and shrubs and other general information will be provided.

Between the races in the afternoon and between the amateur show and the fiddlers' contest in the evening Vic Reed with his trick horse will provide entertainment.

Other things on the Jaycees program for the day are bingo, refreshments, lucky draws, square and modern dancing. An X-ray unit will be at the side of the drill hall for those who wish to be X-rayed.

X-RAY FOR FOOD HANDLERS

City Department of Health has told all food handlers that they must take advantage of the X-ray unit during its current tour of the city. Under a long established city bylaw the Department is entitled to require a medical certificate of examination annually from food handlers. This stipulation has been waived in recent years, but under the by-law the Department of Health is making X-ray compulsory.

Hairpin Taken From Intestine Of Small Baby

A bobby hairpin was removed from the intestine of 10-month-old John Staples, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Staples, Cavan township, in Civic Hospital this week. Young John swallowed the pin several weeks ago but for a long time it was hoped an operation would not be necessary.

The baby was returned home on Friday apparently fully recovered. He is under the care of Dr. Longfield of Bethany and Dr. R. McGee of Peterborough also took part in the operation.

A HOME AWAY FROM HOME was built in a four-by-six crate by Benny the Beaver in the village of Apsley. He persisted in damming a highway ditch on the Coe Hill Road until Game Warden Robert Trotter caught him in a wire mesh wild animal trap and put him in a crate in his back yard. Benny will be released somewhere along Eel's Creek where his engineering projects will be of more use to the surrounding district.

Canada Unique In Observing Victoria Day

A change has come over the British Commonwealth and Empire since Canadians last celebrated the birthday of Queen Victoria, under whose 63-year reign the empire was consolidated around the world.

Canadians holidaying on May 24 last year belonged to a system comprising dominions and colonies, all owing allegiance to the crown.

Tuesday they will be part of a revamped community of nations, for India has taken on the unprecedented role of a commonwealth republic and Ireland is a republic claiming complete independence.

Other changes have taken place since Alexandrina Victoria died in 1901 soon after the South African War provided the empire with its last great addition.

Newfoundland, Britain's oldest colony, has been successively a colony, a dominion, a country ruled by commission government and a Canadian province.

In Canada was inaugurated the great experiment by which the first dominion was formed and under which Britain found the solution to the problem of giving self-rule to her wide possessions. The pattern formed in Canada by Queen Victoria's governors and Canada's early statesmen was followed in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Ceylon, Pakistan and India.

Some historians believe that if the dominion pattern had been set earlier, the American colonies would have developed into the empire's greatest dominion.

Observed In 1838

Canada is unique among Commonwealth and Empire countries in still holding May 24 in memory of Victoria he Good. First observed in 1838, the year after the young queen came to the throne, May 24 was an empire holiday for more than 60 years.

At the accession of Edward VII the remainder of the empire decided to mark the new king's birthday, in November, but Canada passed a bill designating May 24 as an annual holiday commemorating Queen Victoria.

Elsewhere Tuesday will be celebrated as Empire Day, although it is not kept as a holiday. In Canada Empire Day is marked only by special school observances on May 23.

The pride and dazzling splendor of the girl-queen's coronation in 1838 was an augury of succeeding years in which the British flag was carried by soldiers, missionaries and traders throughout the world to consolidate the greatest empire since early Roman times.

Now the displays of power and might have given way to austerity in a Britain battling for her economic life. But Tuesday bunting and flags will be flown across Canada and fireworks will light the skies recalling the development of the empire concept that reached its peak in the Victoria era.

Busy Beaver Dams Ditch Worried Warden Bars Him

By STAFF REPORTER

APSLEY, May 21—Benny the Beaver left his parents' lodge up in the Eel's Creek country, north of Apsley, early last Fall to do a spot of work. The main creek and its tributaries did not suit this youngster. He followed the course of a sluggish swamp stream that comes out at the Coe Hill Road, two miles north of the village.

The place appealed to his engineering instincts. The roadside ditch was clean and watered, lush copses of poplar nearby and the stream flowed very gently.

Benny threw up a small bachelor lodge and waited out the winter. This spring the melting snows made a considerable creek of his ditch and he set to work building a dam. He gnawed down poplars of various shapes and sizes and after much diligent night work succeeded in raising the sluggish ditch water to a sizeable pond. The occasional roaring wood-truck that passed him in the night he ignored with a slap-slap of his broad tail.

Persistent Fellow.

But Benny's engineering was too good to go unnoticed for long. Game Warden Robert Trotter saw that Benny's lake was flooding over the road and to discourage him, broke up the dam, not once but twice. Still Benny repaired it and kept the roadbed flooded and the water level to his satisfaction.

If Benny couldn't take a hint and move elsewhere, thought the G. W., he would take him away by force. He set a wire mesh live animal trap and on Friday the 13th Benny was in the toils of the law.

Game Warden Trotter took him to his house in the village and at the rear of his lot where a trickle of swamp water drained away, Benny was transferred to a four-by-six slatted crate.

Captive Builder

Captivity terrified Benny for a couple of days as school children and villagers watched him cower in his cage. He refused to touch the poplar cuttings stuck through the bars but on the third day his practical mind turned toward making life in prison more bearable.

He plugged the bottom slats of the crate with twigs and mud, built a bed in one corner and harbored the trickle of water until there was a pool about a foot deep. He gnawed a spillway hole between the third and fourth slats and wallowed about to await his fate.

By Thursday Benny had stripped several branches of bark and was so used to visitors that he merely snorted a "stay away" warning to the curious.

"I let him go somewhere down on Eel's Creek on Friday," said the game warden, "and hope he has learned a lesson. I have learned a lot about beavers from Benny, too, and I'm going to miss him." The game warden was not explicit whether it was engineering angles or the virtue and folly of persistence he had learned from Benny the Beaver.

Hastings Woman Aged 99 Dies

Mrs. Elizabeth Callaghan of Hastings died in Peterborough on Friday in her 99th year, following a lengthy illness. She was born in Asphodel township, daughter of the late Michael Fitzpatrick and Susanna Christie, and before coming to the city more than four years ago, lived in Hastings. Her husband, Dennis Callaghan, predeceased her several years ago.

She leaves one sister, Mrs Catherine Todd and two nieces, Mrs. Gertrude Condon and Mrs Mary Barry, of Peterborough. There are three nephews, Michael Fitzpatrick of Toronto, Edward and Patrick Fitzpatrick, both of Hastings. She was a member of Mount Carmel Church, Hastings.

Funeral will be from the Duffus Funeral Home to Mount Carmel Church, Hastings, on Monday morning for requiem mass which will be said at 9 a.m. Burial arrangements are to be announced later.

Torpedo Blast Takes Boy's Eye

LINDSAY, May 21 — CNR Detective Ray Morden is investigating an accident here in which Fraser Clarke, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clarke, 120 Anglia Street, lost an eye.

The lad was walking home from school when he picked up a "torpedo" on the CNR tracks When he got home he showed it to his mother and then went to the woodshed to find out what kind of a firecracker it was.

He struck it with an axe as he was bending over and it exploded in his face.

The boy was rushed to the Ross Memorial Hospital, where Dr. W. Blackwell and Dr. A. Woodrow found the right eye blown out of the head and the left eye damaged.

LAUNCH LOCK GATES

Spectators on Friday afternoon saw the launching of lock gates at Lock 20. They were slid into the water from timber ways and will be used at Lovesick Lake.

Guidance Work Requires Trained Help

First dynamic force in a guidance program for youth is achieved when the young people are making intelligent choices among the various occupations H. R. Beattie, Director of Guidance, Department of Education Friday told delegates to the annual convention of the Associated High School Boards

"Only when we have assurance that the young people are making intelligent choices, can we conscientiously feel that they will have the satisfaction in work which is their right, and only then will Canada derive full benefit from our greatest natural resource — the youth of the country," stated Mr. Beattie.

Practical steps must be taken to provide the service he stated. To give pertinent information an arrangement has been made between the Ontario Department of Education and the Ontario College of Education for the Vocational Guidance Centre to circulate a budget of educational and occupational information to each secondary school and each elementary school inspector.

Trained Personnel

The best available information is wasted, however, he stated, unless trained personnel are available. Teacher-counsellors or directors of guidance must be individuals who have the respect of the students and enjoy the confidence of the other teachers.

This is too much for the teacher to do. Others must be found to give the proper leadership, said Mr. Beattie. For guidance work within a secondary school an objective of one teacher's time for each 500 students is recommended by the Department of Education.

Another dynamic force in guidance is the natural interest which young people have in the occupational world, he said. He contended that parents and teachers should encourage that interest. Too often it is destroyed by indifference and ridicule.

Helpful or Dangerous

The ambitions of parents is also a dynamic in the guidance program, the speaker said. These can be helpful or dangerous Tradition, or the father's occupation which the son is expected to follow, often causes unfair pressure to be placed on a young person, stated Mr. Beatie.

"The youngster may be sacrificed on the altar of family pride and tradition."

"Both the school and parents should strive to create an atmosphere that will foster and develop that natural interest so that the younster will feel free to discuss his plans for the future," stated the speaker. "By doing so he will gain an understanding of the problems to be faced, and he will approach the choice of a life's work with confidence in his own ability and with the assurance he can get from his home and school the help that he needs."

Kindly understanding at home and school is not enough, he asserted. Needed is trained assistance from kindergarten through college.

"We must have first understanding of the need, then occupational and educational information, then a carefully-selected and trained personnel who have time to do the work."

The speaker defined guidance as "a sincere attemot to help individuals to make descisions, interpretations, and adjustments in such a manner as will promote the well-being of the individual and society."

And he concluded by saying guidance is a function of modern education, so basically sound it is no longer a question of deciding whether or not it is necessary The problem is to organize it for maximum efectiveness.

New Industrial Commission Names Officers

At its inaugural meeting the new Industrial Commission chose H. L. Garner as chairman, Bruce Payne as vice-chairman, and Herbert L. Bradburn as secretary. The Industrial Commission was set up by City Council bylaw passed Monday. It supercedes the industrial committee of the Council, and is an independent appointed body reporiable to the Council. The five members are the three men named above, one alderman (Richard Raine), and the Mayor.

Procedural methods were discussed at the first meeting and arrangement made that all correspondence concerning Peterborough's industrial opportunities conditions and practices which has been going to the Council through the City Clerk's office be passed directly to the secretary of the Commission

The Commission has been established to maintain the goodwill of our local industries; to keep a balance of suitable industries in conformity with the population and tax structure by encouraging approved new industries to locate here, and to ensure that city's manufacturing resort and educational advantages are adequately advertised.

Funds allocated to the former industrial committee of the Council are available to the Department of Industries, which is the official name of the new Industrial Commission.

Federal Grant $234,766 For Hospital

The Federal Government has approved of a grant of $234,766.60 for the new Civic Hospital it was announced here today by John R. Marshall chairman of the Board of Governors.

In a letter to Mr. Marshall received from Ben Wallace, executive assistant to Hon. Paul Martin, minister of National Health and Welfare, Mr. Wallace says the grant has been approved and payments will be made to the provincial authorities as required under the act. A condition of the federal grant is that the provincial government pay an equal amount.

The Board of Governors had expected $230,000 and with the announcement that the grant would be $234,766.60 apparently the full grant is being paid on all beds and bassinettes being placed in the new hospital. At first it had been feared that the grant would only be paid on additional beds over and above the 96 already in the old Civic Hospital. If this had been the case the grant would have been $96,000 less.

Garage Operators' Association

PRACTICAL PLANS FOR THE HOME YOU WANT AND HOW TO PLAN IT

Merging Of House, Garage In One Architectural Plan

Early in the 1900's city fathers pondered on the problem of controlling the building of the attached garage. Owners of carriage horses had always been satisfied to house their means of transportation in a stable set at the back of the lot. . .but not the proud possessors of the new gas buggies. Some of them had mad ideas about housing their new toys in the same structure which sheltered their families. The result was the "firm measures must be taken against this growing danger"; that "there ought to be laws". . .and there were laws.

A number of these laws remain in present municipal building codes. . .some of them quite practical and some very much outmoded. Many of the original building requirements which looked on the automoblie as a miniature volcano on wheels have since been repealed.

Today the automoblie has shed most of its temperament, passed its gawkey age and the garage has in a good number of cases become a part of the house itself. Architects are no longer concerned solely with planning fireproof storage, but in merging house and garage so that the latter will not receive more than its due share of attention.

Breezeways Popular

Though functional designs place the garage along the front border of the lot, many home owners resent such a conspicuous position. Joining the garage to the house as a forward projection is a common solution, but it has one great disadvantage in that it seldom allows adequate light for adjoining rooms. One increasingly popular method of attaching the garage to the house is by means of a breezeway.

Because of their disproportionate size, many architects still dislike having garage doors face the street, but by the fine art of camouflage, they have been able to produce plans in which the great expense of garage doors play an unobtrusive part in the design of the house.

The following excerpts from "Minimum Building Standards required for homes built under the National Housing Act will be of interest to all prospective home builders considering attached garages.

A garage shall have a clear inside length of not less than 18'0" and a clear inside width of not less than 10'0" if one car is to be accommodated. For two or more cars, clear inside length shall be not less than 19'0" and clear inside width not less than 10'0" for the first car and 8'0" for each additional car.

8" concrete block foundation walls may be used under single-storey attached garages, without basement, but the foundation wall of the house between house and garage must comply with foundation wall requirements.

Fire Precautions

A garage, attached to or forming part of any housing unit, must be separated from the house by a wall constructed of at least one of the following:

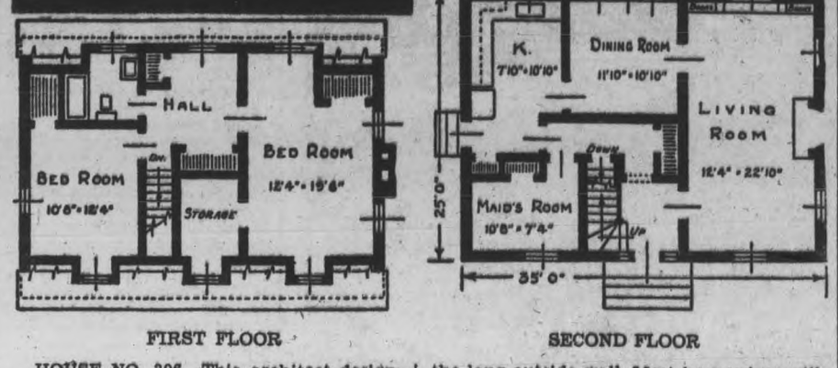
4" solid brick.

8" hollow concrete block.

2" solid gypsum block.

and certain other types of material listed in the National Building code having a fire-resistance rating of one hour.

This fire-resistant wall must be built on a concrete curb at least 8" higher than the garage floor level and projecting into the garage at least 2" beyond the face of the fire-resistant wall. Any opening shall be fitted with a metal-clad door and frame on the garage side.



FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

HOUSE NO. 306—This architect-designed Colonial home of gleaming white clapboards encloses a simple rectangular plan of good proportions. While it has a centre hall, the stairs to the second floor rise at one side of the entrance, rather than directly in front of the door. This overcomes a common objection to the centre hall plan. It will be noticed that the living room is spacious, and has four fine windows. The big open fireplace is centred on the long outside wall. Most housewives will like the roomy "L" shaped kitchen, with the window directly over the sink. The service entrance and broom closet are close by.

Upstairs are two family bedrooms. The largest has a front closet marked "storage". This big area is actually used as a nursery at the moment—and a very good nursery it makes too! For further particulars write Home Building in Canada, 372 Bay St., Toronto.

New Type of Stucco Found Tough Material

By LAWRENCE N. ELDRED

CHICAGO, May 21 (AP)—If you would still like to build a good low-cost house, here's a ray of hope for you.

Builders have modernized a type of construction that went out of favor 20 years ago, but now is having a remarkable revival. It is stucco.

Instead of the old-style magnesite stucco slapped on top of wood lath, they have a reinforced type which become a fireproof, insulated, one-inch steel and concrete wall.

They claim it is cheap to build and maintain, yet it is impervious to rotting, termites, climate and temperature changes, and has an attractive appearance, good insulation properties and durability.

It has been tested all the way southward from Edmonton and Winnipeg, where temperatures swoop to at least 35 degrees below zero. Advocates claim it saves hundreds of dollars on the building of houses, thousands of dollars on apartments. It saves more hundreds in annual maintenance costs and winter heat loss, say they, adding that in some communities these savings

A prime mover in the come-are enough to pay for the house. back of stucco is the Keystone Steel and Wire Company, Peoria, Ill., maker of a galvanized steel netting which takes the place of lathing. This taut steel fabric knits into the stucco to create both a permanent binding and structural strength for anything from a cottage or ranch-style home to three-storey or more apartment buildings.

Another advocate of stucco is the AFL Plasterers' Union. In speaking for them and as president of the Plasterers' Institute, Byron Dalton said stucco is "mighty fine. It's fireproof. It's a kind of concrete, and if concrete can take it on the highway, surely it can on a wall.

Advantages of Stucco

"Furthermore," he added, "stucco needs no painting. Color can be mixed right in. That's what makes Hollywood so beautiful, with all its smooth-walled, nicely tinted houses."

He said a stucco job took about two men to a house, and added that "there are more plasterers than materials these days."

Starting with the wood frame under-structure of a house, workmen tack onto the joists a covering of waterproof paper. This is followed by the galvanized steel netting which comes in rolls 150 feet long and three feet wide. It is laid flat against the paper and attached with furring nails at eight-inch intervals. This sets the mesh away from the paper about ⅜ inch so the stucco can get a good grip on it.

The two plasterers require about a half-day to apply one coat to a five-room house. A total of three coats—scratch second, and finish—are needed, with one to three weeks of "curing" between one coat and the next.

E. M. Lurie, director of the National Foundation for Lathing and Plastering, Inc., also discussed the labor situation, estimating there are more apprentice plasterers now than ever, many of who are specializing in outdoor plastering.

Keep Oil At Full Mark Motor Will Use No More

By FREDERICK G. RUSSELL

One thing about an automobile is its willingness to take you for a spin even though it isn't running like a top.

There seems to be a notion going the rounds that an engine won't use as much oil if the oil level is kept lower in the crankcase. This idea doesn't hold water Of course the "full" level should not be exceeded, but if the quantity of lubricant in the pan isn't normal, there will be a tendency for the oil to break down and thin out, and then burn off more rapidly. Other things being equal a larger quantity of oil is assurance of the oil maintaining its quality. More diluent is then needed to reduce its quality.

Odd Ones But True

It is customary to lower compression ratio as supercharging is increased, due to the boost in pressure. The first rule for proper front-end alignment is correct pressures for the tires Maroon continues to be about the poorest lasting hue for an automobile, in spite of lacquers and waxes. . .Often when a car suddenly loses power, the trouble can be traced to a clogged or pinched tail pipe. . .The crankshaft is considered to be the most important single part of a modern automoblie engine. . .The little electric motor that operates car windows, the top of your new convertible, the radio aerial and other gadgets is a micromotor and delivers about a tenth of a horsepower.

Skip this if you already have a master's degree in driving. It concerns the importance of shifting to a lower gear before you are literally forced in to it. I'm not thinking of uphill driving so much as the downhill kind. If you wait until the car is rolling along at 40 or thereabouts before you decide to shift, you may find that you give the whole car, engine included, an awful jarring when you let up the clutch pedal. You can shift "down" without accelerating the motor (double clutching) with any car that has synchromesh transmission gears, but there still is the matter of strain on the whole mechanism. You can, and should ease this by remembering to accelerate the engine (virtually reducing it) while the clutch pedal is down and the gears are going through neutral, but it is a lot smarter to shift into second at 25 miles an hour.

Mechanic Joe Speaking:

"Among other things that need a cooling off period are car repairs. And these can be before the work or after. If they are cold they should be brought up to room temperature.

"Many a carbon and valve job has been ruined because the owner didn't give the mechanic time enough to warm up the engine, cool it off and then retighten the head nuts. It isn't just a matter of testing after the work is done but of alowing the car to go through various phases or cycles in its behavior and catching it for further testing or adjustment at the right moments."

This is the time of year when you hear the normal noises made by car and chasis but so much more clearly you think trouble is brewing. It is just that the windows are open and you get the benefit of tappet taps, tire humming and exhaust roar. Sometimes this can be used to good advantage. If you hear the sound of rattling dishes when passing a stone wall slowly you'll know the universals are worn.

Escape For The Oil

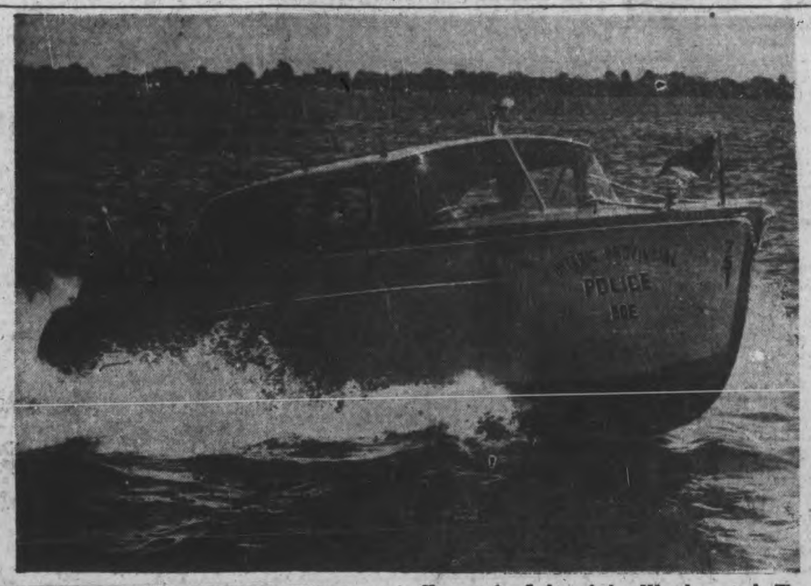
That current problem of oil loss out the breather pipe of the engine has a lot of motorists baffled. This is just because they haven't had sufficient experience to know that it's normal for oil to want to escape from the crankcase, either in liquid or vapor form, if pressures are high enough. A cross section of a racing car motor clearly shows baffled plates inside the crankcase breathers to check oil loss. Usually in car engines the excess pressure in due to poor rings, but there is no mystery as to why oil wants to escape where you put it in. Often merely cleaning out the filler pipe will help.

Many smart drivers know that one of the surest steps toward safety is to cut down ten per cent on speed but the rule doesn't serve them too well because they do not remember to do this indirectly by increasing their running time. It isn't a matter of watching the speedometer so much as watching the clock. A speed cut may tempt you to watch the speedometer on the open road but not in the city. If you are thinking in terms of time, and are consciously trying to delay, you will slow down more generally—which is what counts. You will find yourself resisting the temptation to hurry. You will be much more relaxed. You will heed dangers which otherwise might pass unnoticed.

Serves Two Purposes

Since following my rule about opening the throttle wide when re-starting a hot engine, one reader reports that the engine is definitely running better. This is easily explained by the fact that when the engine fires with the throttle wide open it races a moment until the driver closes the throttle to the idling position. This momentary racing serves to suck fuel very fast through the high speed carburetor jet. Apparently in my friend's case it has served to clean out a little dirt in the jet.

It's just a detail but among the features of the newest cars I especially like the hanger for the tire jack which not only provides a place for it but prevents possibility of bad rattle. Unique is the new way of introducing acceleration pump fuel into the carburetor body of one of the new cars, the extra slug of fuel going right in through the high speed jet. New also is the use of an expansion chamber so as to silence the pulsations of windshield wipers. Bonded brake lining in which no rivets are used will be found on five of the newest jobs. You may have heard about the new starter switch which is combined with the ignition switch.



FIRST OF TWO CABIN CRUISERS for use of the Ontario Provincial Police was delivered Friday in Toronto to Commissioner W. H. Stringer, before going to Kenora for Lake of the Woods patrol. The commissioner, seated in stern of the launch, expressed his satisfaction as the craft was put through paces on the bay. Cruiser cost $4,500.

CHINESE AND BOOKS

In the middle of the 18th century, more books had been printed in Chinese than other languages combined.

Makes Reappearance

MOSCOW, May 21 (Reuters)—Ivan Maisky 65, former Russian Ambassador to Britain, who has been almost completely out of the news for the last three years, sat smiling among the audience at a premiere af the Moscow Art Theatre Thursday night. The play was Wirthe's "Conspiracy of the Doomed," portraying an American aided plot against the government in an unnamed east European country.

Enchanted Garden Presented In Beautiful Water Ballet By Ornamental Swimmers

Everyone at some time in their wishes for an enchanted garden where they can find peace and happiness. The Peterborough Ornamental Club swimmers have interpreted such a dream as suggested in the fairy story "Enchanted Garden" and gave the first of two presentations this week in the YMCA pool on Friday evening.

Those who have not previously enjoyed these annual water ballets are amazed at the way a story is unfolded in the water, as a stage play. Short commentary between routines keeps the audience informed of what is happening.

Propelling movements in the water are done so easily and smoothly that one almost forgets the actors are swimming. Costumes lend enchantment to the scene, their color and trim distinguishing the character portrayed. Speed and manner of movement express temperament such as happiness, fright and bewitchment.

A colorful setting of flowers and trees surrounds the Swan Lake scene of this delightful ballet Princess Lovejoy (Betty Dorsett) claims it for her enchanted garden, but finds she must drive away 12 red-suited Imps of Satan frollicking there. This done, the goldfish re-appear, June and Gail Taylor of University of Western Ontario, who are wearing gold suits with silver sequins simulating fish scales.

A white lacy frock is worn by the Lady of the Lake (Shirley Moldaver), watching pagan worshippers Pat Picard and Maureen Sloan of Elmwood Michigan Club, who are dressed in leopard suits for their jungle dance.

Jean Millard is a bit of blue heaven in the story and turns into a water sprite. Spirits of music in the garden are Maureen Finn and Mary Rutherford. The Happy Dancers are Joan Coombes and Beverly Rumary who wear suits of neon red with black lace shawls and caps to match. Isabel Crary and June Storey are teddy bears on a picnic and have pink ears and tails.

Deep Purple descending quietly on the garden is brought to realization by Norma Gant and Jullian Groombridge who wear dark [illegible]ostumes trimmed with purp[illegible]. A rainbow changing everything to brightness is four swimmers each in a different colored suit and cap.

Statue of the Moon Goddess that later comes to life and dives into the water is portrayed by Evelyn Buchanan of Toronto, honorary member of the Club, and champion diver of Canada. She is in white and wears a blue robe with silver crescent trim and crescent hat. The U.S duet make a second appearance in the pool as Chinese wearing black satin tunics with gold dragons and typical native hats.

Newest members of the Peterborough Club are seen as the good water sprites. They are Ninita Bogue, Kitty Flowers, Mary Jo Dorsett, Joan Monk, Ann Gray and Joan Lynch.

The climax, the ballet of the Swan Lake, is a delightful routine by 12 girls with Jean Millard as as the ballerina.

The choreography is by coach Mrs. Jas. Forbes and costumes are made under direction of Mrs. E Young. Accompanying music specially arranged for the presentation, is in charge of Mrs. Vi Heffernan. Decorations were made up by Mrs. Stanley Bogue.

The club's guests were introduced by Mr. N. C. Munro.

physical instructor Miss Caroline and sea ballet being presented by Littlefield with more than 400 girls in the cast. The pageant will be presented Thursday evening, May 26, in the Brock St. Summer Gardens. Costumes have never been more interesting and unusual and they have been made under direction of Miss Mary Elliott, Mrs. H Northrop, Mrs. L. Yeates, Mrs. S. Zakos, and Mrs. P. Irwin. The cutting was done by Mrs. J. G. Lewis and Mrs. J. Sharpe. Chairman of the advertising and publicity is Mrs. M. Holt and Mrs. A. Sands, Mrs. G. Hill and Mrs. W. L. Hardwicke. The leaders' list is in charge of Mrs. D. Anderson and Mrs. E. C. McKee. Decorating conveners are Mrs. H. Waddell, Mrs. J. Faulkner and Mrs. G. Wainwright. Programs, spotlighting and ushering is being looked after by the Lion's Club.

Jean Chambers Is Bride Of Barney Clarke

In the vestry of Knox United Church the marriage was quietly solemnized this afternoon by the Rev. H. G. Douglas of Jean Pearl, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard C. Chambers, and Bernard (Barney) Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clarke, all of Peterborough.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a suit of navy gabardine with white straw sailor hat. Her shoulder bouquet was of white roses. Her only attendant, Miss Gwen Abraham, wore a suit of skipper blue gabardine with pink straw hat and corsage of pink roses.

The groomsman was Mr. Wm. Berwick.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Her mother received in a black and white flowered dress and black straw hat and wore a corsage of red roses. The groom's mother assisted and was in blue with navy hat and also had red roses.

The couple left later on a wedding trip to Toronto and other points and on return will live in Peterborough. For going-away the bride chose a pale blue taffeta dress and navy accessories and wore a red topcoat.

Normal Students Spring Formal

The spring formal dance held Friday evening in the Normal School concluded the social activities of this year's class. More than 80 students attended, with their escorts, and had a happy evening dancing to orchestra music. For novelty, the stuffed animals made by the students in class were used to decorate the ballroom. There was also a profusion of pretty spring flowers. The committee from Form Two in charge of arrangements was headed by Miss Eleanor Johnson and Rod Macklin.

Of Interest to Women

DOROTHY DIX

Qualification for Wifehood Competence, Tact, Humor

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: Not long ago you published an article in your column entitled "What makes a man a good husband?" Will you please write a companion piece to it on "What makes a woman a good wife?"

W. J. MAC., JR.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Well, taking it by and large, I think it takes a larger assortment of virtues and more know-how to make a woman a good wife than it does to make a man a good husband. It is a harder job, with more angles to it, and hence more difficult to give satisfaction. It's like beauty. Husbands expect their wives to keep young and good-looking, but wives don't expect their husbands to maintain their boyish figures and keep their hair.

But, coming down to brass tacks I think that the thing that goes farthest towards making a woman a good wife is for her to be easy to live with. That is the virtue above all other virtues that every husband desires in his wife. He wants a wife who, in the words of the old poet, is to his faults blind, to his virtues very kind.

Next, I would rate a sense of humor as a "must" among wifely virtues. Every marriage is bound to have a lot of ups and downs, in it. No husband is without his aggravating peculiarities, no children are not at times little pests. There are sickness and hard times in practically every family. But the ideal wife is the woman who can laugh things off, instead of having hysterics over them; who turns a smiling face on life and bucks her family up with her own courage.

A good wife is a woman who makes a career of wifehood. She takes it on the level. She doesn't expect her husband to be something that he is not and never can be. She knows all his faults and defects but she never reproaches him with them. She makes of her love a cloak that hides his imperfections from others.

Good Provider

The woman who is a good wife is a good provider. She is a good cook and feeds her family well and wisely. Her house is always tidy and a place of rest and peace.

In a word, it sums up to this: The good wife is a woman who tries as hard to make a success of being a wife as she would at any other profession. She doesn't nag. She doesn't browbeat her husband. She doesn't whine. She doesn't neglect her children. She is the prop and stay of the family. She is friend, counselor and guide to her household. And you will find her everywhere, except in the divorce court.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am a war bride and away from home, and my husband and I fight over who should read my letters first. He says he should, but I think that I should because they are always from England and I am so anxious to hear from my family.

Which of us do you think should read the letters first?

CURIOUS WIFE.

ANSWER: The individual to whom a letter is addressed has the privilege of opening it and reading it. That is a universal rule which is respected by everyone who has any sense of decency. In your case the offense of your husband opening your letters before you have seen them is particularly unforgivable, because they come from your own family in a faraway country from whom you are always anxious to hear.

Perhaps when your husband thinks this over he will see how cruel he is in not letting you have first glimpse of the letters that mean so much to you and practically nothing to him except as satisfaction of vulgar curiosity.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: All I want to know is if it is possible for a girl at the age of 17 to be in love. I think I am, but I am not too sure. Everyone thinks it is just puppy love. Do you think it can be that, or it is the real thing?

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Most girls and boys have an attack of puppy love at your age, but if properly treated they recover from it with no bad effects. On the contrary, it is a good educational experience, especially for girls, because it teaches them not to lay too much stress on their emotions and to realize what a great difference there is between real love and a passing fancy.

You are a wise girl when you recognize that you cannot tell the difference between puppy love and real love. When Mr. Right comes down your alley, you will know him.

Talent-MoneyBags Receivd At RNAO Supper

A pot luck supper Friday evening for members of the RNAO, Chapter C, District 6, marked the closing of the season's activities. The supper was served at seven o'clock in the St. Joseph's nurses' residence under direction of Miss Kathleen Doris and Miss Bernadine Snider. Tables were effectively garnished with white and purple lilacs.

Miss Ethel Fenwick gave a report on the semi-annual meeting of District Six held at Wellington on May 17.

Talent-money bags were handed in by members. Some of the methods used to triple the amounts they contained were sale of hand lotion and marmalade and cookie recipes. One member held a euchre party.

Miss A. L. Thomson, president, congratulated the Sisters of St. Joseph and the supper conveners for the well-organized meeting. She also expressed appreciation for the co-operation given her, and the members in turn showed their gratitude for her splendid leadership.

Three Choirs Give Concert

Three choirs, Junior, Intermediate, and Boys' of St. Andrew's United Church were heard in a delightful program on Friday evening. Under the direction of Mrs. John McColl the choirs composed of 56 voices make up an organization which is rarely found in churches even much larger than St. Andrew's. The congregation gave good support to its young choirs and almost filled the church for the annual Spring Festival.

Mr. Quirt McKinney of the Normal School acted as chairman and introduced the 24 numbers on the program. Janet Merrett presented Mr. McKinney to the audience. The lovely program which consisted of numbers by the combined choirs, by the separate choirs, solos, duettes, trios and quartettes was opened with some lively numbers which the choristers enjoyed singing and closed with the more heavier type. Members of the choirs are:

Juniors—Amelia Baggs, Diane Fletcher, Patricia Hewitt, Marie Hughey, Sharon Hutchinson, Mary Lou James, Mary Elizabeth Laing, Katherine Lewis, Katherine Magee, Anne Merrett, Bonnie Moffatt, Joan Mowry, Donna McDougall, Sheila Nicholls, Helen Rusk, Mary Tudhope, Patricia Tudhope, Mary Jane Vilneff, Ruth Warr, Margaret Young.

Boys—Richard Atkinson, Roy Bacon, Vernon Chiles, Peter Falkner, Rae Frost, Douglas Ham, George Harris, John Hewitt, Harold Holman, Bobby Hunter, Brendon Lincoln, Allan McNab, John Mann, Murray Mann, Terry Northrop, Bruce Putnam, George Putnam, Peter Savage, Tommy Williams, Teddy Wood.

Intermediates—Lorraine Bacon, Lois Bearne, Jean Black, Sylvia Brethour, Marion Crawford, Shirley Frost, Clarabel James, Rolene James, Janet Merrett, Margaret Munro, Betty Murphy, Edith Nicholls, Audrey O'Neil, Barbara Walker, Dorothy Watson, Shirley Wishart.

Mr. Walter Morrow, assistant director and accompanist; Miss Mary Lackie, assistant accompanist and secretary; Miss Marion Chase, treasurer.

A vote of thanks was given by Betty Murphy and Rev. M. J. Aiken closed the program with the benediction.

125 Citizens Visit Anson House On "Open" Day

Anson House became Open House to the public Friday afternoon. Approximately 125 citizens availed themselves of the opportunity to view this residence from cellar to attic. Splendid organization by the Board members made the visits pleasant from start to finish and not a single mishap marred the occasion.

Mrs. R. R Hall and Mrs. Jas. Hamilton were receiving and Mrs. G. S. Cameron and Mrs. Fred Hills escorted the guests through the building.

Miss Laura Davidson had charge of the tea room where she had arranged an attractive tea table. Mrs. F. M. Delafosse and Mrs. F. M. Somerville poured the tea and church representatives served.

Beautiful spring flowers throughout the rooms vied for beauty honors with those growing outside the House where a blue sky, soft white clouds and fresh greenery all around made the latter look exceedingly well.

Ladies in residence mingled with the guests and enjoyed meeting friends, and the gentlemen were in the sitting room. An exhibit of knitting and crocheting done by residents was displayed by Mrs. G. R. Langley. A patchwork quilt they had made attracted much attention. Later, the knitted articles were donated to the Grenfell Labrador Mission.

6—In Memoriams

CROUTER—In loving memory of Sidney Wallace Crouter, who passed away 12 years ago, May 22.
His weary hours and days of pain,
His troubled nights are past;
And in our aching heart we know
He has found sweet rest at last.
—Ever remembered by his sons and daughters.

HANSON—In loving memory of a dear mother, Sarah Hanson, who passed away, May 23, 1926.
Years of striving, little of play,
Loving and giving the whole of the way,
A cheerful smile, a heart of gold,
To the dearest mother the world could hold;
Happy memories, fond and true,
From us who thought the world of you.
—Lovingly remembered by Lottie and Herb.

LOUCKS—In loving memory of my Dad, Edgerton Loucks, who passed away three years ago, May 22, 1946.
I have only your memory, dear Dad,
To remember my whole life through,
But the sweetness will linger forever,
As I treasure the image of you.
—Ever remembered by Floss, Frank and family.

LOUCKS—In fond and loving memory of my dear husband, Edgerton Loucks, who passed away three years ago, May 22, 1946.
He is just away.
He would not want the ones he loves
To grieve for him today,
I must not say that he is dead
For he is just away.
Away upon a journey,
To a land that's bright and fair,
And though I miss him more each day,
I know he's happy there.
And memories of him will bring
New comfort every day
As I recall he is not dead
He is just away.
At home in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley blessed so fair
Some day, some time, when my task is o'er
With joy I shall meet him there.
—Sadly missed by his wife 'Nan.

QUEMBY—In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Frederick Quemby, who passed away May 22, 1945.
God knew that he was suffering,
That the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed his weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."
Away in the beautiful hills of God,
By the valley of rest so fair
Some time, some day, we know not when,
We will meet our loved one there.
—Lovingly remembered by father and brother Bill.

Saunders Going To Washington To Get Treaty

OTTAWA, May 21 (CP)—Robert Saunders, Ontario Hydro chairman, announced Friday that he has been authorized to communicate directly with Canadian officials in Washington in his efforts to have the present water diversion at Niagara Fals ratified by treaty.

Following a meeting with officials of the Canadian external affairs department, he said he will go to Washington within 10 days.

The original boundary water treaty between Canada and the United States permitted the Ontario Hydro Commission to use 36,000 cubic feet of water a second for operation of its power plant at Niagara Falls. A diplomatic note in 1940 approved an increase in the cubic footage to 56,500, but the note is due to lapse April 15, 1951.

Get At New Plant

Mr. Saunders said that if the extra diversion can be made permanent by treaty, the commission will construct a new plant at Queenston, to convert the additional flow into another 500,000 horsepower. He said the conversion will cost an estimated $70,000,000.

Plans call for the water to be taken from the river above the falls and carried by canals to the falls to take advantage of the full drop of some 310 feet.

Mr. Saunders also said he renewed his plea that the Dominion take all necessary steps to get action on the St. Lawrence river power development.

"The fact is, we must start something in the next 12 months. If it can't be the St. Lawrence development, it has to be the one at Niagara.

Lord Jesus Misunderstood

By REV. E. R. JAMES

Is this the Carpenter: the son of Mary. And he was offended at him.—Mark 6; 3.

The leading men of the Synagogue was "offended at Him because He was the Carpenter, the Son of Mary." On that Sabbath morning, as His custom was, He entered the Synagogue to worship. He had made a great impression in the country and it was natural that His own village wished to hear Him. The prominent people were offended at His learning and knowledge. They could not understand that a carpenter, whom they all knew could speak so ably. A modern scholar reminds us that some of the greatest thinkers were brought up in humble surroundings of toil and poverty.

A CARPENTER. A Builder was no ordinary man. He came to build the Kingdom of God, of which He is the Corner Stone, which His own people rejected. We will not have this Man to be our Teacher in the search of truth. Are we in danger of misunderstanding Him? He came to reveal Himself as the Son of God in a wonderful sense of the word.

About fifty years ago Dr. Sheldon published a book, "What Would Jesus Do"? It had a very wide circulation emphasising that Jesus was a real Man; a side of the truth which had been overlooked by the preachers of that day, who placed great stress upon His Diety; that He was truly God. Let us learn to properly balance the truth, which is not easy.

Herod's misunderstanding. In this same chapter Herod, who had honored John the Baptist, had the forerunner beheaded. Herod proclaimed that John the Baptist was risen from the dead. "Therefore do mighty works show forth themselves in him," v. 10. He recognized that the new teacher was a severe teacher, like the Baptist. This is a truth many today overlook. They speak of The gentle Jesus, meek and mild, making little appeal to the strong man. The same gentle Jesus tells us that He is come to judge evil and will say to them: "Depart from Me, ye workers of iniquity." for the Father hath given Him authority to execute judgment also because He is the Son of Man. Let us not forget this other side of the truth.

The popular misunderstanding. "Straightway He constrained His disciples to get into a ship and go over to the other side." St. John tells us why He "constrained" exercising His authority. "Then these men, when they saw the miracle which Jesus did, said: Of a truth this is that prophet which should come into the world. When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take Him by force and make Him a King; He departed again into the mountain." The disciples went into the boat without Him and hoped He would proclaim himself a King of Israel and drive the Romans into the sea. It is very hard for men even today to realize that He is to be a Spiritual King of heaven and earth and not sit on an earthly throne.

Let us not forget that the wise men looked for the King of the Jews and they had wisdom and insight to offer gifts of gold, frankincense and myrhh to the Babe in a humble cottage. With the inward eye they saw the future. With you spiritual eyes can you see Jesus, crucified King of the Jews, the risen Lord and Saviour of all men, of every color and language.

Many of His disciples said this is a hard saying: Who can hear it. And they walked no more with Him.

Jesus said: I am the Truth, the Way and the Life.

Lurie noted that, while stuccoing normally is a summer-only job, some northern communities are successfully building with stucco all winter. Canvas coverings big enough to shield an entire house are heated so the stucco can be applied and "cured" properly.

Seemon Moves Up In RCAF

OTTAWA, May 21.—(CP)—A shift in top-level R.C.A.F. appointments was announced today following the retirement of Air Vice-Marshal E. E. Middleton, head of the R.C.A.F. Central Command for the last four years.

He retires Sept. 1, to be succeeded by Air Vice-Marshal C. R. Slemon, one of the five original members of the R.C.A.F. still serving in the force. He moves up to the job from his headquarters post of air member for operations and training.

Air Vice-Marshal Slemon will be replaced at Ottawa by 40-year-old Air Commodore F. R. Miller, now on the Canadian joint staff at Washington, who is promoted to Air Vice-Marshal.

Air Vice-Marshal Middleton, 50, retires after service with the R.C.A.F. since 1925. He was a fighter pilot in the Royal Naval Air Service during the First World War and director of personnel for the R.C.A.F. overseas during the Second World War. A native of Buckingham, Que, he received the C.B.E. in 1945.

Air Vice-Marshal Slemon was the first R.C.A.F. pilot to receive his wings in peace time. He joined the service in 1924, after an engineering course at the University of Manitoba. Now 44, he was an outstanding pilot during the early days of the R.C.A.F., working on forest-fire patrols and photographic operations.

Files $100,000 Suit

NEW YORK, May 21 (AP) — Playwright Maxwell Anderson Friday filed a $100,000 libel suit against author Francis Hackett whom he accused of taking credit for parts of the Broadway hit, "Anne of the Thousand Days." Anderson charged that Hackett gave newspaper interviews in which he accused the playwright of lifting material from Hackett's books to use in the play.

Dutch Children Send Books To Canada As 'Thank You'

OTTAWA, May 20 (CP) — A giant "thank you" gift has arrived from The Netherlands for the children of Canada."

Approximately 5,000 copies of a brightly illustrated book, entitled "Behind the Dunes and Dykes," now are at The Netherlands Embassy and soon will be in the hands of boys and girls in schools across the Dominion.

The books are from the children of Holland, their way of saying thank you for the pencils, writing paper and other materials sent them by Canadian youngsters.

Raised Year Ago

Money for the supplies was raised a year ago in a campaign conducted by the Canadian Council for Reconstruction through the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

Names of contributing schools were enclosed in the packages sent overseas and since then letters of appreciation have poured into the Dominion from schools throughout the continent.

Crayon pictures the children drew themselves inside the covers of "Behind the Dunes and Dykes" have made the copies even more personal.

The book itself was complied by J. W. Rengelink and I. Mug and translated by R. S. Springett. It contains what Netherlands children want Canadian children to know about themselves.

It tells about windmills and how they operate, gives a bit of the history of the Netherlands and dispels the idea that the country is solely a land of bulbs and cheese.

"Certainly, we excel in flowerbulbs. . .and we are indeed the land of Dutch cheese . . . but we are more, much more than that," it says.

Well Illustrated

The books is liberally illustrated with pictures, depicting all sides of Netherlands life. There is one of Canada's former Prime Minister, Mackenzie King, taken at Amsterdam with Queen Juliana and the Royal Family of the Netherlands.

Two paragraphs in this 38-page book sum up the havoc which the Germans created when they over-ran the country in 1940. They end with these words:

"There were Canadian soldiers amongst the first troops who entered Holland as liberators and now again it is the Canadians who are coming to the assistance of our youth."

THE CARETAKER'S HOUSE at the south entrance to the Peterborough County forest is shown here in a rear view. Soil for the front lawn was not levelled when the picture was taken this week. The house was begun during the war, but construction was held up for lack of materials and labor. It is now the home of Raymond Rogers of Norwood, caretaker, and his wife. It is a comfortable dwelling, with siding of fabricated insul-brick, roomy and well lighted. There are no near neighbors, and its isolation may probably be accentuated in a winter of heavy snow. This property is owned by the County of Peterborough.

CUONTY FARM NOTES

By HARRY THEOBALD

No T.B. Reactor Found in Retest of 22 Herds of Cattle in Otonabee . . . Millbrook Spring Show, Wed., June 8 . . . Middlesex Farmer's Pasture Improvement for Beef Herd.

Of the 465 cattle examined by Dr. J. H. Leslie in the first week of the T. B. re-test in Otonabee, not one reactor was found, Mr. F. C. Paterson informed the Examiner yesterday.

"Dr. Leslie is working under Dr. G. R. Penhall," Mr. Paterson said. "His report is for the first week ending May 18. He has completed 22 herds in the township, and they have made a perfect score. There was no sign of tuberculosis in those 465 cattle. Dr. Leslie says he is getting full cooperation from the farmers he has already visited.

This retesting is quite a long time overdue, but the results so far could not be improved. We are hoping that there will be reports of that nature."

Mr. Paterson said their might be some more inspectorship help later on.

76 ELGIN REACTORS

Test of 39 herds in Elgin county, comprising 548 cattle, disclosed 76 T.B. reactors during the first week as reported a few day ago. The contagion was found in eight herds. Amount of compensation to owners was $2,696. An increase in the rate of compensation is expected.

GERMANS AT CONFERENCE

The new German republic of the west is sending a delegation to the conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers at Guelph, beginning May 31, as announced from Bonn this week. Dr. Andreas Hermes, pre-Hitler minister of agriculture, will head the deputation.

Incidentally, Peterborough may be represented on the several days allotted for observers. The Federation of Agriculture did not make any appointment, but left the opportunity optional. Possibly Mr. W. W. Dawson and Mr. John Kitney may find time to spend a day at O.A.C. during the conference.

IFAO DELEGATES ARRIVING

Distribution and sale of surplus food products through an international medium of marketing and exchange is the broad proposal of Canadian Federation of Agriculture to the conference of the International Federation of Agricultural Producers, beginning at OAC, Guelph, May 31.

By this plan needy countries would be able to supply their hungry people with surplus foods at a cost within their reach. The difference between the price which must be paid to the producer and that which could be paid by the ultimate consumer would be borne by an international emergency food fund set up by the member nations of FAO and the governments of the surplus producing countries. The loss or difference in price would be charged back on the basis of 50 per cent to the producer member and 50 per cent to the emergency fund. Distribution of food supplies in needy countries would be carried out by the use of food coupons.

Obviously this is a vast undertaking, but there is some hope for it in the expected attendance of representatives of some 20 nations. Sir Jas Turner, president of the international organization, will be chairman of the conference. Rt. Hon. J. C. Gardiner will deliver the opening address.

Some of the international agricultural leaders who are expected to attend are: Sir James Turner; possibly Lord John Boyd Orr, Director-General of FAO for three years; H. D. Louwes, president of the Netherlands farm federation.

P. Martin, president of the farm federation of France; Lord Francis Scott of Kenya; Kenneth Knowles, secretary-general of the British Farmers' Union.

Allan Kline, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation; James G. Patton, president of the US National Farmers' Union; Albert Goss, president of the National Grange of the US.

A. Hoegsbro-Holm, for many years secretary of the Danish Agricultural Council; Professor A. E. Sandelin of Finland; a delegation of eight from India will be headed by Professor N. G. Ranga; other farm leaders are expected from Norway, Sweden, Belgium, Luxembourg, Southern Rhodesia, South Africa, New Zealand, Jamaica.

A large group of the delegates start from Halifax on Monday, May 23, on a tour of the Maritimes and Quebec. There is also a post-conference trip through the West to Vancouver. A majority of the party will return through the US as guests of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

A GOOD BEEF PASTURE

An account of a pasture experiment by D. B. Weldon, RR 2, London, Ont., is included in the report of the Ontario Crop Improvement Association convention last February, copies of which are available at the office of F. C. Paterson, agricultural representative.

Mr. Weldon acquired 40 acres, without buildings. Only 23 acres were put down to permanent pasture mixture, the rest of the farm being rather unproductive bare hillside and close second growth woodlot. The owner consulted Prof. N. J. Thomas of OAC and W. K. Riddell and K. E. Lantz of the agricultural representative's office.

The property was bought early in 1946. It was an early season and 16 acres were plowed late in March.

Recommendations were that plowing should not be more than 5 to 6 inches deep the furrow turned as flat as possible and the grass well covered. This was then disked, harrowed and cultipacked, and those operations repeated every ten days.

Soil sample showed: organic matter-medium; nitrogen-medium; phosphate-low; potash-low; soil reaction-alkaline; calicum-high; magnesium-high.

Ten days before seeding 400 pounds of 2-12-6 fertilizer were drilled 3 to 4 inches deep. After final working the soil was packed twice to make it firm, as some grass seeding the year before had been lost because the seed was placed too deep in mellow soil.

Choice Of Mixture

The following seed mixture, 38 pounds per acre, was used—alfalfa, 3 pounds; white Dutch clover 1; ladino clover 2; Brome grass 8; orchard grass 5; meadow fescue 5; timothy 5; perennial rye 6; Italian rye 3.

Seeds were mixed together and run through the wheat side of the grain drill. At the same time 250 pounds per acre of 4-12-6 fertilizer was added.

One-half the area was seeded with the tubes flopping, the other half, which proved more satisfactory, with the tubes removed. There was a fairly good rain after seeding, so no covering was done.

The date of the seeding was May 8, 1946. Fairly frequent showers and good growing weather followed. Cattle were put on the field the third week in June, six weeks after seeding. The mower was run over the field in the first week in July and again in August. A dozen head of cattle were pastured but were taken off late in September owing to the dry fall. In early October an additional 400 pounds per acre of 4-12-6 fertilizer was broadcast, the comment of Prof. Thomas being: "One cannot overfeed a well managed pasture."

Eleven head of cattle were put on the 16 acres early in May 1947. They were not able to cope with the growth, so more cattle, including some taken in from a local breeder, were put on to make a total of 25 cows and calves. They were left until November. The pasture was clipped about four inches high three times during the season, the owner feeling that this clipping was most important to keep some mulch on the ground and to prevent any of the grasses from heading. A few wild carrot heads showed up. Some were pulled, but the luxuriant growth of grass seemed to smother most of these weeds.

Tested By Dry Spell

In 1948 the field was given an application of 150 lbs. per acre of 4-12-10 on April 1. The pasture was heavily stocked from May 4 to December 6, averaging one cow per acre most of the time. Clipping was done four times, Ladino and other clover showed up particularly well in the mixture, especially in June. With the prolonged drouth some parts of the area showed a little drying, but the low ground remained green, and the whole area revived remarkably with just a shower.

Near the end of the dry spell Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture, went over the pasture and pronounced it one of the best in Ontario.

Six acres of rough new land adjoining the 16 acres were bulldozed for levelling and draining purposes early in 1947. This area was summer fallowed, seeded with the same pasture mixture the first week in September, seeding being done both ways as some of the ground was still rather uneven. Growth was rapid, and quite a lot of pasturing was done on it in November. It was not pastured in 1948 until June 1 to give the grass a chance to make a good start.

This pasture has been a great satisfaction to the owner. It has demonstrated what can be done quickly with adequate fertilizer, suitable seed mixtures and careful management. The contrast with what the farm had been producing before treatment was so marked that the results have been widely commented upon.

Mr. Weldon's objective was to provide maximum amounts of feed according to latest approved practices; demonstrate a model pasture; and provide an attractive show window for Angus cattle.

International Rubber Union Head Fired By Members For Move Against Officers

13 Other Members of Executive Act As Trial Board; Said Responsible For Riot In March

PHILADELPHIA, May 24—(AP)—The United Rubber Workers (CIO) today announced that L. S. Buckmaster has been fired as International president of the Union. Robert Cruden, public relations director for the Union, said Buckmaster's removal was ordered by the 13 other members of the Union's general executive board who acted as a trial board and heard testimony on charges against Buckmaster here from April 25 to May 20.

The URW president, re-elected by a margin of only two votes last fall, was tried on these charges:

1. That he conspired with "certain individuals" to deprive local union officers of their rights.
2. That he issued public statements falsely attacking the character of local officers.
3. That he was responsible for a riot that broke up a meeting of Local 336, Pottstown, Pa., last March.
4. That his conduct was part of a general plan to deprive the Pottstown Local of its "rights and democratic privileges."
5. That these actions constituted "malfeasance in office."

General's Ultimatum Expires At 7 O'Clock Tonight; British And French Silent

West German Police Ordered To Restore Peace In Rail Strike, 2 Killed As 3,000 Storm Russ-Held Point

BERLIN, May 24—(AP)—Brig.-Gen. Frank L. Howley today gave an ultimatum to Soviet-employed railway police to withdraw from all American sector railway stations in Berlin. The police were given until 7 p.m. to comply. Howley said west-Berlin police will take over to restore order following bloody rioting last night, which resulted in two deaths.

British and French officials refused yesterday to endorse Howley's proposal that the Soviet-controlled railway guards be expelled from all Allied sectors. The Russians, by four-power agreement, have had control of all railways in Berlin.

The ouster of the railway police was demanded by both the anti-Communist Rail Union, which went on strike Saturday, and the west Berlin city government. They claimed the Soviet-controlled railway could break the strike unless the stations were firmly in western hands. The strikers are demanding payment in west marks.

Howley, the United States commandant in Berlin, gave the expulsion order to American-sector German police to carry out. Such a step had been described previously by British and French authorities as conflicting with the agreement recognizing Soviet authority over the rail system.

Mob Storms Station

The violence erupted suddenly after a comparatively quiet day, a howling mob of about 3,000 striking railway workers and their sympathizers tried to storm an elevated-railway station.

Soviet-controlled German railway police fired on them. A 45-year-old man, shot in the head, died instantly. A 16-year-old youth also was reported killed. Two other persons suffered minor wounds.

More bloodshed was averted by firm action on the part of British authorities, who demanded that 200 eastern police evacuate the station. The Russian-supported railway police yielded and west Berlin police took over the two-storey structure.

While the negotiations were going on, the angry mob was restrained by western police and union leaders armed with clubs.

Red Stronghold

The station near the Berlin Zoo, has been a stronghold of Communist strikebreakers and eastern German police trying to get the elevated railway system running. The system has been paralyzed since the workers struck Saturday, chiefly over a demand that they be paid in west marks, worth four times as much as Russian-backed east marks.

British authorities intervened a second time when the eastern police force offered to withdraw because of the menacing attitude of "action squads" of strikers.

Western-Berlin police were sent to maintain order and cleared the station grounds of Communists. British officials felt the eastern police were entitled to remain as long as they had the situation under control and did not provoke incidents.

U.K. Postpones Eisler's Hearing For Three Days

LONDON, May 24 —(AP)—An extradition hearing for fugitive-Communist Gerhart Eisler was postponed today until Friday at the request of the United States.

The Communist leader who fled the United States while under sentence on two criminal convictions was brought into London's Bow Street Magistrate's Court today for a hearing on a United States request that he be returned to the United States.

But F. Graham Maw, representing the United States embassy at the hearing, said the United States needed more time to prepare the case against Eisler.

Maw suggested an eight-day delay.

Eisler's lawyer, Dudley Collard, protested that the case should be heard immediately.

"It is intolerable that Eisler should be kept in a British prison while the United States take their leisurely preparation of this case," he told Magistrate J. F. Eastwood.

Magistrate Compromises

The magistrate compromised on a three-day delay and refused for the second time to set bail for Eisler.

Maw said the official United States request for Eisler's extradition had arrived in London only last night and that he had no time to make copies before it was handed to the home office.

Collard said the United States, "with its resources," should have had no difficulties in getting ready for the case.

"The defence, with its limited resources, has been able to prepare its case,' Collard said.

U.A.W. Offers To Arbitrate

DETROIT, May 24 — (AP). — The United Automobile Workers (CIO) to-day offered to arbitrate their "real issue" in the Ford speed-up strike.

Contingent then on settlement of "minor points," said the UAW, the strike idling 106,000 Ford workers would be ended.

Whether the union move opens the gate to an early peace remained to be seen on the 20th day of the walkout, however. Negotiations have been recessed since Sunday night.

Described by the union as a "genuine arbitration proposal," it was contained in a five-page document signed by UAW President Walter Reuther and addressed to Vice-president John S. Bugas of Ford.

Saskatchewan Allows U.K. Doctors Practise

LONDON, May 24—(CP)—Sir Herbert Eason, president of the General Medical Council, announced today the Saskatchewan legislature passed a measure to permit United Kingdom medical practitioners to practise there.

The council will recommend reciprocal privileges here for Saskatchewan doctors.

The move revives a 1916 arrangement which lapsed in 1926. Sir Herbert said it is hoped to resume similar exchange arrangements with New Brunswick, Quebec and Ontario, and to establish such a plan for the first time in British Columbia.

Worker Killed In Walk Scuffle

KITCHENER, May 24 (CP) — A 21-year-old Waterloo township man was held today as a material witness in connection with the death Monday of Sylvester Duhaime, 60, a Packinghouse worker, in a sidewalk scuffle.

Dr. L. C. Fischer of Kitchener, provincial pathologist, held a post mortem and said the result probably will be announced today. Investigators said preliminary examination indicated that Duhaime had been choked.

Duhaime's daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Patten, said her father had been sitting outside an apartment building when he became involved in an argument and altercation with a younger man who walked up to him and started a conversation.

Tossed Out Of Bar Man Dies Of Injury

SELKIRK, Man., May 24—(CP)—A coroner's jury has decided that John James Ratt, 63, died May 15 of a fractured skull while in RCMP custody. His death followed overnight detention in police cells.

The jury gave its decision last night.

Dr. W. I. Easton, who performed the autopsy, testified Ratt suffered the injury while being ejected from the beverage room of a Selkirk hotel.

Twenty witnesses submitted corroborating evidence that Ratt was refused additional drinks at the hotel and then was ejected. RCMP officers later picked him up off the sidewalk in front of the hotel and removed him to the town cells.

After being visited several times during the night by a doctor, Ratt finally was ordered removed to hospital where he died two hours after being admitted.

Main Streets Deserted During Holiday

A holiday, according to the Concise Oxford Dictionary, is a day of "cessation from work or of recreation." It was obvious to any yawning sightseer in Peterborough early today that few people were working and the favorite local recreation was logging some slumber hours. The main streets were bare.

What little activity there was centred about the few restaurants and eating places that were open. By 10.30 a.m. a total of 15 (men, women, children and dogs) could be counted on both sides of George St. from Murray down to King.

Two American cars—one with Ohio licence plates and the other with New York ones—has disgorged their passengers and the latter were glumly peering into shop windows. They seemed at a loss in the midst of the Liftlock City's sleepy recognition of Victoria Day.

Flags Numerous

Flags were more numerous than usual on the city streets and several stores had placed union jacks in the display windows. Union Jacks or Red Ensigns were flying from the City Building and the places of business of J. J. Turner; Examiner; Kerr, McElderry, Howell and Bradshaw; Hill, Weddell and Hills; also St. John's Church, Post Office, Capitol Theatre, Chamber of Commerce, and Neill's.

The most notable exception was the County Building where a bare flag pole towered over Victoria Park.

A red-white-and-blue crayon Union Jack, obviously the work of a school child, was pasted up in the window of one Murray St. home, near George St. It was one of the few signs of spontaneous recognition of what the holiday signifies.

Reds Crack Shanghai Defence

By FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, May 24—(AP)—Refugees, screaming that the Communists had broken into southwestern Shanghai, gave the city its worst scare today in a fortnight of siege. But the tension eased somewhat when no Red troops appeared. Some skittish residents, though, mindful of shot and shell flying on the near side of the Whangpoo, took fewer chances of getting hit.

In its mid-day communique, the Nationalist garrison ignored the wild-eyed, muddy refugees. It claimed government triumphs all around the city of 5,000,000.

In the confusion, made more difficult by the battle of gunfire, this much seemed clear:

On the east they had pushed to the banks of the Whangpoo, opposite the heart of the city.

Panic-Stricken Refugees

Reports from the southwest edge of the city gave a graphic picture of refugees flying pell-mell through the streets. Some Nationalist soldiers were said to be among them.

Heavy fighting was reported near the edge of the old French concession and international settlement. No Communists had managed to get through the wooden fence erected by the Nationalists in that area, it was reported.

It was considered possible some foreigners in the Hungjao area, five miles southwest of the city, might have been over-run by the Communists. Telephone communications with that area were out.

The garrison communique said Nationalist planes spotted 100 junks at the mouth of the Chowpu creek, up-river from the centre of Shanghai. Thirty were reported sunk with a large loss of life.

The garrison said the Communist commandeered them for a crossing attempt. Another Red concentration of junks near Tungkao, a few miles down-river from the centre of the city, was said to have been broken up by government planes and naval gunfire.

Plan To Excommunicate Catholics Aiding Czech Reds

PRAGUE, May 24—(AP)—Archbishop Josef Beran threatened today to excommunicate all Roman Catholics collaborating with Czechoslovakia's communist government against the church. The Archbishop charged that an attempt was being made to set up "a new Catholic church without its current Bishops and its principal head in Rome."

The statement was the sharpest the Archbishop has made in a mounting church-state conflict here. It was contained in a personal letter to Alois Petr, minister of transport and head of the communist-approved Catholic Peoples Party.

The letter's contents were disclosed by a well-informed and reliable source.

It accused Petr of "sins" and of distorting information in the press about Roman Catholic activities.

Cites Oppression

The archbishop's latest blast follows disclosure last Friday of a letter written by him to the clergy on April 29, citing oppressive acts against the church by the state.

The letter said negotiations between the government and the church were broken off in March when recording devices were discovered in the conference room.

The People's Party purged of its most active anti-Communist elements after the Communist revolution in February, 1948, and Petr, once read out of the party, climbed back into power.

The archbishop has consistently refused to see Western newspaper men since the conflict between church and state began—the source of to-day's information had every proof of its authenticity.

"How is it possible to speak about the good will of the National front (the political coalition dominated by the Communist party) when practically a radical divorce between church and state is being undertaken?" the letter demanded.

"Or don't you know at all what is being done against the church?" it asked Petr.

"Are you aware of the fact, and are all Catholics of your and other parties aware, that they are accomplices in all anti-church measures?

Bad Forest Fire Rages In North

SAULT STE. MARIE, May 24—(CP)—A firefighting crew of 110 men Monday were reported battling a dangerous 150-acre forest fire which broke out earlier Monday about 150 miles north of here.

The provincial air service rushed men and equipment to the area 24 miles southwest of Wawa, during the day. Forestry officials said Monday night they were confident the blaze could be checked before it caused any further damage to the rich timberland.

Hopes Youth Of Today Spared War Sacrifice

POINTE CLAIRE, Que., May 24 (CP)—Viscount Alexander today offered a prayer that the sons and daughters of Canada's war dead be spared the "sacrifice" made by these "gallant comrades" and "heroes."

He spoke at a "field of honor" commemoration ceremony in one of the cemeteries provided by the Last Post Fund, near this Quebec village about 15 miles west of Montreal.

On a site near the St. Lawrence river, it is one of the numerous cemeteries built by the fund during the last 40 years as final rest

The Governor-General said he did not believe that paying respects to the fallen should be occasion for depression and despair. 'On the contrary it is an occasion from which we should gain fresh inspiration to carry on the work those we honor today have set us to perform.."

Fifth Person Drowns At Kenora In 3 Days

KENORA, May 24—(CP)— A boating accident on nearby Red Deer Lake yesterday claimed the life of William Letters, 48, of Winnipeg. He was the fifth person to be drowned during the last three days in the Manitoba-Thunder Bay region.

The body was found by a search party of Winnipeg fishermen after Mr. Letters' empty canoe was sighted adrift.

His widow and two small sons survive.

Farmers From 22 Nations Get Big Ottawa Reception

OTTAWA, May 24 (CP) — In the midst of one of the biggest looks at Canada they've ever had, 100 farmers from 22 nations are going to get a hearty reception when they hit Ottawa.

They are the delegates to the Guelph conference of the International Federation of Agricultural producers. The conference opens for 10 days on May 31.

Beginning in Halifax May 23 they'll be taken to Windsor where the Nova Scotia orchards begin and Kentville, the heart of Nova Scotia's apple-growing area.

They'll be swished through New Brunswick and make a two-day tour of old Quebec, become Cosmopolitans again in Montreal and then land in the Federal capital.

Planned for them is a Government House reception, a luncheon by the Federal government and a personal chat with Lord Boyd-Orr, world-famed nutritionist. In the two days they'll spend in the capital they'll see the government's central experimental farm and talk things over with Canada's top agriculturalists.

From here they go on a five-day tour of Ontario agricultural centres, such as London, Kitchener, Brantford and Woodstock and after the conference make an extended journey through the Prairies and British Columbia.

Report Growing Opposition Within Labor Movement

LONDON, May 24 (Reuters)—Two important moves Monday night disclosed development of a formidable opposition within the Labor movement to the five-year plan drafted by Labor Party leaders as a program for next year's general election. The draft document will be submitted to the party's annual conference in two weeks' time.

Important sections of each of the three Labor wings—the party itself, the co-operative movement and the trade unions—are expected before then to have taken a critical stand.

Monday the Fabian Society, 55-year-old parent of the Labor Party, published a pamphlet by veteran propagandist G. D. H. Cole critiicizing the timidity of the five-year plan.

Cole agrees that a second Labor government would have to concentrate mainly on developing and improving the industries which have been nationalized and the social services which have been launched by the present government.

But he insists that the socialistic nature of the government should be proved by other reforms, including abolition of the House of Lords, reform of the machinery of parliament, increased workers' participation in management of nationalized industries, and wider democracy in the diplomatic services and the armed forces.

Simultaneously, leaders of the powerful co-operative movement were in conference in London drafting their objections to the five-year plan. These objections are understood to centre on proposals to nationalize industrial insurance, a field in which the co-operative movement has important interests.

Sporting Events Drawing Holiday Crowds

By The Canadian Press

Canadians today celebrate the 130th anniversary of Queen Victoria's birth by thronging to sporting events, puttering in the garden, taking to the open road or just relaxing under a leafy shade tree.

But whatever their plans for the Victoria Day holiday, many made sure they'd end the day with a bang—thanks to the traditional fireworks.

Because it falls on a Tuesday this year, a mixed observance was planned for the day commemorating the birth of a Queen who ruled an empire 63 years and bore four sons and five daughters.

A few lucky ones, whose business places also closed down Monday, were just winding up an extra long holiday week-end. Some business houses celebrated the holiday Monday instead of Tuesday. A few particularly in Quebec, carried on as usual, even though the day is one of Canada's 10 statutory holidays.

Schools in Montreal were closed but Quebec city's schools and the provincial legislative buildings remained open. They close for the Ascension Day holiday May 26. Most stores close today in Montreal but in Quebec it was business as usual.

Among Quebec's French-speaking citizens today is better known as Dollar Des Ormeaux day in honor of the man who made a gallant but losing stand against the Indians in the Battle of Long Sault.

In Ontario, a few centres celebrated the holiday Monday instead of today to give workers a long week-end. Four newspapers—the Sudbury Star, Kirkland Lake News, Peterborough Examiner and Kingston Whig-Standard—took their holiday Monday and publish today.

Across Canada, police gave the same warning to motorists as to fireworks-users: "Be careful and you won't get hurt."

Canoe Upsets Soldier Drowns

ORILLIA, May 24— Dragging operations were started late Monday afternoon in an effort to recover the body of George Garrick, 23, a soldier from Camp Borden, who was drowned in Lake Couchiching near Orillia Park.

Garrick, who is single, came to Canada from Scotland a year ago and joined the Army Service Corps about five months ago. There are no relatives in Canada.

Garrick and a friend, John Kelly, also a soldier, whose home is at RR3, Tottenham, went out together in a canoe rented from Rolland's Boat Livery. They were about a quarter of a mile from shore when the canoe was caught in the trough of the waves and started to tip. Garrick, who could not swim, stood up to try and right the canoe, but it tipped over, throwing both men into the water.

Kelly grabbed the side of the canoe with one hand and held on to the battledress tunic worn by Garrick with the other, in an attempt to hold him up, but the canoe rolled over on top and Kelly lost sight of his friend. A fisherman who was trolling nearby in a row boat went to the aid of the pair but was not able to arrive in time to rescue Garrick. The fisherman took Kelly back to the boat-house.

Duplessis Men Work For Drew, Parties Separate

QUEBEC, May 24 (CP) — The organizer-in-chief of Premier Duplessis' Union Nationale Party Monday said that "in 75 per cent of the Quebec federal ridings Progressive Conservative Party organizers are Union Nationale organizers."

J. D. Begin, who is also colonization minister, added: But I repeat that the central organization of the Union Nationale Party has nothing to do with the federal election." He said the Union Nationale and Progressive Conservative Party organizations are "two separate entities."

Mr. Begin spoke to The Canadian Press in answer to a query as to the part being played in the current federal election campaign by the Union Nationale Party.

He said the provincial party of Premier Duplessis "was in no way connected with the Progressive Conservative Party organization."

Mr. Begin, reached at his private officer in the Renaissance Club—Union Nationale Party club here—in Grande Allee said:

"Premier Duplessis does not want to have anything to do with the federal election in order to leave all his party members free to act as they wish. If the Premier had imposed a ban on party activities in the federal election, that would have been in fact taking a hand in the election. But he wished to leave members free to take whichever party line they preferred."

No New Clues In Shooting

WINDSOR, May 24 (CP)—Police seeking the shotgun slayer of William Allen, 37-year-old automotive worker, said Monday night they had no new clues. Nor had footprints found outside the kitchen of Allen's west end home pointed to the killer.

Allen, an Edmonton native, who joined Ford in 1940, had been working in the incoming production material inspection department of No. 2 plant. His immediate supervisor, C. R. Caple, said Allen often came to him with stories of personal problems, but added:

"I don't think anything he said to me could have been considered cause for such a thing."

Neighbors described Allen as a man who went out of his way to make friends.

Hear Rible Fire

Noon-day crowds in downtown Shanghai heard rifle fire and the roar of big guns.

Nationalist forces, holding a victory parade of trucks downtown, sent other troops scurrying to plug up any holes that might have burst in Shanghai's defences.

Lunghwa airport, near the battle area, had run out of gasoline but telephone communications still were open. No planes were using the field.

Across the Whangpoo from downtown Shanghai, small-arms fire crackled all night in the Pootung dock and industrial area.

Woosung fortress, commanding the confluence of the Whangpoo and Yangtze 10 miles from the city, was firing its big guns as if under attack.

Members Of Auxiliary At Kingston Rally

MARMORA, May 24 (ENS). — St. Paul's GA with four leaders and nine members was one of 15 branches to attend the Diocesan rally of the Girls' Auxiliary in St. Luke's Parish Hall, Kingston, on Saturday. The local girls enacted the Parable of the Prodigal Son and Ruth Vilneff took second honors in her recitation of the Beatitudes. The Marmora girls also took with them their exhibit of the year's work to be part of the Diocesan exhibition.

Duplessis Over-rules Peace Plans, Charge

MONTREAL, May 24 (CP)—The Ensign, an English-language weekly with a Roman Catholic editorial policy, says in a Quebec dispatch in its current issue that "it is known" Quebec's Labor Minister Antonio Barrette has been over-ruled by Premier Duplessis "in several formulae to settle the strike" of Asbestos miners in Quebec."

The Ensign's story said:

"The focal development has been the aid which the church through authorized collections throughout the parishes has rallied to relieve the suffering of families in the strike-bound districts.

"The brunt of government attack since has been directed at what some government officials term 'church interference.'"

No Compromise If Elected Drew Promises

By The Canadian Press

George Drew says that this Progressive Conservative party, if it is elected to power in Canada's June 27 general election, will not be a "government of compromise."

He told campaign meetings at Dauphin and Flin Flon, Man., Monday that the national vote will result either in a Progressive Conservative government or an alliance of the Liberals and the C.C.F.

"The Progressive Conservative party could form the next government," he said, "but it would not be a government of compromise."

Prime Minister St. Laurent told Liberal rallies in the Saguenay region of Quebec that only goodwill now guarantees French-language rights in the constitution and stressed the need more stringent safeguards. This was one constitutional question that needed clarification.

Warm Reception

Outside Roberval his motorcade of a dozen odd cars was met by 50 more, decorated and tooting their horns, and as he entered town he was greeted by a band and uniformed members of two parish men's groups.

He said in a speech that this area offers an example of what Canadians can do with their natural wealth. With the world security promised by the Atlantic Pact and with the growing unity of Canadians, the country had an opportunity to expand that example.

At Arvida, speaking in both languages for the only time of the day, he said its bilingual audience made him feel more at home than elsewhere because of his eastern townships origin. Elsewhere he quoted the record of government and acceptance of its social security measures as proof that there is a charitable spirit among Canadians, that they feel mutual re-

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, drew Quebec's Asbestos mining strike into the campaign in a speech at Montreal with the charge that Mr. Drew and Premier Duplessis of Quebec were friendly towards "anti-Social foreign interests" which were out to exploit Canada. He identified that "foreign" interest as the American-controlled Canadian Johns-Manville Company, which operates some of the strike-ridden asbestos mines.

"Perhaps men like Messrs. Drew and Duplessis are not really interested in seeing that the provinces are permitted to carry out their proper functions when they are so friendly with anti-Social foreign interests, which are intent on using our resources for their own profits and exploiting both our country and our people," he said.

Midway through the morning both Confederation and Victoria Parks usually have their complement of loungers. Not so today. Confederation was deserted except for two small dogs romping around the war memorial and the only sign of life in Victoria Park was two prisoners shortly before rain fell cutting the top bank of grass.

A sudden burst of life was injected shortly before 11 a.m. when a marriage convoy with wildly tooting horns roared up from south George St.

OBITUARIES

MRS. MARGARET EASON

KEENE, May 24 (ENS)—The death of Mrs. Margaret Eason occurred on Sunday evening, May 22, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jane Shearer of Otonabee, after a short illness.

Mrs. Eason was born in Otonabee 82 years ago and has lived there all her life. She was the daughter of the late John Hope and Marion Steele, and was a member of Bethel United Church.

She leaves a sister, Mrs. Jane Shearer, and several nieces and nephews. Her husband, the late James Shearer, died several years ago.

The funeral will be from the home of her sister, Lot 20, Concession 2, Otonabee, at 2 p.m., Wednesday. The Rev. George Murray of Keene United Church will officiate assisted by Mr. Greene of Keene Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in Fife's Cemetery.

MRS. ANNIE SIDDONS

Mrs. Annie Siddons, 65, of 464 Arndon Ave., died on Monday at her residence following an illness of several months. She was born in Faraday township, daughter of the late George Wadsworth and Maria Brough, and before moving to the city more than a year ago, lived at Paudash Lake. Her husband, Robert Siddons, predeceased her.

She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Herman Hawley (Nellie) of Bancroft, Mrs. Hubert Hewton (Edith) and Miss Hazel Siddons, both of Peterborough. There are two brothers, Robert J. Wadsworth, of Lanark, Ont., and William J. Wadsworth of Dawson Creek, B.C. She was a member of Wood United church.

Funeral service will be held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hewton, 549 Patterson St., on Wednesday at 1 p.m. and a church service at Wood United church, Paudash Lake, at 3.30 p.m.

Mr. O. G. Shantz of McDonnel Street Gospel Hall, will officiate at both services and burial will be at Wood cemetery, Paudash Lake.

ROBERT MANN

The death of Robert Mann, retired farmer, occurred at his residence, 179 Lake St., at 9.45 p.m., Monday, after a week's illness at the age of 81. He had resided in Peterborough for the past 5½ years, previous to that time having lived in Cobourg, Gananoque, and Baltimore.

Mr. Mann was born in Baltimore a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Mann. His wife predeceased him some time ago.

He is survived by two daughters and two sons, Mrs. Clarence Butters (Ethel) of Baltimore; Mrs. Ed. Richey (Hazel), of Peterborough; Harold, Peterborough, and Wilbert, Oshawa. Also surviving are two brothers, Henry and Charles Mann of Baltimore.

The deceased was an elder of Trinity United Church, Peterborough, and a former elder of Baltimore United Church.

The body is resting at Comstock's Funeral Home, 305 Water St., where a funeral service will be held Wednesday at 1.00 p.m., DST, Rev. Dr. D. Bruce Gordon, pastor of Trinity Church, officiating. There will also be a service in Baltimore United Church at 3.30 p.m., Standard Time, Rev. Wendell Woodger officiating. Interment will be in Baltimore United Church cemetery.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, May 24 — (AP)—Grains were a little higher at the opening of today's Board of Trade session. Trading at the start was light and wheat was unchanged to ¼ cent higher than yesterday's close, July $1.97¾; corn was ⅜-½ higher, July $1.33-$1.33⅛, and oats were unchanged to ⅛ lower, July 62.

Planning Board Begins Work On Armour Road

Looking forward to the future development of Peterborough on its Armour Road front, the Town Planning Committee has recommended to the Council a long-term program of directed use and improvement of the properties on the east side of that road.

The land on the west side of the road, and extending to the shore of Little Lake, is largely owned by the Little Lake Cemetery Company. Its area may eventually be expanded, and in any case that extensive frontage is regarded as being in hands that will provide for its future improvement and beautification.

Town Planning Committee is looking to the east side in the hope of being able to offer some measure of guidance in development that will be an asset to the planning of the Cemetery Company.

Moving down Armour Road from the vicinity of the Maria Street intersection, the proposed design for use on the east side begins with an area reserved for light industry. South of it is a green belt of 150 ft. frontage and a residential area reaching up the slope of land from a park along the highway. The plan includes another green belt and south of it another area for light industry.

Suitable for Industry

Nearer No. 7 Highway there are two triangular pieces of land that appear to be suitable for light industry. In that general neighborhood towards Downer's Corners business has already become established without any reference to the potential appearance and value of Armour Road in the future growth of the city on the eastern front.

One comment has been directed to the storage plant of the Shell Oil Company, comprising a cement block building and a numerous collection of drums. The Examiner was told that no attempt has been made to landscape or improve the property, alhough it was said that some assurance of beautification was given to representatives of the City Council when the company decided to locate there.

The Armour Road plan has been carefully considered by the Town Planning Committee, and has now been passed on to the Council as a project for the future, and an amendment of the master plan.

Hold Last Rites For Primate

ATHENS, May 24—(AP)—Solemn last rites today were held for Archbishop Damaskinos, primate of the Greek Orthodox Church, who died Friday.

More than 300,000 persons lined the two-mile front from the Athens cathedral to the cemetery to witness the procession.

The long procession included the Greek cabinet, members of the diplomatic corps, and senior military and civilian leaders.

The funeral service was performed by the Bishop of Samos Iraneos. Eighty-year-old Bishop Ioachim, designated acting primate, was unable to reach Athens in time for the ceremony.

WINNIPEG GRAIN

WINNIPEG, May 24—(CP) — Oats and barley futures prices moved narrowly in a dull trading session on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange Monday. Rye moved up for modest gains. Trading generally reflected the approaching May 24 holiday which contributed to lack of interest in the market by buyers. Rye attracted modest commission house buying. Offerings also were light. Occasional American selling was evidenced.

The United Kingdom was allocated 750,000 bushels of wheat under the Anglo-Canadian agreement and Belgium and South Africa took respective cargoes of 165,000 and 350,000. Prices of class two wheat remained unchanged.

GET PROMOTIONS—H. O. Moran, 41, of Peterborough, left, and Leon Mayrand, 44, of Montreal, have been elevated to the rank of assistant under-secretaries for external affairs in a recent shuffle in that department. Mr. Moran formerly headed the economic division of the department while Mr. Mayrand was chief of the American and Far Eastern division.

Mrs. Kate Morris

one time superintendent of the playgrounds association. She was also engaged with the committee that was formed to provide swimming places for young people, and was helpful in making two such places available, with suitable equipment paid for out of municipal and private contributions.

The abilities of Mrs. Morris were recognized in provincial company, not only as president of the Women's Auxiliary of the GWVA, but also on the women's executive of the Canadian Club, and in the development of Home and School Associations.

The following is quoted from a notation of tribute to Mrs. Morris during those busy and self-sacrificing years of hers when she was first elected to the Board of Eucation in 1916.

"Mrs. Morris is a woman of rare good sense and executive ability. She has the gift and intelligence to grasp the essential points of a subject under discussion and to place them before an audience briefly, lucidly and with convincing clearness."

"It is quite true to say that no call on her time, patience and services has ever gone unanswered. Her familiarity with life in Peterborough, home conditions in households, her strong womanly sympathy, tempered with discriminating judgment, have made her a most valuable citizen in all social service work. All these qualities and her abilities in organization have commanded the confidence of the women of Peterborough and won recognition from the men."

Ran For School Board

The prominence of Mrs. Morris in the affairs of the community recommended her for nomination to the Board of Education.

She was proposed first in 1919, but, for all her manifest qualifications and her desire to promote the welfare of the city and its people, Mrs. Morris was defeated at the polls. The electors were not quite ready to mark their ballots for a woman. However, they made amends in the following January and retained her on the Board until her volunutary retirement in 1926.

Several years later she offered herself again as a candidate. By that time her election was regarded as assured, and the count of votes cerified the confidence of the public in her capacity as an administrator. She was chosen chairman of the Board in 1931. Probably her outstanding contribution to the expansion of Peterborough educational facilities was in her support of the Vocational School project which she regarded as a necessary adjunct to the Collegiate Institute of the expanding industrial city of Peterborough.

She was for years one of the leaders in the development of the Home and School Association, an enterprise designed to bring parents into closer touch with the schools, and the teachers, their work and importance in the community. Mrs. Morris was second vice-president of the Home and School Council in 1928. It is altogether likely that she was on the Patriotic Fund during the first war. It was organized by citizens to provide adequate funds for the dependent families of men who had gone overseas. She was honorary president of the Female Voice Choir, a group that is now all but forgotten.

Mrs. Morris was the widow of Wilfred R. Morris, chartered accountant, who died here two years ago. They moved to Peterborough from Smiths Falls, and for forty years both husband and wife had occupied a prominent place in the city, helping to promote many of its affairs. They were of that generation whose adult years spanned the long ordeal of two world wars and their effects.

The death of Mrs. Morris followed an illness of several months. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Marion Mitchell of New Orleans, and her niece, Miss Clara Morris of Peterborough. The funeral will be Wednesday at 2 p.m. from the family residence 483 Homewood Ave. to St. John's Anglican Church. The service will be conducted by Ven. Archdeacon W. P. Robertson. Burial will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

Cut About Face, Car Hit Bridge

Three accidents involving motor vehicles were investigated by the City Police in the last 24 hours. Apart from facial lacerations for which one man was treated in Civic Hospital, there were no injuries.

A car driven by R. G. McCartney, North Monaghan, struck the bridge at the corner of Bethune and Murray Sts., at 1.00 a.m. today, causing damage of around $200 to the car. Melvin McCartney brother of the driver, who was a passenger, received cuts about the face when the windshield was shattered.

According to police report, the car was proceeding south on Bethune St. and on crossing the bridge caught a steel girder that was sticking out. The girder drew the front end of the car in towards the bridge railing and the rear end was swung around against a fence. Considerable damage was done to the left front fender, wheel and headlight, as well as the bumper.

In another accident, cars driven by J. Eldon Paquette, 199 Crescent St., and William Laundry, 577 Harvey St., were in collision on Charlotte St. at 10.25 p.m. on Monday. Considerable damage was sustained by Paquette's car, which was proceeding west at the time.

In the third accident a car driven by Edward J. Bentley, 619 Center St., was in collision with a bicycle ridden by Blaynn Northey, 210 Dublin St. at 6.30 p.m. Monday on the west side of Aylmer St., just south of Brock St. Mr. Bentley reported that the collision occurred as he was trying to park his car. As he was doing so a truck drove out from a lot at the rear of the Kesco Electric Co. In attempting to drive around the truck, he collided with the rear of the bicycle. No one was hurt in the crash and damage to the bicycle was estimated at about $20.

Pictures Tell Health Story

COBOURG, May 24 (ENS). — Northumberland and Durham Counties Health Unit annual report for 1948, released on Saturday is profusely illustrated with photographs to show the various phases of work done by the Health Unit. Previous reports were mostly statistical, but this year Dr. C. W. MacCharles, senior medical officer and his staff, decided to use photographs to explain the work of the unit.

For several week photographer Murray Smith accompanied staff members on their duties throughout the counties and made a picture story to show the activities of the health unit. The pictures, taken during the actual work of the staff, show inoculations at rural schools, immunization of children at the clinic, care of sick children in the home, T.B. work, physical examinations of school children, child health conferences, infant care and the duties of the sanitary inspectors in testing water, milk, restaurant inspections, etc.

Explanatory text accompanies the photographs and the only statistical data is that found in the last four pages of the book.

Evening Auxiliary Studies DP Problems

BETHANY, May 24 (ENS) — The regular meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society was held at the home of the president, Mrs. T. J. Jackson. An invitation was received to attend the 60th anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society to be held in Hastings.

The program was a dialogue "Newcomers to Canada" giving information of these people who come to this country as immigrants and displaced persons and the help that Canadians can give by neighborliness in each community. Those taking part were Mrs. Crandall, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Coppins, Crs. C. Rowan and Mrs. Waddell.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess assisted by her daughter Isabel, served dainty refreshments. A collection of $4.25 was received.

Struck By Car

ROSENEATH, May 24 (ENS)— Alfred Loukes of Alderville, while walking on Highway 45 near Roseneath late Saturday night, was hit by a car driven by Don Ferguson of Roseneath. Mr. Loukes received head and arm injuries and was treated by Dr. George Field.

Atkinsons Win Honors At County Music Festival

ROSENEATH, May 24 (ENS)— The Atkinson families of Roseneath played a prominent part at the annual Northumberland County Music Festival concert held in the Colborne United Church on Friday. This was a special program in which were heard the first winners of every contest of the four days of the festival.

Miss Carolyn Atkinson won first place in the open piano solo "Polonaise." Miss Atkinson, one of seven contestants playing this solo, was given 80 marks.

Irvin Atkinson, the only contestant in the open bass solo, sang "Money O."

Mrs. John Goodfellow (Margaret Atkinson), Carolyn and Clarice Atkinson, won the ladies' trio, singing: "Still As The Night."

Mrs. John Goodfellow (formerly Margaret Atkinson) won enthusiastic applause singing "Silent Moon." She won the vocal solo female grand challenge trophy with a credit of 88 points, the highest mark awarded during the festival. There were two other contestants in this class.

Atkinson Ladies Win

The Atkinson ladies' quartet, consisting of Mrs. John Goodfellow, the Misses Clarice, Carolyn and Evelyn Atkinson, sang "Sylvia." This quartet was credited with 81 per cent in competition with two other quartets.

The Atkinson mixed quartet was credited with 83 per cent for the song "Come Where The Lilies Bloom." Miss Clarice Atkinson, Mrs. John Goodfellow, Mr. Ambrose Atkinson and Mr. Warren Atkinson formed the quartet and were accompanied by Miss Carolyn Atkinson.

Recall Music-Lover

A. A. Martin, Inspector of Schools in East Northumberland, paid tribute to the late Mrs. W. A. Atkinson, the mother of Mrs John Goodfellow, the Misses Clarice and Carolyn Atkinson and Mr. Ambrose Atkinson. It was Mrs. Atkinson who first suggested that music be taught in the schools, Mr. Martin said. "If music had not been taught in the schools, the music festival would not have been the success that it has been," he declared.

Miss Clarice Atkinson came second in ladies' mezzo-soprano solo.

Miss Evelyn Atkinson tied for third place in the piano solo for girls under 16.

The Misses Clarice and Carolyn Atkinson came third in a piano duet.

Mrs. John Goodfellow and Miss Aldythe Arthur also competed in this contest. They came second.

Motorcyclist Injured

COBOURG, May 24 (ENS). — Bill Pender, employed on one of the local car ferries, was taken to Cobourg Hospital on Saturday after his motorcycle went out of control on the House of Refuge curve. He sustained chest injuries.

The youth was rounding the bend when his machine hit the soft shoulder and went out of control. Pender landed clear of the motorcycle.

Eldon M. Ibey Named Assistant Town Clerk

CAMPBELLFORD, May 24 — (ENS).—Eldon M. Ibey of Toronto, was engaged assistant to the town clerk at a joint meeting of the Council and Public Utilities Commission Friday night. His yearly salary of $1,850 to be met jointly by the two municipal bodies. The commission is to pay $800 and the town the balance.

Mr. Ibey is a local boy, having lived here for a number of years. He has his senior matriculation and is a graduate of Shaw's Business Schools, Toronto. Before the war he was employed as assistant personnel manager of the Dunlop Tire and Rubber Goods Co. He served in the army five years with the rank of sergeant-major.

Famous Pictures Discussed At WA

GORE'S LANDING, May 24 — (ENS)—The WMS of the United Church were guests of the WA of St. George's (Anglican) at a joint meeting at the home of Mrs. Oliver MacIntosh. Around 25 women were present.

The soloist was Mrs. Paul Harris of Cold Springs who sang twice and the guest speaker, Mrs. T. D. McGaw, who was introduced by Mrs. Ruby Meggs, spoke on "Art in relation to the church." The speaker was head of the Art Dept. of West High School, Rochester, NY, and also was on the staff at the Memorial Art Gallery in connection with the University of Rochester.

Mrs. McGaw divided her address into two sections, the first "a glimpse at Gothic architectures" and then "Description of well known paintings." She described well known English cathedrals surrounded by "Cathedral green," then of French Cathedrals which were established by monks, some of whom withdrew from the world and others who built the cathedrals in settled places.

One lovely cathedral, Chartres, which was begun in 700 AD was protected by airmen during the war. The beautiful windows were all removed and buried, she said. Mrs. McGaw also described New York churches with perpendicular lines "reaching to the sky."

Discusses Painting

In the second portion of the address relating to paintings, the speaker showed a large framed copy of the famous "Light of the World" by Holman Hunt. She pointed out the symbolism in this picture.

Miss Moffatt, Cold Springs, spoke briefly. After the benediction, the hostess and members of the WA served tea and a social hour was spent. Mrs. Wallace Pratt expressed the thanks of the WMS for the afternoon meeting.

John Beaver Receives Degree In Science

ROSENEATH, May 24 (ENS). —Mr. and Mrs. John Beaver and the former's mother, Mrs. Ross Beaver of Alderville, attended the graduation exercises at Queen's University, Kingston, on Saturday, when Mr. Beaver received his degree of B.Sc. in electrical engineering.

Mr. Beaver served overseas with the RCAF. On his return he studied at Toronto University and later at Kingston. He is employed now as HEPC engineer in this district.

Fire Scare False

COBOURG, May 24 (ENS)— The hot blast from a plumber's torch set the fire alarm mechanism into action on aSturday at the Girls' Training School, turning in the automatic alarm at the fire hall and bringing the fire truck to the institution.

The training school has a fire system which functions once the temperature goes beyond a certain point, and the plumber accidentally directed his torch against the thermostatic control.

Church Holds Service Of Song

ROSENEATH, May 24 (ENS)— There was special music at Alderville United Church on Sunday afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Foster Russell of Cobourg assist the Alderville choir in a service of song.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell sang a duet, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Two numbers, "What Did He Do" and "Let The Saviour In," were sung by a mixed quartet comprising Mr. and Mrs. Foster Russell, Miss Carolyn Marsden and Mr. Thomas Marsden. Mrs. James Bigwin, Jr., was accompanist.

The choir, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Russell, sang an anthem, "Constantly Abiding," with the church organist, Mrs. Norman Marsden, accompanying.

At the conclusion of his sermon, H. Lander paid tribute to the late Mrs. Josiah Tobico, who died last week.

"Shall We Gather at The River" was sung in her memory by request.

Fishing Luck Good

GORE'S LANDING, May 24 — (ENS)—A speckled trout weighing nearly one pound was caught off the pier on Sunday afternoon by Teddy Jex of Port Hope. A 5-pound pickerel was caught off the wharf by Wm. Patterson of the White House, last week.

Apsley Comes First In School Tourney

The Apsley school district far the past three weeks has seen school squads fighting it out in a baseball tournament in connection with similar competition in the county for the coveted county baseball trophy.

The Andrews-Tucker team finished first in home and home games in Group 1. The Apsley Butterflies (SS No. 4, Anstruther) won out in Group 3. The Clydesdale school won in their group with SS No. 5, Anstruther. In an exhibition with Glen Alda, the Butterflies again won out. In the three final playoffs with Clydesdale, Tucker-Andrews, and Glen Alda, the Butterflies (Apsley School) emerged victorious, the score of the final game with Glen Alda being 23-14 for Apsley.

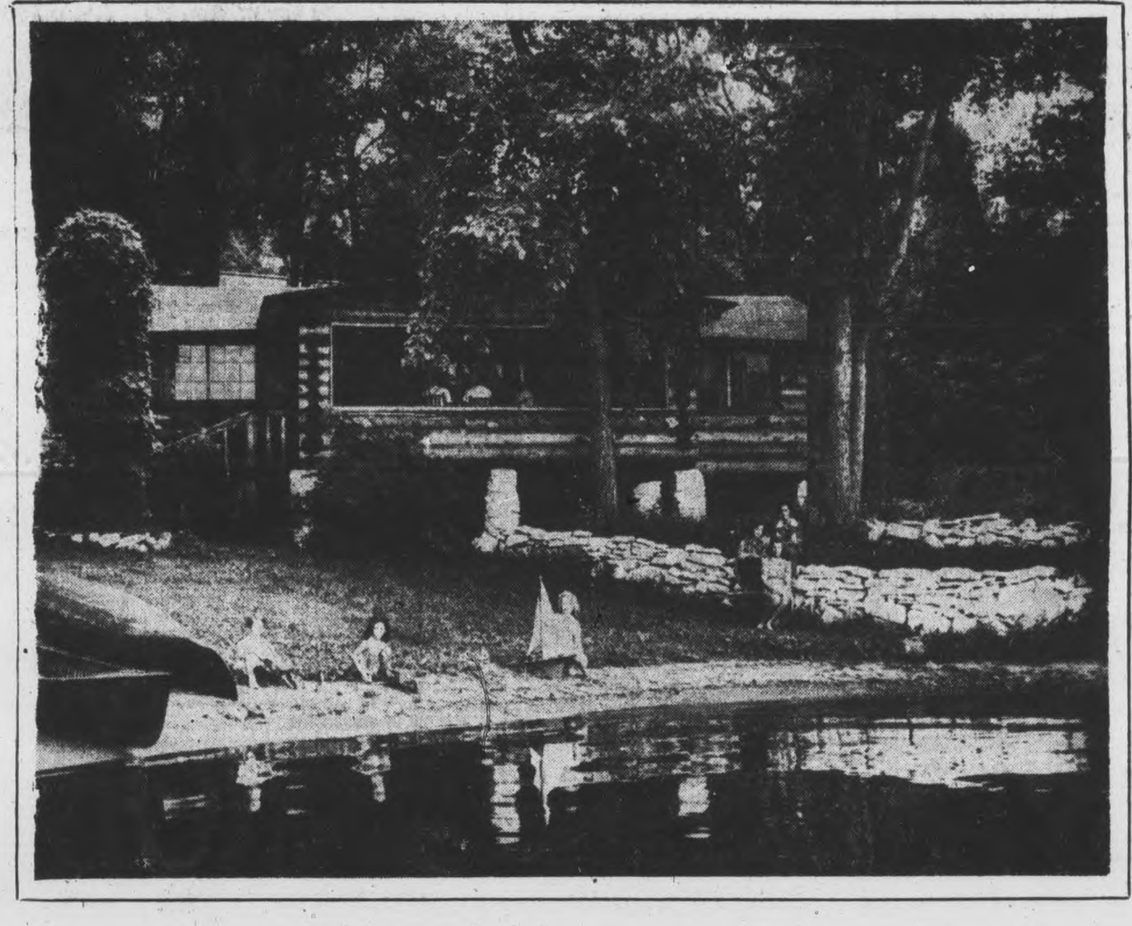
YOU CAN OWN A SUMMER HOME



Last year one of our good customers decided to erect a sleeping cabin on a lake about 20 minutes driving time from Peterborough. We supplied all the materials required—cost $300 — and, as a result . . . This family spent every summer week-end, and the family vacation at the lake.

Last week we sent another load of material to this customer — and over the 24th of May week-end the whole family have been happily engaged in putting up an addition to their summer home. You, too, can have a summer place where all summer long you and your family can enjoy the swimming, boating and fishing for which this district is famous.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA can threaten your looks and popularity!

ARE YOU too pale and pepless to be popular? Are your listless, languid ways depriving you of dates and romance? If the answer is "yes", a blood condition may be to blame. Perhaps you have a Borderline Anemia, a mild anemia due to a nutritional deficiency of iron.

Borderline Anemia means that your red blood cells are too pale and puny and weak to transmit all the energy your body needs. Many women—many men and children, too—go dragging their weary way through life with this Borderline Anemia.

How Ironized Yeast Tablets Build Up Your Blood and Vigor

So, if this Borderline Anemia is depriving you of pep and energy and healthy color, take Ironized Yeast Tablets. They are formulated to help build up faded red blood cells to healthy color and size—to help restore your usual vigor.

Of course, continuing tiredness and pallor may come from other conditions. Always consult your doctor regularly. But in this Borderline Anemia, take Ironized Yeast Tablets to help build up your blood! Then energy and color can come surging back! You can get some fun out of life again!

* A mild anemia resulting from a nutritional deficiency of iron.

BORDERLINE ANEMIA why it can make you TIRED • PALE • LISTLESS

Blood that builds energy! This is how energy-building blood looks under a microscope. Here are big, plentiful red blood cells that can release vigor to all your body.

Blood in Borderline Anemia! Many have blood like this; never know it. Cells are puny, faded. Blood like this can't release the energy you need to feel and look your best.

Shooting At The North Stars

Mr. George Drew and some of his supporting press have chosen to make the Trans-Canada Air Lines' North Star planes a subject for political fire. They are continuing this campaign, which the Windsor Star terms as unfair as it is unfortunate, despite unbiased, unpolitical assurances from men who build, operate and sell the planes that the North Star is not only a good plane but one of the best for trans-continental, trans-ocean service. This is the use made of it by T.C.A.

* * *

Officers of Canadair, which builds the planes and of T.C.A., have published statements and figures on the North Star performance and capacity. They have compared it with other planes, and point by point and in the record of safety the North Star is clearly a superior plane. And why should it not be? Would T.C.A. risk its fine reputation by using inferior planes? Would the British Overseas Airways Corporation have ordered 24 of them to replace other kinds of planes if the Canadian-built North Stars were unsound? The Conservative criticism is chiefly directed against the Rolls-Royce Merlin engines with which it is equipped. These engines which carried Spitfires, Lancasters and Lincolns during the war, as "civilian" engines flew aircraft 7,818,000 aircraft miles in 1946 and 17,455,000 in 1947 and 24,850,000 miles in 1948 on scheduled air-line services throughout the world. North Stars have never had to be grounded as a class because of faulty construction or engines.

The Windsor Star, an independent paper which was generally favourable to Mr. Drew's policies when he was premier of Ontario, is sharply censorious of his upresent attack against T.C.A. and its North Stars.

This dispute emphasizes one of Mr. Drew's failings as a political leader. He has an unfortunate penchant for either riding political dead horses, such as the Hong Kong incident, or mounting some spavined steed that carries him off at a tangent.

The North Star dispute is poor politics as well as poor taste. The record will disprove, to the satisfaction of most, Mr. Drew's contentions. He is wasting valuable political time discussing something which shouldn't be an issue. He should be devoting himself to important issues.

* * *

There seems to be more truth in Mr. Howe's charge that the campaign against the North Stars is "malicious, false and wholly irresponsible" and that it is an attempt to kill T.C.A., than in Mr. Drew's and his supporting press's statements. Mr. Howe admits that he is not an expert on aeroplane engines, but he has been trained as an engineer and has the advantage of the advice of the best aeronautical engineers on the continent. It is quite possible that he knows what he is talking about and that Mr. Drew is not so well informed.

* * *

The dispute about the North Stars is most regrettable, for it throws unwarranted doubts on the safety of T.C.A. planes and can damage T.C.A.'s reputation, which is deservedly very high among the world's great airlines.

Victoria Of Honoured Memory

Young Canadians may be surprised that there are as many as 2,617,000 people in this country old enough to have lived the first five years of their lives under the rule of Queen Victoria. These older Canadians who have personal memory of her reign and death in 1901 may be surprised that there are so few as 2,617,000 in their midst. (Incidentally, our figure may surprise statisticians; however, we do not pretend that it is more than an approximate indication. It did not come out of a hat but is based on our own arithmetical juggling with Volume III of the 1941 Census.) Today the Canadians who remember The Queen and the ones to whom she is a formidable old lady in a history book or merely the initials VR on the Post Office, have a holiday in honour of her birth exactly 130 years ago.

The 24th of May has come to signify so many things— the beginning of summer activities, gardening day, firecrackers, picnics, Empire patriotism—that the original occasion for the holiday is almost forgotten, even though Victoria can never be effaced. In her own later days she was the most powerful symbol in the world, and a revered, beloved person in her British Empire.

The Diamond Jubilee of 1897, even without the facilities of movie cameras and wireless, moved Britons high and low the world over to pride and affection. A London broadside of the time sums up in its sentiment and phrasing the attitude of the man in the street, who happens to be Roy Dalziel, the author of the lines.

Queen Victoria sixty years the Monarch of our Realm
Shows the grand old lady has kept a steady helm.
She often tacked, she never backed, she always heaved her lead,
And never turned into her bunk when breakers were ahead.

The British ship of state has had four sovereigns at its helm since Victoria's death, and none has kept it steadier.

Talk Of Constitutional Reform In Washington

The sharp division between the Administration and Congress in Washington, D.C., has led to talk of constitutional reform. Such talk has been heard before when the Executive and Legislative branches of the United States Government were at odds, and it is natural it should be heard again today, for all indications seem to be that the present stalemate will continue indefinitely.

President Truman has repeatedly declared that he will not compromise on any of the controversial issues of his "fair deal" program. Dissident Democrats seem equally determined to oppose the measures in question. The net effect is that Mr. Truman, titular head of the majority party in Congress, finds that party split into two minorities, the smaller of which, in coalition with the Republicans, is still strong enough to defeat Mr. Truman's program. It has done so on several occasions.

The prospect of a continuation of this situation has produced suggestions for constitutional reform. Many of its advocates propose to replace the present system with the British parliamentary system, or some modification of it. They would particularly like to see a government given the power to go to the country when it can no longer control Congress, as under the British system. Despite the gravity of the situation, however, the American people as a whole show little alarm; as in the past, they seem indifferent to the existence of a rift between the Executive and Legislative branches which makes it impossible for the Chief Executive to fulfil the campaign promises he made as a candidate.

It seems strange that the people of the United States should be indifferent to the suggested reform, for their leading political observers are agreed that the British parliamentary system is greatly superior in this respect. Its superiority, as one of them points out, "lies in the fact that legislature and executive are one, that Parliament is at the same time the master and the servant of the executive, and that the responsible party can go to the country to resolve such a situation as that which exists today."

Satisfactory Grants

As announced on Saturday by Ottawa the Federal grant toward the new Civic Hospital building will be $234,766. This is a very satisfying solution of the financial puzzle which has been worrying civic officials and citizens alike. When the new Federal grants for new hospital buildings were announced last year one condition was that the $1000 a bed would be given for beds additional to those now provided. The old civic hospital building has a rated capacity of 96 beds. Would the Federal grant toward the 336 beds (including cribs) in the new hospital be applied to 238 beds less the 96? Ottawa has decided to write off the present beds and to give a full grant. The money will be payable through the Ontario Department of Health, and the Ontario Government is expected to make a grant of the same amount. This is a condition of the Federal aid which the Ontario Government has agreed to meet.

Civic officials responsible for financing the new hospital counted in their survey made last autumn on receiving a maximum of $230,000 from each of the two governments. These amounts will be more than met, and the total should be almost $470,000. It is to be hoped that other financial puzzles in connection with the new hospital may be resolved as satisfactorily.

Of Cabbages And Kings

By PETER ELIOT

BERNARD Shaw's personality is immense. His latest book, Sixteen Self-Sketches (by Bernard Shaw, published in Constable's Standard Edition) tells us among other things Shaw's secret of success. When first he spoke in public, he could hardly put two sentences together. He suffered "agonies" that no one suspected." He resolved to seize every chance to orate and "at the expense of my hearers, who must have hated me," he "practised the alphabet as a singer practices scales, articulating every consonant separately, explosively," and giving each vowel its full value. "Every word could be heard with exasperating distinctness."

❖ ❖ ❖

SHAW did the same thing with the art of drama. He got fed up as a cashier in the estate office of a Dublin real estate agent. Tired of hearing the other young men talk about their futures (". . .took for granted that I was a genius, so it never entered my head to want to be anything else") he studied the technique of the drama until "the stage effects I had planned came off perfectly and convinced me that I was born master of the theatre."

❖ ❖ ❖

FOR the sake of jounalism he perspired. He served a ten years apprenticeship as a critic "which made me master of my profession." It became his business "to get to the bottom of every sentence I wrote." Shaw never deluded himself, as so many of us do, that genius could triumph without tireless effort, great pains and persistence. He learned his trade thoroughly. It is interesting to contrast the five tremendous, not-much-read novels of Shaw, the work he put into them, and his own admission that they must be written for the basket so that he could acquire a mastery of the language, with the "Authorship" in several easy lessons, advertised everywhere today.

❖ ❖ ❖

DR. Norman Maclean has just finished his Set Free, the second volume in his autobiography, The Former Days. The old minister, now eighty, has some fine stories about his native land to tell. When a young man, he went to receive his license to preach from the Presbytery of Skye. His mother taken aback that the three elder ministers who made up the quorum said no prayers over him. They spent their time, in characteristic Scottish fashion, arguing—about the relative values of Hebrew and Gaelic in a Highland kirk! Afterwards his old friend and mentor, John Darroch, took Maclean back to dinner and gave him some sound advice, including: "Never use a stimulant before preaching for fear you should faint that day in the pulpit and the elders carrying you out should smell whiskey off your breath."

❖ ❖ ❖

OLD John Darroch also described the difficulties of preaching in two languages one after the other. There was once a minister who had to do this when his Gaelic was very rusty. When asked how he got on he replied: "Miserable! I preached on the rich man and Lazarus, translating from English into Gaelic, but, alas, I made a dreadful mistake. I put the wrong man into hell. When I realized what I had done, a cold perspiration broke out on me. I couldn't get him out of the awful place in the Gaelic; I seemed to have lost all command of the language. But I did the best I could. I put the wrong man in hell in the Gaelic, but I took him out in the English."

IN lonely Skye all the ministers except Dr. Maclean claimed to be chiefs and thus rightful owners of the land. He was transferred to the Vale of Glengarry, below Loch Ness, where an old lady of eighty named Elice, a benevolent despot and a great hostess, saw to it in the summer that all her guests whether Archbishops, Jews, Theosophists or Christian Scientists, attended his services. Here he saw his first lady cyclist, who was the Duchess of Portland and a frequent visitor to his kirk. The Duke always put half a crown in the offertory box; the Duchess always a sovereign. One Sunday, there was no gold in the box, and the disconcerted elders held a meeting to inquire into the matter. They were forced to one conclusion: "The Duchess is economising."

WINIFRED Graham's, I Introduce, is an unusual collection of memoirs with many unusual stories of important people. The Duke of St. Albans was bearer of the crown at the King's coronation: "Before I left home I was carrying coals upstairs, now I have to carry a royal crown and when I get back it will be the coal scuttle again."

Overheard at a political meeting. An usher seating a countess inquired "Isn't the earl coming?" "He couldn't manage it," replied the countess, "Because he is so busy washing up!"

A third story illustrates the radical social changes which have occurred in England. A tall, dignified lady stepped into a bus, accompanied by a friend. The conductor called out to her: "Get in, Ma—hurry up, Ma!" As she seated herself she turned to her companion and said in a haughty voice: "I have no recollection of giving birth to that man!"

❖ ❖ ❖

SHE also tells us about Lord Roberts' antipathy to cats. He once dined with a family who had three pet cats. Knowing his dislike they were careful to shut them up Suddenly he turned green, said there was a cat in the room and that he would have to leave at once. His hostess protested in vain that this was impossible, as she had made a point of shutting her pets up in a locked room, but Lord Roberts could not be convinced.

A search was started and it was found that a neighbour's cat had somehow got in and was hidden behind the fold of a curtain. Lord Roberts could not possibly have seen it, as he was sitting with his back to the window and the curtain entirely concealed the intruder. He remarked, as pussy was forcibly removed, that if the route to Pretoria had been lined with cats—he would never have got there!

Britain's Exports To Canada

(FINANCIAL POST)

UP to a point the picture of Canada-U.K. trade painted by Rt. Hon. Harold Wilson in his Ottawa address this week was clear enough. But when the president of the United Kingdom Board of Trade came to how the problem could be solved, the picture began to blur.

Despite the increase in British exports to Canada since the war, and the recent disturbing falling off in Canadian exports the other way, Mr. Wilson pointed out the annual gap was still almost half a billion dollars. Unless that can be reduced substantially, he warned, Britain will have no choice but to cut down still further on imports from Canada. The only satisfactory solution, he said, was for a still larger flow of U.K. exports here.

There will be little quarrel with that analysis. Most Canadians realize that in the long run exports can only be paid for by imports. They had a sharp lesson along this line in their recent trading with the United States. But with the United States goods, there never has been any difficulty in securing the kind of goods we wanted and usually when we wanted them.

Mr. Wilson intimated that Canadians should be willing to absorb far more imports from Britain, and that Britain was anxious and able to supply us with more. This problem, he implied, was as much ours as it was Britain's.

That is also true but in international as well as private trade it is customary for the producer to do the selling and to give the purchaser what he wants and at a price he thinks he can afford.

It was at this point that Mr. Wilson became too general and too vague. He seemed to imply that all that was necessary was a greater knowledge on Canada's part of what the British had to offer. That would help certainly. But it would not be enough.

Though he made little or no mention of it, Mr. Wilson must know that there is considerable criticism of British goods on this side of the Atlantic, and this criticism must be dealt with if the increased export he seeks is to materialize. In many lines the price is felt to be too high and the range too limited. Though there has been considerable improvement, the postwar British car for Canada is an example, there is still too little effort made to give overseas customers the style and kind of goods suited to their tastes and climates. With heavy machinery there is the problem of quick delivery and the availability of parts and repairs. Finally, despite Mr. Wilson's assurance that Britain regards Canada as a very important potential customer indeed, there has been no evidence that the U.K. exporters distinguish between the Canadian and American markets.

As Mr. Wilson proceeds on his tour of this country, Canadians will hope to hear that these and similar problems are recognized and a real attempt made to solve them.

Dandelion As An Emblem

A writer on nature subjects comments on the beauty of the Dandelion and expresses the opinion that, if it were less common it would be more prized and admired.

Just so.

And that is one more, probably, in support of the News-Chronicle's long time contention that the Dandelion would be suitable as Northwestern Ontario's floral emblem.

Besides being beautiful in color, texture and shape the Dandelion has several other attributes which make it appropriate. It is durable, ubiquitous and gregarious. It can withstand rigorous conditions and always rises above the level of its environment. Whatever the height of the surrounding grass the Dandelion will always be found showing its lovely golden head at the top. They say it has good medicinal qualities, too, and the plant is much liked by some as table "greens."

The official floral emblem of Ontario is the White Trillium, a flower which is found only in the southern and eastern part of the Province. It is, therefore, appropriate to only the smaller part.

If they don't like a Dandelion down east or prefer the Trillium, they can keep the latter for themselves but Northwestern Ontario should be justified in claiming an emblem flower that is at least native of the territory.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King. God is known in her palaces for a refuge. (Ps. 48: 2, 3.)

❖ ❖ ❖

And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God....

And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful....

And there came unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither. I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal....

And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth....And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. (Rev. 21: 2, 3, 5, 9-11, 16, 22, 23.)

Who's Who?

The Ottawa Journal, appraising the oratory of Mr. St. Laurent and Mr. Drew, gives them both good marks but sets up a contrast which we find a little confusing.

"St. Laurent," writes the Ottawa editor, "is the lawyer, courtly and rapiered, his chief weapon persuasion, but not above the arts which bemuse and beguile, going straight to his target, bringing adventure. St. Laurent sails (as Bright said of Gladstone) from headland to headland. Drew explores every inlet."

Our confusion arises from the appeal to Bright, no mean orator himself. Bright didn't say of Gladstone that he sailed from headland to headland. He said it about himself. What he said about Gladstone was that he was longwinded.

"When I speak," wrote Bright, "I strike from headland to headland. Mr. Gladstone follows the coastline, and when he comes to a navigable river he is unable to resist the temptation of tracing it to its source."

The difficulty about applying this question to the appraisal given above is that it leaves the reader wondering who has the attributes of which. To quote Bright again (and if anybody wants to check this quotation, he said it in the House of Commons on March 13, 1866):

"This party of two is like the Scotch terrier that was so covered with hair that you could not tell which was the head and which the tail."—Montreal Star.

Walter Thomson Candidate In Ontario Riding

Walter C. Thomson, a 53-year-old Pickering farmer, Toronto lawyer, and son of the late Rev. Dr. D. A. Thomson of Hastings, will represent the Liberal party in the historic riding of Ontario, long a Liberal stronghold that was won by such doughty fighters as W. H. Moore and the late W. E. N. Sinclair, K.C.

Although this marks his first attempt in the hustings to wrest the seat back for Liberalism, Mr. Thomson has long been one of the main cogs in the Liberal organization of the riding He has spoken from the platform of every provincial and federal election since 1911 with the exception of 1917, when he was overseas. He has combined his Toronto law practice with his 167-acre Alloway Farm on No. 2 Highway near Pickering, which he has farmed for the past 20 years. He is the father of twin 15-year-old girls, Mary and Janet, and a 20-year-old son, David, who manages the farm. Mr. Thomson's wife died in 1941

A member of the 21st Battalion in the First Great War, Mr. Thomson was invalided out with trench fever after Passchendale. As a result of his war experiences, he has a firm grasp on the problems that are facing not only the younger veterans of the last conflict but also of the "old sweats" of the First War.

Mr. Thomson is a past president of the Central Ontario Liberal Association and the Toronto Liberal Association, which he headed in 1940.

For Escaping Custody Man Gets 3 Months

Charles Bloxam, Park St. S., arrested by city police Thursday after an all-day search and dramatic chase through the city pleaded guilty at city police court Saturday to three charges of theft of money. He pleaded guilty Friday to escaping the custody of the police and was sentenced by Magistrate W. R. Philp K. C. to three months in jail for escaping custody and two months on each theft charges to run concurrently.

Bloxam admitted nine previous convictions for what the magistrate described as "this sort of thing."

The thefts all occured in Peterborough during the past two weeks.

He stole $51 from McCarthy and Johnston, coal dealer, $95 and cheques from Jones Bros. and $30 from a garage.

Crown Attorney John Bradshaw said Bloxam had not spent all the money on himself. He had been generous to children for whom he had bought candy and playthings.

Mrs. F. Bowen Hostess To Warkworth WA

WARKWORTH, May 24 (ENS) — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Association of St. Paul's United Church was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. F. Bowen with an attendance of 22 ladies.

The president conducted the meeting. Miss Ross read the Scripture and Mrs. D. Evans gave the Lesson thoughts and led in prayer.

It was decided that the W. A. would serve lunch to the Peterborough Salvation Army Band after the Memorial Service on Sunday June 5.

A splendid reading entitled "No Seat in Heaven" was given by Mrs. H. Allen.

Mrs. E. Greenly invited the Society to her home for the June meeting to be held in the evening.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and lunch committee and a vote of thanks was tendered the hostess.

PROVIDING MORE AND BETTER TELEPHONE SERVICE

TO-DAY, WE HAVE twice as many employees as five years ago because more people want more service than ever before. Eager, capable, courteous — our operators, installers, the girls in our business offices — all bring to their jobs the same friendly spirit that means better telephone service for you, makes it of greater value than most other things you buy.

In the past five years, our payroll has gone up from 20 million to over 50 million dollars. Yet, up to now, despite higher costs on all sides, there has been no increase in the basic telephone rates established 22 years ago.

To-day's expansion program is breaking all records, but there are still orders we haven't been able to fill. We will keep right on working and building to make your telephone service a bigger bargain than ever — to continue to provide more and better service at the lowest possible cost.

Uniteds Hand A Reverse To Jewellers

Uniteds jerked out an 11-9 triumph over Jewellers at the Bowl on Saturday evening in a keen City League Sortball League fray. These rivals—rather bitter over a switch in several players to the other side——fought it out hard all the way, a homer, a double and two errors in the ninth giving Uniteds their margin. Bob Greenlaw had a slight edge in hurling over Terry Woods and both pitchers were given rather wobbly backing in the field. Red Sullivan led the Uniteds at bat with two terrific homers and a double in five tries, while Tompkins, Crary and Condon each had two hits in fivetries for the Jewellers.

120 Golfers Out As Play Opens At Kawartha

A record crowd of 120 golfers made the rounds Saturday to mark the official opening for men of the Kawartha Golf Club season. In recent years, the opening day saw from 80 to 90 divot diggers out. Nine-hole competitions marked this opening day in three field day flights, with President Frank Buckland getting away early on the course as ideal weather prevailed. A buffet luncheon and dance followed play.

Fraser Dunfield took low gross with a 39 in the first flight, as Stan Whiddon won low net with 36, 20 golfers competing. The second flight saw 40 in there, with Norm Finnie and F. Todd carding a 40 each for first two in the low gross, and L. Hamsler and C. Fraser going around in 33 for first two net. No less than 60 took in the third flight, J. Gatfield and E. Gregson each getting 44 for top two low gross, as L. Jackson and W. Hunt had 30 each for first two low net, and D. Burrows and R. Stewart finished with 32 apiece for the third and fourth spots.

A team match featuring Whipper Bill Watson and Pat Flanagan against Sandy O'Donnell and Wee Willie Davis is the big pro mat attraction af the Brock Arena tomorrow night in the main bout. Grapple fans will love this sort of thing (a) because it puts two good guys in against two villains—all being mighty capable matmen—and (b) on account of those team bouts always turn out to be hectic affairs. Chock full of sizzling action, with a bewildered referee trying to keep up with four lively huskies with mayhem in mind. Rest of the card is outstanding, too, as Slidin' Billy Hanson goes against Art Brady in the semi-final, and tough Dan O'Connor mixes with Tug Carlsen in the prelim.

OASA bulletin No. 6 arrives with a definite warning that pitchers may wear either the regular team uniform or a solid black or blue uniform, or team shirt and dark trousers, but they must not wear in any case white or cream uniforms—or ones with cream or white stripe or letter or crests of that color. The bulletin also states that team insurance may be obtained to cover all players against softball injuries except for broken eye-glasses or damaged teeth, the premium of $41.25 insuring the entire team to the amount of $250 a player. Write the OASA secretary, if interested. And it adds that no player may play for another OASA centre without stepping up one classification and also getting permission from the association of the district where he lives.

Dadson Looked Okay

Petes looked okay winning that 2-0 COBL opener over Batawa here Saturday, and so did the Shoemen. A dandy, fast fixture with swelegant hurling by Bill Dadson and Max Smith, as well as good fielding. Petes got a couple of breaks and that did it. Dadson looked real good pitching and fielding, and Joe Lowrey—another newcomer—was strong in left field. Fred Garvey pulled off a dandy catch in deep right as Batawa threatened in the ninth. That triple-play by the Shoemen in the second was one for the book. It was a grand opening all the way, though we maintain the ump at the plate should announce changes. He neglected to do that when Semark came in to pitch—and suffered a broken finger ere the first pitch—and again when several changes were made in the field.

Eddie Murphy for the time being (with Art Pagett aiding him tonight) is looking after the Petes-sponsored junior "A" entry in the Lakeshore Baseball League. The Young Petes open tonight at 6.15 in Riverside against a strong Oshawa outfit, starting the big Lakeshore Loop schedule, and the boys rate a good holiday crowd. Brian Wade or Lorne Corkery are likely to do the twirling for the local crew and Jimmy Swanston is expected to catch. The Young Petes are plenty good, with several just so good that the senior Petes want them, and they're in a strong intermediate circuit, so the ball seen ought to be right interesting.

Girls Start Season

Prexy Bill Bennett—in his ninth year at that post—predicts a much better calibre of girls' softball this semester. They open tonight at seven in the Bowl, Westclox vs. Marines, and CGE vs. Lindsay. A twin bill again Friday and thrice weekly from then on. Norma Kennedy won't be pitching, so the hurling should be quite even and, with fewer clubs aboard, there will be more good players on each team. Yeah, it ought to be right good all through. An admission charge this year, but it's just two bits for two people for a double-header—or six and a quarter cents a game, so what could be fairer for entertainment these days? Ron Akers and Wimp Borland will umpire the opener, and an official opening ceremony will start off the lasses' season.

Both men's melees at the Bowl on Saturday e'en were neat ones, though the crowd wasn't what it might have been. Cosmos shoved three over in the eighth to eke out a 3-0 win o'er the Outlaws in the opener, as Dalton had a slight edge hurling over Gordon. Thomson and Currie led the clouters. Game didn't last an hour and was marked by snappy fielding on both sides. Second tilt saw Uniteds edge out the reinforced Jewellers 11-9 through two runs in the ninth. An exciting go all the way, with a bit of bad feeling there. Greenlaw had a little margin on the mound over Terry Woods with both sides fielding sloppily. Sullivan, Dugan, Condon, Crary and Tompkins all hit well. Thursday it's: Knights vs. Uniteds, and Jewellers vs. Outlaws. Nothing tonight.

Whipper Watson and Pat Flanagan Teamed Against Wee Willie Davis and O'Donnell

Team bout wrestling at its best—and probably roughest—goes on the Brock Arena mat on Wednesday. The team of Whipper Billy Watson and Pat Flanagan meets the combination of Sandy O'Donnell and Wee Willie Davis. Whipper and his buddy Flanagan are two of the greatest exponents of the team technique anywhere and some of their switch hold manoeuvres are a spectacular sight to see. However the rubbery O'Donnell and that walking skyscraper Davis expect to give them their come-uppance on Wednesday night.

Dan O'Connor comes back to test the brilliant newcomer Tug Carlsen and Sliding Billy Hanson meets Art Brady in the semi-final bout.

It's a card that looks to be studded with thrills from start to finish with the team bout the highlight of the whole season.

Cosmos Take Close One Over Outlaws

In the snappiest men's softball game of the season, the Cosmos yanked out a 3-0 verdict over the Outlaws, at the Bowl on Saturday night before a slim crowd. Howie Dalton hurled five-hit ball for the winners, as Red Gordon gave up seven for Outlaws in a tilt marked by but one error on each side. It wasn't till the eighth heat when a score was made, Cosmos breaking through for their three runs on doubles by Menzies and Thomson, and a single by Crowe. Thomson led the winners at bat again with two doubles and a single in four, as Currie topped the losers with two for four. A fake throw and pickoff by McCarthy was a feature.

Dartford School Beats Atkinson Team At Ball

ROSENEATH, May 24 (ENS)—A friendly ball game was held on Friday afternoon between S.S. No. 10 Percy Atkinson's School) and S.S. No. 5 Percy (Dartford). This game was played opposite S.S. No. 10 Percy in a field owned by J D. Atkinson.

The Dartford Flyers won with a wide margin over the Number 10 Eagles. The teachers of these schools are Miss Aureen Brown and Mr. Lorne Palmateer, respectively. Mr Palmateer was umpire and the captains were Willis McCracken and Morris Lockart.

Motor Squads Tie

A run in the seventh for Duffus tied up their Civic Softball League game 9-9 with Hughes over the week-end. The Duffus bunch had 17 hits to 13, but Hughes got three runs in the third, five more the next time up and one in the fifth. Duffus got singles in the first two, the fourth and seventh, with five in the sixth.

Remember When—

By The Canadian Press

Jack Sharkey, ex-Boston sailor, uncorked a terrific offensive and scored a technical knockout over Jimmy Maloney before a pop-eyed crowd at New York 22 years ago tonight. The bout had gone just five rounds when the referee stepped in. Sharkey was recognized world heavyweight titlist in 1932 but held the crown only one year.

HEAVY LINE—This gives you an idea of what opposing football lines may be facing in Edmonton's Clarke Stadium when the Western Interprovincial Football Union gets under way this fall. In training with Annis Stukus' Eskimos is 295-pound Bill Radovich, left, former professional player with the Los Angeles Rams. The "little" guys pounding along with him are Earl Elsey, full-back, and Pat West, half-back. Both of these 220-pound imports have signed contracts with the Eskimos. West was with the New York Giants last season, while Elsey is a former teammate of Radovich.

Petes Defeat Batawa, 2-0 To Open COBL Season

The Petes edged out a 2-0 win over Batawa Shoemen here Saturday to open the Central Ontario Baseball League season. A fair-sized crowd in Riverside Park saw a snappy contest, with the homesters scoring in the sixth on walks to Dadson and Dalton, and a wild pitch. They added another in the eighth on a scratch single by Dalton, a steal and an error on first.

It was a pitchers' battle, with Max Smith of Batawa holding the home side to four hits, as Lefty Bill Dadson of the Petes threw five-hit ball, fanned five and didn't issue a walk. He also fielded his position well with seven assists. There was but one error in the speedy tilt, with Beckstead and Garvey featuring defensively on running catches. Batawa killed off a Petes' threat with the bases loaded in the second on a triple play, left to third to catcher to short. Bridgeman—ejected later for arguing—led all the hitters with two for four, one a double.

Broke Finger

Max Smith was tiring to end the sixth and Lefty Semark came out and was warming up on the mound when he had his finger broken taking a throw from the catcher. As the umpire hadn't announced a change in pitchers, Smith returned to the slab, and the Petes got one unearned run off him on a close play at first. It was scored an error, but Dick Bridgeman argued too strenuously with Umpire Pat Calladine and was ejected.

The opening ceremony had Mayor Swanston pitching, and Ald. Hurrell Dodds catching and Alex Kay batting. There was a pretty fair crowd of fans sitting in the bleachers and seeing a game on the new diamond in Riverside for the first time. It was an ideal ball day, bright but not took hot, and the well-matched teams turned in a nifty and speedy contest. The pitching and fielding throughout was good, and no hitter had a big day. The Petes just cashed in on the breaks—a wild pitch and an error—to grab off the win.

Boston Blanks Detroit 4-0; Yanks Win 10-3

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Undoubtedly two of the greatest "money players" in baseball are Vern Stephens of Boston Red Sox and Tommy Henrich of New York Yankees.

Stephens is hitting only around .270, but he leads the majors in home runs and runs batted in. Henrich, whose nine-year batting average is only .282, gets most of his hits when they count He's hitting .320 now, is second in home runs and up among the leaders in runs batted in.

Each has been responsible for a half dozen victories for his club. Stephens has 11 home runs and four of them broke up ball games. Henrich has eight round trippers and half of thise decided games.

Both Stephens and Henrich hit homers yesterday to help their teams win. Vern cracked his 11th into the right-field bull pen with Ted Williams on base to pave the way for Boston's 4-0 triumph over Detroit.

Henrich's blast came in the first inning, with two mates aboard to enable the Yankees' to overcome a 2-0 deficit. The Yankees went on from there to win over St. Louis Browns, 10-3.

Take First Place

Boston Braves took undisputed possession of first place in the National League by defeating the Cubs in Chicago, 11-4. It was the only game in the National League. The victory opened up a half-game spread between the Braves and the runner-up New York Giants.

Cleveland Indians broke out of a losing slump to defeat the Athletics in a night game in Philadelphia, 7-3.

Randy Gumpert hurled a three-hitter against Washington as the Chicago White Sox whipped the Senators, 3-1.

Toronto Downs Rochester 8 to 1

By The Associated Press

Jersey City's Little Giants, kingpins of the International League, have come up with a new pitching sensation—George Bamberger.

The 23-year-old righthander, who won only two games for the Giants last year, already has won three this season. All have come in his last three starts. During that time he's pitched 27 consecutive scoreless innings.

Prior to last night he had two successive shutouts. Yesterday he came within one out of making it three shutouts in a row. A home run by Bob Usher with two out in the ninth stopped Bamberger's scoreless skein, but did not prevent him from pitching Jersey City to a 4-1 triumph over Syracuse. The victory increased Jaycee's lead over idle Montreal and Buffalo to 2½ games.

Henry Thompson cracked a pair of home runs and singled to drive in three runs off veteran Ken Burkhart. They were his seventh and eighth home runs.

Toronto moved into a fourth-place tie with Rochester by defeating the Red Wings, 8-1. Ed Sanicki cracked his 13th home run for the Maple Leafs to spearhead a 16-hit attack.

John Maldovan gained his first victory of the season, pitching Baltimore Orioles to a 12-5 victory over his former Newark Bear teammates.

The scheduled game between Buffalo and Montreal was called off because of wet grounds.

OLA Not Changing Its Suspensions

BRAMPTON, May 24. — The season's suspensions handed out to six players and one referee will be adhered to, following a vote of the 1949 Ontario Lacrosse Association executive, at a meeting held in Brampton Sunday. A motion to have the suspension shortened to one-third of the 1949 senior schedule was lost by a 3 to 5 vote.

Players Stew Scott, Roy Morton, Jimmy McMahon, Bill Nelson of St. Catharines, John Evans and Bill Hogan of Port Dover and Hamilton, and referee George Cleverley, St. Catharines, were suspended for the current Ontario lacrosse season for participating in winter boxla games in Rochester, contrary to an executive ruling. A resolution passed at the recent OLA convention in Toronto, asked the incoming executive to reconsider the ruling. The motion to have the suspension shortened was brought in by E. C. McDermid, and seconded by Art Brown, supported by Frank Bain, Weston. Voting against were: Chuck Rowan, Geoff. Hipkin, Fred Sandford, Ken Kingston and Jack Worthy.

Art Brown, St. Catharines, told the meeting that he could name several other players who had also participated in games in the U.S. during the winter. "They were playing up to two or three weeks ago," said Brown. "Players now signed and their certificates ratified did play in Rochester. It is pretty drastic to pick out a few and suspend them."

President J. C. McLeod, Owen Sound, said that the players suspended were only those seen in action in Rochester by representatives of the OLA, and that players and clubs were all warned that action would follow if they persisted in playing in the United States.

Increased promotional work among minor leagues will be the policy of the OLA executive for the current season. According to figures submitted by Secretary Chuck Rowan, $2,300 was handed back to clubs last year in grants and for equipment for the development of young players.

"We have a greatly revived work in several centres," reported Rowan, "including Georgetown, Owen Sound, Sarnia, Peterborough and in the Toronto district. It is a very important feature of our work."

No budget was set for expendi- Secretary Rowan instructed to tures for minor promotion, and allow, for a start, a maximum of two dozen sticks, to be given to groups of four or more minor teams.

Local Cricketers Win By 147-96 Against Trinity College

The Peterborough - Whitaker Cricket Club defeated Trinity College School of Port Hope 147-96 on Saturday at the Oval in an exhibition match. Previously, Peterborough had also been successful this spring against Trinity.

The locals were off to a poor start, losing four wickets for 18. Roberts with nine and F. Dyer with 12 improved matters to make it 47 for seven wickets. H. Pyle came in for a splendid innings of 64. He started slowly but when set hit out in brilliant form and his innings included four sixes and four fours. His best partner was W. Freeman, a newcomer, who played a sound innings of 18, E. Tomsett (7), a newcomer stayed in while 28 were added, and then Pyle unfortunately was run out.

TCS opened with J. Coole and H. Lewis to the bowling of F. Dyer and B. Roberts. They made a bad start and had two wickets down for nine, but then K. Scott joined Cole and the local bowlers met with lots of trouble. Cole played steadily and Scott hit hard, taking the score to 76 with only two out. The school captain then called the two batsmen in, perhaps planning on giving the later batsmen some match batting practise. Cole had scored 18 and Scott 52. The later batsmen failed and added but 20 runs, the innings closing at 96.

The analysis shows that F. Booth took two wickets for 16 runs and W. Wright two for seven. Next Saturday, the Oshawa team plays at the Oval here, and on June 4 the locals have their first match in the Toronto council, meeting Grace Church "B" here in the Oval.

Maxim Takes Lesnevich Title

CINCINNATI, May 24 (AP) — There is an old maxim that a steady drop of water will wear away the hardest stone.

And a Maxim proved it here last night. Joey Maxim of Cleveland parlayed robust youth and the drop of water—a flicking left hand—into the light heavyweight championship of America, a title recognized by the National Boxing Association.

Joey, one of the lightest hitters in the business, used his rapier-like left to spear a decision in 15 rounds over 34-year-old Gus Lesnevich of Cliffside, NJ, who last July 26 lost his world's title to Freddie Mills of England.

Promoter Sam Becker needed $100,000 to pay off— Lesnevich got $50,000 and Maxim $15,000—but only 6,931 fans braved the rain to pay a gross gate of $56,151 and a net of $40,429.08. That left Becker some $45,000 in the hole.

Lesnevich went out like a champion. He was unmarked, except for a slight bruise beside his left eye.

Clover Leaf Squad Dumps Windsor 77-63

VANCOUVER, May 24 (CP) — Both teams competing for the Canadian Senior Basketball championship oozed confidence today.

Vancouver Clover Leafs, defending champions and holding a two-game edge in the best-of-five series, need only a victory in the third game Wednesday night to win the title again. They think they'll make it and capture their third dominion crown.

And the Assumption College Purple Raiders from Windsor, are just as confident they've got the power to get on their winning strike and wrap up the final three games.

The Purple Raiders Monday night were hit by a 77-63 defeat from a Clover Leaf squad that rolled to victory from start to finish.

King Edward Wins

King Edward took an 18-7 School Softball League over Queen Alex, scoring six runs in the first frame, five next time up and seven in the third of a free-hitting fray. The northerners tallied twice each the first two heats and counted one apiece in the third, fourth and fifth. Teams:

Queen Alex: McFadden, Woods, Macklin, Nicholls, McIlwain, Kingston, Oliver, Bell, Carter.

King Edward: Jerry, Ball, Hunt, Crowe, Whatley, Peters, Hobart, Haggart, Thompson.

FOREMAN RESCUES MANY IN HOTEL HOLOCAUST

WINS DOW AWARD

JOSEPH PIQUETTE of Sherbrooke, Que.
is hero in Coaticook blaze

The night of the Child Hotel fire in Coaticook, Piquette repeatedly risked his life to save others. He woke up all the roomers — in some cases having to break down doors — and at one point he lost consciousness. Coming to, he carried on his work, using ladders to rescue guests. When the building was a mass of flames, he re-entered it with the owners in an attempt to reach the safe. When the two men where overcome, he helped them to safety.

We are proud to present Piquette with The Dow Award.

1. Piquette was overcome by smoke but managed to crawl to the fire escape where he lost consciousness. When he came to, he continued his work.

2. He entered the blazing hotel with two men who were trying to reach the safe. When they were overcome, Piquette helped them to safety.

3. When the fire came dangerously close to an adjoining hardware store, Piquette again risked his life carrying out cases of cartridges and dynamite detonators.

Everybody's BICYCLE
THE C·C·M·

OVER A MILLION NOW ON THE ROAD

• When it comes to bicycles the name that means most to youngsters and oldsters alike is "C.C.M.". And naturally so, for C.C.M. has been the favorite for over fifty years. This is proved by the fact that there are over a million C.C.M.'s on the road today.

This Spring "Everybody's Bicycle" — the C.C.M. — offers in a full range of men's and ladies' models, a new all-time high in standard and optional features.

The many new features of design and structure in all 1949 C.C.M. Bicycles combine to produce the strongest, most resilient, comfortable and easy-riding bicycle of all time. What's more, there are enough of them, this year, to go 'round.

There's a C.C.M. bicycle that fits your needs and fancies. Go over the standard and optional features outlined. Any of the 3,000 loyal C.C.M. dealers across Canada, are ready and willing to supply the particular C.C.M. you want and to provide check-up service, parts and accessories, as long as you ride.

REGISTERED C C M TRADE MARK

(Be sure this trade mark is on the bicycle you buy.)

NEW STANDARD FEATURES

NEW FRAME of top grade tubing, brazed by a new low-temperature method that makes for a stronger, lighter, livelier C.C.M. Bicycle.

NEW FRAME ANGLES AND SIZES that make for better riding position and more comfortable and easier pedalling.

FRONT FORK DESIGN with a new taper, curve and caster that give improved steering and an extra-comfortable cushioned ride with noticeable lightness and strength.

REAR STAY DESIGN embodying a new "brazed-up" assembly of strong, lightweight material that imparts great strength with resiliency to the whole bicycle.

NEW OPTIONAL FEATURES

3-SPEED REAR HUB is optional equipment on all models except the "Tourist" model on which it is standard equipment.

This hub, which also has a hub brake, enables you to ride up steep grades in "low", then shift to "second", by a convenient lever on the crossbar, and then to "high" for speed on the level.

THE FRONT HUB embodies a built-in generator for producing the necessary electricity for the head-light and tail-light.

Armed Police In East Zone Said Dangerous

By PAMELA MATTHEWS

LONDON, May 24 (Reuters) — The implication of the Berlin strike situation on the future of Germany has caused some concern in the Foreign Office here, it was learned on good authority Monday.

The situation in Berlin railway stations, where Western sector strikers found themselves in opposition to armed police from the Soviet sector, strengthened the argument that any solution of the German problem which left armed police in the East facing unarmed police in the west would be dangerous for the new West German state proclaimed at Bonn Monday.

This is the danger which, it was reliably understood, West German politicians impressed on Foreign Secretary Bevin when he visited the Western Zones earlier this month, just after the lifting of the Berlin blockade.

It was understood that Dr. Kurt Schumacher, German Social Democrat leader, and other West German politicians warned Bevin of the danger of a situation in which the Western powers might withdraw their occupation forces and leave unarmed West German states facing a well-armed gendarmerie in Eastern Germany.

Asked today whether it is legal for Eastern sector police to carry small arms, a Foreign Office spokesman here said there is no four-power agreement forbidding the arming of German police.

The most serious aspect of the situation—and one which will undoubtedly influence Bevin's attitude at the Paris meeting of the Foreign Ministers' Council—is the evidence that civil war is latent in the German situation, and that Western Germany is not well equipped for such an eventuality as Eastern Germany.

Driver Charged Careless Driving

Vernon Dunsford, R.R. 4, Lakefield, was involved in two minor street accidents within 15 minutes in the early hours of Sunday morning. When his car was stationary at the traffic light at George and Charlotte Sts. at 12.10 a.m., the rear bumper was hit by another car driven by Clifford Reeds, RR 4, Lindsay.

Fifteen minutes later, Dunsford and John O'Brien, R.R. 2, Indian River, were in collision at George and Simcoe Sts. O'Brien was charged at city police headquarters with careless driving. Constable Trennum investigated both incidents.

Paul Rexe, young son of Mr. and Mrs. John Rexe, 547B George St., was knocked down by a car Saturday at 11 p.m., on McDonnel St. Constable Douglas Farthing reports that the boy was uninjured and returned to his home with the driver of the car, R. Halgate of Cooper, Ontario.

Two cars parked in a double row caused four cars to be involved in a collision, resulting in damaged fenders, bumpers and wheels.

Basil Murphy, 457 Downie St., pulled out from behind the car parked next to his. He and A. Paquette, 543 Gilchrist St., brushed fenders and then the car driven by Murphy went across the street, colliding with two stationary cars owned by D. Bothwell, Belleville, and Ralph B. Smyth, 304 Aberdeen Ave. The owner of the car driven by Murphy was Gerald Devlin, 21 Cricket Place.

This incident was investigated by Constables Reg. McMillan and Vern O'Donoghue, who found all four cars had been damaged.

A half-ton truck driven by Gordon Manley, 685 Gilchrist St. and a car which E. Morphet, 798 Armour Rd., was driving collided at the Monaghan Rd. and Gilmour St. intersection Saturday evening The right fender of the truck was crumpled, the hub was damaged and also the front left wheel. The front bumper, front right fender and hood of the car were damaged. Constables Claire McGillen and Jack Morrow were at the scene of the accident shortly after the impact.

Orville Blake, Oshawa, was driving along Highway 7A between Cavan village and Highway 28 Sunday morning when his truck overturned into the ditch. He escaped injury and Clarence Caruthers, whose car overturned into the ditch at noon Sunday five miles west of Peterborough on Highway 7 also escaped without being injured.

Doctors Find Brain Keeps Memories On File

MONTREAL, May 24 (AP). — Discovery how nerves store memory and an electrical way to remember what you forgot was reported to the American Psychiatric Association to-day.

This was done with electrical probes, fine wires with a slight electrical current, touching human brain surfaces exposed during operations for epilepsy.

The probes drew forth old and forgotten memories almost like taking cards from a filing case.

In fact, Dr. Wilder Penfield, head of the McGill University Neurological Institute, where the work was done, said the brain carries memories in a complete double filing system. There is one on each side of the head.

Hears Music

These are called the temporal lobes. A stenographer, whose brain was bared under local anaesthesia, so that she remained conscious, exclaimed when one part of a temporal lobe was touched, that she could hear music.

Asked where it came from she replied some sort of music box. She did not know until after the operation that this music came from her own brain, and that she alone could hear it.

After the operation, when Dr. Penfield asked her to hum the tune from real memory, the girl was unable to do as well as when the memory electrode had touched her brain. She said that she had been humming right along with the music box.

Dr. Penfield outlined a theory of how the brain is organized both to store and transmit memories. He said that the nerves seem to form memory patterns through a group of fibres in one of the memory filing areas. There are millions of these fibres in the human brain, mostly short, and connected by links called synapses, so that all sorts of patterns are possible.

Marmora Greets Two Visitors From Holland

MARMORA, May 24 (ENS) — Marmora has welcomed two interesting, visitors for the next three months in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. B. Van den Berg of Rotterdam, Holland. They are the parents of Mrs. Charles T. Archer. They left Holland on May 4, and arrived in Montreal last Thursday.

Mr. Van den Berg is able to converse to some extent in English, but father and daughter will be acting as interpreters for the mother during their stay here.

Second Spring

It is a second spring for them. Flowers and blooms have been superabundant in Holland this year, and their eyes have literally feasted on the blossoming trees, lilacs and tulips seen on this side of the Atlantic. They the pdough AO¼an mar fodars are proud of their two granddaughters, Anna May and Mary Lou Archer, the former having been born in Holland and only seven months old on coming to Canada. Mr. Van den Berg has been a notary public for 43 years

Food and clothing prices in Holland were mentioned. Butter is 89 cents a half-pound, and eggs are 16 cents each. A good man's suit is obtainable for 165 guilders, which is practically the equivalent of $165. It was learned that Holland was making good recovery from its war ravages, and that the dykes in Zeeland and other fortifications are practically rebuilt.

Execute Three 'Spies'

Final Tribute Paid Mrs. William Tully

Rev. H. G. Douglas conducted the funeral service of the late Mrs. William T. Tully from her late residence on Friday.

A great many friends attended to pay their last respects to one who had always been active in the community. She was the first woman member of the school board and a member of Coldsprings Union Sunday School and Knox United Church.

Pallbearers were Beacher Matchett, Sidney Bayfrey, Alex Pidgeon, Wm. Deyell, Harvey Edwards and Douglas Matchett.

Surviving are her husband Wm. T. Tully, three daughters, Mrs. Charles Huffman of Peterborough, Miss Rosanne of Toronto, and Miss Mary, also one son Joseph, at home.

Interment was in Little Lake Cemetry.

Neighbors Honor Percy Families

WARKWORTH, May 24 (ENS) —Friends and neighbours met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Warner to spend a friendly evening prior to their leaving the community to take up residence in Hastings.

Mrs. Percy Honey was chairman for program: which consisted of recitation by Mrs. Arthur Lord; duet by Ida and Marjorie Honey and a reading by Mrs. Alex. Lockhart.

Mrs. Charles Honey and Catherine Convey assisted Mrs. Percy Honey in a spelling match and other games.

Mrs. Charles Honey read an address to Mr. and Mrs. Warner and Mrs. Warner Sr. and Mr. Thomas Convey made the presentation of a tri-light lamp and a purse.

Mr. Warner on behalf of his wife and mother expressed their appreciation of their neighbour's kindness.

A delicious lunch brought the enjoyable evening to a close.

A (large) gathering of approximately one hundred neighbours and friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Ferguson and family in the form of a farewell party prior to their moving to their new home at Cambray, near Lindsay. An interesting program of musical numbers and readings was given and was followed by an address and the presentation of two large upholstered chairs and a purse. The W. A. also presented Mrs. Ferguson with a tablecloth and Jean received a fancy cup and saucer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson each replied expressing their sincere appreciation and a beautiful lunch was served.

Stock Markets Have Five Dull Sessions

By The Canadian Press.

Stock markets continued moving under steady selling pressure in five dull sessions last week.

Prices slipped quietly for four successive days as activity slackened. Losses were generally small and the selling movement couldn't break away. It appeared traders were looking for slightly lower levels before moving into the market.

Observers say there is a strong undertone to the present market with most of the selling out of the way. Movements in each session have been irregular with stocks firming one minute, then losing their gains the next.

Wall Street started the week on an upswing as buying enthusiasm pushed prices ahead. Declines appeared Tuesday as buying waned. The market see-sawed most of Wednesday's session and began to show losses at the close that spread out over a wider list Thursday.

Fourth Day of Decline

The decline continued for its fourth successive day Friday as prices were forced down to the lowest level of the month. The Associated Press 60-stock average dipped .3 yesterday, closing at 62.9, a loss of .6 from the previous Friday.

Canadian markets followed the New York trend.

In Toronto, industrial stocks dipped steadily to lose .52 on the exchange's index and sell at the lowest price level since February.

Renewed confidence appeared in the base metal market. The list climbed strongly for two sessions to show a gain of .197 from a week ago. Golds were forced slightly lower, losing .84.

Western oils were under pressure, dipping 2.24, Curtailments in western oil production because of lack of markets at present depressed the smaller companies. Several sold at record lows for the year during the week.

Volume for the five days was 2,878,000 shares, compared with 3,722,000 shares the previous week.

Banks were the only group to hold firm in Montreal, gaining .04 on the averages. Losers were: utilities .2; industrials .5; combined 4; papers 4.00; golds .14. Industrial volume was 136,212, as against 152,026, and mines, 512,415, as against 631,346.

Grain market weakened from last Friday. In Chicago, May corn and rye showed the widest losses. Wheat and oats slipped fractions. In Winnipeg, May rye was the biggest loser and barley and oats sagged.

Cobourg Cases Adjourned

COBOURG, May 24 —(ENS)— Due to the fact that arrangements had not been completed in securing counsel, adjournment was made until May 30 of the case against Harry Goodell and Harry Ketchum of Percy township. Goodell was charged Friday with being in possession of stolen tools on April 30, the property of Daniel Veliers. Ketchum was charged on the same date in Percy township, with assaulting Provincial Constable D. W. Coffey of Peterborough.

Trial started in connection with a charge against Clinton Gracey of Toronto of theft of scrap iron on May 12, property of J. Carscadden of Clarke township and a like charge of theft of scrap iron from Cecil Glass of Clarke township. As the defence did not have all their witnesses on hand, some of the evidence was taken and the case adjourned until next week. Provincial Constable Don Nicol of Cobourg said that he found the truck load of scrap iron in Clarke Township on May 12. Cecil Glass said that he identified an engine block from an old model T Ford and a 65 pound weight in the load. The iron was used by him to weigh down a disc farm implement.

Teachers Plan Parents' Night

HAVELOCK, May 24 (ENS).—Principal R. D. Buchanan of the Public School in giving his report to the Board of Education said the teaching staff were planning to hold a parents' night on May 30, if the Board was agreeable. On motion of Trustees Calnan and Smith the staff were granted permission to hold this event.

Mr. Buchanan also reported that Mrs. R. Backus had been away on April 25 and 26 due to illness in her family, and that Mrs. D. McColl had acted as supply teacher. Mr. Buchanan asked the Board if they had considered purchasing a movie projector for the school, but no action was taken in the matter.

The attendance officer's report was as follows: School open 15 days in April, enrollment 174, 3 admissions; perfect aggregate 2,582, actual aggregate 2,3[illegible], percentage of actual to perfect aggregate 91.56 per cent.

On motion of Trustees Smith and Marten, supply teachers for the Public School will be paid at the rate of $7 per day commencing September 1, 1949.

Allowed in Box

On motion of Trustees Smith and Calnan, the Board authorized the chairman and treasurer to have access to the safety deposit box.

An application was read from D. A. Pollock for the position of music teacher for the Public School. The application was filed. With reference to an increase of salary for D. Rintouls, teacher of manual training, no action was taken.

On motion by Trustees Marten and Smith, the secretary was instructed to contact Mr. Hazel regarding he music contract.

The following accounts were passed with the exception of the insurance account from W. J. Nobes which will be paid when adjustments to the policies have been made:

Salaries, teachers, caretaker, and secretary, $1,072.92; E. J. Leeson, insurance, $185.22; W. J. Nobes, insurance, $133.65; Sanderson's Hardware, $9.15; Rental deposit box, $7; H. A. McNeely, first-aid supplies, $2.07; Softball and bats, $28.82; Supplies, $2.11; Havelock Hydro Commission, $29.86; Calnan's Store, $8.59.

Four Generations Attend Omemee WI

OMEMEE, May 24 — (ENS) — The Omemee Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. P. Parsons with 17 members present. A very extraordinary occurrence was the attendance of four generations of one family. They were: Mrs. B. McQuade an old time member of the Omemee branch and at present a visitor in the village, her daughter Mrs. P. Parsons, Mrs. Parson's daughter Mrs. J. Swinson, and Mrs. Swinson's daughter June Collins.

The treasurer reported a balance on hand of $117.68. Money making schemes were discussed, suggested projects being left to the managment of conveners who were appointed for the various months as follows: June. Mrs. G. Nelson, July, Mrs. E. McPherson, August, Mrs. D. Hicks, September, Mrs. A. Rutherford, October, Mrs. B. Hyland, November, Mrs. L. Brooks, December, Mrs. L. Parker, January, Mrs. J. Magee, February, Mrs. S. Bannon, March, Mrs. P. Parsons, April, Mrs. T. Woods,

The June meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. G. Nelson and is to take the form of a strawberry social.

James Marshall City Lions New President

James Marshall on Monday night was acclaimed president of the Peterborough Lions Club. He succeeds Simpson Gledhill. Last year Mr. Marshall was vice-president.

Other officers whose names were proposed by the nominating committee and who went into office by acclamation are Bert Sisson, 1st vice-president; James McCulloch, 2nd vice-president; Thomas Doughty, 3rd vice-president; Alastair Cameron, treasurer; Ron MacGee, secretary; and George Hutchinson, lion tamer.

Two names were put forward for tail twisters, William Bennett and Harold Freeman.

The nominating committee recommended the following as directors Joseph Brown, Arnold Deyell, Geddes Harper, Archie Henderson, George Hildebrand, James Laidlaw, Walter Mortlock, Vernon Rose and C. R. (Bud) LaBranche.

There are two two-year directors to be elected and one one-year director to be chosen. Bob Gibbons remains as director for another year.

Stan Darling, present district governor of district A3, was presented with a brief case from the International Association. The brief case was a mark of appreciation for the work he has done. The presentation was made by Mr. Gledhill, retiring president of the Peterborough Club.

It is believed to be the first time that a member holding office in the Peterborough Lions Club has been so honored.

When the International Association of Lions Clubs of Canada holds its annual election of officers at the July International Convention in New York city, the local club will propose Mr. Darling as Canadian representative to the Board of International Relations.

Only one Lion from each country has that honor.

WORK COMMENCED

Work commenced to-day on excavating for a new building immediately south of the addition recently completed to The Examiner. This new addition will house the new presses which The Examiner has purchased.

HONOR QUEEN'S MEMORY

The citizens chimes in the tower of St. John's Anglican Church were played for about 20 minutes this morning beginning at 11.00 in honor of Queen Victoria, in whose memory the usual May 24th holiday was observed in Peterborough. Many familiar sacred and patriotic airs were played by Richard Ford.

RESERVED FOR FIVE PLAYS

Members of the CGE Social and Athletic Association and their families will be able to see the Little Theatre's presentation of Summer plays at a cut rate, the Association announced. The Association has reserved the auditorium for five nights through the summer and will offer the seats for 50 cents.

TWO MINOR FIRES

A short circuit caused by an overload of electrical power and too large a fuse to cope with it started electric wires burning on Monday afternoon in the basement of the residence of Mrs. B. Collins, Wescott St. The small fire was snuffed out before any further damage resulted. Earlier in the day a chimney fire broke out at the residence of K. White, Aylmer St.

UPWA DELEGATES

Three Peterborough delegates to the United Packinghouse Workers of America annual convention in Colorado at the end of month are as stated in Friday's edition John Beggs, William Gunn and Alfred Barber. Mr. Barber is president of Local 210 UPWA (not 295 as stated). Mr. Gunn is president of Local 293, and Mr Begg is a past president of 293 and does not now hold office in it.

TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Peterborough Public Library will be represented at the Ontario Library Association's annual convention in Kingston this week by William Graff, chief Librarian, Miss Genevieve Sullivan, who is vice chairman of the reference section and Miss Marion Smith in charge of cataloguing at Peterborough Library. Mr. Graff will address the meeting Sunday on religious films and will also take part in a four man panel discussion on publicity. He will cover the radio publicity field.

Bible Society Work Outlined In Film

Field Secretary of the Upper Canada Bible Society, Rev. E. H. Young of Toronto, addressed a meeting of that Society at the YMCA on Monday evening. Affiliated with the British Foreign Bible Society and associated with the World Committee of Bible Societies, he outlined its origin and work and showed a film of its achievements.

G. H. Roper, secretary-treasurer of the Peterborough Committee, reported a fair attendance from the cities' 17 churches. The main purpose of the meeting, he said, was to get from five to six canvassers from each church to further work in their field. To date, no president has been appointed by the Peterborough Committee.

Mrs. Kate Morris First Woman Trustee Dies

By HARRY THEOBALD.

Mrs. Kate Morris, the first woman to be elected to a municipal office in Peterborough, died at her home, 483 Homewood Ave. Monday.

Her election to the Board of Education in 1920 set a precedent that had been long overdue, and [illegible] of city was fortunate in its pioneering representative. Not that proof was needed of the comparative intelligence and administrative abilities of women. Rather the time had come to challenge a custom by which men monopolized the executive responsibilities of the community. This was particularly true of the management of the schools in which so many women are teachers and also in which women generally have at least a parity interest as mothers.

Mrs. Morris had been for years prominent in the public life of Peterborough, especially during and after the First Great War in which her only son, Capt. William Francis Morris, was killed in action on the Somme. When public support was rallied to various auxiliary efforts in aid of the men going overseas, Mrs. Morris was among the first women responding. After the death of her son, it seemed that she redoubled her activities probably as a means of assuaging her sacrifice and bereavement, and also to do her utmost that all the loss and pain should not be in vain.

Events of that time have grown dim as the years have passed and other anxieties came, but Mrs. Kate Morris will long be remembered for her contributions then and since to many of the phases of the city's life. She was a most useful, sincere and good citizen.

For 21 years Mrs. Morris was a member of the Board of Education, finally retiring in 1943. It was a long record of public service, gratefully recognized by the citizens in their repeated expression of confidence at the polls.

Born In Detroit

Mrs. Morris was born in Detroit, Mich., in 1871, and resided in Windsor, Toronto and Smiths Falls before coming to Peterborough with her family in 1905. She received her education in Windsor, attending Public School, Collegiate Institute and Model School for teachers, and finally took the advanced course for the teaching profession at the Normal School in Toronto.

The first activity of Mrs. Morris in this city was as superintendent of St. John's Church junior auxiliary from 1905 to 1908. She was president of the Peterborough Young Women's Christian Association in 1912 and 1913, and gradually broadened her interests and her participation in the community affairs of the city for the next quarter of a century or more.

Mrs. Morris was president of the Ontario Command of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Great War Veterans Association, and was honorary president of its Peterborough branch, which she had assisted in organizing. The G.W.V.A. was the forerunner and counterpart of the Canadian Legion, the first body of veterans after the First Great War. She was a member of the executive committee of the War Memorial Committee which was appointed by the citizens to undertake the erection of the war memorial in Central Park. It was financed mainly with funds supplied by the Red Cross Society. She was also convenor of the women's committee of the Belgium Relief Fund, was for years an ardent member of the Red Cross Society.

It is recalled that Mrs. Morris organized several of the waste paper collection campaigns by which funds of local groups were augmented for war contributions. When supervised playgrounds were established here in 1916, Mrs. Morris was appointed to the executive in charge of that community enterprise in behalf of the children of the city, and was at

Rev. Kenneth Gillespie At Murray Street Church

Kenneth Gillespie, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gillespie, 110 Lock St., was ordained a Baptist minister Monday at Murray St. Baptist Church. A member of Murray St. church and former P.C.V.S. pupil, Mr. Gillespie graduated recently from McMaster University, Hamilton. He has been appointed Associate Minister of the First Baptist Church of Montreal.

A formal recommendation for Mr. Gillespie's ordination was made by the Rev. W. C. Pierce of Brighton, and seconded by the Rev. J. H. Sutcliffe, a former minister at Murray St. Church, on behalf of the Peterborough Baptist Association. Moderator at the ordination service was the Rev. H. O. Eastman, of Belleville, from whom Mr. Gillespie received his certificate of ordination.

Mr. Sutcliffe, who is now minister at Auburn, New York, delivered a sermon. He discussed the work and achievements of the Twelve Disciples, measuring their shortcomings as prophets with the overall picture of events which Jesus had.

Every ordained minister present at the service took part in the laying on of hands which formed the ordination ceremony. The ordination prayer was delivered by the Rev. L. A. Gregory of Toronto.

Outlines Duties

Immediately after Mr. Gillespie had been ordained the Rev. Ivan Morgan, minister of Murray St. Church, charged the new minister. Mr. Morgan, who fulfilled this part of the service in the absence of the Rev. Dr. McKutcheon, minister at the First Baptist Church of Montreal where Mr. Gillespie is to be Associate Minister, drew the newly ordained minister's attention to many of the duties and temptations of ministerial work.

The absolute necessity of devotional discipline was one demand of primary importance. There was a constant temptation in the work of the ministry to become slack and lazy. Men in business and industry had to rise at a certain time to start their day's work on schedule. Their work was organized and slackness was punished by failure or dismissal.

By 9 o'clock a man ought to be in his study ready for hard work —the discipline of prayer and thought and hard reading. He was in his comfortable study by the goodwill of his people with whom he had a contract. They were willing that he should live in comparative freedom from financial anxiety and in a degree of comfort far greater than many of them enjoyed.

"Let the minister live so near to God," Mr. Morgan said, "that when his people are in trouble he shall be a tender physician of the soul, ready, willing and able to help them. When they turn out to the house of worship, he shall be able to offer them the real Bread of Life . . ."

"If, having spent his time with trifles, he is unprepared to give his people that which has cost him something in his own quest, he is breaking his contract."

There should be no people, Mr. Morgan declared, who could say they worked harder for things material than the minister does for things that are spiritual.

"It will be important for you to be a good preacher, a tireless visitor, a minister of finance, a helpful counsellor and a leader in religious education and a reader. You must read not only in your own field of theology but also about politics, science, history, biology and fiction."

Ignore Criticism

Mr. Morgan told the new minister not to be become upset if he encountered criticism. "In your personal life pray and work and don't worry," the minister advised.

"You must love people," Mr. Gillespie was charged. On the subject of sermons, Mr. Morgan said "be a plain preacher . . . You can observe the pulpit's dignity and still speak basic English or its near equivalent."

Lastly Mr. Morgan advised "keep yourself in the background. 'I' is the Devil's pronoun so use it as little as possible."

The Rev. L. C. Kitchen of McMaster University delivered the charge to the Church, reminding the congregation of the mutual relationship between minister and lay members of the church.

The scripture was read by the Rev. Paul Beech of Colborne.

Neighbor Discovers Blaze In Apartment

Fire of unknown origin on Monday night seriously damaged the living room and furnishings of John Boyle, Apartment Nine, 57½ Hunter St. E. The Boyle family was away at the time the outbreak was noticed and a careful assessment of damages has not yet been made.

Fire Chief George Smith believes it was caused by either an electrical short circuit or a misplaced cigarette butt but the exact cause is not likely to be known until he has conferred with Mr. Boyle.

The fire was first sighted by a neighbor in the backyard of the apartment lot when flames became visible from the third-storey Boyle apartment. A chesterfield chair was completely destroyed as were a carpet, blinds and curtains.

A combination radio and record player was badly damaged and holes were burned in the hardwood flooring. Flames, however, did not eat through into the apartment below.

Substantial loss due to smoke is also expected.

Trout Betters Five Pounds

A fighting five and a half pound brown trout battled two Peterborough brothers, wielding net, gaff hook, and a short length of iron pipe, Saturday morning before being hauled into a lurching canoe.

Frank Jones, 304 Park St. North and his brother Bill, Manning Ave., were fishing in the Millbrook area and hooked only the one trout all day. "One of those in one day is plenty," said Frank. The fish measured 23 inches long and had a 13 and one quarter inch girth.

When Frank first tried to bring the trout near the surface to see what size fish he had, "it was like trying to bring up the bottom."

"The trouble with catching a fish that size," Frank exclaimed, "is that everything I catch from now on is going to seem pretty small and tame."

23,361 Federal Voters On City's Enumerated List

Preparation of the list of voters in the riding of Peterborough west for the federal elections is now in the stage of printing. Mr. A. J. McClellan, returning officer, informed the Examiner yesterday that the total number of names compiled by the city enumerators is 23,361. The work of enumeration in both the city and townships has been completed, but the last of the rural lists was not received through the mail until Monday afternoon. The combined list of urban and rural voters will be available Wednesday.

Every elector whose name is on the enumerated list will receive by Jupe 4 a printed copy of the list for his subdivision.

"The voter has three ways of determining that his name gets on the final list," said Mr. McClellan, "and that means that he makes sure of getting his ballot on election day, June 27.

He may refer to the typewritten lists that have been publicly posted around the city. Second, he should receive a copy of the list of names in his polling subdivision. This copy will be mailed by the deadline of June 4. Finally, there is reference to the revising officers.

Copy of List Mailed

The mailed copies of the list should be sufficient to enable all men and women to find out whether their names are included.

The election department sends a copy of this subdivision list to each voter. All that remains for him or her to do is to look into its pages, make sure there has been no omission.

The revising sessions are divided into two categories and times, one for complaints and corrections; the other for adding omitted names.

The first revising period is June 6, 7 and 8 from 2 p.m. standard time to 5 p.m. standard time. Supposing a name has been spelled wrong in the enumerating and printing, or there is some other textual error. The correction can be made at this time.

Can Add Names

The days for the adding of names are June 9, 10 and 11; and the hours from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. (standard time). Mr McClellan said all the election preparation notices are set for standard time, which is one hour behind DST.

Here are the other details about the revision of the lists.

Revision district No. 1 comprises polling subdivision 1 to 11 and 53-61 inclusive; with Judge S. L. Smoke presiding in his chambers at the Court House.

Revising district No. 2 comprises polling subdivisions Numbers 12 to 29 inclusive; at the office of Mr. W. F. Huycke, K.C., Water St., with Mr. Huycke presiding.

Revising district No. 3 for subdivisions 30 to 52 inclusive and also No. 62 at the office of Peterborough Exhibition, at the Exhibition gate, south end of George St., with Mr. John A. Harstone presiding.

For rural voters, corrections may be made at the homes of the enumerators who are required to be at their residences on June 9 from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m.—again standard time.

Mr. McClellan said that the subdivision lists of voters present a helpful change in their present preparation. The essential information about the polling place, about the system of revision, has been transferred from the back page, where it was often overlooked, to the top of the front page.

"I think all this information that is made so convenient should reduce to a new minimum the number of last minute calls on election day from people who at that late hour don't know where they vote or whether their names are on the list," Mr. McClellan said. "It has all been simplified to such an extent that I can't see how anyone with the least sense of public duty can fail to understand what recourse he or she has."

Ask Highway Be Put In Good Shape

BUCKHORN, May 24 (ENS) — Decision to request the Suburban Road Commission to have the northern portion of the new highway from Lakefield to Buckhorn entering Harvey Township put in good condition in time for the heavy tourist traffic by July 1 was reached at the last regular meeting of the Municipal Council of Harvey Township.

The council also heard a request from Mr. Gwilliam that a road be built into his cottage. Councillor Gordon was appointed to work with the road superintendent when bulldozing the road.

The councillors authorized the road superintendent to secure complete information with respect to purchase of a grader or truck to be used in connection with road maintenance for both winter and summer in the township.

Report Accepted

The report of the auditors was read and accepted and the clerk authorized to have the usual number of copies printed.

B. Reeves was appointed school attendance officer for school sections 4, 5, 6 and 7.

The following accounts were ordered paid for fighting fires: Henry Ackerman $2.60, Charles Allen $2.60, William Spafford $2.60, Josh Johnson $1.95, George Hogarth $1.95, Harold Hogarth $1.95, also salary of $20 to M. B. Hall.

The next meeting of the council will be held at Lakehurst on June 4.

Newfoundland Goes To Polls Friday, May 27

By The Canadian Press

All but one member of the 11-man interim cabinet which is governing Newfoundland until a legislature is elected are contesting the island's first provincial election May 27 on the Liberal ticket.

Two of the ministers—Dr. Herbert Pottle and Herbert W. Quinton—were member of the commission government that ruled Newfoundand before Confederation March 31.

In Heath Minister Quinton, Premier Joseph R. Smallwood now has an ally where once he had a political rival—and conqueror. In the 1932 election Mr. Quinton, then a Conservative, defeated Mr. Smallwood by 3,285 to 812 votes in Bonavist South.

Mr. Pottle, public welfare min- United Church, school teacher, ister, is a former minister of the social worker and juvenile court judge.

Finance Minister Gordon Winter and Supply Minister Addison Bown opposed Mr. Smallwood when he led the fight for union with Canada, but entered the cabinet with the expressed purpose of "making the best of Confederation." Mr. Winter is retiring at least temporarily from the political field, while Mr. Bown is contesting the important iron-ore dual district of Harbor Main-Bell Island.

Supported Smallwood

Justice Minister Leslie R. Curtis, son of a missionary, was one of the few lawyers in St. John's who supported Mr. Smallwood in the Confederation campaign.

Public Works Minister Michael J. Sinnott, a retired magistrate, entered politics at the age of 75 to support Mr. Smallwood. Education Minister Samuel J. Hefferton, former vice-prinicpal at Bishop Field College here, was president of the National Teachers' Association.

Home Affairs Minister Philip Forsey was a fisherman and logger who later became a school teacher and specialized in economics and sociology. William J. Keough, natural resources minister, is a one-time labor weekly editor, and a member of the National Convention to study future forms of government for Newfoundland.

Labor Minister Charles H. Ballam, former president of the Newfoundland Federation of Labor, also was a member of the convention. He was a member of the first Newfoundland delegation to Ottawa to negotiate union terms between this island and Canada.

City Oddfellows Form New Branch

An outstanding event in Oddfellowship took place in the Oddfellows Hall Saturday, when the District Commander, Major General E. E. Wonch of North Bay and staff mustered in a new canton branch of the Grand Canton of Ontario.

An installing staff from Oshawa installed the following officers: Capt., K. M. Sine; Ensign, J. Emery; Lieut., A. Brotherstone; Clerk, J. B. Hough; Accountant, H. Reid; Guide, W. Albery; Banner Bearer, O. Siminsen; Sentinel, K. Throop; Picket, Edison Foster; Chaplain, R. Juby; and Pianist, E. Firth.

Installation was followed by lunch. Guests included Chevaliers from Orillia, Belleville, Trenton, Stirling, Picton and Cobourg.

CGE Employees Picnic Saturday, June 25

The annual CGE employees' picnic has been set for Saturday, June 25, the Social and Athletic Association has announced. As in other years it will be held in Nicholls Oval.

Two stage shows will feature the afternoon and evening entertainment. One will be designed for the small fry at 5 in the afternoon and parents will be entertained by professional performers at 8.30. In addition, there will be draws competitions, demonstrations, booths and games for the children.

The entertainment committee said the details of the program have not all been worked out yet.

Poor Service

DRESDEN, May 24 (CP) — Town clerk E. J. Kyle looked twice at the postcard he received yesterday. It was postmarked June 27, 1887. Mailed in Toronto 62 years ago, the card was routed via Essex but there was no explanation for the "delay." It was mailed by a Toronto author of municipal handbooks who offered the town a combination of his works at a bargain price.

Woman 102 Dead

MONTREAL, May 24 (CP) — Mrs. John Henkel, 102, died in her suburban Montreal south shore home yesterday. A native of Germany, she went to Brooklyn, N. Y., when six years old. Her husband, a cabinet maker, died a year ago. Mrs. Henkel is survived by two grandsons and two grand-daughters.

Of Interest to Women

Dr. W. J. Warren Gamble looks on as his bride, the former Dorothy Agnes Boyle, signs the marriage register in George St. United Church, Saturday. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward Gamble, and Mrs. Henry James Boyle, all of Peterborough.

(Garfield Studio Photo)

Dorothy A. Boyle Is Bride Of Dr. W. J. Warren Gamble

George St. United Church was setting for a lovely wedding Saturday of Dorothy Agnes, daughter of Mrs. Henry James Boyle and the late Mr. Boyle, to Dr. William James Warren Gamble, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward Gamble. The Rev. Dr. James Semple was assisted by the Rev. E. W. Rowland in the ceremony.

Purple and white lilacs formed a floral background at the altar, with flanking rows of lighted tapers in tall candelabra. Mr. Charles Allen played the wedding music. During the signing of the register Miss Loretta McDougall sang "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. R. B. Hunter. Her attendants were her sisters, Mrs. Marjorie Douglas, matron of honor, and Miss Bette Boyle and Miss Anne Boyle, bridesmaids. The groomsman was Mr. Arthur Northcott and the ushers were Mr. Donald Douglas, Dr. Douglas Thompson, Dr. William Sims and Mr. Robert Garner.

Traditional white satin was the bride's choice for her wedding gown. It was styled with mandarin neckline on the basque bodice, and had Guipure lace at the shoulders and waist The skirt was made in shepherdess effect, trimmed with matching lace, and having a slight train. She wore a halo headdress of tulle, falling to shoulder length, and was carrying a cascade of roses with pink and mauve sweet peas and lily of the valley.

The bride's attendants were in frocks of aqua blue taffeta made with off-shoulder neckline on fitted basques and bouffant skirts back that flowed into cascade drapery in front. They wore matching bandeaux, caught on one side with purple violets, and each carried a bouquet of pink and deep mauve sweetpeas.

At the reception in the YWCA Green Room, the bride's aunt, Mrs. R. B. Hunter, received, wearing a suit of blue grey gabardine with a black straw hat trimmed with matching ribbon. The groom's mother also received, gowned in French blue crepe with grey accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Later the bride and groom left for Toronto and a trip to Quebec City and the United States. For travelling Mrs. Gamble wore a navy gabardine suit, navy straw hat trimmed with a large pink flower, white gloves and navy accessories.

Begin Campaign To Free Women Of Harem, Veil

By CORLEY SMITH.

KARACHI, Pakistan, May 22—(Reuters)—Educated women in Pakistan have started a campaign to free their sex from the twin prisons of the harem and the veil.

The Begum Liaquat Ali Khan, charming wife of the Dominion's Prime Minister and one of the leading members of the association, while urging the need for women to take part in public life, vigorously maintains that the centre of a woman's life must still be the home.

In their new drive for freedom and recognition the women of Pakistan are looking to Turkey where the veil and harem have been abolished and the women are providing a source of new strength to their country.

The word "veil" does not adequately describe the great tents of cloth under which more than the 20,000,000 women of Pakistan must get along as best they can when in public.

Shrouded in Cloth

They can be seen walking in groups through the towns, peering through the small netting aperture before their eyes—the only opening in the yards of cloth which shroud them from head to toe.

They wait for a marriage to a man they have never seen, chosen by their parents.

Sometimes, more modern couples exchange photographs before their wedding. More often, they see each other for the first time in a mirror following the wedding ceremony.

This first glimpse is an ordeal. The bride sits motionless in a chair with her new husband standing behind her.

Slowly, her attendants lift her veils until her jewelled face is visible in the mirror. For the first time she sees her husband's face reflected from above.

The young couple do not establish a home of their own. They go to the house of the husband's father, where, with the other young people, the bride works to support the old.

CANADIAN FASHIONS — Fashion-conscious women will take to these Canadian shoes this summer. Left, natural linen has tip, collar and heel in tobacco brown calf. At right, spectator type in continental green suede with collar and heel in matching green calf, stitching on low, scalloped throatline and quarter. Both have rolled wall toe which, in closed types, women find so comfortable.

ENQUIRY COLUMN

By MARY MOORE

QUESTION: "Top of the mornin'" to you. I feel I know you owing to my weekly visits in our paper, that I have had for several years.

I have a "locker" in a cold storage plant in connection with a meat market where I kept my poultry, etc. Did not put by fruits or vegetables, but have been buying frozen produce since coming on the market. Recently I have put in a deep freeze. I expect you know of the firm we have a freezer food service. The freezer we rent—cannot buy. We are expected to shop a bit with the freezer firm. The firm reserves a small part of freezer for their supplies—meats, fruits, vegetables and many other specialities such as pie, pie dough, etc. I am saved the everlasting running around for meat and many supplies. During the war and up to date shopping is anything but comfortable. Now I phone my order into the freezer firm and it is delivered. The firm takes complete care of the freezer. I asked where they got the idea—the first on the American continent. Four brothers—returned soldiers had to get busy and earn a living and conceived the idea of a deep freeze service—now a very busy firm. So much for deep freeze.

I am sending out an SOS to you for help. Can you please tell me the best variety of strawberries to use for freezing? I like a good size firm luscious red berry, with a real strawberry flavour. Also good apples for winter use. I usually put in Greenings, Northern Spies, sometimes other varieties. Some apples look tempting, keep fairly well but are insipid in taste. We do like good food. The old varieties of many fruits have come and gone. It is a problem keeping up with the many changes. To me the delicious odours of or from the kitchen of my mother's still lingers—"The Good Old Days."

This is a rambling screed, but trust you will recover after wading through. I thought a list of fruits for freezing would be interesting. Another thought—How do you think prices would compare buying apples by bushel or sliced apples canned or frozen by the crater. Likewise applesauce. When you buy apples there is much waste by help from peeling; sugar and fuel and time. There is a big order; take your time.—"E.C."

❖ ❖ ❖

ANSWER: On the contrary I like such letters—I feel I know my readers better.

The prime requisite in freezing strawberries is freshness and quality. Any strawberry that you like will be the same when frozen—but you should order them from the grower, and specify only the finest, plumpest, ripest, fruit and pack it within 4 hours if possible. Wash berries under a spray if possible, with hulls on, remove hulls quickly having as much fast help as possible, and stir the sugar, in proportions of 1 part sugar to 4 or 5 parts berries, into the berries until it is dissolved. (I think it is best to use berry sugar as it dissolves faster and requires less stirring—but some frozen strawberries packers say that the "crush" the berries get from stirring is desirable). Fast freeze at once, in closed containers that you are accustomed to using.

You did not say whether you wanted to know varieties of apples for storing "as is" or for freezing. I always buy Spys and think they are the best allround Ontario apples for flavor and keeping quality.

This subject of buying prepared apples is controversial—but how can fruit help but deteriorate in flavor when it is processed—after taking off its natural protective cover—either by dehydrating or freezing? I'll tell you what to do—taste a baker's pie made from frozen apples, then bake a pie made from 1948 Spys that you peel at home, using sugar and seasonings to match the baker's pi eas nearly as possible. That will answer you. Flavor is pretty important to people who like good food.

GOOD NEWS FOR NEW CANADIANS

Your children, born abroad, now qualify for Family Allowances

after only ONE YEAR in Canada!

Now your children need no longer wait three years to obtain the benefits of Family Allowances. Now they need live in Canada only one year.

If you have in your care a child for whom you do not now receive Family Allowances, but who

- came to Canada a year or more ago
- has lived in Canada since
- is under 16 years of age
- is otherwise eligible

then you should immediately get a Family Allowances registration form from your post office — fill it out — and send it in right away to the address shown on the form.

You should do this even if you may have included this child's name in an earlier application for Family Allowances.

And you should do this immediately, because Family Allowances payments can only begin the month following the receipt of your registration form.

No More Dosing For Constipation

Famous cereal frees woman from harsh laxatives

Searching desperately for constipation relief? Then read this unsolicited letter:

"For 10 years even strong medicines couldn't help me. At last my doctor in England advised KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I began to eat this breakfast cereal and soon realized I was better. I eat ALL-BRAN regularly now and can definitely say I am free from constipation!" (Name given on request).

You, too, may never have to take another harsh laxative for constipation due to lack of bulk in the diet. Just eat an ounce of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN daily—and drink plenty of water. ALL-BRAN is not a purgative, but a wholesome regulating cereal. Eat as a cereal, or in muffins for constipation relief. If after using one package you are not entirely satisfied, get double your money back as guaranteed on the package. Buy delicious ALL-BRAN from your grocer. Made by Kellogg's of London, Ontario.

Matthews-Pringle Nuptials In Beautiful Church Setting

Miss Shirley Anne Pringle became the bride of Mr. Gordon Francis Matthews Saturday afternoon in a ceremony performed in Murray Street Baptist Church by the Rev. Ivan C. Morgan. The bride is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice B. Pringle, and the groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon S. Matthews.

White lilacs, apple blossoms, white snapdragon and shades of pink snapdragon and tulips in pink tones formed the beautiful floral setting in the church. The wedding music was by Mr. Stanley Northrop, and Mrs. James Goldie was soloist. Before the bride entered the church, Mrs. Goldie sang "The Lord's Prayer" and during the signing of the register, "Through The Years."

The bride's gown of imported ivory satin, made from an original pattern, was of simple design with becoming scooped-out neckline and the skirt extending in a regal train. The only trimming was tiny buttons at the wrists of the lily point sleeves. Her veil of French tulle fell in a bridal train from a braided crown of ivory satin. Her shower bouquet was of lily-of-the-valley, completing the all-white ensemble.

Mr. Pringle gave his daughter in marriage and she was attended by her sister, Miss Beverley Pringle as maid-of-honor; Miss Barbara Deyell, Miss Bette Beacock and Miss Susan Graham as brides-maids.

The maid-of-honor wore a frock of Maypole green faille, patterned after the bride's gown and a matching halo hat. The bridesmaids also wore Maypole green faille, similarly styled and had braided bandeaux of the same material on their hair. Each carried an arm bouquet of white lilacs and Esther Reid daisies.

The groom's elder brother, Mr. Harold Matthews was his attendant. Jack Matthews, George Gray, Murray Dewart, Max Graham and James Fallen ushered.

The wedding reception was held under marquees on the lawn at 488 Hunter St. West. The bride's mother was in a gown of Seacreft green with a hat in toast shade with Seacreft and gold shot faille trim, and she carried a corsage of Johanna Hill roses on her purse. The groom's mother was in a gown of dusty pink with crystal bead trim and wore a brown velvet hat trimmed with dusty pink feathers. She carried a corsage of pansies on a brown velvet purse.

When going-away for a motor trip, the bride was wearing a navy suit and pattern hat in toast shade with navy poppy trim and navy accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will live in their new home at Lake Chemong.

Newton-Chaplin Wedding

TRENT RIVER, May 24. — (ENS).—The home of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Chaplin, Trent River, was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday afternoon when their daughter, Clara Pearl, became the bride of Frederick Osborne Newton, son of Mrs. Newton and the late R. B. Newton of Havelock. The Rev. F. R. Vanderburge of the United Church officiated.

Before the wedding and during the signing of the register Mrs. H. Farrow of Hilton, sister of the bride, sang, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Chaplin.

The room was decorated with pink and white streamers, large white bells and a profusion of spring flowers. The wedding was performed beneath an arch of evergreens, intermingled with white and pink bows and branches of lilac.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a quaint gown of embossed organdy over satin in the Queen Anne style. The tight-fitting bodice was long-sleeved, buttoned down the back. It had a scalloped yoke caught with clusters of pearls and a high round collar. The long full-hooped skirt was scalloped at the bottom and caught with bows of satin. Her fingertip veil was of embossed organdy, caught to a crown-shaped headdress of lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of Bettertime roses.

Miss Violet Chaplin of Toronto was her sister's bridesmaid. She wore a frock of pale blue nylon over satin with short sleeves, and wore blue lace mittens. Her headdress was a bandeau of pink roses and she carried a bouquet of Briarcliffe roses and fern.

Victor Newton of Havelock was groomsman.

After the ceremony the bride's mother received, wearing a gown of flowered silk jersey and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother, who also received, was gowned in black silk crepe dress, black hat and wore a corsage of red carnations.

A buffet lunch was served by Mrs. Gordon Belldock, Timmins, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Gerald Chaplin, Westwood, sister-in-law of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Francis Ruttan and Mrs. George Brownsell.

Later the bride and groom left for a trip to Niagara Falls and border states. The bride wore a two-piece dress of blue stripe silk pique with white and navy accessories. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm at Trent River.

Guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Vanderburgh, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Newton, Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Newton, Mr. Robert Newton, Mr. Ronald Newton, Mrs. R. B. Newton, Havelock; Miss Violet Chaplin, Mr. Ted Chaplin, Toronto; Mrs. Gordon Belldock, Timmins; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Farrow and son Vernon of Hilton; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Bobbie and Carol, Hastings; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Chaplin, Westwood; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Newton, Peterborough; Mrs. Clifford Chaplin, Mrs. George Brownsell, Mrs. Francis Ruttan of Trent River.

Bridal Shower Given Teacher By 9H PCVS Pupils

Girls of Form 9H, PCVS, held a bridal shower for Miss Mary Overend on Thursday at 4:15 in the school dining room. Miss Overend received many lovely gifts. The table was beautifully decorated with a white lace cloth and red roses and lilacs were used for the centerpiece. The bride-elect's chair was decorated with pink paper and her gifts were in a large basket decorated with pink and blue streamers. Refreshments were served by Alma Graham, Doreen Larry, Margaret Rome, Doreen Stevens, June Gordon and Jean Trotter.

Those attending were: Miss Katherine McDougall, Miss Doris Fenner, Miss Carla McVannel, Miss Bonnie Bell, Mamie Frost, Jeanne Stewart, Faye Swartz, Dolly Starr, Kathryn Flowers, June Riches, Theresa Caddigan, Lorraine Thompson, Doreen Stevens, ean Trotter, Lucille Cowie, Dawn Cowie, Ivy Roberts, Dorothy Rowson, Ruth Steinkrauss, Junetta Sollitt, Patsy Scharf, Margaret Thomas, June Riches, Violet Sanderson, Flinda Simmons, Doreen Larry, Shirley Mason, June Gordon, Doreen Larry, Shirley Mason, June Gordon, Beverley Hamblin, Helen Minnicola, Barbara Kitchen, Margaret Rome, Alva Graham, Marilyn Steinkrauss, Ruth Hircombe. Those not able to attend who sent gifts were Marlene Milligan and Margaret Stevenson.

McCann-Bishop Nuptials Held

MARMORA, May 24 (ENS) — A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bishop when their elder daughter, Roberta Jean, became the bride of William Garnet McCann, son of Mrs. McCann and the late John McCann of Malone. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. D. Young of St. Andrew's United Church.

White lilacs, spirea and pink and white streamers were used in an artistic setting for the ceremony. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white satin with lace insertions. Her veil of tulle illusion in heart shape was caught with lily of the valley. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Her bridesmaid was Alice McCann of Peterborough, sister of the groom. She was frocked in blue taffeta and wore a Margaret Rose headdress and carried a boquet of pink roses. Duties of groomsman were discharged by William McGarvey of Peterborough, cousin of the bride.

About 60 guests were present for the wedding. The bride's mother gowned in cameo blue crepe with black accessories and wearing a corsage of red roses, received, assisted by the groom's mother who wore grey crepe with black accessories and corsage of pink roses.

Later the bride and groom left on a trip to Ottawa and points east. For travelling the bride chose a blue crepe dress with black accessories. On their return they will live at Malone.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. David McCann and daughter Irene and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Weatherall of Oshawa; Mr. and Mrs. George Reeves and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hennessey and daughter Sandra of Belleville; Mss Jean Lough and William McGarvey of Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. George Bishop and son, Clarence and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bishop and daughter Shirley of Cloyne.

With Girl Guides

For their closing meeting of the season, the Guides and Brownies of St. Andrew's Company have planned a Mother and Daughter banquet to be held on Wednesday, May 25, at 6 o'clock. The banquet is being prepared by members of the Mothers' Auxiliary, and six Guides from the third All Saints' Company have kindly agreed to be waitresses. Service Stars will be presented to Guides and Brownies with a year or more of service, and the Brownie Second Class Golden Bar will be awarded to Suzanne Huffman. Guides and Brownies will, of course, be in uniform.

Directions

Quite good headchese may be bought at the butcher's or from the farmers at the market. I will give details for making home-made headcheese in this column shortly.

The broiled mock beef tenderloin is merely ground beef cakes wrapped at the edges with side bacon and fastened with toothpick and broiled under very high heat —leaving them pink at the centre and adding salt and pepper just before serving.

For the beet, celery and cabbage salad used canned beets, well-drained, and add extra lemon to the mayonnaise when it is mixed at the last moment.

The amount of rhubarb I could gahter from my garden was rather skimpy so I added about three apples, sliced, to it and made a Betty with a one-egg batter. My family is a push-over for a lemon sauce on batter pudding. It is simple to make: Mix together in saucepan 1 tablespoon cornstarch, ½ cup white or brown sugar, grated rind 1 lemon, and lastly add ½ cup boiling water. Stir over heat until thick, and allow to cook over hot water 10 minutes. When ready to serve add 2 tablespoons each butter and lemon juice, shake of salt and nutmeg.

New Englanders would scorn my clam chowder, but for inlanders it is a fine fish fare: Drain liquor from 1 can of chopped or whole clams. Saute in 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons finely chopped onion and 3 rashers of chopped bacon 5 minutes. Add 3 cups diced raw potatoes, 1½ teaspoon salt, ⅛ teaspoon pepper, and 2 cups water. Cover and simmer until potatoes are ¾ tender —about 10 minutes. Add 3 cup whole milk, clams chopped, and clam liquor, and bring to boiling point and serve as soon as potatoes are tender. If desired less water and more milk may be used.

I wanted to remind readers that I was able to buy one of those little cans of Mandarin oranges the other day. I made the fruit cup by dicing fresh pineapple in ⅜-inch cubes, and pouring over it 1½ cups thin sugar syrup made of ⅓ cup sugar and 1¼ cups water boiled together 2 minutes and chilled. I added the whole can of little orange sections and chilled all before serving. This is a dainty fruit cup, and 1 medium-sized pineapple and 1 can orange sections served 10—from the medium-sized stemmed glasses.

MRS. ADELAIDE JOHNSON, 100-year-old sculptor now living in Washington on a welfare grant, proudly stands before the statue she sculptured and donated to the Capitol in 1921 as a tribute to suffragettes. Mrs. Johnson spent most of her life and all of her resources in the cause of woman's suffrage. She worked closely with the suffragettes portrayed in her statue, Lucretia B. Mott (not shown); Elizabeth Cady Stanton, left, and Susan B. Anthony. The work, largest in the Capitol, took 20 years to complete and another 20 years to have it placed in the Capitol.

Assist at Trousseau Tea

Mrs. H. J. Boyle, Charlotte St., gave a trousseau tea on Wednesday, May 18, for her daughter Dorothy, whose marriage took place Saturday. Miss Mary Morton and Miss Leith Johnson poured tea and Misses Doreen Hales, Betty Middleton and Isabel Shearer served. Mrs. A. Northcott showed the wedding gifts, Mrs. R. Garner displayed the china, linen and silver, and Mrs. D. Douglas showed the trousseau. Miss Anne Boyle received at the door while Mrs. D. Boyle and Mrs. W. Gamble, the groom's mother, assisted the bride in welcoming the guests.

Never Mind Grown Children Advise Mother Marry Again

DEAR MISS DIX: I could cheerfully have slapped the younger generation when my son, who has just reached the age of wanting to break Mom's apron strings, said to me: "Mama, if you would get yourself some swanky clothes and some new teeth, you are still a good enough looking dame to get yourself a man." Up to that time the kid would have had a fit if I had even looked at a man as a prospective stepfather for him. Anyway, it set me thinking that if young men need wives, perhaps middle-aged mothers need husbands.

Dorothy Dix

What do you think?

Z. M. D.

ANSWER: Out of the mouths of babies and sucklings proceedeth wisdom, says the Good Book, and no woman was ever offered better advice than that given by this youthful Solomon who wants to set his mother free because he wants to be free himself.

When a woman is left a widow with a houseful of youngsters to rear, she confronts the most complicated problem on earth. She has to have the softness of a mother and the firmness of a father in dealing with her kids. She has to be a slave who toils night and day to give them every possible advantage. She has to be a martyr who sacrifices all of her own personal tastes and desires to those of her children. And it never even occurs to the youngsters that Mother isn't having a perfectly hilarious time seeing them have fun, or that she might perchance like a little life of her own.

Their Salvation

So if Mother even mentions getting married, the children raise Cain, but in reality, it is their salvation. For in a few short years the children grow up and fly the home coop. They fall in love and get married. They seek their fortunes in far places. They get absorbed in their careers. And poor Mother is left out on a limb. They love her, but they don't want to be bothered with her. They are too much taken up with their own affairs.

And mark this: The only solution of the mother-in-law problem, which causes more tears and family rows than anything else in the world, is for Mother to get married and set up her own home and husband. Foolish, indeed, are the children who oppose Mother's marriage.

DEAR DOROTHY DIX: I am making a study of parent and child relationship I would like to know why there is so much trouble and why so many problems arise between parents and children and how they can be solved. Any information on this subject will be greatly appreciated.

WILMA

ANSWER: The problem of why parents and children get on each other's nerves and find it so hard to get along together is one that Solomon himself couldn't solve Probably the answer is that Mom and Pop want their children to be rubber stamps of themselves, and kids regard Father and Mother as awful warnings instead of shining examples. Whenever you hear parents complaining about how undutiful their children are and how disappointed they are in John and Mary, it is nearly always because John and Mary have a little backbone of their own.

Another source of conflict between parents and children is that so many fathers and mothers are about a century behind the times, and they try to force their antiquated ideas upon their up-to-date children. The most mischievous sayings in the world are: "My father did so-and-so, so I do it." My father believed so-and-so, so I believe it." "I never let my girls have dates because my mother never had any." Modern children are not going to wear Grandpa's before-the-war shoes.

✧ ✧ ✧

DEAR MISS DIX: I am an ex-GI, 25 years old, and want some advice. I want to send for my fiancee who lives in Germany. I have no job, no money and am bothered with stomach ulcers. How can I get her to the U. S. A.?

C. P. A.

✧ ✧ ✧

ANSWER: Well, I think you had better leave her in Germany until you are better fitted, physically and financially, to get married. I once heard a man, who was about in your position boast that he had as good a right to starve a wife as any other man. Maybe, so, but wives don't like to be starved, and no man should get married unless he has some way of supporting a family.

✧ ✧ ✧

DOROTHY DIX cannot reply personally to readers, but will answer problems of general interest through her column.

Of Interest to Women

HIGH BUTTON SHOES—Delegates to the 51st annual meeting of the Victorian Order of Nurses for Canada held in Ottawa were startled by an informal fashion show at the Chateau Laurier. Three nurses modelled VON uniforms of 1898, 1914 and 1949. Miss Mary Ross (extreme right) supervisor of the VON in Peterborough is the modern model. She and Miss Kathleen Davies of the Sudbury staff, representing the 1914 nurse, are checking with interest the floor-length gingham uniform at left worn by Mrs. Jack Bannerman of the Montreal staff. The nurse of 1898 also wore floor-length petticoats and high top boots.

Allow Women Lay Delegates

TORONTO, May 24 (CP) — Women think they should be allowed to sit as lay delegates to the Toronto Synod of the Church of England and the male members of the Synod agreed Friday in principle.

A motion to admit women to the Synod of the Toronto diocese was approved Friday in principle, but referred to the executive committee for further consideration.

"There was a time when women were regarded as chattels to be possessed by men," said Rev. T. P. Crosthwait. "That is no longer so, largely owing to the influence of the holy church. We have taught the world the lesson which we have steadfastly refused to hear ourselves."

Rev. G. H. Dowker said he approved the motion in principle, but "we don't want women to outnumber men on the Synod." He admitted a large part of the church work was done by women.

Rev. T. A. Wilkinson said "I'm going to vote against the motion and I'm doing so in defence of our homes. Woman has a job to do that man can never do—to build a home and bring up children."

CGIT Doings

Trinity

Anne Gordon, president of intermediate group, presided during the business session. Joan Henry reported on the cooking sale held on the market and it was decided that the group would hold another sale this week, Beth Watson to assist

Anna Edmondson took the worship and based her thoughts on the Scripture passage, "Judge not, stressing that unkind words can that ye be not judged." She likened gossip to a boomerang, not be recalled and always return to hurt the one who sent them.

In their individual groups, the intermediates brought back findings from their interviews about alcohol, which was followed by a discussion. Marie Woodgate was nominated to attend Girls' Council. The group decided to make cord belts at the next two meetings. "Coins for Camp" was brought to the attention of the girls and it was noted that several of the group are already saving their pennies for a holiday at Camp Kawartha.

Seniors with quite a struggle finally managed to fill out that bugbear, the second report form. The rest of the evening being spent in having a question box when several problems confronting the girls were discussed.

George Street

Carol McKenzie reported that this last meeting of the season was spent playing baseball at Central school. Shirley Head and Carol Head were named captains of the two teams, with Shirley's team coming out the winners.

Knox

President Fern Carveth was in charge of the worship at the meeting this week.

During the business period it was decided to hold a "waistline" tea on June 15. Plans will be made by the executive, and the girls hope it will be well supported as they need money to help pay expenses of camp.

Mrs. E. McIlwraith gave a portion from the study book, "Tales from China," which told of the presentation of Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah" by a Chinese chorus in Peiping during the war.

Mrs. McIlwraith then instructed the girls in home nursing, so they can now take temperatures and pulses.

Chinese games were played.

DURABLE PAINTINGS

Much of the durability of paintings by the old masters is due to use of resin-coated pigments, and the coating for their finished works with oil yarnishes.

Fairview Pupils Give Concert

Teacher at Fairview, Miss Gloria Robertson and her pupils of S.S. No. 4, Smith entertained the parents and friends Friday evening May 20 at a very delightful variety concert.

Gwenneth McKee, president of the Junior Red Cross was chairman for the following program:

Welcome recitation by Jr. and Sr. grade 1 pupils; Song, 'Cruising Down the River", by Beth, Meiklejohn, Gwenneth McKee, Douglas Northey and Andy Meiklejohn, acting out the scene on bicycles; Rhythmic drill by senior girls; star drill by junior girls; two plays, "Wanted a Housekeeper", and "Madam Camillias Beauty Parlour"; home made kitchen band song and drill; pantomine, "And the curtain fell."

Mrs. Wesley Bell drew the ticket for the door prize which was won by Lucille Brooks.

Barbara Mann won the prize for selling the most tickets.

Accompanists for the evening were: Barbara Mann, Gwenneth McKee and Mrs. Reidell.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the teacher by Lorne McKee. Little Nancy Ferguson presented her with a box of chocolates and a lovely bouquet of spring flowers.

Lunch was served.

Nurse Gives Talk On First Aid To St. Paul's Group

What to do, and not to do in an emergency, was described in an entertaining talk on "First Aid," by Miss Eula Rosenburgh Reg. N., at the regular meeting of St. Paul's Friendly Group of the Ladies Aid, Friday evening

Mrs. T. G. Tully, group leader presided. Miss E. Allen chose a scripture reading, taken by Mrs A. A. McIntyre.

Mrs. L. Howson and Mrs. P Finlay thanked the Group for cards sent during recent illness

Two delightful solos were sung by Mrs. G. H. Cutmore, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Olive Searles.

Miss Rosenburgh was assisted in demonstating various bandages by Miss K. Quirt.

Mrs. Tully read a poem "Friendship's Bank" and Miss A Ingram was pianist for singing of the Hymns.

Mrs. W. McBride moved a vote of thanks to the speaker and soloist.

Apple blossoms and tulips made a pretty decoration for the tea table, with lace cloth and tall pink tapers. Ladies having birthdays in May were responsible for program and refreshments, these being Miss E. Allen, Mrs. J. H. Rosenburgh, Mrs. P. A. Finlay and Miss O. Stenton.

Bonarlaw IOOF Attend Church

BONARLAW, May 24 (ENS)—Springbrook Lodge IOOF No. 429 together with visiting brethren from Campbellford and Stirling Lodges and a number of Rebekahs from Laurel Rebekah Lodge, Stirling, attended divine service in Springbrook United Church Sunday evening.

The minister, the Rev. George J. Crabbe, delivered a sermon touching upon the meaning of the three links of Oddfellowship and the story of the Good Samaritan. A male quartette made up of Orie Barton, Mac Mason, Frank Cosbey and J. F. Baker, accompanied by Mrs. John McKeown at the organ contributed "I'm but a stranger here."

Oddfellows marched from the hall to the church where they were joined by the women of Laurel Lodge making a procession of about 70. Bros. Thos. H. Prest and Roy Brown acted as marshalls.

On the return of the members of Springbrook Lodge and visiting brethren to the hall, Noble Grand Frank Cosbey thanked all for their attendance and asked District Deputy Grand Master Percy Sherwin to address the brethren. Bro. Sherwin expressed his pleasure at being present and the good attendance and paid tribute to Mr. Crabbs, the minister.

GOOD CITIZENSHIP is a lot of little things

HEED THE SIGNS

Warning signs are put up for a purpose . . . to protect us from danger . . . to ward off damage . . . to save us from inconvenience. There are many sound reasons for such sentinels and we should never under-rate the importance of their messages. To disregard a printed caution is to invite at best trouble and at worst tragedy! Follow the signs for safety's sake and urge others to do so. It's a rule of "Good Citizenship"!

You can help this public service effort. Make a note of some of the little things which, in your opinion, contribute to Good Citizenship.

Hodiak Getting Lots Of Action

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 24 (AP)—After a lull in his film career, John Hodiak is getting action—all over the globe.

Now fighting the battle of the bulge in "Battleground," the Pittsburgh actor goes to Cuba for "Man Hunt," another film about a government agency.

Hodiak's travels will continue this fall when he is scheduled to go to England for the "Mrs. Miniver" sequel with Greer Garson and Walter Pidgeon.

Shorts On Stars

Errol Flynn gets top billing over Garson in "Forsyte Saga." It's the first time that's happened to G. G. in years.

"I'm very happy. . .and a wee bit said," said Al Jolson as he recorded his last air show. The Thursday Night Music Hall, once presided over by Paul Whiteman, then Bing Crosby, is going off the air, marking the end of one of radio's oldest shows.

Howard Hughes is mad at M.G.M. over Ann Sothern. He expected to get her immediately for a comedy with Robert Ryan. But he'll have to wait while she does "Nancy Goes to Rio."

Summer Evening Concerts At Library

William Grath, city librarian is considering re-introducing summer evening concerts of recorded music on the lawn beside the Public Library. The last of these weekly series of concerts was held two years ago and often attracted audiences of 70 and 80 music lovers. Public Library has a record collection of 50 albums and the current year's appropriations included $50 for the purchase of new records.

The library's gramophone has two turn tables with an electronic pick-up and Mr. Graff plans to use three amplifiers from the film projector.

In addition to concerts of classical music Mr. Graff is considering holding weekly evening concerts of Jazz classics, chiefly for teen-agers.

Belmont WI To Hold Dinner

HAVELOCK, May 24 (ENS)—The following delegates were chosen at a meeting of the Belmont Women's Institute on Thursday to represent that organization at the District Annual Meeting in Havelock town hall on June 14; Mrs. C. Ellis (president) Mrs. W. Aunger, Mrs. G. Gawley, Mrs W. Harris and Mrs. R. Wrightly.

A dinner wil be served by the Belmont Branch in the basement of St. John's Anglican Church on that date. The charge for the dinner was set at 75c.

The roll call was answered by naming a favorite bird. The president Mrs. C. Ellis presided. A discussion took place on the co-operative program which resulted in the following selections for courses for the ensuing year being made. First choice, tailored slip covers; second, administrative leadership; third, home furnishings.

Letters of thanks were read from several members who had received boxes of fruit while ill.

The lunch hostesses were; Mrs. F. Elmhirst, Mrs. A. Keene and Mrs. C. Ellis. There were 16 members and one visitor present.

James Forrestal Jumps From Hospital Window

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP).—James Forrestal, former defence secretary of the United States, committed suicide Sunday, plunging from a high hospital window.

In his room he left a book of Greek poetry, a page opened to a quotation saying: "When reason's day sets rayless — joyless — quenched in cold decay — better to die and sleep."

Forrestal, 57, was found dead on a third-floor ledge below the 16th-floor window from which he had dropped at near-by naval hospital in Bethesda, Md.

A cord from a bathrobe was found knotted tightly around the neck.

An official statement by the hospital said:

"Mr. James Forrestal took his own life at the U.S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda, Md., at 2 a.m. (1 a.m. EST) by climbing out of window adjacent to his room on the 16th floor

"He was dressed in a dressing gown with the sash from gown wrapped around his neck. The noise from falling body was immediately reported. The body was found on the roof of the passageway of the third floor. He was wearing a wrist watch which was still running.

"He was recently believed improving, was allowed visitors by his own request and free use of the telephone. The book, 'An Anthology of World Poetry,' was lying on the radiator beside his bed and had been opened to the poem 'Chorus From Ajax,' dealing with death and the grave.

President Truman said he was "inexpressibly shocked and grieved" when told of the death of his former high-ranking cabinet officer. He said: "This able and devoted public servant was as truly a casualty of the war as if he had died on the firing line."

Forrestal was admitted to the hospital April 2, in "a state of excessive fatigue" and suffering nervous exhaustion. This was only five days after he had left the defence secretary's post.

Lately he was reported steadily improving. He had gained weight and seen visitors. President Truman dropped in May 6 and chatted with him, the White House said.

When he arrived, Forrestal was assigned what normally was a double room in the tower of the skyscraper building. However, the room had been converted into a suite. An orderly or doctor customarily was on duty and at the time of the suicide a doctor was in the next room, authorities said.

The large windows in Forrestal's room were enclosed with heavy wire screening, locked down. Across a corridor is a diet kitchen.

From the official statement and from subsequent comment by Rear-Admiral Leslie Stone, commandant of the hospital, this is what appears to have happened:

Forrestal earlier in the evening had declined to take his usual sedative.

At a moment when no one was present, he left his room, using a door opening directly onto the corridor and avoiding the exit through the second room of the suite where the doctor was located.

He crossed the corridor to the diet kitchen, removed the cord of his bathrobe and knotted it tightly about his throat. (It was unclear immediately whether he may have contemplated attaching the cord to a radiator and then leaping from the window to hang himself—or whether he actually did tie it only to have it jerk loose. Nor could it be determined before an autopsy whether any degree of strangulation occurred before his body plummeted down to the narrow offset at the third floor.)

The poem which Forrestal apparently read in the last moments of his life was the brooding, tragic "Chorus from Ajax," by Sophocles great Greek poet.

It cries of despair . . . "Comfortless, nameless, hopeless—save in the dark prospect of the yawning grave." "The deeds that he hath done seem hostile all to hostile eyes." "Better to die, and sleep the never-waking sleep, than linger on, and dare to live, when the soul's life is gone."

Talking to reporters, Charles G. Ross, White House secretary, said he had no comment when he was told there were reports that Forrestal had tried to commit suicide in Florida, during the few days he was there between his departure from office and admittance to the hospital.

Warns British About Prices

LONDON, May 24 — (CP) — British business men have a two-fold duty — reducing costs and concentrating on the North American market—Sir Frederick Bain said in an address that marked his retirement as president of the Federation of British Industries.

"The days are fast approaching when we shall have to revise our thinking," he said. "For 10 years we have lived under conditions in which costs have been secondary to production. Now the time is near when we must once again fight for our lives in a competitive world."

Sir Frederick said that on a recent visit to Canada and the United States he heard on all sides complaints against British prices.

In part he blamed governmental bulk purchasing of raw materials and "the vast increase in government expenditure (which) has added to the cost at which we can afford to sell our production."

Discussing the "grave problem of closing the dollar gap," Sir Frederick said:

"It is not an easy decision for any one of us to concentrate upon selling our goods to the United States and Canada at a time when it is still possible to dispose of our products with less risk in less difficult markets.

HEAVY BATTLE ROCKS NORTH SHANGHAI

Second Top UAW Official Victor Reuther Shot, May Lose His Right Eye

Brother of Walter Reuther Wounded In Attack 13 Months Ago, Police Tighten Guard Around Third Brother

DETROIT, May 25—(CP)—A stealthy gunman, firing through a window, shot and wounded Victor Reuther of the United Automobile Workers Union (C.I.O.) at his home last night. Badly hurt, the 37-year-old unionist faces the possible loss of his right eye, pierced by a shot-gun pellet. Thus, for a second time within 13 months, police today sought a man, or men, apparently bent on murder in the U.A.W.'s Reuther family.

The Union's president, Walter Reuther, a brother, escaped death at the hands of a mysterious assailant April 20 last year.

That attack remains unsolved despite one of the most painstaking investigations in Detroit's police records.

Victor Reuther's shooting following by 72 hours the mysterious slaying in neighboring Windsor, of a rank-and-file member of the UAW in Canada.

That victim, William D. Allen, 37, also was killed by a shot-gun blast through a window of his home. Allen was an inspector at the Ford Motor Company of Canada.

Police, however, said they could establish no connection between Allen's slaying and the attempt on Victor Reuther's life, nor any connection with the Ford strike.

Terrorism Campaign

Walter Reuther charged the attacks on himself and Victor were carried out by men who were "paid" to do it in a "campaign of terrorism."

He said this was directed against "pro-American and pro-Democratic trade unionists."

In a formal statement, issued at 4 a.m. from the hospital where his brother was confined, the UAW's top man said:

"I believe the same people who paid to have me shot paid to have my brother, Victor, shot for the same reason.

"They are people who are opposed to decent, clean American trade unionism. They could be die-hard elements among employers, or Communists or Fascist agents."

Like his brother, Victor holds high office in the NAW. He is the 1,000,000-member union's educational director.

CCF Demands Expulsion Of Ex-President

BROCKVILLE, May 25 (CP) — The Leeds County CCF Association, climaxing a controversy over its candidate in the June 27 Federal election, last night recommended expulsion of the Association's former president for urging that the CCF support the Liberal candidate.

The meeting chose Stewart Hastie, 36, of Gananoque, to contest Leeds. The Eastern Ontario constituency was held by Progressive Conservative G. R. Webb in the last House.

The Association repudiated a statement by A. E. Mace, who resigned last week as its president. Mr. Mace had urged support of George T. Fulford, Liberal, because, he said, the Association had no money and no organization—"We have no hope of success we would be due for a trimming."

Mr. Mace, who made the statement at a previous meeting of the Association, said today he had no knowledge of last night's meeting. He said he had already resigned from the CCF in a letter to National Secretary David Lewis.

Mr. Mace said he was preparing a detailed statement so that CCF members could judge the right or wrong of his action.

Legion Planning Voting Drive

OTTAWA, May 25 — (CP) — The Canadian Legion wants all Canadian voters to cast their ballots on June 27, and plans an all-out campaign to see that they do.

In a declaration of war against political indifference, the Legion said Tuesday that its 250,000 members will wage a steady campaign right up to election day to get "every Canadian qualified to vote to cast his ballot."

Lt.-Col. D. M. Baxter of Winnipeg, Dominion President of the Legion, said 25 per cent of the eligible voters stayed home in the last Federal election. Apathy, the enemy of democracy and democratic ideals, was "deeply entrenched in Canada to-day."

His statement was the first shot in the Legion's fight.

He said the Legion is "completely non-political and non-partisan, but is vitally interested in the maintenance of democratic principles." It is "endeavoring to alert the Canadian public against the dangers of a nation whose citizens become indifferent to their democratic responsibilities."

When the majority of people became apathetic about freedom, "some well-organized, well disciplined minority usurps the power that rightly belongs to the people as a whole."

50 Stolen Licences Found On 2 Youths

TORONTO, May 25 —(CP)— Fifty stolen car-ownership licences, which police believe were to be delivered to a Hamilton car-theft ring, were found on two Toronto youths arrested in a stolen car at Hamilton Tuesday night.

The licenses and 40 sets of car keys were stolen over the holiday from the offices of a downtown Toronto car lot.

Arthur Kerr, 19, and Douglas Lichens, 18, both of Toronto were arrested and charged with breaking and entering and theft of the cards, keys and a car.

UE Sound Truck Defies Anti-Noise Law

In possible contravention of the existing civic anti-noise bylaw, C. S. Jackson, Canadian president of the UE-CIO, at noon today spoke from a sound-truck in front of the main CGE gates.

While several hundred CGE employees lolled on the grass inside the gate Mr. Jackson reported to them on present negotiations with the company for a new contract. His voice was carried to the audience by means of four amplifiers mounted on top of a car.

Before he began to speak records were played over the sound equipment and they were audible for at least a couple of hundred yards within the CGE property.

According to bylaw 3262, passed by city council July 5, 1947, there is a prohibition on noises "calculated to disturb the inhabitants of the City of Peterborough." Heretofore this has been strictly enforced by city police when complaints have been registered.

The same bylaw refers specifically to sound equipment forbidding: "Noises from or caused by sound amplifiers or radio or other loud speakers placed outside any building or on any vehicle or in any other position or location which sound on and over the highways of the City of Peterborough and cause annoyance to others."

Penalty for violation can be $50 and costs for each offence and in default of distress six months in jail with or without hard labor.

Claim No Infraction

According to C. R. Sullivan, district UE representative, who preceded Mr. Jackson on the hand microphone, their action is not an infraction of the bylaw.

"As we understand it there is no infraction of the by-law," said Mr. Sullivan. "It prohibits projecting noises across the street, and it deals with noises calculated to cause a disturbance. We are doing neither."

He pointed out to the Examiner reporter that the four amplifiers were directed in one direction: toward the CGE plant. And the car pulled to the west curb of Park St. so that the sound was not projected across the street.

"This is not in any way calculated to disturb the public nor does it do so," continued Mr. Sullivan. On the contrary it is a very necessary function of union representatives to bring the GE workers a day to day report of these very important negotiations.

During the playing of the records, and the addresses by Messrs. Jackson and Sullivan there was no attempt to interfere with their alleged right to do so. No police were to be seen.

The speakers also told the press they were expecting an address later from Jack Morton, president of Local 524 UE-CIO.

Snow Falls All Day Around Timmins Area

TIMMINS, May 25.— The Sage who opined that May 24 always brings good weather was wide of the mark here Tuesday. Snow fell from early morning until late afternoon.

The snow left a blanket of white over lawns and flowerbeds, but did not last for any length of time. Most of the flakes melted as soon as they hit the ground. Tourists arriving from the south in summer clothing scurried for taxis as soon as they got off the train.

Retreating Chinese Blow Up Everything In Last Ditch Flight

By FRED HAMPSON

SHANGHAI, May 25—(AP)—Communists marched into Shanghai today and a roaring battle, far worse than the siege, developed. Retreating Nationalists, trying to fight their way back to Woosung and escape, were blowing up everything they could. At 9 p.m. the whole horizon to the north seemed to explode.

Apparently the government soldiers, pulling back before the advancing Communists, blew up the fuel dumps, bombs and ammunition installations at Kiangwan airfield.

All the while cannonading shook the city as the Reds smashed with everything available at Woosung fortress. The Communists were determined to make the Nationalist escape corridor a bloody avenue if they can not close it.

The Reds, overrunning the world's most populous country, gave Communism its largest city by occupying almost all of Shanghai.

Stubborn Nationalist rear guards held fast at bridges across Soochow Creek. Red mortars smashed up the main city post office near the Szechuan road bridge.

Last-Stand Fight

Obviously the nationalist rear guard was buying time in last-stand fights. They want the bulk of the comrades to deploy on the outer edges of the city for another fight or reach ships waiting in the Yangtze to take them south.

Green-clad Communist Army veterans entered the Asian metropolis of some 6,000,000 just after dawn. They came from the southwest. To the pealing of church bells, they marched to the centre of the city without a fight.

The Reds reached the famous Bund, facing on the Whangpoo River, by 8 a.m. Their line of march was right through the old French concession and international settlement.

Until afternoon, the Communists made no move against the only two parts of the city that had not already been handed them—the northeastern district and the Bund itself.

At 1.30 p.m., Red troops moved out into the Bund and against the Nationalist-held bridges across Soochow Creek. The Soochow cuts through Shanghai from east to west and flows under Garden Bridge into the Whangpoo at the north end of the famed thoroughfare.

Some of the bridge-holding Nationalists fought back. Their spans lead to the northeast, down the Whangpoo to Woosung, 10 miles away at the mouth of the Yangtze. This was the route the Nationalists used Tuesday night to evacuate the bulk of Shanghai's defenders.

Allies Reject 4-Power Control

PARIS, May 25 (AP) — The three western powers stood firm today behind the new west German Republic against a Soviet move to replace it with four-power control over Germany.

Foreign Ministers Ernest Bevin of Britain and Robert Schuman of France and State Secretary Dean Acheson of the United States, in turn said the clock must not be turned back to what they termed "disastrous paralysis."

They were referring to the five-point proposal of Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky to reestablish quadripartite control of Germany through the old Allied Control Council for Germany and the Berlin Kommandatura.

The Kommandatura has not been functioning since last year when the Communist-dominated east Berliners boycotted regular elections and set up a hand-picked Communist government for the Soviet section of the city.

Reporters See Orderly Troops Enter Shanghai

SHANGHAI, May 25 (AP) — My wife, Margaret, and I spent Tuesday night atop the Broadway Mansions, 17-storey skyscraper north of Soochow Creek, as Red troops began moving into Shanghai.

She remained there when I made my way to the Associated Press Office across the creek in the old settlement. Throughout this morning, she telephoned developments seen from her vantage point.

While looking down on the creek's bridges from a balcony, she heard three rifle bullets whine past. She said the barricades still were being held by Nationalists on the Garden Bridge and that armored vehicles stood on Szechhuan Bridge, two blocks up the creek.

Communists could be seen on the Bund "at Edward VII Ave."

Looking down from the office window, I can see them too.

The last time Margaret telephoned, she ended her message by saying: "Everything is fine here, except I forgot my compact and powder puff, but I suppose we must expect these hardships in war."

Meanwhile, correspondent Amos Landman doffed his khaki shirt so that he would not be taken for a battle participant. He crept to the Cathay Hotel and watched fighting from the roof.

Just below me, on Edward VII Avenue, a group of Communist soldiers came down the street carrying stacks of rifles they took from soldiers who barricaded themselves in the China Press—China Tribune building but later surrendered.

These are the most professional-looking Chinese soldiers I ever saw.

Everybody connected with the Associated Press is covering the change-over from some vantage point. My house boy, Koo, just telephoned from his spot near the top of Hamilton House, which is across Fuchow Road from the city hall.

Koo said: "Master, just now I see through window mayor's office many communists go in, open desk, take many papers. Just now many communists reading papers."

Steer Found At City Plant Provides Clue To Rustler

ORONO, May 25—(ENS)—Disappearance of a large number of cattle from the joint pasture here of Oliver Knapp and Harold Allen is believed to have been partly solved by Provincial Police with the arrest on Tuesday of Henry Sucee of Orono. Sucee has been charged with stealing seven steers, six of them belonging to Knapp and the other one owned by Allen.

Arrest of Sucee was made by Constable J. R. Pollard of Orono and Constable Nicoll of Cobourg, who said they were also searching for another man believed to have been working with Sucee. A total of 25 cattle are thought to have been rustled altogether. Arrest of Sucee followed discovery of a steer in a Peterborough packing plant last week bearing a brand name used by the pasture owners.

Knapp and Allen, each of whom has about 300 acres of pasture land, have no boundary between their farms and the two herds run together. To make identification of the steers possible, they are branded.

Police said that, after checking into the case, they believed that cattle had all been taken through a hole made in the outside boundary fence. One was apparently loaded into a small truck and taken to Peterborough, while the other six found their way to a packing plant in Toronto. They were believed to have been loaded on a larger truck.

CSU Says No Threats Against Steel Workers

SYDNEY, NS, May 25 (CP)— The striking Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC) denied to-day it has threatened workers at the steel plant here. President Corbett of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO-CCL) charged last night that threats of violence by CSU pickets have held up unloading of the freigher Arthur Cross

Arthur Williston, CSU port agent here, said to-day: "The seamen on our picket line at the gates of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation plant have never threatened anyone with violence and never will."

Plan Retaliation Against Russia

LONDON, May 25 (AP) — A Foreign Office spokesman said today Britain will "retaliate" for the arrest in Moscow of several British Embassy employees, including three Soviet wives of Britons.

One retaliatory measure, a spokesman said, will be the dropping of "favorable treatment" of employees of the Soviet Embassy in London.

The spokesman added Britain also will discontinue the prompt granting of visas to Russians sent to the Embassy here by Moscow.

He said two telephone operators, a Mrs. Ackman and a Mrs. Whitehead, "disappeared" last October.

He said a Mrs. Burke, another telephone operator was "so intimidated by police she attempted suicide."

All three are Soviet wives of British subjects.

The Moscow radio said Russia has denied putting pressure on British Embassy staff members.

The British spokesman said a Mr. and Mrs. Valukin left their jobs in the Embassy "precipitously" after being subjected to police threats. Both are Soviet citizens.

Assistant Adjutant

OTTAWA, May 25 — (CP). — Lt.-Col. J. M. Delamere, 39, of Ottawa, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant and Quartermaster-General of Eastern Command Quarters, Army Headquarters announced to-day. He now is Assistant Adjutant-General in the Organization Directorate, Headquarters. He replaces Lt.-Col H T Fosberry, who has been posted to a similar position at Area Headquarters, Newfoundland

Russia Offers Strikers Western Pay

Allies Take Control Of Rail Stations, Evict Soviet Police

BERLIN, May 25 (AP) — The Russian-controlled German railway system today proposed a settlement of the bloody, five-day Berlin railway strike with an offer to pay the strikers in west marks.

This would meet the main demand of the striking west Berlin railway workers.

The offer was contained in an interview with Reichsbahn President Willy Kreikemayer by the Soviet-controlled Berlin radio.

The Union called an immediate conference to consider the terms.

Kreikemayer made it plain that the plan called for charging west marks, worth four times as much as Russian-zone east marks, for train fares in the western sectors.

The railway head said in his interview that the strikers would be taken back, except for those the company considers guilty of damaging property.

The 12,000 western sector employees left their jobs Saturday, causing a complete halt in rail transportation within the city.

New Development

The new development came only a few hours after the western Allies assumed control of all western sector railway stations, evicting thousands of Soviet-controlled railway police.

It was understood here that the railway administration had delayed announcing its offer to the strikers because the east-zone German economic commission must approve the solution.

Such approval is considered likely in view of support for it from even the Communist-controlled 'Free-German Trade Unions." They urged west marks to pay western sector workers be obtained by taking payment in that currency for train fares in the western sectors of the city. This solution had been proposed by the strikers.

Nurse Found Boss 'Friendly'

WINDSOR, Ont., May 25 (CP) —One of four nurses from Metropolitan General Hospital who attended a Detroit party with four prominent Windsorites today testified she left a Detroit hotel suite when Horace Atkin began "getting friendly."

Miss H., fourth Metropolitan nurse at the party, first told the Royal Commission probing affairs of the city-owned hospital that she left the suite because it was "crowded and smoky" and that it had nothing to do with the attentions of hospital superintendent Atkin.

(Under a Royal Commission ruling the girls are identified only by capital letters.)

Later, under questioning by Bruce J. S. Macdonald, counsel she said "he was just getting friendly" when she and another girl locked themselves in a private room for more than an hour.

Attlee Lectures Rebels At Labor Party Session

LONDON, May 25 (CP) —"Rebel" members of the Labor party today were lectured by Prime Minister Attlee and Herbert Morrison, government leader in the House of Commons, on the need for continued unity within the party.

The reproofs were delivered at a private meeting of the Parliamentary Labor party. They followed a revolt among some backbenchers over the government's Ireland bill.

Observers speculated that greater concern was expressed over Britains bleak 1949-50 budget than over the political shake-up which last week stripped the party tag from two members of parliament and separated five parliamentary secretaries from their jobs.

It was not immediately known whether any voices were raised at the meeting against the idea that Labor leaders should bring back the party's old "standing orders."

These strict "rules of the school" laid down the exact manner in which a government supporter was expected to vote. They were suspended during the present parliament as an experiment in responsible freedom and many members would be reluctant to see them reimposed.

Thomas Driberg, Labor member for Essex, said recently Labor's present "free and easy discipline is a more impressive sign of strength than a rigid imposition of authority."

But those who oppose the dis- that last week's action was inevitable.

They say Konni Zilliacus and Leslie Solley, banished from the party for persistent criticism of the government's foreign policies —especially toward Russia—"had it coming" for a long time.

King Abdullah Plans United Arab Kingdom

AMMAN, Jordan, May 25 (AP) King Abdullah told his Arab Legion today he intends to carry out his father's plan for a united Arab kingdom.

Abdullah's father, Hussein, Sherif of Mecca before the First World War, led the Arab revolt against the Turks in 1917. Hussein's aim to unite all Arab countries under his rule was frustrated at that time.

Abdullah, ruler of Jordan for 30 years, has often referred to an ambition for such a union. His plan, commonly referred to as "Greater Syria," would embrace Jordan Syria and Arab Palestine.

Abdullah spoke after reviewing several thousand Arab Legion troops on Army Day, observing his accession to the throne in 1946 and his country's independence after ruling as Emir under British protectorate.

Newfoundland To Choose Government On Friday

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., May 25 — (CP) — Newfoundlanders go to the polls Friday to elect their first provincial government but the results of the vote may not be known for some days. Collection and counting of returns will be conducted under the 1913 Newfoundland Election Act, drawn up to match the slower moving tempo of a bygone day.

The present interim government, holding office since confederation last March and until a legislature is elected, has no powers of legislation and thus is unable to amend the act to speed up the operation. Officers of the 24 returning districts must wait until all the boxes in his particular district have been colleced before starting his count. In other provinces votes are counted in the polling stations and telephoned or telegraphed to a central place.

Magistrate Short, chief electoral officer, estimated tentatively that a winner in the election may be known within three days. Other estimates varied between one day and a week.

Some idea of the vote-gathering may be gained by a glance along a map of the broken 6,000-mile coastline of Newfoundland. Motor boats will dodge in and out of inlets and harbors in 17 coastal districts to pick up ballot boxes. Much will depend on weather conditions.

Because of the lateness of polling in St. John's, returns from the capital districts, which include a number of fishing villages, may be meagre before counting ends for the night at midnight Friday. Most returns from the heavily-populated Avalon Peninsula are expected before noon Saturday and the first district likely to be available is Port De Grave, on Conception Bay.

U.S. Pays Last Honors To James Forrestal

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP) —The United States today paid last honors to James V. Forrestal.

Led by President and Mrs. Truman, high officials of the government and leaders in the United States' business life gathered where the Unknown Soldier lies, in funeral services for the first secretary of defence.

Forrestal died in the early hours of Sunday in a leap from a tower at the Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Investigate Explosion

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP) — RCMP officers today began an investigation into a Saturday night dynamite explosion, believed to have been set off as a pre-Victoria Day prank by three Ottawa youths in the west end suburbs of the capital.

The blast rocked houses and startled residents. No damage has been reported.

Find Loophole In Uranium Theft Inquiry

By ROGER D. GREENE

WASHINGTON, May 25—(AP)—Government investigators probing atomic security in the United States found a loophole which enabled them to "steal" two bars of uranium and keep them undetected for two months, a top atomic official testified today.

Federal Manager Carroll L. Wilson of the Atomic Energy Commission said the AEC's own security officers set the deliberate trap and filched the uranium bars from the Hanford, Wash., atomic plant.

The story came out in hearings before a senate appropriations sub-committee which is conducting one phase of a congressional investigation into the whole AEC setup.

In other developments:

1. Lewis Strauss, an atomic energy comissioner, testified he protested against the shipment of isotopes, radioactive materials, to countries neighboring Soviet Russia.

Strauss said he objected—but lost on a four-to-one vote of the AEC commissioners — on the ground that the United States should not take 'a calculated risk, even if it was slight" of aiding A-bomb research abroad.

2. Chairman David E. Lilienthal of the AEC testified that Strauss was voted down after scientists declared "unanimously" that the isotopes could not be used in attempts to unravel the secret of the atomic bomb.

3. Senator Kenneth Wherry (Rep., Neb.) jointed Senator Bourke Hickenlooper (Rep., Iowa) in a demand that President Truman fire Lilienthal as a result of disclosures that atomic fellowships have been awarded to a Communist and to some "loyalty suspects" and that a tiny cylinder of uranium-235 was missing from the Argonne Laboratories in Chicago.

4. At Chapel Hill, N. C., Chancellor Robert House announced that Communist Hans Freistadt, 23, who has ben awarded a $1,600 a year atomic fellowship, has been dismissed as a part-time physics instructor at the University of North Carolina.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

HEAT CONTROL IS NO PROBLEM

Keeping cool may be your biggest problem during the scorching hot days ahead. But even on the hottest day, the temperature will be low compared to the fierce heat of up to 3000 degrees required by industry.

To control extreme temperatures and prevent heat losses, Johns-Manville, through years of research has developed a wide variety of scientific insulating materials. In fact, there's a J-M insulation to solve every heat problem from 400 degrees below zero to 3000 above. Today, in every type of industrial service, these J-M Insulations speed up manufacturing and save thousands of dollars in coal and fuel oil every year.

If you have an insulation problem, contact, Johns-Manville, 199 Bay St., Toronto—or see your J-M distributor.

Good feed lot lambs brought $27 spring lambs selling down [illegible] $32 a hundredweight. A few sheep sold for $6-$13.

LIGHTS LIGHTLY

The presence of a bird's nest on a home signifies good luck for the occupants of the house. What does it mean when a bird lights on a person's head? Tuesday a young robin swooped from a chestnut tree across Inverlea St. to land on a milkman's hat. Surprised, the man moved, frightening the bird away.

96 WEEKS BOOKED

Ninety-six camping weeks have been booked by boys of the annual YMCA Boys' Camp, Don Duncan, Camp Director, reports the last three weeks of July are being filled quickly. Only 50 per cent of the boys' applications are from Peterborough. Two boys from Nobel, Quebec, and two boys from Winnipeg are going to attend the camp.

Name St. Laurent Candidate In Quebec East

By The Canadian Press

Prime Minister St. Laurent now is officially—and personally—in the fight for Canada's June 27 general election.

The 67-year-old prime minister, campaigning for a personal mandate in the developing nation campaign, was nominated Tuesday in his home riding of Quebec East, where he first won entry to the House of Commons in wartime 1941.

While Mr. St. Laurent was accepting nomination, George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, was striking deeper into the west with a campaign speech at Melfort, Sask., while M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, opened his Ontario campaign with an outline of C.C.F. Senate reform plans at Napanee.

Mr. St. Laurent, who succeeded to the Liberal leadership last August and the prime ministership last November, told his nominating convention he was confident of Liberal victory.

"The newspaper men have been too modest in their estimates of the size of the Liberal victory in the forthcoming federal election," he said. "I am confident that the Liberal victory will be much larger than even the newspaper men have been forecasting."

Plan For Farmers

Mr. Drew said his party believes Western farmers should have an opportunity of deciding how they want their food products marketed.

Visiting wheat and grain producing centres during his coast-to-coast Federal election campaign, Mr. Drew gave an outline of his party's agricultural policies and said the Progressive Conservatives would leave to the producers themselves the decision how they wanted their agricultural products marketed.

The party's platform urged that the Canadian Wheat Board, now the sole marketing agency for wheat, be returned to its 1935 status as a board to handle voluntarily coarse grains sold by tht Western farmers.

Mr. Drew said his party believes in the principle of marketing by producers. It would establish marketing boards made up of representatives of producers who would decide how the products should be sold.

Senate Reform

C.C.F. plans for Senate reform included consideration of an age limit and an elective system for the upper chamber.

Mr. Coldwell told a C.C.F. rally in this eastern Ontario town that the C.C.F. has abandoned its original policy, which called for outright abolition of the Senate, because it would involve "constitutional difficulties." But there should be no difficulty in "at least making drastic reform" of the Senate.

The C.C.F. party, if elected to power, would consider such measures as an age limit and an elective Senate.

He termed the upper chamber a place where the Liberal party pays off "old workers who have lost their use" and said it is an "insult" to Canadian intelligence that "worn-out and disabled politicians" are allowed to have a veto over Commons legislation.

Mr. Coldwell spoke here and then travelled by car to Belleville. He replied at the Belleville meeting to a statement made in Dauphin, Man., Monday by George Drew, Progressive Conservative leader, who said a vote for the C.C.F. would mean a vote for coalition between that party and the Liberals.

Such a statement, Mr. Coldwell said, is "amazing" because in three provinces—Manitoba, British Columbia and Saskatchewan—it is the Progressive Conservatives who are in coalition with the Liberals.

Prices Dip Sharply Under Sales Pressure

TORONTO, May 25 (CP) — Prices dipped sharply under pressure of steady selling here today. Base metals were down to the lowest pric elevel since March 1948 as all issues declined following [illegible] United States producers. Industrials also declined at a slow steady pace while golds held steady in dull action.

The Exchange's 1 p.m. index showed industrials down 1.12 at 167.56, golds .17 at 97.13, base metals 2.65 at 85.05. Volume for the first three hours was 400,000 shares about 230,000 shares more than Monday's similar period.

Key issues in the base metals were pushed down as much as $2 with about six issues selling at new lows. Trading was brisk but tended to slacken in mid-session when some support became evident.

Papers led the downtrend in industrials as International Paper, Brown Pfd., and Minnesota and Ontario Paper declined to new lows. Utilities, steels, refining oils and agriculture listing were easier.

Golds moved listlessly on small changes. A few seniors were mixed and juniors showed little change.

Most Of City

The fighting at the Soochow bridge was sharp—but minor. The Communists already had taken the world's fourth-largest city. The defence could not last long.

The Nationalists had only about 10 men on each end of Garden Bridge when the Communists began moving in. There were approximately the same number of defenders on each of the other spans.

The Reds took over abandoned Nationalist emplacements where Nanking road meets the Bund in their move on Garden Bridge, four blocks to the north.

Already there was firing farther north. This suggested Communists had crossed Soochow upstream and were encircling the Nationalists.

Head For Ships

In the Honkew section, still farther north, Natlionalists were pulling out toward Woosung. There evacuation ships were waiting.

The only way out was north.

Long since, the Reds had forged a steel ring almost around the city. Their drive from the southwest had swept over big Lunghwa international airport and the smaller Jungjao airfield.

All that remained open to the Nationalists was the northward corridor along the Whangpoo—and perhaps Kiangwan airfield, also north of the city.

The Whangpoo itself was blocked along the Shanghai waterfront. The Nationalists scuttled at least nine ships there. The ship channel was menaced all along the east side in the sprawling Pootung area.

Red Gen. Chen Yi's veteran troops came in through the old French concession after a night of heavy cannonading on the north and pitched battles on the west.

The advance elements were plainly tired. Their green uniforms showed the strain and wear of battle. But they moved down the avenues to the bund on the double quick. They carried light arms and machine-guns.

They came into the heart of the city in sharp formation. Their movements were decisive. They obviously had spirit.

All this was in sharp contrast to the indifferent Nationalist soldiers who had spent much of their time looting during the last days of Shanghai.

When the Red troops got to city hall, Nationalists at an emplacement there already had broken out a big sign. It read:

"Welcome people's liberation army."

The assault on Victor was strangely similar to that on Walter.

In each, the gunman crept to a window, and fired a shot-gun blast through a glass, then fled, witnesses said, in a car.

In bushes near the Victor Reuther home police found a 12-gauge double-barreled shot-gun. Both barrels had been fired.

Authorities took precautions to protect a third Reuther brother, Roy, a UAW international representative.

A guard was set up at Roy's home in suburban Birmingham. Guards also were reinforced at Walter's home, which has been watched by police since the attempt on his life.

Files Damage Suit

BUTLER, Pa., May 25 (AP) — Clair Hutzler on Tuesday filed a $50,000 damage suit against the family physician who, he charged, rendered his wife pregnant and then sent him a bill for delivery of the child. The suit, known in Pennsylvania law as a criminal conversation suit, was filed against Dr. Paul A. Hinchberger. The suit charged that Dr. Hinchberger and Mrs. Hutzler were intimate from 1947 until March 5, 1949, and that as a result a child was born.

Canoe Upsets Woman Tries To Save Friends

TIMAGAMI, May 25 (CP)—A Toronto widow, Mrs. Ken McClary, is the heroine of a northern Ontario boating accident which claimed the lives of two of her friends despite Mrs. McClary's rescue attempts.

The victims, believed to have slipped from an overturned canoe adrift in icy Lake Timagami, were Stanley Saxton, manager of the Aunor Gold Mine at South Porcupine and Mrs. L. Herron, 34, of Haileybury, mother of two children.

Timagami, popular resort area, is about 50 miles north of North Bay.

Mrs. McClary set out from here Monday afternoon to take the couple by canoe for a Victoria Day outing at her camp on an island about 24 miles southwest of here in Lake Timagami. They were within sight of the island and the camp on Rabbit Nose Point when a squall capsized the canoe in the choppy offshore waters.

Second Boat Upsets

Saxton and the other woman clung to the drifting canoe while Mrs. McClary swam ashore to obtain a small boat. The second craft capsized and Mrs. McClary again swam to shore. Chilled and exhausted, she could do nothing further to help her companions. She watched them drift out of sight and heard their frantic cries die away.

With both the canoe and the boat lost, Mrs. McClary was marooned alone on the island overnight. Tuesday morning she waved and shouted to attract the attention of Gus Friday and George Angus as their small boat passed the island. Friday and Angus took her to Bear Island, a few miles to the west, from where she reported the accident by telephone to Provincial police.

Mrs. McClary was taken to hospital at Haileybury, about 30 miles northwest of here, where she was reported suffering from severe shock.

The canoe to which the Saxton and the Haileybury woman had been clinging was found Tuesday on rocks about a mile from the spot where it upset. Searchers found no trace of the man and woman.

Using grappling irons, a party of workers this morning found the body of Mrs. Herron.

Strong Winds Check Danger Of Frost

Market gardeners were anxious today about the weather probabilities after the official low of 37 degrees during the night at the waterworks plant. Strong winds during the night checked the chill of the holiday and the Maytime cold dip that threatened tomato plants that have been set out since last Friday.

No frost damage was reported on the southern gardening front this morning, but gardeners were still anxiously waiting for the promise of a rise in temperature.

Harold Doig said it was 40 degrees at his reliable thermometer at 6 a.m. today when he was cutting asparagus. "It was real cold" he said.

The Doig asparagus fields are just beginning to recover from "the beating they took from the hail of last Wednesday afternoon".

"Every stalk was marked by hail that was nearly as big as allies, and they were all bent toward the west We couldn't cut anything for the week-end. The cold weather this morning was doing a lot for the quality of the crop, but we need warmth to speed up the growth. Prices on the Toronto market this morning were a reflection of the weather's adverse effect on quantity. However, we can't be far away from warmth."

MRS. ELLA L. HUTCHINSON

Mrs. Ella Loretta Hutchinson, 42 Applegrove St., Toronto, who had been visiting her brother, Joseph O'Donnell, in Peterborough for a few days, died suddenly in hospital early this morning. She is a native of Ennismore, a daughter of the late Patrick and Mary O'Donnell. She was predeceased by her husband some years ago.

Beside her brother, she is survived by two daughters and one son, all living in Toronto, as follows: Mrs. W J. Wright (Thelma), Mrs. R. V. Bundy (Angela), and Joseph Alvin. She is also survived by one granddaughter, Patricia Ann Hutchinson, of Toronto.

The body will lie at the Anglesey Funeral Home, Simcoe St., until Thursday afternoon when it will be taken by motor hearse to the F. Rose Funeral Home, Sherbourne St., Toronto. Requiem mass will be said at 9.00 a.m. Saturday in Holy Name Church, Toronto, and burial will be in Mount Hope cemetery.

MRS. JOACHIM DENAULT

The death occurred in hospital on Tuesday evening of Mrs. Joachim Denault, 175 River Road, North, at the age of 69 after a short illness. She was formerly Evelina Rishea and was born in Campbellford, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Michael Rishea. Mrs. Denault had resided in Peterborough for the past three years, previous to which she had lived for many years in Toronto. She received her education in the Peterborough schools.

Mrs. Denault is survived by seven daughters and four sons. The daughters are: Mrs. William Viola (Victoria), Mrs. Evelyn Kerr, and Mrs. P. Gardiner (Angela), all of Toronto; Mrs. Bertram Artt, Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Fred Pavelin (Helen), Elmvale, Ont.; Mrs. H. Tipple (Olive), Long Branch; and Mrs. Ernest Baldry (Edna), Hamilton. The sons are: Aleric, Louis, Edward, and Fred, all of Toronto; and Joseph, of Peterborough. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Joseph Marsden, of Peterborough, 28 grandchildren, and seven great grandchildren.

Funeral will take place from the Anglesey Funeral Home, Simcoe St., on Friday, in time for 9:00 a.m. mass in Immaculate Conception Church, with burial in St. Peter's cemetery.

GEORGE HOWARD STRICKLAND

George Howard Strickland, 58, of 31 Dennistoun Ave., died today in hospital following a lengthy illness. He was born in Port Hope, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Strickland, and came from Port Hope to this city 21 years ago.

He leaves his wife, the former Elsie May Graham, One daughter Mrs. Harry Kennedy (Norma) of Cavan Township and two sons, Robert H. and Graham H. Strickland and one brother William, all of Peterborough.

Mr. Strickland was a butcher by trade and a member of Murray Street Baptist Church. He was a veteran of The First World War and served with the RCHA overseas.

Funeral service will be held at the Kaye Funeral Home on Friday at 2 p.m. The Rev. Ivan C. Morgan will officiate and burial will be at Little Lake Cemetery.

Final

An estate plan, once set down in a Will, is often thought of as final when as a matter of fact it will need periodic revision. Births and deaths in the family, children's marriages, a change in your assets or the set up of your business may render your plan obsolete to a greater or less extent. In seeking practical and workable amendments to your estate plan from time to time, the Toronto General Trusts offers you a consultative service based on a broad experience of estates administration. This service includes a careful review of your assets and a re-estimation of your tax liabilities. We invite your inquiries.

Dockers Reject Plea To Work

LONDON, May 25—(Reuters)—Longshoremen in the west-country ports of Bristol and Avonmouth today rejected efforts to get them back to work. Instead, they remained idle in support of striking members of the Canadian Seamen's Union (TLC).

Arthur Bird, leader of the longshoremen's branch of the Transport and General Workers' Union, told a mass meeting of the dockers in Bristol that they should return to work and should be prepared to load or unload Canadian ships.

Bird was greeted with shouts, catcalls and jeers, and the meeting ended with no decision on ending the strike.

Plan School Reunion

ST. CATHARINES, May 256 — (CP). — The 60th anniversary of nearby Ridley College will be marked on June 4 by a gathering of many of the school's Old Boys from Canadian and United States points. Dr. H. C. Griffith, retiring headmaster, will be presented with a gift. He has been associated with the private school for 50 years as a pupil and a master.

Lords Have Plan For Using Dormant Monies

LONDON, May 25 (CP)—The House of Lords may move to tap a treasure trove which includes wealth of South Sea speculators and Britons who emigrated to Canada in frontier days.

It is expected to do so this week on a motion by Viscount Samuel, government leader in the Upper House. The motion will stress the importance of encouraging voluntary action for social welfare.

He will be supported by Baron Beveridge, author of the wartime report on social service. Lord Beveridge will suggest a royal commission be appointed to inquire into Britain's "dormant monies."

There are the millions of pounds accumulating in banks to the credit of charity trusts which may have outlived their usefulness or become obsolete. Lord Beveridge says money now lying idle could be used to promote welfare work and assist organizations which are handicapped by lack of funds.

Big Accounts

Dormant accounts are believed to total £16,000,000 ($64,000,000), including £9,000,000 held by the Bank of England.

Apart from these sleeping millions, large sums accrue from unclaimed dividends on government stocks and dormant balances.

History also bequeaths a share. One famous instance is that of the south-sea bubble of the early 18th century. The South Sea Company, with a trading monopoly in the Pacific Ocean, made a deal with the government for new commercial privileges. Thousands bought shares in the company before the bubble burst.

Many invested under assumed names, because speculation was dishonorable, and died without leaving a trace of their transactions.

Similarly, in the boom period of emigration to Canada in the 19th century, many settlers left money behind them in case they returned but neglected to give their bankers their new address.

Report 15 New Cases

COBOURG, May 25 (ENS) — Fifteen new cases of communicable disease were recorded for the week ending May 21 by the Northumberland and Durham Counties Health Unit. Of these 11 were chickenpox cases, all in Northumberland County. There were two cases of mumps, one of red measles and one of tuberculosis.

Two Months For Theft

COBOURG, May 25 (ENS) — Appearing for sentence Monday on a charge of theft, Joseph Perron of Toronto was sentenced by Magistrate R. B. Baxter to two months in jail. He was arrested last week by provincial police and charged with theft of a quantity of jewellery in Colborne on Feb. 12, the property of Hilda Abraham.

OLD ENGLISH DERIVATION

The word woman comes from meaning the wife-half of man.

The body of an adult man contains about five quarts of blood, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Inherited $75,000

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25 (ENS).—S. J. Price, Belleville handyman, who recently inherited most of Mrs. Bryon Coll's estate, estimated at between $75,000 and $100,000, is the father of Jim Price, local CNR express agent.

The son says the inheritance was a complete surprise to his parents, and hopes from now on they will take life a little easier.

Judge To Hear Twelve Cases

COBOURG, May 25 — (ENS). —Twelve cases are on the docket of the Non-Jury sittings of the Supreme Court being held here this week, with Mr. Justice Genest presiding. Six are divorce actions.

Harriett Palmer of Lakeport is plaintiff in an action against Sydney and Florence Turpin, executors of the estate of James Stanton, seeking an accounting of the assets of the estate and contesting the will.

Vernon Ferguson of Cartwright Township is suing Margaret and James White of Cartwright seeking foreclosure of a mortgage and the sum of $3,674.75.

Over Farm Lease

James DeMille of Cartwright Township is plaintiff in an action against Wreford and Myrtle Cornish, brought in connection with the lease of farm property owned by the plaintiff.

Outcome of an accident which occurred here last year, Daniel Parsons of Cobourg is suing Robert C. Dunn of Hope Township. Parsons was struck by a car alleged to have been driven by Dunn, and is suing for $6,000 damages. Under the Unsatisfied Judgments section of the Act, the Minister of Highways is defendant in the action.

Sequel to another motor accident, a $22,000 damage action is being brought by George and Mabel Spicer, Millbrook, against Cecil Evans, William Spivak, and Bruce Mahaffey.

Thomas and R. J. Reynolds are contesting the will of William Reynolds of the Township of Tiny.

Victoria Day Marred By Chilly Weather

COBOURG, May 25—(ENS)—Chilly weather marred somewhat the observance of Victoria Day. Around 400 took in the excursion to Rochester via the local car ferry, sponsored by the Cobourg Kinsmen Club. Many went trout fishing, a large number attended the ball game at the park where Port Hope trimmed Cobourg 8-0, while a goodly number stayed home and worked in their gardens.

Traffic was moderately heavy during the afternoon and evening.

Church Parade

CAMPBELLFORD, May 25 (ENS).—The Independent Order of Oddfellows and Loch Lomond Rebekah lodges attended the morning service in St. John's United Church on Sunday. The minister, the Rev. Dr. D. M. Smith, took for his subject, "Jesus Is Friend," and stressed the need for love and friendliness in the world. He said there was no substitute for the love of Jesus and nothing of great value could be had without paying the price.

The choir was under the direction of Charles Howey.

The New Industrial Commission

The newly-established Department of Industries for the city, or as it is to be known, the Peterborough Industrial Commission, should prove beneficial. Something like it has been needed for a long time. It is true that the Council has had a Manufacturers Committee, but aldermen are already busy enough with municipal affairs, and the fact that they are elected rather than appointed officials has tended to restrict their freedom of negotiation. The new Commission is representative of the Council since one of its members is an alderman, another the Mayor. But the three other members are appointed.

* * *

This means that the Commission will be able to act without being subject to constant electoral scrutiny. When preliminary negotiations with prospective new industries must be undertaken with secrecy the Commission will be able to do so, not being seated in a public Council Chamber. It will be able to have an ear to the ground and an eye to the future without making a public exhibition.

* * *

Under the by-law constituting the Industrial Commission, wide latitude is given. We feel that the present Commissioners will use it knowledgeably and responsibly. They are charged with not only making the city's industrial advantages widely known so as to attract new factories, but also to survey the city's needs and industrial condition so that a balanced civic economy may be developed. The by-law's terms are vague about the commissioners' length of tenure. The value of continuity in the work and planning is so obvious that the need for overlapping terms and reasonable length of tenure will be generally realized.

Brief History Of A Rumour

Not long ago a man from Nebraska was visiting in Rochester, Minnesota, which is the home of the Mayo Clinic; one day he saw an ambulance and several cars at the rear door of the Clinic hospital, and asked a bystander who the important patient might be; she replied (for what reason no one knows) that it was King George VI; later the Nebraska man saw a car with what he took to be British armorial bearings on it at the hospital in Minnesota; so effectively did he spread this story that denials have been issued from the British Information bureau in Washington, and even from Buckingham Palace.

A little reflection might have told the Nebraska man that the King would not be likely to seek treatment so far from home; great though the Mayo Clinic is, there are hospitals and doctors in Britain not unacquainted with its methods.

Who was the man who launched this spectacular rumour? Was he an irresponsible fellow? Was he a subversive type, anxious to cause trouble? Was he that despised creature, a newspaper man? No, he was Mr. Walter Kirtley, a man of substance, a retired lumber dealer, president of the Chamber of Commerce in his city, and a Rotarian. Even solid citizens may sometimes go off at a tangent.

A Word For The Goat

Our contemporary the Brantford Expositor recently wrote a few kind words about goats, and we congratulate it upon its championship of this abused animal. We also have a high regard for the goat, and it gives us pain—not extreme pain, but a twinge—when we see goats maligned by ignorant persons as animals which feed exclusively on tin cans and underwear, and attack human beings without provocation. Quoting the secretary of the British Goat Society the Expositor says that goats are not hard to rear, give an excellent milk, and are pleasant pets if they are treated kindly.

It is this last comment which calls forth our special approbation. A goat is not, by nature, an ugly animal; on the contrary it is intelligent, affectionate and faithful, and makes a very good pet for a child. What is more, it is sheer ignorance to condemn goats because they have a strong gluey odour; a dog has a bad smell if it is never washed. Goats, like horses and cows, need washing and grooming if they are not to become objectionable. A well-groomed goat is a very pretty creature.

The supposed passion of goats for cans and underwear is nonsense. A starved or ill-fed goat will lick the labels off cans in order to get glue and salt. But although goats need roughage they are not naturally coarse feeders. They cannot, for instance, eat such need hay, greenstuff, peas and beans, grains as corn, wheat and barley; they and the patent foods which are fed to milch cows. A well kept goat will never grow fat, but it will give a great deal of milk, and its milk has the virtue of being free of tuberculosis without pasteurization.

We may mention, by the way, that there is a Canadian Goat Society, with headquarters at Victoria, B.C.

Schoolteachers' Judgements

The National Book League is sponsoring an interesting exhibition in England at present called "The English At School". It contains some odd relics of bygone educational systems. For instance, it includes a pair of handcuffs which were used to restrain bad children at the Burlington School for Girls, as lately as 1850. Another exhibit is a "tawse", which is a three-tailed leather strap used by schoolteachers to maintain discipline. There is also a birch rod in the exhibition; everyone has heard of a birch rod, but not many people have seen one; it is a cruel instrument, and it is odd to think that there used to be one in every room in every school. In these days, when teachers are forbidden by law and custom from laying a finger on the most mischievous, idle, stupid and malignant children, the sight of the tawse and the birch must arouse strange emotions in the breasts of educators. "Ah, the good old days" we hear them murmur.

One section of the exhibition, however, puts the teachers squarely on the spot. It is a selection of judgements made by teachers on famous Englishmen while they were schoolboys. Field Marshal Lord Montgomery was considered "rather backward" by one of his instructors; another teacher said of G. K. Chesterton that his "composition was mostly futile". Teachers are not always the best judges, and anyhow, who can say that Montgomery did not have his dull, and G.K.C. his unexpressive, moments?

Mrs. Kate Morris

Mrs. Kate Morris was the first Peterborough woman to take a large part in public affairs. She was keenly interested in education and her opinions about it were considered advanced by some people even until the time of her death. She was one of the first in this city to see the need for a technical school here, and it was to a great extent through her efforts that the present compromise school was built. She was one of the founders of the Home and School Association in Ontario. She gave twenty-one years service on the Board of Education and she was at no time a silent or weakly assenting member of it.

Although she entered public life at a time when it was unusual for women to do so in Canada Mrs. Morris was never a strident or obstreperous woman; her demeanour, though impressive, was quiet and her manner of debate was invariably courteous. She would never have dreamed of expecting special consideration because she was a woman, but she commanded the respect of her associates by her dignity and her obvious intellectual power.

In the sphere which she chose, Mrs. Kate Morris was one of the makers of modern Peterborough, and so long as there is a vocational school in this city it will be in part a memorial to her.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A psychologist has this week told us that we can tell what people are thinking from their facial expressions. A lot of poker players have thought that, for a while.

A scientist says that you can tell if a mosquito is male or female by listening to its buzz. Pooh, we can do that with people.

A 15-inch speckled trout made headline news the other day because it was caught only a stone's throw from the Parliament Buildings. There are bigger fish to be caught inside, if you know the right way to angle for them.

Television of surgical operations is said to be the coming thing. After a delicious dinner what could be more pleasant than to tune in to a nice long operation, and watch some poor wretch having his novachord removed with a shoehorn?

A London Letter

From
CONRAD FROST

IT is improbable that you have heard of Mr. Wallis Jones who here makes his brief and sole appearance in this column. Apart from being a neighbour of mine in the pleasant, riverside suburb of Teddington, Mr. Jones recently stood as candidate for the Ward of Hampton Wick in the local Borough elections, and a poster advertising his relevant virtue, Conservatism, was nailed to the fir tree in my garden. 1,901 local citizens marked a cross against his name on the ballot sheets, he was elected, and he disappears forever from this survey.

BUT if you suppose that my neighbour, Mr. Jones, does not matter at a distance of several thousand miles, you are wrong. For you are seeing in him, in the poster on the fir tree, in the 1901 local folk, a close-up of part of the changing mosaic of British politics. The Labour Government here is rattled at last. Cabinet Ministers are giving public voice to such rash statements as one which asserts that for the Tories to be returned at next year's General Election would be a disaster comparable with the falling of an atom bomb. The explosive talk is the measure of the situation. For next month at Blackpool, where the three piers, the 520 foot tower and the whole length of the promenade will be ablaze with illuminations after ten years of darkness, the Labour Party meets for its last big policy making conference before election time.

The Labour big wigs will take gloom with them to gay Blackpool. In the Borough Council elections they lost 530 seats to the Tories. In London's Finsbury district, one Labour candidate polled only eight votes. Alas! They can't keep up with the Joneses.

ALREADY there is agitation by Chambers of Commerce for the illumination of shop windows to continue after October 2nd, the date when the concession ceases. Indeed, there is so much agitation, one way and another, that the sight of armed policemen in Downing Street—there in case of demonstrations against the Ireland Bill—seem almost in keeping with the times.

The leaders of the Meat Trades Associations are demanding to see Mr. Strachey. Although the Minister of Food neatly timed an announcement that the week's two pennyworth of corned beef should be replaced by carcase meat, the "agreeably surprised" butchers are refusing to be sidetracked. They believe that a cut, not an increase, is round the corner.

There is some agitated feeling, too, over the fact that whilst 10 per cent of British sweets are being exported and the shops are full of empty bottles, such sweets as can be bought in London now are mostly Polish.

❖ ❖ ❖

MY choice at a city confectioners today lay between toffee made in Warsaw—oversickly for the British palate—or chocolate from Holland, rather bitter by our standards.

Of course the big agitation of the week has centred itself around the arrest of Gerhart Eisler, America's Number 1 Communist. Ordinary people here do not care much one way or another who arrested Eisler or why. What has incensed them has been the photographs in the newspapers of demonstrators carrying children in arms.

Suddenly the spotlight has been focussed on the treatment of young children in this country. The twenty-five pound fine imposed upon a woman found guilty of deliberately burning a little girl's tongue has sent up a howl of protesting rage. Most newspaper letters from readers in the last few days have been devoted to this subject and the alleged inadequacy of the punishment.

IF all this sounds depressing, it must be remembered that the highlights of news always come that way—grave, with a rumble and a threat. When drought threatened the summer crops, when late frosts jeopardised the bumper fruit yield, weather was headline news. It is the no-news that is good news.

This week the rutted farm lanes of rural Britain are churning up into muddy quagmires, but that's not news. The farmers are wet, and happy. The fruitgrowers are sighing with relief because only the early cherry crop was a little frostbitten. It doesn't rate a line in the papers.

❖ ❖ ❖

THE Fashion Houses are cheerful, too. Fashion Fortnight, the officially sponsored event for overseas buyers, is on and most of the material is also available for the home market. Unlike British nylons, 7 out of every ten pairs of which go for export, the frocks, coats, fabrics and the buttons and bows are free for all this year.

Buttons are everywhere. They decorate collars, necklines, pockets, even hems. High shawl collars, coachman-capes, mid calf skirts, window box pockets, and green as the autumnal fashion shade give the trend of the show.

❖ ❖ ❖

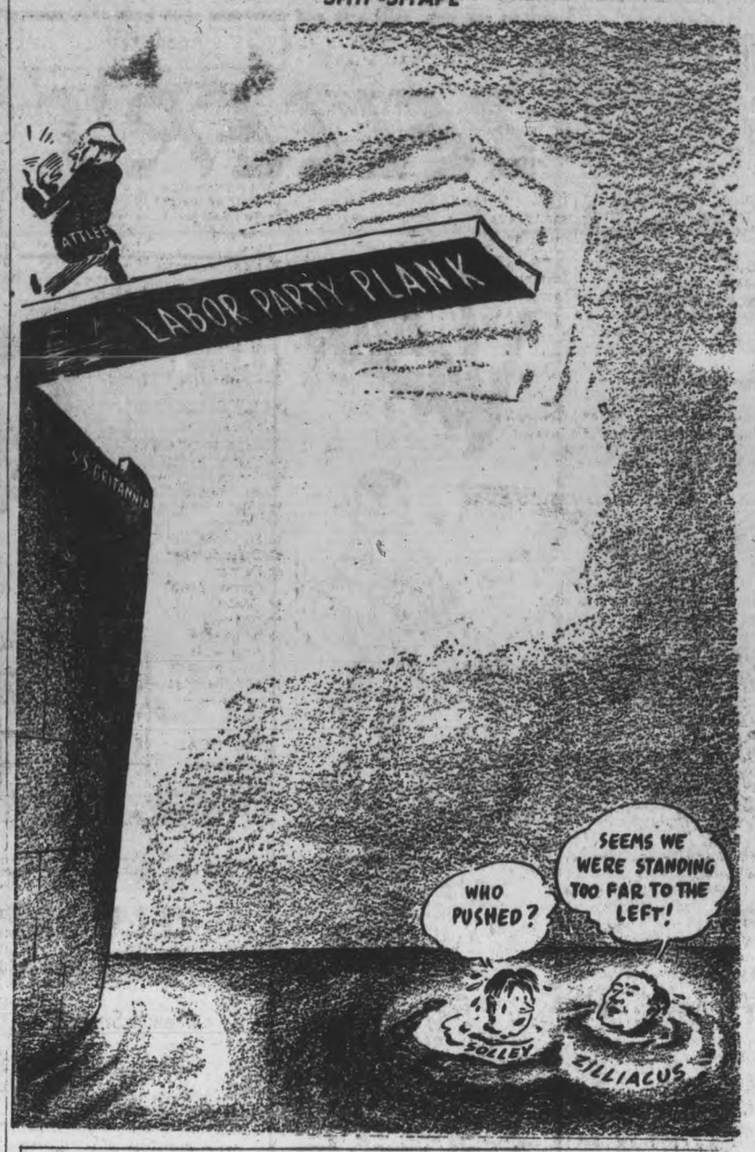
TELEVISION'S most sorry hour went to Cuckoo College, a [illegible] produced by and with most of the Tommy Handly "Itma" and Will Hay teams'....A flop, too, has been the Stewart Granger-Jean Simmons stage debut, "The Power Of Darkness".... Still in the show mood: 74-year-old beadle, George Ireson, in charge of the gates of Ely Place in the city, refused film star Christine Norden entrance to the Square. "Nothing like this has ever happened here before," he said. Ely Place, although in London, officially belongs to Cambridgeshire. Film workers proposed to use it for background shots—and did, after a kiss for the beadle from Christine, softened him.

People in the weeks news: J. B. Morton, celebrating his 25th year as the National Humorist, Beachcomber of the Daily Express. Morton pokes his fun from the distance of Dublin....Rival humorist Mr. Justice Lynskey, chairman of the recent tribunal, after-dinner wisecracking: "I am like a second Dr. Livingstone — discovered by Stanley."....Comedienne Gracie Fields, tactfully lunching with a Conservative M.P. at the House of Commons, but taking cocktails with the Socialists. At 51, top London money spinner, she is drawing £1,000 a night for her eight night show at the Empress Hall this week. Even Danny Kaye doesn't get that much here.

Events of the week range from the two Garden Parties at Buckingham Palace—post-war version of the Royal Courts—at which the King will be present to mingle with 2,000 guests on each day, down the social scale to the Pekinese Club show in Great Portland Street. It's nice to be a debutante, but its almost nicer to be a glamorous Peke. Seven-times champion Ku Chi, on show, has been offered £1,400—and when that was refused, an open cheque. Nine months old Lin Yu Tang's owners have refused £1,250 for him.

Some aspects of life in Britain remain undisturbed by the nation wide swing to the Right. The writing on the wall may well be "Time for a Change". But it is axiomatic that, in Britain, the more things change the more they remain the same as ever. That goes for the high price of Pekes.

SHIP-SHAPE



Unfair, Ungenerous And Untrue

(FINANCIAL POST)

THOUSANDS of people with television sets in the United States are probably looking forward to seeing the films based on General Eisenhower's book, "Crusade in Europe," which Time and Life magazines are sponsoring for television.

Now, when the American people are carrying heavy financial burdens for European recovery, and are contemplating additional expenditures to strengthen the defenses of western Europe, seems to be a most appropriate moment to recall the great principle of which General Eisenhower's command was the chief symbol and he himself the great exponent.

His book is dedicated not to the American fighting men or the people of the United States, but "to the Allied soldier, sailor and airmen of World War II." Again and again the book emphasized the comradeship in arms of the forces of several nations. Again and again the Supreme Commander wrote of his difficulties whenever one nation, his own or another, started thinking on excessively nationalist lines. On page 151, for example, General Eisenhower wrote: "Nothing creates trouble between allies so often or so easily as unnecessary talk—particularly when it belittles one of them."

Yet Time and Life, in preparing the television films, seem deliberately to have ignored the United States' allies, and to have slanted their series to pander to the illusion that America "did it all" and that nobody else mattered. More than nine tenths of the three sample films which Time and Life showed recently in Toronto—and presumably they selected those most likely to appeal to Canadians—dealt with the activities solely of American forces and from the commentary one would suppose the Americans were fighting single-handed.

This unhappy example of insularity follows the decision of Life to cut out of Winston Churchill's memoirs a highly significant summary of Britain's war effort.

Is it a deliberate policy of Time and Life not to inform the American public about the contribution their allies made to the war effort? If so, it is a policy justifiable neither morally nor on the narrower ground of American self-interest. The U.S. may need allies again.

Bible Message

(From the Authorized Version)

Then was brought unto him one possessed with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils. And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: and if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. (Matt. 12: 22-29.)

Letter To The Editor

SEEKS SERVICE FRIENDS

Sir: I am writing you in an attempt to locate some of my service friends, Canadians and Canadian brides from England. I am not sure that they are in Peterborough, I am certain they were from Ontario.

I was in the English W.A.A.F. and met them while stationed in England at Greenham Common, Berkshire and at Longnewnton, Gloucestershire.

I would be pleased to hear from any one who had been in either places between 1942-1944.

The ones in particular I will list here-under:

Beatrice Best, Barbara Kell, Kitty Blackie, W.A.A.F.s; Bill Bradford, Sgt. Cote, PO Dobois, Frank Devine, R.C.A.F.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Defeating Diphtheria

For the seventh consecutive year deaths from diphtheria in Britain have been the lowest ever recorded. Last year they totalled 150 compared with 2,641 in 1941. It was in that year that the United Kingdom Government initiated the national campaign for immunizing infants against this deadly disease. Since then outbreaks of diphtheria have also shown an equally spectacular and steady reduction. In 1941 nearly 51,000 cases were registered. Last year there were only 8,034.

The campaign will be continued again this year. The aim is to immunize three-quarters of all babies in Britain before they reach their first birthday.

Uranium Prospectors Are Warned To Learn Rules

By FORBES RHUDE
Canadian Press Business Editor.

Going out to hunt uranium? If you are thinking of it, you had better read up a bit on it first.

Not here, but in the literature which Federal and Provincial Departments of Mines will be glad to give you.

For instance, don't forget that uranium, in a limited way, is widely distributed, or that other things may set a geiger-counter ticking.

Dr. A. H. Lang of the Geological Survey of Canada, has this to say:

"It (uranium) is generally dispersed in small quantities, so that the problem of the prospector is not merely to find uranium, but to find it in workable concentrations.

"This statement may seem trite, but experience shows that it needs to be emphasized. It is not meant to detract from the efforts of those who have made discoveries that proved to be of small or of low grade, because all information regarding radioactive occurrences is important."

Summer Vacation

The reason it is timely to mention these things is that probably thousands of people will be looking for uranium this summer. Some even think of using their holidays to join in the hunt.

That is all right. It is probably a healthy pastime from which you will at least get sun tan and wind burn, and perhaps have a better time than playing golf, at no more expense. And, who knows, you might find yourself a fortune.

But it is common sense to get first the information which is easily available from the various mine departments.

As a recent publication of the Ontario Department of Mines says:

"The first step is to become familiar with the regulations affecting new discoveries and marketing. Copies can be obtained by writing to the Chief of the Geological Survey of Canada, Ottawa."

B.C. Coalition Enters Third Election

By The Canadian Press

Premier Byron I. Johnson's Coalition forces—combining Liberals and Progressive Conservatives—will do battle with a newly-confident C.C.F. part in the British Columbia provincial election, June 15.

The C.C.F. under its young leader, Harold Winch, opposition leader in the last Legislature, has a campaign platform designed to lure the vote of the "little man." The party promises to "work for total removal of the provincial three per cent sales tax."

The Coalitionists seek to return to power on a platform embracing gigantic expansion plans in industry and public works. The government stakes its chances on a pledge for "continued sound business administration" as opposed to what it calls "an experiment with socialism."

Premier Johnson's was the second Coalition administration since party politics was introduced in British Columbia by Hon. Richard McBride in 1903.

Until the 1941 general election the issue had always been between Liberals and Conservatives. Since then the C.C.F. has become the leading political threat. This year the pressure from the socialist camp is stronger than ever before.

At dissolution, April 16, the standing in the Legislature was: Coalition 36 seats, C.C.F. 11 and Labor 1.

The Coalition has announced it will contest seats under the Hart formula—set up by former Premier John Hart, now retired from provincial politics.

Nomination Formula

As outlined by Premier Johnson, the formula provides:

That in 18 seats held by persons of Liberal persuasion the nominee shall either be the sitting member or a person chosen by a Liberal convention.

Conversely, in 15 seats held by the Progressive Conservatives either the sitting member or a person chosen by the Progressive Conservatives will carry the Coalition banner.

In three seats — North Vancouver, Comox and Esquimalt—where the former members claim to be straight Coalitionists, owing allegiance to neither party, joint conventions of Liberals and Progressive Conservatives will choose the candidate.

In 10 seats held by the opposition, joint Liberal-Progressive Conservative conventions will select the candidate and in Vancouver East, where the C.C.F. held two seats, the Liberals will name one candidate and the Progressive Conseratives the other.

A lesser political force will be the Social Credit party, which may have as many as 20 candidates in the election race. The Social Credit nominees will campaign on a "pay as we go" policy on provincial affairs and a return of provincial rights from the federal government.

This election will be the first in which native Indians and Japanese Canadians may vote. In one constituency, Atlin, a native Indian is a candidate. Frank Calder, Indian graduate of the University of British Columbia, will represent the C.C.F.

Up To Lieutenant-Governor

From 1871, when British Columbia entered Confederation, until 1903, the procedure, when a government was defeated, was for the lieutenant-governor to call upon the man be thought best fitted to lead a new administration.

Governments were retained in power by the personal following of the premier and his cabinet. There was no bond of party affiliation and frequently a dismissed minister would enter the opposition and vote against his.

The non-party setup appeared to function well under normal conditions but was apt to crack up in times of stress when feelings were running high.

In the 10 years preceding the introduction of party politics, B.C. had six governments. One of these, under Hon. Joseph Martin, lasted only three months. Martin took office as premier March 1, 1900 but was ousted June 14.

From the date of institution of party politics in 1903, the Conservatives were in power 13 years. In 1916 they were ousted by the Liberals who were in office 12 years before the Conservatives regained power under S. F. Tolmie in 1928.

In 1933, premier T. D. Pattullo led the Liberals back to the capital. But in 1941 no party had a clear majority. Premier Pattullo refused to form a coalition and resigned.

John Hart, then finance minister, was elected premier and formed the first coalition. Premier Johnson's was the second.

Stresses Co-operation

MONTREAL, May 25 — (CP)— Newspaper emphasis on discord is obscuring the fact that international co-operation today is "enormously outweighing" conflict, Dr. Brock Chisholm, director general of World Health Organization, said here Tuesday night. Speaking before the American Psychiatric Association, Dr. Chisholm said that "international relations are better now than ever before."

practically unanimous

YOU CAN still find people who "don't believe in banks" . . . who keep their cash in old coffee pots, or hide it in the woodpile, or carry it around.

But most folk nowadays keep their money in bank accounts. They can get it whenever they want it; and they can pay their bills by cheque. Canadians have more than seven million such deposit accounts. In terms of Canada's adult population, that makes it practically unanimous.

The banks, in turn, know they must earn this confidence by giving you the best service they know how.

Today you can take your account to any bank you choose. And what is in your bank book is strictly between you and your bank. It is your own private business.

SPORTS SHOW WINDOW

CEC. PERDUE, Sports Editor

Sports here on May 24 consisted entirely of the softball tourney and horse races put on by the Jaycees at the Ex. Only three softball squads showed up, Uniteds drawing a bye into finals. Oshawa knocked out Belleville and —just for the fun of it—the Uniteds then took the Quinte all-stars in an exhibition. Final at night saw Oshawa taking home top prize, with runners-up getting second money. Three good horse races, main moolah going to a New York entry, a Kingston pacer, and a Port Hope horse. Good times clocked on a fair track. Young Bill Stewart, 17-year-old nephew of Hugh Stewart, put on a grand bit of driving in his first race. Quite a few in the stands for the harness events.

* * * * * *

Weather permitting, the girl softballers open their season tonight at seven in the Bowl. It wasn't last eve, as mentioned by us yesterday—we got the blinking holiday mixed up in our mind. No, it's listed for tonight (Wednesday) with Westclox playing Marines and CGE taking on Lindsay here. Lasses go again Friday in a twin offering, and three times a week from then on till well out in the summer. Bill Bennett is back at the helm of the colleens' circuit again, and predicts keen competition all through the season. Likely an opening ceremony this e'en to start if off.

Some Timber Ahead

Lacrosse Lumberjacks—new monicker for the senior "A" Petes—go Friday night at 8.45 in Miller Bowl against the strong Hamilton Tigers. That one ought to pack in the customers as Tigers are Dominion senior champs. The Creighton crew will have to hustle but should give a good account of themselves. Lloyd (Peewee) Burnie of North Peel is expected on the local lineup, and also Don Frick of St. Kitts if his release comes through. Then, too, there's a good chance of Rowan Chute and Dootch Vitarelli returning to action any time, as well perhaps as big Pup Curtin and Jerry Creighton. If all these are added, the local team will be plenty tough in senior "A" play.

* * * * * *

Rugged Ron Horton tied it at 10-all and then Teatero bashed home the winner late in the fourth quarter to give the 'jacks an 11-10 win in Weston last night. A dandy to pull out and the short-handed Petes really played lacrosse, every one of them. Teatero sparked their attack with four goals and an assist, and the Creighton crew had to come from behind twice to take home the triumph. Some stiff checking and one fight, but play was not unduly rough as both sides tried to stay on the floor and yank out the verdict. Other OLA senior "A" outfits will have more respect for Peterborough now that they've shown they can win away from home. Good stuff, gang.

Pitching And Hitting

Same applies to the ball-playing Petes of the COBL. Made it two in a row yesterday by beating Batawa 7-5 in Belleville. Gunner Ed Whitehill, despite chill weather, looked mighty good on the mound till out in the sixth when he weakened, Lefty Dadson then finishing up strongly. Muffitt wasn't too much of a mystery in a relief role on the Shoemen's slab. Howie Dalton led the way at bat with two ringing doubles and a brace of singles in five, as well as pilfering a couple of bases. Lowrey also smashed out a triple and two singles in five, so it looks like the men o' Murphy will get both the hitting and pitching again. They're taking on Canisius College in an exhibition this Saturday aft in Riverside.

Rain on Sunday and the holiday pretty well ruined the long week-end for golfers at the Kawartha and Peterborough Clubs. A good opening for men Saturday at the Kawartha Club, though, and the divot-diggers will be going strong from now on, both ladies and gents. Midland Golf League has reorganized with A. J. Kemlo of Port Hope president, George Watson of Peterborough vice-prexy, and Bryan Sherry of Port Hope the secretary-treasurer. Clubs now include Port Hope, Cobourg, Oshawa, Lindsay and Peterborough, with the opening tourney in Cobourg on June 11, followed by a smoker. This district golf circuit has been operating more than 10 years, and we believe Rollie Glover had a lot to do with starting it.

WEE WILLIE DAVIS

What looms up as the most spectacular, and by far the starriest wrestling card of the season, will be presented at the Brock Arena tonight. The main bout will be a Tag Team Match with Whipper Watson and Pat Flanagan on one team and Wee Willie Davis and Sandy O'Donnell on the other. This should be a honey of a go as all four men are experienced team wrestlers with Whip and Pat outstanding. The semi-final brings together Sliding Billy Hanson and Art Brady, both topflight men and main bouters. And if that isn't enough have a gander at the opener, featuring the sensational newcomer, Tug Carlsen against rugged Dan O'Connor. Whatta mat program, better get down early for choice seats.

Oshawa Gains Top Spot In Tournament

Between rainy and sunny spells Tuesday the Oshawa Pedlars sweep the Jaycees Annual Softball Tournament at the Exhibition Grounds. In the first game the Pedlars proved too much for the Belleville Nationals, sinking them 15-4. The final game of the tournament between the Uniteds of Peterborough and Pedlars ended with the latter up 16 to 2.

Five teams had signified their intention of playing in the tournament but rainy weather left two Toronto teams at home. With only three entries a draw was made to see who would play the first game, the other team getting a bye into finals. Uniteds gained the bye.

Oshawa batters drove three Belleville pitchers from the mound in the semi-final. In doing so they collected 19 hits against eight Belleville got off Meulemeester, the Oshawa moundsman. The Belleville crew kicked six hit balls around the field while Oshawa muffed two plays.

Oshawa collected two runs in the first inning, third one; fifth, three; sixth and seventh, two each; and the eighth, five. In the last frame Miracle, the fourth Belleville pitcher, allowed two hits, striking out three. Belleville got their runs in the first, fourth and sixth.

Magee, second baseman for Pedlars, led the batters with three for three. He brought in four runs. Keeler, the Oshawa shortstop, had four for six. Rawlins and Mallory for Belleville each had two for four. Turner for Oshawa, got a homer in the eighth with one man aboard.

Took Final

Snappy playing and sound hitting backed McConkey for Oshawa in the final game when he held the Peterborough Uniteds to six scattered hits to win 16 to 2. While he was holding the batters of the Uniteds, the Oshawa players notched 10 hits off Buda and five off Greenlaw. The United team came through with six errors to the single miscue of Oshawa.

Two fielding plays in the game were the standouts of the tournament, Harrison, the United shortstop stabbed a hard drive by Sam Stark in the fifth inning. Later, Magee pulled the ball into his hands when it was inches from the ground after Scriver had popped a low fly between the mound and second base.

Besides leading his team in fielding Magee had three hits for four tries, giving him six hits out of seven for the day. But in the final game, Keller had four for five. Buda led the United batters with three hits in four chances at the plate.

In the afternoon the Belleville Nationals played the Uniteds in an exhibition tilt. The Uniteds pulled through an 8-5 verdict on 11 hits off Miracle in seven innings. Reid for the Uniteds limited the Belleville squad to four hits in six innings. In the upper half of the seventh he was cut on the leg and pitching hand while stealing to home plate. Each team committed one error.

Harrison for the United led the batters with three for four while Reid had two for three. Sullivan, Scriver and Castle each had two for four. The Belleville hits were well scattered.

Umpires for the three games were Wimpy Borland, Ron Akers, Dave Grant and Jack Billingsley.

No Chance US To Win British Golf Tourney

HARLECH, Wales, May 25—(AP)—United States chances of winning the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship for the third year in a row collapsed Tuesday with the double defeat of Grace Lenczyk and Peggy Kirk.

Miss Lenczyk, 21-year-old holder of the United States and Canadian titles, was upset 2 and 1 in the second round by a virtually unknown English player, Jeanne Bisgood.

Miss Kirk, a 27-year-old star from Findlay, Ohio, bowed out 4 and 3 in the third round to Mrs. Cosmo Falconer of Scotland.

This left the field to the British competitors for the first time since 1946. Mrs. Babe Didrickson Zaharias won the championship for the United States in 1947, and Louise Suggs turned the trick in 1948. Both now are professionals.

Harness Races Run In Fast Time

Bertha Hanover, a New York horse, won top money in the 2.28 pace; Harvester Express from Kingston, led the way in the 2.22; and Jimmy Brewer, a Port Hope entry, swept the free-for-all; in the harness races in Morrow Park yesterday. The meet, drawing 7 entries, was run in connection with the Jaycees Jamboree and good times were clocked on a fair track after the rain. Purses totaled $650.

The second heat of the free-for-all, which had eight horses running, was marked in 2.16, the third heat being almost as fast. Jimmy Brewer was pressed hard in both by Millie Volo, driven by 17-year-old Bill Stewart, son of the owner and nephew of Hugh Stewart of Peterborough. It was his first race. Stan Blewett's local pacer, Betty B placed second in the 2.28 winning one heat. Hal B. Petes Victors In COBL Over Batawa

BELLEVILLE, May 25—(CP)—Peterborough Marines grabbed the Central Ontario Baseball League lead here Tuesday, defeating the Batawa Shoemen 7-5 for their second straight victory.

Gunner Whitehill, Petes' veteran pitcher, had the Shoemen eating out of his hand for six innings letting them down with three hits for one run. The Batawans pounced on him for five solid smashes in the sixth that netted four runs. Dadson, a junior, stepped into the breach and handcuffed the homesters for the rest of the game, striking out the side in order in the ninth.

Smith started for Batawa and yielded two clouts for one run in the first. Muffitt, Shoemen ace, replaced him in the second and was nicked for nine hits for six runs over the rest of the rout.

Dalton, Petes' third sacker, was the hitting hero of the piece, getting four for five and stealing two bases. Lowrey got three for five for the winners. Fielding features were two snappy double plays by the losing Batawans. The losers bobbled four times, all of them costly as against a pair for the Petes.

LAWN BOWLING

By HERB MARTIN

Because it rains when we wish it wouldn't,
Because men do what they often shouldn't,
Because crops fail, and plans go wrong—
Some of us grumble all day long.
But somehow, in spite of the case and doubt,
It seems at last, that things work out.
So bend to your trouble and meet your ease,
For the clouds must break, and the sky grow fair.
Let the rain come down, as it must and will,
But keep on working and hoping still.
For in spite of the grumblers who stand about,
Somehow, it seems, all things work out.

Those heavy showers that began around 10.30 o'clock Tuesday morning forced cancellation of lawn bowling as far as May 24 was concerned.

No doubt it was a big disappointment to the bowlers and especially to those who had worked so hard to have everything in spick and span condition. We doubt, if ever the clubhouse, inside and out, greens, grounds and everything had ever looked so tidy and well groomed.

Now about tonight's games in the president-vice-president competition—we don't know,—it will all depend on the weather—however, tune in to CHEX at 6.00 o'clock this evening and it will be definitely announced whether it's "yes" or "no."

On Friday afternoon at 2.00 o'clock the ladies are holding a tournament—two 6-end games—draw from the board. The fee is 25c. Tea will be served. If the weather should be unfavorable the ladies intend to adjourn to the clubroom and play bridge.

OXFORD LAD WINS

At Trenton, Oxford Lad, owned and driven by B. McKane of Kingston sped to a straight heat triumph in the free-for-all, feature event on the holiday harness racing card here Tuesday. Oxford Lad was given a close battle for free-for-all honors, standing off Gem Baldwin in the first and third heats for driving wins.

Weston Beaten In Lacrosse By Lumberjacks

A late assault by Armstrong's Lumberjacks of Peterborough in Weston last night gave the Petes an 11-10 OLA senior "A" victory in a thrilling tussle. Though short on players, the Creighton crew fought furiously and clicked in top form to earn the snappy scrap, coming from behind in the second quarter and again in the fourth to pull out the verdict. Ron Horton's solo effort tied it at 10-all in the last five minutes of play, and Teatero then rifled in the winning marker on a speedy lone try.

Teatero was top sniper with four goals and one assist in a neat all-around effort as the whole team from Goalie Bun Hill out shone. Reddy counted three and aided on one for Weston, all of the homesters battling right down to the finish in the see-saw struggle. The Petes had 64 shots on goal to 53 by Weston. Play was rugged at times, with Reddy and Howse serving majors in the second for fighting, but fairly clean most of the distance.

The teams:

Petes: Goal, Hill; defence, Horton and Magee, centre, E. Creighton; wings, Dugan and Howse; rover Foote; alternates, L. Vitarelli, Warren, McNulty and Teatero.

Weston: Goal, Hartley; defence, Allwell and Gilkinson; centre, Chard; wings, Gair and Reddy; rover, Hill; alternates, Venner, Hation, H. Downer, Lovelace, T. Downer, James and Skhordoff.

Referees: Murphy and Smart.

Robinson Leads Dodgers To 6-1 Win Over Pirates

By JOE REICHLER,
Associated Press Sports Writer.

Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson, in the midst of the greatest batting spree of his career is taking the west by storm.

The Dodgers' second baseman in eight games has rapped out 15 hits in 34 times at bat for a .441 batting average. He drove in 17 runs to boost his league leading total to 32. His season batting mark now is .316.

He tops the circuit with 18 extra base swats which include 11 doubles, two triples and five home runs. He also leads in stolen bases with six. In the field, he is playing a near-flawless game.

Robinson whacked a pair of home runs and a single Tuesday night to lead the Dodgers to a 6-1 triumph over the Pirates in Pittsburgh.

Backed by a 13-hit attack, Ralph Branca rolled to his seventh successive triumph without a setback. He allowed nine hits.

The victory, coupled with St Louis' 3-1 triumph over the league-leading Braves, enabled the third-place Dodgers to cut Boston's margin to two games. They trail the second place Giants by a game and a half. The Giants lost a golden opportunity to take over the lead when they were beaten by the Cubs in Chicago 8-2.

The fourth-place Reds went 11 innings to nip the Philadelphia Phils, 4-3, in a night game at Cincinnati.

Stan Musial's home run with a mate aboard in the fifth inning broke up a tight pitching duel between winner Harry Brecheen and loser Johnny Antonelli to give the Cards the victory over the Braves.

A squeeze bunt by Ray Mueller scored Johnny Wryostek from third with the run that gave the Reds their overtime triumph over the Phils.

Win Thriller

Boston Red Sox won a 10-inning 6-7 thriller from the Detroit Tigers for their fourth straight triumph. The pre-season favorites for the American League flag, now are in third place, but still 4½ games behind the front-running New York Yankees. The Bronx Bombers had an easy time of it subduing the hapless St. Louis Browns 13-3 at Yankee Stadium.

The scheduled night games between Chicago and Washington and Cleveland and Philadelphia, were postponed by rain.

Bobby Doer's single with the bases loaded scored two runs for Boston after the Tigers had taken a temporary 7-6 lead in the top of the 10th. The loss was Detroit's fifth and plummeted the Tigers into sixth place.

Art Houtteman, badly hurt in an automobile accident during spring training, made his first start of the season for Detroit, and lasted six innings.

Crescents Beat Athletics 13-7

OWEN SOUND, May 25 (CP)—The Owen Sound Crescents Tuesday night defeated St. Catharines Athletics 13-7 in an Ontario Lacrosse Association senior fixture.

With the exception of a brief period in the first quarter when the score was tied 1-1, the Crescents led all the way.

Don Ashbee topped the Owen Sound scoring parade with three goals and two assists. Bun White tallied the hat trick, Jack Mason scored twice and Doug Gillespie, Ball Allum, Don Campbell, Harry Kazarian and Russ Slater each notched one.

For the Athletics, Ken Croft was top man with three goals, while Jerry Fitzgerald notched three assists.

Red Schoendienst Sets Loop Fielding Record

ST. LOUIS, May 25—(AP) — Second baseman Red Schoendienst of St. Louis Cardinals has set a new National League fielding record, playing 42 consecutive games without an error at his position.

Red handled seven chances in the Cardinal game with the Boston Braves last night, bringing to 240 the number of chances he has had without a bobble—another National League record.

The record book shows Charley Herzog of Chicago set the previous game record with 38 in 1919. Hughie Critz held the consecutive second-base chance record—197 in 1932—when he was with the New York Giants.

Bobby Doerr of the Boston Red Sox holds both records for the American League—73 errorless games last year and 414 cleanly handled chances at second base.

Schoendienst's last miscue was Sept. 15 last season at Philadelphia.

Second-Half Splurge Gives Newcastle Win

TORONTO, May 25 (CP) —A big seven-goal second-half splurge gave Newcastle United, first division English Football League, Club, an easy 8-2 decision over Ontario All-stars Tuesday. The United trailed 2-1 at half time.

Newcastle, which ended the English league season in fourth place and now on an 11-game tour of Canada and the United States, made it look easy in the final 45 minutes.

Jackie Milburn, Newcastle centre forward and English International, paced the attack with four second-half goals.

Jackie Davidson and Tommy Wallace, both of Toronto Canadians, netted for Ontario.

Oshawa, Brockville Split Twin Bill

BROCKVILLE, May 25 (CP) — Brockville Memos and Oshawa Merchants split a Central Baseball League doubleheader Tuesday, Oshawa won the opener 6-4 and Brockville came through with a 1-0 victory in the night cap.

Rallying in the seventh inning of the opener, the Oshawa squad pushed across three quick runs and added another in the next frame to hold the 6-4 lead for the remainder of the tussle after having trailed 4-2 during the early part of the game.

Brockville had knocked their starting hurler Glen Oshea from the box in the fourth when Ron Blaziak and playing manager Johnny Doran blasted home-runs in succession to take the 4-2 lead.

Jim Michaels came in to put out the fire for the Merchants and held the Memos to three hits for his five-inning stint. John Rowe pitched steady ball for the locals limiting the winners to six hits.

Gordie Atkins, Brockville shortstop, put the local squad on the victory trail in the second contest when he stepped up as the first batter and blasted a homer over the left field wall. His run proved the deciding factor as the game turned into a battle of pitchers.

Bisons Dump Royals In Doubleheader

By The Associated Press

Montreal Royals, as predicted, are finding the going rough in their bid to win the International League pennant for the second straight season.

Clay Hopper's forces breezed to the flag last year and in a pre-season poll were selected to take the championship again this campaign—but not by as much as last season's 13½-game margin.

The red-hot Buffalo Bisons spoiled Victoria Day for the Royals Tuesday by taking both ends of a holiday doubleheader, 7-2 and 11-3 at Montreal. The Bisons now have won seven out of their last eight starts. The triumph enabled the Bisons to take second place from the Royals, a game and a haf behind Jersey City Giants.

Saul Rogovin and Montreal's Johnny Van Cuyk were hooked up in a scoreless duel in the opener when the Bisons caved the roof in on Van Cuyk with a seven-run, seventh-inning rally.

Buffalo hopped on Clarence Podbielan for three runs in the first inning of the nightcap and were never headed. Veteran Anse Moore highlighted a six-run rally in the seventh inning with a grand-slam homer.

Divide Twin Bill

Rochester Red Wings and Toronto Maple Leafs divided a holiday twin bill at Toronto, the Leafs taking the first game 3-1, and the Wings the finale, 3-1.

Bubber Church scattered seven hits to pick up his third triumph in the first game. Rookie first baseman Bill Glynn drove in all of Toronto's runs with a double and single.

Rookie Johnny Yuhas stopped the Leafs with three safeties in outpitching veteran Ed Wright in the finale. The loss was Wright's first in six decisions.

Russ Derry, who drove in Rochester's only run in the first game, sent home two in the nightcap on his 10th homer of the year in the second inning.

Scheduled games between Syracuse and Jersey City and Newark and Baltimore were postponed because of rain.

Here And There In Sports . . .

By The Canadian Press

Joe DiMaggio, sidelined New York Yankees' outfielder, passed up a scheduled workout before Tuesday's game with St. Louis at Yankee Stadium because his heel "hurt too much."

"I'd be out there if it didn't hurt so much," he said. Joe did not put on a uniform.

DiMaggio who has not played an inning all season, worked out Monday night before the game with the Browns. It was his first "test" since a "hot heel" sent him flying to a Baltimore hospital from Texas on the trip home from spring training.

At Philadelphia, Bill Veeck, president of Cleveland Indians, announced Tuesday "opening day" ceremonies will be repeated in Cleveland Friday night before the first game of a long home stand.

"We're simply wiping the slate clean," the colorful owner said.

Chicago White Sox will be night-game opponents as the "new" season begins. Bands will play, Mayor Thomas A. Burke will throw out the first ball, and drum majorettes will twirl their batons in carnival style.

The Indians' disastrous road trip so far has resulted in eight defeats in 10 games for the world champions.

At Kitchener, some 16 records were set Tuesday as nearly 400 athletes from western Ontario secondary schools competed in the 10th annual Waterloo College invitation track and field meet. Brantford and Owen Sound Collegiates tied with 95 points each for the Goudie Trophy for A schools. Brantford won the trophy last year.

Art Johnson, 15-year-old touting rambler from Toronto, Tuesday won the Andy Houting Trophy, when he finished first in the 25-mile handicap race of the Ontario bicycle event at Toronto. He did the distance in 1:02:47 3/5. Arnold Digby of the Ramblers was second with a time of 1.08:45 1/5, while W. Whitaker and B. Pipher, both of Oshawa, finished in a dead heat for third in 1.23:29.

No Trace Of Weapon

WINDSOR, Ont., May 25—(CP)—Attempts to locate the weapon used in the Sunday morning slaying of William Allen, 37, at his west end home failed Tuesday although a wide area surrounding the isolated house was combed. Detectives Chris Paget and William Moffat had hoped that the assailant might have discarded the gun as he raced across fields following the blast that felled Allen in his kitchen.

DOUBLE WINNER Herbert Jackson, 166 Park Hill Road E., not only took first place in the junior division of Peterborough's Soap Box Derby in 1948, but for his racing car design as well made from plans in an American mechanical magazine he was judged winner of a Workbench Award Certificate recently and was presented with a cheque. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Jackson.

Winner of Soap Box Derby Given Additional Prize

Peterborough's Soap Box Derby winner of 1948, Herbert Jackson, has won another award with his car. He has been judged winner of a Workbench Award Certificate by the Mechanix Illustrated magazine and was presented with a cheque for $5.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Jackson, 166 Park Hill Rd. east, the fair-haired youngster is already making changes to his car with the aim in view of getting even greater speed than it had last year. In the well-equipped basement workshop of his father, Herb is preparing to install new wheels and springs, which he hopes will step up the speed.

To Try Again

Last July Herb won first place in the junior division and placed second in the senior division. On July 16 he will seek the top spot in the senior division.

A Grade 5 student of Queen Alexandra School, he often works in the workshop at Boys' Town Trafalgar House. He got the plans for his car from the 1946 winner of the famous Akron, Ohio, All-American Soap Box Derby. The body is made of wood and the car weighs a little less than 150 pounds.

His father, who is a barber, is the lad's enthusiastic coach. His workshop is well fitted out, having a metal lathe, two drill presses, a band saw, a welder and several other machines.

Can Use Machinery

"It makes all the difference if a lad has the proper equipment to work with," said Mr. Jaskson. Herb has no trouble using all the complicated machinery.

In last year's race, Herb won a silver cup, a bicycle and a fishing rod. He doesn't quite know what he will do with another bicycle if he is lucky enough to win again.

Ban Book In Schools

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP). — For a second successive year, the Board of Superintendents of New York City's schools has banned the magazine, The Nation, from high school libraries. The original ban in June, 1948, stemmed from a series of articles by Paul Blanshard, which concluded in The Nation that month. The board held the articles attacked the Roman Catholic religion.

Four-Year-Old Hit, Escapes With Scrapes

John Terpstra, four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Terpstra 370 London St., had a lucky escape from serious injury when he was knocked down by a car on Reid St. at 9 p.m. Tuesday.

The lad was playing with a group of children and ran out into the road behind a north bound car. Arnold Harnden, Bailieboro, who was driving south saw the lad in front of his car after having passed the south bound car. He applied his brakes but could not avoid hitting the boy.

Constables Jack Morrow and Grant Gillespie saw the lad at 567 Reid St., and were told by Dr. J. E Howes that the youngster had a scraped leg and cheek and a bump on his head.

Heads Assessing Men

OTTAWA, May 25 — (CP) — H. D. Bateman of Belleville Tuesday was elected president of the Association of Assessing Officers of Ontario at the association's annual meeting here. He succeeds A. G. Tipper of Kirkland Lake. Vice-presidents elected included E. V. Rudbourne of Owen Sound and Morton Laird of St. Catharines.

Russia Rejects Protest

LONDON, May 25 — (AP) — Russia has turned down a British protest that Soviet authorities tried to influence the staff of the British embassy in Moscow, Moscow radio said today. A broadcast recorded by the Soviet Monitor said Britain made the protest in a Moscow memorandum delivered to foreign minister Andrei Vishinsky April 28.

Ontario Has 5 Deaths Over Holiday

By The Canadian Press.

Five persons died in Ontario of Victoria Day accidents — an unusually small number for the May 24 holiday. In the past, 8 to 10 deaths have been recorded on the anniversary of Queen Victoria's birth. Four other deaths were reported in other parts of Canada.

Stanley Sexton, manager of the Aunor Gold Mine at South Porcupine, and an unidentified woman from Haileybury, were drowned in the choppy waters of Lake Timagami, 50 miles north of North Bay, when their canoe capsized in a squall.

Gordon (Curly) Holmes, 22, of Welland, suffered a punctured lung when the horses bolted tossing him under the roller. He was a star forward with Welland Falcons who captured the Ontario Juvenile B hockey championship in 1945.

Margaret Jennings, 76, found dead on the Canadian Pacific Railway tracks at Kemptville, was believed to have been struck early Tuesday by a west-bound Ottawa-Toronto train.

At Baden, eight miles southwest of Kitchener, Helen Schmidt 19-year-old Bible-study teacher, was killed when the car in which she was a passenger collided with a Canadian National Railways train.

Transportation Tie-Up

VANCOUVER, May 25—(CP)—British Columbia's three major cities were faced with the possibility of a transportation tie-up with the announcement Tuesday that 3,000 employees of the British Columbia Electric Railway Company had voted in favor of strike action to support their wage claims. In a government-supervised ballot Monday, the men also rejected the majority recommendation of a conciliation board which would have granted the employees a 40-hour week with no reduction in take-home pay by July 15.

Buy Surplus Milk

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP)—The 10,000,000 pounds of dried skim milk the government has decided to purchase to remove a surplus from Canada's dairy market likely will be donated to the United Nations Children's Emergency Fund, it was learned Monday night. Donation of the surplus still is under government consideration, but it is believed some member of the Cabinet will shortly make an announcement.

Wedding Plans Changed

CANNES, France, May 25—(AP)—Rita Hayworth and Aly Kahn will be married at a town hall just like ordinary folks under a decision of the French Ministry of Justice. The Hollywood actress and the Moslem prince were reported to have heard the news with consternation. They had made all plans for their civil wedding Friday on the assumption it would be held at the prince's seaside Chateau de l'Horizon.

Can Determine Sex

SAN DIEGO, Calif., May 25—(AP)—A method of determining sex before birth—as simple as blue for boys and pink for girls—was reported here during the week-end. The method, a microscopic stain test of material from the mother, was described by the Daily Journal as "promising to become infallible."

Elected State Deputy

NIAGARA FALLS, May 25—(CP)—Frank Hyde of Wallaceburg, state deputy of the Ontario District of the Knights of Columbus. Other officers elected at the district's annual meeting included: state secretary, Hugo Shaw, North Bay; treasurer, Ryan F. Lepage, Sarnia; past state deputy, J. Maurice King, Stratford.

SHRUBS FOR VETERANS: "I have heard that free shrubs are provided to veterans for planting around wartime houses. Is this true? Where should I write?"
Your house is one of those handled by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation. For shrubs and sodding write to W. C. O'Reilly, 395 Fleet Street West, Toronto.

SHUT-IN: "Two years ago I suffered a stroke and since that time am a partial cripple. Can you tell me if in Hamilton there are city hospitals which care for shut-ins of my type? My income from the old age pension board is not sufficient to pay my fees in a convalescent home."
We suggest that you contact Miss Merle Watson, Superintendent, St. Peter's Infirmary, Hamilton. She should be able to help you in this matter.

TRAIN TRAVEL: "What is a compartment on a train? What would the fare be from Toronto to Kamsack, Saskatchewan? Should it be reserved ahead of time? If the ticket is a return ticket, for how long is it good?"
A compartment on a train is a section including an upper and a lower berth. First class fare to Kamsack, Saskatchewan, would be $51.00 one way, $91.80 return. The compartment would cost an additional $34.00 for one person, $38.00 for two, each way. Reservations should be made several days in advance, at the latest. A return ticket is good for three months.

STREET CAR SICKNESS: "My nine-year-old son is troubled with street car sickness and has been ever since a tiny infant. He is all right riding for miles in a motor car. What tablets do you advise?"
Our medical expert suggests that your son be examined by a reliable doctor before any tablets are given him. Although effective, these tablets should not be given to young children unless prescribed by a doctor.

Waterloo Man Held For Assault

KITCHENER, May 25 (CP) — Leslie Dolson, 24, is scheduled to appear in court to-day on a charge of assault occasioning bodily harm in connection with the death Monday of Sylvester Duhaime, 60, in a sidewalk scuffle.

The charge against Dolson, a former Sudbury man who lives in Waterloo Township just outside the Kitchener city limits, was laid Tuesday. He was remanded without bail until to-day.

Police Chief Hilbert Schedewitz of Waterloo Township, said an autopsy report indicated that Duhaime's death was due primarily to a heart condition, with violence as a contributing factor. He said the man had been treated for the heart condition as recently as last December.

Witnesses said Duhaime collapsed and died during a scuffle with a man outside an apartment house in Waterloo Township. It was thought at first that he had been choked.

PICK BANANAS GREEN

All bananas, even those eaten locally in the tropics, are picked green, because they are not fit to eat if permitted to ripen on the plants.

THE EARL OF HAREWOOD, nephew of King George VI, has dinner with 22-year-old Marion Stein, pianist daughter of a music publisher's representative. The two are rumored to be engaged, but neither will comment on the reports. The 26-year-old earl is music critic for the New Statesman and Nation. Miss Stein formerly lived in Austria.

Blames Parents For Delinquents

TORONTO, May 25—(CP)—Mrs. Agnes Browne leaves for her native Ireland today, convinced that the modern generation is "just as good" as the youth of any age.

After 33 years' service in juvenile-court work and as a probation officer, the elderly, brown-eyed woman plans to make an extensive visit to the land of the birth.

The first woman probation officer appointed under The Probation Act of 1922, Mrs. Browne said in an interview that the great amount of good done by young people of today should not be overlooked "even if they do go haywire".

"Present-day boys and girls are faced with so many more temptations than in my generation," she said, "with cars, movies, comics and the hundred-and-one things to put ideas into their heads."

Now on retirement, she blamed the "careless or indifferent attitude" of parents for the majority of juvenile delinquents.

"And then the first time they go wrong, parents make excuses for them."

"Young people should be made to face an issue," she stressed. "They should not be excused."

About 3,000,000 square miles of the earth's surface are covered with ice the year round.

Film Students Earn More Than Teacher

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD, May 25 (AP)—How would you like to conduct a school where the students earn more than you do?

That's the unusual occupation of Mary MacDonald, who has been head of the M.G.M. studio school since 1932. Among her student body of eight are such names as Margaret O'Brien, Dean Stockwell, Claude Jarman, Jr., and the girl we'd most like to stay after school with—Elizabeth Taylor.

The film star-students are required to attend school from nine to 12 in the morning. High school pupils, like Miss Taylor, have to do homework as well.

Many Students

Miss MacDonald has seen such students as Lana Turner, Judy Garland, Mickey Rooney, Freddie Bartholomew, Jackie Cooper and Jane Powell come and go. I asked her which were the brightest.

"Now," she replied with schoolteacher caution, "you wouldn't want me to say that. Think how the ones I didn't name would feel." She also declined to name the dumbest.

Does she have any unusual disciplinary problems?

"No, the students are generally co-operative. Sometimes there are those who get some bad advice, from people who might say, 'Why do you mind her?—you're making more money than she is.' But most of our problems can be worked out. I have never had to use force yet."

Charge Caretaker With Wounding After Battling Trio At Farm

OTTAWA, May 25—(CP) — A shotgun blast, the wounding of a man and the arrest of a geese and ducks sanctuary caretaker Tuesday climaxed an early morning outing near the Dominion Experimental Farm in southwest Ottawa. A third person was charged with having beer in a place other than his own residence.

James Snider, 47-year-old caretaker, will appear in court today on a charge of wounding George Waselnuk, 28-year-old Canadian National Railways yardman, with a double-barreled shotgun. Pending court appearance he was released on bail of $500.

Waselnuk is in Ottawa Civic Hospital, suffering a wound in the left thigh. His condition was described as not serious. A companion, Charles Raymond Prankie, 23, of Ottawa, was charged with having beer in a place other than his own residence. He was freed on bail of $25.

Police said circumstances surrounding the shooting were somewhat vague and complicated, but they were able to piece together stories of eye-witnesses.

Inspector John Cavan said Waselnuk, Prankie and an unnamed third person purchased a case of beer Monday night and drove to the western limits of the sanctuary at Dow's Lake, on the edge of the experimental farm. Apparently considerable noise was made, arousing the caretaker and his wife.

Snider, believing dogs were attacking the geese and ducks, went to the spot with a cocked and loaded shotgun. His wife followed with a flashlight. Snider ordered the men away and brandished the shotgun.

Inspector Cavan said Waselnuk, Frankie and the unnamed third man were frightened by the gun and closed in on the caretaker. While wresting the gun from him, the weapon discharged and blasted pellets in Waselnuk's leg.

"From the stories offered in explanation by the principals, I have every reason to believe that the gun was discharged accidentally," said Inspector Cavan.

Steal $5,500 Bonds

PORT STANLEY, May 25—(CP)—Theft of a tin box containing $5,500 in bonds from the home of an aged couple here some time prior to Saturday night was reported Tuesday night to be under investigation by provincial police. Victim of the theft is said to be Alex Taylor, 81, who has been ill for many months.

COLUMBUS, O., May 25—(AP)—Philip A. Warner, 79, of New York, owner of the Canadian Mountain Exploration Company, died here Monday at the home of friends. A native of Boston, Warner established the Canadian gold mining company about four years ago. Company headquarters are in Dobie, Ont. Funeral services will be held here Wednesday.

Dies At Race Track

TORONTO, May 25 — (CP) — Gerald Lynham Porte Grant-Suttie, 60-year-old Lithuanian consul-general for Canada, died Tuesday after being stricken with a heart attack at the Woodbine racetrack clubhouse. He was appointed consul-general in 1937. Prominent in military circles, he held the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He passed the officers' long course at the Royal Military College, Kingston.

THOMAS HEGGAN, author of the book "Mr. Roberts" and co-author of the Broadway play of the same name, who was found dead in his bath tub in his New York City apartment. His income from the play was estimated at $4,000 per week.

How many things made of aluminum can you see on a street corner?

UNLESS you look at the pictures on the right, you'll hardly believe there can be so many.

Yet this is only a few of them. For aluminum has so many advantages that you may see hundreds of other things made of it — on the streets, in store windows, almost anywhere you look.

This is because aluminum is so very light, and strong, does not rust and has lots of other special features.

Today more than 1000 Canadian companies are making aluminum into so many kinds of useful and beautiful articles that no one can keep track of them all.

• • •

Why is this so? Because so many people all over the world want things made of aluminum we have been able to make more and more.

Because we have been able to make more, we have been able, over the last ten years, to reduce the price of aluminum ingot by 25%.

GARDEN CITY, Kas., May 25 —(AP). — Hail damage during last week-end may amount to several million dollars in the wheat fields of eight South-western Kansas counties, damage reports filed here indicate. Over 200 damage reports were received. Losses ranged upwards from 5 per cent. Many of them were total.

Crack Football Teams To Play In Toronto

MONTREAL, May 25.—(CP).—Walter McKellar, secretary of the Dominion Football Association, said today the Swedish Karmra terna team will play as scheduled against Newcastle United in Toronto June 15 and in New York June 19.

McKellar said he had a cable from the Football Association in London giving clearance for the two games. The D.F.A. also gave its endorsation to the matches.

Newcastle United, English First Division team, now is on a North American tour.

Moderator Dedicates Peace Memorial Camp

CORNWALL, May 25.—(CP).—Rt. Rev. C. Ritchie Bell, Montreal, moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, officiated Tuesday at dedication services at the Presbyterian Peace Memorial Camp near Lancaster. Dr. Bell dedicated the camp to the "glory of God and in memory of the men of the synod of Montreal and Ottawa who gave their lives in the Second World War."

Prior to the dedication a memorial plaque was unveiled by Rev. Dr. Donald Mackay, of Quebec City, moderator of the Montreal-Ottawa ynod.

Expect Little Change In Demand For Steel

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP) — Steel industry prospects beyond July are "looking more and more like 1937-38," Iron Age, metal-working trade weekly, says today.

"Then, orders dried up overnight and customers went on a hand-to-mouth buying slow-down," the publication recalls.

Noting that many steel men have been through three deflationary periods since 1920, Iron Age says:

"A lot of the optimism over the ability of business to hold up generally — without dipping sharply—comes from steel people who are comparative newcomers to their jobs."

But it adds: "No one in or out of the industry seems to expect a real and lasting depression in steel."

Despite cancellations by the strike-bound Ford Motor Company, "automobile steel demand is the brightest spot in the steel market." Ford, it says, has stopped delivery on as much steel as possible."

A further drop of $2 a ton on No. 1 steel scrap at Chicago this week depressed the iron age steel scrap composite price to $22.08 a gross ton. This marks a decline of $20.92 a ton since the first of the year.

Steel operations were placed at 94 per cent, down 1½ points for the week.

Heads Grand Lodge

WAKEFIELD, Que., May 25.—(CP).—Carl Smith of Kitchener, Ont., was elected Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of British America of the Orange Young Britons, at the lodge's annual meeting which closed here Tuesday.

Others elected included: Grand Chaplain Westley Adams, Toronto; Grand Treasurer, C. St. Willis, Toronto; Grand Director of Ceremonies, R. G. McCormack, Toronto.

Chatham was selected as the site of the next annual meeting.

A happy holiday crowd at Minett

Good Fun IN MUSKOKA

For a good time, it's pretty hard to beat the variety of gay summer activity at Muskoka. On the vacation programme: riding, steamer and launch cruises, golf, fishing, dancing, tennis, swimming—enough to make any holiday one to remember. And from Georgian Bay's rocky shore across to the edge of Algonquin Park—stretching north from the Severn 56 miles to Novar—there's over 1,600 square miles of happy Muskoka playground. The Tourist Development Association, Box 66, Gravenhurst, Ontario, will be glad to tell you about camp sites, cabins, cottages, resorts and hotels. You can take a train, a bus, a chartered plane—or drive to Muskoka from almost anywhere in Ontario in a matter of a few hours.

In Ontario we have a holiday paradise . . . let's do all we can to encourage visitors from across the border. Published in support of the tourist business by John Labatt Limited.

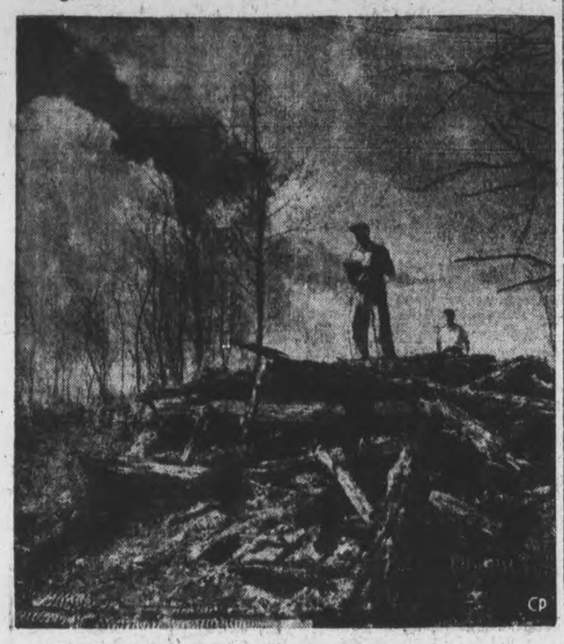
AID LUMBER SHORTAGE—From the charred forests of Ontario's Mississagi Forest some of the finest red and white pine lumber is being salvaged. Twenty contractors are operating 24 camps and employ 2,000 men. By July the cut is expected to reach 100,000,000 feet, equal to the total annual output of all eastern Canada. This Lands and Forests photo shows loggers handling some of the large trees being cut.

REMOVE TIMBER—When the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests completed their survey of the damage by the forest fires in the Mississagi area last summer, they found the salvage operation too large a venture for any individual lumbering concern to accept. It was considered hazardous to risk capital on this venture since much of the white and red pine might be ruined by the pine bore before it could be cut. To solve this problem, the Ontario government set up a program to assist private contractors. This Lands and Forest photo shows the horses owned by one such contractor hauling the cut trees from the forest. Most of the trees left standing are expected to resume growth despite the damage by the fire.



SURVEY DAMAGE—One of the bigest lumber-salvage operations in Eastern Canada in the past 50 years is underway in the charred wastes of Ontario's Mississagi Forest area swept by disastrous forest fires last summer. Immediately after the fires were extinguished, the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests made a survey of the burned-over region with the object of salvaging the timber. This Lands and Forests photo, taken last summer, shows a member of the survey crew listing the damage in one of the worst areas.

Put Out Small Fire On Canadian Freighter

BOMBAY, May 25—(Reuters)—Bombay port fire brigades put out a small fire aboard the 7,000-ton Canadian freighter Haligonian Princess in port with a cargo of coal for Calcutta.

The fire was reported "due to spontaneous combustion of coal." Damage was negligible.

The freighter is owned by Acadia Overseas Freighters Limited of Halifax.

Percy Council Meets

WARKWORTH, May 25 (ENS)—The Municipal Council of the township of Percy met in the hall with all the members present. Arthur Wartman, reeve presided and George Broadworth deputy-reeve and R. B. Nelson, Cecil Grills and Ambrose English Councillors were all present.

The Council was interviewed by Mr. Lewis Hay representing Trinidad Leaseholds, Canada Ltd with a view to erecting gasoline pumps on the property of Laver Transport. No action was taken.

Decide To Buy Books For Choir

MOUNT PLEASANT, May 25 (ENS)—The May meeting of the Mount Pleasant Women's Auxiliary was held at the home of Mrs. Audrey Bland, the president, Mrs. H. Lowes presiding. Mrs. D. Hayes was in charge of the devotional period during which Mrs. H. Gardiner read the Scripture lesson and Mrs. Hayes read a paper entitled "Youth and Christian Liberty."

The secretary, Mrs. D. Lawson, informed the members that the two quilts made early in the spring had been disposed of.

Mrs. Norman Free reported that the play "Lena Rivers," recently presented in Peterborough, is to be put on in the Institute hall here on May 27.

The members decided to buy new books for the choir and a committee was appointed to do the purchasing.

Mrs. T. Graham gave a report of the WA convention held at Norland on May 11.

The program consisted of readings given by Mrs Eric McLean, Mrs. Harry Jamieson, Mrs. G. McLean, Mrs. A. Tully, and Mrs. M. Jones. The Misses Christina and Ruth Bland sang a duet and Master Gordon Bland rendered two solos.

Flagpole Hits Wires Knocks 2 Unconscious

GRAND BEND, Ont., May 25—(CP)—Two men were knocked unconscious and a third suffered severe shock when a steel flagpole they were erecting Monday touched electric wires.

Wellwood Gill, 40, and Ross Lowe, 38, are in fair condition in hospital today at London, Ont. Ross Mason was able to walk to a nearby farmhouse and summon aid.

All three were trustees of the B-line school and were erecting the flagpole for today's holiday celebration.

Denies Split In Asbestos Strike

QUEBEC, May 25 (CP)—Labor Minister Barrett Tuesday denied a report in the weekly newspaper Ensign that he had submitted various plans to settle the Asbestos strike to Premier Duplessis and that the Premier refused to accept them.

He said the story in the English-language Roman Catholic paper "if false in every respect."

The person who made the statement did not know what he was talking about."

Commenting on the Ensign report that Mr. Barrette had submitted plans for settling the Asbestos strike only to have them refused by the Premier, Mr. Barrette said:

"We are in complete agreement towards the settling of the strike."

The Labor Department declared the Feb. 13 walk-out of 5,000 Asbestos workers illegal because the Asbestos workers had not presented their demands to an arbitration board as the law requires.

The Asbestos Syndicates are affiliated with the Canadian Catholic Confederation of Labor, now negotiating through its president, Gerard Picard, with Mr. Barrette.

Msgr. A. P. Parent, secretary of Laval University, denied another statement in the Ensign story that the provincial government was withholding its annual $50,000 grant to the University's School of Social Studies.

Msgr. Parent said the grant comes in three instalments for the year 1948-49 at the beginning of the month.

Jail Bishop 6 Months On Eviction Charge

WARSAW, May 24 — (AP) — Bishop Karol Niemira Tuesday was sentenced to six months in jail on a charge of causing the eviction of two Poles who lived at his parish house, the newspaper Zycie Warszawy reported.

The newspaper said the Roman Catholic bishop was convicted by a Warsaw district court of inciting parishioners from his pulpit to compel the two Polish women to surrender rooms they occupied.

Niemira is the first high church dignitary to be sentenced in the current conflict between the Catholic hierarchy and the Warsaw government.

CNR Exonerated Of Violating Act

ROCHESTER, N.Y., May 25 — (AP)—A Federal grand jury Tuesday exonerated the Canadian National Railways from a charge of violating the Immigration Act in bringing a train into the United States at Niagara Falls, N.Y., last July 31 without halting for inspection.

The United States government had charged that train 86 from Toronto, carrying 53 aliens, was permitted by railroad authorities to bypass immigration and naturalization men at Whirlpool Bridge

The grand jury did not give the reason for its action.

Firecracker Day 13 Youths Up One Burnt Eye

Teddy Fullbrook, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullbrook, 367 Rogers St., had an eye badly burnt by a firecracker Tuesday evening. He is now in St. Joseph's Hospital and his parents are awaiting a report from the specialists to know whether the sight of the eye will be affected.

The youngster picked up a used firecracker which had been burnt by a group of older boys in the street near his home. He took it into the back yard of his home where it exploded in his face. Mrs. Fullbrook believes the cracker had been discarded by the older boys when it was only half burnt out.

Fun and Nuisance

Firecrackers and fireworks delighted groups of youngsters and adults too, thrpughout the city as their May 24 celebrations concluded with displays in gardens and back yards. There were many organised after-dark parties when parents derived as much fun as their children letting off pin wheels, Roman candles and sparklers.

While most of the youngsters were enjoying the fun under adult supervision, there were others who caused nuisance and danger by throwing crackers among crowds at the Jaycee Jamboree, at pedestrians on Charlotte and George Sts., and at passing cars.

A group of lads between the ages of 12 and 19 threw firecrackers among the crowd of spectators on the grandstand at the Jamboree, burning clothes and running a risk of causing serious personal injuries. Crackers were also thrown in the Drill Hall later in the evening, despite the efforts of Jaycee members, Constable Don McKay and a fireman to stop the thoughtless teen-agers.

To Be Charged

Constables Leo Murphy and G. A. Edmison broke up a group of five teen-agers who were throwing crackers at cars and pedestrians outside the Barrie Building and an hour later, found the same boys causing the same type of disturbance on Charlotte St.

Today Chief Constable John Thompson will charge 13 youths with causing a disturbance.

CAUSE NO FIRES

Despite the large number of firecrackers being thrown about city streets on Tuesday there were no alarms from that source received by the Fire Department. A box was pulled at Armour Rd. and Hazlitt St. shortly before 10 p.m. and the Fire Chief's car raced up from Morrow Park to investigate. It was a false alarm.

ADMIT 1,883 PEOPLE

Paid admission at the main gate of Morrow Park on Tuesday where the Jaycee Jamboree was held was 1,883. Of these 1,519 were adults and 364 children between the ages of 10 and 16 years. Those younger than 10 years were admitted free.

JAYCEE JAMBOREE WON A BATTLE against threatening weather conditions on Tuesday. They were prudent enough to have rain insurance and officials kept a watchful eye on softball and harness racing as well as the rain guage. Shown in the Upper photo Ron Nelson, Oshawa Pedlar's, swings at a fast delivery as catcher Graydon Rogers, Belleville's CNR Nationals, stops it and the play is called by referee Dave Grant, Peterborough. Lower photo, Left to Right, races announcer Hal. B. Watson, racing timer John Thompson and Jaycee's civic affairs chairman G. B. Lathangue watch president Doug. Rev. C. J. Carroll Celebrates Silver Jubilee

NORWOOD, May 25 (ENS)—Rev. C. J. Carroll, pastor of St. Paul's Church, celebrated on the Tuesday holiday the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood in the presence of a large congregation of relatives and friends. In his high mass of thanksgiving he was assisted by Very Rev. J. V. McAuley of Lindsay as deacon and Rev. Leo Rishea of Wooler.

His Excellency Bishop Gerald Berry was present in the sanctuary with his chaplains, Rev. P. P. Butler of Peterborough, and Rev. J. J. Garvey, Hastings. The master of ceremonies was Rev. John Coughlan, assisted by Rev. F. M. Fitzpatrick.

Attending clergy of the diocese who walked in procession from the rectory to the church included Rev. Joseph Walsh as crossbearer, and Rev. Gerald Gaughan and Rev. Ray Garvey as acolytes.

Others present in the sanctuary during the celebration of mass were Rt. Rev. F. J. O'Sullivan, V.G., D.P.; and Rt. Rev. J. J. O'Brien, both of Peterborough.

In addition to all the congratulations and tributes that were paid to Father Carroll during the day's events, including the noon luncheon, formal presentations of gifts from the parishioners of Norwood and Havelock and from fellow members of the clergy of the diocese of Peterborough were made.

The address from the joint congregation was read by Lou Boland. It was signed deputatively by F. Voyer, Michael Calnan, Frank Windfield, John Fitzpatrick and Joseph Hurley. The presentation from the parishioners of Havelock was made by Frank Voyer, and from those of Norwood by Richard Heffernan.

Expression of Thanks

In his expression of thanks for all the kindness that had been shown to him, Father Carroll said the day's celebration was more of a parish honor and festivity than a personal one. He said the strong faith and devotion of the people of Norwood and Havelock had been a great source of joy and consolation to him in his work among them.

Father Carroll said he was grateful to God for the many favors and blessings he had received in the 25 years of his priesthood, and especially for the happiness of having his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll of Young's Point, present with him on the glad morning of his jubilee. He thanked Bishop Berry and the members of the clergy for their presence, including those who came from outside the diocese of Peterborough.

The sermon was by Rev. J. J. McCarthy, Douro, on St. Paul's text "You have not chosen Me; I have chosen you." The duly ordained priest, he said, was God's special envoy, not a self-appointed one. The priestly vocation was a commission direct from God. The words and works of the priest were invested with the majesty and power of God.

The two parishes that comprise the charge in the care of Father Carroll are St. Paul's of Norwood and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Havelock.

An address was read to Father Carroll from the priests of the diocese by Rev. J. P. Collins of Cobourg, and their gift of a purse was presented by Rev. J. C. Moloney of Campbellford.

Rev. J. J. Garvey as toastmaster extended the felicities of the occasion to Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll, parents of the priest who was being honored. "As a former pastor of Lakefield and Young's Point and as one who knew them intimately, I can say that to them religion and life were synonymous terms."

In replying to the toast to the village of Norwood, Reeve Rork Ferguson said he was glad to be present and offer his congratulations to Father Carroll.
